The time did finally come, as will be related towards the end of the Surah (verse 89), when he told them, "Do you know what you did to Yusuf and his brother when you were ignorant?" This revelation sent by Allāh consoled Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام because he realised that Allāh would rescue him from the well and eventually grant him an elevated position from which he could fearlessly remind his brothers of their deed.

Continuing with the story, Allāh says, "They came weeping to their father that night. They said, 'O our father! We went racing and left Yusuf with our goods, when a wolf devoured him. But you will not believe us even though we are truthful.'"

To substantiate their claim, they removed the shirt of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام before throwing him into the well and smeared the blood of some animal on it. Referring to this Allāh says, "They came with false blood on his shirt."

However, they failed to rip up the shirt to indicate that the wolf devoured Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. Therefore, when Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام saw the shirt in perfect order, he realised that they were lying. For this reason, he told them, "But your souls have contrived this matter for you. However (nothing can now be done to rectify the matter, therefore), I shall exercise patience without any complaint, and I shall seek Allāh's assistance against what you have devised."

It is learnt from this that the believer (Mu'min) exercises patience and seeks Allāh's assistance at the same time.

وَجَاءَتْ سَيَّارَةٌ فَأَرْسَلُوا وَارِدَهُمْ فَأَدْلَى دَلْوَهُ قَالَ يَبْشَرِي هَذَا غُلَامٌ وَأَسْفَضَ
وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَشَرَوْهُ بِثَمَنٍ بَخْسٍ دَرَاهِمَ مَعْدُودَةٍ وَكَانُوا
فِيهِ مِنَ الزَّاهِدِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾

(19) A caravan approached and they sent a person to fetch water. He lowered his bucket and exclaimed, "What luck! There is a boy here!" They hid him as trading stock, and Allāh had perfect knowledge of what they did. (20) They sold him at the meagre price of a few dirhams and they showed no interest in him.

SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام IS REMOVED FROM THE WELL AND SOLD AS A SLAVE

While Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was in the well, a caravan halted nearby and the travellers sent a person to get water for them. As he lowered his bucket into the well, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام grabbed hold of it and the person was utterly surprised to see him hanging onto it. He shouted, "What luck! There is a boy here!"

When he took Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to the rest of the group, they decided to sell him as a slave in Egypt. Therefore, "They hid him as trading stock, and Allāh had perfect knowledge of what they did."

The brothers of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام looked for him when they did not find him in the well. When they found him with the caravan, they told the people that he was their escaped slave, but they now desired to sell him. So "They sold him at the meagre price of a few dirhams and they showed no interest in him." Although they could have asked a better price for him, they accepted a meagre amount because they merely wished to get rid of him.

Ibn Kathīr reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that they sold him for 20 Dirhams. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله says that the figure was 22 Dirhams, while according to Sayyidina Ikrama رحمه الله, it was 40 Dirhams. Since no law of the Shari'ah is derived from this, it is not necessary to determine it accurately. However, two Ahadith will be quoted here in this regard.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh says, 'I shall be the plaintiff against three people on the Day of Judgement. (They are):

1. The one who made a pledge using My name and then breached it.
2. The one who sold a free person as a slave and then consumed the price.
3. "The person who extracted labour from another and then did not pay him his dues." [Mishkāt p. 258]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The Salāh of three persons will not be accepted. (These are):

1. The person who leads people in Salāh while they dislike him.
2. The person who performs Salāh when the time is about to expire.
3. "The person who makes another a slave." [Abu Dawūd and Ibn Majah]

Therefore, in addition to their sin of taking Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام away from his father, the brothers earned the sin of making a slave of a free person.

وَقَالَ الَّذِي اشْتَرَاهُ مِنْ مِصْرَ لِامْرَأَتِهِ أَكْرِمِي مَثْوَاهُ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَنْفَعَنَا أَوْ نَتَّخِذَهُ وَلَدًا وَكَذَلِكَ مَكَّنَّا لِيُوسُفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلِنُعَلِّمَهُ مِن تَأْوِيلِ الْأَحَادِيثِ
وَاللَّهُ غَالِبٌ عَلَىٰ أَمْرِهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَلَمَّا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ
ءَاتَيْنَاهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا وَكَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

(21) The person from Egypt who bought Yusuf عليه السلام told his wife, "Take proper care of him. Perchance he may be of use to us or we may take him as a son." In this manner We granted authority to Yusuf in that land so that We may teach him the interpretation of dreams. Allāh is Predominant over His affairs, but most people do not know. (22) When he came of age, We granted him wisdom and knowledge. Thus do We reward those who do good.

A MINISTER OF EGYPT BUYS SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام AND CARES FOR HIM SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام RECEIVES THE PROPHETHOOD

The people of the caravan sold Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to the minister who was in charge of the finances of Egypt. This was the first step for Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to the kingship of Egypt. This minister instructed his wife saying, "Take proper care of him. Perchance he may be of use to us or we may take him as a son." It is reported that the minister made the above statement because he had no children.

According to certain commentators, the minister's name was Qitfir. They attribute this narration to Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. His wife's name is famously known to be Zulaykha. Some say that her name was Rā'il. However, the same youth that was once in a dark well was now enjoying the luxuries of a minister's home. The people of Egypt also began to look up to him because he lived with the minister. Referring to this Allāh says, "in this manner We granted authority to Yusuf in that land..."

"...so that We may teach him the interpretation of dreams." This knowledge contributed to his becoming a minister himself, as will be seen later.

"Allāh is Predominant over His affairs, but most people do not know."! Allāh does as He pleases and none can prevent Him from doing so. Allāh willed that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام would receive the necessary education and proper upbringing in the home of the minister. Since he was to become the minister of Egypt's finances at a later stage, he was well trained in the field while staying with the minister.

"When he came of age, We granted him wisdom and knowledge." This refers to his receiving the position of the Prophethood. Therefore the revelation that he received in the well was not Prophetic revelation, but inspiration that occurs to non Prophets. The same occurred to the mother of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, about whom Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "We sent revelation (inspiration) to the mother of Mūsa to suckle him...." [Surah 28, verse 7]

"Thus We reward those who do good." This verses refers to those people who possess the quality of 'ihsān.' They are those who possess sincere intention when acting, and they perform their actions properly. Allāh will reward them well.

وَرَوَدَتْهُ الَّتِي هُوَ فِي بَيْتِهَا عَنْ نَفْسِهِ وَعَلَّقَتِ الْأَبْوَابَ وَقَالَتْ هَيْتَ لَكَ قَالَ
مَعَاذَ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ رَبِّي أَحْسَنَ مَثْوَايَ إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾

(23) The woman in whose house he was, attempted to seduce him to achieve her objectives. She locked the doors and said, "I am telling you to come to me." He said, "I seek refuge with Allāh! Indeed my caretaker has treated me honourably. Surely the oppressors will never succeed."

THE WIFE OF THE MINISTER ATTEMPTS TO SEDUCE SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام BUT HE REMAIN CHASTE

Since Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was an extremely handsome youth, the wife of the minister became infatuated with him. In her attempts to seduce him, she locked all the doors of the house and then requested him to respond to her charms. The trial was indeed great for Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. He was young and healthy and the woman was not just any low class person but the wife of the minister. He had been raised in her home and it was therefore difficult to refuse her.

Despite all of this, he declined by saying, "I seek refuge with Allāh!" He understood that only Allāh could protect him from falling into sin. He then added, 'indeed my caretaker (i.e. your husband) has treated me honourably.' He mentioned to her that it would be disloyal of him to respond to her desires, since her husband was the one who had treated him so well and cared for him so generously.

"Surely the oppressors will never succeed." If he were to accept her proposal to commit adultery, he would be oppressing himself by subjecting himself to the punishment of the Hereafter. In addition to this he would be betraying his benefactor viz, the minister.

Certain commentators have mentioned that the word 'Rabbi' (translated above as 'my caretaker') refers to Allāh. The Quranic word 'my Rabb (Lord)' may also be literally translated as 'master,' 'caretaker,' and 'owner.' The prohibition in the Ahadith from calling a person "My Lord (My Rabb)," refers to usage of the term in general speech. This is so that none may abuse this term.

وَلَقَدْ هَمَّتْ بِهِ وَهَمَّ بِهَا لَوْلَا أَنْ رَأَى بُرْهَانَ رَبِّهِ كَذَلِكَ لِنَصْرِفَ عَنْهُ السُّوءَ
وَالْفَحْشَاءَ إِنَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَأَسْتَبَقَا الْبَابَ وَقَدَّتْ قَمِيصَهُ مِنْ
دُبُرٍ وَأَلْفَيَا سَيِّدَهَا لَدَا الْبَابِ قَالَتْ مَا جَزَاءُ مَنْ أَرَادَ بِأَهْلِكَ سُوءًا إِلَّا أَنْ يُسْجَنَ أَوْ
عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٥﴾ قَالَ هِيَ رَوَدْتَنِي عَنْ نَفْسِي وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْ أَهْلِهَا إِنْ كَانَتْ
قَمِيصُهُ قُدَّ مِنْ قُبُلٍ فَصَدَقَتْ وَهُوَ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَإِنْ كَانَتْ قَمِيصُهُ قُدَّ مِنْ دُبُرٍ
فَكَذَبَتْ وَهُوَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَى قَمِيصَهُ قُدَّ مِنْ دُبُرٍ قَالَ إِنَّهُ مِنْ
كَيْدِكُنَّ إِنَّ كَيْدَكُنَّ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ يُوسُفُ أَعْرِضْ عَنْ هَذَا وَاسْتَغْفِرِي لِذَنبِكِ
إِنَّكَ كُنتِ مِنَ الْخَاطِئِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(24) She was determined to achieve her objectives from him, and he also would have intended the same had he not seen the proof of his Lord. In this manner (Our fate had decreed the matter) so that We averted evil and lewdness from him. Indeed he was from Our sincere bondsmen. (25) They both raced for the door and she tore his shirt from the back. Then they encountered her master at the door. She said, "The only penalty for him who intended evil with your wife is that he be imprisoned, or some other torturous punishment." (26) Yusuf عليه السلام said, "It was she who tried to seduce me to attain her motives." A witness from her family testified by saying, "If his shirt is torn from the front, then she is truthful and he is from the liars. (27) However, if his shirt is torn from the back, then she is lying and he is from the truthful." (28) When he saw that his shirt was torn from the back, he said, "This is definitely from the trickery of you women. Your trickery is indeed very dangerous." (29) "O Yusuf! Overlook this. (O woman!) Seek forgiveness for your sin. You were truly of the sinners.

THE TWO RACE FOR THE DOOR AND FIND HER HUSBAND THERE. HE ADMONISHES HER FOR BEING SINFUL AND ENJOINS HER TO REPENT

"She was determined to achieve her objectives from him (as can be seen by the fact that she locked all the doors), and he also would have intended the same had he not seen the proof of his Lord." Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was the Holy Prophet of Allāh and the entire Ummah is unanimous that no Prophet عليه السلام could commit a sin. This being the case, the question then arises that what is the meaning of the phrase that he "intended the same?"

The simplest explanation is that which is understood from the translation of the verse i.e. "he also would have intended the same had he not seen the proof of his Lord." Since he saw the "proof of his Lord", he did not even intend to commit the sin.

Certain commentators have interpreted the verse "intended the same," to mean that his natural human instincts intended to commit the act; however he restrained this when he saw the "proof of his Lord."

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 12 p.214) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the "proof of his Lord" was a vision of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام that he saw before him. In this vision Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام struck him on the chest. [Hākimi v. 2 p.346]

The "Hilya" Abu Nuaim reports from Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that when she intended to see Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, Zulaykha covered an idol that stood in the corner of the home. When Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام asked her why she was doing that, she replied that she was ashamed of committing the sin in front of her god. Thereupon he said, "If you are ashamed of an idol that can neither eat nor drink (i.e. it has no life), how can I not be ashamed of my Lord, Who is aware of every person and every action?" This incident was the "proof" that he saw.

Other commentators maintain that this "proof" was the "wisdom and knowledge" (verse 22) that Allāh gave to him when he attained the Prophethood. It was this that prevented him from succumbing to her charms.

Believers (Mu'minīn) are also reminded by Allāh when they intend to perpetrate a sin. The reminder is in the form of uneasiness and hesitance within the heart. Sayyidina Nawās bin Sam'ān رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once cited an example to them. The example was of a straight road having two walls on either side, both of them having open doors with curtains drawn upon them. At the beginning of the road is another door from where a caller calls out, "O people! Travel the road, but do not be influenced by what is around you.

At the end of the road is another door. Whenever a person tries to open one of the doors at the side, a caller calls out from that door saying, "Shame on you! Do not open the door! If you open the door and enter into it (it will not be good for you)."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then explained that the example of the straight road is that of Islām. The walls on either side are the limits set by Allāh, and the open doors indicate Allāh's prohibitions. The caller at the beginning of the road is Allāh's Book and the caller at every door is the admonisher that is in the heart of every Muslim. [Bayhaqi in Shu'abul Imān v. 5 p.445]

If every Muslim has such a reminder, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام must have also possessed the same.

"In this manner (Our fate had decreed the matter) so that We averted evil and lewdness from him. Indeed he was from Our sincere bondsmen." In his determination to escape, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام raced for the door and Zulaykha ran after him. In an attempt to stop him, she grabbed hold of the back of his shirt. However, he still raced on and "she tore his shirt from the back."

Although the doors were locked, he still ran towards them in an earnest attempt to escape. Allāh assisted him by throwing the door open for him. The lesson is learnt that a person should do whatever is in his capability to escape sin, even though the odds are against him. Allāh will do the rest for him.

Certain commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام raced for a door that had a window in it, from which he managed to escape. Whatever the case, Allāh allowed him an exit. As they exited the door "they encountered her master (her husband) at the door." Seizing the opportunity to absolve herself of blame, "She said, 'The only penalty for him who intended evil with your wife is that he be imprisoned, or some other torturous punishment.'"

"Yusuf عليه السلام said, 'it was she who tried to seduce me to attain her motives.'" It is learnt from this that defending one's honour is not against piety, even though it entails attributing the blame to the guilty party. A believer (Mu'min) should never labour under suspicion.

The minister lived many years with Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام and knew that he was upright and pious. It was for this reason that he did not immediately accept the word of his wife. It is possible that he believed that she was guilty from the very outset but did not say anything until the matter resolved.

Allāh resolved the matter by causing an infant child from her family to serve as witness to the incident. Allāh says, "A witness from her family testified by saying, 'If his shirt is torn from the front, then she is truthful and he is from the liars. However, if his shirt is torn from the back, then she is lying and he is from the truthful.'"

"When he (the husband) saw that his shirt was torn from the back, he said, 'This is definitely from the trickery of you women. Your trickery is indeed very dangerous.'"

Once, on the way to perform the Eid Salāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed some women saying, "I have not seen anything more destructive to the intelligence of a wise man than you women." [Bukhari v. 1 p.197]

In another hadith the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The most destructive test to man that will be left after my demise will be that of women." [Mishkāt p. 267]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "Fear Allāh and fear the trial of women, for verily the first cause of corruption among the Bani Isra'il was because of women." [Muslim v. 2 p. 353]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "Women are the snares of Shaytān (i.e. Shaytān uses them to entrap man in sin and vice)." [Mishkāt p. 444]

The witness did not testify that he saw what happened, but mentioned this fact in such a manner that it clearly exposed the guilt of the woman.

Hākimi reports in his "Mustadrak" from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated the following incident to them. He told them that when he ascended the heavens during the ascension (Mi'rāj), he smelt a most beautiful scent. When he asked the angels accompanying him from where the scent came, they said that it was from the woman who used to comb the hair of Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) family.

Once she dropped the comb while combing the hair of Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) daughter. Thereupon she said, "Bismillah!" The girl asked her whose name she had taken, and why did she not take the name of her father Pharaoh (Fir'aun) instead. She replied, "I have taken the name of the One Who is my Lord, your Lord and the Lord of your father." When Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) daughter threatened to report that matter to her father, the lady permitted her to do so.

When Pharaoh (Fir'aun) learnt of the incident, he summoned the lady with her children. When she appeared before Pharaoh (Fir'aun), she asked that a request of hers be fulfilled. When Pharaoh (Fir'aun) asked what the request was, she replied that she wanted her bones and the bones of her children to be buried. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) acknowledged this.

Thereafter he began to kill every one of her children and cast their bodies in a pit or in a fire. Eventually only the smallest child was left. This child was still feeding off the breast of the mother. This little child spoke to the mother saying, "O my mother! Be patient because you are on the truth." This child was then disposed of with the mother.

After relating this account, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that throughout history there have been only four infants who spoke in their infancy. The first was this very child. The second was the witness for Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. The third was the one who testified to the innocence of the monk Juraij, and the fourth was Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. [Hākimi v. 2 p.496]

This hadith proves that the witness was an infant. According to certain commentators, the infant was the son of Zulaykha's maternal aunt, while others maintain that it was the son of her paternal uncle.

After learning of the truth, the minister said, "O Yusuf Overlook this." i.e. . Let the matter rest and do not disclose it to anyone.

Then, turning his attention to his wife, he said, "Seek forgiveness for your sin. You were truly of the sinners." Although she was unsuccessful in her attempt, she was still sinful for trying to seduce him and making the effort to achieve her aims.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The adultery of the eyes is to look (at a non Mahram), the adultery of the ears is to listen (to one), the adultery of the tongue is to speak (to one), the adultery of the hands is to hold (to one), the adultery of the feet is to walk (to one), the adultery of the heart is to desire (one), and the private organs either accomplish the act (of adultery) or deny the same." [Mishkāt p. 20]

The question is raised how could she seek forgiveness when she was not a believer? In reply, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that although the people there worshipped idols, they believed in the existence of a Creator. They acknowledged sin and that one would be punished for it. This belief is even prevalent among the Hindus of India.

❖ وَقَالَ نِسْوَةٌ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ امْرَأَتُ الْعَزِيزِ تُرَاوِدُ فَتَاهَا عَنْ نَفْسِهِ قَدْ شَغَفَهَا حُبًّا

إِنَّا لَنَرْنَهَا فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ فَلَمَّا سَمِعَتْ بِمَكْرِهِنَّ أَرْسَلَتْ إِلَيْهِنَّ وَأَعْتَدَتْ لَهُنَّ مُتَّكًا
وَأَتَتْ كُلَّ وَجْدَةٍ مِّنْهُنَّ سِكِّينًا وَقَالَتْ أَخْرِجْ عَلَيْهِنَّ فَلَمَّا رَأَيْنَهُ أَكْبَرْنَهُ وَقَطَّعْنَ أَيْدِيَهُنَّ
وَقُلْنَ حَاشَ لِلَّهِ مَا هَذَا بَشَرًا إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا مَلَكٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٣١﴾ قَالَتْ فَذَلِكُنَّ الَّذِي لُمْتُنَّنِي
فِيهِ وَلَقَدْ رَودْنَاهُ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ فَاِسْتَعْصَمَ وَلَئِن لَّمْ يَفْعَلْ مَا ءَامُرُهُ لَيُسْجَنَ وَلَيَكُونَا مِّنَ
الصَّاغِرِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾

(30) Some women of the town said, "The minister's wife attempts to seduce her slave to fulfil her motives. Love has certainly overwhelmed her. Indeed we deem her to be in manifest error." (31) When she heard of their plot, she sent for them and prepared a meeting place for them, setting cushions there. She gave each of them a knife and then told Yusuf, "Come out before them!" When they saw him, they were taken aback, cut their hands and exclaimed, "Allāh is Pure! This cannot be a human! He is surely a noble angel!" (32) She said, "This is what you were criticising me for. Indeed I attempted to seduce him to achieve my motives, but he escaped. If he does not do as I command him, he shall certainly be imprisoned and he will definitely become of those humiliated."

THE WOMEN OF THE TOWN CRITICISE THE WIFE OF THE MINISTER, SHE INVITES THEM TO GIVE HER REPLY AND THEY CUT THEIR HANDS

Although the minister told Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to keep the matter a secret, the news somehow reached the women of the town. They began to gossip among themselves and expressed disbelief that a married woman of noble class could become infatuated with a slave. Neither were they compatible in rank, nor in age. The only reason they saw was that they said, "Love has certainly overwhelmed her." Love has blinded her to all sense. They added, "Indeed we deem her to be in manifest error."

"When she (the minister's wife) heard of their plot..." The word "plot" is used because, although they seemed to be merely gossiping, their actual plan was that they wanted her to show Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to them in an attempt to exonerate herself. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

So she, "sent for them? and prepared a meeting place for them, setting cushions there (to make it comfortable for them). She gave each of them a knife..." Certain commentators have mentioned that she gave them the knives to cut some meat that they could not eat by merely biting. Others state that the knives were to cut some fruit like oranges that also needed cutting. A rare form of Qur'ānic recitation supports this opinion because it contains the word "Mutaka'an," which is translated as 'citron' or 'orange.' "Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported this recitation from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Mujāhid عليه رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Qatādah عليه رضى الله عنه.

At the precise moment when the women were cutting, the minister's wife called to Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام saying, "Come out before them!" The result was "When they saw him, they were taken aback, (and, in their amazement, instead of cutting the food before them, they) cut their hands and exclaimed, 'Allāh is Pure! This cannot be a human! He is surely a noble angel!'"

They said this because it is commonly believed that angels possess beauty beyond comprehension and that devils are ugly. Allāh had bestowed Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام with exceptional beauty. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met him when he went on ascension (Mi'rāj) and said, "Indeed he has been conferred half the beauty of the world."

When the women cut their hands, the minister's wife told them, "This is what you were criticising me for." She meant to express to them that just as they were unable to contain themselves when they saw him and cut their hands, she was unable to prevent herself from falling in love with him.

She continued to tell them, "Indeed I attempted to seduce him to achieve my motives, but he escaped." She now admitted to the women what she had previously denied before her husband. In this statement she exonerated Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام from blame. However, she was still not repentant and told them. "If he does not do as I command him, he shall certainly be imprisoned and he will definitely become of those humiliated."

قَالَ رَبِّ السِّجْنُ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِمَّا يَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ وَإِلَّا تَصْرِفْ عَنِّي كَيْدَهُنَّ أَصْبُ إِلَيْهِنَّ
وَأَكُنُّ مِنَ الْجَاهِلِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ فَاسْتَجَابَ لَهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ فَصَرَفَ عَنْهُمْ كَيْدَهُنَّ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ
﴿٣٤﴾ ثُمَّ بَدَأْ لَهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا رَأَوُا الْآيَاتِ لَيْسَجْنُهُمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٣٥﴾

(33) Yusuf عليه السلام prayed, "O my Lord! The prison is dearer to me than that towards which these women call me. If You do not avert their plot from me, I shall incline towards them and become of the ignorant." (34) So his Lord accepted his prayer and averted their plot from him. Undoubtedly, He is the All Hearing, All Knowing. (35) Then, after reviewing the signs, it occurred to them that they should imprison him for a while.

SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام PRAYS TO ALLĀH TO RATHER HAVE HIM IMPRISONED INSTEAD OF ALLOWING HIM TO FALL PREY TO THE PLOT OF THE WOMEN

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was never safe from the plots of the minister's wife since they shared the same home and she was adamant to seduce him yet again, as she had mentioned. She threatened to have him imprisoned if he did not comply with her wishes, and she had also made mention of imprisonment to her husband when she said, "The only penalty for him who intended evil with your wife is that he be imprisoned, or some other torturous punishment."

Since the other women were now also awestruck by his beauty, the additional danger now existed that they would also attempt to seduce him. Apprehensive of this, he prayed to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! The prison is dearer to me than that towards which these women call me. If You do not avert their plot from me, (being overcome by my natural instincts) I shall incline towards them and become of the ignorant."

Even though the Prophets عليهم السلام were protected by Allāh from committing sins Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام made this supplication (du'ā) because of his profound aversion to sins. He feared becoming of those who do not practise their knowledge.

"So his Lord accepted his prayer and averted their plot from him. Undoubtedly, He is the All Hearing, All Knowing." Allāh made it such that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام eventually was sent to jail. The minister and his advisor were concerned about the situation. Although they realised that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was innocent, something had to be done to quell the growing speculation in the town since the women were carrying many tales to their husbands.

Therefore "after reviewing the signs [i.e. the innocence of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام], it occurred to them that they should imprison him for a while (until the tumult subsided)."

The first of the "signs" was that his shirt was torn from the back. The other was that an infant spoke in his defence, and the third was that he had sustained some injuries in his attempt to escape. There could have been several others as well.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله has reported (v. 9 p.184) that when Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام made the above supplication to Allāh, Allāh told him, "O Yusuf! You have yourself asked to be imprisoned. If you had asked for safety, I would have granted it to you." It is learnt from here that a person should never ask Allāh to resolve his problem in a specific manner. He should merely request Allāh to deliver him from the problem, and Allāh would do so in the most befitting manner. When a person presents the solution to Allāh, he could be placing himself in undue difficulty.

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once visited an ailing Muslim whose voice had become extremely weak and his body had become as frail as a fledgling. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recommended that he continues making supplication (du'ā) to Allāh. Thereupon he said that he always prayed to Allāh to grant him the punishment for his sins in this world rather than in the next. Hearing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exclaimed, "Subhān Allāh! What resistance do you have against punishment? Why did you rather not pray thus, 'O Allāh! Grant me the good of this world and the good of the Hereafter and save me from the punishment of the Fire.'" [Muslim v. 2 p.343]

Another Sahābi رضى الله عنه prayed to Allāh to grant him patience. Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You have prayed for difficulty (because patience is only needed then), so now pray for safety." [Mishkāt p. 214]

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Ask Allāh for forgiveness and 'Āfiyah' (safety, good health and well being) for after belief (Imān) there is no greater wealth than Āfiyah." [Mishkāt p. 219]

وَدَخَلَ مَعَهُ السِّجْنَ فَتَيَانٍ قَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا إِنِّي أَرَانِي أَعْصِرُ خَمْرًا وَقَالَ الْآخَرُ إِنِّي
 أَرَانِي أَحْمِلُ فَوْقَ رَأْسِي خُبْرًا تَأْكُلُ الطَّيْرُ مِنْهُ نَبَأْنَا بِتَأْوِيلِهِ إِنَّا نَنْبَأُكَ مِنَ
 الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾

¶(36) Two youths entered the prison with him. One of them said, "Indeed I see myself (in a dream) squeezing wine." The other said, "I see myself carrying bread upon my head, from which birds are eating." (They requested) "Inform us of the interpretation. We truly deem you to be of the righteous."

TWO CONVICTS ENTER THE PRISON AND REQUEST SAYYIDINA YUSUF عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام TO INTERPRET THEIR DREAMS

The convicts in the jail were impressed by the exceptional behaviour of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. The light of the Prophethood that he bore as well as his apparent beauty impressed them. Even the jailer admitted that he would have freed Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام if he had the authority. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 2 p.426]

Thereafter two new captives entered the jail. Commentators mention that certain conspirators had used the two of them in an attempt to assassinate the king of Egypt. The one served drinks to the king, while the other baked his bread. They were both bribed to poison the king.

Initially they both accepted the offer, but the one who served drinks later decided to abandon the plot. When the baker served the bread, the one who served drinks warned the king not to eat it because it was poisoned. Thereupon the baker warned the king not to drink anything since it was also poisoned.

The king then asked the server of drinks to drink from what he had served. He did so without hesitation and was unaffected. When the king told the baker to eat the bread, he flatly refused. The bread was then given to an animal, and it died. The king then ordered that the two be arrested, pending investigation.

They both saw dreams "One of them (the one who served drinks) said, 'Indeed I see myself (in a dream) squeezing (grapes to make) wine.' The other (the baker) said, 'I see myself carrying bread upon my head, from which birds are eating.'" Relating their dreams to Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, they asked him, "Inform us of the interpretation. We truly deem you to be of the righteous."

قَالَ لَا يَأْتِيَكُمَا طَعَامٌ تُرْزَقَانِهِ إِلَّا نَبَأَكُمَا بِتَأْوِيلِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمَا ذَلِكُمَا مِمَّا
 عَلَّمَنِي رَبِّي إِنِّي تَرَكْتُ مِلَّةَ قَوْمٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾
 وَاتَّبَعْتُ مِلَّةَ آبَائِي ابْرَهِيمَ وَاسْحَقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ مَا كَانُوا لَنَا أَنْ نُشْرِكَ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
 ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْنَا وَعَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾
 يَصْدِحُّ السِّجْنَ ۖ أَزْبَابٌ مُتَفَرِّقُونَ خَيْرٌ أَمِ اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ ﴿٣٩﴾ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ

مِنْ دُونِهِ إِلَّا أَسْمَاءَ سَمَّيْتُمُوهَا أَنْتُمْ وَءَابَاؤُكُمْ مِمَّا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ بِهَا مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ
 إِنَّ الْحُكْمَ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ أَمَرَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ ذَلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ
 لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(37) Yusuf عليه السلام replied, "I shall inform you of the interpretation before the food provided for you arrives. This is from the knowledge that my Lord has taught me. I have discarded the religion (D'in) of those people who do not believe in Allāh and who reject the Hereafter." (38) "I have adopted the creed of my forefathers, Ibrāhīm, Is'hāq and Ya'qūb. It does not befit us to ascribe any partners to Allāh. This is from the favours upon us and upon all people, but most people are ungrateful." (39) "O my two prison companions! Are numerous gods better or Allāh, Who is The One and The Almighty?" (40) "Besides Him, you worship only names that you and your forefathers have named without any revealed warrant from Allāh. Decisions rest only with Allāh. He has commanded that only He be worshipped. This is the right religion (D'in), but most people know it not."

BEFORE PROVIDING THE INTERPRETATION, SAYYIDINA YUSUF عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام PREACHED ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) TO THE TWO

When the two prisoners requested for an interpretation of their dreams, "Yusuf عليه السلام replied, 'I shall inform you of the interpretation before the food provided for you arrives.'" However, he wished first to tell them of his responsibility as the Holy Prophet. Any preacher understands that he requires to seek the perfect opportunity for his message. No occasion can be more opportune than when the addressee requires something from the preacher. At such a moment, he is willing to accept almost anything.

Although he seemed to be addressing the two new convicts, his message was directed at all those in the prison. Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام began by introducing himself as one who has "discarded the religion (D'in) of those people who do not believe in Allāh and who reject the Hereafter." He said, 'I have adopted the creed of my forefathers, Ibrāhīm, Is'hāq and Ya'qūb.'

Outlining the foolishness of polytheism (shirk), he said, 'it does not befit us to ascribe any partners to Allāh (Who created us and provides for us our every need).' He meant to impress upon their minds that one would be foolish then to worship things that have been created by Allāh.

Continuing his preaching, he said that the blessing of the belief in oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and the knowledge conferred to him "is from the favours upon us and upon all people, but most people are ungrateful."

To provoke their thoughts, he asked "O my two prison companions! Are numerous gods better or Allāh, Who is The One and The Almighty?" He asked them whether they preferred to rather worship various idols of gold, silver, brass and stone, who are unable to do any good or cause any harm, instead of worshipping One Almighty Allāh?

"Besides Him, you worship only names that you and your forefathers have named without any revealed warrant from Allāh." Besides being referred to as gods, these idols have no ability to perform any act worthy of their title. They are not even aware of the fact that they are being worshipped.

"Decisions rest only with Allāh." Only what Allāh says will be accorded any consideration. The idols will be considered obsolete if Allāh so dictates. "He has commanded that only He be worshipped. This is the right religion (D'in), but most people know it not."

يَصْحَبِي السِّجْنِ أَمَّا أَحَدُكُمَا فَيَسْقِي رَبَّهُ خَمْرًا وَأَمَّا الْآخَرُ فَيُصْلَبُ فَتَأْكُلُ
الطَّيْرُ مِنْ رَأْسِهِ قُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ الَّذِي فِيهِ تَسْتَفْتِيَانِ ﴿٤١﴾

(41) "O my two prison companions! As for one of you, he will serve wine to his master. As for the other, he will be crucified and birds will eat from his head. The decision has been passed regarding the matter you have inquired from me."

SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام INTERPRETS THE DREAMS FOR THEM

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام then provided the interpretation of their dreams. He said, "O my two prison companions! As for one of you (the one who used to serve drinks to the king), he will serve wine to his master. As for the other, he will be crucified and birds will eat from his head." He will be killed by crucifixion and his head will be devoured by birds of prey.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that when Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام interpreted the dreams for them, they said that they had not seen any dreams, claiming that they were merely jesting. Thereupon Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told them, "The decision has been passed regarding the matter you have inquired from me." ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 12 p.242]

It is for this reason that Scholars (Ulama) warn that when a person has a false dream interpreted the dream will be realised according to the interpretation, and he will suffer punishment for his lie.

وَقَالَ لِلَّذِي ظَنَّ أَنَّهُ نَاجٍ مِّنْهُمَا اذْكُرْنِي عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ فَأَنَسَهُ الشَّيْطَانُ
ذِكْرَ رَبِّهِ فَلَبِثَ فِي السِّجْنِ بِضْعَ سِنِينَ ﴿٤٢﴾

(42) Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told the one whom he anticipated would be freed, "Mention me to your master." However, Devil (Shaytān) caused him to forget mentioning him to his master, and Yusuf عليه السلام remained in prison for a few years.

SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام TELLS THE LIBERATED CONVICT TO MENTION HIM TO THE KING, BUT HE REMAINS IN PRISON FOR A FEW MORE YEARS

From the two convicts "Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told the one whom he anticipated would be freed, 'Mention me to your master.' He asked the person to mention to the king the entire episode of how he was imprisoned despite his innocence and that he was being made to suffer unnecessarily in prison.

He requested the person to do this because it was very possible that the king had no knowledge of the episode. If he were informed about it, he would learn that an innocent person had been imprisoned in his country. Although a believer (Mu'min) endures difficulties with patience and realises that he will be rewarded for it, there is no harm in attempting to alleviate oneself of the difficulty. It is for this reason that he told the person to inform the king of his condition.

"However, Devil (Shaytān) caused him to forget mentioning him to his master, and Yusuf عليه السلام remained in prison for a few years." "Ruhul Ma'āni" mentions that he remained there for seven or twelve years. The Arabic word "bidh'a" ("few") refers to figures that lie between three and nine. And Allāh knows best.

وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ إِنِّي أَرَى سَبْعَ بَقَرَاتٍ سِمَانٍ يَأْكُلُهُنَّ سَبْعٌ عِجَافٌ وَسَبْعَ
 سُبُلَاتٍ خُضْرٍ وَأُخَرَ يَابِسَةٍ يَأْتِيهَا الْمَلَأُ أَفْتُونٍ فِي رُءْيَايَ إِن كُنْتُمْ لِلرُّءْيَا
 تَعْبُرُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ قَالُوا أَضْغَتْ أَحْلَامٌ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِتَأْوِيلِ الْأَحْلَامِ بِعِلَالِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَقَالَ
 الَّذِي نَجَا مِنْهُمَا وَادَّكَرَ بَعْدَ أُمَّةٍ أَنَا أُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِتَأْوِيلِهِ فَأَرْسِلُونِ ﴿٤٥﴾ يُوسُفُ أَيُّهَا
 الصِّدِّيقُ أَفْتِنَا فِي سَبْعَ بَقَرَاتٍ سِمَانٍ يَأْكُلُهُنَّ سَبْعٌ عِجَافٌ وَسَبْعَ سُبُلَاتٍ
 خُضْرٍ وَأُخَرَ يَابِسَةٍ لَعَلِّي أَرْجِعُ إِلَى النَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالَ تَزْرَعُونَ سَبْعَ
 سِنِينَ دَابًا فَمَا حَصَدْتُمْ فَذَرُوهُ فِي سُنْبُلِهِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِمَّا نَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ ثُمَّ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِ
 ذَلِكَ سَبْعٌ شِدَادٌ يَأْكُلْنَ مَا قَدَّمْتُمْ لَهُنَّ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِمَّا تَحْصِنُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ ثُمَّ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ
 عَامٌ فِيهِ يُغَاثُ النَّاسُ وَفِيهِ يَعْصِرُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾

(43) The king said, "I see (in a dream) seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean cows and seven green ears of corn and others that are dry. O my counsellors! Furnish an interpretation for my dream if you are indeed able to interpret dreams." (44) They replied, "These are only confused dreams. We have no knowledge concerning the interpretation of confused dreams." (45) The released of the two convicts, recalling after a considerable period, said, "I shall inform you of the interpretation, so send me (to fetch an interpreter)." (46) "O Yusuf! O most truthful! Inform us regarding seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean cows and of corn and others save it green ears that are dry, so that I may return to the people that they be enlightened." (47) He replied, "You will farm for seven consecutive years. Leave whatever crops you harvest in their ears, except what you require for eating." (48) "Thereafter seven difficult years will follow that will consume all you would have stored for them except the little that you leave." (49) "Thereafter a year will follow in which abundant rains will fall for the people and they will distil juices."

THE KING OF EGYPT SEES A DREAM AND SAYYIDINA YUSUF عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام INTERPRET IT

As a pretext to release Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام from prison, Allāh showed a dream to the king of Egypt. Therein he saw "seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean cows and seven green ears of corn and others that are dry."

Recounting the dream to his ministers and advisors, the king told them. "O my counsellors! Furnish an interpretation for my dream if you are indeed able to interpret dreams." Unable to interpret the dream, they brushed it off as a meaningless jumble of thoughts. Therefore "They replied, 'These are only confused dreams. We have no knowledge concerning the interpretation of confused dreams.'"

Overhearing the discussion, the person who served drinks to the king recalled that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was able to correctly interpret dreams. He therefore requested permission from the people to approach Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام for the interpretation of the king's dream. This he did and returned to the king with the interpretation.

The interpretation of the dream was that people will harvest an abundance of crops for seven consecutive years, as represented by the seven fat cows and the seven green ears of corn. Thereafter, seven years of drought would follow, when all their reserved stores of grain would be depleted. This was indicated by the seven lean cows eating the seven fat ones, and by the dry ears of corn.

Together with the interpretation, Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام also advised them concerning the measures they should take to prevent starvation. He told them that they should consume only what was necessary in the first seven years. He advised them that the rest of the crops should be preserved in their ears so that they are not eaten by vermin.

Thereafter he told them, "Thereafter a year will follow in which abundant rains will fall for the people and (because of the abundance of crops) they will distil juices (from the various fruits)." The extraction of juices refers to the distilling of wine as well as the extraction of oil from various crops like olives and sesame seeds.

وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ أَتَأْتُونِي بِهٖ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُ الرَّسُولُ قَالَ أَرْجِعْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ فَسَأَلَهُ مَا بَأْسَ النَّسْوَةِ
الَّتِي قَطَّعْنَ أَيْدِيَهُنَّ إِنَّ رَبِّي بِكَيْدِهِنَّ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالَ مَا خَطْبُكَ إِذْ رَوَدْتَن يُوْسُفَ عَنْ
نَفْسِهِ قُلْتُ خَشِيَ اللَّهُ مَا عُلِّمْنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنْ سُوءٍ قَالَتِ امْرَأَتُ الْعَزِيزِ أَكُنَّ حَصْحَصَ
الْحَقِّ أَنَا رَوَدْتُهُ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ وَإِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ ذَلِكَ لِيَعْلَمَ أَنِّي لَمْ أَخُنْهُ بِالْغَيْبِ
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْخَائِبِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾

(50) The king said, "Bring him to me." When the messenger came to Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, he told him, "Return to your master and ask him what is the condition of the women who cut their hands. Indeed my Lord is well aware of their plot." (51) The king asked, "What is your tale when you attempted to seduce Yusuf to appease your motives?" They replied, "Allāh is Pure! We do not know of any evil in him." The wife of the minister said, "The truth is now out. I attempted to seduce him to realise my motives and he is of the truthful." (52) "This was so that he may know that I did not betray him in his absence, and, without doubt, Allāh does not promote the plot of betrayers."

THE KING SENDS FOR SAYYIDINA YUSUF عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, BUT HE REFUSES TO BE RELEASED UNTIL HIS MATTER IS INVESTIGATED

When the king heard of the interpretation and the advice, he realised that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was definitely a learned person and he desired to meet him. He therefore sent a messenger to fetch him from the prison. However, when the messenger arrived at the prison, Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام refused to accompany him to the king until the king summoned the women who caused him to be imprisoned and learnt the truth from them.

Certain commentators have mentioned that the other women were also summoned because they used to encourage Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to comply with the bidding of the minister's wife. Other commentators maintain that they also tried to seduce him for themselves. Whatever the case, they were all summoned by the king. ["Ruhul Ma'i" v. 12 p.335]

When the king asked them to disclose the truth of the matter, they admitted that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was innocent. By declaring, "Allāh is Pure!" they meant to say that if they lied about Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, it would mean that Allāh's knowledge of the incident was incorrect, since Allāh knew that he was innocent. Allāh is Pure from inaccurate knowledge.

They admitted that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was 'from the truthful' when he made the statement to the minister, "It was she who tried to seduce me to attain her motives."

When Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام learnt that he had been exonerated in the king's court, he said that he prompted the investigation so that the minister "may know that I did not betray him in his absence, and, without doubt, Allāh does not promote the plot of betrayers."

NOTE: There are two important points of wisdom behind the fact that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام did not come out of jail before his name was cleared. The first was that his purpose as a Prophet entailed propagation and preaching. It is obvious that none would have been influenced by the preaching of someone who has a stigma attached to his name. People would then scorn his teachings, thinking him to be unfaithful to the same teachings.

Every person should make an attempt to always clear his name of any suspicion, especially people who are known to be pious or holding some position in society. People are incorrect to merely brush off any suspicion on themselves by saying that the slanderers will be punished for their slander. They should make a concerted effort to clear their names so that the stigma does not taint their reputation. If they do not do this they will be casting people into further sin by giving them a greater opportunity to backbite. In addition, they will be unable to preach to people.

The second wisdom was that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام knew from the time that he saw the dream as a child that Allāh would be granting him a position of authority. It was therefore necessary that he remove all doubts about his reputation so that he could do justice to the post. In this way he could serve the people without them harbouring doubts against him.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If I had remained in jail as long as Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام did, I would have immediately responded to the messenger." [Bukhari v. 1 p.47 8]

Commentators have mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned this out of humility, but would have done the same as Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام did. Others mention that even though the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would have immediately responded to the bidding of the messenger, this shows the virtue of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام in this single regard. Otherwise, on a general basis, this hadith does not grant Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام superiority over the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Shah Is'hāq رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would have left the prison immediately because of his excessive desire to continue the responsibility of propagation.

PART THIRTEEN

وَمَا أُبْرِئُ نَفْسِي ۚ إِنَّ النَّفْسَ لَأَمَّارَةٌ بِالسُّوءِ إِلَّا مَا رَحِمَ رَبِّي ۚ إِنَّ رَبِّي غَفُورٌ
 رَحِيمٌ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ أَتُؤْثِرُ بِهِ ۖ اسْتَخْلَصَهُ لِنَفْسِي ۖ فَلَمَّا كَلَّمَهُ قَالَ إِنَّكَ الْيَوْمَ لَدَيْنَا
 مَكِينٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿٥٤﴾ قَالَ اجْعَلْنِي عَلَى خَزَائِنِ الْأَرْضِ ۚ إِنِّي حَفِيظٌ عَلَيْهَا ۚ وَكَذَلِكَ
 مَكَّنَّا يُوسُفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ ۚ يَتَّبِعُوا مِنْهَا حَيْثُ يَشَاءُ ۚ نُصِيبُ بِرَحْمَتِنَا مَنْ نَشَاءُ وَلَا
 نُضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ وَلَاجِرُ الْآخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَكَانُوا يَتَّقُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾

﴿٥٧﴾

(53) "I do not exonerate myself. Surely the soul insistently orders evil, except on whom Allāh showers mercy. Undoubtedly my Lord is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." (54) The king said, "Bring him to me so that I may keep him exclusively for myself" When he spoke to him, he said, "Verily today you are a man of honour and trustworthiness with us." (55) Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام said, "Appoint me over the treasures of the land. Indeed I am protective and knowledgeable." (56) In this manner, We granted authority to Yusuf in the land. He could live wherever he willed. We shower Our mercy upon whomsoever We wish, and We do not put to waste the reward of those who do good. (57) Undoubtedly, the reward of the Hereafter is best for those who believe and adopt piety (taqwa).

THE KING AGAIN CALLS FOR SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام AND MAKES HIM THE MINISTER OF THE TREASURY

After Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was absolved of blame, he mentioned, "I do not exonerate myself Surely the soul insistently orders evil..." This is what the soul of man will always advocate. The only exceptional people who will not succumb to the guiles of the soul are those upon "whom Allāh showers mercy. Undoubtedly my Lord is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

He mentioned this because it is not proper that a person praises himself. Allāh says in Surah Najm, "So do not ascribe purity to yourselves (i.e. Do not proclaim your own piety). He (Allāh) knows best who is the most pious." [Surah 53, verse 32]

After the matter was resolved with the women, the king again sent for Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. Being impressed by his intelligence, his piety and the fact that he took the pains to first exonerate himself, the king said, "Bring him to me so that I may keep him exclusively for myself" The king intended to appoint Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام as one of his counsellors and close advisors.

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام then met the king. When the two had a discussion, the king who was even more impressed with Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام said, "Verily today you are a man of honour and trustworthiness with us."

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام informed the king that the drought will also affect the neighbouring districts and that Egypt should assist those who came for provisions. He added that they could be asked to pay a nominal amount so that it could bolster the state treasury, while also assisting the other people.

The question then arose about who would administer the financial affairs of the state during this period. In reply to this, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام said, "Appoint me over the treasures of the land. Indeed I am protective and knowledgeable." He added these two attributes because they are what is required from people in control of financial matters. They need to be protective and trustworthy so that they do not misappropriate the wealth. In addition to this they need to possess the relevant knowledge so that they do not squander the wealth and are able to keep proper records of profits and expenses.

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was thus appointed to the position. Allāh says, "in this manner, We granted authority to Yusuf in the land (of Egypt). He could live wherever he willed. We shower Our mercy upon whomsoever We wish..." None can prevent Allāh from elevating anyone to the highest of ranks even from the most humble of beginnings. As for these people of virtue, Allāh says, "and We do not put to waste the reward of those who do good."

"Undoubtedly, the reward of the Hereafter is best for those who believe and adopt piety (taqwa)." Although the good people will be amply rewarded in this world, their rewards in the Hereafter will be much better.

Although Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was appointed to manage the finances of the country, commentators mention that the king also handed over other administrative matters to him. So much authority was vested in him that he was practically in control of the entire country.

Sayyidina Abdur Rahmān bin Samurah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not ask to be appointed as a leader, because if you are appointed because of your request, then it will be given to you (and Allāh will not assist you in the least). However, if it is given to you without asking, then you will be assisted in the task." [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "By Allāh! I will never appoint any person to a post who asks for it, nor anyone who desires it." [Bukhari]

In view of these Ahadith, the question arises as to how could Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام ask for the position? Scholars (Ulama) explain that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام knew that during the seven years of drought, people would be desperate to assist only themselves. Since the king himself was a disbeliever (kāfir) and had only disbelievers (kuffār) as his ministers, one of them would be appointed to the post. If this were done, no mercy could be expected to be shown to the destitute.

Therefore, in the best interests of the public, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام offered to accept the post. He was best qualified for the position, especially since he was the noble Prophet عليه السلام of Allāh as well. In circumstances where the fear exists that others would abuse the authority vested in them, it will be compulsory that a person who is capable offers himself for the post.

It was merely for the reassurance of the king that he added, 'Indeed I am protective and knowledgeable.' Appointment to the position would also prove to be conducive to his duty of propagation since people are inclined to following people in authority.

Another question is raised at this juncture. The question is that how could Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام accept a post in a infidel's (kāfir) country, where the laws are all based on disbelief (kufr)? Would he then also be required to enforce the laws of disbelief (kufr)? The reply is that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was granted the authority to administer the finances of the country and was given absolute liberty to do as he pleased. In this way he was not constrained to abide by the oppressive laws of the country.

وَجَاءَ إِخْوَةُ يُوسُفَ فَدَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَعَرَفَهُمْ وَهُمْ لَهُ مُنْكَرُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَلَمَّا جَهَّزَهُمْ بِجَهَّازِهِمْ قَالَ أَتُنُونِي بِأَخٍ لَّكُمْ مِّنْ أَبِيكُمْ أَلَا تَرَوْنَ أَنِّي أُوْفِي الْكَيْلَ وَأَنَا خَيْرُ الْمُنْزِلِينَ ﴿٥٩﴾ فَإِن لَّمْ تَأْتُونِي بِهِ فَلَا كَيْلَ لَّكُمْ عِندِي وَلَا تَقْرُبُونِ ﴿٦٠﴾ قَالُوا سَتَرُوْهُ عَنْهُ أَبَاهُ وَإِنَّا لَفَعْلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ وَقَالَ لِفَتْيَانِهِ اجْعَلُوا بِضَاعَهُمْ فِي رِجَالِهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَعْرِفُونَهَا إِذَا انْقَلَبُوا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ فَلَمَّا رَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ أَبِيهِمْ قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا مُنِعَ مِنَّا الْكَيْلُ فَأَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا أَخَانًا نَّكْتَلُ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ قَالَ هَلْ ءَامَنُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا كَمَا ءَامَنُكُمْ عَلَىٰ أَخِيهِ مِن قَبْلُ فَاللَّهُ خَيْرٌ حَافِظًا وَهُوَ أَرْحَمُ الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴿٦٤﴾

(58) Yusuf's brothers came and entered into his presence. He recognised them, but they did not recognise him. (59) When he prepared their provisions he said, "Bring your brother to me from your father. Do you not see that I grant measure in full and that I am the best of hosts?" (60) "If you do not bring him to me you will have no measure from me, nor shall you draw close." (61) They said, "We shall request his father regarding him, and we will really do so." (62) Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام said to his attendants, "Place their funds back into their carriages so that they recognise it when they return to their families, and so that they may return." (63) When they returned to their father they said, "O our father! A measure shall be denied to us, so send our brother with us so that we may bring grains. We shall certainly guard him well." (64) He said, "Should I trust you with him as I trusted you with his brother before? But Allāh is the best Protector and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

YUSUF'S عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام BROTHERS ARRIVE IN EGYPT FOR GRAINS. HE TELLS THEM THAT THEY SHOULD BRING THEIR STEP-BROTHER AS WELL AND HE RETURNS THEIR MONEY

When the seven years of drought struck, it affected the countries neighbouring Egypt as well. The father of Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and his brothers were also affected in Palestine. When the brothers heard that Egypt had provisions, they arrived there to seek grains.

They were directed to Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to pay the price and have the grains given to them. When they arrived, in his presence, he immediately recognised them. They, however did not realise who he was. It never crossed their minds that this could be the same child whom they abandoned in a forest of Kan'an and then had him sold as a slave.

According to some commentators, Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام got someone to find out about Bin Yāmin, whom they left at home. Others say that when Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had all the camels loaded, they requested that another also be loaded for their eleventh brother. They explained that their father did not permit him to accompany them because his other brother had been lost.

Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام told them that it was against their law to provide for someone who was not himself present. However, he gave them the extra load. He then told them, (for the next time they came), "Bring your brother to me from your father. Do you not see that I grant measure in full and that I am the best of hosts? If you do not bring him to me you will have no measure from me, nor shall you draw close."

They understood that they would have to return for more provisions, so they promised, "We shall request his father regarding him, and we will really do so."

"Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said to his attendants, 'Place their funds (the price which they paid for the grains) back into their carriages (without them knowing) so that they recognise it when they return to their families, and so that they may return.'" He knew that once they realised his generosity, they would soon return.

Certain Scholars (Ulama) have stated that he returned their money to them because he feared that it was all the wealth they possessed. If it were not returned to them, the chances were that they would never return for more.

Others have mentioned that the wisdom behind returning the money was that Sayyidina Ya'qūb عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام would think that the money was returned by mistake, and that it should be returned to the Egyptian treasury. Thinking this he would definitely send his sons back with the money, and Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام would be able to meet his real brother.

The objection arises that it seems incorrect of Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to return the money to his brothers when the king had instructed that everyone pay the price. Some Scholars (Ulama) say that it was possible that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام paid the price himself. Others say that Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام knew that his father would return the money at a later stage. The transaction was, therefore, a form of credit. Whatever the reason, it should be well understood that the Prophets عليه السلام were incapable of sinning and Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام would have never cheated.

"When they returned to their father they said, 'O our father! A measure shall be denied to us (if we return without Bin Yāmīn in future), so send our brother with us so that we may bring grains. (You need not worry) We shall certainly guard him well.

Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام said, "Should I trust you with him as I trusted you with his brother before? But Allāh is the best Protector and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." He was adamant not to accede to their request.

وَلَمَّا فَتَحُوا مَتَاعَهُمْ وَجَدُوا بِضْعَتَهُمْ رُدَّتْ إِلَيْهِمْ قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا مَا نَبْغِي هَذِهِ
بِضْعَتُنَا رُدَّتْ إِلَيْنَا وَنَمِيرُ أَهْلَنَا وَنَحْفَظُ أَخَانَا وَنَزْدَادُ كَيْلَ بَعِيرٍ ذَاكَ كَيْلُ
يَسِيرٍ ﴿٦٥﴾ قَالَ لَنْ أَرْسِلَهُ مَعَكُمْ حَتَّى تُؤْتُونِ مَوْثِقًا مِنْ اللَّهِ لَأَتُنْتِي بِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ
يُحَاطَ بِكُمْ فَلَمَّا آتَوْهُ مَوْثِقَهُمْ قَالَ اللَّهُ عَلَى مَا نَقُولُ وَكِيلٌ ﴿٦٦﴾

(65) When they opened their provisions and found their funds returned to them, they said, 'O our father! What more can we want? Here are our funds returned to us. We shall bring for our family, protect our brother and have an extra camel load. These grains are inadequate.' (66) He said, "I shall never send him with you until you give me a solemn oath from Allāh that you will definitely return him to me unless you are surrounded." When they gave him the oath he said, "Allāh is Vigilant over what we say."

THE BROTHERS FIND THE RETURNED MONEY AND REQUEST THEIR FATHER TO RETURN; PROMISING TO PROTECT THEIR YOUNG BROTHER

While the brothers were negotiating with their father about taking Bin Yāmīn with them on their next trip, they began to unpack their provisions. When they found that their money had been returned to them, they exclaimed, "O our father! What more can we want? Here are our funds returned to us. (We have to return to such a generous person, so send our brother with us so that we receive the full share of grains.) We shall bring for our family, protect our brother and have an extra camel load."

"These grains are inadequate." Soon the grains will be depleted and we will have to return for more.

Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام said, "I shall never send him with you until you give me a solemn oath from Allāh that you will definitely return him to me unless you are surrounded." By adding the clause at the end, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام meant to say that they should make every effort to protect their brother. The only time when they would be absolved of this responsibility is when such circumstances prevail that are beyond their control.

Initially he never wanted to send Bin Yāmin, for he told them, "Should I trust you with him as I trusted you with his brother before?" However, he did realise that in the end it will be Allāh Who will safeguard him and not the brothers, even though they promise to do so. It was for this reason that he added, "But Allāh is the best Protector and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

Afterwards he still realised this, but took the oath from them because a person needs to adopt all the apparent means as well, together with relying on Allāh. Therefore, "When they gave him the oath he said, 'Allāh is Vigilant over what we say."

وَقَالَ يَبْنَى لَا تَدْخُلُوا مِنْ بَابٍ وَاحِدٍ وَادْخُلُوا مِنْ أَبْوَابٍ مُتَفَرِّقَةٍ وَمَا أُغْنِي عَنْكُمْ
مِنْ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنْ أَلْحَكُمُ إِلَّا اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَعَلَيْهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُتَوَكِّلُونَ
(67) وَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا مِنْ حَيْثُ أَمَرَهُمْ آبُوهُمْ مَا كَانُ يُعْنِي عَنْهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
إِلَّا حَاجَةً فِي نَفْسِ يَعْقُوبَ قَضَاهَا وَإِنَّهُ لَذُو عِلْمٍ لِمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ
النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ (68)

(67) Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام said, "O my sons! Do not enter through one door, but enter from different doors. I cannot be of any avail to you against Allāh's order. Decisions rest with Allāh. Only on Him do I rely, and all those who pin their reliance should rely only on Him." (68) When they entered as their father had instructed them, it could not be of any avail to them against Allāh's order, except a need in the heart of Ya'qūb that he fulfilled. Indeed he was knowledgeable of that which We taught him, but most people do not know.

SAYYIDINA YA'QŪB عليه السلام TELS HIS SONS TO ENTER THROUGH DIFFERENT DOORS, ADDING THAT HE STILL RELIED ON ALLĀH DESPITE THIS INSTRUCTION

When the brothers prepared to leave with Bin Yāmin, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام advised them saying, "O my sons! Do not enter through one door, but enter from different doors." Commentators mention that he issued this instruction to avert anyone casting the 'evil eye' on them, since they were all handsome men. The effects of the 'evil eye' are a reality (as mentioned in the Ahadith), so Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام feared this from affecting his sons since eleven handsome men entering through one gate are sure to attract attention.

Together with the instruction, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام told them, "I cannot be of any avail to you against Allāh's order." By saying this, he meant to impress upon their minds that the instruction was merely a means to avert evil befalling them. However, the decree of Allāh will still predominate. If Allāh still willed any evil to befall them, no plan and power could prevent it.

He added, "Decisions rest with Allāh. Only on Him do I rely, and all those who pin their reliance should rely only on Him."

"When they entered as their father had instructed them, it (i.e. his instruction) could not be of any avail to them against Allāh's order, except (that he instructed them only because of) a need the heart of Ya'qūb that he fulfilled." Although he knew that Allāh's decree will predominate, he issued the instruction because he felt the need for them to be protected.

Regarding Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام, Allāh says, "Indeed he was knowledgeable of that which We taught him..." He realised that the decree of Allāh will always predominate over everything. "....but most people do not know." Most people still think that their plans will prove beneficial to them over that which Allāh has ordained.

وَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا عَلَى يُسُفَ عَاوَىٰ إِلَيْهِ أَخَاهُ قَالَ إِنِّي أَنَا أَخُوكَ فَلَا تَبْتَئِسْ بِمَا
كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ فَلَمَّا جَهَّزَهُم بِجَهَّازِهِمْ جَعَلَ السِّقَايَةَ فِي رَحْلِ أَخِيهِ ثُمَّ
أَذَّنَ مُؤَذِّنٌ أَتَتْهَا آلُيَرُ إِنَّكُمْ لَسَرِقُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالُوا وَأَقْبِلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ مَاذَا تَفْقِدُونَ
﴿٧١﴾ قَالُوا تَفْقِدُ صُوَاعَ الْمَلِكِ وَلِمَن جَاءَ بِهِ حِمْلُ بَعِيرٍ وَأَنَا بِهِ زَعِيمٌ ﴿٧٢﴾
قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ مَا جِئْنَا لِنُفْسِدَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كُنَّا سَارِقِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ قَالُوا فَمَا
جَزَاؤُهُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ كَاذِبِينَ ﴿٧٤﴾ قَالُوا جَزَاؤُهُ مَن وُجِدَ فِي رَحْلِهِ فَهُوَ جَزَاؤُهُ
كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧٥﴾

(69) When they entered the presence of Yusuf, he took his brother unto himself saying, "I am indeed your brother, so do not grieve about what they do." (70) When he prepared their provisions for them, he placed a drinking cup in his brother's carriage. Thereafter an announcer announced, "Where to O caravan! Verily you are thieves!" (71) Advancing towards them, they said, "What have you lost?" (72) They replied, "We have lost the drinking cup of the king. There shall be camel's load for whoever brings it forth, and I stand guarantee for this." (73) They said, "By Allāh! You are well aware of the fact that we have not come to cause corruption in the land, nor are we thieves." (74) They said, "What will be the penalty for it if you are lying?" (75) They replied, "The penalty is this, that the very person in whose carriage it is found will be the penalty for it. This is how we penalise oppressors."

THE BROTHERS ARRIVE IN EGYPT AND SAYYIDINA YUSUF'S عليه السلام PLAN TO KEEP HIS REAL BROTHER BACK

The brothers finally presented their step-brother to Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. Commentators mention that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام hosted two brothers in a room. Since they were eleven, and Bin Yāmīn was the odd one out, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told them that he would keep Bin Yāmīn with him. When they were alone, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told him, "I am indeed your brother, so do not grieve about what they do."

In a plan to keep his brother behind with him, when Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام "prepared their provisions for them, he placed a drinking cup in his brother's carriage." This was the cup that was used to measure the quantity of grains distributed. When the attendants of Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام found this missing, they were perplexed, since they did not know what Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام had done.

"Thereafter an announcer announced (to the brothers), 'Whereto O caravan! Verily you are thieves!'"

Astonished at the accusation, the brothers asked, "What have you lost? They replied, 'We have lost the drinking cup of the king. (As a reward) There shall be camel's load for whoever brings it forth..." So that none could doubt the reward, the announcer added, "and I stand guarantee for it."

The brothers said, "By Allāh! You are well aware of the fact that we have not come to cause corruption in the land, nor are we thieves."

The attendants of Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام then asked them if, after investigation, it was proven that one of them did steal the cup, "What will be the penalty for it if you are lying (about your innocence)?"

The brothers replied, "The penalty is this... that the very person in whose carriage it is found will be the penalty for it." i.e. The thief will be restrained and kept as a slave. They added, "This is how we penalise oppressors." In the Shari'ah that they followed, this was the penalty for stealing.

فَبَدَأَ بِأَوْعِيَّتِهِمْ قَبْلَ وَعَاءِ أَخِيهِ ثُمَّ اسْتَخْرَجَهَا مِنْ وَعَاءِ أَخِيهِ كَذَلِكَ كِدْنَا لِيُوسُفَ مَا كَانَ لِيَأْخُذَ أَخَاهُ فِي دِينِ الْمَلِكِ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ نَرْفَعُ دَرَجَاتٍ مَن نَّشَاءُ وَفَوْقَ كُلِّ ذِي عِلْمٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٧٦﴾

(76) Yūsuf عليه السلام began (looking at) their satchels before the satchel of his brother and then removed the cup from his brother's satchel. Thus did We inspire a plan for Yūsuf. He could not have kept back his brother according to the law of the king, except if Allāh willed. We elevate the ranks of whomsoever We will. Above every knowledgeable person is one who is more knowledgeable.

THE CUP IS FOUND IN BIN YĀMĪN'S SATCHEL AND YUSUF عليه السلام IS ABLE TO USE THIS AS AN EXCUSE TO DETAIN HIM

Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام began searching the satchel's of the other brothers. If he had begun with that of Bin Yāmin, they may have suspected his plan instantly. Eventually, he extracted the measuring cup from Bin Yāmin's satchel and found the excuse to restrain him. Allāh says, "Thus did We inspire a plan for Yūsuf He could not have kept back his brother according to the law of the king, except if Allāh willed." The laws of Egypt did not allow for a thief to be restrained as a slave, so Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام could not implement those laws in this case.

Allāh inspired Sayyidina Yūsuf عليه السلام to adopt this plan. Allāh says, "We elevate the ranks of whomsoever We will. Above every knowledgeable person is one who is more knowledgeable." No matter how knowledgeable a person may be, there is always someone with even more knowledge. Above even the most knowledge person, there is always Allāh. None can even draw close to His knowledge.

Another objection is raised. The objection is that why did Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, by retaining Bin Yāmīn, cause additional difficulty to his father, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام? Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام had already been pining over the loss of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام for so many years, now the loss of Bin Yāmīn would distress him even further.

The reply is that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام retained Bin Yāmīn because he felt confident that Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام would then send the brothers on a mission to find both lost brothers. In so doing, they would again return to him. If he sent them to search for Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام only, the chances were that they would refuse because they thought him to be dead. If Bin Yāmīn was also retained, they would, at least, attempt to bring him back.

Some people have raised a further objection that it was not proper that Bin Yāmīn be made a slave. This objection holds no weight because he was never made a slave. He was merely detained on this pretext. In addition to this, the Shari'ah that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام followed allowed the enslavement of thieves.

Yet another question is raised. How could Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام accuse the innocent brothers of theft merely to fulfil his personal desires? The reply is that he never accused them. His attendants made the accusation.

However, the question may still be asked that Bin Yāmīn was still accused of something that he never did, causing him to be humiliated. Scholars (Ulama) have replied to this by saying that Bin Yāmīn had consented to this plan because he was greatly harassed by his brothers. Therefore, he preferred living with Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام despite the accusation, rather than returning with his brothers.

It may also be said that this accusation was such that it was soon to be dispelled when the brothers learnt the truth. Therefore, it was not a very serious matter. And Allāh knows best.

﴿قَالُوا إِن يَسْرِقْ فَقَدْ سَرَقَ أَخٌ لَّهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَأَسْرَهَا يُوسُفُ فِي نَفْسِهِ وَلَمْ يُبْدِهَا لَهُمْ قَالَ أَنْتُمْ شَرُّ مَكَانٍ وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَصِفُونَ﴾ (77) قَالُوا يَكُونُ الْعَزِيزُ إِنَّ لَهُ أَبًا شَيْخًا كَبِيرًا فَخُذْ أَحَدَنَا مَكَانَهُ إِنَّا نَرَاكَ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾ (78) قَالَ مَعَاذَ اللَّهِ أَنْ نَأْخُذَ إِلَّا مَنْ وَجَدْنَا مَتَاعًا عَنْدَهُ إِنَّا إِذَا نَظَرْنَا لَهُمْ

(77) The brothers said, "If he has stolen then surely his brother before him must have also stolen." Yusuf concealed this matter in his heart and did not disclose it to them. He said, "You are worse off Allāh knows best what you speak." (78) They submitted, "O minister! He has an extremely aged father, so take one of us in his place. Verily we deem you to be of the kind ones." (79) He said, "Allāh forbid that we take anyone besides the one with whom we found our article. If we do so, then we would certainly be of the oppressors."

THE BROTHERS REQUEST THAT ONE OF THEM BE ARRESTED INSTEAD OF BIN YĀMĪN

In anger and because of being disgraced, the brothers said, "If he has stolen then surely his brother before him [Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام] must have also stolen."

Although this was an insult to his reputation, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام never replied to them. In his heart, "He said, 'You are worse off'" "They perpetrated the much more serious crime of abducting a child from his father and selling him as a slave. However, he said, 'Allāh knows best what you speak.'"

Based on narrations from the Bani Isra'īl, commentators quote five incidents that mention what the brothers referred to when they accused Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام of theft. One of these is that he used to steal food from the table to feed the poor. However, one cannot rely on these narrations since they are not verified.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله has mentioned (v. 9 p.339) that in all probability, there was no incident that they referred to. They were merely lying.

The brothers were now extremely worried as to how they were to answer their father. In an attempt to get Bin Yāmīn back, "They submitted, 'O minister! He has an extremely aged father (who would be devastated upon hearing the news), so take one of us in his place. (Please accede to our request for) Verily we deem you to be of the kind ones."

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام replied that it was impossible to arrest an innocent person. "He said, 'Allāh forbid that we take anyone besides the one with whom we found our article. If we do so then we certainly be of the oppressors.'"

فَلَمَّا أَسْتَيْسَسُوا مِنْهُ خَلَصُوا نَجِيًّا قَالَ كَبِيرُهُمْ أَلَمْ تَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ أَبَاكُمْ قَدْ
أَخَذَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَوْثِقًا مِنَ اللَّهِ وَمِنْ قَبْلُ مَا فَرَّطْتُمْ فِي يُوسُفَ فَلَنْ أَبْرَحَ الْأَرْضَ
حَتَّى يَأْذَنَ لِي أَبِي أَوْ يَحْكُمَ اللَّهُ لِي وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الْحَاكِمِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ ارْجِعُوا إِلَى آبَائِكُمْ
فَقُولُوا يَتَابَانَا إِنَّ ابْنَكَ سَرَقَ وَمَا شَهِدْنَا إِلَّا بِمَا عَلَّمَنَا وَمَا كُنَّا لِلْغَيْبِ
حَافِظِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَسَلِ الْقَرِيبَ الَّذِي كُنَّا فِيهَا وَالْعِيرَ الَّتِي أَقْبَلْنَا فِيهَا وَإِنَّا
لَصَادِقُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾

(80) When they grew despondent of (convincing) Yusuf عليه السلام, they stood aside to consult. The eldest of them said, "Do you not know that your father had taken from you a solemn oath from Allāh, and before you had erred with regard to Yusuf? Now I shall never leave this land until my father permits me or Allāh decides my matter. He is the best of deciders." (81) "Return to your father and say, 'O our father! Indeed your son has stolen. We are only testifying to what we know, and we have no knowledge of the unseen.'" (82) "You may ask the (inhabitants of the) town in which we were and the caravan whom we accompanied back. We are really truthful."

THE BROTHERS CONVENE AND THE ELDEST REFUSES TO RETURN WITH THEM, TELLING THEM TO INFORM THEIR FATHER OF THE OCCURRENCE

The brothers finally realised that they could not convince Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to accept any of them in place of Bin Yāmīn. They then gathered together to decide their plans. "The eldest of them (whose name was either Yahūda, Sham'un or Rūbil) said, 'Do you not know that your father had taken from you a solemn oath from Allāh, and before you had erred with regard to Yusuf?'" He was concerned that now they would have no face to show their father because they will be causing him double the grief.

He told them, "Now I shall never leave this land until my father (after learning of the situation) permits me or Allāh decides my matter (by may be returning the two brothers). He is the best of deciders."

He advised them by saying, "Return to your father and say, 'O our father! Indeed your son has stolen (because of which he has been retained in Egypt". We are only testifying to what we know (because we saw the cup in his satchel), and we have no knowledge of the unseen." By saying this he referred to the fact that they had no knowledge of the fact that this incident would arise at the time of taking the oath.

In this way he impressed upon their minds that they were now in an impossible situation and the clause made in their oath applied viz, that they would return him "unless you are surrounded."

He advised them further that since their father would be reluctant to believe them, they should add, "You may ask the (inhabitants of the) town in which we were and the caravan whom we accompanied back. We are really truthful."

قَالَ بَلْ سَوَّلَتْ لَكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ أَمْرًا فَصَبْرٌ حَسْبٌ ۖ عَسَى اللَّهُ أَنْ يَأْتِيَنِي بِهِمْ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٨٣﴾ وَتَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ وَقَالَ يَأْسَفُ عَلَيَّ يُوسُفُ وَأَبِضَّتْ عَيْنَاهُ مِنَ الْحُزْنِ فَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ﴿٨٤﴾ قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ تَفْتَوْا تَذْكُرُ يُوسُفَ حَتَّى تَكُونُ حَرَضًا أَوْ تَكُونَ مِنَ الْهَالِكِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَشْكُوا بَثِّي وَحُزْنِي إِلَى اللَّهِ وَأَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ يَبْنَئِي أَدْهَبُوا فَتَحَسَّبُوا مِنْ يُوسُفَ وَأَخِيهِ وَلَا تَأْتِسُوا مِنَ رَوْحِ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يَأْتِسُ مِنْ رَوْحِ اللَّهِ

(83) Sayyidina Ya'qub عليه السلام said, "But your souls have contrived this matter for you. However, I will exercise patience without any complaint. Perchance Allāh will bring them all to me. Without doubt, He is the All Knowing, The Wise." (84) He turned away from them and said, "O my grief for Yusuf." His eyes turned white with sorrow and he was suppressing it all the time. (85) His sons said, "By Allāh! You keep mentioning Yusuf until you waste away or become totally destroyed." (86) He replied, "I complain of my sorrow and my grief only to Allāh. And I have been granted such knowledge from Allāh that you do not know about." (87) "O my sons! Go and search for Yusuf and his brother. And do not become despondent of Allāh's mercy. Indeed only the disbelieving nation grows despondent of Allāh's mercy."

THEIR FATHER DOES NOT BELIEVE THE BROTHERS WHEN THEY INFORM HIM ABOUT THE INCIDENT AND HE THEN INSTRUCTS THEM TO SEARCH FOR YUSUF عليه السلام

Sayyidina Ya'qub عليه السلام did not believe the brothers when they related the entire incident of Bin Yāmin to him. He repeated the same words that he used when they reported the death of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to him. He told them, "But your souls have contrived this matter for you. However, I will exercise patience without any complaint." Although this time the brothers were truthful, a person does lose confidence in those who have lied to him before.

He added, "Perchance Allāh will bring them all (Yusuf عليه السلام, Bin Yāmin and the eldest son) to me. Without doubt, He is the All Knowing, The Wise." He understood that Allāh caused everything to happen for good reason.

"He turned away from them and said, 'O my grief for Yusuf'"

Over the years, he cried so much that "His eyes turned white with sorrow and he was suppressing it all the time."

"His sons said, 'By Allāh! You keep mentioning Yusuf until you waste away or become totally destroyed.'" He did not pay heed to what they said because they could not understand his feelings. Therefore, he told them, "I complain of my sorrow and my grief only to Allāh. And I have been granted such knowledge from Allāh that you do not know about." He was sure that he would meet his lost children one day.

Then he instructed them saying, "O my sons! Go and search for Yusuf and his brother. And do not become despondent of Allāh's mercy. Indeed only the disbelieving nation grows despondent of Allāh's mercy."

Scholars (Ulama) have mentioned several explanations of the statement of Sayyidina Ya'qub عليه السلام when he said, "I have been granted such knowledge from Allāh that you do not know about." Some say that this meant that he was certain that the dream of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام would be realised, and that all of them were to prostrate to him soon. Others say that he may have received revelation from Allāh informing him that he was soon to meet them.

Based on this knowledge, he commanded them to search for Sayyidina

Yusuf عليه السلام and his brother. He told them never to lose hope of finding them because Allāh would certainly join them again.

فَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ قَالُوا يَتَّيْنَا الْعَزِيزُ مَسْنًا وَأَهْلَنَا الضُّرُّ وَجِئْنَا بِبِضْعَةٍ مُرَجَحَةٍ
 فَأَوْفٍ لَنَا الْكَيْلَ وَتَصَدَّقْ عَلَيْنَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَجْزِي الْمُتَصَدِّقِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ قَالَ هَلْ عَلِمْتُمْ
 مَا فَعَلْتُمْ بِيُوسُفَ وَأَخِيهِ إِذْ أَنْتُمْ جَاهِلُونَ ﴿٨٩﴾ قَالُوا أَتَاكَ لَانَتْ يُوسُفُ قَالَ
 أَنَا يُوسُفُ وَهَذَا أَخِي قَدْ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا إِنَّكُمْ مِنْ يَتَّى وَيَصِيرَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا
 يُضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ أَشْرَكَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا وَإِنْ كُنَّا
 لَخَاطِئِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ قَالَ لَا تَثْرِبَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَلْيَوْمَ يَعْفُورُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ وَهُوَ أَرْحَمُ
 الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾

(88) When they entered into the presence of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام they said, "O minister! Calamity has befallen us and our family. We have come with a sum that is worthy of being returned, so grant us the full measure and be charitable towards us. Indeed Allāh rewards the charitable ones." (89) He said, "Do you know what you did to Yusuf and his brother when you were ignorant?" (90) They exclaimed, "Are you really Yusuf!" He replied, "I am Yusuf and this is my brother. Allāh has indeed favoured us. The fact is that whoever adopts piety (taqwa) and is patient, then Allāh surely does not put to waste the reward of those who do good." (91) They said, "By Allāh! Allāh has certainly preferred you above us and we were really among the wrong doers. (92) He said, "There shall be no reproach on you today. May Allāh forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

THE BROTHERS ARRIVE IN EGYPT A THIRD TIME FOR GRAINS AND SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام DISCLOSES HIS IDENTITY TO THEM

Acting upon the instruction of their father, the brothers set out for Egypt, for they at least knew that Bin Yāmin and the eldest brother were there. They also required to collect some more grains. They did not have the required amount of money to pay for the full measure of grains and requested Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to be lenient with them. According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه they only had a few defective Dirhams that were not worth their complete value.

"... be charitable towards us..." Explaining this, certain commentators have mentioned that this was a request for Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to accept the sum of money that they possessed despite its defective nature. Other commentators mention that this was a request for additional money, while others say that they meant to request for Bin Yāmin in addition to the grains. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that in this case the translation would be, "be kind towards us."

"Indeed Allāh rewards the charitable ones." This sentence supports the first explanation.

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام asked them, "Do you know what you did to Yusuf and his brother when you were ignorant?" Explaining the link between the question of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام and the request for grain from the brothers, commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام meant to draw their attention to the following fact. He meant to tell them that the calamity of the drought that they claimed had befallen them was something recent. It was also not so serious that nothing could be done about it. However, what they did by abducting Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام and causing grief to Bin Yāmin was even greater. The sorrow that they caused to their father was far worse and prolonged compared to what they considered a calamity.

The brothers were surprised by this question for they could not understand how the minister of Egypt could be aware of the entire episode. The mode of questioning, however, aroused their suspicions that this could be Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام himself. Therefore, they exclaimed, "Are you really Yusuf!"

"He replied, 'I am Yusuf and this is my brother. Allāh has indeed favoured us. -It is the sterling quality of a believer (Mu'min) that he rather speaks of Allāh's favours upon himself instead of the difficulties. He is grateful to Allāh and expects more good from Him. Allāh says in Surah Ibrahim, 'When your Lord announced, 'If you show gratitude, then I will definitely give you more...' [Surah 14, verse 7]

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام continued to say, "The fact is that whoever adopts piety (taqwa) and is patient, then Allāh surely does not put to waste the reward of those who do good." He mentioned this sentence as a rule for them to remember and did not say that he adopted piety (taqwa) and patience, because of which Allāh favoured him. He also did not tell his brothers that they were not patient and not adherents of piety (taqwa).

Piety (taqwa) benefits a person greatly in the Hereafter. In this world it serves to alleviate one's difficulties as well. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "Undoubtedly Allāh is with those who adopt piety (taqwa) and those who adopt the path of good." [Surah 16, verse 128]

Allāh says in Surah Talāq, "For him who adopts piety (taqwa), Allāh shall create for him an exit (from difficulties) and provide for him from sources that he never anticipated." Further in the same verse (verse 3), Allāh says, "For him who adopts piety (taqwa), Allāh will expiate his sins and grant him an immense reward," and "For him who adapts piety (taqwa), Allāh will create ease in his affairs." (verse 4).

Patience is also a great aid. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "O you who believe, seek assistance by means of patience and Salāh. Indeed Allāh is with the patient ones." [Surah 2, verse 153]

Says Allāh in Surah Zumar, "The patient ones shall be granted their reward without reservation." [Surah 39, verse 10]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh grants patience to the person who wants to be patient. None can be granted a gift better and more extensive than patience." [Mishkāt p. 163]

Certain divines have mentioned that "Patience is more bitter than aloes and sweeter than fruit."

When the brothers realised that it was Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام before them, they cast their gazes down in shame and submitted, "By Allāh! Allāh has certainly preferred you above us and we were really among the wrong doers."

Although they did not directly ask to be forgiven, any noble person understands that an admission of guilt is equal to a plea for forgiveness. Therefore, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام replied, "There shall be no reproach on you today. May Allāh forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

The difficulties and torment that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم suffered at the hands of the people of Makkah is well documented. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports when the Muslims conquered Makkah, the Quraysh were terrified about their plight. They thought they would certainly be executed. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came out of the Ka'ba, he made Tawāf, performed two Rakāh Salāh and, standing between the door frames of the Ka'ba, asked the Quraysh, "What do you have to say, and what do you think (of me)?"

They replied, "You are the son of our brother and our uncle. You are forbearing and merciful." Again, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم repeated this question three times, the reply was the same. Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I say exactly what Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام said, 'There shall be no reproach on you today. May Allāh forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.'"

According to a narration in the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم biography written by Ibn Hishām, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked them what they thought of him, the Quraysh replied, "We think that you would treat us well. You are our magnanimous brother, the son of our magnanimous brother." He then told them, "Go! You are all free."

أَذْهَبُوا بِقَمِيصِي هَذَا فَأَلْقُوهُ عَلَى وَجْهِ أَبِي يَأْتِ بَصِيرًا وَأْتُونِي بِأَهْلِكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٩٣﴾ وَلَمَّا فَصَلَتِ الْعِيرُ قَالَ أَبُوهُمْ إِنِّي لَأَجِدُ رِيحَ يُوسُفَ لَوْلَا أَن تُفَنِّدُونِ ﴿٩٤﴾ قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ إِنَّكَ لَفِي ضَلَالِكَ الْقَدِيمِ ﴿٩٥﴾ فَلَمَّا أَن جَاءَ الْبَشِيرُ أَلْقَاهُ عَلَى وَجْهِهِ فَارْتَدَّ بَصِيرًا قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَكُمْ إِنِّي أَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ قَالُوا يَتَابَا أَنَا أَسْتَغْفِرُ لَنَا ذُنُوبَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا خَاطِئِينَ ﴿٩٧﴾ قَالَ سَوْفَ أَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكُمْ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٩٨﴾

(93) He said, "Take this shirt of mine and cast it upon the face of my father. He will regain his sight. And bring your entire family to me." (94) When the caravan left, their father said, "Verily, if it were not that you would say that I am babbling, (I would say that) I smell the fragrance of Yusuf." (95) They said, "By Allāh! You are in your old misconception." (96) When the bearer of glad tidings arrived and cast the shirt upon his face, he regained his sight. He said, "Did I not tell you that I have such knowledge from Allāh that you do not know?" (97) They said, "O our father! Seek forgiveness for our sins. Indeed we were wrongdoers." (98) He said, "I shall shortly seek forgiveness for you from my Lord. Verily He is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام SENDS HIS SHIRT TO BE CAST ON HIS FATHER'S FACE AND HE REGAINS HIS SIGHT

When the brothers discovered Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, their duty was accomplished and they began to leave for home. Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told them, "Take this shirt of mine and cast it upon the face of my father. He will regain his sight (that he had lost because of excessive weeping). And bring your entire family to me."

"When the caravan (of the brothers') left (and were still in Egypt), their father said, 'Verily, if it were not that you would say that I am babbling (and that I was senile), (I would say that) I smell the fragrance of Yusuf.'"

The relatives of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام who were present with him said, "By Allāh! You are in your old misconception."

However, "When the bearer of glad tidings (one of the brothers) arrived and cast the shirt upon his face, he regained his sight. He said, 'Did I not tell you that I have such knowledge from Allāh that you do not know?'" He was referring to the time when they told him, "By Allāh! You keep mentioning Yusuf until you waste away or become totally destroyed," which he replied, 'I only complain of my sorrow and my grief to Allāh. And I have been granted such knowledge from Allāh that you do not know about. O my sons! Go and search for Yusuf and his brother. And do not become despondent of Allāh's mercy. Indeed only the disbelieving nation grows despondent of Allāh's mercy.'"

Thereupon the brothers admitted, "O our father! Seek forgiveness for our sins. Indeed we were wrongdoers."

In reply, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام said, "I shall shortly seek forgiveness for you from my Lord. Verily He is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه reports that someone asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم why Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام did not seek forgiveness for them immediately? The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that du'ās are accepted in the last portion of the night. Therefore, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام wished to repent on their behalf at that time.

Tirmidhi has also reported a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه to make a specific Salāh and supplication (du'ā) (for a strong memory) during the last portion of Friday night. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that supplication's (du'ā's) are accepted during that time and that Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام was waiting for this time when he told his sons, "I shall shortly seek forgiveness for you from my Lord." [Durrul Manthūr v. 4 p. 36]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported from Sayyidina Sha'bi رحمه الله that Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام did not immediately repent on their behalf because they had oppressed Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام as well and Allāh would not forgive them unless Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام also forgave them. Therefore, he intended to first confirm forgiveness from Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام before seeking forgiveness for them.

Note: The miracles of the Prophets عليهم السلام (Mu'jizāt) and those of the pious divines (Karamāt) cannot take place without Allāh's will. Ever when the Polytheists of Makkah beseeched the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for miracles, he was unable to do them without Allāh's permission.

The incident of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام clearly demonstrates this fact Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام, when Allāh willed it, could smell Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام from an exceptional distance. However, when Allāh did not will it he could not even smell him when he was in a well within the very same district.

فَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا عَلَى يُوسُفَ ءَاوَىٰ إِلَيْهِ أَبَوَيْهِ وَقَالَ ادْخُلُوا مِصْرَ إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ ءَامِنِينَ ﴿٩٩﴾ وَرَفَعَ أَبَوَيْهِ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ وَخَرُّوا لَهُ سُجَّدًا وَقَالَ يَتَابَتَ هَذَا تَأْوِيلُ رُءُوسِي مِن قَبْلُ قَدْ جَعَلَهَا رَبِّي حَقًّا وَقَدْ أَحْسَنَ بِي إِذْ أَخْرَجَنِي مِنَ السِّجْنِ وَجَاءَ بِكُم مِّنَ الْبَدْوِ مِن بَعْدِ أَن نَزَعَ الشَّيْطَانُ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ إِخْوَتِي إِنَّ رَبِّي لَطِيفٌ لِّمَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١٠٠﴾ رَبِّ قَدْ ءَاتَيْتَنِي مِنَ الْمُلْكِ وَعَلَّمْتَنِي مِنْ تَأْوِيلِ الْأَحَادِيثِ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَنْتَ وَلِيِّ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ تَوَفَّنِي مُسْلِمًا وَأَلْحِقْنِي بِالصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٠١﴾

(99) When they entered the presence of Yusuf, he took his parents unto him and said, "Enter Egypt in safety if Allāh wills." (100) He seated his parents upon a throne and they all fell prostrate before him. He said, "O my beloved father! This is the interpretation of my past dream. Allāh has surely made it come true. He had truly been kind to me when He removed me from the prison and brought you from the countryside after Devil (Shaytān) had caused strife between my brothers and me Verily my Lord subtly plans what He wills. Verily He is All Knowing, The Wise." (101) "O my Lord! Indeed You have granted me a part of kingship and taught me the interpretation of dreams. O Creator of the heavens and the earth! You are my Protecting Friend in this world and in the Hereafter. Grant me death in a state of obedience and include me among Your pious bondsmen.

HIS ENTIRE FAMILY ARRIVES IN EGYPT AND THE DREAM IS REALISED WHEN THE PARENTS AND BROTHERS OF SAYYIDINA YUSUF عليه السلام PROSTRATE BEFORE HIM

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told his brothers to bring their entire families with them to Egypt. Therefore, accompanied by their parents, wives and children, all eleven brothers left for Egypt. Upon hearing of their approach, Sayyidina Yusuf

عليه السلام welcomed them outside the city and, taking his parents close to him, told the family, "Enter Egypt in safety, if Allāh wills."

When they entered the city, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام honoured all of them and "He seated his parents upon a throne..." He placed them on his throne to show their elevated status. On that occasion, his parents and eleven brothers 'fell prostrate before him.'

Prostrating to a person as a token of respect and honour was allowed for the past nations, but not for the ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In our Shari'ah prostrating before any creation is unlawful (Harām), be it out of respect or as an act of worship.

The prostration of all the brothers was the realisation of the same dream that Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام never wanted Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to disclose to his brothers, fearing that they would attempt to harm him. However, they attempted to harm him, but the plan of Allāh reigned supreme, as it always does. They were all eventually forced to submit to him.

When they all prostrated before Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, he said, "O my beloved father! This is the interpretation of my past dream. Allāh has surely made it come true." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from the historian Ibn Is'hāq رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام that the real mother of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام is referred to in these verses. Others maintain that his real mother was deceased, after which Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام married her sister. Therefore, his stepmother is referred to whenever mention is made of "his parents." Allāh knows best.

Thereafter Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام mentioned the favours of Allāh upon him. He said, "He had truly been kind to me when He removed me from the prison..." He mentioned this initially because this was the first stepping stone towards his position as chief minister of Egypt. Attaining this position allowed him to bring his family to Egypt. Therefore, he then mentions that Allāh was kind to him because Allāh, "brought you from the countryside after Devil (Shaytān) had caused strife between my brothers and me."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" mentions that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام did not mention his escape from the well, and attributed the animosity of his brothers to Devil (Shaytān) so that they are not embarrassed any further. He did this because, after forgiving them, it was not befitting that they be made to suffer additional embarrassment. This is the exemplary quality of magnanimous people.

Thereafter he mentioned, "Verily my Lord subtly plans what He wills. Verily He is All Knowing, The Wise." Allāh saw to it that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was safely delivered from the well and all His actions are replete with wisdom.

Thereafter, he turned to Allāh and supplicated, "O my Lord! Indeed You have granted me a part of kingship and taught me the interpretation of dreams." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that here Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام refers to a large part of sovereignty, because the verse states great bounties. Other commentators state that he mentioned "a part of kingship" because he was not made the king of Egypt.

The second bounty of possessing the knowledge to interpret dreams is also extremely great and it was the means by which he attained to the position of minister.

SOME NOTES CONCERNING DREAMS

Allāh has granted certain people the ability to interpret dreams. All interpretations are not necessarily accurate.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Nothing has been left of the Prophethood except the bearers of glad tidings." When the Sahabah رضى الله عنه inquired what were the "bearers of glad tidings," the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Good dreams that a believer (Mu'min) sees or that others see about him." [Mishkāt p. 394]

Sayyidina Ubāda bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The dream of a believer (Mu'min) is a 46th part of the Prophethood." [Bukhari v. 2 p.1030]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever sees me in a dream has truly seen me because devil (Shaytān) cannot assume my appearance." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 1032]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Towards the end of time, the dream of a believer (Mu'min) will not come close to being false. The truest of dreams will be that of the person who is the most truthful." Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned the three types of dreams. The first are those that are from Allāh. These convey glad tidings. The second are those that are a result of a person's constant thoughts. He will see the things that plague his mind. The third are those that Devil (Shaytān) accosts the mind with evil so that a person is grieved by them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then added that whenever a person sees a dream of the third category, he should not relate it to anyone and he should engage in Salāh. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه quotes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying, "Whenever any of you sees an unpleasant dream, he should spit (i.e. make the action of spitting) thrice to the left and thrice recite, 'A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān nir Rajīm.' Thereafter he should lie on the opposite side." [Mishkāt p. 394]

Sayyidina Abu Razīn Aqīl رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The dream of a believer (Mu'min) is a part of 46 parts of the Prophethood. It remains upon the leg of a bird until he relates it (i.e. it will not manifest itself). When he relates it to another and it is interpreted, it will transpire according to the interpretation. Relate your dreams only to those people who love you (so that they interpret it favourably) or those who are intelligent and will interpret it well. At the least, if you expect an unfavourable interpretation, then remain silent." [Tirmidhi]

THE INTERPRETATION OF SOME DREAMS

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about her cousin Waraqa bin Naufal. She asked,

"He attested to your Prophethood but passed away before you could begin your duty. What do you think is his position?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "I saw him in a dream wearing white clothes. If he were in Hell, he would have been wearing something else." [Tirmidhi]

Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that, in a dream, he was given a cup of milk to drink. He said that he drank so much from it that it could be seen in his fingertips. He then passed the leftover milk to Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. When the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم asked what was the interpretation of this dream, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that the milk denoted knowledge. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 1037]

Sayyidah Ummul Ala رضي الله عنه reports that she saw in a dream that Sayyidina Uthmān bin Madh'ūn رضي الله عنه had a river. When she narrated this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he said that the actions of Sayyidina Uthmān bin Madh'ūn رضي الله عنه were still running. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 1039]

Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw in a dream that a dark woman with dishevelled hair was leaving Madinah for Juhfa. He interpreted this to mean that a pestilence had left Madinah and gone to Juhfa. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 1044] This dream was realised as interpreted by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The Epigones (Tabi'ī) Sayyidina Muhammad bin Sirīn رحمه الله عليه was gifted with the ability to accurately interpret dreams. Many dreams seem evil, but are, in fact, good. Imām Abu Hanifah رحمه الله عليه once saw in a dream that he dug up the grave of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and removed the bones. He was extremely perturbed about this and sent someone to ask the interpretation from Sayyidina Muhammad bin Sirīn رحمه الله عليه. The interpretation was that Imām Abu Hanifah رحمه الله عليه would be responsible for spreading the knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Expressing the realisation of the dream to his father, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام said, "O my beloved father! This is the interpretation of my past dream. Allāh has surely made it come true."

ACKNOWLEDGING ALLĀH'S FAVOURS IS A FORM OF GRATITUDE

A person shows gratitude to Allāh when he acknowledges Allāh's bounties on him, praises Allāh for them and utilises these in Allāh's obedience. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "Will they still refute Allāh's favour?" [Surah 16, verse 71]

Allāh had granted Qārūn an abundance of wealth. He was told, "And do not seek corruption on earth, for Allāh does not like those who create corruption." He replied by saying, 'I have been granted all of this because of the knowledge I possess.' By not acknowledging that Allāh had conferred these bounties to him and by attributing it to himself, his resultant destruction is known to all.

The supplication's (du'ā's) taught by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم contain admission of Allāh's bounties on people. One of these is the Sayyidul Istighfār (the chief of all repentance), which is:

Translation ["O Allāh! You are my Lord. 'There is no deity besides

You. You have created me and I am your slave. I shall be steadfast upon Your pledge and promise as far as I am able. I seek refuge with You from the evil of my sins. I acknowledge Your bounties upon me and admit my sins. So forgive me, because none can forgive sins except You.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that if a person recites this supplication (du'ā) with conviction in the morning and then dies before the evening of the same day, he will be among the inhabitants of Heaven (Jannah). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then mentioned that if a person recites this du'ā with conviction in the evening and then dies before the next morning, he will be of the inhabitants of Heaven (Jannah). [Bukhari v. 2 p.933]

THE SUPPLICATION (DU'Ā) TO DIE AS A MUSLIM AND TO BE RAISED AMONG THE PIOUS

Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام continued to supplicate saying, "O Creator of the heavens and the earth! You are my Protecting Friend in this world and in the Hereafter. Grant me death in a state of obedient (as a Muslim) and include me among Your pious bondsmen." This supplication teaches us that the most fortunate occurrence that could happen to a person is to die with Belief (Imān). One should also pray to Allāh to make one like those who excel one in piety.

The question is asked about why Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام prayed for death, when this is not permissible; especially when one is in good stead? The reply is that he never made such a prayer. He never asked for death. All he did was that he asked Allāh that when Allāh decreed his death, he desired that he leave this world in an appropriate condition.

ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهِ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا كُنْتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ أَجْمَعُوا أَمْرَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَمْكُرُونَ
 وَمَا أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ وَلَوْ حَرَصْتَ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَمَا تَسْأَلُهُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ
 أَجْرٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٤﴾

(102) This narrative is from the accounts of the unseen with which We inspire you. You were not with them when they collectively resolved their affair and when they plotted. (103) Most people will not believe even though you aspire for it. (104) You do not ask them recompense for it. This is but advice for the universe.

RELATING ACCOUNTS OF THE UNSEEN WAS A PROOF OF THE APOSTLESHIP OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Friend and foe are all aware of the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was neither lettered, nor did he associate with anyone who could have informed him about the incident of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that the Jews told the polytheists to inquire from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم why the Bani Isrā'il left their homeland to settle in Egypt. In reply to this question, Surah Yusuf was revealed. The Jews and the polytheists never expected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to reply to the question. When he did, they still refused to accept him as the Holy Prophet of Allāh.

With regard to the story of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, Allāh says, [This narrative is from the accounts of the unseen with which We inspire you. You were not with them [the brothers of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام] when they collectively resolved their affair and when they plotted [against Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام].] This fact was apparent to everyone. Therefore, the only way by which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could have known of this story was through divine revelation.

According to certain narrations in "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 13 p.65), the Jews and the Polytheists promised to accept Islām if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could relate the story accurately. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم desired very much that they accept Islām, but they still did not. Allāh says, 'Most people will not believe even though you aspire for it (for them to believe).'

"You do not ask them recompense for it. This is but advice for the universe." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would not be held responsible for their disbelief, nor would he be affected by it.

NOTES, LESSONS AND RULINGS

1. It is indeed a great blessing of Allāh to see a good dream or to be able to interpret dreams.

2. Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام warned Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام not to relate his dream to his brothers because he feared that they may harm him. It is learnt from this that it is permissible to forewarn a person of anticipated danger from another. 'This will not be regarded as backbiting.

3. 'The evil actions of Sayyidina Yusuf's عليه السلام brothers denote that they were not Prophets عليهم السلام. The incident proves that the children of a pious person (the Prophet in this case) can also commit major sins. It is also learnt that no parent can be held responsible and blamed for the sins of their children when the parents have taught their children well and guided them adequately.

4. Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام had twelve children. Ten from one wife, while Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام and Bin Yāmin were from another. Another name of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام was Isra'il. Therefore, the progeny of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام are referred to as the 'Bani Isra'il (the children of Isra'il).

Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام and his wife passed away in 'Egypt, but he made the bequest that he be buried in his homeland of Kan'ān. After the demise of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, the Bani Isra'il had no position in the government of 'Egypt. They did not return to their homeland and the 'Egyptians always persecuted them, as recounted in Surah Baqarah and Surah A'rāf. They were so weakened that they could not raise any objection when their male offspring were slaughtered:

When Allāh sent Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, the Bani Isra'īl numbered 600,000. In the valley of Tih, they were divided into the twelve tribes. Certain books of history and exegesis (tafsīr) mention that the Bani Isra'īl left 'Egypt after 400 years.

5. When the brothers requested Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام, 'Sent! him with us tomorrow so that he may eat and play with us,' Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام replied, "Indeed it grieves me that he should go with you. I fear that you should be neglect of him and then a wolf would devour him." He did not tell them that he was not sending Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام with them because play and sport are prohibited acts. 'Scholars (Ulama) have deduced from this that sport and leisure are not forbidden acts, as long as they are within the constraints of the Shari'ah. 'When the intention is good; a person will even be rewarded for this act.

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them, 'You will conquer Rome (parts of Europe) and Allāh will protect you from the evil of its people. Therefore, none of you should fail to play with his arrows (i.e. practise archery).' [Muslim]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also emphasised training horses [Mishkāt p. 336]. Both archery and horse-riding aid in Jihād and one would be rewarded for practising with modern weapons for the cause of jihād.

Sport is permissible when the private parts of the body are not exposed, Salāh is not missed; no gambling is involved and no laws of the Shari'ah are contravened.

6. "Do not kill Yusuf but throw him in a dark well so that some travellers may take him away, if you intend doing something." 'The eldest brother forwarded this opinion to the rest of them. It is learnt from this that a person should try to prevent others from evil. If he is totally incapable of doing so, then he should; at least, try to convince them to do something less evil.

7. Allāh says that when Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was cast into the well "We sent revelation to him that you will certainly remind them of this matter when they will not realise..." "This revelation that he received in the well was not revelation of prophethood that is revealed via Jibr'il عليه السلام. It refers to inspiration that pious people also receive even though the Arabic word "Wahi" is used: 'The word "Wahi" is therefore not restricted to the divine revelation that the Prophets عليهم السلام receive.

The inspiration that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام received in the well was just like that which the mother of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام received; as mentioned in Surah Qasas where Allāh says, "We sent revelation (inspiration) to the mother of Mūsa to suckle him..."

The same is referred to in Surah Nahl where Allāh says, 'Your Lord inspired the bee...' In both these verses the Arabic word "Wahi" is used. 'While in the well, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was not yet a Prophet, as confirmed by verse 22 where Allāh says, "When he came of age, We granted him wisdom and knowledge." This refers to his position of the Holy Prophethood. Therefore the revelation that he received in the well was not Prophetic revelation, but inspiration.

8. To substantiate their claim that the wolf ate Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, the brothers removed the shirt of Sayyidina Yusuf before throwing him into the well and smeared the blood of some animal on it. Referring to this Allāh says, "They came with false blood on his shirt."

However, they failed to rip up the shirt to indicate that the wolf devoured Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. Therefore, when Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام saw the shirt in perfect order, he realised that they were lying. For this reason, he told them, 'But your souls have contrived this matter for you.'

It is learnt from this that although a judge will pass judgement in a case in accordance with the testimony of witnesses and by means of oaths taken by the parties he should also consider the circumstances and other important clues and evidence.

9. After Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام realised that his sons were lying to him, he accepted that he was now unable to do anything. Therefore, he said, "However, I will exercise patience without any complaint and I shall see Allāh's assistance against what you have devised." We learn from this that a person should never fail to keep his attention focussed on Allāh for assistance even though he is exercising patience.

10. The verses of the Qur'ān clearly denote that it was the minister of 'Egypt's treasury who bought Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, and that the king of 'Egypt was another person. 'The minister's name was Qitfir and the king was Rayyān. The king was from the Amāliqa tribe and; according to the books of history, he accepted Islām and died before Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام as a Muslim.

11. The wife of the minister, commonly referred to as Zulaikha, is reported to have married Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. This belief has its source in the narrations of the Bani Isra'īl. 'The Qur'ān and the Ahādīth do not mention anything like this.

12. When the minister's wife attempted to seduce Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام "She locked the doors and said; 'I am telling you to come to me. 'He said; 'I seek refuge with Allāh Indeed my caretaker has treated me honourably How can I betray him?). Surely the oppressors will never succeed (even though they may seem to be successful temporarily in this world)."

13. Even though Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام knew that the doors were locked, he raced for the doors because he was desperate to escape sin. He did what he could and Allāh saw to the rest.

14. Just as the ranks of good deeds vary according to their level of difficulty, so too does abstention from evil vary. Although a person will be greatly rewarded for refusing the seduction of an ugly, low class woman, he will be much more greatly rewarded for refusing the advances of a beautiful and noble lady.

Enumerating the seven people who will be shaded by Allāh's throne on the Day of Judgement, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned one of them as being the man who was called to sin by a beautiful lady of noble birth and he said to her, "Indeed I fear Allāh" [Mishkāt p. 68]

The woman who tried to charm Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was this type of a lady, yet he refused to respond to her demands. This required a great deal of piety (Taqwa) and Belief (Imān). Of course, the assistance and guidance of Allāh are of paramount importance. Referring to this, Allāh mentions, "In this manner (Our fate had decreed the matter) so that 'We averted evil and lewdness from him.'"

15. Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام displayed such fine character and cordiality towards the inmates of the prison that they began to love him. It was for this reason that the two men came to him for the interpretation of their dreams and they told him, "We truly deem you to be of the righteous."

It is essential for a preacher to have noble qualities and to be cordial to all people. The character of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was so exemplary that the person who served drinks to the king addressed him as "O Yusuf! O most truthful!" when he came to inquire the interpretation of the king's dream.

16. As was already mentioned; a preacher seeks the opportunity to preach to a person. The time is especially right when the person requires something of the preacher, for then he will be attentive. It was for this reason that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام first preached the message of Oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) to the two inmates before interpreting their dreams. He also seized the opportunity to introduce himself as one who followed the religion (Dīn) of his forefathers viz. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام and Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام.

17. Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told the freed person "Mention me to your master." This proves that a person is allowed to resort to means to assist one's self. This does not oppose Tawakkul (trust in Allāh).

18. Irrespective of the means adopted; help and relief will only come when Allāh ordains it. It has often been noticed that a patient meets the right doctor only when the hour of cure is imminent. It is only then that he receives the guidance to make supplication (du'ā). However, one should be hopeful of Allāh's assistance and still adopt whatever means possible.

In a similar manner, Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was only released from prison when Allāh decreed it. It was only then that the person recalled him and mentioned him to the king.

19. When the person came to Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام to inquire about the interpretation of the dream, he did not rebuke him for only recalling him after so many years.

20. Together with the interpretation of the king's dream, Sayyidina

Yusuf عليه السلام also tendered a plan of action. This was given according to his experience. This fact proves that it is not against the demands of piety that a person offers worldly advice to people based on his experience. In fact, this is commendable since people benefit from it.

21. When Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام prompted the investigation, he requested that the king find out 'what is the condition of the women who cut their hands.' He did not request the king to call for the minister wife because he appreciated the kindness and generosity that she and her husband showed to him for many years previously. Only after the other ladies admitted his innocence did the minister wife say on her own, "The truth is now out. I attempt to seduce him to realise my motives and he is of the truthful".

22. When Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام was proven innocent he mentioned; "I do not exonerate myself Surely the soul insistently orders evil, except on whom Allāh showers mercy." He acknowledged the fact that it was only by Allāh's grace that he could have abstained from sin. Here is a lesson for all who abstain from sin. Never should one be boastful and attribute the honour to oneself One should realise this as Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام mentioned, "'Undoubtedly my Lord is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

23. The Qur'ān mentions the three stages of one's soul viz. Ammāra, Lawwāma and Mutma'inna. Hakimul Ummah Thanwi رحمه الله writes in Bayānul Qur'ān that the Ammāra is the one that insistently commands evil acts. 'When it repents sincerely, it is forgiven and becomes Lawwāma. It is then perfected to become the Mutma'inna because of Allāh's mercy and grace.

In brief the Ammāra becomes Lawwāma because of Allāh's quality of "Most Forgiving" and the Lawwāma becomes Mutma'inna because of Allāh's quality of being the "Most Merciful."

24. Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام told the king, "Indeed I am protective and knowledgeable. "This shows that it is permissible for a person to mention his attributes for the ask of a religious necessity. As long as the person does not say this out of pride, it will not fall into the category of proclaiming ones piety, which is condemned in the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth.

25. When the brothers requested Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام to send Bin Yāmin with them, he said; 'Should I trust you with him as I trusted you with his brother before? But Allāh is the best Protector and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." This statement shows that he trusted only Allāh, even though he mistrusted his sons.

Even when Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام made his sons take the oath to return Bin Yāmin, has added the clause, 'unless you are surrounded (overwhelmed!).' This also shows that he realised that the final decision in every matter rests with Allāh, Therefore, whenever a person takes an oath, he should exclude those probable situations that are beyond his control.

وَكَايْنٍ مِّنْ آيَةٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَمُرُّونَ عَلَيْهَا وَهُمْ عَنْهَا مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾
وَمَا يُؤْمِنُ أَكْثَرُهُمْ بِٱللَّهِ إِلَّا وَهُمْ مُّشْرِكُونَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ أَفَأَمْنُوا أَن تَأْتِيَهُمْ غَشِيَةٌ مِّنْ
عَذَابِ ٱللَّهِ أَوْ تَأْتِيَهُمُ ٱلسَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١٠٧﴾

(105) There are numerous signs in the heavens and the earth by which they pass, yet they ignore them. (106) Most of them believe in Allāh in such a manner that they still ascribe partners to Him. (107) Do they feel secure that a calamity from Allāh's punishment (will not) befall them, or that the Hour (will not) come to them suddenly while they are unwary?

PEOPLE PASS BY MANY NATURAL SIGNS, YET THEY DO NOT BELIEVE

Describing the condition of those who are invited to believe in oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) and the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "There are numerous (natural) signs in the heavens and the earth by which they pass, yet they ignore them." They do not ponder over the various creations of Allāh, which denote that He is The One and Omnipotent.

"Most of them believe in Allāh in such a manner that they still ascribe partners to Him." When they are told to believe in Allāh, they admit that they believe in Him, but add that the other various gods are His partners. This type of Belief (Imān) is worthless since they do not believe in oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), nor in the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh says that these people still live peacefully, being unafraid of Allāh's punishment and the Day of Judgement. Allāh says, "Do they feel secure that a calamity (will not) befall them from Allāh's punishment, or that the Hour (will not) come to them suddenly while they are unwary?"

In verse 45 of Surah Nahl, Allāh says, "Do those who plot evil schemes rest assured that Allāh will not plunge them into the earth or afflict them with a punishment from whence they do not perceive?"

قُلْ هَذِهِ سَبِيلِي أَدْعُو إِلَى اللَّهِ عَلَىٰ بَصِيرَةٍ أَنَا وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَنِي وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ
ٱلْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿١٠٨﴾

(108) Say, This is my way. I call towards Allāh with insight, as well as those who follow me. Allāh is Pure, and I am not from those who ascribe partners to Allāh.

TELL THEM THAT MY WAY IS THAT I CALL TOWARDS ALLĀH

In this verse Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to announce to all people that he, together with all his followers are steadfast on the path of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), calling others towards it with "insight". "They are all convinced of the truth of their beliefs and will not be deterred from it by anything.

Such should be the quality of the believers (Mu'minîn). They do not allow any doubts to creep into their minds and are prepared to reply conclusively to any objections that the disbelievers (kuffār) may raise.

"Allāh is Pure, and I am not from those who ascribe partners to Allāh." A believer (Mu'min) should be exonerated from whatever the disbelievers (kuffār) and polytheists claim and believe.

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ إِلَّا رِجَالًا نُوْحِيْ اِلَيْهِمْ مِنْ اٰهْلِ الْاَلْقَمٰى اَفَلَمْ يَسِيْرُوْا فِي
الْاَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوْا كَيْفَ كَانَتْ عٰقِبَةُ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَلَدَارُ الْاٰخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ
اٰتَقَوْا اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿١٠٩﴾

(109) All the messengers that We sent before you were men from various cities to whom We had sent revelation. Have these people not travelled in the lands and seen what was the outcome of those before them? Indeed the home of the Hereafter is best for those who adopt piety (taqwa). Do you not understand?

ALL THE PREVIOUS HOLY PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ WERE HUMANS

Of the various futile objections raised by the polytheists when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached to them was that they demanded that the Holy Prophet be an angel. In reply to this Allāh says, "All the messengers that We sent before you were men from various cities to whom We had sent revelation." The reason that all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ were humans was that they were sent to preach to and teach humans. Therefore, they were best equipped to demonstrate Allāh's injunctions to the people because they spoke the language and they possessed the same understanding and temperaments of humans. Angels, being a different creation, would have been unable to satisfactorily convey the message of the various Shari'ahs to the people.

This verse is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so as to inform him that the nations of all the previous Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ also raised the same objections. Allāh quotes the speech of these people in Surah Ibrahim, where He says, "They said, 'You are but mere humans like ourselves.'" Allāh's instruction to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was that he should bear all of this with patience, just as all the previous Anbiya عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ did.

"Have these people not travelled in the lands and seen what was the outcome of those before them?" Here Allāh addresses people at large, telling them that if they saw what was the plight of the destroyed nations of the past, they would desist from their obstinacy and believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"Indeed the home of the Hereafter is best for those who adopt piety (taqwa)."

pleasures of the Hereafter are reserved for those who abstain from evil and carry out all the Obligations (Farā'idh), Compulsories (Wājibāt), preferables (Mustahabbāt), etc of religion (Dīn). These blessings are far superior to the transitory ones of this world, which actually distract a person from Allāh and from doing good deeds.

"Do you not understand?" People seem not to understand that the everlasting blessings of the Hereafter are much better than the temporary ones of this world. However, people still hanker after these.

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا اسْتَيْسَسَ الرُّسُلُ وَظَنُوا أَنَّهُمْ قَدْ كُذِّبُوا جَاءَهُمْ نَصْرُنَا فَنُجِّيَ مِنْ نَأْسِهَا
وَلَا يُرَدُّ بَأْسُنَا عَنِ الْقَوْمِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١١٠﴾

(110) Until the time came when the messengers grew despondent and they thought that they erred in their understanding. Then Our assistance came to them and We rescued whom We willed. Our punishment cannot be averted from the criminal nation.

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE TRANSGRESSORS CANNOT BE AVERTED

This verse explains that the Prophets عليهم السلام grew despondent when Allāh's assistance did not come to them immediately. They began to think that perhaps they were wrong to think that Allāh would punish the wrongdoers immediately. This occurred because Allāh granted the disbelievers (kuffār) an abundance of worldly pleasures and they continued to pass their lives in ease.

However, Allāh punishes nations only when He decrees it fit. Although He promised His assistance to the Prophets عليهم السلام, he never specified to them exactly when it would come to them. In this manner, Allāh's punishment was delayed until (as Allāh says in Surah Baqarah), "the messenger (of Allāh) and the believers said, 'When will the help of Allāh come?' Surely, the help of Allāh is near." [Surah 2, verse 214]

Indeed, Allāh's promise was always true and the help came. Allāh says that when they reached this juncture, "Then Our assistance came to them and We rescued whom We willed. Our punishment cannot be averted from the criminal nation."

لَقَدْ كَانَتْ فِي قَصَصِهِمْ عِبْرَةٌ لِأُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ ۚ مَا كَانَ حَدِيثًا يُفْتَرَىٰ وَلَٰكِن تَصْدِيقَ الَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَتَفْصِيلَ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّلْقَوْمِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١١١﴾

(111) In their narratives there is certainly a lesson for people of intelligence. This Qur'ān is not a fabricated tale, but a confirmation to all the scriptures before it, a detailed explanation of all things, a guidance and a mercy for the believing folk.

THERE IS A LESSON IN THE NARRATIVES FOR PEOPLE OF INTELLIGENCE

Four things are mentioned in this final verse of Surah Yusuf. The first is that 'in their narratives there is certainly a lesson for people of intelligence.' These are the ones who ponder and deliberate over the subject matter that it contains.

Secondly, Allāh says, "This Qur'ān is not a fabricated tale..." "The Qur'ān and everything contained in it is the truth from Allāh and is not the product of any messenger.

Thirdly, Allāh says that the Qur'ān is "a confirmation to all the scriptures before it..." It contains the teachings of the previous scriptures. Therefore, the Jews and Christians should be especially influenced by it. Addressing the Jews in Surah Baqarah, Allāh says, "Believe in what I have revealed in confirmation of what you have with you, and do not become the first disbelievers." [Surah 2, verse 41]

In conclusion Allāh says that the Qur'ān is "a detailed explanation of all things, a guidance and a mercy for the believing folk." These are the people who accept its teachings and who practise accordingly.

سورة الرعد

Madinan

Surah Ar-Ra'd

Verses 43

[The Thunder] XIII

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْمَرَّةَ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ وَالَّذِي أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ الْحَقُّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا
يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي رَفَعَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا ثُمَّ أَسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ وَسَخَّرَ
الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى يُدَبِّرُ الْأَمْرَ يُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ بِلِقَاءِ
رَبِّكُمْ تُوقِنُونَ ﴿٢﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي مَدَّ الْأَرْضَ وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا رَواسِيَ وَأَنْهَارًا وَمِنْ كُلِّ الشَّجَرِ
جَعَلَ فِيهَا زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ يُغْشَى اللَّيْلُ النَّهَارُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٣﴾
وَفِي الْأَرْضِ قِطْعٌ مُّتَجَاوِرَاتٌ وَجَنَّاتٌ مِنْ أَعْنَابٍ وَزَرْعٌ وَنَخِيلٌ صِنْوَانٌ وَغَيْرُ صِنْوَانٍ
يُسْقَىٰ بِمَاءٍ وَاحِدٍ وَنُفِصِلُ بَعْضَهَا عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ فِي الْأُكُلِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ
لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Mīm Rā. These are the verses of the Book. Whatever has been revealed to you from your Lord is the truth, but most people do not believe. (2) It is Allāh who raised the skies without any pillar that you see, then rose to the Throne and subjugated the sun and the moon. Each runs to its appointed term. He plans affairs and explains the signs in detail so that you may be convinced of meeting your Lord. (3) It is He Who spread the earth and placed mountains and rivers in it. He creates pairs from every type of fruit and covers the day with the night. Indeed there are signs in this for those people who ponder. (4) On the earth there are neighbouring tracts of land, orchards of grapes, plantations and date palms, some of which intermingle, while others do not intermingle. All are irrigated by one water and We accord distinction to one over the other. Verily in this are signs for those who understand.

VARIOUS SIGNS OF ALLĀH'S ONENESS AND MIGHT

Allāh begins Surah Rād by saying, "Alif Lām Mīm Rā." "These are the letters of Muqatta'āt. These letters were discussed in beginning of Surah Baqarah.

"These are the verses of the Book (the Qur'ān). Whatever has been revealed to you from your Lord is the truth, but most people do not believe." They do not believe because they do not reflect but insist on following the deviant ways of their forefathers. Their disbelief will not affect the veracity of the Qur'ān in the least.

"It is Allāh who raised the skies without any pillar that you see..." They seem not to notice that the highly elevated skies are suspended without any visible supports, yet they do not collapse.

Describing Himself further, Allāh says that after raising the skies He, "then rose to the Throne..." The details of this are explained in the commentary of verse 54 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7).

Allāh also "subjugated the sun and the moon. Each runs to its appointed term." All of these celestial bodies will exist in the manner that Allāh ordained and up to the period stipulated by Him. Even the speed of their orbits is according to His decree.

Concerning the sun, Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, "The sun travels towards its destination. This is the decree of the Mighty, the All Knowing. We have stipulated phases for the moon, until it returns like a branch of an old date palm. It is not possible for the sun to catch up with the moon, nor is it possible for the night to precede the day. They all swim within their orbits." [Surah 36, verses 38-40]

According to certain commentators, the "appointed term" refers to the end of the universe i.e. Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

"He plans affairs (in the entire universe) and explains the signs in detail so that you may be convinced of meeting your Lord." Some Scholars (Ulama) explain that the "signs" refer to the verses of the Qur'ān. Others maintain that "the signs" refer to the proofs of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), be they present in the Shari'ah or in the natural world.

Once a person understands that Allāh is able to create all these various creations, He is perfectly able to resurrect the dead on the Day of Judgement, when all will meet Him.

"It is Him Who spread the earth and placed mountains and rivers on it." Allāh says in Surah Luqman that He "has placed mountains on earth so that it does not shake with you". The rivers were placed on earth as one of the greatest bounties of Allāh that have profound benefits for man.

The spreading of the earth does not contradict the fact that the earth is spherical. Because of its vastness, the earth seems flat to man, thereby enabling him to travel on earth. Even an ant on an extremely large ball cannot be compared to a human upon the earth.

"He creates pairs from every type of fruit..." e.g. There are the sweet and the sour, the large and the small, as well as various colours of the same fruit. Because of the fact that colours, textures and tastes have so many variants, certain commentators have mentioned that the word "pairs" is not restricted to two, but two is just the beginning.

"and covers the day with the night." The night follows the day and extinguishes its light.

"Indeed there are signs in this for those people who ponder." If people would really reflect on all these portents, they will realise that it can only be Allāh Who has created these things, Who preserves them and Who controls their functioning.

"On the earth there are neighbouring tracts of land, orchards of grapes, plantations and date palms, some of which intermingle, while -others do not intermingle." Trees branch out into numerous branches, where one branch often becomes manifold. There are those also that remain a single trunk, like the date palm.

"All are irrigated by one water and We accord distinction to one over the other." Although the water that reaches all of these plants is the same, they all differ greatly. Allāh has made some fruits sweeter than others even though they may grow in salty land. The land does not affect the produce.

"Verily in this are signs for those who understand." When they ponder over these signs, they will realise the Omnipotence of Allāh.

وَإِنْ تَعْجَبَ فَعَجَبٌ قَوْلُهُمْ أَءِذَا كُنَّا تُرَابًا أَهَآءَا لِمَا لَمْ يَخْلُقْ أَوَّلَئِكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَوَّلَئِكَ الْآغْلَالُ فِيْ أَعْنَاقِهِمْ وَأَوَّلَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٥﴾ وَتَسْتَعْجِلُونَكَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ قَبْلَ الْحَسَنَةِ وَقَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمُ الْمَثَلَتُ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُو مَغْفِرٍ لِلنَّاسِ عَلَى ظُلْمِهِمْ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَشَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٦﴾ وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ ۚ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُنذِرٌ وَلِكُلِّ قَوْمٍ هَادٍ ﴿٧﴾

(5) If you are astonished, then their statement is also astonishing (that), "When we become sand, will we be created anew?" These are the ones who disbelieve in their Lord. They are the ones who shall have yokes upon their necks and they shall be the inmates of Hell, where they shall abide forever. (6) They seek to hasten the evil before the good, whereas the incidents of punishment have passed before them. Indeed your Lord is forgiving towards His bondsmen despite their oppression. And indeed your Lord is severe in punishment. (7) The disbelievers say, "Why is some sign not revealed to him from his Lord? You are but a Warner, and every nation has a guide."

THE REJECTION OF RESURRECTION IS INDEED SURPRISING THESE REJECTERS WILL BE CONDEMNED TO HELL

Allāh addressed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying that "If you are astonished (at them), then their statement is also astonishing (that they say), 'When we become sand, will we be created anew?'" It is indeed astounding that people who have witnessed that Allāh has created them and their forefathers when they were once lifeless, can find it difficult to believe that Allāh will resurrect these bodies?

"These are the ones who disbelieve in their Lord." As a result of this behaviour in this world, they will be punished in the Hereafter. Their punishment will be that, "They are the ones who shall have yokes upon their necks and they shall be the inmates of Hell, where they shall abide forever."

"They seek to hasten the evil before the good..." They mockingly request that Allāh's punishment be brought to them instead of begging Allāh's forgiveness. They fail to realise that once the punishment comes, no one shall be saved from it.

Allāh says in verse 8 of Surah Hūd (Surah 11), "Indeed, if We have to postpone the punishment from them for a little while, they will certainly say, 'What holds it back?' Behold! The day when it will afflict them, it will not be averted from them and their mockery will engulf them."

Allāh continues to say that they demand punishment "whereas the incidents of punishment have passed before them." This clearly demonstrates their foolishness.

"Indeed your Lord is Forgiving towards His bondsmen despite their oppression." Sometimes Allāh forgives them because of their good deeds, and sometimes by afflicting them with difficulties associated with wealth and children. However, it should be borne in mind that "indeed your Lord is severe in punishment." Therefore, people should never allow themselves to be fooled by Allāh's benevolence, thereby falling into more sin. Allāh can still punish them if He wills.

"The disbelievers say, 'Why is some sign not revealed to him from his Lord?'" Because of their obstinacy, the disbelievers (kuffār) made various excuses to falsify the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم claim to apostleship. They said that they would accept him as a Prophet only when he performed the miracles that they demanded.

In reality, various other signs and proofs attest to his Prophethood without the need for miracles. Even when miracles were shown to them, they still refused to believe. This proved that they were insincere in their requests.

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "You are but a warner..." The task of the Prophet was merely to warn the people about the evil consequences of their evil and to propagate the religion (D'īn). He could not force them to believe. Allāh reserves the right to show miracles to the people when He willed, not when they wanted them.

"....and every nation has a guide." Every nation received a messenger. They also experienced rejection by the people. Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this verse by informing him that all the other Prophets عليهم السلام experienced the same treatment. Allāh says in Surah Ahqāf, "Exercise patience like how the resolute ones amongst the messengers exercised patience and do not be hasty regarding them." [Surah 46, verse 35]

Allāh says that every nation received a "guide." He did not say that every nation had 'The Prophet.' The reason for this is that even the scholars and learned ones of a nation can serve the purpose of guiding people, according to the teachings of their Prophet. If no Prophet reached any portion of the world, it will not be contradictory to this verse. A disciple or deputy of the Prophet would have reached the people there even though we may not have heard about it.

When a person is not proven to have been a Prophet, it will be incorrect to ascribe Prophethood to him merely on the basis that he was a leader to a nation and because Allāh says, "every nation has a guide." This misnomer is prevalent with regard to the founders of religion's (D'in's) such as Buddhism, Hinduism, etc. One should refrain from making such foolish claims.

The verse cannot substantiate the claim that these people were the Prophets because of the fact that the word 'guide' does not necessarily refer to a Prophet. Without religious proof, such statements cannot be made.

Another factor that disproves this theory is that these people have propagated many idolatrous beliefs and they are often depicted naked (or semi-naked). A Prophet of Allāh could never be so shameless as to expose himself in this manner.

Although the possibility does exist that the followers of these people adulterated their teachings and displayed them naked, this fact can also not be established beyond doubt. Therefore, one should abstain from holding such beliefs. Believing that any person after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a Prophet will, of course, constitute infidelity (kufr).

اللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَحْمِلُ كُلُّ أُنْثَىٰ وَمَا تَغِيضُ الْأَرْحَامُ وَمَا تَزْدَادُ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ
عِنْدَهُ بِمِقْدَارٍ ﴿٨﴾ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ الْكَبِيرُ الْمُتَعَالِ ﴿٩﴾ سَوَاءٌ مِنْكَ
مَنْ أَسَرَ الْقَوْلَ وَمَنْ جَهَرَ بِهِ وَمَنْ هُوَ مُسْتَخَفٍ بِالنَّيْلِ وَسَارِبٍ بِالنَّهَارِ ﴿١٠﴾ لَهُ
مُعَقَّبَاتٌ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ يَحْفَظُونَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُغَيِّرُ مَا يَقُومُ
حَتَّىٰ يُغَيِّرُوا مَا بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَإِذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ يَقُومَ شَيْئًا فَلَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ
وَالٍ ﴿١١﴾

(8) Allāh knows what every female bears and the shortages and excesses in the womb. Everything is perfectly stipulated with Him. (9) He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen. He is the Great, The Lofty. (10) Whoever whispers, speaks loudly is hidden in the night, or is walking in the day, they are all alike. (11) For everyone there are angels before him and following behind him, protecting him from Allāh's order. Undoubtedly Allāh does not change the conditions of a nation until they change the condition within themselves. When Allāh intends evil to befall a nation, there is none to avert it. They will have no helper besides Allāh.

ALLĀH KNOWS WHAT IS IN THE WOMBS, THE SEEN, THE UNSEEN AND EVERY SILENT AND LOUD SOUND

Allāh declares His complete knowledge in these verses. He knows the detailed condition of every pregnant woman. Allāh knows exactly when the foetus was conceived, when it will be delivered, the sex of the child and every minute detail about the features and situation of the child. Allāh is also aware of every development of the child.

Certain ignorant ones claim that people also are able to tell the gender of the child, so this knowledge is not exclusive to Allāh. They fail to understand that Allāh's knowledge is not merely based on instruments and experience. His knowledge is complete and infallible, while people err incessantly. Allāh's knowledge is so vast that He also knows exactly how many children will be born to any man or woman, and exactly when each child will be born.

"Everything is perfectly stipulated with Him." Included in the general meaning of this verse is the detail of how long a child will remain in the womb, how long will it live and how much sustenance it will receive.

Further elucidating Allāh's knowledge, He says, "He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen. He is the Great, The Lofty. Whoever whispers, speaks loudly, is hidden in the night, or is walking in the day, they are all alike." He knows of every one of these as perfectly as the other.

THE ANGELS PROTECT PEOPLE

"For everyone there are angels before him and following behind him, protecting him from Allāh's order." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that Allāh has appointed angels to protect people from all sides. They ensure that no physical harm befalls people. However, when Allāh's predestined matters are about to occur, only then do they leave the person.

ALLĀH WILL NOT CHANGE THE FAVOURABLE CONDITIONS OF PEOPLE UNTIL THEY BECOME DISOBEDIENT AND WORTHY OF HIS PUNISHMENT

"Undoubtedly Allāh does not change the conditions of a nation until they change the condition within themselves." When people begin to disobey Allāh and resort to evil, only then does Allāh change the favourable conditions that they enjoy. When this situation prevails, the protecting angels also leave them and they are exposed to Allāh's punishment. A similar scenario is explained with the example of a particular town in Surah Nahl [Surah 16, verse 112].

"When Allāh intends evil to befall a nation, there is none to avert it. They will have no helper besides Allāh." When Allāh decides that any calamity should afflict people, none can come to their aid.

هُوَ الَّذِي يُرِيكُمْ الْبَرْقَ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَيُنْشِئُ السَّحَابَ الثِّقَالَ
وَيُسَبِّحُ الرَّعْدُ بِحَمْدِهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ مِنْ خِيفَتِهِ وَيُرْسِلُ الصَّوَاعِقَ فَيُصِيبُ بِهَا
مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُمْ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي اللَّهِ وَهُوَ شَدِيدُ الْمِحَالِ

(12) Allāh is the One Who shows you the lightning that you fear and have hopes in. He is the One Who creates the heavy clouds. (13) Ra'd praises Him together with glorifying Him, and the angels also do so out of their fear for Him. Allāh sends the bolts of lightning to strike whomsoever He wills while they are disputing regarding Allāh. Allāh is fiercely Powerful.

THE CLOUDS, THE LIGHTNING AND THE THUNDER

When Allāh sends the lightning, some people (like travellers) become scared because the storm might affect their journey. On the other hand, people (like the farmers) are hopeful of beneficial rains for their crops. With reference to this, Allāh says, "Allāh is the One Who shows you the lightning that (some of) you fear and (others) have hopes in.

"He is the One Who creates the heavy clouds." These are then sent to wherever Allāh wills the rain. Allāh says in verse 57 of Surah A'rāf, "(Allāh is) He Who sends the winds ahead of His mercy as bearers of glad tidings. Until, when it carries heavy clouds, We lead it to a dead piece of ground and then shower rains upon it, extracting thereby all kinds offer it. In this manner We shall resurrect the dead so that you may take heed."

Allāh say further in the above verses, "Ra'd praises Him together with glorifying Him, and the angels also do so because of their fear for Him." Tirmidhi reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that a Jew once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O Abul Qāsim! Tell us what is Ra'd?"

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Ra'd is an angel of Allāh who has been appointed to see to the clouds. He has with him a cleaving instrument made of fire, with which he pulls the clouds according to Allāh orders." The Jew then asked what are the sounds that are heard. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that they were the sounds of the clouds being rebuked by Ra'd while he leads them to their destination.

"Allāh sends the bolts of lightning to strike whomsoever He wills while they are disputing regarding Allāh. Allāh is fiercely Powerful." Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once sent one of the Sahabāh رضى الله عنه to convey the message of Islām to one of the leaders during the period of ignorance. The person retorted, "What is this Allāh that you call me to? Is He made of iron, copper, silver or gold?"

The Sahabi رضى الله عنه returned to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the news of this person's insolence. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم again sent someone to him, but he behaved in the same manner. When the Sahabi رضى الله عنه returned to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the second time, he again sent the message a third time.

When the Sahabi رضى الله عنه returned the third time with the same reply, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Allāh has sent a bolt of lightning to incinerate the person. The above verse was then revealed.

According to another narration, a bolt of lightning struck him when he was arguing with the Sahabi رضى الله عنه upon the third occasion. The bolt decapitated him. [Majma'uz Zawāid v. 7 p.42]

لَمْ دَعُوهُ الْحَقُّ وَالَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ لَا يَسْتَجِيبُونَ لَهُمْ بِشَيْءٍ إِلَّا كَبْسِطٍ كَفَيْهِ إِلَى أَلْمَاءٍ
لِيَبْلُغَ فَاهُ وَمَا هُوَ بِبَالِغِهِ وَمَا دُعَاءُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ﴿١٤﴾ وَلِلَّهِ يَسْجُدُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ طَوْعًا وَكَرْهًا وَظِلَالُهُمْ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ ﴿١٥﴾ قُلْ مَنْ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ قُلِ
اللَّهُ قُلْ أَفَاتُخَذْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ أَنْفُسِهِمْ نَفَعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَى
وَالْبَصِيرُ أَمْ هَلْ تَسْتَوِي الظُّلُمَاتُ وَالنُّورُ أَمْ جَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ شُرَكَاءَ خَلَقُوا كَخَلْقِهِ فَتَشَبَّهُ الْخَلْقُ
عَلَيْهِمْ قُلِ اللَّهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهْرُ ﴿١٦﴾

(14) The true call is only for Him. Those who call to others besides Him, they do not respond to their pleas at all; except like the person who stretches out his hands towards water so that it may reach his mouth whereas it will never reach. The call of the disbelievers is wasted. (15) To Allāh does all within the heavens and the earth prostrate willingly or under duress, as well as their shadows by morning and evening. (16) Say, "Who is the Lord of the heavens and the earth?" Say, "Allāh!" Say, "Do you then take allies besides Allāh who have no ability to help, nor harm themselves." Say, "Is he who sees equal to the blind? Or is a multitudes of darkness equal to light? Or do they ascribe such partners to Allāh who create like He creates, thereby causing the creation to be alike to them?" Say, "Allāh is the Creator of everything and He is the One, The Omnipotent."

THE EXAMPLE OF THOSE WHO SUPPLICATE TO OTHERS BESIDES ALLĀH. ALL IN THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH PROSTRATE TO ALLĀH, HE IS THEIR LORD AND HAS CREATED ALL OF THEM

Allāh begins by saying, "The true call is only for Him." i.e. Only Allāh can be supplicated to, for only He is able to respond to the pleas of people.

"Those who call to others besides Him, they do not respond to their pleas at all..." Their false gods have no ability to do anything for themselves, so how can they help others? Allāh then cites the example of the du'ās of these people. He says that it is "like the person who (only) stretches out his hands towards water so that it may reach his mouth whereas it will never reach. (Similarly) The call of the disbelievers is wasted." The water has no ability to reach his mouth on its own and he will therefore never attain his objective.

Allāh says in verse 197 and 198 of Surah A'rāf, "Those whom you call upon besides Him are unable to help you and cannot even help themselves. If you call them towards guidance, they cannot hear and you will think that they are looking at you, but they do not see.

"To Allāh does all within the heavens and the earth prostrate willingly or under duress, as well as their shadows by morning and evening (i.e. all the time)." According to certain commentators, the verse means that all the humans, jinn and angels in the heavens and the earth prostrate to Allāh. Many of them do so happily, but those like the hypocrites (Munāfiqīn) are compelled against their wishes to do so.

Their shadows also move with them. The morning and the evening are specifically mentioned because at these times the shadows are most pronounced. However, their prostration is not confined to these two times only.

According to other commentators, the verse does not refer to literal prostration. Rather it refers to submission and yielding to Allāh. All of these creation are subservient to Allāh's decree. Of them are those who worship Allāh willingly, as well as those who do so reluctantly. Even the shadows of all of them are subservient to Allāh's will.

Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "Do you not see how your Lord spreads the shadow? If He willed, He could have made it stationary. We then appoint the sun as a sign to it and then We gradually withdraw it towards Ourselves." [Surah 25, verses 45, 46]

"..... willingly or under duress..." Similar to this verse, Allāh says in Surah Al Imrān [Surah 3, verse 83], "Do they seek a religion (D'in) besides the religion (D'in) of Allāh when unto Him submit all within the heavens and the earth, willingly or unwillingly, and unto Him shall they all be returned?" One should refer to the commentary of this verse for more details.

"Say, 'Who is the Lord of the heavens and the earth?' (If they do not reply because of their obstinacy, then you reply.) Say, 'Allāh!' (Then rebuke them by saying) Say, 'Do you then take allies besides Allāh who have no ability to help, nor harm themselves." If this be their condition, how can help be expected from them?

THOSE WHO SEE AND THOSE WHO ARE BLIND CANNOT BE ALIKE, NEITHER CAN DARKNESS BE AKIN TO LIGHT

"Say, 'Is he who sees equal to the blind?'" The polytheist and the believer (Mu'min) can never be the same, just as the blind cannot be compared to a person who has sight.

"Or is a multitudes of darkness equal to light?" The "multitudes of darkness" refers to all types of disbelief (kufr), while the single light refers to the light of Belief (Imān) in oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd). All the religions (D'in's) of the disbelievers (kuffār) can never equate to the truth of Islām. The reason is simple. These will lead to Hell, while Islām will lead to Heaven (Jannah).

Allāh says in verse 122 of Surah An'ām (Surah 6), "Is he who was dead, then We granted him life and gave him a light whereby he may walk among people better than one like him who is in multiple darkness from which he shall not emerge?"

Allāh continues to say, "Or do they ascribe such partners to Allāh who create like He creates, thereby causing the creation to be alike to them?" The Polytheists worship false gods instead of Allāh. Allāh Ta'āla poses a rhetorical question to tell them that their false gods have not created any creation that can be compared to Allāh's creation. Therefore, there is no cause for them to doubt who is the real Creator.

Allāh says in another verse, 'Indeed those who you worship besides Allāh can never even create a fly, though all of them join forces in this effort.' [Surah Hajj (22), verse 73]

Therefore, it is established that these false gods are not able to create as Allāh does. For this reason Allāh commands that it be announced, "Allāh is the Creator of everything and He is the One, The Omnipotent." All are subservient to Him.

أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَسَالَتْ أَوْدِيَةٌ بِقَدَرِهَا فَاحْتَمَلَ السَّيْلُ زَبَدًا رَابِيًا وَمِمَّا يُوقِدُونَ عَلَيْهِ فِي النَّارِ ابْتِغَاءَ حِلْيَةٍ أَوْ مَتَاعٍ زَبَدٌ مِثْلُهَا كَذَلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْحَقَّ وَالْبَاطِلَ فَأَمَّا الزَّبَدُ فَيَذْهَبُ جُفَاءً وَأَمَّا مَا يَنْفَعُ النَّاسَ فَيَمْكُثُ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَذَلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْأَمْثَالَ ﴿١٧﴾
لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمُ الْحُسْنَىٰ وَالَّذِينَ لَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُ لَوْ أَنَّ لَهُمْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ لَافْتَدَوْا بِهِ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ سُوءُ الْحِسَابِ وَمَأْوَاهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ وَفِيهَا يَلْعَبُونَ ﴿١٨﴾

(17) Allāh sent down rain from the sky causing the valleys to flow according to their capacity and the flowing waters carried debris that floated on its surface. And from that which you cast into fire seeking adornments and other items of worth, comes a similar debris. Thus does Allāh cite examples of the truth and falsehood. As for the debris, it disappears in vain. As for the things that benefit man, they remain upon the earth. In this manner Allāh cites examples. (18) Heaven (Jannah) is for those who are obedient to Allāh. As for those who do not obey Him, if they possessed whatever is on earth and the like thereof with it, they will certainly ransom their souls with it. For them shall be an evil reckoning and their abode shall be Hell. What an evil abode indeed.

THE EXAMPLE OF TRUTH AND FALSEHOOD

In the above verse Allāh cites two examples of truth and falsehood. The first is that of the rains causing rivers to flow rapidly. The waters carry debris upon its surface. This debris is then discarded somewhere and does not benefit anyone in the least. The waters flow on and are used for various purposes that benefit creation.

The second example is of debris that is removed from metal ore (like gold and silver) when it is smelted in a furnace. After the smelting process, the pure metal remains to be utilised for various purposes, while the debris alloys are of no use.

Both these examples refer to something of benefit and something useless. Belief (Imān) is the beneficial aspect that will be of use to man in both the worlds. On the other hand, the debris is akin to disbelief (kufr), which is useless to man in both worlds. In fact, it will earn people eternal punishment in the Hereafter. Although disbelief (kufr) seems vibrant like the debris flowing along with the waters, it is useless and worthless to people.

Allāh then says, "Heaven (Jannah) is for those who are obedient to Allāh. As for those who do not obey Him (their plight will be evil indeed. To save themselves on the Day of Judgement), if they possessed whatever is on earth and the like thereof with it, they will certainly ransom their souls with it."

Defining their punishment, Allāh says, "For them shall be an evil reckoning and their abode shall be Hell. What an evil abode indeed."

One may refer to the commentaries of verse 91 of Surah Al Imrān and of verses 36 and 37 of Surah Mā'idah for a more detailed explanation of the ransoming of souls on the day of Judgement.

﴿۱۹﴾ أَفَمَن يَعْلَم أَنَّمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِن رَّبِّكَ الْحَقُّ كَمَن هُوَ أَعْمَىٰ إِنَّمَا يَنْذَرُ أَكُلُوا لَآئِبٍ ۚ
الَّذِينَ يُؤْفُونَ بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ وَلَا يَقِضُونَ الْعَمَلِ ﴿۲۰﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَصِلُونَ مَا أَمَرَ اللَّهُ بِهِ أَن يُوصَلَ
وَيَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ وَيَخَافُونَ سُوءَ الْحِسَابِ ﴿۲۱﴾ وَالَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا
الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوْا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً وَيَدْرُءُونَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ السَّيِّئَةِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عُقْبَى
الدَّارِ ﴿۲۲﴾ جَنَّتٌ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا وَمَن صَلَحَ مِن آبَائِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَذُرِّيَّاتِهِمْ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ
يَدْخُلُونَ عَلَيْهِم مِّن كُلِّ بَابٍ ﴿۲۳﴾ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِمَا صَبَرْتُمْ فَنِعْمَ عُقْبَى الدَّارِ ﴿۲۴﴾ وَالَّذِينَ
يَنْقُضُونَ عَهْدَ اللَّهِ مِن بَعْدِ مِيثَاقِهِ وَيَقْطَعُونَ مَا أَمَرَ اللَّهُ بِهِ أَن يُوصَلَ وَيُفْسِدُونَ فِي
الْأَرْضِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَلَهُمْ سُوءُ الدَّارِ ﴿۲۵﴾ اللَّهُ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ
وَفَرِحُوا بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا مَتَعٌ ﴿۲۶﴾

(19) Can the person who knows that whatever is revealed to you from your Lord is the truth, be like him who is blind? Only the people of intelligence take heed... (20) Those who fulfil the pledge taken with Allāh and do not breach the covenant. (21) Those who join that which Allāh has commanded that it be joined, who fear their Lord and dread a woeful reckoning. (22) Those who exercise patience seeking the pleasure of their Lord, establish Salāh, spend secretly and openly from that which We have provided and expel evil with good. These are the ones who shall enjoy the favourable outcome of the Hereafter. (23) Eternal gardens in which they will enter together with all those of their forefathers, spouses and progeny who are worthy. And the angels shall come to them from every door... (24) (The angels will be saying) "Peace be upon you for the patience that you exercised. How blissful is the outcome of the Hereafter!" (25) Those who breach Allāh's pledge after ratifying it, sever that which Allāh commanded that it be joined and spread corruption on earth, theirs shall be a curse and theirs shall be misfortune in the Hereafter. (26) Allāh increases sustenance for whom He pleases and straitens. They rejoice about the life of this world whereas the life of this world is a paltry asset in comparison to the Hereafter.

THE QUALITIES AND REWARDS OF THE BELIEVER AND THE MISFORTUNE OF THOSE WHO BREACH PLEDGES

Allāh begins by saying, "Can the person who knows that whatever is revealed to you from your Lord is the truth, be like him who is blind?" Those who are blind to the truth are those who are unaware of it and refuse to accept it. They can never be like those who believe. The Qur'ān is available to every person but "Only the people of intelligence take heed." Only they utilise their intelligence and ponder over the message of the Qur'ān.

Other people waste away their intelligence in pursuit of worldly sciences and knowledge. They fail to utilise the intelligence given by Allāh to recognise Him. They are considered to be bereft of intelligence because their intelligence causes them harm instead of good. Thereafter Allāh goes on to describe the "people of intelligence."

Allāh says that they are "Those who fulfil the pledge taken with Allāh and do not breach the covenant." The pledge referred to here is the one that Allāh took from all of mankind (as mentioned in verse 172 of Surah A'rāf) on the plain of Na'mān (Mishkāt p. 24). Allāh asked them all, "Am I not your Lord?" They all replied in the affirmative and attested to it.

All the Prophets عليهم السلام reminded man of this pledge. However, many are those who have forgotten that they accepted Allāh as their Lord. They do not adhere to Allāh's commandments and fail to abstain from the things that He has prohibited.

All Muslims have also entered into a pledge with Allāh upon their acceptance of Islām. This pledge entails that they abide by all the injunctions of Islām. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "Fulfil Allāh's pledge when you have made the pledge." [Surah 16, verse 91]

The second description of the "intelligent ones" given by Allāh is that they are "Those who join that which Allāh has commanded that it be joined..." This includes maintaining family ties, being cordial and good towards the believers (Mu'minīn) and towards all the creation of Allāh. (The discussion of maintaining family ties has passed in the commentary of verse 1 of Surah Nisā.)

The "intelligent ones" also 'fear their Lord and dread a woeful reckoning.' They fear that their reckoning on the Day of Judgement may not be difficult. Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), We will erect the scales of justice and no soul will be oppressed in the least. Even if a deed is equal to the weight of a mustard seed, We shall present it. We suffice as Reckoners." [Surah 21, verse 47]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that they once asked the Holy Prophet

صلى الله عليه وسلم what the meaning was of an easy reckoning. He replied, "An easy reckoning means that the record of deeds will merely be glanced at and the person forgiven. O Ayshah! The one whose record is scrutinized will be destroyed." [Mishkāt p. 447]

The sixth quality of the "intelligent ones" is that they are "Those who exercise patience seeking the pleasure of their Lord..." Patience (sabr) is of three types. The first type entails patiently persevering difficulties, the second entails carrying out all Allāh's commandments, and the third involves abstinence from disobeying Allāh.

The system of this world is such that every person must suffer hardships. The difference between the disbeliever (kāfir) and the Muslim in this regard is that the Muslim exercises patience for Allāh's pleasure. Therefore, he is rewarded.

Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "The patient ones shall be granted their reward without reservation." [Surah 39, verse 10]

Patience that is exercised at the time the calamity strikes will be rewarded, not the patience exercised afterwards, since this is inevitable. A detailed explanation of this topic is given under the commentary of verse 153 of Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, "O you who believe, seek assistance with patience and Salāh."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the truly afflicted person is he who is deprived of reward when afflicted by a calamity. This is the person who does not exercise patience (sabr), or does so without the intention of pleasing Allāh.

The seventh quality is that they "establish Salāh (with all its requisites. The eighth is that they) spend secretly and openly from that which We have provided..." This includes obligatory (Fardh), compulsory (Wājib) and optional (Nafl) charity. At times, it will be better to spend secretly, while at other times, it will be best to do so publicly. A person should weigh the advantages of either situation. The criterion is that the spending be solely for Allāh's pleasure, not for fame and ostentation.

The ninth quality is that they "expel evil with good." The good people have always been harassed by the evil elements of society. Although it is permissible to avenge oneself in proportion to the injury inflicted, it would be best to forgive the aggressor without vengeance. Even nobler than this is to behave graciously towards the aggressor.

Allāh says in Surah Shura, "The retribution for an evil is an evil the like thereof as for the one who pardons and makes amends, his reward will be with Allāh. Verily, Allāh does not like the oppressors." [Surah 42, verse 40]

Allāh has also mentioned in another verse, 'Indeed, the one who is patient and forgives, then this is truly from resolute acts.' [Surah verse]

Allāh says in Surah HāMim Sajdah "Good and evil cannot be equal. Resist with that which is best, and the one between yourself and whom there was enmity, will instantly become like your bosom friend." [Surah 41, verse 34]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a sterling example of such behaviour. When he conquered Makkah, he announced to all those who harmed him in the past, "There shall be no reproach on you today. May Allāh forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام asked Allāh, 'Which of Your bondsmen are most honoured in Your sight?' Allāh replied, 'He who forgives despite possessing the ability to avenge himself.'" [Mishkāt p. 434]

After describing the "intelligent ones" Allāh mentions their bliss in the Hereafter. He says, "These are the ones who shall enjoy the favourable outcome of the Hereafter. Eternal gardens in which they will enter together with all those of their forefathers, spouses and progeny who are worthy." Because of His grace Allāh will allow the relatives of a person reach the stages he has reached so that he may receive additional joy. "Ruhul Ma'āni" mentions that grandmothers and great grandmothers are also included in the word 'forefathers.'

In addition to all of the above, "the angels shall come to them from every door (saying), 'Peace be upon you for the patience that you exercised. How blissful is the outcome of the Hereafter!'"

After mentioning the merriment of the good people, Allāh then makes mention of the others. He says, "Those who breach Allāh's pledge after ratifying it, sever that which Allāh commanded that it be joined and spread corruption on earth. Theirs shall be a curse and theirs shall be misfortune in the Hereafter."

THE FOOLISHNESS OF REJOICING IN THE PLEASURES OF THIS WORLD

"Allāh increases sustenance for whom He pleases and straitens." Abundance of worldly wealth does not necessarily mean that Allāh likes a person, nor does a lack of wealth mean that Allāh dislikes one.

"They [the disbelievers (kuffār)] rejoice about the life of this world whereas the life of this world is a paltry asset in comparison to the Hereafter." The disbelievers (kuffār) are deprived of Belief (Imān) because of their wealth and are thus doomed to the eternal punishment of the Hereafter. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Whoever is saved from the fire and entered into Heaven (Jannah) shall truly be successful. The life of this world is but an object of deceit." [Surah 3, verse 185]

وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ قُلْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَضِلُّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ أُنَابَ ﴿٢٧﴾ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَتَطْمَئِنُّ قُلُوبُهُمْ بِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ أَلَا بِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ تَطْمَئِنُّ الْقُلُوبُ ﴿٢٨﴾ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ طُوبَى لَهُمْ وَحُسْنُ مَتَابٍ ﴿٢٩﴾ كَذَلِكَ أَرْسَلْنَاكَ فِي أُمَمٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهَا أُمَمٌ لَتَتْلُو عَلَيَّهِمُ الَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ وَهُمْ يَكْفُرُونَ بِالرَّحْمَنِ قُلْ هُوَ رَبِّي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ

(27) The disbelievers say, "Why is a sign not revealed to him from his Lord?" Say, "Allāh sends astray whom He wills and guides towards Him whoever turns to Him." (28) Those who believe and whose hearts are contented with the remembrance of Allāh. Behold! Hearts are contented with the remembrance of Allāh. (29) Those who believe and do good deeds, for them shall be good fortune and a grand abode. (30) In a like manner have We sent you among a nation before which many nations have passed, so that you may recite to them that which We have revealed to you, while they disbelieve in The Most Merciful. Say, "He is my Lord. There is no deity besides Him. Only on Him do I rely and towards Him do I Turn.

HEARTS ARE CONTENTED BY REMEMBERING ALLĀH

The Qur'ān constantly refutes the absurd demand of the disbelievers (kuffār) for a miracle which they themselves stipulated. In the above verse as well Allāh does the same. He says, "The disbelievers say, 'Why is a sign (miracle) not revealed to him from his Lord?'" Miracles are from Allāh and He determines when they will be shown by the Holy Prophet ﷺ. The greatest miracle of the Holy Prophet ﷺ was the Qur'ān. However, the disbelievers (kuffār) refused to accept this and many of his other miracles as well.

Allāh knew that if a miracle of their own request was shown to them, they will also not accept it. They will therefore remain astray. For this reason Allāh says, "Say, 'Allāh sends astray whom He wills and guides towards Him whoever turns to Him.'" Only when they decide to turn to Allāh, will He guide them aright.

Thereafter Allāh describes who are meant by those who turn to Him. Allāh say that they are "Those who believe and whose hearts are contented with the remembrance of Allāh. Behold! Hearts are contented with the remembrance of Allāh." The remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) is great solace for the heart of believers (Mu'minīn). Their hearts become pleased when Allāh is mentioned.

"Those who believe and do good deeds, for them shall be good fortune and a grand abode." These people will be blessed with a pleasant life in this world and in the Hereafter they will receive the best of bounties in Heaven (Jannah).

At this juncture, the author of Ma'alimut Tanzil has raised an interesting question. He writes that while the above verse tells us that the hearts of believers (Mu'minīn) receive contentment by Allāh's mention, the third verse of Surah Anfāl (Surah 8) states, "The believers are those whose hearts tremble when Allāh is mentioned..." Therefore, how can contentment and trembling occur simultaneously?

He replies by writing that their hearts tremble when Allāh's warnings and reprimands are mentioned, while they are contented when rewards and favours are mentioned. In my humble opinion, this question does not arise at all. Fear (resulting in trembling) is a branch of Belief (Imān), while Belief (Imān) is contentment in itself. The person who is not content that his beliefs are the truth cannot possess Belief (Imān). When he does not have any Belief (Imān), how can he fear warnings and reprimands.

Thereafter, Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "In a like manner have We sent you among a nation before which many nations have passed, so that you may recite to them that which We have revealed to you, while they disbelieve in The Most Merciful." They are ungrateful towards the great bounty of the Qur'ān and choose to disbelieve it.

Then Allāh commands that the announcement be made, "Say, 'He is my Lord. There is no deity besides Him. Only on Him do I rely and towards Him do I turn.'"

وَلَوْ أَنَّ قُرْءَانًا سُيِّرَتْ بِهِ الْجِبَالُ أَوْ قُطِعَتْ بِهِ الْأَرْضُ أَوْ كُفِيَ بِهِ الْمَوْتُ بَلِ اللَّهِ الْأَمْرُ
جَمِيعًا أَفَلَمْ يَأْتِيسِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَنَّ لَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَهَدَى النَّاسَ جَمِيعًا وَلَا يَزَالُ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا تُصِيبُهُمْ بِمَا صَنَعُوا قَارِعَةٌ أَوْ تَحُلُّ قَرِيبًا مِّن دَارِهِمْ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَ وَعْدُ اللَّهِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُخْلِفُ الْمِيعَادَ ﴿٣١﴾

(31) If the Qur'ān was such that mountains are displaced by it, or the earth is split asunder by it, or the dead are made to speak by it (then too they will not believe). However, all matters rest with Allāh. Have the believers not become despondent when they know that if Allāh willed, He would have guided all of mankind? Because of their evil deeds, some calamity will always afflict the disbelievers, or descend close to their homes until Allāh's promise comes. Undoubtedly Allāh does not break His promise.

THE REJECTERS WILL NOT BELIEVE EVEN THOUGH THE MIRACLES THEY DEMAND ARE SHOWN TO THEM

Ma'alimut Tanzil (v. 2 p. 19) reports that Abdullāh bin Umayya and Abu Jahl once said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if he wished that they follow him, he should use the Qur'ān to cause the mountains of Makkah to be displaced and sent to another place so that Makkah could be larger. They also requested that he cause the rivers and springs to gush forth from the earth so that they may be able to farm.

In addition, they mentioned to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had told them how the mountains were subjugated for Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام and the wind made subservient for Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. They therefore asked that the wind be brought to their service so that they be enabled to travel to Shām for trade and return the same day.

They added that he told them how Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام could cause the dead to speak. Therefore, they said, he should also cause one of their forefathers to rise from the grave so that they could ask him whether Islām was the true religion (D'in). They said that since his rank was no less than that of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, he should ask Allāh for all of these miracles, after which they would believe in him. In reply to this request, Allāh revealed the above verse viz. "If the Qur'ān was such that mountains are displaced thereby, or the earth is split asunder thereby, or the dead are made to speak thereby (then too they will not believe)."

This is similar to verse 111 of Surah An'ām where Allāh says, "Certainly if We send the angels down to them or the dead speak to them or We gather everything before them, they will not believe except if Allāh wills, but most of them are ignorant."

Allāh goes on to say, "However, all matters rest with Allāh." Everything happens according to His will. None can force Him to accede to their requests. He will guide whomsoever He wishes.

The author of Ma'alimut Tanzil reports that the Sahaba رضى الله عنه desired that these requests of the disbelievers (kuffār) be fulfilled so that they become Muslims. In reply to this, Allāh revealed the verse, "Have the believers not become despondent when they know that if Allāh willed, He would have guided all of mankind?"

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Because of their evil deeds, some calamity will always afflict the disbelievers, or descend close to their homes..." Allāh did not fulfil their requests because Allāh knew that they never intended to believe. Then too, Allāh is not constrained to pander to anyone's wishes. Allāh treats people according to their actions. It is for this reason that the disbelievers (kuffār) constantly suffer various calamities and disasters. If calamities do not afflict them directly, it falls close to them so that they may take heed.

This series of calamities shall take place "until Allāh's promise comes." Certain commentators mention that this refers to the conquest of Makkah. Others are of the opinion that it refers to death, while others state that it means the Day of Judgement. Allāh then reminds one and all, "Undoubtedly Allāh does not break His promise."

People should, therefore, always take a lesson from any calamity that befall them or their surrounding areas. They should realise that these are warnings from Allāh so that they correct their actions.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا بِرُسُلٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَأَمَلَيْتُ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ثَمَّ أَخَذْتُهُمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عِقَابِ ﴿٣٢﴾ أَفَمَن هُوَ قَائِمٌ عَلَى كُلِّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ وَجَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ شُرَكَاءَ قُل سَمُّوهُمْ أَمْ تُنَبِّئُونَهُ بِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَمْ يَبْظَهَرُ مِن الْقَوْلِ بَل زَيْنَ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مَكْرُهُمْ وَصُدُّوا عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَمَن يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِن هَادٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَشَقُّ وَمَا لَهُم مِّن اللَّهِ مِن وَاقٍ ﴿٣٤﴾ مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وُعدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ تَجْرَى مِن تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ أُكُلُهَا دَائِمٌ وَظُلُمُهَا تِلْكَ عُقْبَى الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَعُقْبَى الْكَافِرِينَ النَّارُ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَالَّذِينَ ءَاتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ يَفْرَحُونَ بِمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكَ وَمِنَ الْأَحْزَابِ مَن يُنْكِرُ بَعْضَهُ قُل إِنَّمَا أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ وَلَا أُشْرِكَ بِهِ إِلَهُ إِلَيْهِ أَدْعُوا وَإِلَيْهِ مَتَابِ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ

أَنْزَلْنَاهُ حُكْمًا عَرَبِيًّا وَلَئِنْ أَتَبَعْتَ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ بَعْدَ مَا جَاءَكَ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا لَكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا وَاقٍ ﴿٣٧﴾

(32) Numerous messengers before you were mocked at, but I granted respite to disbelievers, and then I seized them. How (severe) was My retribution? (33) Can He Who is aware of the deeds of every soul (be like him who is not like this)? And they ascribe partners to Allāh. Say, "Name them." Are you informing Allāh of something that He has no knowledge of on earth, or merely by apparent words? However, the plots of the disbelievers have been beautified for them and they forbid from the path. There is no guide for him whom Allāh has sent astray. (34) They shall suffer punishment in this world, and the punishment of the Hereafter is worse. There shall be no saviour for them from Allāh. (35) The condition of the Heaven (Jannah) that is promised to the pious is that of rivers flowing beneath it. The fruits and shade of Heaven (Jannah) will be permanent. This is the outcome of those who adopt piety (taqwa), while the outcome of the disbelievers shall be the Fire. (36) Those whom We have given the Book rejoice at what has been revealed to you, while there are some from the groups who reject a part thereof. Say, "I have been commanded to worship only Allāh and not to ascribe partners to Him. To Him do I call and to Him will I return." (37) Thus have We revealed it as a special Arabic command. Surely if you follow their whims after knowledge has come to you, you shall have no helper nor saviour against Allāh.

CONSOLATION TO THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ, THE EVIL PLIGHT OF THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR) AND THE PROMISE OF HEAVEN (JANNAH) FOR THE PIOUS

In the first of these verses, Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet ﷺ by saying, "Numerous messengers before you were mocked at..." Therefore, the Holy Prophet ﷺ was not the only one suffering the jeers of the disbelievers (kuffār). Allāh did not punish these people immediately. Rather, Allāh says, "I granted respite to disbelievers and (they increased in their rebellion) then I seized them. (One can well imagine) How (severe) was My retribution?"

In this verse Allāh offers solace to the Holy Prophet ﷺ and encourages him to persevere like all the previous Prophets عليهم السلام. The disbelievers (kuffār) can never escape Allāh's punishment when it comes to them.

"Can He Who is aware of the deeds of every soul (be like him who is not like this)? And they ascribe partners to Allāh." The false gods made by the disbelievers (kuffār) and the polytheists can never be like Allāh. How can they then be regarded as His partners?

"Say, 'Name them.'" The polytheists are asked to state exactly who these partners are and to furnish details about their positions and capabilities.

"Are you informing Allāh of something that He has no knowledge of on earth..." In Allāh's complete knowledge, He has no partner on earth. Ascribing partners to Him is tantamount to telling Allāh that He does have such partners, but He is (Allāh forbid) unaware of them.

".....or merely by apparent words?" i.e. Are your claims of other gods substantiated or are they mere words. These gods can never be established by mere words and have, therefore, no reality.

"However, the plots of the disbelievers have been beautified for them and they forbid from the path." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the "plots" refer to disbelief (kufṛ), polytheism (shirk) and considering evil to be good. These 'plots' have caused them to be averse to the right path of guidance. However, "There is no guide for him whom Allāh has sent astray."

Thereafter Allāh sounds a grave warning to the disbelievers (kuffār). He says, "They shall suffer punishment in this world, and the punishment of the Hereafter is worse. There shall be no saviour for them from Allāh."

In contrast to the disbelievers (kuffār), Allāh then mentions the condition of the believers (Mu'minīn). Allāh says, "The condition of the Heaven (Jannah) that is promised to the pious is that of rivers flowing beneath it. The fruits and shade of Heaven (Jannah) will be permanent." The people of Heaven (Jannah) may have the fruits whenever they please until eternity.

The shade of Heaven (Jannah) will also be permanent because there will be no rising and setting of the sun. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "We shall enter them into abundant shade." Says Allāh in Surah Wāqī'ah, "(They will be) in extensive shade, flowing water and an abundance of fruit that will not come to an end and will not be restricted." [Surah 56, verses 30-33]

Concluding the subject, Allāh says, "This is the outcome of those who adopt taqwa, while the outcome of the disbelievers shall be the Fire."

Thereafter Allāh praises those people of the book (Ahlul Kitāb) who accepted Islām. He says, "Those whom We have given the Book rejoice at what has been revealed to you...." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that these were 40 Christians of Najrān, 8 from Yemen and 32 from Abysinnia (Ethiopia). There were also a few Jews who accepted Islām, like Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رضى الله عنه.

"...while there are some from the groups [of the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb)] who reject a part of it." Some of the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) accepted only those parts of the Qur'ān that appealed to them, while rejecting the rest.

"Say, 'I have been commanded to worship only Allāh and not to ascribe partners to Him. To Him do I call and to Him will I return.'" i.e. I will continue to adhere to my religion (D'in) whether the disbelievers (kuffār) like it or not.

THE QUR'ĀN IS A SPECIAL COMMAND IN ARABIC

"Thus have We revealed it as special Arabic command." This verse refutes those people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) who rejected the Qur'ān on the basis that some of its laws differed with those of the previous scriptures. Allāh tells them that just as the previous scriptures were revealed according to the circumstances and the natures of the previous people, so too is the Qur'ān revealed according to the state of affairs prevailing at the time of revelation and the people to whom it is addressed.

All the previous religion's (D'in's) and scriptures differed in their laws and languages. Some contained laws that were subsequently abrogated, while others contained laws that were strange to others. Despite all of this, the previous nations never condemned the others. Therefore, since the Qur'an is revealed in Arabic and contains laws that are strange to them, the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) have no cause to reject it on this basis.

"Surely if you follow their whims after knowledge has come to you, you shall have no helper nor saviour against Allāh." Although this verse seems to be addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is actually an appeal to all Muslims. If one accepts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as the addressee, then the verse will be a supposition i.e. If he was ever to succumb to their whims, he would have no ally against Allāh. However, it was impossible for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to contradict the commands of Allāh and follow the disbelievers (kuffār).

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلًا مِّن قَبْلِكَ وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَذُرِّيَّةً وَمَا كَانَ لِرَسُولٍ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ بِشَايَةٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ لِكُلِّ أَجَلٍ كِتَابٌ ﴿٣٨﴾ يَمْحُوا اللَّهُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَيُثَبِّتُ وَعِنْدَهُ أُمُّ الْكِتَابِ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَإِنْ مَا نُرِيَنَّكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِي نَعِدُهُمْ أَوْ نَتَوَفَّيَنَّكَ فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ الْبَلَاغُ وَعَلَيْنَا الْحِسَابُ ﴿٤٠﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا نَأْتِي الْأَرْضَ نَنْقُصُهَا مِنْ أَطْرَافِهَا وَاللَّهُ يَحْكُمُ لَا مُعَقَّبَ لِحُكْمِهِ وَهُوَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٤١﴾ وَقَدْ مَكَرَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَلِلَّهِ الْمَكْرُ جَمِيعًا يَعْلَمُ مَا تَكْسِبُ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ وَسَيَعْلَمُ الْكُفْرُ لِمَن عُقِيَ الدَّارِ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَسْتَ مُرْسَلًا قُلْ كَفَى بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ وَمَنْ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ الْكِتَابِ ﴿٤٣﴾

(38) Verily, We have sent many messengers before you and We granted them wives and progenies. A messenger is not able to produce a sign without Allāh's order. Every period had written commands. (39) Allāh effaces what He wills and establishes (what He wills). With Him is the Mother of Books. (40) If We were to show you some of the promises that We made to them or we were to claim your soul, then propagation will be your responsibility and reckoning Ours. (41) Do they not see that We have been reducing the earth from its borders. Allāh commands and there is none to avert His command. And He is swift in reckoning. (42) Those before them have plotted, but to Allāh does all plotting belong. He knows what every soul earns, and the disbelievers will soon come to know to whom belongs the outcome of the Hereafter. (43) The disbelievers say, "You are not a messenger." Say, "Allāh is sufficient as witness between us, and so are those who possess the knowledge of the Book."

ALL THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام BEFORE THE HOLY PROPHET صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ HAD WIVES AND CHILDREN, AND NONE WAS ABLE TO PRODUCE A MIRACLE WITHOUT ALLĀH'S ORDER

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 13 p.168) reports that the Jews objected against the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ by saying that he cannot be a Prophet because of his many wives. They maintained that a Prophet does not have the chance to care for so many wives. In reply to this objection, Allāh revealed the verse saying, "Verily, We have sent many messengers before you and We granted them wives and progenies."

Having wives and children is not against the concept of the Prophethood, neither is it detrimental to it. The Jews were well aware of the fact that Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had many wives, yet they did not object against them. They objected to the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ only because they refused to accept his message and they intended to mislead the polytheists as well. The reply given in the Qur'ān answers people of all times who may raise the same objection.

The purpose of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام was to guide mankind in all aspects of their lives. It was therefore necessary that they also marry and have children, so that people could be guided about how they should behave in the same situation. In this manner, the teachings of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام were practical, and not merely theoretical.

The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was sent as the Holy Prophet to the whole of mankind until the Day of Judgement. Therefore, his teachings were meant to be far reaching, offering guidance in every matter governing a person's life. The pure wives of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ have explained fine details of his life that could only be noticed by a wife. In this manner, the Ummah were informed of a vast number of facts to lead them on the way to salvation.

By way of the many proofs and miracles, the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ has been clearly established. Therefore, one cannot object to the number of wives that he had since a Prophet of Allāh will never do anything contrary to Allāh's commands.

"A messenger is not able to produce a sign without Allāh's order." According to many commentators, the word "sign" refers to miracles. The fact that any Prophet did not produce a miracle that was demanded by the people does not mean that he was not a Prophet. Allāh is not constrained to accede to these demands, especially since these people ask without the intention to believe, and since so many other proofs attest to the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

Other commentators have mentioned that "sign" refers to laws of the Sharī'ah. People cannot demand that the Holy Prophet formulate such laws that comply with the previous Sharī'ah. They cannot also question him when certain laws are repealed. Only Allāh reserves the right to enforce laws and regulations as He pleases.

Allāh says in Surah Yunus, "It does not behove me to alter it of my own accord. I follow only what has been revealed to me." [Surah 10, verse 15]

"Every period had written commands." Every nation has laws according to their respective situations and times. In the same way, this Ummah also has the same.

"Allāh effaces what He wills and establishes." Of the many interpretation quoted by the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni", one is that Allāh repeals whatever laws He wills, and retains those that He wishes to retain.

It has been quoted in Ma'alimut Tanzil (v. 3 p.22) that the verse means that Allāh effaces the sins of people because of their repentance (Taubah), and records good deeds in place of them. According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, the good and evil deeds of people are effaced from the account of deeds recorded by the angels.

Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه interprets the verse to mean that, on the night of Qadr, Allāh effaces the names of those who are to die in the ensuing year, whereas the names of the others are retained (on the list of the living). Other interpretations have also been tendered, but they are inappropriate.

"With Him is the Mother of Books." This refers to the Lawhul Mahfūz (Protected Tablet) which contains everything pertaining to the past, present and the future. None is allowed access to it and all matters are decreed according to its contents.

"If We were to show you some of the promises (of punishment) that We made to them or we were to claim your soul (then it would be of no consequence to you, Your task will remain the same i.e.), then propagation will be your responsibility and reckoning Ours."

Commentators mention that the punishment referred to in the verse came to the polytheists when they were defeated at Badr and many of them were killed. Thereafter, the Muslims conquered Makkah, when some of the disbelievers (kuffār) were slain and others became Muslims.

"Do they not see that We have been reducing the earth from its borders." Some commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the disbelievers (kuffār) should take heed of the fact that their territory was gradually being reduced to make way for the Muslims. The Muslims were dominating territory after territory in a short while because the sway of the oppressors never lasts long and the pious must eventually dominate. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Qatāda رحمه الله عليه and others have forwarded this interpretation.

Other commentators mention that Allāh had gradually reduced the habitable land area of the earth by destroying the oppressive nations. People to come should take a lesson from these facts and not succumb to the same follies.

"Allāh commands and there is none to avert His command. And He is Swift in reckoning." When Allāh decides to punish a nation, none will be able to avert the punishment from them.

"Those before them have plotted (against the Prophets عليهم السلام and the believers (Mu'minīn), but to Allāh does all plotting belong." No plot can overpower Allāh's plan.

"He knows what every soul earns..." Allāh is aware of all the attacks made upon the Muslims and will soon punish the aggressors. When this will happen, "the disbelievers will soon come to know to whom belongs the outcome of the Hereafter." In the Hereafter the disbelievers (kuffār) will learn that the believers (Mu'minīn) were indeed the successful ones.

"The disbelievers say, 'You are not a messenger.' Say, 'Allāh is sufficient as Witness between us, and so are those who possess the knowledge of the Book.'" The rejection of the disbelievers (kuffār) will not affect the Prophethood of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh is a sufficient witness. The people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) are also well aware of the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the final messenger to man because they learnt this from their scriptures.

سورة ابراهيم

Makkan

Surah Ibrahīm

Verses 52

[(Prophet) Ibrahim] XIV

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الرَّ كِتَبٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ لِتُخْرِجَ النَّاسَ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ
إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ ﴿١﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي
الْأَرْضِ وَوَيْلٌ لِلْكَافِرِينَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ ﴿٢﴾ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَحِبُّونَ الْحَيَاةَ
الدُّنْيَا عَلَى الْآخِرَةِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَيَبْغُونَهَا عِوَجًا أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ
بَعِيدٍ ﴿٣﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Rā. This is a Book that We revealed to you to remove people from the multitudes of darkness, taking them towards light, by the command of your Lord to the path of The Mighty, The One Worthy of praise. (2) Allāh is He to Whom belongs all that is within the heavens and the earth. Woe be to the disbelievers by way of a severe punishment. (3) (They are) those who prefer the life of this world to the Hereafter, who forbid (others) from Allāh's path and who seek crookedness in it. These people are far astray.

ALLĀH REVEALED THE QUR'ĀN SO THAT PEOPLE MAY BE REMOVED FROM DARKNESS AND BROUGHT TO LIGHT ALLĀH IS MIGHTY AND THE MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE

Surah Ibrahīm begins with the verse that declares, "This is a (magnificent) Book that We revealed to you to remove people from the multitudes of darkness, taking them towards light, by the command of your Lord..."

Thereafter, Allāh describes the "light" as "the path of The Mighty, The One Worthy of praise." The word "praise" refers to all praiseworthy attributes. These are all applicable to Allāh.

Thereafter, Allāh speaks of the control that He exercises over the creation. He says, "Allāh is He to Whom belongs all that is within the heavens and the earth." Allāh is the Creator and Supreme Master of everything. Those who deny this actually deny their Creator and Master. Therefore, they are warned, "Woe be to the disbelievers by way of a severe punishment."

THE QUALITIES OF THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR)

Allāh then enumerates three traits of the disbelievers (kuffār). The first is that they are "Those who prefer the life of this world to the Hereafter..." It is this negligence of the Hereafter that causes the disbelievers (kuffār) to remain as they are.

The second trait is that they "forbid (others) from Allāh's path..." Neither do they accept, nor do they allow others to accept. The third trait is that they "seek crookedness in it." They are ever vigilant to expose any defect that they hope to find in the religion (D'in) of Islām. They then use this to raise absurd objections against the religion (D'in).

Because of these despicable traits, Allāh declares, "These people are far astray."

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ رَّسُولٍ إِلَّا بِلِسَانٍ قَوْمِهِ لِيُبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ فَيُضِلَّ اللَّهُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

(4) We sent every messenger with the language of his nation so that he may clearly explain to them. Then Allāh sends astray whom He wills and guides whom He wills. He is The Mighty, The Wise.

THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام ALL SPOKE THE LANGUAGE OF THEIR NATIONS

Allāh mentions an extremely important point in this verse viz. "We sent every messenger with the language of his nation so that he may clearly explain to them." Allāh caused the entire human race to issue forth from Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام. They were then divided into various tribes and sects, all having different colours and languages.

Allāh says in Surah Rūm, "And from His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth and the variation of your languages and colours. There are certainly signs therein for those who have knowledge." [Surah 30, verse 22]

The greatest instrument used by the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام to propagate and teach their nations was their language. It was therefore imperative that every one of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام spoke the language of the nation to which he was sent.

Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام lived in a place close to Babylon, but migrated to Shām. There he married one of the women of the area and learnt their language.

It was then that he declared the Prophethood. Although he was not from the area, he preached to the people in their own language so that they were able to understand.

The verse does not imply that the Prophets عليهم السلام did not know any other languages. They could have known many languages, but they preached to the people in the language that the people understood.

ALTHOUGH SAYYIDINA MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS SENT TO MANKIND AT LARGE, THE QUR'ĀN, THE ADHĀN AND SALĀH ARE ALL IN ARABIC

As mentioned by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in a hadith of Bukhari, he was sent to the whole of mankind, unlike other Prophets عليهم السلام. However, since he was sent among the Arabs first, he was from them, spoke their language and the Qur'ān was revealed in Arabic as well.

Arabic is a language like no other. The eloquence and articulation of Arabic is not found in any other language. The words of Arabic are not difficult like those of English and Sanskrit and are easy to learn. These are some of the reasons why Arabic was chosen as the language of the Qur'ān.

Since the Ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم comprises diversely varying groups, it was necessary to unite them on one common language, the obvious choice being Arabic. The Qur'ān was to be learnt and memorised for centuries to come. This was only possible if it was restricted to one language, the most suitable for this purpose being Arabic.

People were to receive rewards for the mere recitation of the Qur'ān. Therefore it had to be in a language that was easy for all to learn to recite. Again the obvious choice is Arabic. Even little children quickly master its recitation and millions of them have memorised the Qur'ān.

The language of the Qur'ān also has to be easy to pronounce. The letters of Arabic (although some require practice) are simple to pronounce. This will be realised by comparison with the letters of other languages, some of which can only be pronounced by the natives of these languages. For all of the above reasons, the Adhān and Salāh also have to be rendered in Arabic.

Another reason is that Muslims have to come into contact with the Arabs by virtue of the Hajj which has to be performed in Makkah. Therefore, Muslims have to be acquainted with their language.

The duty of the Prophets عليهم السلام was to propagate the message. They were not entrusted with compelling people to accept. Therefore Allāh says that after the Prophets عليهم السلام have passed the message on "Then Allāh sends astray whom He wills and guides whom He wills. He is The Mighty, The Wise."

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا أَنْ أَخْرِجْ قَوْمَكَ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى
النُّورِ وَذَكِّرْهُمْ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ

وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِقَوْمِهِ اذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذْ أَنجَيْنَاكُمْ مِّنْ آلِ
فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُومُونَكُمْ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ وَيُدْحِثُونَ أَسْمَاءَكُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيُونَ
نِسَاءَكُمْ فِي ذُلِّكُمْ بَلَاءٌ مِّنْ رَبِّكُمْ عَظِيمٌ

(5) Indeed we sent Mūsa with Our signs (instructing him), "Remove, your people from the multitudes of darkness, taking them into the light. And remind them of the days of Allāh. Verily there are signs in this for every person who exercises extreme patience and gratitude." (6) (Recall the time) when Mūsa told his people, "Recall Allāh's bounties on you when He rescued you from the people of Pharaoh (Fir'aun), who were inflicting a severe punishment on you by slaughtering your sons and keeping your daughters alive. In this was a great trial from your Lord.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام IS SENT TO THE BANI ISRA'ĪL AND REMINDS THEM OF ALLĀH'S FAVOURS ON THEM

After arriving in Egypt during the time of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, the Bani Isra'il were subjected to extreme torture for approximately 400 years by the Egyptian Copts. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام lived among the Egyptians for 30 years and with the people of Madyan for ten years. He understood the language of the Bani Isra'il as well as that of the Egyptians. For this reason Allāh sent him as a the Holy Prophet to the Bani Isra'il as well as to the people of Egypt.

The people of Fir'aun were polytheist and they influenced the Bani Isra'il also with their practices. As a result of this, the bani Isra'il easily took to worshipping the calf and once when "they came across a nation who were devoted to their idols, they said, 'O Mūsa, make for us a god like how they have gods.

For this reason, Allāh instructed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "Remove your people from the multitudes of darkness [disbelief (kufr), polytheism (shirk) and sin], taking them into the light."

"And remind them of the days of Allāh." All days belong to Allāh because He created them all. However, the "days of Allāh" refer to the changes and revolutions that took place throughout history. Allāh caused great kings and their dynasties to collapse. Some cannot even be located. Allāh told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to remind the Bani Isra'il of these so that they may take heed and mend their ways.

Other commentators have interpreted the "days of Allāh" to mean the bounties and favours of Allāh.

"Verily there are signs in it for every person who exercises extreme patience and gratitude." Those people who recall the afflictions suffered by the previous nations will find it easy to bear the hardships and difficulties that afflict them. Such people will also be inclined to show gratitude to Allāh for any bounty that He confers on them.

Allāh reminds the Jews about the time "When Mūsa told his people, 'Recall Allāh's bounties on you when He rescued you from the people of Pharaoh (Fir'aun), who were inflicting a severe punishment on you by slaughtering your sons and keeping your daughters alive." According to Allāh's command, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام addressed the Bani Isra'il and reminded them of the past. He began by reminding them of the greatest favour that Allāh had bestowed upon them, which was their delivery from the torture of Pharaoh (Fir'aun). Pharaoh (Fir'aun) would preserve the lives of the women of the Bani Isra'il so that they could serve him and his nation. They would then be subjected to the most arduous of menial tasks.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام continued to remind them, "In this was great trial from your Lord." Another translation of the Arabic word "balā" (besides 'trial') is "favour." According to this translation, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام would be referring to the salvation of the Bani Isra'il from Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his followers.

وَإِذْ تَأَذَّنَ رَبُّكُمْ لَئِنْ شَكَرْتُمْ لَأَزِيدَنَّكُمْ وَلَئِنْ كَفَرْتُمْ إِنَّ عَذَابِي لَشَدِيدٌ ﴿٧﴾ وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ إِنَّ تَكْفُرًا أَنْتُمْ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا فَأَبَى اللَّهُ لَعْنُ حَمِيدٌ ﴿٨﴾

(7) When your Lord announced, "If you show gratitude, then I will definitely give you more, and if you are ungrateful, then indeed My punishment is severe.

(8) Mūsa said, "If you people and all the people on the earth are ungrateful, then verily Allāh is Independent, Worthy of all praise."

ALLĀH'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HE WILL GRANT MORE FAVOURS BECAUSE OF GRATITUDE AND THAT INGRATITUDE WILL RESULT IN SEVERE PUNISHMENT

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has written that after Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام reminded the Bani Isra'il of Allāh's bounties upon them, he also told them, "When your Lord announced, 'If you show gratitude, then I will definitely give you more, and if you are ungrateful, then indeed My punishment is severe.'"

Gratitude for Allāh's favours should be expressed in words and in actions. Gratitude by way of actions means that one's deeds must conform to Allāh's injunctions, and that one must always abstain from disobeying Allāh in any way. Just as the grateful people receive an increase in Allāh's bounties, the ingrates will have their bounties depleted.

Surah Nahl mentions the episode of a certain town, the inhabitants of which were extremely fortunate in every sense. However, they were deprived of all of this on account of their ingratitude to Allāh. Verses 15 to 21 of Surah Saba (Surah 34) also recounts a similar scenario which occurred to the people of Saba.

"Mūsa said, 'If you people and all the people on the earth are ungrateful, then verily Allāh is Independent, Worthy of all praise.

By being grateful, a person benefits only himself. Allāh does not require the gratitude, nor the praise of anyone. People harm only themselves by not carrying out these actions.

أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ نَبَأُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ قَوْمِ نُوحٍ وَعَادٍ وَثَمُودَ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ
بَعْدِهِمْ لَا يَعْلَمُهُمْ إِلَّا اللَّهُ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَرَدُّوا أَيْدِيَهُمْ فِي
أَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَقَالُوا إِنَّا كَفَرْنَا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ وَإِنَّا لَفِي شَكٍّ مِمَّا تَدْعُونَنَا إِلَيْهِ مُرِيبٍ ﴿٩﴾
قَالَتْ رُسُلُهُمْ أَفِي اللَّهِ شَكٌّ فَاطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَدْعُوكُمْ لِيَغْفِرَ
لَكُمْ مِنْ ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُخْرِجَكُمْ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى قَالُوا إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ
مِثْلُنَا تُرِيدُونَ أَنْ تَصُدُّونَا عَمَّا كَانَتْ يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُنَا فَأْتُونَا بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٠﴾
قَالَتْ لَهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ إِنْ نَحْنُ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَمُنُّ عَلَىٰ مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ
عِبَادِهِ وَمَا كَانَ لَنَا أَنْ نَأْتِيَكُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ
الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١١﴾ وَمَا لَنَا أَلَّا نَتَوَكَّلَ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَقَدْ هَدَانَا سُبُلَنَا وَلَنَصْبِرْ
عَلَىٰ مَا آذَيْتُمُونَا وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُتَوَكِّلُونَ ﴿١٢﴾

(9) Have the incidents of those before you not come to you? The incidents of the nation of Nūh, the Ād, the Thamud, and those after them? Only Allāh knows them. Their messengers came to them with clear signs, but they placed their hands in their mouths and said, "Verily we do not believe in what you have been sent with. We are in such a doubt regarding that towards which you call us, that it has cast us into uncertainty." (10) Their messengers said, "Are you in doubt regarding Allāh, Who is the Creator of the heavens and the earth? He calls you to forgive your sins and to grant you respite until the appointed term." They said, "You are but mere humans like ourselves, You intend to forbid us from what our forefathers used to worship. So produce a clear proof!" (11) Their messengers told them, "We are but mere humans like yourselves, but Allāh favours whomsoever He wills from His bondsmen. We are unable to produce a proof for you without Allāh's order. Only on Allāh should the believers rely." (12) "Why should we not rely on Allāh, when He has guided us to His paths? We shall definitely exercise patience on the difficulties that you cause to us. Only in Allāh should those who have trust place their trust."

THE OBSTINACY OF THE PREVIOUS NATIONS, THE PROPAGATION OF THE MESSENGERS AND THE ABSURD QUESTIONS RAISED BY THEIR NATIONS

The Quraysh of Makkah refused to accept the truth and made all types of absurd remarks. In reply, Allāh revealed the above verses. Allāh says, "Have the incidents of those before you not come to you? The incidents of the nation of Nūh, the Ād, the Thamūd, and those after them? Only Allāh knows them." The polytheists of Makkah were well aware of the incidents. These were also mentioned to them in the Qur'ān and they heard of them from the Jews and the Christians. On their travels they even passed by the ruins of these civilizations. However, they failed to take heed of the lessons they presented.

Thereafter Allāh describes the condition of the previous people. He says, "Their messengers came to them with clear signs, but they placed their hands in their mouths and said, 'Verily we do not believe in what you have been sent with. We are in such a doubt regarding that towards which you call us, that it has cast us into uncertainty.'"

When the people rejected the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), "Their messengers said, 'Are you in doubt regarding Allāh, Who is the Creator of the heavens and the earth (Do you not see His magnificence in these creations)? He calls you to forgive your sins and to grant you respite until the appointed term.'"

When the people were unable to reply to the Prophets عليهم السلام, they began to refute their apostleship. Therefore, "They said, 'You are but mere humans like ourselves, You intend to forbid us from what our forefathers used to worship. So produce a clear proof (a miracle)!'"

"Their messengers told them, 'We are but mere humans like yourselves (This does not disprove our apostleship), but Allāh favours whomsoever He wills from His bondsmen (by making them the Holy Prophets). We are unable to produce a proof for you (i.e. the miracles that you demand) without Allāh's order. Only in Allāh should the believers rely.'"

In addition, the Prophets عليهم السلام said, "Why should we not rely on Allāh, when He has guided us to His paths? We shall definitely exercise patience on the difficulties that you cause to us. Only in Allāh should those who have trust place their trust." It is learnt from this that those who propagate the truth should expect opposition and difficulties from people, but they should persevere through all of this and pin their reliance in Allāh.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِرُسُلِهِمْ لَنُخْرِجَنَّكُمْ مِّنْ أَرْضِنَا أَوْ لَتَعُودُنَّ فِي مِلَّتِنَا
فَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ لَنُهْلِكَنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَلَنُسَكِّنَنَّكُمْ الْأَرْضَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ
ذَٰلِكَ لِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامِي وَخَافَ وَعِيدِ ﴿١٤﴾ وَأَسْتَفْتَحُوا وَخَابَ كُلُّ جَبَّارٍ
عَنِيدٍ ﴿١٥﴾ مِّنْ وَرَآيِهِ جَهَنَّمُ وَيُسْقَىٰ مِنْ مَّاءٍ صَدِيدٍ ﴿١٦﴾ يَتَجَرَّعُهُ وَلَا يَكَادُ
يُسِيغُهُ وَيَأْتِيهِ الْمَوْتُ مِنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ وَمَا هُوَ بِمَيِّتٍ وَمِنْ وَرَآيِهِ عَذَابٌ
غَلِيظٌ ﴿١٧﴾

(13) The disbelievers said to their messengers, "We shall certainly exile you from our land, otherwise you should return to our religion (D'in)." Their Lord sent revelation to them, "We shall surely destroy the oppressors... (14) .And We shall definitely settle you in the land after them. This is for him who fears standing before Me and who fears My warning." (15) They sought a decision and every obstinate tyrant was unsuccessful. (16) Before him is Hell and he will be given puss as a drink. (17) He will drink it in sips and it will not go down his throat. Death will come to him from all sides, but he will not die. Before him will be severe punishment.

THE PREVIOUS NATIONS THREATEN TO EXILE THEIR MESSENGERS AND THE SEVERE PUNISHMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR)

When the disbelievers (kuffār) could no longer reply to the Prophets عليهم السلام, they threatened to expel them and their followers from the town unless they forsook their religion (D'in) to join the ranks of the disbelievers (kuffār) once more. Even today the disbelievers (kuffār) sound the same threat to the Muslims.

As was already mentioned in verse 30 of Surah Anfāl (Surah 8), the polytheists of Makkah also contemplated exiling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from Makkah. The Sahabah رضى الله عنه were forced to migrate first to Abyssinnia, and then eventually to Madinah. Later, the battle of Badr caused a serious blow to the disbelievers (kuffār), and then, six years later, the Muslims conquered Makkah. Now the Muslims could live in peace in their native land. The same transpired with the previous Prophets عليهم السلام and their followers. They were victors at the end of the day.

IT IS CONTRARY TO THE QUR'ĀN FOR MUSLIMS TO AWAIT ALLĀH'S HELP WHILE THEY THEMSELVES ARE SINFUL

After promising His help to the believers (Mu'minīn) against the oppressors, Allāh says, "This (promise) is for him who fears standing before Me (on the Day of Judgement) and who fears My warning." Allāh will fulfil His promise of assistance to those people who are convinced about the Day of Judgement and about the warnings sounded to them by the Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures.

When a person fears these things, then he will automatically abstain from sin. Therefore, this promise will not be for those who are sinful. Nowadays Muslims are generally steeped in sin. They flagrantly violate Allāh's commandments and pay no heed to the Obligations (Farā'idh) and Compulsories (Wājibāt). Their business practices contradict the laws of Shari'ah and they infringe the rights of other people. This being the case, they cannot expect Allāh's help in their struggle against the disbelievers (kuffār).

Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān with regard to the battle of Uhud, "Do not lose courage and do not be grieved for you shall be elevated if you are indeed believers." The condition for elevation here is belief (Imān), which makes demands that have to be fulfilled.

In another verse, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told his people, "Seek Allāh's assistance and exercise patience. Surely the earth belongs to Allāh. He grants it to whomsoever He wills, and success is for the pious."

Allāh mentions in Surah Hūd, after the salvation of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام and his followers, 'Indeed the final outcome will be in favour of the pious.' [Surah 11, verse 49]

"They sought a decision and every obstinate tyrant was unsuccessful." Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the Prophets عليهم السلام sought Allāh's decision to assist them, after which the disbelievers (kuffār) were destroyed. This is substantiated by the verse in Surah A'rāf where Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام made the following supplication (du'ā) to Allāh after he was threatened with expulsion from the town. He said, "O our Lord! Decide between us and our people with the truth, for You are the best of Deciders." [Surah 7, verse 89]

According to other commentators, the verse means that the disbelievers (kuffār) sought a decision from Allāh. After growing weary of the Holy Prophet's preaching, they submitted to Allāh to decide the matter by sending His punishment. The people of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام said, "So bring forth what you promise us if you are of the truthful ones." [Surah Hūd (11), verse 32]

The nation of Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام said, "So cause a piece of the sky to fall on us if you are from the truthful ones." The Quraysh said, "Oh our Lord! Hurry with our share (of punishment) before the Day of Reckoning." The Quraysh also said, "When they said, 'O Allāh! If this (Islām) really is the truth from You, then shower on us stones from the skies, or afflict us with a painful punishment.'"

All of these people did not have faith in the warnings of the Prophets عليهم السلام, but made the above requests mockingly. As a result, they suffered Allāh's punishment in this world, and will surely receive much worse in the Hereafter.

Describing their punishment in the Hereafter, Allāh says, "Before him is Hell and he will be given puss as a drink. He will drink it in sips and it will not go down his throat."

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the following comment about the verse "he will be given puss as a drink. He will drink it in sips..." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When the drink of puss will be brought close to the mouth of the person of Hell, he will be repulsed. As it will be brought even closer, it will scorch his face and the skin of his face will fall off. When he drinks it, his intestines will be ripped apart and emerge from his anus." Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the following verses:

"....those who will abide forever in the Fire and are given boiling water to drink, which will tear their innards to shreds."

"If they beseech help, they will be helped with water that is like the residue of burnt oil and will scorch their faces. A terrible drink indeed!" [Mishkāt p. 503]

Further describing the plight of the person in Hell, Allāh says, "Death will come to him from all sides, but he will not die." Every type of punishment will be sufficient to kill a person, yet he will not die because the punishment is meant to be eternal. Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "Hell, where he shall neither live nor die." Verse of Surah Al A'lā states, "He will not die there, nor will he live."

"Before him will be severe punishment." The punishments will never cease. One punishment will always be followed by another. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "For those who disbelieve and forbid from Allāh's path, We shall add punishment to their punishment because of the corruption that they caused." [Surah 16, verse 88]

مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ أََعْمَلُهُمْ كَرَمَادٍ اشْتَدَّتْ بِهِ الرِّيحُ فِي يَوْمٍ عَاصِفٍ لَا يَقْدِرُونَ مِمَّا كَسَبُوا عَلَى شَيْءٍ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلَالُ الْبَعِيدُ ﴿١٨﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُذْهِبْكُمْ وَيَأْتِ بِخَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ﴿١٩﴾ وَمَا ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِعَزِيزٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَبَرَزُوا لِلَّهِ جَمِيعًا فَقَالَ الضُّعَفَاءُ لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُغْنُونَ عَنَّا مِنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ قَالُوا لَوْ هَدَّانا اللَّهُ لَهَدَيْنَاكُمْ سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْنَا أَجْرُ عَنَّا أَمْ صَبْرًا مَا لَنَا مِنْ مَّحِصٍ ﴿٢١﴾

(18) The example of the actions of those who disbelieve in their Lord is like that of ashes that are blown away by a wind on a stormy day. They have absolutely no control of what they earn. This is a distant deviation. (19) Do you not see that Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth? If He wills, He could remove you and bring a new creation... (20) This is not at all difficult for Allāh. (21) They will all enter the presence of Allāh. Then the weak ones will say to the proud ones, "Indeed we were your followers, so are you able to avert some of Allāh's punishment from us?" They will reply, "If Allāh had guided us, we would have guided you. It makes no difference whether we vent our anxiety or we exercise patience. We have no escape.

THE DEEDS OF THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR) WILL BE WASTED AND THE DISCUSSION BETWEEN THE LEADERS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

Allāh informs us in the first of the above verses that all the seemingly good deeds of the disbelievers (kuffār) (like charity, kindness, etc) will be wasted to them on the day of Judgement. The example of this is like that of ashes that are swept away by an extremely severe wind. Nothing is left to indicate that it once existed.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this verses is a reply to those who question the punishment mentioned in the forgoing verses. They ask why will the disbelievers (kuffār) suffer these torments when they also carried out good deeds in the world.

Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "We will then turn to their deeds and reduce it to scattered dust." [Surah 25, verse 23]

Allāh then says, "Do you not see that Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth?" i.e. Allāh has created them with perfect wisdom. All belong to Him and He may deal with them as He pleases.

"If He wills, He could remove you and bring a new creation. This is not at all difficult for Allāh." Allāh can do as He pleases and none can alter His plans.

Thereafter, Allāh describes a scene on the Day of Judgement. Allāh says, "They will all enter in the presence of Allāh. Then (after all the wrongdoers are condemned to Hell) the weak ones will say to the proud ones (i.e. their leaders and superiors), 'Indeed we were your followers (we hearkened to you people instead of the Prophets عليهم السلام), so are you able to avert some of Allāh's punishment from us?'"

To this plea, the leaders will reply, "If Allāh had guided us (to escape from the punishment), we would have guided you (to it). It makes no difference whether we vent our anxiety or we exercise patience. We have no escape."

Also recounting this altercation between the people of Hell, Allāh says in Surah Mu'min, "The haughty ones will say, 'We are all together in the Fire. Allāh has already passed judgement between His bondsmen.'" [Surah 40, verse 48]

It has already passed in verses 166 and 167 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2) Surah Mu'min that the leaders will exonerate themselves from their followers. Verse 38 and 39 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) has mentioned how the inmates of Hell will curse each other and verses 31 to 33 of Surah Saba (Surah 34) also quotes the feud between people on the Day of Judgement.

وَقَالَ الشَّيْطَانُ لَمَّا قُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَعَدَكُمْ وَعَدَ الْحَقُّ وَوَعَدْتُكُمْ فَأَخْلَفْتُكُمْ وَمَا كَانَ لِي عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا أَنْ دَعَوْتُكُمْ فَاسْتَجَبْتُمْ لِي فَلَا تَلُمُونِي وَلُومُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ مَا أَنَا بِمُصْرِخِكُمْ وَمَا أَنتَ بِمُصْرِخِي ۚ إِنِّي كَفَرْتُ بِمَا أَشْرَكْتُمُونِ مِنْ قَبْلُ ۚ إِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٢﴾
وَأَدْخِلَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ تَحِيَّتُهُمْ فِيهَا سَلَامٌ ﴿٢٣﴾

(22) When the matter will be decided, Satan (Shaytān) will say, "Allāh had certainly made a true promise to you. I also made promises to you, but I breached them. The only control that I exercised over you was that I invited you, and you responded to me. So do not blame me, but blame yourselves. I cannot be a helper to you, nor can you be helpers to me. I am absolved of your action of ascribing me as a partner from before. There shall be a torturous punishment for the oppressors. (23) Those who believe and do good deeds will be entered into gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they shall abide forever by the order of their Lord. Their greeting there shall be 'Salām'.

AFTER DECISIONS ARE PASSED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH), SATAN (SHAYTĀN) SHALL EXONERATE HIMSELF FROM HIS FOLLOWERS

Although Satan (Shaytān) is responsible for leading many people astray, he will put the blame on them on the Day of Judgement. Allāh says in the above verses, "When the matter will be decided, Satan (Shaytān) will say, 'Allāh had certainly made a true promise to you. I also made promises to you, but I breached them.” Saying this, he will reprimand them for listening to his promises instead of those that Allāh made to them via the Anbiya عليهم السلام.

He will also say, “The only control that I exercised over you was that I invited you, and you responded to me. So do not blame me, but blame yourselves.” Satan (Shaytān) never forced them to do as they did and to falsify the Prophets عليهم السلام. He only led them on and they fell headlong for his guile.

He will say to them, ‘I cannot be a helper to you, nor can you be helpers to me. I am absolved of your action of ascribing me as a partner from before. There shall be a torturous punishment for the oppressors.’”

It is the extreme grace of Allāh that He has informed man in this very world about the trickery and double standards of Satan (Shaytān). The intelligent person should contemplate about his personal situation. If he is on the wrong path, he should think who set him upon it. He will clearly see that it was the same Satan (Shaytān) who will absolve himself of blame on the Day of Judgement. In this manner, one can correct one’s actions.

THE REWARDS OF THE BELIEVERS

“Those who believe and do good deeds will be entered into gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they shall abide forever by the order of their Lord. Their greeting there shall be ‘Salām’.” They will enjoy the bliss of Heaven (Jannah). They will greet each other with supplications of peace (Salām). Even the angels will greet them with Salām. A detailed explanation of the Salām in Heaven (Jannah) was given in the verse 10 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10), where Allāh says, “Their call therein shall be, ‘O Allāh! You are Pure!’ and their greeting will be Salām. Their final call shall be, ‘All praise be for Allāh, the Lord of the universe.’”

أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا كَلِمَةً طَيِّبَةً كَشَجَرَةٍ طَيِّبَةٍ أَصْلُهَا ثَابِتٌ وَفَرْعُهَا
فِي السَّمَاءِ ﴿٢٤﴾ تُؤْتِي أُكْلَهَا كُلَّ حِينٍ بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهَا وَيَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْأَمْثَالَ لِلنَّاسِ
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَمَثَلُ كَلِمَةٍ خَبِيثَةٍ كَشَجَرَةٍ خَبِيثَةٍ اجْتُثَّتْ مِنْ فَوْقِ
الْأَرْضِ مَا لَهَا مِنْ قَرَارٍ ﴿٢٦﴾ يَثْبُتُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِالْقَوْلِ الثَّابِتِ فِي الْحَيَاةِ
الدُّنْيَا وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ وَيُضِلُّ اللَّهُ الظَّالِمِينَ وَيَفْعَلُ اللَّهُ مَا يَشَاءُ ﴿٢٧﴾

(24) Do you not see how Allāh cites the example of the pure word as a pure tree, the roots of which are set firm and the branches of which reach into the sky...

(25) It bears fruit every season by the command of its Lord. Allāh cites examples for people so that they may reflect. (26) And the example of the evil word is like that of a miserable tree that is uprooted from the ground, having no stability. (27) Allāh keeps those who believe steadfast by a firm word in this world and in the Hereafter. And He sends the oppressors astray. Allāh does as He pleases.

THE SIMILITUDE OF THE GOOD AND THE EVIL WORD

The commentators mention that the “pure word” refers to the Kalimah of Islām viz. “Lā ilāha IllAllāh”. On the other hand, the “evil word” refers to the words of disbelief (kufr).

Allāh says, “Do you not see how Allāh cites the example of the pure word as a pure tree, the roots of which are set firm and the branches of which reach into the sky. It bears fruit every season by the command of its Lord. Allāh cites examples for people so that they may reflect.” Tirmidhi narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the “pure tree” is the date palm. The roots of “Lā ilāha IllAllāh” are set deeply within the heart of the believer (Mu'min) and his good deeds reach into the heavens. This denotes that Allāh accepts them.

This is similar to the verse in Surah Fātir, where Allāh says, “The Pure Word climbs unto Him, propelled by good deeds.” The date palm is steady and firm on the ground. It bears fruit regularly, thereby benefiting man constantly.

Thereafter Allāh says, “And the example of the evil word is like that of a miserable tree that is uprooted from the ground, having no stability.” The narration of Tirmidhi continues to quote the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying that the “miserable tree” is the wild gourd, which is extremely bitter. The taste as well as the odour are miserable and eating it will cause various harms to the body.

This tree is such that it has no stability and can be uprooted without any effort. The author of “Ruhul Ma'āni” writes that the wild gourd is referred to as a tree in keeping with the fact that the Kalimah was depicted as a tree. In reality, the wild gourd is actually a creeper.

The word and statements of disbelief (kufr) have no stability compared to the Kalimah of Islām. It does not benefit anyone, but rather causes untold harm. Allāh will not accept the actions of the disbeliever (kāfir). Therefore, the example of disbelief (kufr) is cited as the wild gourd because it has no branches.

ALLĀH WILL KEEP THE BELIEVERS STEADFAST BY THE “FIRM WORD”

“Allāh keeps those who believe steadfast by a firm word in this world and in the Hereafter.” The “firm word” refers to the Kalimah viz. “Lā ilāha IllAllāh.” The meaning of the verse is that Allāh will safeguard the believers (Mu'minīn) from the attacks and guile of Satan (Shaytān) until their dying moments.

Sayyidina Barā bin Āzib رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “When the Muslim is questioned in the grave, he will testify, ‘Lā ilāha IllAllāh Muhammadur Rasūlullāh.’ This is what Allāh refers to when He mentions, “Allāh keeps those who believe steadfast by a firm word in this world and in the Hereafter.” [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had completed the burial of any Muslim, he would tell the Sahabah رضى الله عنه, “Pray for the forgiveness of your brother and then pray for his steadfastness, because he is now going to be questioned.” [Abu Dawūd]

“And He sends the oppressors astray. Allāh does as He pleases.” The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the verse refers to the disbelievers (kuffār). Allāh sends them astray in this world because they have opted to alter the perfect beliefs with which they were born; they followed the deviant ones, rejected the proofs of the Prophets عليهم السلام and showed an aversion to the truth.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that when the disbeliever (kāfir) and the hypocrites (Munāfiqīn) will be questioned regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he will reply, "I do not know. I used to say what the people said."

According to other narrations, he will exclaim, "O! I do not know!" when asked every one of the three questions viz. Who is his Lord, What was his religion (D'īn), and what has he to say about this person viz. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم?

THE PUNISHMENT IN THE GRAVE IS PROVEN FROM THE QUR'ĀN AND THE AHADĪTH

The belief of the Ahlus Sunnah wal Jama'ah is that the disbelievers (kuffār) and some sinful believers (Mu'minīn) will be punished in the grave. The Sahabah رضي الله عنه immediately believed in whatever was revealed in the Qur'ān and told to them by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Nowadays, however, people tend to doubt these sources. The enemies of Islām also exert themselves to cast all types of doubts in the minds of the Muslims. As a result of this, many Muslims today refute the belief that people will be punished or rewarded in the graves.

The above verse and its commentary, as mentioned in the hadith of Bukhari, confirm the belief in the punishment of the grave. Also confirming the same is the verse in Surah Ghāfir [also called Surah Mu'min], where Allāh says, "They will be presented before the Fire morning and evening. And, on the day that judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place, (they will be told) 'Enter the people of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) into the worst of punishments.'" [Surah 40, verse 46]

Allāh says in Surah Nūh, "They were drowned because of their sins and then entered into the Fire." [Surah 71, verse 25]

These verses clearly mention the punishment in the grave. Many Ahadīth also confirm the fact. In fact, so many Ahadīth mention the punishment in the grave that it is impossible that they could all have been fabricated.

It is indeed unfortunate that some so-called Muslims refute this belief because they claim that it cannot be seen. They refute the verse of the Qur'ān and the sayings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on these grounds, yet they are prepared to accept the theories of scientists and researchers without witnessing these.

"Shortly the oppressors will come to know to which place they will return.

﴿الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ إِلَى الْكُفْرِ وَكَفَرُوا وَالْحُلُوفُ قَوْمُهُمْ دَارَ الْآبَارِ﴾ ﴿٢٨﴾ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلَوْنَهَا وَيَنْسَوْنَ الْفَرَارَ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَجَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ أُنْدَادًا لِيُضِلُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ قُلْ تَمَتَّعُوا

فَإِنَّ مَصِيرَكُمْ إِلَى النَّارِ ﴿٣٠﴾ قُلْ لِعِبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا يُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُوا
 مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً مِّن قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا بَيْعَ فِيهِ وَلَا خِلَالٌ ﴿٣١﴾ اللَّهُ
 الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَأَنزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْرَجَ بِهِ مِنَ الثَّمَرَاتِ
 رِزْقًا لَّكُمْ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْفُلْكَ لِتَجْرِيَ فِي الْبَحْرِ بِأَمْرِهِ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْأَنْهَارَ
 ﴿٣٢﴾ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ دَآئِبَيْنِ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ ﴿٣٣﴾
 وَءَاتَيْنَاكُمْ مِّن كُلِّ مَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُ وَإِن تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ لَا تَحْصُوهَا إِنَّ
 الْإِنسَانَ لَظَلُومٌ كَفَّارٌ ﴿٣٤﴾

(28) Have you not seen those who changed the bounty of Allāh with ingratitude and conveyed their nation to the Home of Destruction... (29) ..... to Hell, where they shall enter. What an evil place to be! (30) They ascribed partners to Allāh to lead astray from His path. Say, "Enjoy! Your destination shall be the Fire!" (31) Tell My bondsmen who believe that they should establish Salāh and spend of what We have provided for them secretly and openly before a day arrives when there shall be no trade, nor any friendship. (32) Allāh is He Who created the heavens and the earth and sends rain from the sky, thereby extracting fruits as sustenance for you. He subjugated the ships for you so that they may travel over the oceans by His command. And He subjugated the rivers for you. (33) He subjugated the sun and the moon for you, the two being constantly in motion. He also subjugated the day and the night for you. (34) And He grants you whatever you ask Him for. If you try to count Allāh's bounties, you will never be able to do so. Indeed, man is extremely unjust and very ungrateful.

THE MISFORTUNE OF THOSE WHO ARE UNGRATEFUL FOR ALLĀH'S FAVOURS

In the first of the above verses Allāh speaks of those who show ingratitude to Allāh. He says, "Have you not seen those who changed the bounty of Allāh with ingratitude..." Certain commentators mention that the verse refers to the Polytheists of Makkah. Allāh granted them their needs and a haven of safety. Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "Have We not granted them a peaceful Haram, to which the fruit of everything is attracted as a provision from Us?" [Surah 28, verse 57]

In addition to this, Allāh sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to them with the Qur'ān in their own language. However, they were ungrateful and even forced the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم out of their town.

Their leaders "conveyed their nation to the Home of Destruction, to Hell, where they shall enter. What an evil place to be!"

Further describing them, Allāh says, "They ascribed partners to Allāh to lead astray from His path." Not only did they lead themselves astray, they also lead others astray. They are informed regarding their plight. Allāh says, "Say, 'Enjoy!'

Your destination shall be the Fire!"

ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) THERE WILL BE NO TRADE NOR ANY FRIENDSHIP

"Tell My bondsmen who believe that they should establish Salāh and spend of what We have provided for' them secretly and openly..." The advantage of giving charity in secret is that one does not become proud, while that of spending openly is that others are encouraged by it.

Allāh encourages people to excel in these deeds "before a day arrives when there shall be no trade, nor any friendship." On the Day of Judgement, no person will be able to ransom his soul, nor will his misleading friends be of any assistance to him. None shall recognise his friends on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah). Of course, the only exception will be as Allāh says in another verse, "Friends will be enemies on that day, save for those with piety (taqwa)." [Surah Zukhruf (43), verse 67]

ALLĀH'S GREAT BOUNTIES AND MAN'S INGRATITUDE

Allāh now mentions the things that He has created, that are apparent before all, and which benefit all. Allāh says:

(1) "Allāh is He Who created the heavens and the earth..."

(2) "... and sends rain from the sky, thereby extracting fruits as sustenance for you." The rains and the growth of fruit and crops are by Allāh's command only.

(3) "He subjugated the ships for you so that they may travel over the oceans by His command. "Allāh taught man the skill of ship-building and navigating the seas. By virtue of these ships man is able to transport large loads across from continent to continent.

(4) "And He subjugated the rivers for you." If it were not for these rivers and streams, man would have to rely only on the rain to irrigate their crops, otherwise do so with great difficulty. In either event, he would have been greatly pained. These rivers also provide drinking water and allow transportation.

(5) "He subjugated the sun and the moon for you, the two being constantly in motion." The benefits of the sun are innumerable and researchers have enumerated many of them. The moon illuminates many a dark night and its soft glow is said to give colour to fruits.

(6) "He subjugated the day and the night for you." The night affords rest, while people are able to work during the day. The alternation and varying lengths of the day and the night are signs that denote the greatness of Allāh. One cannot imagine what chaos would reign if man experienced only night or only day.

After mentioning all of these bounties, Allāh sums up by saying, "And He grants you whatever you ask Him for. If you try to count Allāh's bounties, you will never be able to do so." There are innumerable bounties that man is not even aware of. Within the human body there are a countless number of blood vessels, nerves and tissues. Man, despite his exhaustive research is still unable to discover all the various functions and details of the human body.

Besides his own body, man enjoys many other bounties in the form of food and the various other creations of Allāh that are of use to him. The vegetation, animals, fish, trees, flowers, plants and the multitudes of other creation are all too numerous to even imagine. All these are from Allāh. Even the hairs upon the body are such a bounty that none can reproduce properly. When a person finishes recounting the benefits of every individual bounty of Allāh, he will still have countless others to be grateful for.

"Indeed, man is extremely unjust and very ungrateful." Man is unjust in that he utilises all of Allāh's bounties upon him and still disobeys Allāh. He even uses the same bounties to sin against Allāh.

Man does not express sufficient gratitude to Allāh and many are those who say that whatever they have is because of their own efforts. In this way they actually reject Allāh's favours to them. Allāh says in Surah Saba, "Few of My bondsmen are thankful." [Surah 34, verse 13]

وَإِذْ قَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ هَذَا الْبَلَدَ آمِنًا وَاجْنُبْنِي وَبَنِيَّ أَنْ نَعْبُدَ الْأَصْنَامَ
 رَبِّ إِنَّهُمْ أَضَلُّنَا كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ فَمَنْ تَبِعْنِي فَإِنَّهُ مِنِّي وَمَنْ عَصَانِي فَإِنَّكَ غَفُورٌ
 رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٣٥﴾ رَبَّنَا إِنِّي أَتَّكْتُ مِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِي بِوَادٍ غَيْرِ ذِي زَرْعٍ عِنْدَ بَيْتِكَ الْمُحَرَّمِ رَبَّنَا
 لِيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ فَاجْعَلْ أَفْعِدَةً مِّنَ النَّاسِ تَهْوِي إِلَيْهِمْ وَارْزُقْهُمْ مِّنَ الشَّمَرَاتِ
 لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾

(35) When Ibrahīm said, "O my Lord.' Make this city peaceful and safeguard my children and myself from worshipping idols." (36) "O my Lord.' Indeed these idols have misled many people. So whosoever will follow me, then he is certainly from me. And whosoever will disobey me, then surely You are Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." (37) "O our Lord! I have settled my children in a valley that cannot be cultivated, close to Your sacred house. O our Lord! So that they establish Salāh, so cause some hearts of people to be inclined towards them. And provide for them fruits for their sustenance so that they may be grateful."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام SETTLES HIS FAMILY CLOSE TO ALLĀH'S HOUSE AND PRAYS THAT ALLĀH SAFEGUARDS THEM FROM POLYTHEISM (SHIRK)

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام migrated from his homeland when the people refused to accept his message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and wanted to kill him. He left for Syria (Shām) with his wife Sarah, who was his cousin. En route a king attempted to seduce her, but Allāh caused him to become paralysed each time he advanced towards her. Eventually he set her free and gave her a slave woman as a gift. This slave woman was called Hājara, and Sarah عليه السلام gave her as a concubine to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام became the father of Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام from Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام and Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام was born to Sayyidah Hājar عليها السلام. Allāh instructed Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام to leave Sayyidah Hājara and the infant Isma'il عليه السلام in Makkah. When he brought them there, he made the du'ā, "O my Lord! Make this city peaceful and safeguard my children and myself from worshipping idols."

He then prayed, "O my Lord! Indeed these idols have misled many people. So whosoever will follow me, then he is certainly from me. And whosoever will disobey me, then surely You are Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام then supplicated, "O our Lord! I have settled my children in a valley that cannot be cultivated, close to Your sacred house. O our Lord! So that they establish Salāh, so cause some hearts of people to be inclined towards them." In this du'ā he prayed that Allāh guide his progeny to be steadfast upon religion (D'in). Since Salāh is the most important act after Belief (Imān), he mentioned it only. Thereby, he meant all other acts of religion (D'in) as well.

After praying for their spiritual safeguarding, he then prayed for their well being in this worldly existence. He said, "And provide for them fruits for their sustenance so that they may be grateful."

Allāh accepted these du'ās. Allāh made Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام and his progeny believers and leaders of others. Others were attracted to Makkah and Allāh provided an abundance of provisions. The produce of the entire world comes to Makkah and the millions of pilgrims (Hujjaj) and people performing Umrah benefit from it.

Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "Have We not granted them a peaceful Haram, to which the fruit of everything is attracted as a provision from Us?" [Surah 28, verse 57]

The fertile town of Tā'if, close to Makkah has always supplied the people of Makkah with their necessary food, in addition to all the imported foods. There can scarcely be a fruit on earth that has not been taken to Makkah.

Ulama mention that the word "fruit" refers not only to the fruit that is borne on a tree. They say that the fruit (produced article) of every machine and industry are also implied. In this way every manufactured article also reaches Makkah.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام left his wife with a bag of dates and a waterbag. As he turned to leave, Sayyidah Hājara عليها السلام asked him where was he going, but he did not reply. Upon the third query, she asked him whether he was acting according to Allāh's command. When he replied in the affirmative, she declared that Allāh would not allow them to be destroyed in that event.

Eventually, their supply of food and water was exhausted. The incident is well known that she ran seven times to and fro between Safa and Marwa in search of water. Then Allāh caused the well of Zam Zam to gush forth for them. Thereafter, the tribe of Jurhum arrived on the scene and settled there. They were the first realization of "cause some hearts of people to be inclined towards them."

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام used to visit his son who eventually married. Thereafter, father and son built the Ka'ba together at the site where it stood before being raised to the heavens when the floods struck during the time of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. Because of the fact that the place where he left his wife and child was close to the site of the Ka'ba, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام made the du'ā, "O our Lord! I have settled my children in a valley that cannot be cultivated, close to Your sacred house."

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام made the above prayers to Allāh at a place from where he could see the site of the Ka'ba, but not his wife and child. Although he knew that the Ka'ba was to be built there, he did not know the exact location. Therefore, Allāh showed him the location, as mentioned in a verse of Surah Hājj where Allāh says, "When We showed Ibrāhīm the location of the house..." [Surah 22, verse 26]

The progeny of Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام remained believers for some time. However, they also succumbed to the plot of Satan (Shaytān) and took to idolatry. They even placed their idols in the Ka'ba itself. Eventually, Allāh sent Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم who was from their lineage, to them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then eradicated polytheism (shirk).

THE CONCERN THAT ONE'S CHILDREN ARE CONSCIOUS OF SALĀH IS A QUALITY OF THE HOLY PROPHETS

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام included the phrase in his supplication (du'ā), "O our Lord! So that they establish Salāh...." This denotes that he was concerned that his offspring pay heed to their Salāh. Later in verse 40 he also makes the supplication (du'ā), "O my Lord! Make me one who establishes Salāh, and my progeny as well." He was concerned about his own Salāh, as well as that of his later generations.

Nowadays people are careless about the spiritual condition of their children. They do not care to enrol them in the institutions of religion (D'īn), but are particular to see that they receive secular education. They care for the worldly well being of their children, but are destroying them for the Hereafter.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام prayed that Allāh makes his progeny spiritual leaders, as indicated by the supplication (du'ā) for people's hearts to be inclined towards them. As a result, Allāh made His final Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from the progeny of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام.

"And provide for them fruits for their sustenance so that they may be grateful." This supplication (du'ā) teaches us that it is not contrary to piety that a person prays for the worldly well being of his children. Of course, priority must be given to their spiritual well being. It is also learnt that gratitude should be paramount in one's mind. This should be practised and taught to one's children as well.

رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ مَا تُخْفِي وَمَا تُعْلِنُ وَمَا يَخْفَى عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ

38 الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي وَهَبَ لِي عَلَى الْكِبَرِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ وَإِسْحَاقَ إِنَّ رَبِّي لَسَمِيعُ الدُّعَاءِ
 39 رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِي مُقِيمَ الصَّلَاةِ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِي رَبَّنَا وَتَقَبَّلْ دُعَاءِ 40 رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ
 لِي وَلِوَالِدَيَّ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْحِسَابُ 41

(38) "O our Lord! Indeed You know what we conceal and what we disclose. Nothing in the heavens and the earth is hidden from Allāh." (39) "All praise be to Allāh, Who has gifted me with Isma'īl and Is'hāq despite old age. Undoubtedly, my Lord hears all prayers." (40) "O my Lord! Make me one who establishes Salāh, and my progeny as well. O my Lord! Accept my prayer." (41) "Our Lord! Forgive me, my parents and the believers the day when reckoning shall commence."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام THANKS ALLĀH FOR GRANTING HIM CHILDREN AT AN OLD AGE AND PRAYS THAT ALLĀH MAKES HIM AND HIS PROGENY ESTABLISH SALĀH

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام made the supplication (du'ā), "O our Lord! Indeed You know what we conceal and what we disclose. Nothing in the heavens and the earth is hidden from Allāh." Just as Allāh is aware of the actions of man, He also has perfect knowledge of their intentions.

Thereafter, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام expresses his gratitude to Allāh, when he says, "All praise be to Allāh, Who has gifted me with Isma'īl and Is'hāq despite old age. Undoubtedly, my Lord hears all prayers." Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام referred to the du'ā (prayer) he made to Allāh, when he previously prayed to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Grant me a son from amongst the pious." [Surah Sāffāt (37), verse 100]

He continued to supplicate, "O my Lord! Make me one who establishes Salāh, and my progeny as well. O my Lord! Accept my prayer. O our Lord! Forgive me, my parents and the believers the day when reckoning shall commence."

At this juncture, the question arises that how could Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام pray for his parents when they were idolators? The detailed reply to this question was discussed in the commentary of verse 114 of Surah Taubah (Surah 9), where Allāh says, "Ibrahīm only sought forgiveness for his father because of a promise that he had made to him. When it became clear to him that his father was Allāh's enemy, he exonerated himself from him."

He prayed for his father's forgiveness while he still hoped that his father would become a believer (Mu'min). However, when this hope was lost, he desisted from praying for him. Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام also prays for his mother in the above verse. If she were not a believer, then the same reply will apply to her as was given with regard to his father.

وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ غَفِيلاً عَمَّا يَعْمَلُ الْظَّالِمُونَ إِنَّمَا يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ لِيَوْمٍ تَشْخَصُ فِيهِ

42) الْأَبْصُرُ مُهْطِعِينَ مُقْنِعِي رُءُوسِهِمْ لَا يَرْتَدُّ إِلَيْهِمْ طَرْفُهُمْ وَأَفْئِدَتُهُمْ هَوَاءٌ 43)
 وَأَنْذِرِ النَّاسَ يَوْمَ يَأْتِيهِمُ الْعَذَابُ فَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا رَبَّنَا أَخْرِنا إِلَى أَجَلٍ قَرِيبٍ
 نَحْبُ دَعَوْتِكَ وَنَتَّبِعِ الرُّسُلَ أَوَلَمْ تَكُونُوا أَقْسَمْتُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ
 زَوَالٍ 44) وَسَكَنْتُمْ فِي مَسْكِ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَتَبَيَّنَ لَكُمْ
 كَيْفَ فَعَلْنَا بِهِمْ وَضَرَبْنَا لَكُمْ الْأَمْثَالَ 45) وَقَدْ مَكَرُوا مَكْرَهُمْ وَعِنْدَ اللَّهِ مَكْرُهُمْ وَإِنْ كَانَ مَكْرُهُمْ لِتَزُولَ مِنْهُ الْجِبَالُ 46) فَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ
 مُخْلِفَ وَعْدِهِ رُسُلَهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ ذُو انْتِقَامٍ 47)

(42) Never think that Allāh is unaware of what the oppressors perpetrate. He is only granting them respite until a day when gazes will be fixed upwards... (43) They will running with their heads fixed upwards, their gazes never returning to them. And their hearts will be empty. (44) Warn people of a day when punishment will afflict them, and the oppressors will say, "O our Lord! Grant us respite for a short while. We shall accept Your call and follow the messengers." "Did you not swear on oath before this that you shall never be displaced (from this world)?" (45) You lived in the homes of those who oppressed themselves and it was clear to you how We dealt with them. And We even cited examples for you. (46) They plotted their plots, but their plots rest with Allāh, even though mountains could be displaced by their plots. (47) Never think that the Allāh will breach His promise to His messengers. Indeed Allāh is Mighty, Able to take vengeance.

A SCENE OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH) AND THE OPPRESSORS WILL REQUEST LEAVE WHEN THEY SEE THE PUNISHMENT

Despite the tireless efforts of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, many of the polytheists refused to accept his message and, because they were not immediately punished, they asked why Allāh's punishment was not afflicting them for their disbelief. This attitude was also influencing others. Therefore, Allāh revealed the verse, "Never think that Allāh is unaware of what the oppressors perpetrate. He is only granting them respite until a day (the Day of Judgement) when gazes will be fixed upwards. They will running with their heads fixed upwards, their gazes never returning to them. And their hearts will be empty."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the above verse is addressed to all of mankind, even though it may appear that it is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because it is not possible that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could have thought this.

Allāh then describes the scene of judgment day (Qiyāmah) further when He says, "Warn people of a day when punishment will afflict them, and the oppressors will say, 'O our Lord! Grant us respite for a short while. We shall accept Your call and follow the messengers.'

The reply will be given thus, "Did you not swear on oath before this (i.e. in the world) that you shall never be displaced (from this world)?" When these people were given the message of Islām and told about judgment day (Qiyāmah), they refused to believe and swore that they would never leave this world. They thought that they would never be resurrected.

Although the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام was sufficient for people to take heed, yet Allāh also showed them various signs by way of the previous nations. Reminding them of this on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), Allāh will tell them, "You lived in the homes of those who oppressed themselves and it was clear to you how We dealt with them. And We even cited examples for you." Despite all of this, they still refused to accept. They will therefore not be granted further respite.

Allāh continues to say, "They plotted their plots, but their plots rest with Allāh, even though mountains could be displaced by their plots." The disbelievers (kuffār) made extremely elaborate plots to harm the Prophets عليهم السلام and the believers (Mu'minin). They exhausted their resources in these plots, but Allāh still caused them to fail.

Allāh states further, "Never think that the Allāh will breach His promise to His messengers." Allāh has made the promise in Surah Ghāfir that "We shall definitely assist Our messengers and those who believe in this worldly life, as well as on the Day when witnesses will stand (i.e. on the Day of Judgement)." [Surah 40, verse 51]

Allāh is perfectly capable of assisting them because "Indeed Allāh is Mighty, Able to take vengeance."

يَوْمَ تَبْدُلُ الْأَرْضَ غَيْرَ الْأَرْضِ وَالسَّمَوَاتِ وَبَرَزُوا لِلَّهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَتَرَى
الْمُجْرِمِينَ يَوْمَئِذٍ مُّقْرَّنِينَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ ﴿٤٩﴾ سَرَابِيلُهُمْ مِنْ قِطْرَانٍ تَقَعْنَ وَجُوهَهُمْ
النَّارُ ﴿٥٠﴾ لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ مَا كَسَبَتْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٥١﴾ هَذَا بَلَاغٌ
لِلنَّاسِ وَلِيُنذَرُوا بِهِ وَلِيَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا هُوَ إِلَهُ وَاحِدٌ وَلِيَذَّكَّرَ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ ﴿٥٢﴾

(48) The day when the earth will be changed into another earth, and the skies (will also be changed). They will then present themselves before Allāh, the One, the Powerful. (49) On that day you will see the criminals shackled together in fetters. (50) Their garments will be of tar and the Fire will cover their faces. (51) So that Allāh may punish every soul for what it had earned. Indeed Allāh is swift in reckoning. (52) This is a message for people so that they are warned by it and so that they know that He is but One deity, and so that the intelligent ones take heed.

THE EARTH AND THE SKIES WILL BE CHANGED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND THE SINNERS WILL BE IN A MOST MISERABLE CONDITION

Allāh says, "The day when the earth will be changed into another earth, and the skies (will also be changed).” The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” writes that both the substance and the qualities of the sky and earth will be changed on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah). He quotes from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that there will be certain additions and some omissions made to the earth. He says that the hills, mountains, depressions, trees and other things will be removed so that the earth becomes flat like a piece of leather. He adds that the sky will be changed in a manner that the sun, moon and stars will all be removed.

Allāh says in Surah TāHā, “They ask you about the mountains. Say, ‘My Lord shall completely remove them leaving the earth as a barren plain on which you will not see any protrusions, nor any depressions.’” [Surah 20, verses 105-107]

Allāh says in Surah Zumar, “They have not revered Allāh as he deserves to be revered, whereas the entire earth will be in His grasp on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) and the skies will be folded in His right hand. He is Pure and Exalted above all that they ascribe as partners to Him.” [Surah 39, verse 67]

Says Allāh in Surah Anbiya, “The day when We will fold the skies like the folding of written scrolls. As We initiated the first creation, We shall return it. This is a binding promise upon Us. We are undoubtedly the Ones Who can do.” [Surah 21, verse 104]

A verse in Surah Hāqa reads, “When the trumpet will be blown once and the earth and mountains lifted and both will at once be shattered to pieces. On that day the occurrence shall transpire. The sky will be rent asunder and will be frail on that day.” [Surah 69, verses 13-16]

Allāh says in Surah Ma’ārij, “The day when the sky will be like the burnt residue of oil and the mountains like flakes of wool.” [Surah 70, verses 8, 9]

He says in Surah Takwīr, “When the sky will be opened.” [Surah 81, verse 11]

In a verse of Surah Inshiqāq, Allāh says, “When the sky will be rent asunder. It will hearken to its Lord and rightly should. When the earth will be stretched out and casting out whatever is within her, will become empty. It will hearken to its Lord and should rightly do so.” [Surah 84, verses 1-5]

Sayyidina Sahl bin Sa’d رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “On the Day of Judgement, people will be gathered on a white plain, the colour of which will be tinted brown to look like bread dough. There will not be any signs on it.” [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Sa’id رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “The earth will be made into baked bread on the Day of Judgement. The Great Allāh will toss it about like how you toss about your bread on a journey. This earth will be the first thing presented to the people of Jannah to eat.” [Bukhari]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reported that she enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as to where people will be on “The day when the earth will be changed into another earth, and the skies.” The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that everyone will be on the bridge of Sirāt.

While the above verses and Ahadith denote that the qualities of the earth will be changed, the last hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها denotes that the very substance of the earth will be changed.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes Ibn Ambāri رحمه الله عليه as saying that the sky will be changed constantly. It will be folded, appear as the burnt residue of oil and even appear like red hide.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the earth will be white on the Day of Judgement, as if it is plated with moonlight. He said that no blood would have been spilled on it and sin committed on it.

The possibility exists that the earth will also undergo various transformations like the sky. Initially its qualities will be changed [as mentioned by Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه]. Then its substance will be changed after it has testified against people [as mentioned in verse 4 of Surah Zilzāl (Surah 99)].

Allāh continues to say, "They will then present themselves before Allāh, the One, the Powerful." They will all appear to be judged.

Thereafter Allāh describes the plight of the sinners. He says, "On that day you will see the criminals shackled together in fetters." All those who shared the same beliefs of disbelief (kufr) will be shackled together because they were allies to each other in the world.

"Their garments will be of tar..." The Arabic word "Qatirān" (translated as "tar") is actually the sap of a particular tree. It is applied to the rash of camels, causing the rash to burn out. This is similar to the practice of applying sulphur to soothe a rash. This 'Qatirān' is extremely flammable and stings the skin.

Therefore, the bodies of the sinners will be coated with this so that the fire of Hell will burn them more rapidly. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that 'Qatirān' refers to molten copper.

Sayyidina Abu Mālik Ash'ari رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If the woman who screams and wails upon the death of a person does not repent before her death, she will be resurrected on the Day of Judgement with a garment of Qatirān and a garment of rash." (This Qatirān will cause her rash to become unbearable). [Muslim]

".....and the Fire will cover their faces." Although the fire will consume their entire bodies, the face is specifically mentioned because it is the pride of one's body. Surah Humaza says that the fire will "reach their hearts." Here the pride of the inner self is specifically mentioned.

All this will be inflicted upon the disbelievers (kuffār) "So that Allāh may punish every soul for what it had earned. Indeed Allāh is swift in reckoning." Although the reckoning will be swift, people will think that their wait is endless because they will not be able to relax in between because of their apprehension. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 13 p. 358]

"This is a message for people so that they are warned by it and so that they know that He is but One deity, and so that the intelligent ones take heed." People should take heed of Allāh's majesty and powers and refrain from beliefs of polytheism (shirk). They should reflect upon the fact that they are living in places where previous nations were destroyed because of similar beliefs of polytheism (shirk). This would prompt them to mend their ways.

PART FOURTEEN

سورة الحجر

Makkan	Surah Al-Hijr	Verses 99
--------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الرَّ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ وَقُرْآنٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١﴾ رَبِّمَا يَوَدُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْ كَانُوا
 مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٢﴾ ذَرَّهُمْ يَأْكُلُوا وَيَتَمَتَّعُوا وَيُلْهِمُ الْأَمَلُ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣﴾ وَمَا
 أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا وَلَهَا كِتَابٌ مَعْلُومٌ ﴿٤﴾ مَا تَسْبِقُ مِنْ أُمَّةٍ أَجَلَهَا وَمَا
 يَسْتَخِرُونَ ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Rā. These are the verses of the Book and the clear Qur'ān. (2) Many a time the disbelievers will wish that they were Muslims. (3) Leave them to eat, to enjoy and to let their hopes make them negligent. Soon they will come to know. (4) There was an appointed term for every town that We destroyed. (5) No nation can overtake their term, nor can they defray it.

THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR) WILL WISH THAT THEY WERE MUSLIMS

This Surah derives its name from a verse in its 80th verse that speaks of the people of Hijr. Allāh begins the Surah by declaring, "These are the verses of the (complete) Book and the clear Qur'ān." Other verses of the Qur'ān have also termed the Qur'ān as a 'clear' book. This is so because the Qur'ān clearly explains its subject matter beyond doubt. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" writes that the Qur'ān clearly explains the Lawful (Halāl) from the Unlawful (Harām) and the truth from falsehood. The word "Book" also refers to the Qur'ān, but has been added to denote that the Qur'ān is in the form of a written book before man.

"Many a time the disbelievers will wish that they were Muslims." Although the disbelievers (kuffār) mock the Muslims in this world, when they are confronted by Allāh's punishment in the Hereafter, they will yearn that they were also Muslims so that they could be saved from Hell.

“Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” reports from Sayyidina Abu Mūsa رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “When the people of Hell will be condemned to Hell, they will see some Muslims also in Hell. They will ask them whether they were Muslims and what was the use of their Imān since they are also in Hell. The Muslims will reply that they were sent to Hell on account of their sins. Thereafter Allāh will forgive these Muslims and order that every Muslim should be removed from Hell. The Muslims will then be removed. All of this will be because of Allāh’s mercy and grace. Seeing this the disbelievers (kuffār) will wish that they were also Muslims.”

“Ruhul Ma’āni” (v. 14 p.4) has also reported this hadith from Sayyidina Jābir and Abu Sa’id رضى الله عنه. Their narrations report that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the above verse after stating the hadith.

“Leave them to eat, to enjoy and to let their hopes make them negligent.” Allāh informs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should not be distressed about their condition if they do not believe. He should let them to be for “Soon they will come to know (their plight when their actions are reckoned).”

“There was an appointed term for every town that We destroyed.” They were all destroyed when their term expired. Emphasising this point in different words, Allāh says, “No nation can overtake their term, nor can they defray it.” This verse rules out the possibility of any future nations thinking that they would be able to escape.

وَقَالُوا يَتَّخِذُ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ عَلَيْهِ الذِّكْرُ إِنَّكَ لَمَجْنُونٌ ﴿٦﴾ لَوْ مَا تَرَيْنَا بِالْمَلَكَةِ إِن
كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٧﴾ مَا نُنْزِلُ الْمَلَكَةَ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَمَا كَانُوا إِذَا مُنْظَرِينَ ﴿٨﴾
إِنَّا خَشْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ ﴿٩﴾

(6) They said, “O you upon whom the Qur’ān has been revealed! You are certainly insane!” (7) “Why do you not come with angels if you are truthful?” (8) We send the angels only with the decision, and then they will not be granted respite. (9) Without doubt We have revealed the Reminder and We shall certainly be its protectors.

ALLĀH IS THE PROTECTOR OF THE QUR’ĀN

Quoting those who refuted the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, “They said, ‘O you upon whom the Qur’ān has been revealed! You are certainly insane!’” They said this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mockingly because they never believed in him as a Prophet.

They said further, “Why do you not come with angels (to testify your Prophethood) if you are truthful (in your claim as being the Prophet)?”

Allāh replies to them by saying, “We send the angels only with the decision, and then (if they still refuse to believe) they will not be granted respite.” Then they will be afflicted by Allāh's punishment. Therefore, they were asking for their own destruction by asking for angels to come down.

"Without doubt We have revealed the Reminder (the Qur'ān) and We shall certainly be its protectors." Allāh informs those who rejected the Qur'ān that it will remain as the truth even though they wish to refute it. The disbelievers (kuffār) also used to say that the Qur'ān is not from Allāh and, if it is, it will not last very long. Allāh replies to this remark of theirs as well, by declaring that He shall be the One to preserve it until eternity.

In this verse Allāh Himself assumes the responsibility of safeguarding the Qur'ān. He did not leave its preservation to the scholars of Islām, like He did with the Torah and the Injil, as Allāh says in verse 44 of Surah Ma'idah, "and the scholars (from the Bani Isrā'īl also judged therewith) because they were instructed to preserve Allāh's Book and they were witnesses to it."

The Qur'ān is safeguarded from all types of additions, omissions, alterations and adulterations. Every period of time produces many people who memorised the Qur'ān and were knowledgeable about the various forms of recitation. It is because of this that the same Qur'ān that was recited by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is recited today. Muslims are so particular about the recitation of the Qur'ān that even if an 80 year old person recites incorrectly, a nine year old would correct him and vice versa.

Friend and foe alike will attest to the fact that every Qur'ān that was written throughout the centuries has never differed with any other in any way. They all contain that same verses, letters, Surahs and sequence.

Some ignorant people object that the various forms of recitation (Qirā'ah) differ. They fail to understand that all these forms of recitation have been reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself and all form part of the Qur'ān.

Others object to the abrogation that occurred in the Qur'ān. This objection is also of no consequence since these were made by Allāh Himself and none were made after the demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh has safeguarded the Qur'ān from all types of people, even from the Satans (Shayātīn). Allāh says, "No falsehood can approach it from the front or from the back. It is a revelation from the Wise, Who is Most Worthy of praise." [Surah HāMim Sajdah (41), verse 42]

THE RAWĀFIDH DO NOT BELIEVE IN ALLĀH'S PROMISE TO PROTECT THE QUR'ĀN BY CLAIMING THAT IT WAS ALTERED

The Qur'ān has been established as a miracle for all times and eras. The challenge to produce even a single Surah like those of the Qur'ān has not been met up to this day. Another aspect of its miraculous nature is that it has been preserved in its pristine purity until today, and shall remain likewise until eternity. It is tragic that certain groups like the Rawāfidh who claim to be Muslims, believe that the Qur'ān was changed. The responsibility rests with them then, that they should try to produce a Surah like any of those in the Qur'ān, since they claim that parts of it were written by men. If they are unable to meet the challenge then (according to verse 24. of Surah Baqarah) they should 'fear that Fire, the fuel of which is men and stones.'

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِي شَيْعِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ رَسُولٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿١١﴾ كَذَلِكَ نَسْلُكُهُمْ فِي قُلُوبِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ ۖ وَقَدْ خَلَتْ سُنَّةُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَلَوْ فَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ بَابًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَظَلُّوا فِيهِ يَعْرُجُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ لَقَالُوا إِنَّمَا سُكَّرَتْ أَبْصَارُنَا بَلْ نَحْنُ مَسْحُورُونَ ﴿١٥﴾

(10) Undoubtedly we have sent messengers before you to the previous groups.

(11) They ridiculed every one of the messengers that came to them. (12) Thus do We make their mockery progress in their hearts. (13) They do not believe in it (the Qur'ān) though the ways of the previous people have passed. (14) If We open to them a door of the sky and they climb it during the day... (15) ..... they will say, "Our eyes have merely been mesmerised. Indeed we are a bewitched people."

THE PREVIOUS NATIONS ALSO RIDICULED THEIR PROPHETS عليهم السلام. THE REJECTERS WILL NOT BELIEVE EVEN IF A DOOR TO THE HEAVENS IS OPENED FOR THEM

Allāh consoled the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the verse, "Undoubtedly we have sent messengers before you to the previous groups. They ridiculed every one of the messengers that came to them." Therefore, the behaviour of the polytheists of Makkah are nothing new.

"Thus do We make their mockery progress in their hearts." Allāh caused their mockery to penetrate their own hearts, thereby depriving them of Belief (Imān). They were eventually destroyed and, according to Allāh's divine plan, the Polytheists of Makkah were also to be defeated.

"They do not believe in it (in the Qur'ān) though the ways of the previous people have passed." They still ask for miracles without the intention of believing them. They have sunk so deep in their obstinacy that even "If We open to them a door of the sky and they climb it during the day, (then instead of believing) they will say, 'Our eyes have merely been mesmerised. Indeed we are a bewitched people.'"

Instead of believing, they will write off the miracle as magic. When a nation refuses to believe despite being shown a miracle, they will never be blessed with Imān.

وَلَقَدْ جَعَلْنَا فِي السَّمَاءِ بُرُوجًا وَرَآيَتْهَا لِلنَّظِيرِ ﴿١٦﴾ وَحَفِظْنَاهَا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ رَجِيمٍ ﴿١٧﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ أَصْرَقَ السَّمْعَ فَآتَبَعَهُ شَهَابٌ مُمْدِنٌ ﴿١٨﴾ وَالْأَرْضَ مَدَدْنَاهَا وَأَلْقَيْنَا فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ وَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مَوْزُونٍ ﴿١٩﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا لَكُمْ فِيهَا مَعِيشَ وَمَنْ لَسْتُمْ

لَمْ يَرَوْفِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَإِنْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا عِنْدَنَا خَزَائِنُهُ وَمَا نُنْزِلُهُ إِلَّا بِقَدَرٍ مَعْلُومٍ ﴿٢١﴾
وَأَرْسَلْنَا الرِّيحَ لَوْفِحَ فَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَسْقَيْنَاكُمُوهُ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ لَهُ بِخَازِنِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾
وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ نُحْيِي وَنُمِيتُ وَنَحْنُ الْوَارِثُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْنَا الْمُسْتَقْدِمِينَ مِنْكُمْ وَلَقَدْ
عَلِمْنَا الْمُسْتَخْرِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ حَكِيمٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٥﴾

(16) Verily We have placed stars in the sky and beautified it for spectators. (17) And We have safeguarded it from every accursed Devil (Shaytān). (18) Except the one who steals a hearing. A clear flame pursues him. (19) We have spread out the earth, placed mountains on it and caused a specified quantity of every variety to grow. (20) We have placed the amenities of life on earth and We have created those things that you do not provide for. (21) We have with Us the treasures of all things and We reveal them only in stipulated quantities. (22) We send the winds that fill the clouds with water, then send rains from the sky with which We feed you. You cannot accumulate this much water (by yourselves). (23) Without doubt, it is We Who give life and death, and We will be the successors. (24) Indeed, We know those of you who are first and those of you who follow after. (25) Certainly your Lord shall gather all of them. Verily He is The Wise, The All Knowing.

THE STARS DECORATE THE SKY AND ARE USED TO PELT THE DEVILS (SHAYĀTĪN)

In these verses Allāh describes many natural wonders that He has created. Allāh says, "Verily We have placed stars in the sky and beautified it for spectators."

Allāh say in Surah Mulk, "Verily We have beautified the nearest sky with lanterns (the stars), and made them a means of pelting the devils (Shayātīn). We have prepared for them the punishment of the Blaze." [Surah 67, verse 5]

Allāh describes in more vivid detail in Surah Sāffāt, "Verily, We decorated the sky of this world with the adornment of the stars as a protection from every rebellious devil (Shaytān). They cannot eavesdrop on those (angels) of the upper heights and are pelted from every direction. (They are) Repelled and shall have an eternal punishment. Save for the one who snatches something, then a flaming spark pursues him." [Surah 37, verses 6-10]

Besides what has been quoted above, the stars are also used as navigational aids. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, ".... and they are guided by the stars." [Surah 16, verse 16]

Bukhari reports from Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه that the stars have been created for three purposes:

- (1) To beautify the sky.
- (2) To pelt the Devils (Shayātīn).
- (3) As signs by which travellers may be guided at night.

He adds that whoever uses the stars for any other purpose has erred, destroyed his share (life) and pursued something about which he has no knowledge. Here he was referring to the astrologers.

THE MEANING OF "BURŪJ"

We have translated the Arabic word "Burūj" to mean the stars. This is the most apt meaning and conforms to the above verse of Surah Mulk that describes their function of beautifying the sky. However, other commentators have interpreted the word to mean the twelve signs of the zodiac. In our opinion, this interpretation is erroneous since these have been initiated and named by the philosophers. They cannot be used to pelt the Devils (Shayātīn).

"And We have safeguarded it from every accursed Devil (Shaytān). Except the one who steals a hearing. A clear flame pursues him." This has been more clearly described in the above verse of Surah Sāffāt, where Allāh says, "They (the Devils (Shayātīn) cannot eavesdrop on the higher heavens and (if they try) are pelted from every direction and chased away. (Then in the Hereafter) Theirs shall be an eternal punishment. Save for the one who snatches something, then a flaming spark pursues him." It is learnt from this that when a Devil (Shaytān) attempts to eavesdrop, he is immediately driven away. However, if he is successful in hearing something, a flaming star is flung at him to kill him.

While this above verse of Surah Hijr describes the star as "a clear flame's" Surah Sāffāt describes it as "a flaming spark". To understand the nature of these stars, it is necessary to keep the verse of Surah Mulk in mind where Allāh says that the stars are "lanterns" that have been placed in the sky for beautification and also serve to the purpose of missiles that are used to pelt the Shayātīn. It is therefore evident that the purposes of the stars are manifold. One may therefore not say that the verses contradict each other.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that some people asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to enlighten them with regard to fortune-tellers. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "They are nothing." It was then said that they sometimes do predict accurately. Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That will be a statement that a Jinn has snatched up and whispered into his friend's ear, just as a fowl pecks. He then mixes it with over a hundred lies." [Mishkāṭ p. 393]

[For more details one should refer to the commentary of the opening verses of Surah Jinn].

THE EARTH, THE MOUNTAINS AND THE TREES CONTAIN SIGNS BY WHICH PEOPLE MAY RECOGNISE ALLĀH

"We have spread out the earth, placed mountains on it..." The earth is one of Allāh's great creations that is before everyone's eyes. Allāh says in Surah Luqmān, "Allāh created the skies without any visible pillar, has placed mountains on earth so that it does not shake with you..." [Surah 31, verse 10]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 14 p.29) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the earth was spread on water and it began to bob like a boat. Allāh therefore placed mountains on it so that it stabilises.

Allāh says in Surah Naba, "Did We not make the earth a mat and the mountains as pegs?" The mountains stabilise the earth with Allāh's command. Otherwise, when judgment day (Qiyāmah) dawns, they will fly about.

Thereafter Allāh says that He "caused a specified quantity of every variety to grow." Everything grows according to Allāh's plan.

"We have placed the amenities of life on earth..." Man's necessities are all found on earth, allowing him to survive.

".... and We have created those things that you do not provide for." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that Allāh has created for man all types of creatures that serve him. Allāh provides for all of them just as He provides for man himself.

"We have with Us the treasures of all things and We reveal them only in stipulated quantities." Allāh has control over all His creation. He sustains all of them and he stipulates when, where and how much to grant.

"We send the winds that fill the clouds with water, then send rains from the sky with which We feed you." Allāh causes the winds to fill the clouds that are then commanded by Him to shower its rain upon the areas that He desires. Man and all other creatures then derive benefit from it.

"You cannot accumulate this much water (by yourselves)." Man cannot cause the clouds to fill with water, nor can he cause the clouds to rain where he wills. Allāh sends these from His treasures. Once the rain falls, man can retain and store only a limited quantity of water, which will soon deplete. Allāh stores the water for man in the rivers and underground water table.

"Without doubt, it is We Who give life and death, and We will be the successors." Everything will come to an end besides Allāh. He will survive all His creation. Allāh says in Surah Maryam, "Without a shadow of doubt, We will be the inheritors of the earth and whoever is upon it and they will return to Us only." [Surah 19, verse 40]

All temporary owners will perish and only the True Master and Owner shall prevail. Allāh says in Surah Mu'min that when all will perish, Allāh will announce, "To Whom does all Kingdom belong today? To Allāh, the One, the Omnipotent." [Surah 40, verse 16]

"Indeed, We know those of you who are first and those of you who follow after." With regard to the interpretation of this verse, the author of "Ma'alimut Tanzil" (v. 3 p.48) has reported numerous opinions. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that "the first" refers to the deceased and those "who follow after" refers to the living. According to Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه "the first" refers to the previous nations, and those "who follow after" refers to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه states that "the first" refers to those people who excel in virtue and obedience to Allāh, while those "who follow after" refers to those who lag behind in this regard. Another opinion says that "the first" refers to those who occupy the first few Saffs (rows of Salāh), and those "who follow after" refers to those occupying the other Saffs (rows). The general nature of the verse includes all these interpretations, and Allāh has knowledge of all the people mentioned above.

"Certainly your Lord shall gather all of them. Verily He is The Wise, The All Knowing." No soul will escape resurrection since Allāh is aware of all people, past, present and future.

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ مِنْ حَمَإٍ مَسْنُونٍ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَالْجَانَّ خَلَقْنَاهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ مِنْ نَارِ السَّمُومِ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَإِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ إِنِّي خَلِيقٌ بَشَرًا مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ مِنْ حَمَإٍ مَسْنُونٍ ﴿٢٨﴾ فَإِذَا سَوَّيْتُهُ وَنَفَخْتُ فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِي فَقَعُوا لَهُمُ سَاجِدِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَسَجَدَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ أَجْمَعُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ أَبَى أَنْ يَكُونَ مَعَ السَّاجِدِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ قَالَ يَتَّبِعْ إِبْلِيسَ مَا لَكَ أَلَّا تَكُونَ مَعَ السَّاجِدِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ قَالَ لَمْ أَكُنْ لَأَسْجُدَ لِشَيْءٍ خَلَقْتَهُ مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ مِنْ حَمَإٍ مَسْنُونٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ قَالَ فَأَخْرِجْ مِنْهَا فَإِنَّكَ رَجِيمٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَإِنَّ عَلَيْكَ اللَّعْنَةَ إِلَى يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ﴿٣٥﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ فَأَنْظِرْنِي إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ قَالَ فَإِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمُنْظَرِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْوَقْتِ الْمَعْلُومِ ﴿٣٨﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ بِمَا أَغْوَيْتَنِي لَأُزَيِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَأُغْوِيَنَّهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَكَ مِنْهُمُ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ قَالَ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ عَلَيَّ مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٤١﴾ إِنَّ عِبَادِي لَيْسَ لَكَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانٌ إِلَّا مَنْ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنْ الْفَاوِينَ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمَوْعِدُهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٤٣﴾ لَهَا سَبْعَةُ أَبْوَابٍ لِكُلِّ بَابٍ مِّنْهُمْ جُزْءٌ مَّقْسُومٌ ﴿٤٤﴾

(26) Indeed we created man out of melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay. (27) And the Jinn We created before out of Fire derived from a scorching wind. (28) When your Lord said to the angels, "I am creating a human out of melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay." (29) "So when I have completed him and blown My spirit into him, then fall in prostration to him." (30) Every one of the angels prostrated... (31) except Iblis. He refused to be of the prostrated ones. (32) Allāh said, "O Iblis! What ails you that you are not of the prostrated ones?" (33) He replied, "I shall not prostrate to a human that You created out of melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay." (34) Allāh said, "Go from here, for you are indeed outcast." (35) "You shall be accursed until the day of judgment (Qiyāmah)." (36) He said, "Grant me respite until the day when they will be resurrected." (37) Allāh said, "You are of those granted respite... (38) ... until an appointed time." (39) He said, "My Lord! Because You have sent me astray, I will certainly beautify things for them on earth and lead them all astray." (40) "Except Your chosen bondsmen from them. (41) Allāh said, "This is the straight path that leads to Me." (42) "Indeed you will have no sway over My bondsmen, except those deviant ones who follow you." (43) "Verily Hell is their promised abode." (44) "It has seven doors. Each door shall have a stipulated share of them."

IBLĪS DISOBEYS THE COMMAND TO PROSTRATE, IS CURSED AND REQUESTS TO BE ALLOWED LIFE UNTIL JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH)

These verses speak of Allāh's command to the angels to prostrate before Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. The all complied with the command except Iblis. In the above verse Allāh refers to Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام as a "human," whereas his name is mentioned in Surah Baqarah, Surah A'rāf Surah Bani Isra'il and several other Surahs.

The word 'Insān' (man) is derived from the root word 'uns' ('affection' or 'coexistence'). Thus, he has been termed 'insān' because no man can live in isolation and man requires to coexist with other people, sharing their affection. The word 'insān' refers to all the progeny of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, be they male or female.

Another Arabic term used for man is 'bashar.' The word literally means 'skin.' It is used for man because, unlike other animals, his skin is not completely covered in hair. Excluding his head, most of the skin on his body is visible.

THE MEANING OF "MELODIOUS SAND DERIVED FROM DARK DECOMPOSING CLAY"

Surah Mu'min mentions that man was created from soil, while Surah Sād and the above verse (26) of Surah Hijr mention that it was clay. The above verse states that man was made out of "melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay." In Surah Rahmān Allāh says that He "created man from melodious sand..."

The fact is that water was mixed with soil, turning it into clay. Then this clay was left until it began to decompose and become dark in colour. Thereafter the mould of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was cast with this. When the mould set and dried, it became like potted clay that has a melodious sound when struck. The various verses of the Qur'ān individually refer to these various stages in man's creation.

"And the Jinn We created before out of Fire derived from a scorching wind." This verse refers to the creation of the first Jinn. Some commentators say that he was Devil (Iblis), but this is not proven. The book "Ākāmul Marjān" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the first Jinn created was called Sūmi. All the Jinn were his progeny.

The same book mentions that the Jinn lived on earth two thousand years before the creation of man. According to another narration, the period was forty years. Eventually they spread so much corruption on earth, that they killed their king (or the Holy Prophet according to others) called Yusuf.

The angels referred to these Jinn when they asked Allāh, "Will You place on earth someone who will cause anarchy there and spill blood?" [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 30]

In Surah Rahmān Allāh says that He created the Jinn from "pure leaping fire" that is smokeless. By combining this verse with the above verse of Surah Hijr, it is deduced that they were created from such a fire that cannot be seen. The word 'Samūm' ('a scorching wind') is derived from a root word that means 'poison.' It is for this reason that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the wind from which the Jinn were created is so hot that it can kill.

Because "was from the Jinn", he refused to prostrate to Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. His reason was, as he says in Surah A'rāf, "I am better than him! You have created me from fire and created him from clay." He deemed fire to be superior to clay, but in reality, mud is superior because it is constructive, while fire is destructive.

DEVIL IBLĪS REFUSES TO PROSTRATE

"When your Lord said to the angels, 'I am creating a human out of melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay. So when I have completed him and blown My spirit into him, then fall in prostration to him.'" This prostration was not for worship, but to show respect. This is not permissible in the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم even though the prostration is only to show respect.

Consequently, "Every one of the angels prostrated except Iblīs. He refused to be of the prostrated ones." Even though Iblīs was a Jinn, he lived with the angels. The command to prostrate was given to him as well, as is clearly mentioned in verse 12 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7).

"Allāh said, 'O Devil (Iblīs)! What ails you that you are not of the prostrated ones?'" With pride brimming in his heart, Devil (Iblīs) replied, "I shall not prostrate to a human that You created out of melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay."

According to a verse in Surah Bani Isrā'il, he replied. 'Should I prostrate to one whom You have created from mud?' [Surah 17, verse 61]

"Allāh said, 'Go from here, for you are indeed outcast. You shall be accursed until the day of judgment (Qiyāmah).'" It is obvious that after the Day of Judgement he will be accursed as well since he will die as a disbeliever (kāfir).

THE ACCURSED NATURE OF DEVIL (IBLĪS)

After being cursed, Devil (Iblīs) was not repentant but rather accepted his plight as being accursed by Allāh. Instead of pleading with Allāh for forgiveness, he swore to mislead man. "He said, 'Grant me respite until the day when they will be resurrected.' Allāh said, 'You are of those granted respite until an appointed time.'" The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the "appointed time" refers to the time when the trumpet will be blown for the first time on the Day of Judgement. This interpretation has been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and is the opinion of the majority of commentators.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Ka'b Aḥbār رحمه الله عليه that after the trumpet is blown the first time, Allāh will instruct the angel of death to extract the soul of devil (Iblīs). Seeing the angel of death, Devil (Iblīs) will scramble to the east and then to the west. Wherever he goes, he will find the angel before him. He will then dive into the ocean, but it will reject him. The same will happen to him when he will attempt to seek refuge inside the earth. He will not be able to hide anywhere. Eventually, the angels with the angel of death will grab hold of him. He will then continue to suffer the pangs of death until Allāh wills his death.

IBLĪS PLEADS FOR AN EXTENSION TO HIS LIFE SO THAT HE MAY MISLEAD MAN

The above narration from Sayyidina Ka'b Aḥbār رحمه الله عليه is based upon the narrations of the Bani Isra'īl, the veracity of which remains uncertain. What is certain however is that he requested this extended life for the sole purpose of misleading man. "He said, 'My Lord! Because You have sent me astray, I will certainly beautify things for them on earth and lead them all astray."

In the above verse he states how he intends to mislead man i.e. by beautifying their evil actions for them. Some of his ploys were discussed in Surah Nisā (Surah 4) in the commentary of verse 117 where Allāh says, "They supplicate only to females and call upon the rebellious Devil (Shaytān) whom Allāh has cursed." The subject is also discussed in the commentary of verse 16 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Devil (Shaytān) mentions "Because You have sent me astray I will definitely waylay them on Your straight path. Then I will approach them from the front, the back, their right and their left and You shall find most of them to be ungrateful."

SATAN (SHAYTĀN) IS POWERLESS TO MISLEAD THE CHOSEN SERVANTS OF ALLĀH

After swearing to mislead all of mankind, Satan (Shaytān) conceded, "Except Your chosen bondsmen from them." He is unable to mislead them.

"Allāh said, 'This (path adopted by My chosen slaves) is the straight path that leads to Me.'" This leads to Allāh's pleasure. These are the people who will adhere to Allāh's commandments and remain aloof from Satan (Shaytān) and his guile.

SATAN (SHAYTĀN) WILL HAVE SWAY ONLY OVER THOSE WHO HAVE DEVIATED

Allāh told Satan (Shaytān), "Indeed you have no sway over My bondsmen, except those deviant ones who follow you." Allāh's chosen servants understand the ploys of Shaytān and are not deceived by the way he beautifies sins. However, those who are averse to the guidance of the Prophets عليهم السلام and divine scriptures fall headlong for his ploys. He merely has to whisper evil into their minds and hearts to make them carry out a sin.

Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "Indeed he has no sway over those who believe and who rely solely on their Lord. His sway is only on those who befriend him and those who ascribe partners to Allāh." [Surah 16, verses 99, 100]

SATAN (SHAYTĀN) AND HIS FOLLOWERS ARE DESTINED FOR HELL

Allāh says with regard to those who will follow Satan (Shaytān), "Verily Hell is their promised abode." Allāh told him, "I shall certainly fill Hell with yourself and all those of them who follow you." It is indeed tragic that men follow their sworn enemy, who has vowed to mislead them. For a few fleeting moments of pleasure, they are prepared to sacrifice their welfare in the Hereafter!

Allāh then describes Hell by saying that 'it has seven doors.' Commentators have mentioned that there are seven doors because so many people will enter Hell.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه has narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Hell has seven doors, one of which is reserved for those who draw their swords to kill my Ummah." [Mishkāt p. 306]

Other commentators have mentioned that the seven doors refer to the seven levels of Hell. Each level will have a different punishment.

"Each door shall have a stipulated share of them." Each person will be punished according to his sins. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 14 p.53) has written that one door will be reserved for the entry of the sinful Muslims. He says that another door will be for the Jews, another for the Christians, another for the Sabians, another for the fire worshippers, another for the Polytheists and the last will be for the hypocrites (Munāfiqīn).

This opinion has also been reported by Imām Qurtubi رحمه الله from Sayyidina Dahhāk رحمه الله, but it is not substantiated by any Hadith. Every person should be concerned about saving himself from the terrible torment of Hell, the fire of which will be 69 times more intense than the fire of this world (as narrated in Bukhari).

إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَذْخُلُوهَا بِسَلَامٍ ءَامِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَنَزَعْنَا مَا فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِنْ غَلٍّ إِخْوَانًا عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ لَا يَمَسُّهُمْ فِيهَا نَصَبٌ وَمَا هُمْ مِنْهَا بِمُخْرَجِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ نِعْمَ عِبَادَى أَتَىٰ أَنَا الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَأَنَّ عَذَابِي هُوَ الْعَذَابُ الْأَلِيمُ ﴿٥٠﴾

(45) Those who adopt piety (taqwa) will certainly be in gardens and springs. (46) "Enter therein with peace and safety." (47) We shall remove any animosity that may be in their breasts. As brothers they will be seated on couches, facing each other. (48) No difficulty shall afflict them there, neither will they be removed from there. (49) Inform My bondsmen that I am certainly the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful... (50) And that My punishment is definitely a most excruciating punishment.

THE PIOUS WILL LIVE PEACEFULLY IN GARDENS AND SPRINGS WITHOUT ANY ANIMOSITY BETWEEN THEM

There are various levels of piety (taqwa), the highest of which is to save one's self from Hell. Abstaining from major and minor sins also constitutes piety (taqwa), just as piety (taqwa) will cause one to abstain from doubtful matters.

Only Muslims will enter Heaven (Jannah) which is referred to in this and many other verses as “gardens.”

The above verse mentions that they will enjoy these gardens with all its springs. Other verses mention that these gardens will have “rivers running beneath them.” In Heaven (Jannah) they will enjoy many bounties of Allāh, the greatest of which will be Allāh’s pleasure.

The people of Heaven (Jannah) will be carefree and live in total peace and tranquillity. Their hearts will be cleansed of all enmity and animosity that they may have harboured in this world. As a result, all the inhabitants of Heaven (Jannah) will be like brothers, having no jealousy, arguments and disputes.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “No believer (Mu’min) will enter Heaven (Jannah) until his bosom is cleared of all dirt, just as a predator is removed from the path.” [v. 2 p.55]

“.... they will be seated on couches, facing each other.” The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” reports from Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله that the people of Heaven (Jannah) will never see the backs of each other. Their couches will rotate in every direction so that they will always face each other.

THE PEOPLE OF HEAVEN (JANNAH) WILL NOT EXPERIENCE ANY DIFFICULTY NOR WILL THEY BE REMOVED FROM THERE

Allāh says in Surah Wāqī’ah that the people of Heaven (Jannah) will be seated on “They will be on woven thrones (of gold), reclining on these facing each other.” [Surah 56, verses 15, 16]

Allāh then says in the above verses, “No difficulty shall afflict them there, neither will they be removed from there.” The people of Heaven (Jannah) will not suffer any hardships, fatigue, anguish and grief at all. They will abide therein forever and will never have to suffer expulsion nor any deficiency in the bounties.

A verse in Surah Fātir states that the people of Heaven (Jannah) will say, “All praise be to Allāh, Who has removed grief from us. Undoubtedly our Lord is Most Forgiving, Appreciative. Our Lord has settled us in an eternal home by His grace. Herein, no difficulty will ever afflict us, nor shall any tiredness touch us.” [Surah 35, verses 34, 35]

After explaining the situation of the people of Heaven (Jannah) and Hell, Allāh says, “Inform My bondsmen that I am certainly the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful and that My punishment is definitely a most excruciating punishment.” The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” writes that this verse denotes that those believers (Mu’minīn) who sinned may also be entered into Heaven (Jannah), even though they may not have repented before their deaths. This will be because Allāh is “the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful.”

However, these believers (Mu’minīn) should not be beguiled into thinking that they may continue to sin without repenting. They should also bear in mind that Allāh is able to punish just as effectively, and that His punishment is not light. They may also have to suffer temporarily in Hell. As reported in the Ahadith, people should always refrain from sins and, if they have sinned inadvertently, they should not delay in repenting.

وَنَبِّئُهُمْ عَنْ ضَيْفِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿٥١﴾ إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوا سَلَامًا قَالَ إِنَّا مِنْكُمْ وَجِلُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾
 قَالُوا لَا تَوْجَلْ إِنَّا نُبَشِّرُكَ بِغُلَامٍ عَلِيمٍ ﴿٥٣﴾ قَالَ أَبَشَّرْتُمُونِي عَلَىٰ أَنْ مَسَّنِيَ الْكِبَرُ
 فِيمَا تَبَشِّرُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ قَالُوا بَشِّرْنَا بِالْحَقِّ فَلَا تَكُن مِّنَ الْفَٰئِطِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ قَالَ وَمَنْ
 يَقْنَطُ مِن رَّحْمَةِ رَبِّهِ إِلَّا الضَّالُّونَ ﴿٥٦﴾

(51) And inform them of Ibrāhīm's guests. (52) When they entered his presence they greeted with Salām. He said, "We are afraid of you." (53) They said, "Do not be afraid. Indeed, we wish to convey to you the glad tidings of a knowledgeable child." (54) He said, "Do you give me these glad tidings when old-age has afflicted me? What glad tidings can you deliver?" (55) They said, "We convey to you the glad tidings of a reality, so do not become of the despondent ones." (56) He said, "Only the deviant are despondent of Allāh's mercy."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام GROWS APPREHENSIVE OF HIS GUESTS BUT THEY REASSURE HIM WITH THE GLAD TIDINGS OF A SON

These verses describe the meeting Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام had with certain angels whom Allāh had sent to him. They were charged with conveying to him the news of a son to be born to him. They were also commanded to punish the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. This episode was discussed in Surah Hūd, and will be repeated in Surah Dhāriyāt. [Surah 51, verses 24-37]

Since this was the first time that he met them, he told them that they were "unfamiliar people." Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام served a roasted lamb to them, but they did not eat it since angels do not eat. This surprised him and he said, "We are afraid of you."

The angels reassured him by saying, "Do not be afraid. Indeed, we wish to convey to you the glad tidings of a knowledgeable child." As mentioned in Surah Hūd, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and his wife, Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام, were aged by then. Astonished by their news, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام asked them, "Do you give me these glad tidings when old-age has afflicted me? What glad tidings can you deliver?"

The angels replied, 'We convey to you the glad tidings of a reality (nothing is impossible for Allāh), so do not become of the despondent ones.'

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام expressed his acknowledgement of this fact by saying, "Only the deviant are despondent of Allāh's mercy." Although he realised this all along, his question was not based on despondency of Allāh's mercy, but the astonishing nature of the news prompted this question. As mentioned in Surah Hūd, they informed him of the birth of a son Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام and of a grandson Sayyidina Yaqūb عليه السلام.

Surah Sāffāt mentions that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام made a plea to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Grant me a son from among the pious.." So We conveyed to him the good news of a tolerant son." In the verse under discussion, Allāh says that consequently, "We conveyed to him the glad tidings of a knowledgeable son." According to certain commentators, the above verse of Surah Sāffāt refers to the birth of Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام, while those in Surahs Hūd, Hijr and Dhāriyāt refer to the birth of Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام. Further details will follow in the commentary of Surah Sāffāt, Insha Allāh

قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكُمْ أَيُّهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَى قَوْمٍ مُّجْرِمِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ إِلَّا
 ءَالَ لُوطٍ إِنَّا لَمُنَجُّوهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٥٩﴾ إِلَّا أَمْرَانَهُ قَدَرْنَا إِنَّمَا لِمَنِ الْغَدِيرُ
 ﴿٦٠﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ ءَالَ لُوطٍ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّزَكَّرُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالُوا بَلْ
 جِئْتَنَا بِمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَمْتَرُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ وَأَتَيْتَكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّا لَصَادِقُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ فَأَسِرْ
 بِأَهْلِكَ بِقِطْعٍ مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ وَاتَّبِعْ أَدْبَارَهُمْ وَلَا يَلْتَفِتْ مِنْكُمْ أَحَدٌ وَامْضُوا حَيْثُ تُؤْمَرُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾
 وَقَضَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ ذَلِكَ الْأَمْرَ أَنَّ دَابِرَ هَؤُلَاءِ مَقْطُوعٌ مُّصْحِحِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ وَجَاءَ أَهْلُ
 الْمَدِينَةِ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ قَالَ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ ضَيْفِي فَلَا تَفْضَحُونِ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَلَا
 تُخْرَبُوا ﴿٦٩﴾ قَالُوا أَوْلَمْ نَنْهَكَ عَنِ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالَ هَؤُلَاءِ بَنَاتِي إِنْ كُنْتُمْ فَاعِلِينَ
 ﴿٧١﴾ لَعَنَّاكَ إِنَّهُمْ لَغِي سَكْرَتِهِمْ بِعَمَلِهِمْ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الصَّيْحَةُ مُشْرِقِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ فَجَعَلْنَا
 عَلَيْهِمَا سَافِلَهُمَا وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حِجَابَةً مِّنْ سِجِّيلٍ ﴿٧٤﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْمُتَوَسِّمِينَ
 ﴿٧٥﴾ وَإِنَّمَا لِسَبِيلٍ مُّقِيمٍ ﴿٧٦﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾

(57) Ibrahim said (to the angels), "What assignment have you been commissioned with, O messengers?" (58) They said, "We have been sent to (destroy) a felonious nation... (59).....Except the family of Lūt. We shall surely rescue all of them... (60) ..... except his wife. We have decided that she be left behind (with the sinners)." (61) When the messengers came to the family of Lūt... (62) ... he said, "Indeed you people are unfamiliar." (63) They said, "No. In fact we have brought to you what they used to doubt." (64) "And we have brought the truth to you and we are of the truthful." (65) "So travel with your family during a portion of the night, follow on their heels and none of you should turn around. And proceed whence you have been commanded." (66) We decreed to him this matter that the roots of these people shall be severed by the morning. (67) The people of the town arrived rejoicingly. (68) Lūt عليه السلام said "These are my guests so do not disgrace me... (69) Fear Allāh and do not humiliate me." (70) They replied, "Have we not forbidden you from all the people of the world?" (71) He said, "Here are my daughters if you must do something." (72) By your life! They were blinded in their intoxication. (73) So a scream seized them at sunrise. (74) We turned them upside down and showered clay pebbles on them. (75) Indeed herein are signs for those who have foresight. (76) These towns are along an accessible thoroughfare. (77) There are certainly signs in this for the believers.

THE GUESTS OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام WERE ANGELS THEY PROCEEDED TO PUNISH THE PEOPLE OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام AFTER CONVEYING THE GLAD TIDINGS TO SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام

The destruction of Sayyidina Lūt's عليه السلام nation was discussed in Surah A'rāf and Surah Hūd. It will also be repeated in Surah Ankabūt. They were engaged in the great evil of homosexuality and refused to take heed to the preaching of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. They were even bold enough to say, "Bring Allāh's punishment to us if you are from among the truthful."

Allāh says, "When the messengers came to the family of Lūt he said, 'Indeed you people are unfamiliar.'" He said this because he had never seen them before, as was the case with Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام.

The angels replied by saying, "No. In fact we have brought to you what they used to doubt. We have brought the truth to you and we are of the truthful." They then informed him that his nation was to be afflicted with a punishment. The only survivors were to be his family, with the exception of his wife. Therefore, they advised him, "So travel with your family during a portion of the night, follow on their heels (to ensure that none are left behind) and none of you should turn around. And proceed whence you have been commanded." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that they were to proceed to Syria (Shām), while other commentators maintain that their destination was Jordan.

THE DEPRAVITY AND RESULTANT DESTRUCTION OF THE NATION OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام

Since the angels were extremely handsome and foreign to the town, "The people of the town arrived rejoicingly." They were excited to practise their villainy on the angels. "Lūt عليه السلام said, "These are my guests so do not disgrace me. Fear Allāh and do not humiliate me." His plea had no effect on them.

"They replied, 'Have we not forbidden you from (hosting) all the people of the world?'" They also forbade him from preventing them from their objectives. Realising that they were besotted, "He said, 'Here are my daughters (i.e. the women of the nation) if you must do something.'" By marrying these women, they were able to satiate their passions in a lawful manner.

As was discussed in verse 79 of Surah Hūd (Surah 11), "They replied, 'You know very well that we have no interest in your daughters. You are well aware of our intentions.'"

They refused to listen to him, so Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام left the town during the night as instructed. As a result, "a scream seized them at sunrise." Together with this, Jibr'il عليه السلام lifted the cities and threw them down again, as Allāh says, "We turned them upside down..." In addition to all of this, Allāh "showered clay pebbles on them."

The above verse, as well as those in Surah Hūd and Surah Dhāriyāt indicate that the stones were not the average stone. They were such stones that were made of clay and then baked to harden. Verse 82 of Surah Hūd mentions that the stones rained continuously upon them. It is also learnt from a combination of the various verses, that the nation of Lūt عليه السلام were afflicted by three types of punishment. These were (1) a scream, (2) the overturning of their cities and (3) the shower of stones.

Surah Barā'ah refers to the cities of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام as "the overturned cities". Allāh says in Surah Najm that He, "also threw down the overturned cities. So that engulfed them which did. (i.e. the shower of stones)." [Surah 53, verses 52, 53]

Commentators mention that Sayyidina Lūt's عليه السلام wife either never left with the believers (Mu'minīn), or she turned around to look at the disbelievers (kuffār), because of which a stone struck her dead.

The question then arises as to why were stones rained on them when they were already crushed by the overturning of their cities. Commentators have replied to this by saying that the stones were used to kill those who were out of the cities.

These cities lay close to the River Jordan and the Dead Sea now occupies the area where they once lived. The Dead Sea is foul smelling and useless to man and animal. Its shores do not pass out of the borders of these cities.

THE CITIES OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام ARE A LESSON TO THOSE WHO PASS BY THEM

After recounting the incident of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام, Allāh says, "Indeed in this are signs for those who have foresight. These towns are along an accessible thoroughfare. There are certainly signs in there for the believers." The Arabs continuously passed by the ruins of these cities lying beneath the waters when they travelled the road to Syria on trade journeys. They could easily reflect upon the lesson taught by this episode, thereby adopting Belief (Imān).

With regard to the same incident, Allāh says in Surah Sāffāt, "You pass by them in the mornings and at nights. Do you not understand?" [Surah 37, verse 137, 138]

It is indeed despicable that the so-called 'civilized' nations are also foremost in committing the vile act of homosexuality in addition to their already rampant practice of fornication. They are indeed hastening towards a perilous doom. "So wait! Indeed we are waiting with you.."

THE HONOUR OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IN THAT ALLĀH HAS SWORN BY HIS LIFE

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "By your life! They were blinded in their intoxication." The word "life" in this verse refers to the life of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 14 p.72) narrates from Bayhaqi that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه said, "Allāh has not created a soul that is more honoured and revered than that of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh has not taken an oath on any life besides his."

A person may enquire as to how is it possible for an oath to be taken by any name besides Allāh's, since this is forbidden in the Shari'ah? The reply is simple. The prohibition is for man. He may not take an oath by any other besides Allāh since this will amount to polytheism (shirk). However, Allāh is not constrained by any laws and may swear by whomsoever and whatsoever He pleases. Allāh's oaths do not imply that the things by which He swears are superior to Him.

Allāh has taken numerous oaths in the Qur'ān e.g. "By the fig!" "By the olive!" "By the oath of the winds that disperse!" "By sky and the night knocker!" The commentators have mentioned that the things by which Allāh swears are such things that clearly display Allāh's power or they are immensely beneficial to man. They are also of such a nature that they reveal Allāh's Oneness and grandeur to those who ponder over them.

وَإِنْ كَانَ أَصْحَابُ الْأَيْكَةِ لظَالِمِينَ ﴿٧٨﴾ فَأَنْتَقِمْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمَا لِيَآمَامٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٧٩﴾

(78) Without doubt, the people of Aykah were oppressors... (79) So We extracted vengeance from them. Indeed the two of them are along on accessible thoroughfare.

THE PEOPLE OF AYKAH WERE DESTROYED BECAUSE OF THEIR OPPRESSION

The Arabic word 'Aykah' means a 'thicket' or a 'forest.' It refers to any place that is dense with trees. The "people of Aykah" will therefore refer to people who live in such a place.

Other commentators have also translated "the people of Aykah" to mean people of the woods' and stated that these were a nation to whom Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام was sent. Like the people of Madyan (to whom he was also sent), the people of Aykah were also involved in cheating others in weight and measure.

Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام preached to both these nations, but they refused to listen. The destruction of the people of Madyan is mentioned in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 85-93] Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 84-95]. Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 176-191] makes mention of how the people of Aykah asked for punishment and how it came to them. Allāh says there, "So they falsified him and the punishment of a day of the canopy seized them. It was certainly a punishment of a grave day." [Surah 26, verse 189]

Allāma Baghawi رحمه الله writes in "Ma'alimut Tanzil" that Allāh caused them to suffer seven days of intense heat. Thereafter, they saw a cloud approaching. They all hastened towards the cloud to use it as a "canopy" and seek shelter from the blistering heat. However, when they all gathered under the cloud, Allāh caused a fire to emerge from the cloud, scorching them all to death.

THE CITIES OF THE PEOPLE OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND THOSE OF THE PEOPLE OF AYKAH ARE SITUATED ALONG A MAIN ROUTE

"Indeed the two of them are along an accessible thoroughfare." Ibn Kathir mentions that the people of Aykah lived close to the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and their era was not long after them. Both these colonies lay on either side of the same trade route that the Arabs took to Syria.

وَلَقَدْ كَذَّبَ أَصْحَابُ الْحِجْرِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَآتَيْنَهُمْ آيَاتِنَا فَكَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٨١﴾
وَكَانُوا يُخْتُونَ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا ءَامِنِينَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَآخَذَتْهُمْ الصَّيْحَةُ مُصْبِحِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ فَمَا أَغْنَىٰ
عَنَّهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾

(80) The people of Hijr denied the messengers. (81) Our signs came to them, yet they ignored these. (82) They used to carve homes out of the mountains, living in great peace. (83) A scream seized them during the morning. (84) Whatever they earned was of no avail to them.

THE DENIAL AND RESULTANT DESTRUCTION OF THE PEOPLE OF HIJR

The "people of Hijr" refers to the nation of Thamūd because they lived in the valley of Hijr. They lived on earth after the nation of Ād was destroyed. The Thamūd were also extremely powerful people and were able to carve homes out of mountains. Allāh says in Surah Fajr, "And have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Thamūd, who hewed the mountains in the valley." In the above verse Allāh says, "They used to carve homes out of the mountains, living in great peace."

Allāh says, "The people of Hijr denied the messengers." Because the denial of any one messenger amounts to the denial of every other messenger, the plural of the word 'messenger' is used. This is because all the Prophets عليهم السلام brought the same message. Allāh says, "Our signs came to them, yet they ignored these." Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام even displayed to them the miracle of a pregnant camel emerging from a rock, but they refused to believe.

As a result of this, "A scream seized them during the morning." Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "So an earthquake seized them and they lay face down in their homes." [Surah 7, verse 78]

Says Allāh in Surah HāMim Sajdah, "As for the Thamud, We guided them, but they chose blindness instead of guidance. So, because of what they earned, a catastrophic punishment seized them, which was extremely humiliating." From these verses it is deduced that the Thamud were also afflicted with three types of punishment viz. (1) a scream, (2) a screech from above and (3) an earthquake. The Arabic word for "screech" may also be translated as "punishment".

These people invested all their resources in this worldly life and paid' no heed to the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Whatever they earned was of no avail to them."

All their worldly resources were wasted to them.

وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَآتِيَةٌ فَأَصْفَحْ
 الصَّفْحَ الْجَمِيلَ (85) إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ الْخَالِقُ الْعَلِيمُ (86)

(85) We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them with the truth. Indeed judgment day (Qiyāmah) is approaching, so pardon with a most graceful pardon. (86) Verily your Lord is the Great Creator, the All Knowing.

ALLĀH CREATED THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH WITH IMMENSE WISDOM

"We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them with the truth." This means that Allāh created these phenomena with perfect wisdom so that people may recognise Allāh's power and grandeur by observing them. After pondering over these creations, man should exclaim, "O our Lord! You have not created this in vain."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets the verses to mean that Allāh created everything according to His divine wisdom so that no corruption should prevail upon this earth. Therefore, He destroyed the nations that caused corruption to rid the world of them and so that they may serve as a lesson to those after them.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" also quotes certain other commentators who interpret "the truth" as 'justice.' According to this interpretation, Allāh created the heavens, the earth and their contents so that He may judge them all with justice on the Day of Judgement.

"Indeed judgment day (Qiyāmah) is approaching..." This verse offers comfort to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because it informs him that the disbelievers (kuffār) and his antagonists will all be presented before Allāh on the day of Judgement. There they will all be punished for their aggressions.

"....so pardon with a most graceful pardon." Scholars (Ulama) have mentioned that this type of pardon is such that the injured party does not reproach nor rebuke the aggressor. According to some commentators, this command has been cancelled by the order of Jihād, meaning that the Muslims need no longer pardon every offence of the disbelievers (kuffār) but are allowed to retaliate by waging Jihād. Other commentators are of the opinion that the verse should not be regarded as cancelled since it applies to situations where Jihād cannot be waged. In such circumstances, Muslims should pardon the injustices of the disbelievers (kuffār); continue to behave courteously towards them and keep inviting them towards Islām with wisdom and good character.

"Verily your Lord is the Great Creator, the All Knowing." Allāh is aware of the aggression of the aggressors, as well as the patience exercised by the oppressed. He will reward or punish all accordingly. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم need therefore not grieve over their situation. Allāh shall deal with them.

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَاكَ سَبْعًا مِّنَ الْمَثَانِي وَالْقُرْءَانَ الْعَظِيمَ ﴿٨٧﴾ لَا تَمُدَّنَّ عَيْنَيْكَ إِلَىٰ مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهِ أَزْوَاجًا مِنْهُمْ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَخَفَضْ جَنَاحَكَ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ وَقُلْ إِنِّي أَنَا النَّذِيرُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٨٩﴾

(87) Verily We have granted you seven verses that are often repeated, and the glorious Qur'ān. (88) Never focus your eyes on the enjoyment that We have granted to the various groups of the disbelievers, and do not grieve over them. And lower your wings for the believers. (89) Say, "Indeed I am but a clear warner."

ALLĀH INFORMS THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم THAT HE HAS BEEN GRANTED SEVEN OF REPEATED VERSES TOGETHER WITH THE GLORIOUS QUR'ĀN

The people who denied the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were generally the affluent members of society. In the above verses, Allāh reminds the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he has been granted an even greater bounty than the wealth that they possess. Allāh says, "Verily We have granted you seven verses that are often repeated, and the glorious Qur'ān."

The "seven verses that are often repeated" refers to Surah Fāthihā, which consists of seven verses that are repeated in every Rakāh of Salāh. Allāh informs His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should never be grieved over how the disbelievers (kuffār) treat him because Allāh has indeed conferred upon him the greatest of bounties.

ONE SHOULD NOT FOCUS ON WHAT THE PEOPLE OF THE DUNYA (WORLD) HAVE BEEN GRANTED

"Never focus your eyes on the enjoyment that We have granted to the various groups of the disbelievers" Whatever wealth and riches they possess can never compare to the great bounty of the Qur'ān. Certain commentators mention that although the verse appears to be addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is intended to address the entire Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "Never strain your eyes towards the splendour of the worldly life and the wives that We have granted the disbelievers to enjoy, to test them with. The provision of your Lord is best and more lasting." Anything granted as a test for someone cannot really be a bounty.

"...and do not grieve over them." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to continue with his responsibility and not be deterred by the disbelievers (kuffār) and other antagonists. Allāh will deal with them.

"And lower your wings for the believers." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is instructed not to waste his efforts by grieving over the disbelievers (kuffār), but that he should rather focus his attention on the believers (Mu'minīn). He should show mercy and compassion towards them so that they realise that they are more valuable than the disbelievers (kuffār).

"Say, 'Indeed I am but a clear warner.'" In this verse the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has to make it clear to the disbelievers (kuffār) what his task was. He was to warn them of Allāh's punishment should they transgress. If they did not obey, it was to their own peril.

كَمَا أَرْزَلْنَا عَلَى الْمُقْتَسِمِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ الَّذِينَ جَعَلُوا الْقُرْآنَ عِضِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ فَوَرَبِّكَ
لَنَسْأَلَنَّهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ فَاصْدَعْ بِمَا تُؤْمَرُ وَأَعْرِضْ عَنِ
الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٩٤﴾ إِنَّا كَفَيْنَاكَ الْمُسْتَهْزِئِينَ ﴿٩٥﴾ الَّذِينَ يَجْعَلُونَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾

(90) As We have revealed to the dividers... (91) Those who divided the Qur'ān into various portions. (92) By your Lord! We will definitely question each one of them... (93) ...regarding what they used to do. (94) Clearly announce what you have been commanded with and ignore the idolaters. (95) We will suffice for you against those who ridicule... (96) Those who ascribe other gods to Allāh. Soon they will come to know!

THE PREVIOUS UMMAHS DIVIDED THEIR SCRIPTURES INTO SEGMENTS

In the above verses, Allāh says that He had also revealed scriptures to "the dividers..." He then 'describes who they were by saying that they were "Those who divided the Qur'ān into various portions." The word "Qur'ān" as used in this verse refers to the 'scriptures of these people. The word 'Qur'ān' literally means 'something that is recited.' These people divided their scriptures by believing some parts only and rejecting the rest.

According to other commentators, the verse means that Allāh will punish anyone who creates a similar division in the Qur'ān, as the previous nations had done to their divine scriptures.

Certain commentators have mentioned that sixteen polytheists of Makkah decided to divide the roads and valleys leading to Makkah among themselves. Each one of them would station himself on his road and inform the people entering Makkah for Hajj that they should not pay heed to the person who claims to be the Holy Prophet. Some told the people that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a madman; others said that he was a fortune-teller, while others said that he was a poet.

According to this interpretation, the verse means that the people who divided the streets among themselves are destroyed. The Qur'ān was revealed to them as well, but they did not pay heed to it. Consequently all of these persons were killed in the Battle of Badr.

"Those who divided the Qur'ān into various portions." The polytheists denied the Qur'ān by calling it various names. Some said that the Qur'ān was a product of magic. Others wrote it off as poetry, while others were bold enough to call it a lie. Some people said that it was "tales of the old folk." In the light of these interpretations, the word "Qur'ān" would refer to the Qur'ān that we are acquainted with.

"By your Lord! We will definitely question each one of them regarding what they used to do." On the day of Judgement, Allāh will question every person who lived on earth. Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "We shall definitely question those to whom messengers were sent and We will surely question the messengers." [Surah 7, verse 6]

At this juncture a question is raised. In a verse of Surah Rahmān Allāh says, "On that day no man and no jinn shall be asked about his sins." This verse negates questioning on the day of Judgement, whereas both the above verses of Surah Hijr and of Surah A'rāf confirm that questioning will take place. When this apparent discrepancy was posed before Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, he replied that the questioning will not be to ascertain the truth of the matter. Rather, it will serve to admonish the criminal for his misdeed just like how a criminal in this world is asked whether he committed a certain crime when his guilt has already been proven.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has also mentioned that during the long Day of Judgement there will be various stages through which people will pass. At certain stages they will be questioned, whereas at others they will not. The various verses refer to various stages.

Tirmidhi reports from Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه that The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the following comment with regard to the verse, "By your Lord! We will definitely question each one of them regarding what they used to do." He said that people will be questioned whether they accepted the kalimah "Lā ilāha Illallāh." Those who accepted will be asked whether they abided by the covenant that accompanies the declaration i.e. whether they lived their lives according to the dictates of the Shari'ah.

Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever recites "Lā ilāha Illallāh" with sincerity will enter Heaven (Jannah)." Someone asked, "What is meant by sincerity?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The sincerity of the kalimah is that it prevents the person from Unlawful (Harām) acts." [Muslim v. 1 p.48]

Sayyidina Sufyān bin Abdullah Thaqafi رضى الله عنه reports that he asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to give him such advice after which he would not have to ask another person. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Say, 'I believe in Allāh' and then be steadfast." i.e. fulfil all the requirements of Belief (Imān).

THE COMMAND TO ANNOUNCE THE MESSAGE DISTINCTLY

"Clearly announce what you have been commanded with and ignore the idolaters." i.e. Do not be grieved by their rejection but continue in your efforts.

The ignorant sect called the Rawāfidh state that this verse instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to announce to the people that Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه was to be the Caliph (khalifa) immediately after him. However, they say, (Allāh forbid!) that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was too afraid of Sayyidina Abu Bakr and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and could therefore not make the proclamation. What blasphemy indeed! If the Holy Prophet of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم was afraid of the creation rather than the Creator, who can then be regarded as true to Allāh's commandments? May Allāh save us from their ignorance. Āmin.

ALLĀH IS SUFFICIENT AGAINST THE MOCKERS

"We will suffice for you against those who ridicule; those who ascribe other gods to Allāh." Although all the polytheists were active in mocking the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāma Kirmani رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that those referred to in the verse were the seven persons who threw dirt on the back of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while he was performing Salāh. They were all killed at Badr. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 14 p.86]

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that the verse refers to five persons in particular. They were Walid bin Mughiera (their leader), Āsim bin Wā'il, Aswad bin Abdul Muttalib, Aswad bin Abdul Mughith and Hārith bin Qais. Once, while they were making Tawāf of the Ka'ba, Jibr'il عليه السلام came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked about Walid (as he passed by), "How do you find this person?" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that he was an evil person, Jibr'il عليه السلام pointed to Walid's leg and said, "You have been protected from him." Walid was wearing a Yamāni shawl and was dragging his lower garment while walking. He happened to pass by a person from the tribe of Khuzā'ah, who had many arrows lying about. As Walid passed, an arrowhead pierced his foot. Because of his pride, he did not look down to see what had happened but continued walking. The arrowhead gradually penetrated deeper into his foot, causing great injury. This wound caused him to fall ill, and he eventually died of this wound.

When Āsim bin Wā'il passed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Jibr'il عليه السلام asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what he thought of him. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that he was also an evil person, Jibr'il عليه السلام pointed to the soles of Āsim's feet and said, "You will be protected from him." Thereafter, Āsim was once playing with his two sons when he stepped upon a thorny plant in one of the valleys of Makkah. The thorn caused his feet to swell to the size of a camel's neck. This injury resulted in his death.

When Aswad bin Abdil Muttalib passed by, Jibr'il عليه السلام posed the same question to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and received the same reply. Thereto, Jibr'il عليه السلام pointed to Aswad's eyes and said, "You will be protected from him." Aswad later became blind and continuously banged his head on the wall shouting, "The Lord of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has killed me!" He died in this manner.

When Jibr'il عليه السلام asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about Aswad bin Abi Mughith, he replied, "He is an evil person even though he is the son of my maternal uncle." Jibr'il عليه السلام pointed to Aswad's stomach saying, "You will be protected from him." Consequently he died of a stomach illness.

When Hārith bin Qais passed and Jibr'il عليه السلام received the same reply to his question, he pointed to Hārith's head saying, "You will be protected from him." He eventually died after puss flowed ceaselessly from his nose.

وَلَقَدْ نَعْلَمُ أَنَّكَ يَضِيقُ صَدْرُكَ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ ﴿٩٧﴾ فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ وَكُنْ مِنَ السَّاجِدِينَ
وَاعْبُدْ رَبَّكَ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَكَ الْيَقِينُ ﴿٩٩﴾

(97) We know very well that your bosom is constrained by what they say. (98) So glorify the praises of your Lord and be of the ones who prostrate. (99) And worship your Lord until the certainty (death) comes to you.

THE COMMAND TO ENGAGE IN TASBĪH AND TAHMĪD, AND TO WORSHIP ALLĀH UNTIL DEATH

Allāh informs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "We know very well that your bosom is constrained by what they say." i.e. By their mockery and taunts. As a cure for this, Allāh instructs, "So glorify the praises of your Lord (recite SubhānAllāh and Alhamdu Lillāh) and be of the ones who prostrate."

Sayyidina Hudhaifa رضى الله عنه narrates that whenever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was overcome with any concern, he resorted to Salāh. [Mishkāt p. 117]

Sayyidina Jubair bin Nudhair رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have not been commanded to amass wealth and be of the merchants. Instead, this revelation has been sent to me, "So glorify the praises of your Lord and be of the ones who prostrate. And worship your Lord until the certainty (death) comes to you." [Mishkāt p. 444]

سورة النحل

Makkan	Surah An-Nahl	Verses 128
--------	---------------	------------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَتَىٰ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ فَلَا تَسْتَعْجِلُوهُ سُبْحَنَهُ وَتَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿١﴾ يُزِيلُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ
 بِالرُّوحِ مِمَّنْ أَمَرَهُ عَلَىٰ مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ أَنْ أَنْذِرُوا أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاتَّقُونِ
 ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ تَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣﴾ خَلَقَ
 الْإِنسَانَ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Allāh's command has arrived, so do not seek to hasten it. He is Pure and Exalted above what they associate as partners to Him. (2) He sends the angels with the revelation of His commands to those bondsmen of His whom He desires. (The revelation is) "Warn that there is no deity besides Myself, so fear Me." (3) He created the heavens and the earth with truth. He is Exalted above the partners that they associate with Him. (4) He created man from a drop of fluid yet man is suddenly an open opponent.

THE ADVENT OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) IS INEVITABLE AND MAN IS A GREAT DISPUTANT

Surah Nahl discusses mostly the Oneness of Allāh and offers proofs for it. It also discusses Allāh's bounties and mentions the bee, called the "Nahl" in Arabic (verses 68 and 69). It is from this that the Surah derives its name.

In the opening verse Allāh says, "Allāh's command has arrived, so do not seek to hasten it." When the polytheists were presented with the message of Islām and warned of the consequences of polytheism (shirk), they laughed it off as a mere threat. They asked why was the punishment not coming. They also said the same about judgment day (Qiyāmah).

In the above verse Allāh informs them that the advent of His "command" i.e. His punishment and judgment (Qiyāmah) is so certain that it will not be farfetched to say that it has already arrived.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Judgment (Qiyāmah) and myself have been sent like these two fingers." Saying this he indicated his index and middle fingers. This means that the two are as close as the two fingers are. The middle finger is only slightly longer than the index. [Bukhari]

The polytheists refused to believe this and were foolish enough to even pray for judgment (Qiyāmah) and punishment. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 2 p.61) has reported that Nadhar bin Hārith made the statement, "O Allāh! If this (Islām) really is the truth from You, then shower on us stones from the skies, or afflict us with a painful punishment." As a result of this absurd request he was killed along with fellow polytheists at Badr.

"He is Pure and Exalted above what they associate as partners to Him." In this portion of the verse Allāh exonerates Himself from all the partners that the polytheists associate with Him.

"He sends the angels [i.e. Jibr'il عليه السلام] with the revelation of His commands to those bondsmen of His whom He desires. (The revelation is) 'Warn that there is no deity besides Myself so fear Me (i.e. fear My punishment if you do not accept the message)."

Thereafter Allāh says, "He created the heavens and the earth with truth." The commentary of this has been given under verse 85 of Surah Hijr (Surah 15). Then Allāh reiterates, "He is Exalted above that partners that they associate with Him."

"He created man from a drop of fluid yet man is suddenly an open opponent." Not realising that he was created from a drop of sperm, man becomes bold enough to argue and altercate against even the commands of Allāh.

Allāh says in Surah Yāssin, "Has man not seen that We created him from a seed, after which he is suddenly an open adversary? He coins similitude's for Us and forgets how he was created. He says, 'Who will give life to bones after they have decomposed?'" [Surah 36, verses 77, 78]

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 2 p.62) reports that the polytheist (Mushrik) Ubayy bin Khalaf once brought a decayed bone to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked, "Do you say that Allāh will revive this bone after it has decomposed?" The above verse was revealed in reply to his statement. Whatever the circumstances for its revelation, the verse is general in its reference to all disbelievers (kuffār) and polytheists who debate about Allāh's religion (D'in). The Qur'an mentions many of their arguments and replies to all of them.

Even worse than their contentions are those that certain so-called Muslims make. They make absurd remarks asking why is devil (Shaytān) pursuing man and why should they be punished for their sins when fate has already been predestined? Others ask why should they worship Allāh when He does not require their worship. These people should examine their Belief (Imān) since they are objecting to the system of Allāh. Such objections lead one to disbelief (kufr).

وَالْأَنْعَمَ خَلْقَهَا لَكُمْ فِيهَا دَفٌّ وَمَنْفَعٌ وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٥﴾ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا

جَمَالٌ حِينَ تُرِيحُونَ وَحِينَ تَسْرَحُونَ ﴿٦﴾ وَتَحْمِلُ أَثْقَالَكُمْ إِلَىٰ بَلَدٍ لَّمْ تَكُونُوا
بَالِغِيهِ إِلَّا بِشِقِّ الْأَنْفُسِ إِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ لَرؤُوفٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٧﴾ وَالْخَيْلَ وَالْبِغَالَ وَالْحَمِيرَ
لِتَرْكَبُوهَا وَزِينَةً وَيَخْلُقُ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨﴾

(5) And He created the animals for you. In them is warmth for you many other benefits and you even eat of them. (6) In them is beauty for you when you return them in the evenings and when you send them out in the morning. (7) And they carry your burdens to such destinations that you could not reach without great difficulty to yourselves. Without doubt your Lord is the Most Pardoning, Most Merciful. (8) Horses, mules and donkeys are for riding and adornment. And He creates such things about which you have no knowledge.

MAN DERIVES VARIOUS BENEFITS FROM ALLĀH'S BOUNTY OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS

Of the numerous bounties that Allāh has created for man, are domestic animals which afford man innumerable benefits as Allāh mentions in the foregoing verses. Allāh firstly mentions that their skins and hides provide warmth for man against the cold. Man acquires leather and wool from these animals, using them for his clothing and bedding. He also uses the hides of animals to make tents, as will be mentioned in verse 80 of this Surah. Another great benefit that they give to man is their meat that he eats.

In the next verse Allāh says, 'in them is beauty for you when you return them in the evenings (from the grazing fields) and when you send them out in the morning.' Only the owner of a large herd of animals will know the joy and satisfaction he experiences when he observes his animals being taken to the fields daily. He cannot contain his emotions to see them grazing, producing milk and reproducing.

Thereafter Allāh mentions yet another great benefit of these animals. He says, "And they carry your burdens to such destinations that you could not reach without great difficulty to yourselves." Through His infinite mercy and compassion, Allāh has created these animals to transport man's goods to distant lands, without which he would be at a total loss. "Without doubt your Lord is the Most Pardoning, Most Merciful."

Allāh then speaks of the riding animals when he says, "Horses, mules and donkeys are for riding and adornment." The mules and donkeys are also used for transporting loads.

Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "(Allāh) Who created all pairs and made ships and animals, which you ride; that you may be seated on their backs, then recall the bounty of your Lord when you mount and say, 'Pure is Allāh, Who has subjugated this for us whereas we would never have been able to control it. And our return shall certainly be to our Lord.'" A person truly appreciates this control granted by Allāh only when an animal becomes stubborn and uncontrollable.

Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, "Do they not see that, from Our hand's work, We have created animals for them, which they are masters of? We placed these animals at their service, so some of them are their means of transport, while they eat of some. From these animals, they derive many benefits and drinks. Are they not grateful?" [Surah 36, verses 71-73]

Note 1: These verses only mention a few of the benefits to be derived from animals. The above verse of Surah Yāsin, as well as verse 66 of Surah Nahl make mention of the milk that man derives from these animals. Allāh causes it to emerge from between the impurities of blood and flesh. Man also benefits from the hides and bones of these animals. Nowadays their limbs and organs are used even for transplant purposes in medical surgery.

Note 2: Allāh also mentions, "And He creates such things about which you have no knowledge." This verse includes all things that are still to be created by Allāh until the day of Judgement. Certain commentators have mentioned that this verse also refers to the modern means of transportation used nowadays. Allāh has perfect knowledge of all of these.

وَعَلَى اللَّهِ قَصْدُ السَّبِيلِ وَمِنْهَا جَايِزٌ وَلَوْ شَاءَ لَهَدَيْكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٩﴾

(9) The straight path leads to Allāh and there are those people who deviate from it. If He wills He could guide all of you collectively.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE DEVIATED FROM ALLĀH'S PATH

The verse states that the person who treads the straight path of Islām will attain Allāh's pleasure, whereas all other paths will deviate one from Allāh.

"If He wills He could guide all of you collectively." Allāh has placed guidelines and proofs for all to observe and from which to draw conclusions. Those who ponder over these will be guided to the straight path, but those who are negligent will remain deviant.

Other commentators have interpreted this verse to mean that if Allāh willed He could have forced everyone to be Muslims. However, His wisdom dictated otherwise. Therefore, each will be guided according to his efforts at understanding.

"The straight path leads to Allāh..." Certain commentators have translated this verse to mean that Allāh has assumed the responsibility of guiding towards the straight path. For this reason He has sent the Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures. He will not punish any person until He has shown him the truth. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p.63]

هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً لَكُمْ مِنْهُ شَرَابٌ وَمِنْهُ شَجَرٌ فِيهِ تُسِيمُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ يُنْبِتُ لَكُمْ بِهِ الزَّرْعَ وَالزَّيْتُونَ وَالنَّخِيلَ وَالْأَعْنَابَ وَمِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ

إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ
وَالشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ وَالنُّجُومَ مُسَخَّرَاتٍ بِأَمْرِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ
﴿١١﴾ وَمَا ذَرَأَ لَكُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ مُخْتَلِفًا أَلْوَنُهُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ
يَذْكُرُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ الْبَحْرَ لِتَأْكُلُوا مِنْهُ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا
وَتَسْتَخْرِجُوا مِنْهُ حِلْيَةً تَلْبَسُونَهَا وَتَرَى الْفُلْكَ مَوَازِيرَ فِيهِ وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ
فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَاللَّهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ رَاسٍ أَنْ تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ
وَأَنْهَزَا وَسُبُلًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ وَعَلَّمَتْ بِالنَّجْمِ هُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿١٥﴾

(10) Allāh is the One Who sends rain for you from the sky, which provides (drinking) water and vegetation on which you graze your animals. (11) With it (the rain) Allāh grows for you plantations, olives, dates, grapes and all types of fruit. Undoubtedly there is a sign in this for those who reflect. (12) He placed the night and the day at your service, and the sun and the moon as well. The stars are also in servitude by His command. Indeed there are signs in this for people of understanding. (13) And the things that He has created for you upon the earth have various colours. Surely there is a sign in this for people who take heed. (14) It is He Who subjugated the ocean so that you may eat fresh meat from it and extract jewels that you wear. You see the ships cleaving their way on it so that you may seek from His bounty and show gratitude to Him. (15) He cast mountains upon the earth so that it does not shake with you and (placed) rivers and roads on earth so that you be guided. (16) (And He placed on earth) signs and they are guided by the stars.

THE SIGNS OF ALLĀH IN HIS CREATION

Allāh has described many signs in this Surah. Coincidentally mention was also made of those who accept the message of Belief (Imān) and tread the straight path, as opposed to those who do not. The above verses cite some more proofs of Allāh's grandeur.

The first of these is the rain. Allāh says, "Allāh is the One Who sends rain for you from the sky which provides (drinking) water and vegetation on which you graze your animals." The rain provides clean unsalted water that is fit for human consumption. The same water is also used to grow vegetation, which sustains man and the animals.

In addition to this, "With it (the rain) Allāh grows for you plantations, olives, dates, grapes and all types of fruit. Undoubtedly there is a sign in this for those who reflect."

The second sign mentioned by Allāh is that "He placed the night and the day at your service..." Man is able to rest at night and work by day.

The third sign mentioned is the subjugation of "the sun and the moon as well."

The heat of the sun serves to warm the earth and allows plants to grow. Besides this there are innumerable other benefits that the sun provides to creation at large. The moon serves to provide light at night and guides travellers on their way.

The fourth sign mentioned by Allāh is that of the stars. Allāh says, "The stars are also in servitude by His command." For millions of years the stars have maintained their orbits according to Allāh's decree without wavering in the least. They have no means to propel themselves but travel by the power of Allāh alone.

After mentioning these few signs Allāh says, "Indeed there are signs in this for people of understanding."

Thereafter Allāh mentions a fifth sign saying, "And the things that He has created for you upon the earth have various colours." Another translation of the verse is that Allāh has created things of different types on earth. These will include every creation of Allāh upon the earth. They are all placed on earth for the service of man. They are used to feed him, to construct his homes, cure his diseases, etc.

Thereafter Allāh reminds man once again, "Surely there is a sign in this for people who take heed."

Continuing with the sixth sign Allāh says, "It is He Who subjugated the ocean..." In this one bounty alone Allāh mentions three benefits for man. These are:

(1) "so that you may eat fresh meat from it." This refers to the fish and multitude of other creation that man is allowed to eat from the seas.

(2) Man can "extract jewels that you wear." Allāh say in Surah Rahmān that from the seas "pearls and corals emerge."

(3) "You see the ships cleaving their way on it so that you may seek from His bounty and show gratitude to Him." These ships, large and small, wind and fuel driven, are used to transport man and merchandise across the world. Man is obliged to express his gratitude to Allāh for all of this, but he is negligent and thoughtless, whiling his time away in trivial pursuits.

The seventh bounty recounted by Allāh is that "He cast mountains upon the earth so that it does not shake with you..." Man is weak and will not be able to live on earth if it continues to shake and shudder. Because of His infinite mercy Allāh has placed the mountains as pegs to stabilise the earth so that man is able to live peacefully. One can well imagine the chaos and panic that will be caused if these pegs are removed to cause earthquakes on an international basis. The earthquakes experienced by man are confined to certain areas and do not mean that the mountains are not performing their function.

The eighth sign mentioned by Allāh is that of rivers. Allāh has placed them on earth to provide man and beast with an abundance of good. They provide drinking water, water for irrigation and numerous Other uses. The benefit of these can be seen from the great rivers of the world that men depend on for their very existence.

The ninth sign that Allāh mentions is that of the roads that He has created. These are found on plains, in mountains, at sea and in the air. Surah Nūh mentions, "Allāh made the earth a carpet for you so that you may traverse upon the wide roads."

If it were not for these roads, people would be lost on their journeys. Therefore Allāh says, "and (placed) rivers and roads on earth so that you be guided." In addition to this Allāh says, "(And He placed on earth) signs..." Each road has certain signs that mark them e.g. a certain tree or mountain, etc.

The tenth sign is mentioned by Allāh when He says, "and they are guided by the stars." Navigators determine their direction by the stars.

أَفَمَن يَخْلُقُ كَمَن لَّا يَخْلُقُ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَإِن تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ لَا تُحْصُوهَا ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٨﴾ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُسْرُوبُونَ وَمَا تُعْلِنُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَخْلُقُونَ شَيْئًا وَهُمْ يُخْلَقُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ أَمْوَاتٌ غَيْرُ أَحْيَاءٍ وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ أَيَّانَ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٢١﴾

(17) Is he who cannot create like Him Who can create? Will you not take heed?

(18) If you attempt to enumerate Allāh's bounties, you will never be able to do so. Verily Allāh is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful. (19) Allāh knows what you conceal and what you make apparent. (20) Those that you call upon besides Allāh cannot create anything, but they have been created. (21) They are dead without any life. They do not even know when they will be raised.

THE CREATOR AND THE CREATION CAN NEVER BE EQUATED

The previous verses have expounded Allāh's creation as signs of His power. All things, past present and future are Allāh's creation, while the gods worshipped by the polytheists and the disbelievers (kuffār) cannot create anything. Allāh says in Surah Luqmān, "This is Allāh's creation, so show me what those besides Him have created. But the oppressors are in a distant deviation." [Surah 31, verse 11]

Expressing the foolishness of the polytheists, Allāh says, "Is he who cannot create like Him Who can create? Will you not take heed?"

Allāh then says, "If you attempt to enumerate Allāh's bounties, you will never be able to do so. Verily Allāh is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." Allāh has granted man all his faculties, especially that of intelligence. This he should utilise to recognise Allāh by observing His signs. In return for all these bounties man should at least show gratitude to Allāh and worship only Him. Through His grace Allāh even provides these bounties for the disbelievers (kuffār) and the polytheists.

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that none can truly thank Allāh sufficiently for all the bounties conferred by Him. However, Allāh is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful and will overlook this deficiency in man. He will forgive all sins and reward a person for every iota of good that he does.

"Allāh knows what you conceal and what you make apparent." Those people who do not show gratitude to Allāh and continue to perpetrate evil should not think that they can escape Allāh forever when He does not punish them in this world.

Allāh then says, "Those that you call upon besides Allāh cannot create anything, but they have been created." The creation is not worthy of being worshipped. Further describing them Allāh says, "They are dead without any life. They do not even know when they will be raised." The greatest bounty of Heaven (Jannah) will be realised only when people are resurrected after death. However, these false gods are unable to inform when this will take place, let alone being of any assistance then. The knowledge of judgment day (Qiyāmah) is only with Allāh.

إِلَهُكُمْ إِلَهٌ وَاحِدٌ ۖ فَالَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ قُلُوبُهُمْ مُنْكَرَةٌ وَهُمْ مُسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ لَا جَرَمَ أَتَى اللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا يُسِرُّونَ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ ۚ إِنَّهُمْ لَا يُحِبُّونَ الْمُسْتَكْبِرِينَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ مَآذَا أَنْزَلَ رَبُّكُمْ قَالُوا أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ لِيَحْمِلُوا أَوْزَارَهُمْ كَامِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَرِثَ الْأَوْزَارِ الَّذِينَ يُضِلُّونَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ ۖ أَلَا سَاءَ مَا يَزُرُّونَ ﴿٢٥﴾

(22) Your deity is but One Deity. The hearts, of those who disbelieve in the Hereafter are reluctant and they are haughty. (23) Without any doubt Allāh knows what they conceal and what they reveal. Indeed He does not love the proud ones. (24) When they are asked, "What has your Lord revealed?" they reply, "Tales of the old people." (25) So that they may carry their entire burdens on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) together with the burdens of those whom they mislead without knowledge. Evil indeed is the burden that they bear.

YOUR LORD IS ONE AND HE KNOWS WHAT YOU HIDE AND WHAT YOU REVEAL

After refuting the false gods of the polytheists, Allāh declares, "Your deity is but One Deity (therefore only He should be worshipped). The hearts of those who disbelieve in the Hereafter are reluctant (to believe) and they are haughty." Their pride prevents them from accepting the truth.

"Without any doubt Allāh knows what they conceal and what they reveal. Indeed He does not love the proud ones." Allāh shall punish the disbelievers (kuffār) for the wrong beliefs that they hold even though they do not express these to anyone.

Allāh continues, "When they are asked, 'What has your Lord revealed?' they reply, 'Tales of the old people.'" Ma'ālimut Tanzil has reported that this verse was revealed with reference to the Polytheists of Makkah. They stood by the roads leading to Makkah and whenever the arriving pilgrims would ask what was revealed by Allāh to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they would say that these were nothing but tales of the old folk.

In this manner they attempted to mislead others as well. For this reason Allāh says that they do this "So that they may carry their entire burdens on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) together with the burdens of those whom they mislead without knowledge. Evil indeed is the burden that they bear." They will suffer for their own sins as well as for the sins of the people they misled.

Allāh say in Surah Ankabūt, "They will certainly carry their own burdens in addition to those of others. And they will definitely be questioned about what they fabricated." [Surah 29, verse 13]

قَدْ مَكَرَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَأَنَّ اللَّهَ بَنَسَنَهُمْ مِنَ الْفَوَاعِدِ فَحَرَّ عَلَيْهِمُ
السَّقْفُ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَأَتَنَّهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ ثُمَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
يُخْزِيهِمْ وَيَقُولُ أَيْنَ شُرَكَاءِ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تُشَاقُّونَ فِيهِمْ قَالَ الَّذِينَ الَّذِينَ أَوتُوا
الْعِلْمَ إِنَّ الْآخِرَى الْيَوْمِ وَالْأُولَى عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ الَّذِينَ تَوَفَّيْنَاهُمْ الْمَلَائِكَةُ ظَالِمِي
أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَأَلْقَوْا السَّلَامَ مَا كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ مِنْ سُوءٍ بَلَى إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ
﴿٢٨﴾ فَأَدْخَلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا فَلَيْئَسَ مَثْوًى الْمُتَكَبِّرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(26) Those before them certainly plotted, but Allāh demolished their building from the foundation, causing the roof to cave in on them from above. And the punishment came to them from whence they could not perceive. (27) Then He shall humiliate them on the Day of Qiyāmah (Judgement) and ask, "Where are those partners of Mine that you used to argue about?" Those who are granted knowledge will say, "Today humiliation and misfortune are certainly upon the disbelievers!" (28) Those whose souls were claimed by the angels while they oppressed themselves. They will then propose a truce (saying) "We never perpetrated any evil!" "Nay! Allāh is well aware of what you used to do." (29) "Enter the doors of Hell to abide therein forever. Evil indeed is the abode of the proud ones!"

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS AND THE PLIGHT OF THE HAUGHTY ONES ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

Referring to the evil plots of the polytheists against Islām and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Those before them certainly plotted, but (as if their plots were a building) Allāh demolished their building from the foundation, causing the roof to cave in on them from above. And the punishment came to them from whence they could not perceive." This verse is general in its context and does not refer to any specific nation only.

However, Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" and the author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" have all reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the verse refers to Nimrūd bin Kan'ān. He was the king of Babylon and constructed a palace that measured 5000 arm-lengths in height and 3000 in width. He intended to reach the heavens, learn of the happenings there and fight all those present there. Allāh sent a wind that razed the building to the ground, crushing Nimrūd and all his accomplices with him.

According to other narrations, Nimrūd survived but was later destroyed by a mosquito that Allāh caused to reach his brain. Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has also mentioned that this verse refers to the disbeliever (kāfir) king Bukht Nasr (Nebuchadnezzar, who built a palace like the one described above.

All these narrations have their sources from the Bani Isra'īl. If they have any truth, they will resemble the statement of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) when he instructed his vizier saying, "O Hāmān, build a tower for me so that I may reach the roads; the roads of the heavens so that I can have a close look at the deity of Mūsa. I strongly feel that he is a liar." His plan failed and Hāmān was also destroyed.

Referring to the previous nations Allāh says in Surah Fajr, "Allāh rained the whip of punishment on them." [Surah 89, verse 13]

After inflicting a punishment on them Allāh say, "Then He shall humiliate them on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) and ask, 'Where are those partners of Mine that you used to argue about?' Those who are granted knowledge will say, 'Today humiliation and misfortune are certainly upon the disbelievers; those whose souls were claimed by the angels while they oppressed themselves.'" These people lived and died as disbelievers (kuffār).

The disbelievers (kuffār) will seek to escape from Hell and will call for intercessors. They will also plead to Allāh to return them to this world so that they may do good deeds. At times they will also deny their crimes. Allāh refers to this when He says, "They will then propose a truce (saying) 'We never perpetrated any evil!'" Their plea is referred to as a "truce" because a truce is normally proposed to alleviate a difficulty.

In reply to their plea, Allāh will say, "Nay! Allāh is well aware of what you used to do." They will then be commanded, "Enter the doors of Hell to abide therein forever. Evil indeed is the abode of the proud ones!"

وَقِيلَ لِلَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا مَاذَا أَنْزَلَ رَبُّكُمْ قَالُوا خَبِيرٌ لِلَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةٌ وَلَدَارُ الْآخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ وَلَنِعْمَ دَارُ الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ جَنَّاتٌ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا يُجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ لَهُمْ فِيهَا مَا يَشَاءُونَ كَذَلِكَ يَجْزِي اللَّهُ الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ الَّذِينَ تَوْفَقْنَاهُمْ لِمَلَأْنَاهُمْ طَبِيبِينَ يَقُولُونَ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ ادْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾

(30) Those who abstained from disbelief (kufr) and polytheism (shirk) are asked, "What has your Lord revealed?" They reply, "Extreme good." There shall be goodness for those who did good works in this world and the home of the Hereafter is certainly best. How grand is the home of the pious! (31) They will enter gardens of eternity beneath which rivers flow. There they shall have whatever they desire. In this manner does Allāh reward those who adopt piety (taqwa)... (32) ... Those whose souls the angels claim while they are pure. They say, "Peace be upon you. Enter Heaven (Jannah) because of the deeds that you performed.

THE GOOD FORTUNE OF THE PEOPLE OF PIETY (TAQWA) THEY WILL ENTER THE GARDENS OF HEAVEN (JANNAH) AND HAVE ANYTHING THAT THEY DESIRE

The above verses speak about the opposite of the previous verses. In these verses Allāh describes the condition of the pious people in the Hereafter. Allāh says that "They will enter gardens of eternity beneath which rivers flow. There they shall have whatever they desire." Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "In Heaven (Jannah) there shall be whatever the heart desires and whatever pleases the eye."

"In this manner does Allāh reward those who adopt piety (taqwa)" piety (taqwa) means performing all good deeds and abstaining from all evil.

Allāh then describes the death of the people who adopt piety (taqwa). Allāh says that they are "Those whose souls the angels claim while they are pure." Their hearts are free of disbelief (kufr) and polytheism (shirk), being illuminated with the light of Belief (Imān) and decorated with good deeds. Treating them with honour, the angels will say to them, "Peace be upon you. Enter Heaven (Jannah) because of the deeds that you performed." Although they will enter Heaven (Jannah) only after judgment day (Qiyāmah), the angels give them the glad tidings of their entry to Heaven (Jannah) at the time of their deaths.

Verse 24 above speaks about the disbelievers (kuffār) "When they are asked, 'What has your Lord revealed?' they reply, 'Tales of the old people.'"

Now Allāh speaks of the pious people in the same light when He says,

"Those who abstained from disbelief (kufr) and polytheism (shirk) are asked, 'What has your Lord revealed?' They reply, 'Extreme good.'"

Commentators have mentioned that the two verses were revealed because of the same circumstances, as mentioned in the commentary of the first verse. A similar narration also passed in the commentary of verse 90 of Surah Hijr, where Allāh says, 'As We have revealed to the dividers...' The polytheists of Makkah stood by the roads leading to Makkah and whenever the arriving pilgrims would ask what was revealed by Allāh to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they would say that these were nothing but tales of the old folk.

However, when these pilgrims posed the same question to the believers (Mu'minīn), they would reply that Allāh had revealed extreme good and virtue. Hearing this they would be satisfied and return with the good news to their tribes.

هَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ أَوْ يَأْتِيَ أَمْرُ رَبِّكَ كَذَلِكَ فَعَلَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَمَا ظَلَمَهُمُ اللَّهُ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ فَأَصَابَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا عَمِلُوا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾

(33) They are waiting only for angels to come to them or for the order of their Lord to come. Those before them behaved in the same way. Allāh did not oppress them but they oppressed themselves. (34) So they received the punishment of their evil deeds and their mockery engulfed them.

THE REJECTORS ARE MERELY AWAITING THE ARRIVAL OF ANGELS

The disbelievers (kuffār) refused to accept the clear and apparent proofs that were presented to them. It seemed that they were waiting for some extraordinary event to convince them. Allāh says, "They are waiting only for angels to come to them or for the order of their Lord to come i.e. they are awaiting their deaths. However, belief (Imān) will not be accepted then.

Allāh continues to say, "Those before them behaved in the same way." They also remained adamantly upon disbelief (kufr) until Allāh destroyed them. Allāh says, 'Allāh did not oppress them but they oppressed themselves. So they received the punishment of their evil deeds and their mockery engulfed them."

A similar verse is found in Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, "They await Allāh and the angels to come to them beneath the shadow of clouds, and all matters are decided. All matters return unto Allāh." [Surah 2, verse 210]

Allāh says in Surah Ān'ām, "They wait only for the angels to come to them or for your Lord to come or for some signs of your Lord to appear. The day when one of your Lord's signs will appear, the belief (Imān) of a person will not benefit him if he had not believed previously or carried out any good in his belief. Say, 'Keep waiting! We are also waiting." [Surah 6, verse 158] would have worshipped anything besides Him, and we would never have forbidden anything without Him. Those before them behaved in the same manner. The responsibility of the messengers is only clear propagation. (36) Indeed We have sent a messenger among every nation (who told them) that "Worship Allāh and shun the Satan (Shaytān)." There were those of them whom Allāh had guided and those for whom deviation had been decreed. So travel in the land and see what was the consequence of those who denied. (37) If you are desirous of their guidance, then Allāh surely does not guide those whom He has sent astray, and they shall have no helpers.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا لَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ مَا عَبَدْنَا مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ نَحْنُ وَلَا آبَاؤُنَا وَلَا حَرَمْنَا مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ كَذَلِكَ فَعَلَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَهَلْ عَلَى الرُّسُلِ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَلَقَدْ بَعَثْنَا فِي كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ رَسُولًا أَنْ يَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَاجْتَنِبُوا الطَّاغُوتَ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ هَدَى اللَّهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ حَقَّتْ عَلَيْهِ الضَّلَالَةُ فَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكْذِبِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ إِنْ تَحَرَّصَ عَلَى هُدَاهُمْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ يُضِلُّ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِنْ نَاصِرِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾

(35) The idolaters say, "If Allāh wished then neither us, nor our forefathers

THE ARGUMENT OF THE POLYTHEISTS AND THE FACT THAT EVERY NATION HAD A MESSENGER

When the polytheists were presented with the message of Belief (Imān), they would challenge the Prophets عليهم السلام to reply to their argument. They said that since everything occurred with Allāh's will, their polytheism (shirk) and evil must also be desired by Allāh if He had willed it all along. They deduced from this that their actions must be correct for if it were not pleasing to Allāh, He would not have granted them the ability to carry them out.

A similar contention has been discussed in verse 148 of Surah Ān'ām (Surah 6). There Allāh says, "Soon those who commit polytheism (shirk) will say, 'If Allāh willed, neither we, nor our forefathers would not have committed polytheism (shirk), and we would not have forbidden anything.' In the same manner those before them had denied until they tasted Our punishment. Say, Have you any knowledge that you may disclose for us? You only follow conjecture and speculation."

Although nothing can occur without Allāh's permission, this does not mean that He is pleased with the actions that He allows man to do. Granting man the ability to perform an act will not indicate that Allāh likes the act. Allāh has granted man this life on earth "to test who of you performs the best deeds." It is for this reason that Allāh allows man the choice of deeds. When he chooses which course of action to take, Allāh grants him the ability to perform the deeds of his choice. If people were forced to perform certain actions, there would not have been any test for man at all.

"Those before them behaved in the same manner. The responsibility of the messengers is only clear propagation." Allāh sent the Prophets عليهم السلام to guide man and to show him what is required from him. However, many people chose not to respond to the preaching of the Prophets عليهم السلام. They adhered to their practices of polytheism (shirk) and resorted to arguing with the Prophets عليهم السلام, as mentioned above.

"Indeed We have sent a messenger among every nation (who told them) that 'Worship Allāh and shun the Satan (Shaytān).'" After the Prophets عليهم السلام had passed on the message, people were divided into two groups. These were, as Allāh mentions, "those of them whom Allāh had guided and those for whom deviation had been decreed." These people refused to accept the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام. As a result, they were destroyed. Therefore Allāh says, "So travel in the land and see what was the consequence of those who denied."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had the fervent desire in his heart that all of mankind accepts his message. However, Allāh did not will this to happen for reasons that conform to His perfect wisdom. For this reason Allāh informs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If you are desirous of their guidance, then Allāh surely does not guide those whom He has sent astray, and they shall have no helpers (against Allāh's punishment in the Hereafter)."

وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَا يَبْعَثُ اللَّهُ مَن يَمُوتُ بَلَى وَعَدًّا عَلَيْهِ حَقًّا وَلَكِن
أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ لِيُبَيِّنَ لَهُمُ الَّذِي يُخْتَلِفُونَ فِيهِ وَلِيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا كَاذِبِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّمَا قَوْلُنَا لِشَيْءٍ إِذَا أَرَدْنَاهُ أَنْ نَقُولَ لَهُ كُنْ
فَيَكُونُ ﴿٤٠﴾

(38) They swear solemn oaths by Allāh that Allāh will never resurrect the dead. Nay! It is indeed a resolute promise that Allāh has pledged, but most people do not know. (39) So that Allāh may expound to them the matters in which they differed, and so that the disbelievers may come to know that they were liars. (40) When We intend anything, all We have to do is say, "Be!" and it is.

THE REJECTERS SWEAR THAT ALLĀH WILL NEVER RESURRECT THE DEAD. ALLĀH REFUTES THEM BY SAYING THAT ALL HE HAS TO DO TO BRING SOMETHING INTO EXISTENCE IS TO SAY, "BE!"

While the previous verse discussed the plight of those polytheists who rejected oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and refused to accept the preaching of the Prophets عليهم السلام, the above verses discuss those people who rejected the belief in resurrection. Not only did they refuse to believe but they were bold enough to "swear solemn oaths by Allāh that Allāh will never resurrect the dead."

Allāh replies by saying, "Nay! (Your oaths are futile because) It is indeed a resolute promise that Allāh has pledged (that He will resurrect the dead), but most people do not know."

It is a fact that Allāh will certainly raise the dead and gather them all before Him. The reason for this will be "So that Allāh may expound to them the matters in which they differed, and so that the disbelievers may come to know that they were liars." They will realise that all they said against the Prophets عليهم السلام and their preaching were lies. They will then learn that the truth is what the Prophets عليهم السلام had preached to them.

The disbelievers (kuffār) think that it is difficult for Allāh to resurrect the dead but they do not realise that every task is extremely simple for Allāh. Allāh says, "When We intend anything, all We have to do is say, 'Be!' and it is." Allāh has created everything the first time and is perfectly able to reproduce the same a second time. It is strange that even the disbelievers (kuffār) admit that Allāh had created everything the first time, yet they express astonishment at the fact that He will resurrect the same creation on the Day of Judgement.

Allāh says in Surah Qāf, "Did We get tired with the first creation? Nay, but they are in doubt concerning the new creation." A verse in Surah Yāsīn reads, "Say, 'The One Who gave life to it (decomposed bones) the first time will revive it. He has knowledge of all things.'" The use of the word "Kun!" ("Be!") was discussed in the commentary of verse 117 of Surah Baqarah.

وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا فِي اللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا ظَلَمُوا لَنَبْوِتَنَّهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَلَا جَزَاءُ الْآخِرَةِ
أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾

(41) As for those who migrate for Allāh after being oppressed, We shall certainly settle them in a pleasant abode on earth. The reward of the Hereafter is greater, if only they knew. (42) (These are) those who are patient and rely only on their Lord.

THE PROMISE OF BLISS IN BOTH WORLDS FOR THOSE WHO MIGRATE IN ALLĀH'S WAY

The polytheists of Makkah constantly harassed the Muslims since many of the new Muslims were people of lower social standing. As a result of this persecution, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم granted the Muslims permission to migrate to Abyssinnia. However, when they began to live peacefully there, the Makkans sent some delegates to deceive the king of Abyssinnia into deporting them back to Makkah.

When these people told the king that the Muslims were runaways and traitors to the religion (D'in) of their forefathers, the king summoned the Muslims to his court. Sayyidina Ja'far رضى الله عنه addressed the king and explained to him how they were once a depraved and corrupt nation. He told the king that Allāh then sent His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to remove them from the abyss of spiritual depravity. He then informed the king of how they were persecuted when they chose to follow the guidance of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He also recited Surah Maryam to the king.

The king and his courtiers were impressed by what they heard and permitted the Muslims to live safely in their country. Of this group of Muslims, many returned to Makkah and later migrated to Madinah, but others remained there and migrated to Madinah directly from Abyssinnia in the 8th year after Hijrah. There they were reunited with the other Muslims who emigrated from Makkah.

Some of them emigrated twice to Abyssinnia, returned to Makkah, and then migrated to Madinah from there. All these emigrations were undertaken to escape the oppression of the polytheists. Regarding these immigrants Allāh says, "As for those who migrate for Allāh after being oppressed, We shall certainly settle them in a pleasant abode on earth." Consequently, they were granted safety in Madinah and Abyssinnia.

Describing those who migrate Allāh says, "Those who are patient and rely only on their Lord." In addition to the rewards of this world for their tremendous sacrifice of wealth and family, Allāh shall grant them the superior rewards of the Hereafter.

Allāh says, "The reward of the Hereafter is greater if only they knew." This phrase could refer to the disbelievers (Kuffār), meaning that if they perceived these rewards, they too would accept Islām and migrate for Allāh's pleasure.

Other commentators have mentioned that this phrase refers to the immigrants themselves. This would mean that if they actually saw the rewards that are in store for them they would excel in making sacrifices for the religion (D'in) and will be pleased to know that they were able to endure the difficulty of migration. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 14 p. 146]

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ إِلَّا رِجَالًا نُوْحِيْ اِلَيْهِمْ فَسْئَلُوْا اَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ
 بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالزُّبُرِ ۚ وَاَنْزَلْنَا اِلَيْكَ الذِّكْرَ لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نَزَّلَ اِلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ
 يَفْكُرُوْنَ

(43) Before you We sent only men as messengers, sending revelation to them. So ask the people of knowledge if you do not know. (44) (We sent these messengers) with clear proofs and books. We have revealed the Qur'ān to you so that you may explain to the people what has been revealed to them, and so that they may reflect.

THE QUR'ĀN WAS REVEALED TO THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ SO THAT HE MAY EXPLAIN IT TO THE PEOPLE

There was no surprise in the fact that Allāh sent the Holy Prophet ﷺ as a human to the people of Makkah, even though they thought it strange (because they felt that an angel ought to be sent as a Prophet). Allāh says that the fact of the matter is that "Before you [O Muhammad ﷺ] We have sent only men as messengers, sending revelation to them." This was best suited to the needs of the people.

Allāh then adds, "So ask the people of knowledge if you do not know." The polytheists of Makkah regarded the Jews and the Christians as knowledgeable people since they possessed the knowledge of the previous scriptures. The Makkans travelled biannually to Syria (a Christian country then), where they met many Christians and Jews. They even met many Christians monks who lived en route to Syria. They were also in contact with the Jews of Madinah. It is for this reason that Allāh informs them to ask these people whether they deemed the Holy Prophet ﷺ was on the right path, or whether they (the Polytheists) were on the right. (This was discussed in the commentary of verse 51 of Surah Nisā).

Allāh also prompts them to enquire from the Jews and Christians whether the previous Prophets عليهم السلام were humans or angels.

"(We sent these messengers) with clear proofs and books." Besides this interpretation, other commentators have mentioned that the verse should be translated as "(With what were these messengers sent? They were sent) with clear proofs and books."

Another group of commentators maintains that this verse is an extension of the opening verse i.e. "Before you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] We have sent only men as messengers, sending revelation to them together with clear proofs and books."

Other commentators state that the verse should read as follows: "[We have sent you, O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] with clear proofs and a book." According to this interpretation, the ensuing phrase of the verse will be a follow-up to this phrase.

A REFUTATION TO THOSE WHO DENY THE AHADĪTH

"We have revealed the Qur'ān to you so that you may explain to the people what has been revealed to them..." This verse emphasises that fact that the responsibility of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entailed more than the mere conveyance of the Qur'ān. This verse clearly rebuffs the preposterous claim of many irreligious people who claim (Allāh forbid!) that the status of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is no more than that of a postman. They say that his responsibility was merely to bring the Qur'ān to people, after which people are at liberty to interpret the Qur'ān according to their own understanding.

By saying this, these people have removed a large chunk of the religion (Dīn). The Qur'ān makes brief references to many Islāmic practices, while the Ahadīth is much more detailed and explicit. Therefore, they have to be followed if one wishes to practice upon the Dīn properly.

Allāh commands people in various verses to follow the guidelines shown by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Say, 'If you love Allāh then follow me. Allāh will love you and forgive your sins.'" Allāh says in Surah Ahzāb

"There is definitely an excellent example in Allāh's messenger for the one who fears Allāh and the Last Day, and remembers Allāh abundantly."

It is impossible to practise the Qur'ān without consulting the Ahadīth. While the Qur'ān mentions that the face, arms and feet should be washed and the head moistened [ablution (wudhu)] before performing Salāh, it does not mention how many times these should be washed, nor does it state when the ablution (wudhu) will be broken.

In a similar way, the Qur'ān emphasises the performance of Salāh but does not furnish details about the number of Rakāhs to be performed, the times of Salāh, the number and manner of kneeling (Ruku) and prostration (Sajdah), where to place the hands or where to look.

The Qur'ān mentions the obligation of hajj and Umrah. However, the Qur'ān does not stipulate the date of hajj, the number of times to pass between Safa and Marwa, what is to be done during these acts, etc.

Similarly, the Qur'ān does not delve into the details of Nikāh, Diyah (blood money), retaliation (Qisās) and capital punishment. Although the Qur'ān ordains that the hand of a thief should be cut, it does not mention exactly from where should it be cut, for what amount of money stolen it needs to be cut, what will be done should a person repeat the crime of stealing, etc.

In a like manner, many other injunctions of religion (D'in) are detailed in the Ahadith, without which it will be impossible to practise the Shari'ah. Allāh has sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to explain and expound to man the details that the Qur'an does not mention. In this way the religion (D'in) has been perfected.

People who claim to derive the practices of religion (D'in) directly from Qur'an without requiring the Ahadith do not even know the basics of the Arabic language. They do not even come close to understanding the intricacies of Arabic eloquence, syntax, philology and grammar. Drowning in their deviation, they seek to drag others in with them.

In fact, the person who denies the authority of the Ahadith is actually denying the Qur'an itself, since the Qur'an instructs that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم be followed.

The reality of the situation is that the Jews, the Christians and the other enemies of Islām have initiated this movement to refute the Ahadith. In this way they are using unwary Muslims to further fuel their attacks against Islām and the Muslims.

Allāh says further that he has revealed the Qur'an ".....so that they may reflect." The advices, narratives, discussions and admonitions in the Qur'an have been revealed so that people may take heed of them and be rightly guided.

أَفَأَمِنَ الَّذِينَ مَكَرُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ أَنْ يَخْسِفَ اللَّهُ بِهِمُ الْأَرْضَ أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ
حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَوْ يَأْخُذَهُمْ فِي تَقْلِبِهِمْ فَمَا هُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ أَوْ يَأْخُذَهُمْ
عَلَى تَحَوُّفٍ فَإِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ لَرَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٤٧﴾

(45) Do those who plot evil schemes feel assured that Allāh will not plunge them into the earth or afflict them with a punishment from whence they do not perceive? (46) Or that He may seize them in their activities, after which they will have no escape? (47) Or that He seizes them with a gradual depletion? Without doubt your Lord is Most Pardoning, Most Merciful.

THE OBSTINATE ONES SHOULD NOT FEEL THAT THEY ARE SAFE FROM ALLĀH'S PUNISHMENT

Allāh explains in these verses how their meagre riches and comforts in this world deceive the disbelievers (kuffār) into thinking that they are safe from Allāh's punishment. Allāh is perfectly able to cause the earth to swallow them up and punish them even while they are walking and talking in this world. Allāh can also punish them by way of "a gradual depletion." This means that Allāh can cause their numbers, their animals and their wealth to gradually diminish until they are left totally helpless and forlorn.

Despite His ability to do all of this, Allāh reminds people that "Without doubt your Lord is Most Pardoning, Most Merciful." Because of His infinite mercy and grace, He does not punish them immediately, but allows them respite so that they may repent.

أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَىٰ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ يَنْفَعِيوْا ظِلَّلُهُمُ مِنَ الْيَمِينِ وَالشَّمَائِلِ سُجَّدًا لِلَّهِ
وَهُمْ دَخِرُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَلِلَّهِ يَسْجُدُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ
وَهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ يَخَافُونَ رَبَّهُمْ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَيَفْعَلُونَ مَا يُؤْمَرُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾

(48) Do they not see the things that Allāh has created, the shadows which sway to the right and the left, submitting to Allāh in humility? (49) To Allāh's command submits all within the heavens and the earth, including all creatures and angels, and they are not proud. (50) They fear the authority of their Lord and do as they are commanded.

ALL CREATION ARE SUBSERVIENT TO ALLĀH

Depicting His supremacy and Mastery over the creation, Allāh asks, "Do they not see the things that Allāh has created, the shadows of which sway to the right and the left, submitting to Allāh in humility?" All the creation and their shadows act according to Allāh's commands. He decrees their movements and activities.

Allāh's sovereignty is only confined not to these things and their shadows, but "To Allāh's command submits all within the heavens and the earth, including all creatures and angels, and they (the angels) are not proud. They fear the authority of their Lord and do as they are commanded."

Allāh determines the length and duration of the shadows, as Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "Do you not see how your Lord spreads the shadow? If He willed, He could have made it stationary. We then appoint the sun as a sign to it and We then gradually withdraw it towards Ourselves." [Surah 25, verses 45, 46]

We know that the shadows of objects extend and contract with relation to the position of the sun. However, it should be borne in mind that Allāh controls the movement of the sun. If Allāh wills that any shadow should remain stationary or that it be totally obliterated, He can do so without anyone to prevent Him.

Allāh clearly mentions in these verses that all within the heavens and the earth are subservient to Him. In Surah Hajj, Allāh specifically mentions the submission of the sun, the moon, the stars, the trees, the mountains and animals when He says, "Do you not see that all within the heavens and the earth prostrate to Allāh, as well as the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the beasts and many people."

Together with these, Allāh speaks of the obedience of the angels. He says that they "are not proud. They fear the authority of their Lord and do as they are commanded." Allāh mentions in verse 172 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), "Masīh is never ashamed to be a slave of Allāh, neither are the favoured angels. Whoever is ashamed of worshipping Him and is haughty, Allāh shall soon gather them all to Him."

The more a being recognises Allāh, the more will he worship and submit to Allāh. Therefore, the angels will be exceedingly obedient to Allāh since they truly recognise His grandeur and authority.

Note: Instead of taking the literal meaning of prostration, commentators have interpreted verse 49 to mean that all things submit to Allāh. This is so because the prostration of all these creation is not apparent to people. In fact, even prostration stems from submission. Submission encompasses the act of prostration as well.

وَقَالَ اللَّهُ لَا تَتَّخِذُوا إِلَهَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ إِنَّمَا هُوَ إِلَهٌُ وَاحِدٌ فَإِنِّي فَارْهَبُونِ ۖ وَلَكُمْ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَهُ الدِّينُ وَاصْبَاْ أَفْعَلْ ۚ اللَّهُ نَعْلَمُ ۖ وَمَا يَكُم مِّن تَعَمُّرٍ ۖ فَمِنَ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فَإِلَيْهِ تَجْأَرُونَ ۚ ثُمَّ إِذَا كُشِفَ الضُّرُّ عَنْكُمْ إِذَا فَرِيقٌ مِّنكُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يُشْرِكُونَ ۚ لِيَكْفُرُوا بِمَا ءَانِسْتُمْ فَتَمْتَعُوا ۖ فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ۚ

(51) Allāh said, "Do not take two deities. He is but One Deity, so fear Me only."

(52) To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth and obedience is exclusively for Him. Do you fear any other besides Allāh? (53) Every bounty that you possess is from Allāh, so appeal only to Him when any difficulty afflicts you. (54) When He removes the difficulty from you, suddenly a group from you ascribes partners to their Lord. (55) ".....so as to reject the bounties granted to them. Let them enjoy. Soon they will come to learn.

THERE IS ONLY ONE DEITY ALL BOUNTIES ARE FROM HIM AND ONLY HE SHOULD BE FEARED

Allāh declares in the first verse, "Do not take two deities. He is but One Deity, so fear Me only. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth and obedience is exclusively for Him. Do you fear any other besides Allāh?" These verses serve to remind man that only Allāh is worthy to be worshipped since he Alone is the Creator and Master of all. Allāh is totally Independent and the polytheism (shirk) perpetrated by the polytheists cannot harm Allāh in the least.

Allāh then says, "Every bounty that you possess is from Allāh, so appeal only to Him when any difficulty afflicts you." Everyone realises that none can avert difficulties besides Allāh. It is therefore foolish to worship anyone besides Him.

"When He removes the difficulty from you, suddenly a group from you ascribes partners to their Lord so as to reject the bounties granted to them." It is indeed a great form of ingratitude that people utilise the bounties granted by Allāh to disobey Him. As was mentioned in Surah Ān'am, the polytheists used to set aside a portion of their sustenance provided by Allāh for their idols.

By carrying out these actions, they are inviting Allāh's punishment. Therefore, Allāh says, "Let them enjoy. Soon they will come to learn." They will see the error of their ways when their souls depart from their bodies and then again in the Hereafter.

وَيَجْعَلُونَ لِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُونَ نَصِيبًا مِّمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ تَاللَّهِ لَتُسْأَلُنَّ عَمَّا كُنتُمْ تَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾
 وَيَجْعَلُونَ لِلَّهِ الْبَنَاتِ سُبْحَنَهُ وَلَهُمْ مَا يَشْتَهُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُم بِالْأُنثَىٰ ظَلَّ
 وَجْهُهُ مُسْوَدًّا وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ يَتَوَرَّى مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِنْ سُوءِ مَا بُشِّرَ بِهِ أَيُمْسِكُهُ عَلَىٰ
 هُونٍ أَمْ يَدُسُّهُ فِي التُّرَابِ أَلَا سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ لِلَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ مَثَلُ
 السَّوْءِ وَلِلَّهِ الْمَثَلُ الْأَعْلَىٰ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٦٠﴾

(56) And they assign a portion of what We have given them to that which they do not know. By Allāh! You shall certainly be questioned regarding what you used to fabricate. (57) They assign daughters unto Allāh. Allāh is Pure! Yet they have for themselves what they desire. (58) When any of them is given the glad tidings of a daughter, his face darkens and he suppresses his fury. (59) He hides from the people because of the evil tidings that he received. Must he keep her with disgrace or bury her in the sand? Evil indeed is the decision that he takes! (60) Evil is the condition of those who are not convinced of the Hereafter, while Allāh's are the most sublime attributes. And He is the Mighty, the Wise.

THE POLYTHEISTS ASSIGN DAUGHTERS TO ALLĀH AND SONS TO THEMSELVES, YET THEIR FACES DARKEN WHEN A DAUGHTER IS BORN TO THEM

One of the practices of polytheism (shirk) that the polytheists carried out was that they used to "assign a portion of what We have given them to that which they do not know." i.e. to their idols. The discussion of this has passed in the commentary of verse 136 of Surah Ān'ām (Surah 6), where Allāh says, "A portion of their crops and animals that Allāh created, they stipulated for Allāh saying, 'This is for Allāh,' according to their estimation, 'and this is for our partners.' So what becomes their partners' does not reach Allāh and what becomes Allāh's reaches their partners. Evil indeed is what they decide."

Allāh continues in the above verses by saying, "By Allāh! You shall certainly be questioned regarding what you used to fabricate." Allāh mentions about this in Surah Ān'ām, "Soon He will punish them for what they devise."

While the Jews and the Christians ascribed sons to Allāh (Sayyidina Uzair and Isā عليه السلام respectively), the polytheists used to say that the angels are Allāh's daughters. Allāh says in Surah Maryam, "It is not befitting of Rahmān to take children."

Bukhari (v. 2 p.744) reports that Allāh says, "Man has sworn Me. His swearing is that he says that Allāh has children, whereas I am Independent. I beget not, nor was I begotten and there is none like Me."

Although the polytheists did not like to have daughters for themselves, they chose to attribute daughters to Allāh. Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "Or has Allāh chosen daughters from His creation and selected you to have sons? When any of them is given the tidings of that which they ascribe to Rahmān, his face darkens as he suppresses his emotions. (Do they ascribe to Allāh) one who is brought up in jewellery and who cannot make herself clear in disputes? And the angels, who are Allāh's bondsmen, they make into females. Did they witness the creation of the angels? Their testimony will certainly be recorded and they will be questioned."

Therefore, Allāh says, "They assign daughters unto Allāh. Allāh is Pure! Yet they have for themselves what they desire."

Regarding their aversion for daughters, Allāh says, "When any of them is given the glad tidings of a daughter, his face darkens and he suppresses his fury. He hides from the people because of the evil tidings that he received." He does not want anyone to ask him the gender of the child born to him. Thereafter he thinks to himself, "Must he keep her with disgrace or bury her (alive) in the sand?"

The polytheists used to bury their little daughters alive and even boast to others about his vile crime. Allāh says in Surah Takwīr, "When the girl who was buried alive will be asked for what crime was she killed." [Surah 81, verse 8, 9]

Before the advent of Islām, women were scorned at and were totally disregarded, as is clearly depicted by the vile deed of burying little girls alive. Some cults practise similar forms of discrimination even today as is witnessed by their practice of burning a woman alive after her husband has died.

Islām granted honour and status to women by recognising their rights and attaching great rewards to the act of rearing children. It is indeed tragic that, because of their lack of understanding, women have succumbed to the ploys of the disbelievers (kuffār) and stripped themselves of all modesty and respect. They roam around like models, living a life of immorality and look for friends instead of husbands.

Regarding the decision the polytheist (Mushrik) takes to bury his daughter alive, Allāh says, "Evil indeed is the decision that he takes!"

"Evil is the condition of those who are not convinced of the Hereafter..." They live in ignorance and foolhardiness in this world and will suffer untold misery and suffering in the Hereafter. On the other hand, "Allāh's are the most sublime attributes. And He is the Mighty, the Wise." All the most excellent qualities belong to Allāh Alone and none can match these.

وَلَوْ يَوَاحِدُ اللَّهُ النَّاسَ بِظُلْمِهِمْ مَا تَرَكَ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَلَكِنْ يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجْلُهُمْ لَا يَسْتَنْجِرُونَ سَاعَةً وَلَا يَسْتَقْدِمُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ وَيَعْمَلُونَ لِلَّهِ مَا
يَكْرَهُونَ وَتَصِفُ أَلْسِنَتُهُمُ الْكَذِبَ أَنَّ لَهُمُ الْحُسْنَ لَا جَرَمَ أَنَّ لَهُمُ النَّارَ

وَأَنَّهُمْ مُّفْرَطُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ تَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمَمٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَرَيْنَ لَهُمْ الشَّيْطٰنُ
 أَعْمَلَهُمْ فَهُوَ وِلِيُّهُمْ أَلْيَوْمَ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٦٣﴾ وَمَا أُنزِلْنَا عَلَيْكَ إِلَّا
 لِتُبَيِّنَ لَهُمُ الَّذِي أَخْلَفُوا فِيهِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ وَاللّٰهُ أَنزَلَ مِنَ
 السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾

(61) If Allāh were to take people to task for their injustice, He would not have left upon the earth a single creature, but He grants them respite until an appointed term. When their term expires, they will not be able to reprieve it for a moment, nor advance it. (62) They assign to Allāh what they dislike, while their tongues make the false claims that they shall receive goodness. Without doubt they shall have the Fire, and they will be the first to be condemned. (63) By Allāh! We have definitely sent messengers to the nations before you and Satan (Shaytān) beautified their actions for them. So he shall be their companion today and theirs will be an excruciating punishment. (64) We have sent the Book to you so that you may explain to them the matter in which they differ, and as a guidance and a mercy for the believers. (65) Allāh sends rain from the sky, thereby reviving the earth after its death. There is certainly a sign in this for those who will listen.

IF ALLĀH WERE TO TAKE PEOPLE TO TASK FOR THEIR INJUSTICE, THERE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN A SINGLE CREATURE LEFT ON EARTH

It is the practice of Allāh that He does not punish people immediately for their sins. Rather, He grants them reprieve until a fixed period. However, when their period expires, they cannot postpone nor prepone the period for even a moment. Allāh refers to this when He says, If Allāh were to take people to task for their injustice, He would not have left upon the earth a single creature, but He grants them respite until an appointed term. When their term expires, they will not be able to reprieve it for a moment, nor advance it."

Allāh then says, "They assign to Allāh what they dislike (i.e. daughters), while their tongues make the false claims that they shall receive goodness." Despite their evil, they claim that Allāh is pleased with them and that He will continue to bless them.

There are also those disbelievers (kuffār) who believe in the Hereafter, like some Hindus. If the verse refers to them, it will mean that they claim that they will enter Heaven (Jannah) after death. According to other commentators, even those who did not believe in the Hereafter used to say that if it is assumed that judgment day (Qiyāmah) will ever occur, then we will be entered into Heaven (Jannah).

Refuting their claim, Allāh says, "Without doubt they shall have the Fire, and they will be the first to be condemned."

Allāh then continues to say, "By Allāh! We have verily sent messengers to the nations before you and Shaytān beautified their actions for them." They chose rather to follow the bidding of Satan (Shaytān) and reject the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام. In this verse Allāh is telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the previous Anbiya عليهم السلام were patient in the face of this rejection, therefore he should also exercise the same fortitude as they did.

Because the disbelievers (kuffār) chose the companionship of Satan (Shaytān) in this world, "he shall be their companion today (on the Day of Judgement) and theirs will be an excruciating punishment."

"We have sent the Book to you so that you may explain to them the matter in which they differ..." People have always differed about many things and they all considered themselves to be correct. They differed in matters of Lawful (Halāl) and Unlawful (Harām), Belief (Imān) and disbelief (kufr) and many other such matters. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent to draw the distinction between right and wrong so that they would know the truth of every matter.

The Qur'ān was also sent as "a guidance and a mercy for the believers." Although the Qur'ān is for humanity at large, the "believers" are specifically mentioned here because they are the ones who accept its advice and admonitions.

Just as Allāh has mentioned that the Qur'ān is a spiritual elixir, He mentions thereafter a physical form of nutrition. Allāh says, "Allāh sends rain from the sky, thereby reviving the earth after its death." Just as the rain causes parched land to bear vegetation of all types, the Qur'ān causes dead and diseased hearts to be revived and illuminated. In this way the Qur'ān serves as spiritual nutrition for the soul, just as the rain provides nutrition for man's physical body.

"There is certainly a sign in this for those who will listen." Those people who heed the advice of the Qur'ān shall benefit by it.

وَأَنَّ لَكُمْ فِي الْأَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةً تَسْقِيكُمْ مِمَّا فِي بُطُونِهِ مِنْ بَيْنِ فَرْثٍ وَدَمٍ لَبَنًا خَالِصًا سَائِغًا
لِّلشَّرِبِ ۖ إِنَّ ۞۞۞ وَمِنْ ثَمَرَاتِ النَّخِيلِ وَالْأَعْنَابِ تَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُ سَكَرًا وَرِزْقًا حَسَنًا ۚ إِنَّ
فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ۞۞۞ وَأَوْحَىٰ رَبُّكَ إِلَى النَّحْلِ أَنِ اتَّخِذِي مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا وَمِنَ
الشَّجَرِ وَمِمَّا يَعْرِشُونَ ۞۞۞ ثُمَّ كُلِي مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ فَاسْلُكِي سُبُلَ رَبِّكِ ذُلُلًا يَخْرُجُ مِنْ
بُطُونِهَا شَرَابٌ مُخْتَلِفٌ أَلْوَانُهُ فِيهِ شِفَاءٌ لِّلنَّاسِ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ۞۞۞
وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ يَوَفِّقُكُمْ وَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ أَوَّلِ الْعُمُرِ لِكَيْ لَا يَعْلَمَ بَعْدَ عِلْمٍ شَيْئًا ۚ إِنَّ
اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ قَدِيرٌ ۞۞۞

(66) There is certainly a lesson for you in the animals. From what is in their bellies between excrement and blood, We give you pure milk to drink that is easily consumed. (67) We provide for you from the fruits of the date palm and vines, and you make "sakar" and good food from these. Indeed there is a sign in this for those who understand. (68) Your Lord inspired the bee to construct homes in the mountains, the trees and in the buildings erected by man... (69) Then eat from every type of fruit and traverse the pathways of your Lord that have been made easy (for you to travel on). A drink of varying colours emanates from its belly, in which lies a cure for man. Indeed in this is a sign for those who ponder. (70) Allāh created you and will then claim your souls. There are those of you who will be returned to a worthless age so that he knows nothing after once possessing knowledge. Undoubtedly Allāh is All Knowing, All Powerful.

THERE ARE LESSONS FOR MAN IN THE ANIMALS AND IN THE BEE

After mentioning the bounty of rain in the previous verses, Allāh now recounts certain other bountiful drinks that He has conferred on man. Referring to milk, Allāh says, "There is certainly a lesson for you in the animals. From what is in their bellies between excrement and blood, We give you pure milk to drink that is easily consumed."

From the grass and fodder that animals eat, blood, dung and milk are produced within their bellies. The milk emerges pure and clean without a trace of the blood and dung that are so close to it. Allāh's immense power can be ascertained from this phenomenon. Infant and adult alike drink the milk easily, which provides them with perfect nourishment.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p.75) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that when an animal eats grass and digests it, dung is formed at the bottom of the belly, milk in the centre and blood at the top. Then the liver carries out its task by Allāh's command. The blood is transfused through the blood vessels, the milk emerges from the udders and the dung is excreted.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "When any of you eats, he should recite, 'O Allāh! Bless us in this (food) and feed us better than this.' When he drinks milk he should say, 'O Allāh! Bless us in this (milk) and increase us therewith.'" This is so because milk is the only thing that serves as food and drink." [Abu Dawūd v. 2 p.168]

After milk, Allāh mentions dates and grapes. He says, "We provide for you from the fruits of the date palm and vines, and you make 'sakar' and good food from these." Some commentators have translated the word "sakar" as "intoxicants." Since this Surah was revealed in Makkah prior to the abolition of intoxicants, the objection cannot be raised with regard to fact that it seems inappropriate that a Unlawful (Harām) substance is mentioned as a bounty. At the time when this verse was revealed, liquor was still not abolished. Since liquor was soon to be abolished, the verse does not laude any praises upon these intoxicants.

According to a narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, 'sakar' may be translated in the Abyssinian language as 'vinegar.' According to other commentators, the word may be translated as 'tasty things.'

Allāh then declares, "Indeed there is a sign in this for those who understand."

"Your Lord inspired the bee to construct homes in the mountains, the trees and in the buildings erected by man..." This refers to the construction of hives in which the bees store honey. Allāh also inspired the bee further by telling it, "Then eat (suck) from every type of fruit and traverse the pathways of your Lord that have been made easy (for you to travel on)." Allāh had created these pathways in the atmosphere so that the bees may easily find their way back to their hives.

"A drink (honey) of varying colours emanates from its belly, in which lies a cure for man. " Not only is honey palatable and nourishing, it also serves as a cure for many ailments. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Grab hold of two cures. Honey and the Qur'ān." [Mishkāt p. 391]

The sick should be given honey to drink and the Qur'ān should be recited, where after the reciter should blow on them. Experience has proven that the recitation of any long or short Surah of the Qur'ān serves as a cure for the sick.

Some Sahabah رضى الله عنه were once passing a place when the chief of the village was bitten by a venomous reptile. When the people approached the Sahabah رضى الله عنه for a cure, one Sahabi رضى الله عنه recited Surah Fāthihā and blew on the bite. The leader was then completely cured and (in the words of the narrator) he appeared like a person who was freed after being shackled. [Bukhari v. 1 p.304]

Allāh then says, "Indeed in this is a sign for those who ponder."

"Allāh created you and will then claim your souls. There are those of you who will be returned to a worthless age so that he knows nothing after once possessing knowledge." The wealth of intelligence and memory that Allāh blesses people with and which they exploit to the limits during their youth is taken away during old age.

Allāh is capable of dealing with people as He pleases for "Undoubtedly Allāh is All Knowing, All Powerful."

وَاللَّهُ فَضَّلَ بَعْضَكُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ فِي الرِّزْقِ فَمَا الَّذِينَ فُضِّلُوا بِرَادَى رِزْقِهِمْ عَلَى مَا
 مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَهُمْ فِيهِ سَوَاءٌ أَفَبِنِعْمَةِ اللَّهِ يَجْحَدُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ
 أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ بَنِينَ وَحَفَدَةً وَرَزَقَكُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ
 أَفَبِالْبَاطِلِ يُؤْمِنُونَ وَبِنِعْمَتِ اللَّهِ هُمْ يَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَمْلِكُ لَهُمْ
 رِزْقًا مِنَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ فَلَا تَضْرِبُوا لِلَّهِ الْأَمْثَالَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
 يَعْلَمُ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾

(71) Allāh has given some of you preference over others in sustenance. Now those who have been granted preference will not give their provision to their slaves so as to make them all equal. Will they still refute Allāh's favour? (72) Allāh has made spouses for you from yourselves and, from these spouses, created sons and grandsons. And He has provided for you pure foods to eat. Will they believe in falsehood and show ingratitude to Allāh's favour? (73) They worship besides Allāh things that cannot provide any sustenance for them from the skies, nor from the earth. In fact, they too are incapable of it. (74) So do not cite similitude's about Allāh. Allāh knows and you do not know.

ALLĀH HAS FAVOURED SOME MORE THAN OTHERS IN PROVISION

"Allāh has given some of you preference over others in sustenance." Allāh has granted every person a different amount of wealth and riches. If everyone were to be as rich or as poor as the other, this world will fail to function. The system of employment and production would cease because none would require the other. In this way man will be deprived of the fruits of his own labour, together with depriving others as well.

In the present system all men are interdependent. One will require another to run his factory, while the other will require the money of the first person to see to his personal needs. In this way the two will need each other and each one will have his requirement satisfied. Consumers need suppliers and vice versa. Each would be at a loss without the other. In this manner, the system of the world continues to function.

Allāh then says, "Now those who have been granted preference will not give their provision to their slaves so as to make them all equal." Here Allāh reproaches the Polytheists. Allāh informs them that just as they do not make their slaves their equals and as they recognise the distinction between master and slave, they should recognise the even sharper distinction between the Creator and the creation (the True Master and His slaves). However, they are absurd enough to ascribe others as equal to Allāh!

"Will they still refute Allāh's favour?" Although Allāh granted them all that they possess, they worship others instead of Him. This is the worst of crimes.

Thereafter Allāh mentions the boon of spouses and children. Allāh says, "Allāh has made spouses for you from yourselves (i.e. from the human race) and, from these spouses, created sons and grandsons." Man then takes pride in his progeny. Together with this bounty "He has provided for you pure foods to eat."

Allāh then says, "Will they believe in falsehood and show ingratitude to Allāh's favour?" It is indeed foolish and unmannerly that they worship other gods when Allāh grants them all they possess.

"They worship besides Allāh things that cannot provide any sustenance for them from the skies, nor from the earth. In fact, they too are incapable of it." This verse also highlights the foolishness of the polytheists because instead of worshipping Allāh their Creator and Sustainers, they worship those things that cannot provide anything for them.

"So do not cite similitude's about Allāh." Certain commentators have interpreted this verse to mean that people should not portray any semblance and representation of Allāh based on their knowledge of worldly things. This is especially forbidden when such examples of Allah support the idolatrous beliefs of the polytheists (Mushrikīn).

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that people should not take any other god as the example and duplicate of Allah, thinking that they have any of Allāh's qualities. The verse will then contain the same message as the verse, "Do not ascribe partners to Allāh."

"Allah knows and you do not know." It is foolish to base one's concept of Allah upon one's knowledge of the creation. Allāh knows best what is the reality of His supreme attributes. He is also well aware of the actions of the polytheists (Mushrikīn) and will punish them accordingly.

ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا عَبْدًا مَمْلُوكًا لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى شَيْءٍ وَمَنْ رَزَقْنَاهُ مِنَّا رِزْقًا حَسَنًا
فَهُوَ يُنفِقُ مِنْهُ سِرًّا وَجَهْرًا هَلْ يَسْتَوِيَنَّ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ
وَضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا رَجُلَيْنِ أَحَدُهُمَا أَبْكَمُ لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ
كُلٌّ عَلَى مَوْلَاهُ أَيْنَمَا يُوَجِّههُ لَا يَأْتِ بِخَيْرٍ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي هُوَ وَمَنْ يَأْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ
وَهُوَ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

(75) Allāh cites the example of a slave in bondage who has no power to do anything. Another is one whom Allah has granted a fair provision and he spends from it secretly and openly. Can the two be equal? All praise be to Allāh, but most people do not know. (76) And Allāh cites the similitude of two persons. The one is dumb and is a burden to his guardian. Wherever he is sent, he does not bring any good. Can he be equal to the one who enjoins justice and is upon the straight path?

ALLĀH CITES TWO ILLUSTRATIONS TO REFUTE THE BELIEFS OF THE POLYTHEISTS

In the above verses Allāh presents two analogies. The first is that of a slave. He has no wealth and can therefore not benefit anyone financially. The other is a person whom Allāh has blessed with an abundance of wealth. He spends this wealth on people as and when he pleases. Any sane person will realise that these two persons can never be equal. It is therefore obvious that Allāh, Who has control over all affairs and possesses all wealth, can never be equated with any of the creation. The creation, even collectively, cannot do what Allāh does.

This illustration clearly depicts the reality of the matter. Any thinking person will perceive the error of polytheism (shirk) by pondering over them. The only exceptions will be those who blindly follow the deviate ways of their forefathers, or who refuse to accept the truth for fear of losing some worldly benefits. Therefore, it is obvious that "All praise is for Allāh."

The second example given by Allāh is that of a person who is dumb. This mute person cannot care even for himself, let alone be of service to others. Allāh says, "Wherever he is sent, he does not bring any good." Neither can he understand what he is being told, nor can he convey the message to the opposite party.

Allāh then says, "Can he be equal to the one who (has the ability to speak so that he) enjoins justice..." Besides being able to convince others, he also practises what he preaches because he is "upon the straight path." Again the reply is obvious that the second person is better. If a person can understand this, he can easily understand that no being (especially lifeless idols) can ever be equated to Allāh.

وَلِلَّهِ غَيْبُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا أَمْرُ السَّاعَةِ إِلَّا كَلَمْحِ الْبَصَرِ أَوْ هُوَ أَقْرَبُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٧٧﴾

(77) To Allāh belongs the unseen affairs of the heavens and the earth. The affair of judgment day (Qiyāmah) is just like a blink of the eye, or even closer. Verily Allāh has power over all things.

After explaining some proofs pertaining to oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), Allāh affirms His all-encompassing knowledge. He says that he possesses the knowledge of every detail in the universe, whether it is apparent to man or not.

The knowledge of the advent of judgment day (Qiyāmah) is exclusive to Allāh and it will appear as quickly as the "blink of the eye, or even closer."

"Verily Allāh has power over all things." This phrase refutes the surprise that certain disbelievers (kuffār) express at the advent of resurrection. Allāh informs them that there is no cause for surprise because nothing is impossible for Him. Allāh has mentioned this belief in judgment day (Qiyāmah) because it is necessary that one believes in this aspect together with belief in oneness of Allāh (T auhīd).

وَاللَّهُ أَخْرَجَكُمْ مِنْ بُطُونِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ شَيْئًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ
وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾ أَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الطَّيْرِ مُسَخَّرَاتٍ
فِي جَوْ السَّمَاءِ مَا يُمَسِّكُهُنَّ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾
وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ بُيُوتِكُمْ سَكَنًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ جُلُودِ الْأَنْعَامِ بُيُوتًا
تَسْتَخِفُّونَهَا يَوْمَ ظَعْنِكُمْ وَيَوْمَ إِقَامَتِكُمْ وَمِنْ أَصْوَابِهَا وَأَوْبَارِهَا وَأَشْعَارِهَا
أَتُنَا وَمَتَاعًا إِلَىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُم مِمَّا خَلَقَ ظِلَالًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ
الْجِبَالِ أَكْنَانًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم سَرَابِيلَ تَقِيكُمُ الْحَرَّ وَسَرَابِيلَ تَقِيكُمُ
بَأْسَكُمْ كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ نِعْمَتَهُ عَلَيْكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُسْلِمُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا
فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ الْبَلَاءُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٨٢﴾ يَعْرِفُونَ نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ يُنْكِرُونَهَا وَأَكْثَرُهُمْ
الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾

(78) Allāh removed you from the wombs of your mothers when you knew nothing, and bestowed you with ears, eyes and hearts so that you may be grateful. (79) Have they not seen the birds subjugated in mid-air? Only Allāh suspends them in the air. Indeed there are signs in this for the believers. (80) And Allāh has granted you an abode in your homes and made homes for you from the hides of animals, which you find light when you travel and when you pitch camp. There is furniture and other things (derived) from their wool, their fur and their hair, which profit (you) for a period. (81) Of the things that Allāh has created, He has made those things that provide shade. He has also made for you places of refuge in the mountains and made coats for you that protect you from the heat and coats that protect you in battle. Thus does He complete His bounty on you so that you may surrender. (82) If they turn away, then your only responsibility is clear propagation. (83) They recognise Allāh's bounty. yet they refute it. And most of them are ungrateful.

THE VARIOUS BOUNTIES OF ALLĀH

Allāh mentions numerous bounties and signs depicting oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) in the foregoing verses. These are:

(1) "Allāh removed you from the wombs of your mothers when you knew nothing (thereafter, He granted you intelligence and knowledge), and bestowed you with ears, eyes and hearts so that you may be grateful (by worshipping only Him)."

(2). "Have they not seen the birds subjugated in mid-air? Only Allāh suspends them in the air." The birds seem not to be affected by the force of gravity exerted by the earth. By the mere movement of their wings, they are able to manoeuvre in the sky with great ease. Man cannot achieve this' feat by flapping his arms, even if he attaches feathers to them.

Despite this weakness of man, Allāh has granted him the intelligence and ability to create such machines with which he can outstrip any bird in flight, altitude and distance together with carrying tons of goods with him. It is indeed the bounty of Allāh that he has placed the control of these massive machines at the control of a single pilot. Allāh then reminds man, "indeed there are signs in this for the believers."

(3) "And Allāh has granted you an abode in your homes..." Some homes are constructed from bricks, others from sand, others from rocks, while some are even made of ice. The roofs are also made from various materials, all of which have been created by Allāh.

Allāh has also "made homes for you from the hides of animals, which you find light when you travel and when you pitch camp." In this verse Allāh refers to tents which man uses-these on his travels, making the journey easy and convenient.

(4) "There is furniture and other things (derived) from their wool, their fur and their hair, which profit(you) for a period." If Allāh had willed, He could have made the skins of animals impossible to remove, or He could have made them without wool and hide. If this were the case, man would not have derived the benefits from them that he does.

(5) "Of the things that Allāh has created, He has made those things that provide shade." These include a wide range of things like the trees, mountains and buildings.

(6) "He has also made for you places of refuge in the mountains..." This refers to caves, caverns and homes that are carved out of mountains.

(7) "...and made coats for you that protect you from the heat..." Allāh has created the materials required for making clothing, like cotton, wool, etc. Plastic, nylon and other modern day materials are all derived from natural substances created by Allāh. Allāh has mentioned that He has also created those things "that you have no knowledge of" Therefore, whatever new discoveries and inventions may occur in the future are all from Allāh.

Although Allāh has only mentioned that He has created apparel to protect man from the heat, Scholars (Ulama) explain that protection from cold has not been mentioned because it is automatically understood from the mention of heat.

Other commentators state that protection from cold has not been mentioned in this verse because it is already mentioned in verse 5 of this Surah, where Allāh mentioned, "And He created the animals for you. In them is warmth for you, other benefits and from them do you eat."

Allāh continues to say that He created for man the essentials to make "coats that protect you in battle." This refers to coats of armour and other protective clothing used in warfare. At the end of this verse Allāh says, "Thus does He complete His bounty on you so that you may surrender."

"If they turn away, then your only responsibility is clear propagation." This verse exhorts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to grieve over the disbelief of the disbelievers (Kuffār), but to continue with his task of propagation.

"They recognise Allāh's bounty, yet they refute it. And most of them are ungrateful." The greatest form of ingratitude is disbelief (kufr). The disbelievers (Kuffār) refuse to submit to Allāh despite the fact that He provides for them and showers them with innumerable bounties.

وَيَوْمَ نَبْعَثُ مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ شَهِيدًا ثُمَّ لَا يُؤْذَنُ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ
 وَإِذَا رَأَوْا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا الْعَذَابَ فَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنْظَرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَإِذَا
 رَأَوْا الَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا شَرَكَاءَ هُمْ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا هَؤُلَاءِ شُرَكَائُنَا الَّذِينَ كُنَّا

نَدْعُوا مِنْ دُونِكَ فَأَلْقَوْا إِلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلَ إِنَّكُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَأَلْقَوْا إِلَى اللَّهِ يَوْمَئِذٍ السَّلَامَ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ زِدْنَاهُمْ عَذَابًا فَوْقَ الْعَذَابِ بِمَا كَانُوا يُفْسِدُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَيَوْمَ نَبْعَثُ فِي كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ شَهِيدًا عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَجِئْنَا بِكَ شَهِيدًا عَلَى هَؤُلَاءِ وَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ تِبْيَانًا لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً وَبُشْرَى لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٨٩﴾

(84) The day when We shall raise a witness from every nation, then the disbelievers will not be granted permission, nor will they be allowed to satisfy Allāh. (85) When the oppressors see the punishment it will not be lightened for them, nor will they be granted respite. (86) When the idolaters will see their partners, they will exclaim, "O our Lord! These are our partners that we used to worship instead of You." Then the word will be flung back to them that "You are definitely liars!" (87) They will propose a truce with Allāh on that day and whatever they used to fabricate will be lost to them. (88) For those who disbelieve and forbid (others) from Allāh's path, We shall add punishment to their punishment because of the corruption that they caused. (89) The day when We shall raise against every nation a witness from their midst, and We shall make you witness over them. We have revealed the Book to you, that explains all things to you and is a guidance, a mercy and a glad tiding for those who submit.

THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND THE PUNISHMENT THAT THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR) AND THE POLYTHEISTS WILL SUFFER

Allāh says, "The day when We shall raise a witness from every nation..." These witnesses will be the Prophets عليهم السلام who will testify to the disbelief (kufr) and evil deeds of the people. Allāh continues to say, "then the disbelievers will not be granted permission (to plead their case and make excuses), nor will they be allowed to satisfy Allāh." The opportunity to please Allāh is granted only in this world, not in the Hereafter.

"When the oppressors see the punishment it will not be lightened for them, nor will they be granted respite. When the idolaters will see their partners (their false gods), they will exclaim, 'O our Lord! These are our partners that we used to worship instead of You.' Then the word will be flung back to them that 'You are definitely liars!'" The same gods that they worshipped will call them liars, thereby exonerating themselves from them.

Qurtubi (v. 10 p.163) writes that Allāh shall grant the idols the power to speak. They will inform those who worshipped them that they lied when they called them (the idols) gods. These idols will admit to the people that they were helpless, adding that they never instructed that they be worshipped.

When the disbelievers (kuffār) and polytheists will realise that they cannot escape from the punishment of Hell, they will plead to Allāh to save them and will be prepared to do anything in return. However, it will be too late. They had already destroyed their opportunities in this world by denying the Prophets عليهم السلام and their teachings. Allāh says, "They will propose a truce with Allāh on that day and whatever they used to fabricate will be lost to them." Their false gods will not be able to help them at all.

Allāh then speaks of the intensified punishment of Hell when He says, "For those who disbelieve and forbid (others) from Allāh's path, We shall add punishment to their punishment because of the corruption that they caused."

"The day when We shall raise against every nation a witness from their midst, and We shall make you witness over them." As was discussed in Surah Baqarah, the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be summoned as witnesses to the testimony of the Prophets عليهم السلام against their respective Ummahs. Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself will testify to the veracity of his Ummah. According to other commentators, this verse means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will testify to the truthfulness of the other Prophets عليهم السلام.

"We have revealed the Book (Qur'ān) to you, that explains all things to you..." The Qur'ān contains all the guidelines and fundamental principles of religion (D'in), while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained the details of these. Adherence to the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has been ordained in the Qur'ān itself. Allāh says, "Say, 'Obey Allāh and the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.'" [Surah Āl Imrān (2), verse 32]

Allāh says in another verse, "Whoever obeys the messenger has obeyed. Allāh and whoever turns away, We have not sent you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] as a warder over them." [Surah Nisā (4), verse 80]

Another verse reads, "Hold fast to what the messenger gives you and refrain from what He prevents you." [Surah Hashar (59), verse 7]

Allāh says in verse 115 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), "Whoever opposes the messenger after the guidance has become manifest to him and follows a path other than that of the believers, We shall allow him to do that which he is doing and then enter him into Hell. It is the worst of abodes." This verse explains the importance of adhering to Ijmā (consensus of the Ummah). It is binding on every Muslim to follow the laws derived by the Sahabah رضى الله عنه and the true scholars after them regarding current matters. They based their analogies upon the guidelines taught by the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth.

It is not permissible to draw analogies and formulate laws when such laws have been clearly defined in the Qur'ān. This will only be done when the Qur'ān and the Sunnah do not contain clear injunctions with regard to a particular matter because the matter at hand is something that is new.

The Qur'ān states, "Ask those of knowledge if you do not know." This verse teaches us to refer to men of knowledge when we have no knowledge regarding any affair. It is therefore necessary that people refer to the scholars of religion (D'in), especially the eminent jurists, when they require to know something about religion (D'in).

Thereafter, Allāh mentions another few attributes of the Qur'ān. He says that it is also "a guidance, a mercy and a glad tiding for those who submit." Those who submit (i.e. the Muslims) receive these benefits from the Qur'ān because they practise the injunctions of the Qur'ān, thereby becoming truly worthy of the bounties of the Hereafter.

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ وَالْإِحْسَانِ وَإِيتَاءِ ذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَيَنْهَىٰ عَنِ الْفَحْشَاءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَالْبَغْيِ يَعِظُكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ﴾ (90)

(90) Verily Allāh instructs justice, "ihsān," and giving to relatives. And Allāh forbids lewdness, evil and oppression. He advises you so that you may take heed.

THE COMMAND TO PERFORM GOOD DEEDS AND THE PROHIBITION AGAINST EVIL AND IMMORALITY

The above verse is extremely concise, yet it encompasses all good deeds and forbids practically all that is undesirable. The first instruction given in this verse is to practise justice. Allāh says in Surah Mā'idah, "Be just! It is closer to piety." A Muslim has to be just with his pīrs (mentors), his superiors and his subordinates. He also has to be just when dealing with his enemies. He cannot transgress their rights and should rather forgive them for the transgressions that they perpetrate against him.

Another meaning of the Arabic word 'Adal' (justice) is 'moderation.' A discussion of moderation is given in the commentary of verse 142 of Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, "Thus we have made you such a group that is moderate in nature..." According to the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni", 'moderation' refers to the midpoint between the extremes of negligence and excessive behaviour.

Ibn Abi Hātim رحمه الله عليه has reported from Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi رحمه الله that Sayyidina Umar bin Abdūl Aziz رحمه الله asked him what was the meaning of 'adal.' He replied, "You have indeed asked something very great!" He then went on to explain the meaning by saying, "(Adal means) That you are the father of a small person, the son of a big person and the brother of a moderate person. You punish people according to their crimes and according to the tolerance of their bodies, and you should not lay a single lash out of anger. If you do so, you will be perpetrating an injustice."

Sayyidina Sufyān bin Uyaynah رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that 'adal' means that a person's actions be equal in public and in private.

The second command that Allāh issues is that of 'ihsān.' It means that a person carries out all actions properly and with care. He should ensure that his acts of devotion as well as his dealings with people are decorated with the quality of ihsān. One should refer to the commentary of the verse 195 of Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, "Do things well, for certainly Allāh loves those who do things well."

The third command issued by Allāh is to spend on one's relatives. Although this act is also included in the instruction of 'ihsān,' it is repeated because of the fact that a person will receive double the reward for spending on his family and relatives as opposed to when he spend on others. He will receive the reward of joining family ties in addition to the reward of spending in charity.

This verse also serves to remand those who maintain favourable relationships with everyone except their relatives. The relatives will include all family members, be they as close as one's parents or as far as one's cousins. At times it is obligatory to spend on them and at times it will be optional. The details can be found in the books of Islāmic jurisprudence.

After commanding that the above virtues be practised, Allāh forbids certain vices. The first of these is the prohibition against lewdness. Although this will be included in the general meaning of the word "evil" it is mentioned separately for emphasis. This includes all deeds and talks that are rude, immoral and related to sensuality. All those actions that lead to these are similarly prohibited.

The word "oppression" includes all those deeds and actions that constitute injustice, including rebellion against the Leader of believers (Amīrul Mu'minīn), stealing, harming parents or refusing people their rights.

Allāh says in Surah Hujurāt, "If two groups of believers fight each other then reconcile between them. If the one group transgresses against the other then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to Allāh's command. If they return, then reconcile between them with justice. Be just, for Allāh loves those who exercise justice." [Surah 49, verse 9]

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه reports a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that from all sins, those that most deserve their perpetrator to be swiftly punished in this world are oppression, transgression and the severance of family ties. [Mishkāt p. 420]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the above verse is most comprehensive in mentioning good and evil as opposed to any other verse of the Qur'ān. This is so because it enjoins every good and forbids every evil.

At the end Allāh says that "He advises you so that you may take heed." This reminds people that they should not consider themselves absolved of responsibility by merely reciting the verse. They should now practise it.

THE INTRODUCTION INTO THE SERMON (KHUTBAH) OF THE VERSE,

'Verily Allāh instructs justice, "ihsān", and giving to relatives. And Allāh forbids lewdness, evil and oppression. He advises you so that you may take (heed)?'

Allāma Suyuti رحمه الله عليه has recorded in his book "Tārikhul Khulafa" that the Caliphs (Khalifahs) of the Umayyad dynasty used to revile Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه in the Friday sermon (khutbah). However, when Sayyidina Umar bin Abdil Aziz رحمه الله عليه assumed the reigns of Caliphate (khilāfah), he forbade all his governors from doing this and ordered them to substitute this practice with the above verse of the Qur'an.

Since then it has been the practice of people throughout the world to include this verse in the Sermon (khutbah). However, it is advisable to omit the verse from the Sermon (khutbah) occasionally so that people do not regard it as a compulsory practice.

وَأَوْفُوا بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ إِذَا عَاهَدْتُمْ وَلَا تَنْقُضُوا الْأَيْمَانَ بَعْدَ تَوْكِيدِهَا وَقَدْ جَعَلْتُمُ
 اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ كَفِيلًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٩١﴾ وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّتِي
 نَقَضَتْ غَزْلَهَا مِنْ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ أَنْكَا تَتَّخِذُونَ أَيْمَانَكُمْ دَخَالًا بَيْنَكُمْ أَنْ
 تَكُونَ أُمَّةٌ هِيَ أَرْبَى مِنْ أُمَّةٍ إِنَّمَا يَبْلُوكُمُ اللَّهُ بِهِ وَلِيُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ مَا
 كُنْتُمْ فِيهِ تَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَعَلَكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَلَكِنْ يُضِلُّ مَنْ
 يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَلَتُسْأَلُنَّ عَمَّا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ وَلَا تَتَّخِذُوا أَيْمَانَكُمْ
 دَخَالًا بَيْنَكُمْ فَتَزِلَّ قَدَمُ بَعْدِ ثُبُوتِهَا وَتَذُوقُوا السُّوَاءَ بِمَا صَدَدْتُمْ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
 وَلَكُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٩٤﴾ وَلَا تَشْتَرُوا بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ ثَمَنًا قَلِيلًا إِنَّمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُوَ خَيْرٌ
 لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾

(91) Fulfil Allāh's pledge when you have made the pledge. And do not breach your oaths after solemnising them, when you have already made Allāh Witness upon yourselves. Indeed Allāh knows what you do. (92) Do not be like the woman who shredded her spun yarn to threads after strengthening it. You make your oaths a means of causing strife between you because a nation is larger in number than another. The fact of the matter is that Allāh only tests you by it. And, on the Day of Judgement, He will certainly explain to you the matters in which you differed. (93) If Allāh willed, He would have made you a single nation but He sends astray whomsoever He wills and guides whomsoever He wills. You will definitely be questioned concerning what you do. (94) Do not make your oaths a means of causing strife between you, so as to make a foot slip after gaining stability, and so as to make you taste the punishment of forbidding from Allāh's path. Yours shall be an intense punishment. (95) Do not procure a paltry sum in exchange for Allāh's covenant. What Allāh has is better for you if you but knew.

THE INSTRUCTION TO FULFIL PLEDGES AND OATHS

Although the fulfilment of oaths and covenants is included in the previous command of 'adal' and 'ihsan,' it is mentioned separately in these verses so that people realise their importance and pay heed to them. Oaths are usually taken when a pledge is made, and these pledges can result in spreading strife and corruption. It is for this reason that Allāh says, "Do not make your oaths a means of causing strife between you..."

Allāh says, "Fulfil Allāh's pledge when you have made the pledge." This refers to the pledge of Islām i.e. submission to Allāh's commands and abstention from the things that He has prohibited.

"And do not breach your oaths after solemnising them..." Although it is imperative that even those pledges be fulfilled that have not been solemnised by means of an oath, the solemnised ones are specifically mentioned here for emphasis. They should be given due regard since Allāh's name has been placed between.

".....when you have already made Allāh a Witness upon yourselves. Indeed Allāh knows what you do." When an oath is taken, the parties have intentionally made Allāh a Witness to their pledge, even though Allāh is always a Witness to everything.

Other commentators have translated the verse to mean that Allāh is a Protector over you (instead of "Witness upon yourselves"). They interpret the verse to mean that by taking the pledge and abiding by it, they will remain in Allāh's protection. However, should they fail to observe the clauses of the pledge, Allāh's protection is no longer binding: Now He may punish them for the breach of pledge or forgive them.

"Do not be like the woman who shredded her spun yarn to threads after strengthening it." According to the commentators, this verse is mentioned as an example of those who breach their pledges. Their act is just as foolish as the woman who destroys the garment that she made after working hard at spinning the yarn and preparing it. Qurtubi (v. 10 p.171) reports that there was a woman in Makkah by the name of Rabīta who used to do what is described in the verse.

In my humble opinion, the verse alludes to many laws besides that of breaking a pledge. It could refer to abruptly terminating one's Salāh, fast, Hajj or Umrah after beginning these. It could also refer to deserting the battlefield in Jihād. In this manner it could also refer to many other deeds. At the same time it could also refer to perpetrating those actions that cause the reward of other deeds to be destroyed. I have searched other books of exegesis (tafsir) for the interpretation that I have made, but have not found this anywhere. I have written it here considering it to be from the inspiration received from Allāh. All knowledge belongs to Allāh.

"You make your oaths a means of causing strife between you because a nation is larger in number than another." It was customary among the Arab tribes that they used to enter into treaties with other tribes so that the two would be allied to each other in times of war. However, when any tribe felt that their allied tribe was too small, it would annul the treaty and align itself with a larger tribe. Allāh refers to the oath taken when aligning to the first (smaller) tribe as an oath that is "a means of causing strife between you."

"The fact of the matter is that Allāh only tests you by it" i.e. Allāh tests you by commanding you to fulfil your pledges, or (according to other commentators) He tests you by presenting another stronger tribe before you. In this way Allāh will see whether you remain true to your original allies or whether you desert them to join forces with a stronger tribe.

Note: A treaty may be annulled with another party when it is feared that they may be treacherous, or for any other valid reason. However, there are conditions attached to this. These have been mentioned in the commentary of verse 58 of Surah Anfāl (Surah 8), where Allāh says, "Should you ever really fear betrayal from any nation, then throw back the treaty that you have contracted with them so that the two of you are on an equal footing. Verily Allāh does not like those who betray."

Allāh continues to say, "And, on the Day of Judgement, He will certainly explain to you the matters in which you differed." In the Hereafter, Allāh will immensely reward those who stood for the truth, while the others will suffer punishment. They will then come to know who were right and who were not.

"If Allāh willed, He would have made you a single nation, but He sends astray whomsoever He wills and guides whomsoever He wills." Allāh could have ironed out all difference between people if He wished to do so. However, His infinite wisdom dictates that these should exist between man. Now man has been bestowed with the intelligence to discern between right and wrong. Accordingly, he has been given the choice to act. He will be taken to task for the choice that he makes. None should consider himself to be like a paralysed person who is helpless to act.

"You will all definitely be questioned concerning what you do." None should think that his actions go unnoticed in this world. Every person will be accountable for his actions. He will have to reply for the pledges that he broke and the oaths that he did not fulfil.

"Do not make your oaths a means of causing strife between you, so as to make a foot slip after gaining stability, and so as to make you taste the punishment of forbidding from Allāh's path. Yours shall be an intense punishment." By breaching the covenant taken with Allāh and His the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, a person will become a infidel (kāfir), and will be worthy of the worst of punishments. If he breaks a pledge with another person, he will be guilty of treachery and betrayal. Although this will not amount to disbelief (kufr), yet it is extremely grave and a really tragic "slip of the foot".

The believers (Mu'minīn) should ensure that they never cause their foothold in Islām to slip. They should never fall into the pits of sin and vice and thereby subject themselves to the worst punishments in the Hereafter.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 3 p.84) has reported from certain Scholars (Ulama) that the interpretation of the verse is that when people break covenants, they pave the way for others to do the same. By doing this they will be actually forbidding others from Allāh's way i.e. from fulfilling pledges. It is for this reason that they will "taste the punishment of forbidding from Allāh's path."

"....so as to make a foot slip after gaining stability..." Explaining this part of the verse, some commentators have mentioned that betrayal after swearing by Allāh and causing strife jeopardise the belief (Imān). People stand to lose their Belief (Imān) by using Allāh's name to deceive others.

Note: In other parts of the Qur'ān Allāh has also emphasised the importance of fulfilling pledges. Allāh says in Surah Mā'idah, "O you who believe, fulfil your pledges..."

He says in Surah Ān'ām, "Fulfil the covenant of Allāh." Verse 34 of Surah Isrā (Surah 17) reads, "And fulfil the pledge. Certainly, questioning shall take place concerning pledges."

Allāh then says, "Do not procure a paltry sum in exchange for Allāh's covenant. What Allāh has is better for you if you but knew." This verse prohibits that one acquires some worldly benefit by breaking his pledges, especially when it involves accepting bribes and ill-gotten wealth. [Qurtubi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the giver of a bribe, the taker, and the one who communicates between the two are all accursed. Even the salaries of those who accept bribes for favours done in their field of work is Harām. This is so because they are acting contrary to what they are employed to do, thereby being unworthy of the remuneration they receive from their employers.

In our times, politicians are renowned for breaking promises once they ascend to their desired posts. Even Muslim politicians are prone to this. When they attain to positions they forget the oaths that they swore by Allāh while campaigning. Their concern then is only for themselves.

It should be borne in mind that the wealth acquired by breaching an oath is totally insignificant in comparison to the rewards of the Hereafter. The greater the position of a person, the greater will he suffer for breaking his pledge in the Hereafter.

Sayyidina Abu Sa'id رضي الله عنه has narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the Day of Judgement every traitor will have a flag. The length of his flag will be proportionate to extent of his treason, and it will stand out of his anus. No treason can be worse than that which is perpetrated by a leader against his subjects."

Sayyidina Ma'qal bin Yasār رضي الله عنه reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh will make Heaven (Jannah) Unlawful (Harām) for the person who dies in the condition that he betrays people after being appointed as their leader."

According to another narration, the person who is appointed as leader to even a few persons without seeing to their welfare will be deprived of smelling the fragrance of Heaven (Jannah). [Mishkāt p. 321]

مَا عِنْدَكُمْ يَنْفَدُ وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ بَاقٍ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّ الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا أَجْرَهُمْ بِأَحْسَنِ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا مِّنْ ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أَنشَأَ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَنُحْيِيَنَّهُ حَيَاةً طَيِّبَةً وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ بِأَحْسَنِ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٧﴾

(96) What is with you shall come to an end and what is with Allāh will last forever. We shall most definitely reward those who are patient for the good deeds that they do. (97) As for that male or female who does good and is a believer, We will certainly grant them a good life and most reward them for the surely good that they do.

THE BOUNTIES OF THE HEREAFTER ARE PERPETUAL WHILE THOSE OF THIS WORLD ARE TEMPORARY

In the first verse Allāh explains that whatever man earns in this world shall eventually terminate. On the other hand, the rewards that he will receive for his good deeds in the Hereafter will never come to an end. Therefore, man should never be tempted to break Allāh's commands (and his pledges) because of his desire for worldly gains. He should always bear in mind that the eternal success of the Hereafter cannot be bartered for the temporary things of this world because "What is with you (the wealth of this world) shall come to an end and what is with Allāh (the rewards of the Hereafter) will last forever."

Allāh continues, "We shall most definitely reward those who are patient for the good deeds that they do." The phrase "those who are patient" denotes those people who are steadfast upon Allāh's commandments and never sway from the path of truth.

"As for that male or female who does good and is a believer, We will certainly grant them a good life and most surely reward them for the good that they do." Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has quoted several interpretations of "a good life." According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, it refers to a life of contentment. Another interpretation says that it refers to the inspiration and guidance that Allāh bestows upon a person so that he is able to perform those actions that please Allāh.

Other commentators mention that it denotes entry into Heaven (Jannah), while others say that it means Allāh's forgiveness and proximity unto Him. Yet another interpretation is that this refers to such a life in which a person remains independent from creation and always turns only to the Creator. The final interpretation is that a person is blessed with the supreme quality of being happy with Allāh's decree at all times.

There is no discrepancy between all these interpretations, since they can all be applied simultaneously. The life of a Believer (Mu'min), as opposed to that of disbelievers (kuffār) and the sinners, is filled with contentment and peace. Whenever he is confronted with any difficulty, he is never perplexed since he is happy with whatever Allāh decrees for him. In fact, he acquires satisfaction and joy from these difficulties.

Together with this blissful life, he will be eternally happy in Heaven (Jannah). The only condition for these bounties is that "they are believers." Gender is never a barrier against Allāh's bounty and grace.

فَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْآنَ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ ﴿٩٨﴾ إِنَّهُمْ لَمَّا سَلَطْنَا عَلَى
الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾ إِنَّمَا سَلَطْنَاهُمْ عَلَى الَّذِينَ يَتَوَلَّوْنَهُ

(98) When you recite the Qur'ān, then seek refuge with Allāh from Devil (Shaytān), the accursed. (99) Indeed he has no sway over those who believe and who rely solely on their Lord. (100) His sway is only on those who befriend him and those who ascribe partners to Allāh.

SEEK ALLĀH'S REFUGE FROM DEVIL (SHAYTĀN) WHEN COMMENCING RECITATION OF THE QUR'ĀN

Devil (Shaytān) is the sworn enemy of man and constantly tries to dissuade man from engaging in Allāh's worship. Even when man does worship Allāh, Devil (Shaytān) plagues his mind with evil thoughts. When a believer (Mu'min) recites the Qur'ān, he is affected by it and gains satisfaction because it is like communicating with Allāh. Devil (Shaytān) cannot tolerate this and makes every effort to distract man's attention. It is for this reason that Allāh says, "When you recite the Qur'ān, then seek refuge with Allāh from Devil (Shaytān), the accursed."

Therefore, when a person begins to recite the Qur'ān, he should say, "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm." Thereafter, it will be Masnūn for him to add "Bismillāh Hir Rahmān Nir Rahīm."

When a person wishes to occupy a home, he will first rid the home of all harmful things. Thereafter, he will begin to decorate the home. In a similar manner, when a person intends to recite the Qur'ān, he should first rid the heart of Devil's (Shaytān's) evil whispers by reciting, "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm." Thereafter he will decorate his heart with the mention of Allāh's name and attributes by saying, "Bismillāh Hir Rahmān Nir Rahīm."

When commencing recitation of the Qur'ān it is sufficient to recite "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" once only. However, if one has to interrupt the recitation by eating, drinking, speaking or any other act that is not related to recitation of the Qur'ān, then one should repeat "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm."

Imām Abu Hanifah رحمه الله عليه, Imām Shafi'i رحمه الله عليه and Belief (Imān) Ahmad bin Hambal رحمه الله عليه have all preferred the use of the words "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" instead of any other configuration of words.

Besides the occasion when beginning recitation of the Qur'ān, the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth have stipulated other occasions as well when "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" should be recited. Allāh says in verse 200 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), "Should a temptation come to you from Satan (Shaytān) then seek refuge with Allāh. Verily He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing."

Allāh also says in Surah Mu'min, "And say, 'O my Lord! I seek refuge with You from the evil whispering of the Satan (Shaytān). And I seek refuge with You, O my Lord, that they approach me.'" [Surah 23, verse 97, 98]

According to the Ahadīth, one should recite "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" upon becoming angry and when hearing the braying of a donkey. [Mishkāṭ p. 213]

In another hadith the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stated that a person should recite "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" when hearing a dog bark or a donkey bray because they see things that man does not i.e. the Devil (Shaytān). [Mishkāt p. 373]

Before entering the toilet a person should firstly recite "Bismillāh" and then seek refuge from Shaytān with the words, "Allāhumma Inni A'ūdhu Bika Minal Khubuthi Wal Khabā'ith." (TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! I seek refuge with You from the male and female Devil (Shaytān).")

SATAN (SHAYTĀN) HAS NO SWAY OVER THOSE BELIEVERS WHO RELY TOTALLY ON ALLĀH

"Indeed he Satan (Shaytān) has no sway over those who believe and who rely solely on their Lord." Satan (Shaytān) cannot deter these people from the path of truth despite his concerted efforts. However, they may succumb to sin because of the demands of their carnal selves.

"His sway is only on those who befriend him and those who ascribe partners to Allāh." Those who befriend Satan (Shaytān) are most prominently the disbelievers (kuffār) and the polytheists. Those believers (Mu'minīn) who submit to the dictates of Shaytān will also be classified as his friends since they obey him.

Whenever a person is struck by an evil thought from Satan (Shaytān), he should immediately dispel the thought by reciting "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" He should then engage in Allāh's remembrance (dhikr) or some other act of virtue. If he allows the thought to tarry in his mind, it will persist. Shaytān will also cause doubts in a person's ablution (wudhu), his faith (Imān) and his Salāh.

Sayyidina Abu Huraira رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Satan (Shaytān) will come to you and ask, 'Who created this and who created that?' Eventually he will ask you who created your Lord? When this happens, seek refuge with Allāh and leave the matter to rest." [Bukhari v. 1 p.463]

A person once told Sayyidina Qāsim bin Muhammad رحمه الله عليه that he experienced many distractions and stray thoughts in his Salāh. Sayyidina Qāsim رحمه الله عليه told him to continue performing his Salāh and the problem will be eradicated only when he informs Satan (Shaytān) after the Salāh that his Salāh was not performed. [Mishkāt p. 19]

This means that he should not be concerned with the distractions of Satan (Shaytān). If he has to err in Salāh, he should perform the prostration of mistake (Sajdah Sahw) as prescribed and not be perplexed about Devil's (Shaytān's) reminders that something has been omitted. After Salāh he should address Devil (Shaytān), asking him what he wants with the Salāh. He should be told to go away and that he should not pretend to be concerned about the perfection of one's Salāh since no Salāh had been performed. Once this is done, Devil (Shaytān) will discontinue his efforts.

A saint narrated that Devil (Shaytān) would constantly whisper to him after ablution (wudhu) that he did not make the masah of the head. Devil (Shaytān) told him that if he did not make the masah, the Salāh would be incorrect and that performing Salāh without ablution (wudhu) was tantamount to disbelief (*kuf*r). He says that for a while he used to repeat the masah to dispel the doubt, but afterwards he told Devil (Shaytān), "You are hardly a Muslim yourself that you should worry about my belief (Imān).” Thereafter Devil (Shaytān) stopped pestering him.

Allowing devil (Shaytān) to continue his efforts will lead one to destruction. Devil (Shaytān) intends to lead man only to the doom he is headed for.

وَإِذَا بَدَّلْنَا آيَةً مَكَاتٍ ءَايَةً وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يُزَيِّرُ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُفْتَرٍ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٠١﴾ قُلْ نَزَّلَهُ رُوحُ الْقُدُسِ مِنْ رَبِّكَ بِالْحَقِّ لِيُثَبِّتَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهُدًى وَبُشْرَى لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ وَلَقَدْ فَعَلْنَا أَنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ إِنَّمَا يَعْلَمُهُ بَشَرٌ لِّسَانُ الَّذِي يُلْحِدُونَ إِلَيْهِ أَعْجَبِي وَهَذَا لِسَانٌ عَرَبِيٌّ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٠٣﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ لَا يَهْدِيهِمُ اللَّهُ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١٠٤﴾ إِنَّمَا يَفْتَرِي الْكَذِبَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾

(101) When We replace a verse with another, and Allāh knows best what He reveals, they say, "You are but a perjurer!" But most of them have no knowledge. (102) Say, "The Ruhul Qudus has revealed it with truth from your Lord to make the believers steadfast, and as a guidance and a glad tiding for the Muslims." (103) Indeed We know well that they say, "A human teaches him." The language of the person to whom they refer is Ajami (non-Arabic), while this is in the clear Arabic language. (104) Verily Allāh will not guide those who do not believe in His verses, and for them shall be a tormenting punishment. (105) Those who do not believe in Allāh's verses merely invent lies. These are the true liars!

THE REPLY TO THOSE WHO OBJECT TO THE ABROGATION OF QUR'ĀNIC VERSES

Allāh says, "When We replace a verse with another, and Allāh knows best what He reveals, they [the disbelievers (kuffār)] say, 'You are but a perjurer!' The disbelievers (kuffār) say that the Book of Allāh cannot be changed like how the Qur'ān is. They maintain that it must therefore be the product of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The reply to this objection has already been discussed in Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, "Whenever We repeal any verse or cause it to be forgotten, We bring something better or equivalent to it. Do you not know that Allāh has power over all things?" [Surah 2, verse 106]

Allāh says in the above verse, "But most of them have no knowledge." i.e. Their objection is based on ignorance. They fail to understand that the change in any law is for the welfare of man and based on Allāh's infinite wisdom. Allāh says in between the verse that He "knows best what He reveals."

In reply to the allegation that the Qur'ān is a product of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Say, 'The Ruhul Qudus [Jibr'il السلام] has revealed it with truth from your Lord to make the believers steadfast, and as a guidance and a glad tiding for the Muslims.'"

THE REPLY TO THE ALLEGATION THAT THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS TAUGHT BY ANOTHER PERSON

"indeed We know well that they say, 'A human teaches him.'" The polytheists used to say that the Qur'ān was "tales of the old men." Some of them also said that another man taught the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Some commentators say that they referred to a person by the name of Ya'ish, who was previously a Christian. He was not an Arab, and accepted Islām later. When he used to come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to learn about Islām, the polytheists made the preposterous claim that he was teaching the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that there were two non-Arabs living in Makkah who had knowledge of the Torah and the Injil. They used to make swords. When the Quraish persecuted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he used to sit with the two of them and be consoled by their talks. The disbelievers (kuffār) claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was learning from them.

Allāh refutes their allegation by saying, "The language of the person to whom they refer is Ajami (non-Arabic), while this is in the clear Arabic language." It is obvious that a person who can hardly speak Arabic cannot produce anything even remotely similar to the Qur'ān, especially when highly eloquent linguists of Arabic could not match the Qur'ān. Even to this day none has met the challenge of the Qur'ān to produce a single Surah like any of the Qur'ān.

"Verily Allāh will not guide those who do not believe in His verses, and for them shall be a tormenting punishment." This verse refers to those who recognise the verses of Allāh to be the truth yet are too stubborn to accept them. They shall be punished in this world by being deprived of the wealth of Belief (Imān) and, in the Hereafter, their destination shall be Hell.

"Those who do not believe on Allāh's verses merely invent lies. These are the true liars!" This verse refers to those who claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has fabricated the Qur'ān and was lying by saying that it was from Allāh. Indeed their lie is the greatest since it is obvious that an unlettered person could never produce the like of the Qur'ān.

مَنْ كَفَرَ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ إِيمَانِهِ إِلَّا مَنْ أَكْرَهَ وَقَلْبُهُ مُطْمَئِنٌّ بِالْإِيمَانِ
وَلَكِنْ مَنْ شَرَحَ بِالْكُفْرِ صَدْرًا فَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ

ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ اسْتَحَبُّوا الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا عَلَى الْآخِرَةِ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ وَسَمِعِهِمْ وَأَبْصَرِهِمْ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْفَافِلُونَ ﴿١٠٧﴾ لَا جَرَمَ أَنَّهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ هُمُ الْخَسِرُونَ ﴿١٠٨﴾

- (106) Those who disbelieve in Allāh after believing - save for him who is forced, but his heart is content with Belief (Imān) and who open their hearts to disbelief will have Allāh's wrath upon them and theirs shall be a terrible punishment. (107) This is because they prefer the life of this world to the Hereafter, and Allāh certainly does not guide the disbelieving folk. (108) These are the ones upon whose hearts, ears and eyes Allāh has set a seal. These are the negligent ones. (109) Without doubt, they will be the losers in the Hereafter.

THE PUNISHMENT FOR DISBELIEVING AFTER BEING A BELIEVER

The polytheists of Makkah spared no effort to harm and beat those who accepted Islām, especially those Muslims who were slaves or foreign to Makkah. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that the first seven people to express their belief in Islām were the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Ammār رضى الله عنه, his mother Sayyidina Sumayya رضى الله عنها, Sayyidina Suhayb رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Miqdād رضى الله عنه.

He says that Allāh protected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by means of his uncle Abu Tālib, and Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was protected by Allāh by means of his tribe. The rest of them were tortured by the polytheists and made to wear steel armour while lying in the sweltering heat of the sun. They were told to utter words of infidelity (kufṛ) or die in this manner.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه mentions further that all of them besides Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه uttered such words to save themselves. Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه was prepared to sacrifice his life for Allāh and was constantly tortured until Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه bought his freedom. Sayyidah Sumayya رضى الله عنها was privileged enough to be the first person to be martyred in the history of Islām. [Al Bidaya wan Nihayah v. 3 p.55-59]

The above verse was revealed with regard to the other Sahabah رضى الله عنهم who were forced by the polytheists to utter words of infidelity (kufṛ). Although they said these words, they still remained staunch believers.

Durrul Manthūr (v. 3 p. 132) reports that the polytheists once apprehended Sayyidina Ammār bin Yāsir رضى الله عنه and only left him when he spoke ill of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and praised their idols. He later came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, who asked him how things were. He replied that matters were exceptionally unfavourable. Thereafter he told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had lied when he spoke ill of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and praised the idols.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him what was the condition of his heart. He replied that it was content with Belief (Imān). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he could repeat those words if ever the disbelievers (kuffār) were to harass him in that manner. On this occasion Allāh revealed the verse 'save for him who is forced, but his heart is content with Belief (Imān).'

"Durrul Manthūr" also reports that Abdullāh bin Ibn 'Abi Sarh turned apostate after being a Muslim. Allāh says about him, "and (those) who open their hearts to disbelief will have Allāh's wrath upon them and theirs shall be a terrible punishment."

The above verse states that Allāh's wrath and a terrible punishment will afflict those who willingly turn away from Islām to return to disbelief (kufr). The only exception is those who are forced to verbally detract from Islām for fear of their lives. Of course, they will be rewarded greatly if they chose to endure the torture like Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه or to sacrifice their lives like Sayyidah Sumayya رضى الله عنها.

"Durrul Manthūr" reports that two Muslims were captured and brought before Musailama Kadhdhāb. When he asked the one whether he attested to the Prophethood of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, he replied in the affirmative. When he asked him whether he (Musailama) was Allāh's Prophet, the Sahabi رضى الله عنه placed his fingers in his ears, denoting that he was deaf to the statement. Musailama then had him killed.

Then turning his attention to the second Sah'abi رضى الله عنه, Musailama posed the same questions to him. He replied that he also believed Musailama to be Allāh's Prophet. Consequently, he was released. When he returned to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he related the incident to him. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Your companion has passed away with Belief (Imān) and you have practised the concession." It is learnt from this that mere verbal threats will not be regarded as 'force'

It was previously mentioned that Abdullāh bin Ibn Abi Sarh turned apostate after being a Muslim. He was the foster brother of Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه, who brought him before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when Makkah was conquered. On that occasion he accepted Islām again. However, the verse revealed with regard to him will still apply until eternity i.e. "and (those) who open their hearts to disbelief will have Allāh's wrath upon them and theirs shall be a terrible punishment."

Ruling: If a person is threatened with death or that a limb of his body will be severed if he does not eat carrion, swine or drink wine, then it will be obligatory (fardh) for him to oblige. This will be the case when he is certain that the threat is genuine and that the threatening person is capable of carrying out the threat. If he refused to eat the unlawful (Harām) food and was killed, he (the person killed) 'will be guilty of a sin.

Ruling: It is not permissible to kill another Muslim even if one is threatened with death.

"This is because they prefer the life of this world to the Hereafter..." The love for worldly pleasures deters people from accepting Islām and from adhering to it even though they know that it is the truth. These people fear the loss of some worldly possession if they remain as Muslims. They should rather place the Hereafter before them and aspire for it instead. Even today there are many Muslims who adhere staunchly to Islām despite being persecuted by their families and the police.

Those Muslims who turn disbeliever (kāfir) by rejecting the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also do so because of their love for women, honour and wealth offered to them by their Christian teachers.

"...and Allāh certainly does not guide the disbelieving folk." They cannot expect to be guided by Allāh when they refute the truth after recognizing it.

"These are the ones upon whose hearts, ears and eyes Allāh has set a seal. These are the negligent ones." Their incessant refusal has caused their senses to be rendered futile and they will be deprived of the bliss of both worlds.

"Without doubt, they will be the losers in the Hereafter." Not only will they be deprived of Heaven (Jannah), but they will have to suffer the eternal torment of Hell as well.

ثُمَّ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لِلَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا فُتِنُوا ثُمَّ جَاهِدُوا وَصَبَرُوا
 إِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١٠﴾ يَوْمَ تَأْتِي كُلُّ نَفْسٍ تُجَادِلُ عَنْ
 نَفْسِهَا وَتُوَفَّى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّا عَمِلَتْ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ﴿١١١﴾

(110) Then your Lord shall be Most Forgiving and Most Merciful after all unto those who migrate after being tried and then strive in His way and exercise patience. (111) The day when every person shall fight for his soul and every soul shall be rewarded in full for its deeds and they will not be oppressed.

THE REWARD FOR THOSE WHO MIGRATE AND ARE STEADFAST

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p.87) reports that the first of the above verses was revealed with regard to Sayyidina Ayāsh bin Abi Rabī'ah رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Jundub رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Walid bin Walid رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Salamah bin Hishām رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abi Usayd رضى الله عنه. They were all forced by the polytheists to utter certain things. However, they all migrated, participated in Jihād and remained loyal to Islām. Allāh revealed this verse with glad tidings of His forgiveness and mercy for them.

Sayyidina Hasan and Ikrama رحمه الله عليه state that the verse was revealed with regard to Abdullāh bin Abi Sarh who accepted Islām again after turning apostate when Makkah was conquered.

Whatever the case may be, Allāh's statement is clear that "Then your Lord shall be Most Forgiving and Most Merciful after all unto those who migrate after being tried and then strive in His way and exercise patience." All their ill deeds committed as disbelievers (kuffār) will be forgiven because acceptance of Islām obliterates all sins.

In the second verse Allāh says, "The day when every person shall fight for (the emancipation of) his soul and every soul shall be rewarded in full for its deeds and they will not be oppressed." People will see the rewards of all their good deeds."

وَضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا قَرْيَةً كَانَتْ ءَامِنَةً مُطْمَئِنَّةً يَأْتِيهَا رِزْقُهَا رَغَدًا مِنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ فَكَفَرَتْ بِأَنْعُمِ اللَّهِ فَأَذَاقَهَا اللَّهُ لِبَاسَ الْجُوعِ وَالْخَوْفِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَصْنَعُونَ ﴿١١٢﴾ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ مِنْهُمْ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَخَذَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ ﴿١١٣﴾

(112) Allāh cites the similitude of a town that was peaceful and tranquil. Their provision came to them in abundance from every avenue, but they were ungrateful for Allāh's bounty and, because of their actions, Allāh caused them to taste the attire of hunger and fear. (113) Indeed messengers came to them from their midst, but they denied them, because of which a punishment afflicted them while they were oppressive.

THE STORY OF AN UNGRATEFUL TOWN THAT LOST ALLĀH'S BOUNTIES

According to many commentators, the above verses do not refer to any particular town. Allāh cites a general example of cities that are "peaceful and tranquil. Their provision came to them in abundance from every avenue, but they were ungrateful for Allāh's bounty and, because of their actions, Allāh caused them to taste the attire of hunger and fear." These people never appreciated Allāh's bounties. In addition to this, "Indeed messengers came to them from their midst, but they denied them, because of which a punishment afflicted them while they were oppressive." Allāh cited the example as a warning to the people of Makkah.

Other commentators maintain that the similitude referred to Makkah itself. Allāh sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to them, who was from the Quraysh themselves. Allāh had made Makkah such a town that all in it were safeguarded, even though people were being killed in the nearby vicinity. Allāh says in Surah Ankabūt, "Do they not see that We have made the Haram peaceful, whereas people are being ravaged around them? Do they believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for Allāh's bounties?" [Surah 29, verse 67]

The people of Makkah also received an abundance of provision from near and abroad. Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "Have We not granted them a peaceful Haram, to which the fruit of everything is attracted as a provision from us? However, most of them have no knowledge." [Surah 28, verse 57]

The people of Makkah denied the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and persecuted him until he was forced to leave his beloved hometown where his forefathers Sayyidina Ibrahim and Isma'il عليه السلام settled. Even after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم migrated, the polytheists continued to harass him. Eventually the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allāh against them and he instructed all the tribes that accepted Islām not to supply Makkah with food.

As a result of this, the Makkans became so starved that they were forced to eat burnt bones and carrion. They were so emaciated that they saw only smoke when they looked at the sky. They suffered in this condition for seven years. In addition to this they also suffered great fear for the Muslims.

Eventually they sent a message to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم telling him that he was one who always maintained good family relations and that he should not allow the women and children to suffer with his enemies. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then permitted grains to be sent to Makkah and himself sent supplies to them.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" and Allāma Qurtubi have stated that the town referred to in the above verse is Makkah. Allāh cited their example as a lesson to mankind at large.

It is learnt from this verse that ingratitude causes bounties to be lost. This was also mentioned in the commentary of the verse where Allāh announces, "If you show gratitude, then I will definitely give you more, and if you are ungrateful, then indeed My punishment is severe." [Surah Ibrahim (14), verse 7]

Note: In the above verse Allāh speaks of the "attire" of fear and hunger. Commentators mention that the reason for this is that these people were previously inundated with bounties, as if they were clothed in them. However, after their ingratitude, they were now so much afflicted with starvation and fear that it seemed as if they were clothed with this misfortune. It was as if they changed their clothing. However, since this change of attire was not voluntary, Allāh says that He "caused them to taste the attire of hunger and fear."

Allāh describes the affliction as a "taste" because He assimilates the change of situations as bitter food that is given to someone to taste. Just the taste thereof is sufficient to alter the person's disposition. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 14 p.243]

فَكُلُوا مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ حَلَالًا طَيِّبًا وَاشْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ إِن كُنتُمْ إِيَّاهُ
تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿١١٤﴾ إِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةَ وَالدَّمَ وَلَحْمَ الْخِزْيِرِ وَمَا أَهْلَ لِعَيْرِ
اللَّهِ بِهِ ۖ فَمَنْ اضْطُرَّ غَيْرَ بَاغٍ وَلَا عَادٍ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١٥﴾

(114) So eat from the pure and lawful things that Allāh has provided for you, and be grateful for Allāh's bounty if you worship Him only. (115) Allāh has forbidden for you only carrion, blood, the flesh of swine and what has been slaughtered for any other besides Allāh. As for him who is driven by necessity, then (he may eat of it) neither rebelliously, nor transgressing the limits, for verily Allāh is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful.

EAT FROM THE SUSTENANCE PROVIDED BY ALLĀH, BE GRATEFUL AND ABSTAIN FROM THE FORBIDDEN

Allāh instructs, "So eat from the pure and lawful things that Allāh has provided for you, and be grateful for Allāh's bounty if you worship Him only." Allāh has mentioned worship here because expressing gratitude to Allāh is also a form of worship. Perfect worship is impossible without showing gratitude to Allāh.

"Allāh has forbidden for you only carrion, blood, the flesh of swine and what has been slaughtered for any other besides Allāh. As for him who is driven by necessity, then (he may eat of it) neither rebelliously (i.e. without deriving pleasure from it), nor transgressing the limits (by eating more than what will merely sustain life), for verily Allāh is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." In this case he will not be sinful.

The same words have appeared with a slight modification in verse 173 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2). Verse 3 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5) also contains mention of the forbidden foods. One should refer to the details mentioned in these two verses. The word "only" (as mentioned before) does not mean that these are the only unlawful (Harām) foods. Many others have been mentioned in other verses of the Qur'ān and in the Ahadīth.

وَلَا تَقُولُوا لِمَا تَصِفُ أَلْسِنَتُكُمُ الْكَذِبَ هَذَا حَلَالٌ وَهَذَا حَرَامٌ لِّتَفْتَرُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ
الْكَذِبَ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَفْتَرُونَ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ لَا يُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١١٦﴾ مَتَّعٌ قَلِيلٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ
أَلِيمٌ ﴿١١٧﴾ وَعَلَى الَّذِينَ هَادُوا حَرَمًا مَا قَصَصْنَا عَلَيْكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَمَا ظَلَمْنَاهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا
أَنفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿١١٨﴾

(116) With regard to the false claims made by your tongues, do not say, "This is lawful (Halāl)" and "This is unlawful (Harām)," so as to invent lies against Allāh. Indeed those who invent lies against Allāh will never be successful. (117) A paltry asset. And theirs shall be a torturous punishment. (118) We have forbidden for the Jews the things that We have related to you before. We did not oppress them, but they oppressed themselves.

ONLY ALLĀH RESERVES THE RIGHT TO MAKE THINGS LAWFUL (HALĀL) AND UNLAWFUL (HARĀM)

It was common among the polytheists Arabs to declare certain things unlawful (Harām) and other things Lawful (Halāl) as and when they pleased. Mention has already been made of these details in verse 103 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5) and verses 138 and 139 of Surah Ān'ām (Surah 6).

In the above verse Allāh warns that people cannot merely declare things to be Lawful (Halāl) or unlawful (Harām) as they please. Doing so will constitute lying against Allāh because only He reserves the right to declare anything Lawful (Halāl) or unlawful (Harām). Allāh says, 'indeed those who invent lies against Allāh will never be successful.'

The benefits that they receive in this world from making such claims and by disobeying Allāh are indeed "A paltry asset." After the expiry of these short-lived assets "theirs shall be a torturous punishment" in the Hereafter.

"We have forbidden for the Jews the things that We have related to you before." The details of these have passed in verse 146 of Surah Ān'ām (Surah 6), where Allāh says, "We forbade every clawed animal upon the Jews. From among cattle and goats, We forbade for them the fat of the two, excluding what is carried by the back, the entrails and what is attached to the bones. This was the punishment We gave them as retribution for their rebellion, and undoubtedly We are truthful."

Details of this can also be found in the commentary of verse 160 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), where Allāh says, "Because of the oppression of the Jews, We forbade them from the pure things that were permissible for them; and because of their excessive prevention from the path of Allāh..."

Since this was a punishment for the deeds that they perpetrated, Allāh says, "We did not oppress them, but they oppressed themselves."

ثُمَّ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لِلذَّيِّبِ عَمِلُوا الشَّوْءَ بِجَهْلَةٍ ثُمَّ تَابُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَأَصْلَحُوا إِنَّ
رَبَّكَ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١٩﴾

(119) Then verily your Lord is certainly Most Forgiving and Most Merciful to those who ignorantly committed evil and then repent afterwards and make amends.

ALLĀH ACCEPTS REPENTANCE AND FORGIVES

While the previous verses contained warnings against engaging in various evils, the above verse promises forgiveness for those who will repent for their sins. Allāh will forgive those who sinned out of foolishness, as well as those disbelievers (kuffār) who repent and accept Islām.

إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ كَانَ أُمَّةً قَانِتًا لِلَّهِ حَنِيفًا وَلَمْ يَكُ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿١٢٠﴾ شَاكِرًا لِنِعْمَةِ
أَجَبْتُهُ وَهَدَيْتُهُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿١٢١﴾ وَمَآ تَيْتُهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَإِنَّمَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ لَمِنْ
الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٢٢﴾ ثُمَّ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ أَنْ اتَّبِعْ مِلَّةَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ حَنِيفًا وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ
الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ السَّبْتُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ
لَيَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿١٢٤﴾

(120) Ibrahim was certainly a great leader, obedient, aloof from all religion's (D'īn's) and attuned to only one. He was not from the idolaters. (121) He was grateful for Allāh's favours. Allāh chose him and guided him on the straight path. (122) We granted him good in this world and he shall be from the righteous in the Hereafter. (123) Then We sent revelation to you that "Follow the religion (D'īn) of Ibrāhīm that is averse to all other religion's (D'īn's). He was not from the idolaters." (124) Reverence of the Sabbath was ordained only for those who differed about it. Undoubtedly your Lord will decide between them on the Day of Judgement concerning the matters about which they differed.

THE NOBLE QUALITIES OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND THE COMMAND TO FOLLOW HIS RELIGION (D'ĪN)

The Qur'ān mentions Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام in numerous verses. In propagating oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), He endured many hardships for the sake of Allāh. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "When his Lord tried Ibrāhīm with certain words, which he fulfilled. Allāh said, "I am to make you a leader for the people." [Surah 2, verse 124]

Allāh granted him Prophethood, a few scriptures and made him the father of all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام who came after him, and they all adhered to the broad principles of his religion (D'īn). Even the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was from his progeny and he is commanded, "Then We sent revelation to you that 'Follow the religion (D'īn) of Ibrāhīm that is averse to all other religion's (D'īn's). He was not from the idolaters."

It for this reason that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام is regarded as the leader and Imām of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام after him. His creed was that of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and submission to Allāh, and every Prophet has propagated this belief.

Allāh says in Surah Baqarah that the person who does not follow his creed is most foolish. Allāh says, in verses 130 and 131 of Surah Baqarah, "Only the one who makes a fool of himself will turn away from the creed of Ibrāhīm. We undoubtedly selected him in this world and he will be amongst the righteous in the Hereafter. When his Lord told him, 'Submit'. He replied, "I submit to the Lord of the universe."

Presently, the religious practices of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام are only found in the religion (D'īn) of Islām and the only caller to it is Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. All vices, be it polytheism (shirk), immorality, corruption, etc are all to be found among those who turn away from this creed of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Although sinful Muslims are to be found, they sin with the knowledge that they are sinning, and will repent sooner or later.

The Hajj, Umrah, Saī, sacrifices of animals and circumcision are practices from the creed of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام that were propagated by the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

The verse under discussion also describes Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام as "obedient" The Arabic equivalent of this word used in the verse may also denote the meaning of a devout worshipper that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was neither a Jew nor a Christian, but he was one abiding to the truth and subservient, never from the idolaters. Verily those closest to Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام are the ones who followed him and this Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, as well as those who believe. Allāh is the Protecting Friend of the believers." [Surah 3, verses 67, 68]

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام is described in numerous verses as being "hanāf." Imām Rāghib رحمه الله explains this word to mean that he was averse to deviation and inclined towards the truth.

"Durrul Manthūr" (v. 1 p.140) reports from the "Musnad" of Ahmad and "Adabul Mufrid" that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked which religion (D'in) was most beloved to Allāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that it was that religion (D'in) which is averse to falsehood, imbued with the truth and that is not difficult to practise (i.e. Islām).

The Jews and the Christians claim their affiliation to Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام. This cannot be so because they perpetrate polytheism (shirk), whereas Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام was never a polytheist. This fact is attested in Surah Baqarah, Surah Āl Imrān as well as the above verse (123) of Surah Nahl. The verses of Surah Āl Imrān clearly refute the affiliation that the polytheists claimed with Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام.

Further describing Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, Allāh says, "He was grateful for Allāh's favours." This verse serves to remind the people of Makkah that they should also act in a similar way since he was their forefather who was the founder of their city and prayed for their provisions.

"Allāh chose him and guided him on the straight path." Every bounty, even guidance and leadership is from Allāh only. Allāh grants these to whomsoever He wills. Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Allāh selects messengers from the angels and from mankind. [Surah 22, verse 75]

Allāh says about Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, "Thereafter his Lord chose him, accepted his repentance and made him steadfast on guidance." In Surah Yusuf, Sayyidina Ya'qub عليه السلام told his son Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, "In this manner has your Lord chosen you, taught you the interpretation of dreams."

Allāh told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "Allāh said, "O Mūsa, indeed I have chosen you from the people for My message and My speech. So take what I have given you and be of the grateful ones." Addressing the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Strive for Allāh with the endeavour that is His right. He has chosen you and has not placed any hardship upon in religion (D'in)." Everything is from Allāh and He is not compelled to grant anything to anyone. All that man receives is from His infinite grace and munificence.

"We granted him good in this world..." According to certain commentators, this refers to good conditions and good traits. Some maintain that it refers to all bounties, while others say that the reference is to good and pious offspring. Yet another group states that the verse refers to Prophethood, while others say that it refers to the acceptance of a supplication (du'ā) that he made to Allāh saying, "And maintain a favourable word for me amongst those who are to come." Every religion (D'in) speaks highly of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام and, until judgment day (Qiyāmah), the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will pray for him in every Salāh when they recite the Durūd Ibrahīm.

"....and he shall be from the righteous in the Hereafter." These words have been also mentioned in verse 130 of Surah Baqarah. His inclusion in the ranks of the pious and steadfast bondsmen of Allāh denotes his high ranking in Allāh's estimation.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that everyone will be raised naked from their graves and Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام will be the first to be clothed. [Mishkāt p. 483]

According to another narration the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام will be the first to be clothed on the Day of Judgement. Allāh will say, 'Clothe my friend.' Then two white garments will be brought from Heaven (Jannah), with which he will be dressed. Thereafter I will be clothed." [Mishkāt p. 493]

VENERATION OF THE SABBATH WAS DECREED FOR THE JEWS

"Reverence of the Sabbath was ordained only for those who differed about it." The Jews were commanded not to fish on Saturdays, but they contravened the command and were punished, as mentioned in verses 65 and 66 of Surah Baqarah and in verses 163 to 166 of Surah A'rāf.

The Jews claimed that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام was a Jew and that everything that was Harām in their religion (D'in) was also Harām in the religion (D'in) of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. Allāh refutes this claim of theirs by saying that the Sabbath was ordained for them but not for Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, just as their religion (D'in) differed from that of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام in so many other ways.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه that the Jews are referred to as those who differed with regard to the Sabbath because some of them abided by Allāh's command while others did not. This interpretation agrees with the details furnished in Surah A'rāf.

Fridays have been ordained for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned with regard to Friday, "This day is greater in the sight of Allāh than the days of Eidul Adhā and Eidul Fitr." [Mishkāt p. 120]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said that there is a moment during every Friday in which any supplication (du'ā) will be accepted. [Mishkāt p. 119]

The Friday (Jum'uah) Salāh had been ordained for this day and people have been instructed to gather in masses for this Salāh. Sayyidina Abu Huraira رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "We are the last (Ummah) to appear (on earth) but will be the first on the Day of Judgement [i.e. the first to be admitted into Heaven (Jannah)]. The only difference between the previous Ummahs and us is that they have been given divine scriptures before us. There is this day in which they differed, but Allāh guided us to it (by stipulating Fridays for us). Now other people are our followers. The Jews have adopted tomorrow (Saturday) and the Christians, the day after (Sunday)." [Bukhari v. 1 p.120]

The commentators of hadith have mentioned that Allāh instructed the previous Ummahs to stipulate a day in which they would devote themselves to Allāh's worship. The Jews chose Saturdays and the Christians chose Sundays.

"Undoubtedly your Lord will decide between them on the Day of Judgement concerning the matters about which they differed." Those Jews who obeyed the injunction to refrain from fishing shall be judged apart from those who perpetrated the crime on the Day of Judgement.

ادْعُ إِلَى سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحُكْمِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ الْحَسَنَةِ وَجِدِلْهُمْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِنَّ
رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَن ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ ﴿١٢٥﴾

(125) Call to the path of your Lord with wisdom and beautiful exhortation (Mow'idhatul Hasanah) and debate with them in a manner that is best. Indeed your Lord knows best who strays from His path and He knows best who the rightly guided ones are.

THE ETIQUETTE OF PROPAGATION

"Call to the path of your Lord with wisdom and beautiful exhortation (Mow'idhatul Hasanah) and debate with them in a manner that is best." This verse contains three guidelines for propagation. Although the verse is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is intended for his entire Ummah. If the three factors are employed, then a straight thinking person will surely accept the message, be it towards belief (Imān) or towards good deeds.

The first factor is "wisdom." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has defined this as accurate speech which appeals to the soul. This speech will vary according to the nature of the audience, and the speaker should consider very carefully the matter before presenting his address. He should use various modes of communication and adopt a forgiving attitude towards what the opposite party says.

The person should comment on the rewards together with the warnings, and always speak when the occasion permits. The address should also not be too lengthy to bore the audience. If he is unsuccessful in convincing the audience the first time, he should bide his time to seize another appropriate opportunity. The second time round, he should be more accommodating and gentle. Allāh instructed Sayyidina Mūsa and Hārūn عليهما السلام when He sent them to Fir'aun, "Speak to him in kind and gentle words so that he may take heed or fear (Me)."

However, the speaker may also be severe when the occasion demands it, like when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed Sayyidina Mu'ādh bin Jabal رضي الله عنه sternly when he prolonged the Isha Salāh. Of course, this should be adopted only when addressing the "converted". The speaker should take care not to adopt harsh words merely to appease his personal feelings, but this should be done with the welfare of the audience in mind. Therefore, he must be a well-wisher of the people. Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام told his people, "I am surely a trustworthy advisor to you."

A wise preacher should also present the religion (D'in) as a simple procedure for people so that they are not distanced from it. Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Adopt an easy approach and do not be difficult. Convey glad tidings and do not cause resentment."

[Bukhari v. 1 p.12]

Many people have the desire to express the truth but do not choose the appropriate moment and correct mode of address. They feel that they have done a good deed, but really do not benefit the addressee. Instead they cause harm by making the person more stubborn and adamant.

Of course, the truth must be voiced when it is being suppressed. On such an occasion, it will not be necessary to be gentle. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the best Jihād is to voice the truth before a tyrant. [Sharhus Sunnah]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه used to address people every thursday. When the people expressed the wish to be addressed everyday, he said, "I do not address you everyday because of the fear of boring you. I wish to address you when you show interest, just as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would address us according to the occasion so that we would not grow weary." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 12]

One of the demands of wisdom is also that people should not be told such things that they cannot understand or that they may find strange, even though it may be a true fact. People should be taught gradually until they are able to comprehend certain facts. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه mentioned, "Inform people what they can comprehend. Do you want Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be falsified?" This means that people should not be told such things of Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they consider farfetched.

It is for this reason that Ulama maintain that a recitor (Qāri) should not recite the Qur'ān in a Qirā'ah that is unfamiliar to the people of a locality. This may cause them to think, that the recitation is incorrect, causing the falsification of an authentic Qirā'ah.

Another requirement of wisdom is that a stern attitude be adopted in public addresses, while a gentle attitude be adopted when addressing someone privately. Names of people should also not be mentioned when referring to sins. The speaker should rather say that some people are committing a certain sin. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also used to say, "What ails certain people that they do this..."

No degree of explanation can do justice to the word "wisdom." In brief, one should understand that wise speech would entail speaking in such a manner that people will accept what is being said without feeling uneasy. The audience should not be prompted to remain adamant by the speaker's words, neither should it cause resentment. When the object is to propagate the truth and the intention is sincere, Allāh will cause a person to speak in such a manner that he could not have learnt from anyone, nor read in any book.

It should also be borne in mind that it is not permissible to perpetrate unlawful (Harām) act with the intention of reforming anyone. Some people are under the misconception that they can perpetrate acts of innovation (bid'ah) or consume unlawful (Harām) wealth to win over another person with the intention of reforming him. This is incorrect and contradictory to the Shari'ah.

The second factor mentioned in the verse is calling to Allāh's path with beautiful exhortation (Mow'idhatul Hasanah). This includes encouragement and warnings, together with such incidents that soften the heart. The address should be such that it inculcates the concern for the Hereafter within the heart and prompts the audience to do good deeds and to abstain from sin. If the address causes humiliation and resentment in the hearts of the audience, then it would be considered bereft of beautiful exhortation (Mow'idhatul Hasanah).

The third prerequisite for sound da'wah (preaching) is that the preacher "debate with them in a manner that is best." This does not refer to arguments and squabbles, but to constructive and amicable debate. There will always be those who will remain stubborn and will raise all types of absurd objections and arguments. They should be tackled with tolerance and answered in a manner that stems their opposition. When their harshness is answered with gentleness, their opposition will be dissolved and they will eventually accept the truth.

This was the method of the Prophets عليهم السلام. Although they were called by all types of insulting names, they still exercised patience and spoke to people kindly, as is clear from the verses of Surah A'raf Surah Hūd and Surah Shu'arā.

Allāh says in Surah HāMim Sajdah, "Whose speech can be better than the one who calls towards Allāh, performs righteous deeds, and says. 'I am from the Muslims.' Good and evil cannot be equal. Resist with that which is best, and the one between yourself and whom there was enmity, will instantly become like your bosom friend. Only the patient ones will be inspired with this. Only the most fortunate will be inspired with this." [Surah 41, verses 33-35]

Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "When they hear futility, they turn away from it saying, 'Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours. We greet you with peace. We do not wish to converse with the ignorant.'" [Surah 28, verse 55]

The preacher should be calm and composed when addressing those who become agitated and impossible to deal with. If the preacher adopts that same mannerism, there will be, no difference between him and the disputants.

Verse 258 of Surah Baqarah recounts the incident of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام when he contested a point with the ignorant king Nimrūd. Upon prompting for a proof of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام said, "My Lord gives life and causes death." Every person understands that fact well. A man cannot even secure his own life, let alone grant life to another. Either because of lack of understanding, or merely to prolong the altercation, Nimrūd responded by saying, "I give life and cause death!" To substantiate his absurd remark, he summoned two people who had previously been sentenced to death. He had killed the one and the other released. A simple reply to this foolishness is that who was it that granted life to the person whom he apparently killed? Did Nimrūd (with regard to the second person) grant him life after death, or was it merely allowing him to continue living?

Understanding the ignorance of his adversary, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام then presented another proof to the fact that Allāh is indeed in control of the entire universe. He said, "Verily Allāh causes the sun to rise from the east, so you bring it forth from the west!" Nimrūd was totally flabbergasted upon this challenge and could not utter another word. Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام understood that it was futile convincing the king of how Allāh grants life and death, so he presented a proof that dumbfounded Nimrūd.

Another incident of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام is related in Surah Anbiya . Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام once destroyed all the idols of the polytheists. When they found their idols destroyed, they asked him whether he had done it. He told them that the largest of them had done it, so they should ask him. Eventually they admitted that the idols cannot speak. He then told them, "Do you then worship besides Allāh such things that can neither profit you, nor harm you? Shame on you and those that you worship besides Allāh! Do you not understand?"

Sayyidina Ammār bin Yāsir رضى الله عنه reports that his wife once applied saffron to his hands because they were cut. When he appeared before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and greeted him, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied to his greeting and without rebuking him, merely told him to wash off the saffron. [Mishkāt p. 381]

Another method of teaching is via an indirect message. Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم that Sayyidina Khuraim Asadi was a good person if it were not for his long hair and hanging lower garment. When the news reached Sayyidina Khuraim رضى الله عنه, he immediately cut his hair up to the ears and his garment up to the middle of the calves. [Mishkāt p. 382]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to refrain from greeting people when they perpetrated a sin, for this was the occasion to chide them. Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم noticed a dome. When he asked the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم what this was, they responded by saying that it was the house of a certain Sahabi رضى الله عنه. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم maintained silence. Later, when the same Sahabi رضى الله عنه greeted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he did not reply to the greeting. Upon enquiry, he was informed of the incident. He then broke down the building without even informing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about it.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw that the building was demolished, he asked the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم about it. They related the incident to him, whereupon he said, "Behold! Every building will be a burden for the owner except that which is necessary." [Mishkāt p. 441]

It is learnt from the above narrations that being harsh and scolding people is not the requirement of beautiful exhortation (Mow'idhatul Hasanah). This may be adopted when absolutely necessary, but most of the time one should be lenient and gentle. Being harsh and uncompromising with one's children may cause them to submit when they are young. However, once they grow older, they become stubborn and impossible to advise.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, "You should hold fast to being gentle and abstain from harshness, for indeed gentleness beautifies anything within which it is present, and anything from which it is removed will be destroyed."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "The person deprived of gentleness is deprived of all good."

Another method to correct peoples actions is by severing relations with them. However, this should be done only for a short period until they change and not indefinitely. In today's times sinners are pleased when the pious sever relations with them because they do not want to be reprimanded. For this reason it is best to maintain relations with them so that the opportunity may present itself when they could be influenced.

It has been mentioned that da'wah (preaching) is useless when the preacher cannot recognise the appropriate time and gauge the attitude of the person he is addressing.

Attaining Allāh's pleasure should be paramount in the mind of the preacher. He should never chide anyone with the intention of satisfying his personal grudge. The intention should be the person's welfare, otherwise the da'wah will be useless.

Allāh then says, 'Indeed your Lord knows best who strays from His path and He knows best who the rightly guided ones are.' This knowledge is only with Allāh. The preacher should continue in his efforts and never grow despondent. Even if others do not respond to his da'wah, he will certainly benefit in both worlds.

وَأِنْ عَاقَبْتُمْ فَعَاقِبُوا بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوقِبْتُمْ بِهِ ۚ وَلَئِنْ صَبَرْتُمْ لَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لِلصَّابِرِينَ
وَأَصْبِرْ وَمَا صَبْرُكَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ ۚ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا تَكُ فِي ضَيْقٍ مِّمَّا
يَمْكُرُونَ ﴿١٢٧﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ مُحْسِنُونَ ﴿١٢٨﴾

(126) When you claim retribution, then avenge yourself in proportion to the aggression perpetrated against you. But if you exercise patience, then this is definitely best for the patient ones. (127) Be patient.' Your patience is from Allāh only. Do not grieve over them and do not be saddened by their plotting. (128) Undoubtedly Allāh is with those who adopt piety (taqwa) and those who adopt the path of good.

THE PRINCIPLE OF RETRIBUTION AND THE VIRTUE OF PATIENCE

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that in the battle of Uhud, many of the bodies of the Muslim martyrs were mutilated by the disbelievers (kuffār). The Muslims were very much grieved over this and said that they will do the same to the disbelievers (kuffār) the next time that they clash in battle. They also undertook to mutilate their bodies and treat them like no Arab has ever done before.

One of the martyrs at Uhud was the beloved uncle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Hamzah رضى الله عنه. His body was also terribly mutilated. Upon seeing his body, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that, in the next battle, he would mutilate the bodies of seventy disbelievers (kuffār) in lieu of what they had done to his uncle. It was in response to this that Allāh revealed the above verse.

Allāh says, "When you claim retribution, then avenge yourself in proportion to the aggression perpetrated against you.” It is not permissible to extract more vengeance than what was done. However, Allāh then states, “But if you exercise patience (and do not avenge yourself), then this is definitely best for the patient Ones.”

When this verse was revealed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم declared that he would exercise patience and forget about avenging the deaths of the martyrs.

Allāh continues to say, “Be patient! Your patience is from Allāh only. Do not grieve over them and do not be saddened by their plotting. Undoubtedly Allāh is with those who adopt piety (taqwa) and those who adopt the path of good.” Since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم were imbued with these qualities, they were assured of Allāh’s assistance. Therefore Islām continued to prosper despite the efforts of the disbelievers (kuffār) to stem its tide.

PART FIFTEEN

سورة الاسراء

Makkan	Surah Al-Isra	Verses 111
--------	---------------	------------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ ۚ لَيْلًا مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَا الَّذِي
بَارَكْنَا حَوْلَهُ لِنُرِيَهُ مِنَ الْأَيْمَانِ ۚ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

In the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Pure is that Being Who transported His slave by night from Masjidul Harām to Masjidul Aqsa, the vicinity of which We have blessed, to show him Our signs. Undoubtedly, He is the All Hearing, the All Seeing.

ALLĀH TRANSPORTS THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IN A SINGLE NIGHT FROM THE MASJIDUL HARĀM TO MASJIDUL AQSA AND THEN TO THE SEVEN HEAVENS

This verse is the beginning of Surah Bani Isra'il, also termed Surah Isra because of the description of the miraculous journey of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the heavens.

Allāh says in Surah Najm that He showed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم great signs in the heavens like the Sidratul Muntahā. Surah Bani Isra'il speaks of the journey of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to Masjidul Aqsa, which is technically referred to as the "Isra" The next phase of the journey from Masjidul Aqsa to the heavens has been described in detail in the Ahadith, and is referred to as the ascension (Mi'rāj).

Allāh begins by saying, "Pure is that Being..." This phrase serves to refute the claim of many past and present sceptics who doubt the power of Allāh to transport His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to all these destinations in less than a single night. Allāh states that He is Pure from their doubts and the iniquities that they attribute to Him. Allāh has the total power to do as He pleases.

"Who transported His slave?" In this part of the verse Allāh attests to the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a true "slave" of His. The rank of being Allāh's slave is indeed a lofty and noble rank. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the most beloved names to Allāh are Abdullāh (the slave of Allāh) and Abdur Rahmān (the slave of Rahmān). ["Mishkāt" p. 409]

Once an angel came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Your Lord has conveyed Salāms to you. He has asked whether you would prefer to be a Prophet who is a slave or one who is a king?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم looked to Jibr'il عليه السلام for advice, and he advised that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم adopt humility. Thereupon, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he preferred being a Prophet who is a slave.

The narrator of this Hadith, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, says that thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never leaned on a pillow while eating and would say, "I eat like a slave eats and sit like a slave sits." ["Mishkāt" p.521]

One of the reasons for using the word "slave" is that no one should ever be deceived into believing that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was any more than Allāh's slave because of the fact that he ascended to such heights. They should never think that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was like Allāh in any way, nor a member of Allāh's family, like the Christians and other Polytheists think of others.

The "Masjidul Harām" refers to the mosque (Masjid) that surrounds the Ka'ba. The word is also sometimes used for the entire area adjacent to the Ka'ba, usually referred to as the Haram.

"Masjidul Aqsa" refers to the mosque (Masjid) at Baitul Muqaddas in Jerusalem. The word "Aqsa" literally means something that is extremely far. This mosque (Masjid) is called the Masjidul Aqsa because, according to some, it is far from the people of Hijāz (the area where Madinah and Makkah are situated). Others say that it has this name because it is 'the furthest of the three mosques (Masjids) that should be visited (it lies at 40 day's camel journey from the Masjidul Harām). Others say that it has this name because it is far removed from impurities and filth.

Describing Masjidul Aqsa, Allāh says, "..... the vicinity of which We have blessed...." From a religious perspective, the Masjidul Aqsa has been blessed because it was a place of worship for all the Prophets عليهم السلام and it was also their Qibla. It is also blessed because it is one of the three Masjids which our Shari'ah permits us to specially undertake a journey to visit. There are also many Prophets عليهم السلام buried all around it. From a worldly perspective it is blessed because it is situated in a fertile land that abounds with rivers and vegetation.

Allāh says that he took the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on this journey "to show him Our signs." Allāh's power can be witnessed from the fact that He took the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in such a short while across a vast tract of land and then to the heavens where he met so many Prophets عليهم السلام.

"Undoubtedly, He is the All Hearing, the All Seeing." Allāh hears all du'ās (supplications) and He is able to protect one in the darkness of the night when none other can see ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"].

It is the belief of the Ahlus Sunnah wal Jama'ah that Allāh took the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم physically in a conscious state from the Masjidul Harām to the Masjidul Aqsa. From there Allāh took him on a tour of the seven heavens and then returned him to Makkah. All this transpired in a single night.

A DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE ASCENSION (MI'RĀJ)

We will first quote the hadith of Muslim concerning ascension (Mi'rāj) because it contains mention of the journey from the Masjidul Harām to Masjidul Aqsa (Isra). No narration of Bukhari contains this part of the journey.

MOUNTING THE BURĀQ AND LEADING THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام IN SALĀH IN MASJIDUL AQSA

Muslim reports from Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them, "The Burāq was brought to me. It was a long white animal that was larger than a donkey but smaller than a mule. Its step is as far as the eyes can see. I mounted it and it took me to Masjidul Aqsa, where I bound it to the same ring to which the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام used to bind their animals. I entered the Masjid, performed two rakāhs Salāh and then came out. Jibr'il عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام offered me two goblets, the one contained wine and the other contained milk. I drank the milk, whereupon Jibr'il عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said, 'You have chosen the natural way.'"

"We then proceeded to the heavens. On the first I met Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and on the second I met Sayyidina Isā and Yahya عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. On the third I met Sayyidina Yusuf عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, on the fourth I met Sayyidina Idris عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, on the fifth I met Sayyidina Harūn عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and on the sixth I met Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. All of them greeted me with 'Marhaba' (Welcome). Then I met Sayyidina Ibrahim عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام on the seventh heaven. He was reclining against the Baitul Ma'mūr, which is entered every day by seventy thousand angels who are never able to return to it again."

"Then I was taken to the Lote - tree (Sidratul Muntaha). There I saw that the leaves of this tree were as large as the ears of elephants and the fruits were as large as water jugs. When the Lote - tree (Sidratul Muntaha) is enveloped by the things that Allāh orders, it changes form and becomes so beautiful that no creation can describe."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه mentions that gold butterflies envelop the Lote - tree (Sidratul Muntaha). [Muslim v. 1 p.97]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم continues to say, "At that juncture Allāh revealed to me what He willed and ordained the fifty daily and nightly Salāh. As I was descending, I passed by Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. He asked me what my Lord had ordained for me. I replied that Allāh had made fifty Salāh incumbent. He told me to return to Allāh and to request that the number be reduced because my Ummah would be unable to bear this. He said that he had already experienced the Bani Isra'il"

"I returned to my Lord and requested, 'O my Lord! Lessen the number for my Ummah.' Allāh reduced the number by five. When I passed by Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and informed him that Allāh had reduced the number by five Salāh, he told me to go back and ask for a further reduction since my Ummah will not be able to offer so many. I then went to and forth until the number was reduced to five. Allāh said, 'O Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم)! These five Salāh are ordained. I shall confer the reward of ten Salāh for every one of these so that they total the reward of fifty Salāh. Whoever intends a good deed will receive the reward of it without performing it. Whoever will perform the deed will receive the reward of ten deeds. However, when a person intends an evil deed, this intention will not be regarded as a sin. When he carries out the evil, only then is it recorded as a single sin."

"I then returned and, when I informed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام that the number had been reduced to five, he told me to return to Allāh for a further reduction. This time I told him that I was too ashamed to return to Allāh so many times." [v. 1 p.91]

Muslim (v. 1 p.96) reports another narration from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه, in which it is mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم found himself among all the Prophets عليهم السلام in Masjidul Aqsa. When the time came for Salāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led the Prophets عليهم السلام in Salāh. When the Salāh was over, someone told him to meet the doorkeeper of Hell. Before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could greet him, he already greeted with Salām.

According to a narration of Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه reported in "Ibn Kathīr" (v. 3 p.6) from Ibn Abi Hātim, it is narrated that all the people gathered in Masjidul Aqsa formed rows after the adhān was given. As they all waited for an Imām to lead the Salāh, Jibr'il عليه السلام took the hand of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and led him to the front to lead the Salāh. After the Salāh, Jibr'il عليه السلام asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم if he knew who the people gathered there were. When he replied in the negative, Jibr'il عليه السلام told him that they were all the Prophets عليهم السلام that Allāh had sent on earth. Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Jibr'il عليه السلام proceeded to the heavens.

THE DETAILS OF ASCENSION (MI'RĀJ) ACCORDING TO THE NARRATION OF BUKHARI

Bukhari has reported the incident of ascension (Mi'rāj) from Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه, who narrated from Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضي الله عنه and, at times, from Sayyidina Malik bin Sa'sa'ah رضي الله عنه.

Narrating from Sayyidina Mālik رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that he was near the Ka'ba in a state of semi-consciousness. Three people came to him with a golden tray filled with wisdom and Belief (Imān). They cut open his chest, washed it with the water of Zam Zam and then filled it with the wisdom and Belief (Imān) from the tray. They then closed the chest and brought a white animal that was larger than a donkey, but smaller than a mule.

THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ IS TAKEN TO THE HEAVENS, THE DOORS ARE OPENED AND HE MEETS THE HOLY PROPHETS WHO GREET HIM WITH WELCOME (MARHABA)

According to this narration of Bukhari, The Holy Prophet ﷺ stated that Jibr'il ﷺ took him to the nearest heaven and requested the doorkeeper to open. The doorkeeper asked who was with him. He replied that Muhammad ﷺ was with him. The doorkeeper then asked whether the Holy Prophet ﷺ was sent for. When Jibr'il ﷺ replied in the affirmative, the doorkeeper exclaimed, "Marhaba!" and opened the door. It was also said that the arrival was indeed blessed.

As they ascended further they met Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. The Holy Prophet ﷺ greeted him and he replied, "Marhaba (Welcome) to a son and the Holy Prophet!"

They then proceeded to the second heaven, where the same procedure of entry was followed by Jibr'il ﷺ. When they entered this heaven, they met Sayyidina Isā and Yahya عليهما السلام. They greeted by saying, "Marhaba to you, a brother and the Holy Prophet!" In a like manner they then ascended to the third heaven, where they met Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. He also greeted the Holy Prophet ﷺ by saying, "Marhaba to you, a brother and the Holy Prophet!"

Next they reached the fourth heaven in the same manner, where they met Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام. When the Holy Prophet ﷺ greeted him he also replied by saying, "Marhaba to you, a brother and the Holy Prophet!"

To enter the fifth heaven, Jibr'il ﷺ had to repeat the formalities and, when the door was opened, they met Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام. He also replied to the greeting of the Holy Prophet ﷺ by saying, "Marhaba to you, a brother and the Holy Prophet!"

Upon reaching the sixth heaven in a like manner, they met Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, who also greeted by saying, "Marhaba to you, a brother and the Holy Prophet!" As they proceeded further, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام began to weep. When he was asked why he wept, he replied, "A young man [i.e. Muhammad ﷺ] was sent as the Holy Prophet after me and his followers to enter Heaven (Jannah) will be better than my followers." According to another narration, he said, "The followers of this Prophet who will enter Heaven (Jannah) will be more than my followers who will enter Heaven (Jannah)."

Thereafter they entered the seventh heaven in the same manner. There they met Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, who greeted the Holy Prophet ﷺ with the words, "Marhaba to a son and the Holy Prophet!" (This was how Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام greeted the Holy Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام also used the same words because the Holy Prophet ﷺ was from his progeny).

THE BAITUL MA'MŪR AND THE LOTE - TREE (SIDRATUL MUNTAHĀ)

Thereafter the Holy Prophet ﷺ came to the Baitul Ma'mūr. When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام what this was, he was told that it was the Baitul Ma'mūr, and that seventy thousand angels perform Salāh there daily. These angels never again have the opportunity to return there.

Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was taken to the Sidratul Muntahā, the fruit of which were as large as the water jugs of Hijr and the leaves were the size of elephant's ears. Emerging from the roots of the Sidratul Muntahā, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم noticed four rivers. Two were transcendental and the other two were apparent. When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام what these were, the reply was that the two transcendental rivers were of the rivers of Heaven (Jannah), while the other two were the Euphrates and the Nile rivers.

Historians write that Sayyidina Idris عليه السلام was the grandfather of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. All the progeny of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام stem from Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. Therefore, Sayyidina Idris عليه السلام also becomes the great forefather of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. If this is true, then he should also have greeted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the words, "Marhaba to a son and the Holy Prophet!" instead of the words "Marhaba to you, a brother and the Holy Prophet!" If the theory of the historians is correct then the reply to this apparent objection is that Sayyidina Idris عليه السلام chose to rather call the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by the link of brotherhood that all the Prophets عليهم السلام share by virtue of all being Prophets عليهم السلام. He could have also called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a brother as a mark of respect.

The two transcendental rivers that flowed seem to be the river of Kauthar and the river of Mercy. Both of these are subsidiaries of the Salsabil river. It is possible that the confluence of these two rivers is at another root of the Sidratul Muntahā.

The fact that the Euphrates and the Nile find their source in the heavens may be explained by assuming that the rainwater, which supplies these two with water, comes from the Sidratul Muntahā. From there it descends as rain to fill these two. [Ibn Kathīr v. 3 p. 12]

FIFTY SALĀH ARE ORDAINED AND THEY ARE THEN REDUCED TO FIVE AT THE INSISTENCE OF SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then continues to relate that fifty Salāh were made compulsory for his Ummah. Upon returning, he passed by Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, who asked what was ordained for the Ummah. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that fifty Salāhs were ordained, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said, "I know people better than you do. I exerted myself greatly with the Bani Isra'il (but they could not bear to perform so many Salāhs). Indeed your Ummah will not be able to perform so many Salāhs. Go and request your Lord for a reduction."

Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned to Allāh and the number of Salāh was reduced to 40. Again Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام repeated what he had said earlier and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned to Allāh. The number was then dropped to 30. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم again passed by Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, he entreated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

وسلم return again.

Thereafter the number was reduced to 20 and, later, to ten. When a further reduction was requested, Allāh reduced it to five. However, Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام insisted that this was also too much. When matters reached this point, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام that he was now too ashamed to return to Allāh. Thereupon Allāh announced, "I have retained the initial order and granted a concession for My bondsmen. I have multiplied the reward of a single deed tenfold (therefore the reward of five Salāh will be like that of fifty Salāh)."

The above narration appears on p. 455 of Bukhari. Another narration on p. 471 [narrated by Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه from Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه] states that after being greeted by Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, Jibr'il عليه السلام took the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to a place where they could hear the sounds of pens writing. It was after this that mention is made of the Salāh being reduced from fifty, to five. Thereafter it is mentioned that Allāh announced, "The decree that proceeds from Me shall never be altered." (i.e. The reward for fifty will still be attained).

This narration also mentions that the Sidratul Muntahā was enveloped with various colours that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could not fathom. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was then allowed to enter Jannah, where the domes were made of pearls and where musk took the place of sand.

On p. 548, Imām Bukhari رحمه الله reports a hadith from Sayyidina Mālik bin Sa'sa'ah رضى الله عنه which mentions that after witnessing the Baitul Ma'mūr, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was offered a goblet of wine, a goblet of honey and a goblet of milk. When he drank the milk, Jibr'il عليه السلام said that this was the natural way (Islām) for him and his Ummah.

This narration contains the addition that when Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to return to Allāh the last time, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I asked my Lord until I have become ashamed. Now I am content and I have accepted." [The narration of Bukhari ends here.]

TWO MORE FAVOURS BESIDES SALĀH

In addition to the favour of five Salāh that equal to fifty in reward, Allāh also bestowed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the concluding verses (285 and 286) of Surah Baqarah (from "Āmanar Rasūl" until the end of the Surah).

The other favour was the declaration that even the major sins of this Ummah will be forgiven if they abstain from polytheism (shirk). [Muslim v. 1 p.97] This means that they will be forgiven without punishment if they repent, or that they will have to suffer only a small amount of punishment before being admitted into Heaven (Jannah).

SEEING ALLĀH IN ASCENSION (MI'RĀJ)

There is a difference of opinion about whether the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allāh in ascension (Mi'rāj) or not. There is also a difference about whether the sighting was with the physical eyes or with the heart (spiritual).

The majority of the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم and the epigones (Tabi'in) are of the opinion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allāh with his physical eyes. The research scholars also share this opinion, which is voiced by Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه. However, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها refutes this.

Allāh says in Surah Najm, "... (he) then approached and drew close." Allāh also says, "He certainly saw him once more at the 'Sidratul Muntahā'. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها says that these verses refer to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم seeing Jibr'il seeing Jibr'il in his original form with 600 wings, spanning the horizons. Normally the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him in the form of a human being.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه says that Jibr'il عليه السلام is referred to in the verses of Surah Najm, where Allāh says, "..... (he) then approached and drew close. And was as close as two bows or even closer" and the verse "He definitely saw some of Allāh's great signs." [Muslim with the commentary of Imām Nawawī رحمه الله عليه, v. 1 p. 97,98]

THE DENIAL OF THE QURAYSH

Upon his return from ascension (Mi'rāj), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم chanced upon a trade caravan of the Quraysh that was returning from Syria. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم related the incident to the people the following day, they scoffed and reported the incident to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه asked them whether they were speaking the truth. They swore that this was what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had told them. Thereupon Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه said, "If he [the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] said this, then it is the truth."

When the disbelievers (kuffār) expressed surprise that he could believe this, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه told them that he believed the even more astonishing facts that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم received revelation from the skies. It was on account of this that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was given the title of "Siddique." ["Al Bidāya wan Nihāyah" v. 2 p.360]

ALLĀH DISPLAYS BAITUL MUQADDAS BEFORE THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

The Quraysh had seen Baitul Muqaddas on their journeys. They therefore asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to explain certain details of Baitul Muqaddas, like how many pillars and doors there were. At that time, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sitting in the Hatīm. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says that he was never so perplexed as he was at that time because he never thought of taking note of such details (nobody would!). However, Allāh caused the entire Baitul Muqaddas to be brought before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he was able to accurately answer all the questions posed by the Quraysh. [Muslim v. 1 p.92 and Bukhari v. 1 p.548]

Allāma Ibn Kathir رحمه الله reports '(v. 2 p.15) that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied to all the questions, the people swore that he was telling the truth.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also told the people that when he was going to Baitul Muqaddas, he passed by a certain caravan. He told them that these people had lost a camel and were searching for it. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them where their camel was before proceeding further. He mentioned that when he was returning, he passed them again while they were asleep at a place called Sahnān. There was a utensil of water with them that was covered with a lid of some sort. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he removed the lid and drank some water, after which he replaced the lid in exactly the same manner as they had done. (Arabs normally do not object to someone taking something trivial like water without permission).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Quraysh that this caravan would soon be emerging from a valley of Tan'im. He described to them the colour of the leading camel and added that it will be carrying two satchels, one being black and the other white. The people rushed to Tan'im to see whether the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was truthful. When they got there they saw the exact scene as described by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

They then asked the people of the caravan whether they had kept water in a utensil that night. They replied that they had covered their utensil of water in a certain manner, but found later that it was covered in the same manner with the water missing. They then asked the people of the caravan whether any of their camels had strayed away. They replied that one of their camels had done so, but that they heard a person guiding them to a particular direction where they found their camel.

According to certain narrations, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even greeted the caravan with Salām and some of them said that it was the voice of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

SOME OTHER THINGS WITNESSED ON ASCENSION (MI'RĀJ)

There were other things that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw while on ascension (Mi'rāj). These have been enumerated by Imām Bayhaqī رحمه الله عليه in "Dalā'ilun Nabuwwa" (v. 2), by Hāfiz Nūrud Dīn Haythamī رحمه الله عليه in "Majmauz Zawā'id" (v. 1), by Allāma Muhammad bin Muhammad Sulaymān Al Maghribī رحمه الله عليه in "Jam'ul Fawā'id" (v. 3), by Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه in his exegesis (tafsīr) and by Allāma Ibn Hishām رحمه الله عليه in his "Sirah" (biography) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Some of these have already been mentioned and others are narrated below. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام performing Salāh in his grave: Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When I was taken on ascension (Mi'rāj), I passed by the grave of Sayyidina Mūsā رضى الله عنه. He was performing Salāh there." [Muslim 'v. 2 p.3 68]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw people whose lips were being cut with scissors: Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه also reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that he passed by some people whose lips were being cut with scissors of fire. 'When he asked! Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were those lecturers of his Ummah who used to enjoin others to do good but forgot (to do good) themselves. According to another narration, he said that they were those lecturers who did not practise what they instructed others to. ["Mishkāt" p. 438]

People who scrape their chests with their nails: Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that on the night of ascension (Mi'rāj) he saw people whose nails were of copper. They were busy lacerating their faces and their chests with their nails. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were those who ate the flesh of people (i.e. they engaged in backbiting) and they sought to defame people. ["Mishkāt" p. 429]

The terrible plight of the usurers: Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that on the night of ascension (Mi'rāj) he saw people whose stomachs were the size of dwellings. In there were snakes that were visible from the outside, 'Then he asked Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were those who consumed usury. ["Mishkāt" p. 246]

People whose skins are cut with scissors: Sayyidina Rāshid bin Sa'd رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went for ascension (Mi'rāj) he saw that the skins of certain people were being cut with scissors of fire. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were those who beautified themselves for fornication. He then passed by a pit that emitted a terribly foul odour. Heinous screams came from there. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that these were those women who adorned themselves for adultery and committed those acts that were unlawful (Harām) for them. ["At Targhib wat Tarhib" v. 3 p. 51]

A Devil (Shaytān) chases the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم: Yahya bin Sa'id رحمه الله عليه reports in the "Mu'atta" of Imām Mālik رضى الله عنه that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was taken on ascension (Mi'rāj), a Devil (Shaytān) began to chase him with a spark of flame in his hands. Wherever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم looked, he could see the Devil (Shaytān). Jibr'il عليه السلام told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, 'Should I not teach you certain words by which his flame will be extinguished and he will fall on his face?' 'When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked to be informed Jibr'il عليه السلام recited the following words:

{TRANSLATION: "With Allāh's munificent countenance and with His complete words that no good or evil being can evade, I seek protection from the evil that descends from the sky, the evil that ascends to it, the evil that enters the earth, the evil that emerges from it, the tribulations of the night and day and from the tidings of the night and day except the tidings of good, O the Most Merciful!"}

The angels encourage the cupping of blood: Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that during the ascension (Mi'rāj) the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was encouraged by every group of angels that he passed [to instruct his Ummah to cup blood? ['Mishkat" p.389]

The cupping of blood was common among the Arabs, and even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had blood cupped from between his shoulders and from his head. This is a very effective cure for high blood pressure, a disease that is common today.

The reward of the Mujāhidīn: Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه relates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw on the night of ascension (Mi'rāj) that certain people were planting seeds and harvesting them on the same day. 'When they harvested; the plants again reappeared 'When he asked? Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that these were those who strove in Allāh's way. Their rewards, he said; will be multiplied by seven hundred and they will receive the rewards of everything they spend?

The heads of some people are crushed with a rock: Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed by people whose heads were being repeatedly crushed by a rock. Their heads regained their natural form after every strike. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that these were the people who were lazy to perform their Salāh. 'They slept without performing their Salāh.

The terrible plight of those who do not pay zakāh: Then they passed by people who had only rags wrapped around their private parts. They were grazing like camels and cows on the thorny foul trees and stones of hell (Jahannam). 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were those who did not pay the zakah due on their wealth.

Those eating rotten meat: The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also passed by a group of people before whom was a pot of cooked meat and another pot rotting uncooked meat. They were all eating from the pot of rotten meat. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that these were those men of his 'Ummah who fornicate the entire night with adulterous and licentious women while they have lawful wives at home. He also said that these were women who indulged in adultery with other fornicating men while they had lawful husbands.

The person carrying a large bundle of firewood: The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also passed by a person who was confronted with an extremely large bundle of firewood that he could not carry, but wanted it to be still larger. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who this person was, the reply was that he was the person who had the trusts of people with him. He could not fulfil the trusts that he had with him, but still wanted to accept more.

A bull trying to squeeze into a small hole: Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed by a small hole from which an extremely large bull emerged. 'The bull then attempted to return into the hole. 'When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who this was, the reply was that he was the person who uttered an evil word (of sin). He then regretted the utterance and attempted to retract it, which is impossible.

'The fragrance of Heaven (Jannah): Then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed by a fragrant valley from which emanated the fragrance of musk, and some sounds. 'When he asked about the place, Jibr'il عليه السلام said that this was Heaven (Jannah). It was calling out to Allāh saying, 'O my Lord! Bring forth those who shall dwell in me and fulfil Your promise."

The voice of Hell: The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then passed by another valley from which a terribly guttural sound emerged. 'When he asked what place this was, Jibr'il عليه السلام replied that it was Hell calling to Allāh, "O my Lord Bring forth those who shall dwell in me and fulfil your promise." [Jam'ul Fawā'id" v.3 p. 151]

BĀBUL HAFAZAH

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the door of the first heaven is called the "Bābul Hafazah." An angel named Isma'il is appointed to this door and he has 12 000 angels at his command. Each one of these 12 000 have another 12 000 at their command. Saying this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, 'None besides Allāh knows His army.' [Fat'hul Bārī v. 7 p.209]

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم MEETS THE KEEPER OF HELL IN THE FIRST HEAVEN AND GETS A VIEW OF HELL

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reached the first heaven closest to earth, all the angels met him smilingly and prayed for him. One of them met him and prayed for him but was not smiling and happy like the others. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Jibr'il عليه السلام about him, the reply was, "He is Mālik, the keeper of Hell. If he could smile for anyone before you or after you, he would have certainly smiled to you now. This angel never smiles."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم requested Jibr'il عليه السلام to ask Mālik if he could see Hell. When Jibr'il عليه السلام told him to show Hell to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Mālik lifted the lid of Hell. Upon doing this, the fire, in its fury leapt out of the opening. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Jibr'il عليه السلام to tell Mālik to return the fire to its place. When he did so, the fire subsided and the lid was replaced. [Sirah of Ibn Hishām p.249]

MILK, HONEY AND WINE ARE OFFERED TO THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم AND HE DRINKS THE MILK

The previous narrated hadith of Muslim (p. 91) mentions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was offered the milk and wine in Baitul Muqaddas. Another narration on p. 95 by Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه mentions that this occurred at the Sidratul Muntahā. On the other hand, the narration of Bukhari reports that three goblets (the third containing honey) were presented before the Baitul Ma'mūr.

There is no discrepancy between these narrations because it is very possible that the incident occurred on all three occasions. The addition of honey in the narration of Bukhari should not surprise us since it frequently happens that one narrator may recall something that another may omit.

A narration on p. 97 of Muslim reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم drank the milk, Jibr'il عليه السلام said that had he has taken the wine, his Ummah would have gone astray. It is learnt from this that the character of a leader impacts upon the followers.

"Fat'hul Bāri" (v. 7 p.215) reports from Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه that when a child is born, the first nourishment that it receives is milk. Since every child is born as a follower of "the natural way" (Islām), this seems to be the relationship between drinking milk and the statement of Jibr'il عليه السلام, when he told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (when he drank the milk), "This is the natural way (Islām) on which you and your Ummah are."

Hakimul Ummah Thanwi رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that a close study of the Ahādīth will reveal that four drinks were presented to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These were milk, wine, honey and water. (It is also possible that the water was as sweet as honey, because of which it may be described as honey.) It should be borne in mind that wine was not yet unlawful (Harām) at the time of ascension (Mi'rāj), since it only became unlawful (Harām) in Madinah. However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not chose the wine because wine is intoxicating.

Honey is usually consumed for enjoyment, not as a source of nourishment. Therefore, it is a depiction of the pleasures of this world. Water is an aid to nourishment and not a source of nourishment in itself. Its example is like the world, that is an aid to practise religion (D'in), not religion (D'in) itself. Milk, on the other hand is a source of nourishment on its own just as religion (D'in) is the real spiritual nourishment for the soul. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم chose to drink the milk. [Fat'hul Bāri v. 7 p.2 15]

Ibn Kathir (v. 3 p.5) reports from Bayhaqi that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم drank the milk, Jibr'il عليه السلام said, "Had you drunk the water, your Ummah would have drowned (in their obsession for this world) and if you had drunk the wine, they would all have strayed from the straight path (just as a drunk person does)."

WHAT IS THE SIDRATUL MUNTAHĀ?

The Arabic word "Sidrah" means a lotus or a jujube tree. "Muntahā" means the 'limit' or 'apex' i.e. a point beyond which there is nothing more. According to a narration of Muslim, the tree has been named as such because all the commands of Allāh from above stop at this tree and all the actions of people ascending from below also stop here. All these stop here first before proceeding further.

It has already been mentioned that no creation can describe the beauty of this tree when it is covered by whatever Allāh wills. Another narration reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that it is covered by golden butterflies. Another hadith states that a rider can ride for a hundred years in the shadow of a single branch of this tree. Another narration states that a hundred riders can be shaded beneath it.

ENTRY INTO HEAVEN (JANNAH) AND A SIGHT OF THE RIVER OF KAUTHAR

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that when he was walking in Heaven (Jannah), he saw a river, at both ends of which stood domes of hollow pearl. When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام what this was, the reply was that it was the river of Kauthar that Allāh had granted to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says that when he looked closer, he saw that the bed of the river was pure fragrant musk. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 974]

SOME NOTES AND THE INNER WISDOM OF ASCENSION (MIR'ĀJ)

A description of the Burāq. The word "Burāq" is either derived from the word "barīq" (meaning white) or from the word "barq" (meaning lightning). It is therefore appropriately named because of its lightning speed. "Bayhaqi" (v. 2 p.390) has reported that other Prophets عليهم السلام also rode the Burāq.

The reason for the uneasiness of the Burāq. Tirmidhi reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم that the Burāq was reigned and saddled. The Burāq began to skip about, when Jibr'il عليه السلام said, "You are skipping about with Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم on your back? None more honoured and revered to Allāh than Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has ever mounted your back!" Hearing this, the Burāq broke out in a sweat and stopped its action.

A narration of "Dalā'ilun Nabuwwah" reports that Jibr'il عليه السلام twisted Burāq's ear to stop its jostling before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mounted. [v. 2 p. 355]

Certain narration reports that Jibr'il عليه السلام made a hole in a rock and bound the Burāq to it when they dismounted in Baitul Muqaddas. [Fat'hul Bāri v. 7 p.207]

Some commentators have mentioned that the Burāq behaved in this manner because none had mounted it during the long period of cessation (between Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when there were no Prophets). Now that it was mounted after a long time, it began to gleam with pride and joy. Others say that it did so because it was proud that the best and the last of the Prophets عليهم السلام was to mount it. [Fat'hul Bāri v. 7 p.207]

In a similar way the mountain of Thabir began to tremble when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه stood on it. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the mountain to remain still because the Prophet, a Siddique and two martyrs were upon it. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 542]

Allāh could have transported the Holy Prophet ﷺ without the Burāq, but He used the Burāq to show honour and respect to the Holy Prophet ﷺ. A person who is not mounted will be said to be on foot, and a mounted person is regarded to be more honourable than one who is on foot.

JIBR'ĪL عليه السلام MOUNTS WITH THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ UNTIL BAITUL MUQADDAS AND THEN TAKES THE REIGNS UP TO THE HEAVENS

Jibr'īl عليه السلام also mounted the Burāq from Masjidul Ḥarām and sat behind the Holy Prophet ﷺ. After dismounting at Baitul Muqaddas and performing Salāh there, Jibr'īl عليه السلام brought reigns that were extremely beautiful to lead the Burāq to the heavens. According to some narrations, one of the reigns was made of gold and the other of silver. Another narration reports that they were encrusted with pearls. Certain Ahadith report that there were angels on the left and the right of the two as they ascended to the heavens. [Fat'hul Bāri v. 7 p.307/8/97]

Why did the doorkeepers of the heavens ask Jibr'īl عليه السلام who was with him and whether the Holy Prophet ﷺ has been sent for? The answer to this question is that the doorkeepers expected the Holy Prophet ﷺ that night, but asked this question to enhance the honour of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and to express their happiness at his arrival. They asked who was with Jibr'īl عليه السلام to express to the Holy Prophet ﷺ that his name was known in the heavens. It was for this reason that they did not ask who Muhammad ﷺ was when Jibr'īl عليه السلام answered their query.

Another reason for these inquiries was to make the Holy Prophet ﷺ aware that he was a special guest in the heavens. It is common knowledge that when guests frequent a place, no questions are asked at the door. However, when guests are specially sent for, it denotes their noble status and honour. None before the Holy Prophet ﷺ and none after him have ever received the honour of ascension (Mi'rāj).

When a guest knocks at the door and is questioned, the inhabitants of the place pay particular attention to the arrival. Here the same was done so that all the inhabitants of the heavens take cognisance of the arrival of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and so that he does not pass by unnoticed.

Because the purpose of ascension (Mi'rāj) was not to meet all the inhabitants of the heavens, the angels merely greeted the Holy Prophet ﷺ as he passed by them on the way to the seventh heaven. When a notable guest arrives in any country, a welcoming committee is formed to receive him. Every person rushes to be first so that they can receive the opportunity to meet the person. However, in the heavens that system is so perfect that every inhabitant was able to meet the Holy Prophet ﷺ without causing any delay in the journey.

Why did Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام not request the Holy Prophet ﷺ to ask Allāh for a reduction in the number of Salāh? The Scholars (Ulama) have replied to this question by saying that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام is the friend of Allāh. The requirement of the deep affinity that had to Allāh was that he accept Allāh's decrees without question.

On the other hand, Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام was "Kalimulāh" i.e. the one to whom Allāh spoke directly. When a person has the courage to speak to another, it means that they share a bond that is more candid and spontaneous. Therefore, Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام was more able to prompt the request before Allāh.

Another reply is that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام spent most of his life propagating oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) to the polytheists and the disbelievers (kuffār). Those people who followed him were all pious and submissive people, unlike the Bani Isra'īl whom Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام had to contend with. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام had not experienced the type of people who were rebellious and negligent towards Allāh's commandments, so he could not foresee the consequences of ordaining fifty Salāh.

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام placed the welfare of the Ummah before him when he thought that they would benefit more in terms of rewards if they were to perform fifty Salāh. It was for this reason that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام even sent a message (quoted below) to the Ummah via the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the night in which he was taken for ascension (Mi'rāj), he met Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام who said to him, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! Convey my Salāms (greetings) to your Ummah and tell them that the soil of Heaven (Jannah) is excellent and the water is fine. Heaven (Jannah) is an empty ground and its plants are, "SubhānAllāhi Wal Hamdu Lilāhi Wa Lā Ilāha Illalāhu Allāhu Akbar.'" ["Mishkāt" p. 202]

These words and other actions serve to fill Heaven (Jannah). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that recitation of "Subhā NAllāhil Azīm Wa Bi Hamdihi" will cause a tree to be planted for one in Heaven (Jannah).

The heart of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is washed with the water of Zam Zam in a golden tray: In today's times none will object to the feasibility of this operation because of the widespread practice of surgery. This fact displays the virtue of Zam Zam. Although the use of golden utensils is forbidden for the Ummah, a golden tray was used by the angels in this case. It should also be borne in mind that when this incident occurred, this law had not yet been revealed. The prohibition of gold utensils was revealed in Madinah.

The fact that the heart of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was filled with Belief (Imān) and wisdom tells us that the strength of his Belief (Imān) was enhanced and he was granted the ability to perceive the events of the heavens.

THE LOFTY RANK OF SALĀH

Although all other acts of worship were ordained by Allāh in this world via Jibr'il عليه السلام, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was specially sent for by Allāh to receive the bounty of Salāh in the heavens. The Ummah was also conferred with the privilege of receiving the reward of fifty Salāh for performing only five.

On the occasion of Mi'rāj, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conversed with Allāh and, by bringing down the injunction of Salāh, he allowed the Sahabah رضى الله عنه and the Ummah at large to converse with Allāh. Since Salāh is a means of communication with Allāh, one should observe all its etiquette. One should be in state of ablution (wudhu), have clean clothes, face the Qibla, recite the Qur'ān, prostrate and make kneeling (ruku), all with complete humility and concentration. These are all postures that are not prescribed in any other act of worship.

According to certain commentators of hadith, the "Tashahhud" recited at the end of Salāh is a repetition of the words mentioned on the occasion of ascension (Mi'rāj). They say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم praised Allāh by saying, "At Tahiyyātu Lillāhi Was Salawātu Wat Tayyibāt" ("All devotions offered through words, bodily actions and wealth are due to Allāh"). Thereafter Allāh responded to this by saying, "As Salāmu Alaika Ayyuhan Nabiyyu Wa Rahmatullahi Wa Barakātu" ("Peace be upon you, O the Holy Prophet, and the mercy of Allāh and His blessings"). Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "As Salāmu Alaynā Wa Alā Ibādillahis Sālihīn" ("Peace be on us and on the righteous servants of Allāh").

Thereafter Jibr'il عليه السلام hastily declared the testification of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and Risālah by saying, "Ash Hadu Allā Ilāha Illalāhu Wa Ash Hadu Anna Muhammadan Abduhu wa Rasūluh" ("I testify that there is none worthy of worship besides Allāh and I testify that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is His servant and messenger").

Since Salāh is a conversation with Allāh, one is instructed to be attentive and place something before one so that none passes by to distract the attention. Salāh is not permissible when one has an urgent need to relieve oneself or to eat. This is so because nothing should distract one from one's attention to Allāh.

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh's attention is continuously focussed on a person in Salāh as long as the person does not deviate his attention from Allāh. When the servant diverts his attention, Allāh also diverts His attention from him."

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه also narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person is in Salāh, he should not play with the pebbles (on the ground or carry out any other futile act) because Allāh's attention is focussed on him."

THE REPLY TO THE IGNORANT OBJECTION OF THE REJECTERS AND THE IRRELIGIOUS ONES

It is the belief of the Ahlus Sunnah wal Jama'ah that all that has been mentioned above with regard to the journey of ascension (Mi'rāj) actually happened to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in a physical state and while he was conscious. However, some modernists claim that the incident could not have occurred. They say that it was all a dream.

Such ignorant people fail to understand that if it were a dream, then why did the polytheists of Makkah refute it? Allāh says in the first verse of Surah Bani Isra'il that He transported His "slave" to Masjidul Aqsa. This word indicates that both body and soul were transported. Allāh also used the word "Āsrā" which cannot be used to describe a flight in a dream, but a physical journey by night.

These people then say that is impossible for a human to breathe in the upper stratas of the atmosphere. Firstly, their theories are fallible. Then too, if they are correct, they fail to realise that Allāh has the power to do as He wills. He can cause a person to breath in a vacuum, just as well as He allows him to breath in the atmosphere. Allāh created man to be in need of oxygen. If He willed, He could have made man survive on something else, just as He created the fish to be independent of oxygen.

Some people deny the existence of the heavens. Their lack of knowledge regarding the presence of the heavens cannot be a proof to establish its absence. They seek only to falsify Allāh's Book.

The ancient philosophers claimed that there were nine heavens, while the modern philosophers claim that there are none. How can one base one's understanding on their illogical hypotheses? Allāh declares that He has created seven heavens and this is accepted as the fact. The theories of these philosophers are mere speculations that have no concrete basis and which keep changing.

Allāh is also capable of creating doors to these heavens, as He says in Surah A' rāf, "The doors of the heavens will not be opened to them." He says in Surah Naba, "The skies will be opened and become like doors."

Surah Infitār, Surah Inshiqāq and other Surahs also explain how the heavens will be torn on the Day of Judgement, disclaiming the theory of those who say that the skies cannot be ruptured.

Prior to the invention of modern means of transport, people doubted that anyone could travel such a great distance in so short a time. Nowadays this doubt has become obsolete, and the journey can well be imagined.

Allāh's power is infinite. As He granted man the ability to develop fast modes of transport, He continues to allow them to develop even faster transportation every day. Allāh says in Surah Nahl with regard to means of transportation, "He creates such things which you have no knowledge." [Surah 16, verse 8]

These people should be asked what is the speed at which the earth rotates and travels across the solar system? They should be asked what is the speed of the light that Allāh has created? They accept these speeds to be phenomenal, yet they deny Allāh's power to transport a person in a night!

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was described the speed of the Burāq as being able to place his next as far as he can see. Assuming that his vision reached a hundred miles, he would have reached Masjidul Aqsa and return in less than twenty minutes.

The true believer (Mu'min) believes and accepts without question whatever Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم tell them.

وَأَتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ هُدًى لِّبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ أَلَّا تَتَّخِذُوا مِن دُونِي وَكِيلًا
ذُرِّيَّةً مِّن حَمَلِنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا عَبْدًا شَكُورًا ﴿٣﴾ وَقَضَيْنَا إِلَىٰ بَنِي

إِسْرَءِيلَ فِي الْكِتَابِ لِنَفْسِدَنَّ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَّتَيْنِ وَلَنَعْلُنَ عُلُوًّا كَبِيرًا ﴿٢﴾ فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ أُولَاهُمَا بَعَثْنَا عَلَيْكُمْ عِبَادًا لَنَا أُولَى بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ فَجَاسُوا خِلَالَ الدِّيَارِ وَكَانَ وَعْدًا مَفْعُولًا ﴿٣﴾ ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَا لَكُمُ الْكَرَّةَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَأَمْدَدْنَاكُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ وَبَنِينَ وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ أَكْثَرَ نَفِيرًا ﴿٤﴾ إِنَّ أَحْسَنْتَ أَحْسَنَتْهُ لِنَفْسِكُمْ وَإِنْ أَسَأْتُمْ فَلَهَا فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ الْآخِرَةِ لِيَسْتَوُوا وُجُوهَكُمْ وَلِيَدْخُلُوا الْمَسْجِدَ كَمَا دَخَلُوهُ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَلِيُتَبَرَّأُوا مَا عُلُوًّا تَبَيَّرًا ﴿٥﴾ عَسَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ أَنْ يَرْحَمَكُمُ وَإِنْ عُثِرْتُمْ عُدْنَا وَجَعَلْنَا جَهَنَّمَ لِلْكَافِرِينَ حَصِيرًا ﴿٦﴾

(2) We granted Mūsa the Book and made it a guidance for the Bani Isra'īl (instructing them) "Do not take another besides Me as a helper." (3) O the progeny of those whom We boarded with Nūh (on the ark)! He was indeed a grateful slave. (4) We announced to the Bani Isra'īl in the Book, "You will certainly cause strife on earth twice and you will reach to towering heights." (5) "When the promise of the first of the two comes, We will send to you such slaves of Ours who will be great warmongers, and they will barge into homes. This is a promise that will be fulfilled." (6) "Thereafter We will restore your authority over them, reinforce you with wealth and children, and greatly multiply your numbers." (7) "If you do good, you will be doing good for yourselves and if you do evil it will be to your detriment. When the second promise will come (We will permit your enemies) to distort your faces, to enter the Masjid as they entered the first time, and to destroy everything they are able to." (8) "The time is nigh that your Lord will have mercy on you. But if you repeat (your actions) We shall repeat (the way-in which you were treated). We have made Hell a prison for the disbelievers."

THE BANI ISRA'ĪL CAUSE CORRUPTION ON EARTH TWICE AND THEIR ENEMIES DESTROY THEM

The above verses also prove the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because he could not have known the incidents contained in the Qur'ān without receiving them directly from Allāh. These are narratives concerning the Bani Isra'īl and serve as a reminder and advice to them. However, they still chose to reject the truth. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "when what they recognise comes to them, they deny it. Allāh's curse is on the disbelievers." [Surah 2, verse 89]

Allāh says in the above verses, "We granted Mūsa the Book (Torah) and made it a guidance for the Bani Isra'īl (instructing them) 'Do not take another besides Me as a helper.'" The Bani Isra'īl acted against the injunctions of the Torah and were made to suffer the consequences in this world as well. They were defeated and disgraced on numerous occasions by their enemies.

Before describing the incident, Allāh reminds them of His favour upon them. Allāh says, "O the progeny of those whom We boarded with Nūh (on the ark)!"

By addressing them in this manner, Allāh reminds them that they are from those who were saved from being drowned in the flood. Allāh then says concerning Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, "Indeed he was a grateful slave." Therefore the Bani Isra'īl should emulate their forefather in this respect and express their gratitude to Him by carrying out His commands and following the final Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"We announced to the Bani Isrā'īl in the Book (in the Torah or in one of their previous booklets), 'You will certainly cause strife on earth [in Syria (Shām)] twice and you will reach to towering heights.'"

Describing the first time that they caused strife by oppressing people and opposing Allāh's commands, Allāh says, "When the promise of the first of the two comes, We will send to you such slaves of Ours who will be great warmongers, and they will barge into homes. This is a promise that will be fulfilled. Thereafter We will restore your authority over them, reinforce you with wealth and children, and greatly multiply your numbers."

The details of this occasion have been mentioned in the books of history, while the Ahādīth are silent about this incident. These stories find their source from the Bani Isra'īl themselves and their authenticity cannot be verified.

WHO DESTROYED THE BANI ISRA'ĪL?

Four names have been quoted in reply to the above question. These are (1) Bukht Nasr (Nebuchadnezzar), (2) Jālūt (Goliath), (3) Khardūsh and (4) Sanjarib. There also exists a difference with regard to who destroyed them the first time and who did so the second time.

After much deliberation, the author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" writes that Bukht Nasr (Nebuchadnezzar) was the first to vanquish the Bani Isra'īl, and the second conqueror was Khardūsh. He writes that the second conquest was more decisive than the first, after which the Greeks established their dominion over the entire area once ruled by the Bani Isra'īl. Thereafter the Bani Isra'īl never regained their strength, but had only a stronghold in Baitul Muqaddas.

Allāh bestowed on them many favours, but they were ungrateful and continued to sin. As a result, Allāh caused the Roman emperor by the name of Taytūs bin Istaynūs to overpower them. He ravaged their city and caused them to flee, leaving it deserted. It was during the reign of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه that the Muslims entered Baitul Muqaddas and caused it to flourish once again.

Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله says that Jālūt (Goliath) conquered the Bani Isra'īl the first time and he killed, imprisoned and disgraced them. Thereafter Allāh raised Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام to kill him, after which Allāh's promise was fulfilled that "Thereafter We will restore your authority over them..."

He says that after this they again caused strife and corruption and Allāh caused Bukht Nāsr to destroy them. Thereafter Allāh had mercy on them saying, "The time is nigh that your Lord will have mercy on you. But if you repeat (your actions) We shall repeat (the way in which you were treated)." However, they again fell into Allāh's disobedience and Allāh again punished them [this was all before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم]

Allāh says in Surah Anfāl, "When your Lord declared that He will definitely raise against them (the Bani Isrā'īl) until the day of judgment (Qiyāmah) such people who will inflict them? with severe punishment." It is for this reason that the Jews always suffer at the hands of tyrants (like Hitler).

Allāh says, "If you do good, you will be doing good for yourselves and if you do evil it will be to your detriment. When the second promise will come (We will permit your enemies) to distort your faces, to enter the Masjid as they entered the first time, and to destroy everything they are able to." According to this verse, the Masjidul Aqsa was ravaged by these people and the Bani Isrā'īl were totally annihilated the second time around.

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that the Bani Isrā'īl were annihilated the first time for disregarding the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. The reason for the second annihilation was that they rejected Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام.

The incidents of the previous nations like the Bani Isrā'īl are a lesson for the Muslim Ummah. These people were destroyed because they flouted their religion's (D'in's), although they were believers. The incident of Spain and the destruction of Baghdad are described in the history books for all to read. Even the centuries old rule that the Muslims had over India was snatched away by the British and the Muslim rulers were all banished in Rangūn, where they died pitifully.

"We have made Hell a prison for the disbelievers." Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه has translated the verse to mean that Hell is a mat for the disbelievers (kuffār), like in the verse, "They will have the bed of Hell and a canopy atop them." [Surah A'rāf (7), verse 41]

إِنَّ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ يَهْدِي لِلَّتِي هِيَ أَقْوَمُ وَيُبَشِّرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ الصَّالِحَاتِ أَنَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٩﴾ وَأَنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ أََعْتَدْنَا لَهُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿١٠﴾

(9) Surely this Qur'ān guides to a path that is straight and it conveys glad tidings to the believers who do good deeds that theirs shall be a great reward...

(10) And that We have prepared a painful punishment for those who do not believe in the Hereafter.

THE QUR'ĀN LEADS TO THE STRAIGHT PATH, GIVES GLAD TIDINGS TO THE BELIEVERS AND WARNS THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR)

Allāh says, "Surely this Qur'ān guides to a path that is straight..." There is no falsehood in the Qur'ān and it informs man how to please Allāh and acquire His favour.

The Qur'ān also "conveys glad tidings to the believers who do good deeds that theirs shall be a great reward..."

At the same time, the Qur'ān also warns "that We have prepared a painful punishment for those who do not believe in the Hereafter." Any person who disbelieves in either Allāh, the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or in the Hereafter cannot be a believer (Mu'min). He will therefore be unsuccessful in the Hereafter.

وَيَدْعُ الْإِنْسَانُ بِالشَّرِّ دُعَاءَهُ بِالْخَيْرِ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ عَجُولًا ﴿١١﴾

(11) Man supplicates for evil just as he supplicates for good. Man was always hasty.

MAN PRAYS FOR EVIL AND IS EVER HASTY

"Durrul Manthūr" (v. 4 p.166) quotes Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه as saying that when a person becomes angry he curses himself and his family. When Allāh grants this curse, he becomes upset and grieved. Then he prays for good, which Allāh grants him. This is also the interpretation of this verse according to Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed that people should not curse themselves, their wealth and their families because their curse could coincide with a moment when du'ās are accepted. The curse will then be accepted. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 194]

Allāh then says, "Man was always hasty." Allāh says in another verse, 'Man has been created from haste (as his inherent quality).' This haste that is found in man causes him much difficulty. In fact, the accidents that are caused are because of the same factor. Divorces and many other regrettable events occur for this reason. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that haste is from Shayṭān and composure is from Allāh. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 429]

Things should be done with ease and they should not be hurried. Only those acts may be done hastily (i.e. without delay) that will benefit a person in the Hereafter. However, these should also not be spoilt by undue haste.

A person should always hurry the commencement of good deeds. Once he commences them, then he should ensure that they are performed well. The person should not hurry to complete them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the person who raises his head from a posture of Salāh before the Imām (because of haste) should beware lest Allāh transforms him into a donkey.

وَجَعَلْنَا اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ آيَاتَيْنِ فَمَحَوْنَا آيَةَ اللَّيْلِ وَجَعَلْنَا آيَةَ النَّهَارِ مُبْصِرَةً لِّتَبْتَغُوا فَضْلًا مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ وَلِتَعْلَمُوا عَدَدَ السِّنِينَ وَالْحِسَابَ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ فَضْلَنَاهُ تَفْصِيلًا

﴿١٢﴾

(12) We have made the night and the day two signs, then We obliterate the sign of the night and make the sign of the day visible so that you may seek Allāh's bounty and know the count of years and reckoning. We have explained everything in detail.

THE SIGNS OF NIGHT AND DAY

Man should ponder over the timeouts alternation of the day and the night and realise Allāh's power from this. Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "It is Him Who has appointed the night and the day in succession for the one who intends to take heed or intends to be grateful." [Surah 25, verse 62]

The varying lengths of the day and night are all because of Allāh's perfect system of planning. Allāh says, "We obliterate the sign of the night (at daybreak) and make the sign of the day visible so that you may seek Allāh's bounty..." This refers to working and earning one's livelihood. Allāh has mentioned in several Surahs that He has made the night a period of rest and recuperation after the day's work. One such verse is verse 73 of Surah Qasas (Surah 28) where Allāh says, "Because of His mercy, He has created the day and the night for you so that you may find peace therein, seek from His bounty, and express your gratitude to Him."

Another reason for this alternation is so that man can "know the count of years and reckoning." Dates, times and appointments are recorded by means of the change of the days. Many acts of religion (D'in) are also related to time and date and can be carried out only with the knowledge of the calendar. If there were only day or only night these things will not be possible and chaos will reign.

وَكُلَّ إِنْسَانٍ أَلْزَمْنَاهُ طَائِرَهُ فِي عُنُقِهِ ۖ وَنُخْرِجُ لَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ كِتَابًا يَلْقَاهُ مَشْهُورًا
 (13) أَقْرَأْ كِتَابَكَ كَفَىٰ بِنَفْسِكَ الْيَوْمَ عَلَيْكَ حَسِيبًا (14) مَن أَهْتَدَىٰ فَأَتَمَّا يَهْتَدَىٰ
 لِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَن ضَلَّ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا وَلَا نَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وَّرَزَّ أُخْرِئُ وَمَا كُنَّا مُعَذِّبِينَ حَتَّىٰ
 نَبْعَثَ رَسُولًا (15)

(13) We shall cast every person's record of deeds upon his neck. On the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) We shall take out for him a book that he will see opened before him. (14) "Read your book. Today you are a sufficient witness against yourself." (15) Whoever is rightly guided, he has been guided for his own benefit, and whosoever is astray has gone astray only to his own detriment. No soul shall bear the burden of another. We shall never punish (any nation) until We send a messenger.

EVERY SOUL WILL RECEIVE ITS RECORD OF DEEDS

The angels record every person's deeds and he will receive this record of deeds as a written book on the Day of Judgement. The successful ones will receive their records in their right hands, while the others will receive theirs in their left hands behind their backs. None shall be able to escape this presentation. Allāh refers to this when Allāh says, "We shall cast every person's record of deeds upon his neck." Some commentators have translated this verse to mean that the record of their action will be made as a noose around their necks.

The verse uses the word "Ta'ir" for the record of deeds. This word literally means a "bird." Commentators say that the Arabs used to shake a branch of a tree before doing anything. Then they would observe whether the, bird upon the branch flew to the right or to the left. If it flew to the right, they would carry out the action they intended and if it flew to the left they would refrain. This was called taking omens. Since they considered the birds to be the factor that determined their future, Allāh uses the same word for their records of deeds since these will determine their destiny in the Hereafter.

"On the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) We shall take out for him a book that he will see opened before him." He will then be instructed, "Read your book. Today you are a sufficient witness against yourself" In this world it is easy to be a witness over one's self and gradually correct one's deeds. However, in the Hereafter it will be impossible. It has been said that a person should take reckoning of himself in this world before he is reckoned in the Hereafter.

The person whose record will be good will call to others saying, "Come and read my record! I was certain that my reckoning would take place." On the other hand, the person whose record will be unfavourable will say, "O dear! If only I had not been given my record and had not known my reckoning!" [Surah Hāqa (69), verses 25, 26]

Allāh continues to say, "Whoever is rightly guided, he has been guided for his own benefit, and whosoever is astray has gone astray only to his own detriment (for he will suffer in Hell). No soul shall bear the burden of another." No person will suffer for the sin of another although some make the claim in this world that they will bear the brunt of another's sin.

The question is raised that certain verses of the Qur'an and the Ahadith state that those who prompt others to perpetrate evil will also be accountable for the sins of those who followed them. How do these verses and Ahadith correlate with the above verse?

The reply is that those who followed will receive the punishment for their sins separately, while those who misled them will suffer for the sin of misleading them in addition to their personal sins.

"We shall never punish (any nation) until We send a messenger." None can object to Allāh's punishment because it comes to people only after they refute the truth brought to them by the Prophets عليهم السلام, Allāh's divine scriptures and His various signs. Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "A warner passed in every nation." [Surah 35, verse 24]

After the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم there will be no Prophets عليهم السلام, but the message of Islām has already reached every person on earth. Therefore, none can say that the message has not reached him. The Qur'an has been translated into all the major languages and is available to all.

The person who perhaps lives in a remote mountain or jungle and has not come into contact with any human, will be obliged to accept the concept of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) by witnessing Allāh's signs. This will save him from Hell even though he does not know of any Prophet.

وَإِذَا أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نُهْلِكَ قَرْيَةً أَمَرْنَا مُتْرَفِيهَا فَفَسَقُوا فِيهَا فَحَقَّ عَلَيَّهَا الْقَوْلُ فَمَزَرْنَا نَادِمًا

وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنَ الْقُرُونِ مِنْ بَعْدِ نُوحٍ وَكَفَىٰ بِرَبِّكَ بِذُنُوبِ عِبَادِهِ خَبِيرًا بَصِيرًا ﴿١٦﴾

﴿١٧﴾

(16) When We intend to destroy any town, We command those of them who lead a life of luxury. They then sin in the town, because of which Our decree becomes justified against them and We completely annihilate them. (17) How many generations have We not destroyed after Nūh? Your Lord suffices as the Knower and Seer of the sins of His slaves.

TOWNS ARE DESTROYED WHEN THE LEADERS AND WEALTHY MEMBERS OF SOCIETIES SIN

When the affluent and influential people of a place refuse to submit to Allāh's commands, they influence the rest of the people to follow suit. Thereafter, the time is not long when Allāh causes them all to suffer collectively in punishment. The leaders are mentioned specifically because they are more prone to disobedience because of their wealth and being accustomed to leading a life of luxury. When they refuse to accept something, they make sure that others do not accept it as well.

The public are also responsible for their own actions and will be destroyed because of their own misdeeds and not on account of the sins of the rich and the leaders.

Thereafter Allāh says, "How many generations have We not destroyed after Nūh?" They were all destroyed because of their disobedience. None has to inform Allāh of what people do because, "Your Lord suffices as the Knower and Seer of the sins of His slaves."

مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعَاجِلَةَ عَجَلْنَا لَهُ فِيهَا مَا نَشَاءُ لِمَنْ نُرِيدُ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا لَهُ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلَاهَا مَذْمُومًا مَدْحُورًا ﴿١٨﴾ وَمَنْ أَرَادَ الْآخِرَةَ وَسَعَىٰ لَهَا سَعْيَهَا وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَأُولَٰئِكَ كَانَ سَعْيُهُمْ مَشْكُورًا ﴿١٩﴾ كُلًّا نُمِدُّ هَٰؤُلَاءِ وَهَٰؤُلَاءِ مِنْ عَطَاءِ رَبِّكَ وَمَا كَانَ عَطَاءُ رَبِّكَ مَحْظُورًا ﴿٢٠﴾ أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ وَلِلْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ دَرَجَاتٍ وَأَكْبَرُ تَفْضِيلًا ﴿٢١﴾ لَا تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا ءَاخَرَ فَتَقَعُدَ مَذْمُومًا مَخْذُولًا

﴿٢٢﴾

(18) Whoever desires the pleasures of this world, We shall grant whatever We will for whomsoever We will in this very world, and then We will appoint Hell for him. He will enter it despicably and rejected. (19) And whoever desires the Hereafter and exerts himself for it as he ought to and is a believer, then such are the people whose deeds will be appreciated. (20) We grant to all from the grace of your Lord, to these and to those. The grace of your Lord is not restricted. (21)

See how We have favoured some over others. Without doubt the Hereafter is great in terms of ranks and great in terms of favours. (22) Do not ascribe partners to Allāh, for then you will sit reproached and without help.

THOSE WHO SEEK THE WORLD WILL RECEIVE A SMALL PORTION OF IT AND HELL IN THE HEREAFTER, WHILE THE DEEDS OF THE BELIEVERS WILL BE VALUED GREATLY

Allāh begins by describing the person who seeks this world through his deeds. Allāh says, "Whoever desires the pleasures of this world, We shall grant whatever We will for whomsoever We will in this very world..." Every seeker of this world will not receive its pleasures, nor will any of them receive all of it. In their intoxication for this world, they are also blind to belief (Imān). Therefore Allāh says that "We will appoint Hell for him. He will enter it despicably and rejected."

Allāh says in Surah Shura, "Whoever desires the harvest of the Hereafter, We shall increase its harvest for him. And We shall grant a part of this world's harvest to the one who desires it; and he will have no share in the Hereafter." [Surah 42, verse 20]

Thereafter Allāh cites the converse when He says, "And whoever desires the Hereafter and exerts himself for it as he ought to and is a believer, then such are the people whose deeds will be appreciated." This verse mentions three conditions for the acceptance of one's deeds. The first is that the person's intention is to acquire the Hereafter. Secondly, his efforts should be carried out in the proper manner i.e. according to the dictates of the Shari'ah. The third condition is that he be a believer (Mu'min). If he is not a believer (Mu'min), all his efforts will be futile irrespective of how sincere and laborious they may be. The actions of people who carry out their good deeds in the proper manner will be well rewarded by at least ten-fold.

One should never think that a person is accepted by Allāh merely because he has wealth. Allāh grants wealth to all people, be they good or bad. Therefore Allāh says, "We grant to all from the grace of your Lord, to these and to those. The grace of your Lord is not restricted."

"See how We have favoured some over others." The believers (Mu'minīn) and the disbelievers (kuffār) all vary in this regard and many disbelievers (kuffār) may be wealthier than many believer (Mu'min). However, the criterion for success is not this world but the Hereafter. For this reason Allāh says, "Without doubt the Hereafter is great in terms of ranks and great in terms of favours."

Thereafter Allāh commands, "Do not ascribe partners to Allāh, for then you will sit reproached and without help." The polytheists (Mushrik) will regret his plight in the Hereafter, where there shall be none to assist him.

وَقَضَىٰ رَبُّكَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا إِمَّا يَبْلُغَنَّ عِنْدَكَ الْكِبَرَ أَحَدُهُمَا أَوْ كِلَاهُمَا فَلَا تَقُلْ لَهُمَا أَمْرًا وَلَا نَهْرَهُمَا وَقُلْ لَهُمَا قَوْلًا كَرِيمًا
وَاخْفِضْ لَهُمَا جَنَاحَ الذُّلِّ مِنَ الرَّحْمَةِ وَقُلْ رَبِّ ارْحَمْهُمَا كَمَا رَبَّيَانِي صَغِيرًا

رَبِّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا فِي نُفُوسِكُمْ إِنَّ تَكُونُوا صَالِحِينَ فَإِنَّهُ كَانَ لِلْأَوَّابِ غَفُورًا ﴿٢٥﴾

(23) Your Lord has commanded that you worship only Him and that you treat your parents kindly. If any one of the two, or both of them reaches old age by you, then do not even tell them "üf!" and do not rebuke them. Speak to them gently. (24) Lower for them the wings of humility out of compassion and say, "O my Lord! Show mercy to them as they have raised me (mercifully) when I was young." (25) Your Lord knows best what is in your hearts. If you are righteous then surely He is Most Forgiving unto those who turn to Him.

THE COMMANDMENT TO TREAT PARENTS KINDLY AND WITH COMPASSION

(1) "Your Lord has commanded that you worship only Him..." All the Prophets عليهم السلام brought this same message to their nations, and it is the hallmark of all the divine scriptures.

(2) The second command issued in these verses is that one treats one's parents kindly. Allāh commands that they be treated well because He has made them the means whereby man has been blessed with the bounty of life. The parents also have to endure great difficulties and hardships when raising their children.

Surah Baqarah, Surah Ān'ām and the above verse of Surah Bani Isra'īl all ordain that parents should be treated kindly. They should be obeyed, revered and served to the best of one's ability. Of course, none may be obeyed when they instruct an act that entails disobedience to Allāh.

(3) "If any one of the two, or both of them reaches old age by you, then do not even tell them 'üf!" The purpose of this verse is that no word should be uttered to them that will reduce their respect or that will cause them grief. This includes using words like "Agh!" or any other words of this sort that express frustration or resentment, Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه says that if there was any word inferior than the word "Üf!" Allāh would have used it. The parents have to be treated well at all times. The reason for specifically mentioning kind treatment in old age is that they tend to become irritable and ill-tempered as they grow old. They may also become ill and their children will have to serve them and tend to them. The child has to exercise extreme patience during such times and not mutter a word in protest.

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه says that the child should not even say, "üf!" when he has to wash the soiled clothes of his aged parents because they never said so when washing the child's soiled clothing as an infant. ["Durrul Manthūr"]

(4) "...and do not rebuke them." If one cannot say "üf!" to his parents then neither can he rebuke them in any way.

(5) "Speak to them gently." They should be addressed with utmost respect. Sayyidina Sa'id bin Musayyab راحة الله عليه has mentioned that the parents should be addressed just as a slave addresses an extremely harsh and uncompromising master.

Sayyidina Zuhayr bin Muhammad راحة الله عليه stated that this verse means that when the parents call, the child should respond by saying, "I am present and prepared to do your bidding."<sup>1</sup> ["Durrul Manthūr' v. 4 p. 171]

(6) "Lower for them the wings of humility out of compassion..." Explaining this verse, Sayyidina Urwa رضى الله عنه said that the child should behave in such a manner towards the parents that they are able to do as they please. One's presence should not present a hindrance to one's parents.

Sayyidina Atā bin Abi Rabāh راحة الله عليه interprets the verse to mean that a child should not move his hands up and down when addressing his parents. Sayyidina Zuhayr bin Muhammad راحة الله عليه explains the verse to mean that even if the parents swear and scold the child, he should merely say, "May Allāh have mercy on you." ["Durrul Manthūr"]

(7) "...and say, 'O my Lord! Show mercy to them as they have raised me when I was young.'" Once the parents cared for their children who were helpless and ignorant. After fifty or sixty years the tables turn and now the parents require this care and attention. The children should now recall the past and spend wholeheartedly on their parents. Then they should make the above du'ā (supplication) for their parents, invoking Allāh's mercy upon them.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رضى الله عنه reports (v. 3 p.35) that a person once carried his mother on his back and performed Tawāf with her. He then asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether he had fulfilled her rights by doing this. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "You have not even repaid her one breath."

"Your Lord knows best what is in your hearts. If you are righteous then surely He is Most Forgiving unto those who turn to Him." Explaining this verse, Sayyidina Sa'id bin Jubair راحة الله عليه says that if any child feels that he has not fulfilled the rights of his parents, he should sincerely repent. Allāh will forgive him.

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that the reverence for parents should not be confined only to apparent actions. They should be revered from within the heart. Allāh is well aware of the hearts of people. However, Allāh will be forgiving to those who sincerely turn to Him in repentance.

THE VIRTUE OF TREATING PARENTS KINDLY

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that he asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which act was most liked by Allāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "To perform Salāh on time." He then asked what act was most liked after this. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Kind treatment of parents."

When he again asked what deed followed in merit, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Jihād in Allāh's way." ["Mishkāt" p. 58]

THE PARENTS ARE A MEANS OF ENTERING HEAVEN (JANNAH) OR HELL

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه reports that someone asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! What rights of the parents are due to them from their children?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "They are both your Heaven (Jannah) or your Hell." ["Mishkāt" p. 421]

If the parents are treated well and cared for, their children will be admitted into Heaven (Jannah). However, if the children do not fulfil the rights of their parents, these children will enter Hell.

ALLĀH'S PLEASURE IS IN THE PLEASURE OF THE PARENTS

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'Allāh's pleasure is in the pleasure of the parents and Allāh's displeasure lies in the displeasure of the parents.' ["Mishkāt" p. 419]

Since Allāh has ordered that the parents be pleased, He will be displeased if they are displeased. This will apply only when they are displeased because of a legitimate reason. If they are displeased because the child did not obey a command of theirs that was against the Shāri'ah, the child should not be concerned because pleasing Allāh is of greater importance.

THE FATHER IS THE BEST DOOR TO HEAVEN (JANNAH)

Sayyidina Abu Darda رضى الله عنه reports that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "The father is the best door to Heaven (Jannah). Now (by obeying him) you may protect this door, or (by disobeying him) you may destroy the door." ["Mishkāt" p. 420]

THE PRAYER OF A FATHER IS CERTAINLY ACCEPTED

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is no doubt about the fact that the du'ās of three people are accepted. (1) The father's supplication (du'ā) for his children. (2) The du'ā of a traveller. (3) The du'ā of an oppressed person." ["Mishkāt" p. 195]

Mulla Ali Qāri رحمه الله has written that if the father's supplication (du'ā) for the children is readily accepted, then the mother's supplication (du'ā) must also be more readily accepted. Children should therefore ensure that they always please their parents so that the parents keep praying for them. They should never cause hurt to them because, just as their supplication's (du'ā's) are accepted in the child's favour, their supplication's (du'ā's) against the child (their curses) are also readily accepted. Their curses will bring destruction in both worlds.

SOME INCIDENTS PERTAINING TO THE TREATMENT OF PARENTS

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that a person once came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with an old man. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him who the old man was, he replied that the old man was his father. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Always respect and honour him. Never walk in front of him, nor sit before he does. Never call him by his name and never swear him." ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p.171]

This hadith explains some finer points by which respect can be shown to parents. The last point mentioned by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم means that a person should never swear another person's father. By doing this, the person will retaliate by swearing the first person's father as well. In this way, the person becomes the cause for the father to be sworn at. This is meant by not swearing one's father because no sane person will actually swear his father directly.

A person may walk in front of his father if the situation requires him to do so e.g. if he is leading his blind or aged father.

A PERSON'S LIFE SPAN AND SUSTENANCE ARE INCREASED BY TREATING HIS PARENTS WELL

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever desires that his lifespan be lengthened and that his sustenance be increased should treat his parents well and maintain good relations with his relatives." ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 173].

There are many people who spend generously on their friends and wives, yet are niggardly towards their parents. These people will be deprived of rewards in the Hereafter and, in this world, they will also be depriving themselves of a longer life and increased provisions.

THE REWARD FOR EARNING FOR ONE'S PARENTS

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that a thin person once passed by a gathering of the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم. They said, "If only this body was used (i.e. grew thin) in Allāh's path." Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He is possibly exerting himself to earn for his aged parents. If this is the case, then he is also in Allāh's path. If he is exerting himself to earn for his young children, then he is also in Allāh's path. If he is exerting himself to earn for himself so that he is independent from people (i.e. he does not have to beg from others), then he is also in Allāh's path." ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 170]

SERVING THE PARENTS IS BETTER THAN NAFL JIHĀD

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that a person once requested permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to participate in Jihād. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether his parents were alive. When he replied in the affirmative, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him to rather apply himself to their service.

According to another narration, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "Go and treat them well." ["Mishkāt" p. 331]

Sayyidina Mu'āwiya bin Jāhma رضى الله عنه narrates that his father Jāhma رضى الله عنه asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "I intend to participate in Jihād. I have come to consult you?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether his mother was alive, to which he replied in the affirmative. Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Engage in her service, for verily Heaven (Iannah) lies beneath the feet of the mother." ["Mishkāt" p. 431]

When Jihād is not compulsory and there is none to care for one's parents, it is best to remain behind to tend to them.

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that a person migrated from Yemen and came in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "You have migrated, now Jihād remains. Have you any close relatives still in Yemen?" He replied that his parents were still there. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "Have your parents permitted you?" When he replied in the negative, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Then go back, take leave from them. If they permit you, you may participate in Jihād, otherwise remain in their attendance." ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p.175]

ADVICE TO THE PERSON WHO LEFT HIS PARENTS WEeping TO PLEDGE HIS ALLEGIANCE

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that a person came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "I have come to pledge my allegiance to you that I will migrate. However, I have left my parents weeping over my departure." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "Return to them and make them laugh just as you had made them cry." ["Mustadrak of Hākimi v. 4 p.153]

These Ahadīth show the importance of pleasing the parents. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised these Sahabah رضى الله عنه to please their parents even though they had all left with noble intentions. It is also learnt that causing them to be happy earns great rewards.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه has mentioned that it is a major sin to cause the parents to weep because of one's disobedience. [Adabul Mufrīd]

Sayyidina Uwais Qarni رحمه الله عليه accepted Islām during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but could not become a companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because he had to care for his mother in Yemen. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم knew about him but did not rebuke his inability to come to Madinah. Rather, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم appreciated this deed of his and gave him the title of "Sayyidut Tābī'in" ("The Leader of the Tābī'in"). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even told the Sahabah رضى الله عنه to ask Sayyidina Uwais رحمه الله عليه to make prayer (du'ā) for them.

Muslim reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Uwais Qarni has a mother whom he treats very well. If Uwais has to swear by Allāh, Allāh will most certainly fulfil his oath."

SERVICE TO ONE'S PARENTS HOLDS NO LESS REWARD THAN NAFL HAJJ AND UMRAH

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that a person told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he desired to participate in Jihād but could not do so (perhaps he was ill or suffered some handicap). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether any of his parents were alive. He replied that his mother was. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told him, "Then you fear Allāh with regard to your mother (i.e. by serving her). When you do this, you will be one who has performed Hajj, Umrah and Jihād. Now fear Allāh whenever your mother calls you (i.e. obey her) and treat her well." ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p.173]

The call of one's parents should be heeded immediately. If the parents call for help because of some difficulty and there is none other to respond to their plea, it is compulsory for the child even to terminate his obligatory (Fardh) Salāh immediately to assist. If they are calling for another reason that does not require immediate attention and they are unaware that the child is engaged in Salāh, then it will be compulsory to terminate one's sunnah or nafl Salāh. The Fardh Salāh should not be terminated immediately, but completed first. However, if they know that the child is performing Salāh and merely call for no legitimate reason, then the child will not be sinful for not responding.

THE PUNISHMENT FOR CAUSING GRIEF TO PARENTS WILL BE SUFFERED IN THIS VERY WORLD

Sayyidina Abu Bakrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "All sins are such that Allāh may forgive them if He wills. However, the sin of causing grief to one's parents is such that the punishment for it will be suffered before death in this very world." ["Mishkāt" p. 412]

DISOBEYING ONE'S PARENTS IS ONE OF THE VERY MAJOR SINS

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The very major sins are (1) ascribing partners to Allāh, (2) disobedience to parents, (3) murder and (4) taking false oaths." ["Mishkāt" p. 17]

This hadith uses the word "Uqūqul Wālidain" as the second greatest sin. The meaning of this word is very extensive and includes disobedience to parents as well as causing grief and trouble to them, either by word or by deed. As was mentioned, the second most loved action to Allāh is kindness to parents. Conversely, the second greatest major sin is to cause them distress and grief.

THE PERSON WHOSE PARENTS DO NOT ADMIT HIM INTO HEAVEN (JANNAH) IS MOST DISGRACED

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "He is disgraced! He is disgraced! He is disgraced!" When the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم enquired to whom he was referring to, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who finds one or both of his parents in old age and still does not enter Heaven (Jannah) (by serving them)." ["Mishkāt" p. 418]

By serving one's parents in their old age, a person can secure forgiveness for all his past sins. However, if he is still negligent towards them in their old age, he will only be speeding up his admission into Hell. He is most disgraced on the tongue of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

CASTING ANGRY LOOKS AT ONE'S PARENTS IS ALSO FORBIDDEN

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who casts angry looks at his parents has not treated them well. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 171]

When someone asked Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه what was the definition of "Uqūl Wālidain" he replied, "Depriving them (of wealth and service), not associating with them and casting angry looks at them." ["Durrul Manthūr"]

Sayyidina Urwa رضى الله عنه say that when a person's parents displeases him (by telling him something nasty), then he should not look at them adversely because this is the first sign of anger. ["Durrul Manthūr"]

It is learnt from this that even a person's limbs and actions should not convey any disrespect to his parents.

SWEARING ONE'S PARENTS IS A MAJOR SIN

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Swearing one's parents is a major sin." Astonished, the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم asked, "How can anyone swear his parents?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "When a person swears the father of another, he retaliates by swearing the first person's father. Similarly, when a person swears the mother of another, he retaliates by swearing the first person's mother." ["Mishkāt" p.419]

The person will therefore be guilty of a major sin because he has caused his parents to be sworn at. If this is the case of one who is a cause of his parents being sworn at, one can well imagine the immense gravity of the sin for directly swearing them! The Sahābah رضى الله عنهم expressed surprise that any person could swear his parents because none in their time was foolish enough to do so. How tragic then is the condition of people in today's times who flagrantly swear and curse their parents!

BY PRAYING AND SEEKING FORGIVENESS FOR ONE'S PARENTS, A CHILD CAN BE RECORDED AMONG THE OBEDIENT CHILDREN

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that it is possible for the person who disobeyed and troubled his parents (or one of them) to be recorded as an obedient child after their demise if he makes prayer (du'a) for them and seeks forgiveness from Allāh on their behalf. ["Mishkāt" p. 421]

THE RANKS OF PARENTS IN THE HEREAFTER MAY BE RAISED BY PRAYING FOR THEIR FORGIVENESS

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Verily Allāh can elevate the ranks of His pious slaves in Heaven (Jannah). They will ask, 'O Lord! How have I attained these rank?' Allāh will tell them that it is because of the prayers of their children who prayed for their forgiveness." ["Mishkāt" p. 205]

People should always pray for their deceased parents, at least after every obligatory (Fardh) Salāh.

وَأَاتِ ذَا الْقُرْبَىٰ حَقَّهُ وَالْيَتَامَىٰ وَالسَّيِّلَ وَلَا تُبْذِرْ بَذِيرًا ﴿٢٦﴾ إِنَّ الْمُبْذِرِينَ
كَانُوا إِخْوَانَ الشَّيَاطِينِ وَكَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ لِرَبِّهِ كَفُورًا ﴿٢٧﴾ وَإِمَّا نُرْضِ عَنْهُمْ أَيْتَاءَ
رَحْمَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّكَ تَرْجُوهَا فَقُلْ لَهُمْ قَوْلًا مَّيْسُورًا ﴿٢٨﴾ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ يَدَكَ مَغْلُولَةً إِلَىٰ عُنُقِكَ
وَلَا تَبْسُطْهَا كُلَّ الْبَسْطِ فَتَقْعُدَ مَلُومًا مَّحْسُورًا ﴿٢٩﴾ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ
وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانِ يَعْبُدُونَهُ خَيْرًا بِصِيرًا ﴿٣٠﴾

(26) Give the relative his right, as well as the poor and the traveller. And do not be excessively extravagant. (27) Without doubt, the extravagant ones are the brothers of the Devils (Shayātīn). And Devil (Shaytān) was ever ungrateful to his Lord. (28) Should you evade them seeking the mercy of your Lord that you anticipate, then speak to them with gentle words. (29) Do not keep your hand tied to your neck, nor spread it wide open, otherwise you will sit reproached and empty handed. (30) Verily your Lord increases the provisions of whomsoever He wills and decreases. Indeed He is Informed and Watching over His slaves.

SPENDING ON RELATIVES, THE DESTITUTE AND TRAVELLERS AND PROHIBITING EXTRAVAGANCE

While the previous verses contained encouragement for spending on one's parents, the above verses speak of spending on others as well. Allāh says, "Give the relative his right, as well as the poor and the traveller." The details about when spending on relatives is compulsory and when it is not are found in the books of jurisprudence. This and other laws pertaining to spending on the poor and the travellers have been discussed in the commentary of verse 177 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2).

Allāh then says, "And do not be excessively extravagant." While the Shari'ah encourages generosity, it severely criticises overspending and wastage of wealth, especially when this is done in activities that are against the Shari'ah. Many people have the habit of being wasteful and extravagant; as a result they are forced to resort to Harām avenues to sustain their habits.

In another verse Allāh says, "do not be wasteful. Indeed, He does not like those who are wasteful." [Surah A'rāf (7), verse 31]

Expressing the evil of such people Allāh says, "Without doubt, the extravagant ones are the brothers of Shaytān." This is so because they pander to Devils (Shayātīn's) bidding and spend as he dictates to them.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله quotes (v. 3 p.36) Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه as saying that extravagance refers to spending in avenues that oppose the truth. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله says that if a person spends all his wealth on promoting the truth, it will not be extravagance. However, spending even a handful on falsehood will be extravagance and wastage.

"And Devil (Shaytān) was ever ungrateful to his Lord." Those who are extravagant are also ungrateful for Allāh's bounty of wealth. A person should be moderate in his spending. He should spend on the obligatory (Fardh) and compulsory (Wājib) activities, as well give optional charity. Most foolish is the person who spends what Allāh gave him in a way that incurs Allāh's wrath!

"Should you evade them (the needy) seeking the mercy of your Lord that you anticipate, then speak to them with gentle words." When a person really cannot provide any assistance to a relative, the poor or a traveller (or anyone else), then he should not be harsh with them if they are importunate. He should speak to them kindly and make them understand.

It has been recorded that sometimes the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم like Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه used to ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for something they needed. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not have anything to offer them, he would shrink away from them in embarrassment. It was for this reason that Allāh revealed the above verse.

"Do not keep your hand tied to your neck, nor spread it wide open, otherwise you will sit reproached and empty handed." This verse teaches the invaluable lesson of moderation. One should neither be so miserly that one does not give any charity, neither should one give so much that all one's resources are depleted. Then people will rebuke one saying that one cares for others and not for oneself.

Certain commentators say that the word "reproached" is related to the first instance of being niggardly i.e. in that case people will reproach him for his stinginess. The second word, they say ("empty handed") is related to the situation where he spends everything on others.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said that moderation in spending is half of livelihood management. ["Mishkāt" p. 430]

This hadith tells us that moderation in one's expenditure will solve half of one's financial problems. Being too stingy or being too extravagant has led to the downfall of many individuals and nations. It is for this reason the entire world is trapped in the vicious cycle of usury.

Note: The injunction of not spending all one's wealth in a good cause applies to those who may suffer regret and difficulty later on. It does not apply to those who have perfect trust in Allāh. They may spend all their wealth in Allāh's way. The incident of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه is famous when he spent all his wealth for the battle of Tabūk. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him what he had left for his family, he replied, "I have left Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for them." ["Mishkāt" p. 556]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accepted this from him. There are numerous other similar incidents of the generosity of pious people in Islāmic history.

"Verily your Lord increases the provisions of whomsoever He wills and decreases. Indeed He is Informed and Watching over His slaves." Allāh reserves the right to distribute sustenance to His creation as He pleases. He grants to whom He pleases according to His supreme knowledge and wisdom. Man, on the other hand has to adopt moderation in his spending.

وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ خَشْيَةَ إِمْلَاقٍ نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُهُمْ وَإِيَّاكُمْ إِنَّ قَتْلَهُمْ كَانَ خِطْئًا كَبِيرًا
 ﴿٣١﴾ وَلَا تَقْرَبُوا الزَّوْجَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ فَحِشَةً وَسَاءَ سَبِيلًا ﴿٣٢﴾ وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا النَّفْسَ الَّتِي
 حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَمَنْ قُتِلَ مَظْلُومًا فَقَدْ جَعَلْنَا لَوْلِيهِ سُلْطَانًا فَلَا يَسْرِفُ فِي
 الْقَتْلِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ مَنْصُورًا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلَا تَقْرَبُوا مَالَ الْيَتِيمِ إِلَّا بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ حَتَّىٰ يَبْلُغَ
 أَشُدَّهُ وَأَوْفُوا بِالْعَهْدِ إِنَّ الْعَهْدَ كَاتِبٌ مَّسْهُولًا ﴿٣٤﴾ وَأَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ إِذَا كِلْتُمْ وَزَنُوا
 بِالْقِسْطِ الْمُسْتَقِيمِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيلًا ﴿٣٥﴾

(31) Do not kill your children out of fear of poverty. We shall provide for them and for you. Slaying them is indeed a grave sin. (32) And do not even approach near fornication. It is truly an indecent act and the worst of ways. (33) And do not kill a soul that Allāh has forbidden except with a warrant. Whoever is killed unjustly, then verily We have granted authority to his heir, so let him not transgress in execution. Indeed He shall be assisted. (34) And approach the wealth of the orphan only in a manner that is best until he comes of age. And fulfil the pledge. Certainly, questioning shall take place with regard to pledges. (35) Measure in full when you measure and weigh with proper scales. This is best and better in the outcome.

DO NOT KILL YOUR CHILDREN, DO NOT APPROACH ADULTERY, DO NOT MURDER AND DO NOT USURP THE WEALTH OF ORPHANS

The above verses contain many commands and prohibitions. Allāh says, "Do not kill your children out of fear of poverty." The early Arabs, as well as many people nowadays, think that they will not be able to provide for children and that if they do, then they will suffer poverty. Allāh prohibits this vile act in this verse and in another similar verse of Surah Ān'am. Allāh dispels this practice by saying, "Slaying them is indeed a grave sin."

Today the disbelievers (kuffār) have also instilled this notion into Muslims. They say that if the human race continues to grow at the present rate, the explosive population will deplete the earth's resources and there will not be enough food for everyone. The disbelievers (kuffār) squander millions to propagate this fallacy and even more millions to institute programmes of birth control. The astonishing factor is that the Muslim statesmen accept their theory instead of looking into the Qur'ān and the Ahadith. Allāh makes it clear that "We shall provide for them and for you."

However, all their plans to control the birth rate cannot succeed against the decree of Allāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "Every soul decreed to be born until judgment day (Qiyāmah) will be born."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also said, "A child is not born from every sperm, and when Allāh intends to create something, none can stop Him." ["Mishkāt" p. 275]

It is commonly observed that children are born despite the preventive measures taken by people. It is surprising that the disbelievers (kuffār) are concerned with the life of those that are still unborn but have no concern for those who are living presently. Daily they are killing people and spending billions on more sophisticated weapons that are able to kill even more people.

"And do not even approach near fornication. It is truly an indecent act and the worst of ways." Fornication is such a vile act that no religion (D'in) condones it.

However, many who claim to follow Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام in countries like Europe, America and Australia have lost all hold of their modesty and fornication has become the order of the day. These people believe that their priests will forgive them on Sundays and therefore continue their sinful ways unabated.

Even more unfortunate is the plight of those Muslims who live with these people. Besides committing adultery, they even permit their own wives to engage in this sinful activity.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went for ascension (Mi'rāj), he saw that the skins of certain people were being cut by scissors of fire. When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were the people who beautified themselves for fornication. He then passed by a pit that emitted a terribly foul odour. Heinous screams came from there. When he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that these were the women who adorned themselves for adultery and committed those acts that were Harām for them. [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p.511]

To prevent such vile occurrences, the Shari'ah has also banned looking at strange women. Islām tells us that even the eyes, the ears, the tongue, the hands and the feet all can commit adultery. The penal code of Islām dictates that fornicating unmarried people will be lashed and the married ones will be stoned to death. All these serve to curb the incidence of fornication.

Sayyidina Amr bin Al Ās رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when fornication is widespread in a nation, they will be afflicted by droughts and when bribery becomes common among them, they will suffer great fear.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه report that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When fornication and usury become prevalent in any nation (or any town, according to another narration), then these people will themselves cause Allāh's punishment to descend on them." [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p.278]

When adultery occurs, illegitimate children abound. Then there are no records of family lineage and relationships. None knows who their relatives are so that they may maintain relations with them. People then become just like animals and even take pride in being illegitimate, as can be seen in many Western countries.

Sayyidah Maymūna رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My Ummah will remain in good stead until illegitimate children become prevalent among them. When this happens, then Allāh will shortly inflict them with a widespread punishment." [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p.277]

Bukhari reports a hadith from Sayyidina Samura bin Jundub رضى الله عنه in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recounts a dream of his (the dreams of the Prophets عليهم السلام are true). He mentions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw a pit that resembled an oven. In this oven he saw many naked men and women. Below them, a raging fire burnt. Whenever the flames rose, these people screamed and pleaded for help. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked his companions [Jibr'il عليه السلام and Mika'il عليه السلام] who these people were, they informed him that these were the adulterers. [Bukhari p.1044 and "Mishkāt" p. 395]

Once a person habitually engages in fornication, he cannot forsake it even in his old age. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh will not speak to three people on the Day of Judgement. Allāh will not also look at them with mercy, nor purify them. These will be (1) an old man who fornicates, (2) a king who lies and (3) a proud beggar.

Another hadith states that the old man who fornicates will be among those people who will not enter Heaven (Jannah). A third narration reports that he will be of those whom Allāh loathes. [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p.275]

Sayyidina Abu Qatadah رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the day of Judgement, Allāh will assign a serpent to the person who shares a bed with a woman whose husband is not at home. [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p.279]

This hadith mentions a woman whose husband is not at home because this is normally the occasion when adultery takes place. It does not mean that it will be permissible for a person to cohabit with a woman whose husband is a cuckold and consents to the act in his presence.

Islām advocates chastity and purity. It is for this reason that there is no room in Islām for nudity, promiscuity and dancing. However, the licentiousness and immorality of the disbelievers (kuffār) has led to them to sodomy, homosexuality and all other despicable acts which have caused them to suffer from the worst diseases.

One of the reasons for punishment mentioned in the hadith is, "When a man will gratify himself with another man and a woman with another woman." [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p.267]

Muslims should not slavishly follow the antics of the disbelievers (kuffār). Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Allāh wishes to forgive you and those who follow their desires only wish that you fall into gross deviation." [Surah 4, verse 27]

The preposterous statement has been made by some adulterous women that their bodies are their own and they can therefore do as they please with it. This claim is absolutely fallacious and amounts to rejection of the Qur'ān. People fail to understand that Allāh is the Creator and Master of man. He decides what his slaves will do since they (and their bodies) belong to Him.

Many Muslim statesmen belong to such governments which forbid rape but allow adultery. They are active in passing such laws, thereby jeopardising their Imān. It is also foolish that the disbelievers (kuffār) frown upon polygamy, yet they condone a man having several mistresses and lovers.

In conclusion, the following hadith is presented. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once addressed immigrants (Muhajirin) warning them against five things which have serious repercussions. He prayed that they should never practise them. These five things are:

1. When flagrant immodesty predominates, then pestilence will spread and people will be afflicted with such diseases that were never heard of by their forebears.
2. Those people who cheat in weight and measure will be punished with droughts hard labour and the oppression of tyrannical rulers.
3. Those who do not pay their Zakāh will be deprived of rain. Were it not for the animals, they would not receive a single drop of rain.
4. Those who breach the pledge of Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, will be vanquished by their enemy, who will usurp their wealth.
5. When the leaders of a nation do not pass judgement by the Qur'ān and do not adopt the ways that Allāh has revealed Allāh will cause such friction between them that will lead to feuds and battles. [Ibn Majah p.112]

"And do not kill a soul that Allāh has forbidden except with a warrant." A person may be killed only for a reason that is legitimate in the Shari'ah. The details of this were discussed in verses 178 and 179 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2), in verses 92 to 94 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4) and in verse 45 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5).

"Whoever is killed unjustly, then verily We have granted authority to his heir, so let him not transgress in execution." The heirs of the murdered person should retaliate in accordance to the laws of the Shari'ah and cannot do more than this.

"Indeed He shall be assisted." If he carries out the law of Shari'ah properly, then the Shari'ah and the Muslim government will facilitate the process of retaliation. However, if he transgresses the laws, then the Shari'ah and the Muslim court will have to punish him in turn.

The fourth injunction mentioned in the above verses is, "And approach the wealth of the orphan only in a manner that is best until he comes of age." The details of this have passed in the commentary of the second verse of Surah Nisā (Surah 4).

Fifthly, Allāh says, "And fulfil the pledge. Certainly, questioning shall take place with regard to pledges." This verse warns people to be conscious of the pledges and promises that they make. Reference to this has been made in various verse of the Qur'ān. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Those who fulfill their promises when making them..." Allāh says in the first verse of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5), "O you who believe, fulfill your pledges." Allāh also says in Surah Nahl, "Fulfil Allāh's pledge when you have made the pledge."

The sixth command given by Allāh is, 'Measure in full when you measure and weigh with proper scales.' The details of this have been given in verse 152 of Surah Ān'am (Surah 6) and in the commentary of verses 85 to 93 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7).

Allāh then concludes by saying, "This is best and better in the outcome."

وَلَا تَقْفُ مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ إِنَّ السَّمْعَ وَالْبَصَرَ وَالْفُؤَادَ كُلُّ أُولَٰئِكَ كَانَ عَنْهُ
مَسْئُولًا ﴿٣٦﴾ وَلَا تَمْشِ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَحًا إِنَّكَ لَن تَخْرِقَ الْأَرْضَ وَلَن تَبْلُغَ الْجِبَالَ طُولًا
﴿٣٧﴾ كُلُّ ذَٰلِكَ كَانَ سَيِّئُهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ مَكْرُوهًا ﴿٣٨﴾

(36) And do not pursue what you have no knowledge about. Indeed questioning shall take place with regard to the ears, the eyes and the hearts. (37) And do not walk haughtily on earth. You can certainly not cleave the earth, nor can you reach the mountains in height. (38) The evil of all of these is detestable to your Lord.

DO NOT PURSUE UNCERTAIN MATTERS AND DO NOT WALK WITH PRIDE

Allāh says, "And do not pursue what you have no knowledge about." This verse includes all such matters which disgrace and dishonours people. The verse prohibits a person from relating any news that is uncertain and unverified. By adhering to this advice, people will not be slandered. Speculation should not be reported to others, since these things cause hatred and enmity between people.

Allāh says in Surah Hujurāt, "Verily, some assumptions are a sin." One should abstain from backbiting even though the report may be truthful.

"Indeed questioning shall take place with regard to the ears, the eyes and the hearts." Allāh has ordained certain injunctions through which the limbs of man may be safeguarded from sin. He shall question people with regard to how they utilised these limbs. The Ahadith report that every evil perpetrated by these limbs will have to be accounted for.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the zina (fornication) of the eyes is in looking at evil, the zina of the ears is in listening to evil, the zina of the tongue is in speaking evil, the zina of the hands is in holding evil, the zina of the legs is in walking to evil and the private parts finally confirm the deed of zina (by carrying out the evil deed of zina). ["Mishkāt" p.22]

Sayyidina Ubāda bin Sāmīt reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you guarantee six things for me then I will guarantee Heaven (Jannah) for you. (1) When you speak, you speak the truth. (2) When you make a promise, you fulfil it. (3) When a trust is placed in your custody, you return it. (4) You protect your private parts. (5) You keep your gaze lowered. (6) You restrain your hands." ["Mishkāt" p. 415]

The heart that Allāh has granted is a great boon. Allāh says in Surah Mulk, "Say, 'It is Him Who created you and granted you ears, eyes and hearts. Little is the gratitude you show.'" The heart causes blood to circulate throughout the body and is also the organ by which a person perceives matters. A person will be accountable for the evil plots and schemes that he may have conjured with his heart and mind.

Although the limbs and organs of the body are subservient to a person in this world, in the Hereafter they will turn against him. Allāh says in Surah Nūr, "The day when their tongues, hands and legs will testify against them regarding what they did." [Surah 24, verse 24]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم taught the following prayer (du'ā) to a Sahabi رضى الله عنه:

[TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! I seek refuge with you from the evil of my ears, the evil of my eyes, the evil of my tongue, the evil of my heart and the evil of my semen."}]

"And do not walk haughtily on earth. You can certainly not cleave the earth, nor can you reach the mountains in height." Allāh forbids people from being proud. If man thinks that he is great, he should look at the other creations of Allāh that are mightier than him. Although he lives on this earth he can never cleave it open, nor can he hope to attain the stature of the mountains.

Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام advised his son saying, "Do not turn your face away from people and do not walk arrogantly on earth. Verily Allāh detests every arrogant braggart." A human has no reason to be proud. He was created from a drop of dirty fluid, developed in the blood of menses and will end up as a rotten corpse.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that there was a person who walked about in two garments with pride and arrogance, behaving boastfully. Allāh caused the earth to swallow him up and until the Day of Judgement he will continue sinking to the depths of the earth. [Bukhari p.490 and 861]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "When my followers (Ummah) walks with pride and the Romans and Persians serve them, then Allāh will cause their evil people to be dominant over the good ones." ["Mishkāt" p. 459]

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who humbles himself for Allāh, Allāh will elevate him. Although he will consider himself lowly, he will be highly elevated in the eyes of people. However, the person who is proud, Allāh will lower him. He will consider himself to be noble, yet he will be more debased than a pig in the eyes of people. ["Mishkāt" p. 434]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the proud people will appear on the Day of Judgement in the form of humans, but they will be the size of ants. They will be enveloped in humiliation and will be dragged to a prison in Hell called Bawlis. There a fire will be stoked for them and they will be made to drink the blood and puss emanating from the bodies of the other people of Hell. ["Mishkāt" p. 433]

Sayyidina Ayādh bin Himār رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Revelation has been sent to me to, 'Adopt humility until no person prides himself over others and no person oppresses another.'" ["Mishkāt" p. 417]

"The evil of all of these is detestable to your Lord!" The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" writes that the "evil" here refers to neglecting all the good acts mentioned in the verses, "Your Lord has commanded that you worship only Him... (up to the words) "...nor can you reach the mountains in height." The "evil" also includes perpetrating all the evils mentioned in these verses. Since Allāh is our Creator and Master, it is obvious that one cannot do the things that He considers to be detestable.

ذَٰلِكَ مِمَّا أَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ رَبُّكَ مِنَ الْحِكْمَةِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَتُلْقَىٰ فِي جَهَنَّمَ
مَلُومًا مَّدْحُورًا ﴿٣٩﴾ فَأَصْفَكَ رَبُّكُمْ بِالْبَنِينَ وَاتَّخَذَ مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ إِنثًا إِنَّكُمْ لَنَقُولُونَ
قَوْلًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٤٠﴾

(39) These are from the matters of wisdom that your Lord has revealed to you. Do not ascribe to Allāh any other deity, for then you will be cast into Hell, reproached and rejected. (40) Has your Lord chosen sons only for you and taken the angels as His daughters? You are surely making a preposterous statement.

THOSE WHO ASCRIBE PARTNERS TO ALLĀH WILL BE CAST INTO HELL AND ATTRIBUTING CHILDREN TO ALLĀH IS EXTREMELY ABSURD

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "These are from the matters of wisdom that your Lord has revealed to you. "i.e. These are the determined matters that Allāh wishes His servants to adopt. Here are the points of good character and virtuous deeds that have been prescribed for man. [Qurtubi v. 10 p.264]

"Do not ascribe to Allāh any other deity, for then you will be cast into Hell, reproached and rejected." This verse is addressed to all believers (Mu'minīn) and disbelievers (kuffār).

It is foolish to say that Allāh has any children. To make matters worse, the polytheists of Arabia used to say that the angels were the daughters of Allāh, yet they did not wanted daughters for themselves. Expressing their insolence, Allāh says, "Has your Lord chosen sons only for you and taken the angels as His daughters? You are surely making a preposterous statement."

Allāh says in Surah Maryam, "They say, 'Rahmān has taken a child.' You have certainly said a grave thing. The heavens may split asunder because of it, the earth may be cleaved open and the mountains may crash to smithereens. All this because they ascribed children to Allāh. It is not befitting of Rahmān to take children. Everything within the heavens and the earth shall come to Rahmān as slaves." [Surah 19, verses 88-93]

وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ لِيَذَكَّرُوا وَمَا يَزِيدُهُمْ إِلَّا تُقُورًا ﴿٤١﴾ قُلْ لَوْ كَانَ مَعَهُ آلِهَةٌ كَمَا يَقُولُونَ إِذَا لَا بُدَّعُوا إِلَىٰ ذِي الْعَرْشِ سَبِيلًا ﴿٤٢﴾ سُبْحَنَهُ وَتَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يَقُولُونَ عُلُوًّا كَبِيرًا ﴿٤٣﴾ تَسْبِيحٌ لَهُ السَّمَوَاتُ السَّبْعُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَإِنْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا يُسَبِّحُ بِحَمْدِهِ وَلَكِنْ لَا تَفْقَهُونَ تَسْبِيحَهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا حَلِيمًا غَفُورًا ﴿٤٤﴾

(41) Verily. We have expounded in diverse manners in the Qur'ān so that they may take heed. However, it only increased their resentment. (42) Say, "If there were other deities with Allāh as they claim, then they surely must have sought an inroad to the Owner of the Arsh." (43) Allāh is Pure and Exalted extremely high above what they say. (44) The seven heavens and earth together with whatever is within them glorify Him. There is nothing that does not glorify His praises, but you do not understand their glorification. Undoubtedly He is Most Forbearing, Most Forgiving.

ALLĀH IS THE ONE AND ONLY AND EXALTED ABOVE WHAT THE IDOLATORS SAY EVERYTHING IS ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN HIS GLORIFICATION

Allāh begins by saying, "Verily We have expounded in diverse manners in the Qur'ān so that they may take heed." The Qur'ān contains the proofs of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), the abomination of polytheism (shirk), mention of the Hereafter and the details of good and evil deeds. Allāh says that despite all this detail, "It only increased their resentment." This is because the disbelievers (kuffār) do not heed the Qur'ānic advice and choose to remain obstinate.

"Say, 'If there were other deities with Allāh as they claim, then they surely must have sought an inroad to the Owner of the Arsh.'" Allāh tells the polytheists that if there were other deities, then surely they would have been powerful enough to fight Allāh for supremacy of the universe. If there was a war raging between all these deities, the system of the universe would not have been so harmonious as we see it functioning for centuries. If any of these deities had conquered the others, then certainly this one must be the true Deity because He has proven Himself to be the most powerful. Allāh declares, "Allāh is Pure and Exalted extremely high above what they say."

"The seven heavens and earth together with whatever is within them glorify Him (i.e. they attest to the fact that Allāh is free from all faults and weaknesses). There is nothing that does not glorify His praises, but you do not understand their glorification."

Allāh has created such beings that are living and have intelligence. These include humans, Jinn and the angels. Then there are those living creation that have limited understanding and perception. These are the animals, birds, insects, etc. These are able to eat, drink, defend themselves, reproduce, nurse their young and obey their masters. Trees are also living creatures, but their understanding is much less than the animals.

Humans speak thousands of languages among themselves, so it is only natural that the angels and the Jinn have their own languages as well. In the same way each species of animals and birds must also have their own languages. Man does not understand these.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when a Prophet عليه السلام was bitten by an ant, he ordered that the entire colony of ants be burnt. Allāh sent revelation to him saying, "Will you burn an entire Ummah who glorifies Me because of the bite of one ant?" ["Mishkāt" p. 361]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade the killing of frogs because their croaks are Tasbīh (the glorification of Allāh).

Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that every morning the birds glorify Allāh and ask for their sustenance. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 15 p.84]

There are many things that appear lifeless to us (like the mountains and earth), but are alive and are making Allāh's Tasbīh all the time. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Then there are even those (rocks) that fall because of fear for Allāh." [Surah 2, verse 74]

There is no doubt that the believer (Mu'min) humans and Jinn, as well as the angels all make glorification (Tasbīh). Even the disbelievers (kuffār) admit that Allāh is the Creator and the only One who can save them in times of need. Allāh says in Surah Luqmān, "When a wave covers them like a canopy, they supplicate to Allāh, having sincere belief in Him." [Surah 31, verse 32]

This admission and acknowledgement also constitutes Tasbīh. Even the king of all the disbelievers (kuffār), devil (Iblīs), admits Allāh to be the Lord, as he has termed Allāh in the various verses of the Qur'ān.

If these people who verbally refute Allāh are asked why a certain mountain is where it is and not anywhere else, or why do some women get male issue and other female issue, they will be helpless to answer. They are equally dumbfounded when asked why magnets attract steel and not copper, or why certain fruits and flowers have a particular colour. Similarly, there are millions of other questions that they will be unable to answer. All this signifies that they do accept Allāh, even though they do not admit it.

Some commentators have mentioned that glorification (Tasbīh) is of two types; verbal and the metaphysical. The metaphysical glorification (Tasbīh) is that everything denotes the presence of Allāh by its mere existence and attributes. When anyone passes by them, he realises that definitely a Divine Being has created this. Therefore, every creation of Allāh, be it animate or inanimate, will be an example of this glorification (Tasbīh).

The other form of glorification (Tasbīh) that all of creation carries out viz, the verbal glorification (Tasbīh) is that which is spoken and heard, even though man may not be able to understand.

Allāh says about Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام in Surah Sād, "Verily, We subjugated the mountains with him, who would glorify Allāh by evening and at daybreak. We also subjugated the birds, who all gathered together. They were all penitent towards Allāh." [Surah 38, verses 18, 19]

Bukhari reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Uhud is such a mountain that loves us and we love it." ["Mishkāt" p. 24 and Muslim v. 2 p.245]

Sayyidina Jābir bin Samura رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is a stone in Makkah that I recognise. It used to greet me before I proclaimed to be a Prophet."

Majma'uz Zawāid reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that mountains call to one another asking whether a person making remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) had passed on them that day. When one replied that such a person had passed by it that day, the other becomes happy.

Allāh says in Surah Nūr, "Do you not see that everyone in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh, including the birds with their wings spread out? Each one knows its Salāh and method of glorification. And Allāh has knowledge of what you do." [Surah 24, verse 41]

Sayyidina Abu Darda رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Verily the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, including the fish pray for the forgiveness of the Ālim [scholar of religion (D'in)]." ["Mishkāt" p. 34]

Bukhari (p. 507) records that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Muslims, "You will fight the Jews and be granted victory over them. Even the rocks will say, 'O Muslim! There is a Jew hiding behind me. Kill him!' Only the Gharqad tree will not do this because it is a tree of the Jews."

The incident of the weeping pillar is famous. It was a branch of a date palm next to which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to stand and deliver the sermons. When he began to stand on the pulpit it began to weep bitterly. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to descend from the pulpit to console it like how a person pacifies a weeping child. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that it cried because it missed the remembrance of Allāh (dhikr) that it used to listen to. [Bukhari p. 506]

All these narrations and verses prove that even the things that we consider to be lifeless do have life in them.

"Undoubtedly He is Most Forbearing, Most Forgiving." This verse is a reply to the Polytheists who asked why they were not being punished immediately if they were wrong. Allāh grants people respite for a while. However, He may still forgive them if they choose to repent.

وَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْآنَ جَعَلْنَا بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ حِجَابًا مَّسْتُورًا ﴿٤٥﴾
وَجَعَلْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ أَكِنَّةً أَنْ يَفْقَهُوهُ وَفِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا وَإِذَا ذَكَرْتَ رَبَّكَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ وَحْدَهُمْ
وَلَوْ أَنَّ أَهْلَ الْبُرْجَانِ فَهُمْ نُفُورًا ﴿٤٦﴾ نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَسْتَمِعُونَ بِهِ إِذْ يَسْتَمِعُونَ إِلَيْكَ وَإِذْ هُمْ نَجْوَى

إِذْ يَقُولُ الظَّالِمُونَ إِن تَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَسْحُورًا ﴿٤٧﴾ أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ صَرُّوا لَكَ الْأَمْثَالَ
فَضَلُّوا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَبِيلًا ﴿٤٨﴾

(45) When you recite the Qur'ān, We place a veiling barrier between yourself and those who do not believe in the Hereafter. (46) And We place a veil upon their hearts lest they should understand it, and a prop in their ears. When you mention your Lord alone in the Qur'ān, they turn on their heels in aversion. (47) We know best what they attentively listen to when they attentively listen to you and when they whisper in secrecy saying, "You are merely following a bewitched man." (48) Look how they call you names! They have gone astray and will not find the way.

THOSE WHO DO NOT BELIEVE IN THE HEREAFTER HAVE VEILS UPON THEIR HEARTS AND PROPS IN THEIR EARS ALLĀH IS WELL AWARE OF WHAT THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR) SECRETLY SPEAK

Allāh says about the polytheists and disbelievers (kuffār) who refute the Hereafter and do not ponder over the advices of the Qur'ān, "When you recite the Qur'ān, We place a veiling barrier between yourself and those who do not believe in the Hereafter. And We place a veil upon their hearts lest they should understand it, and a prop in their ears."

When people refuse to listen after constant reminders and miracles, Allāh deprives them of the ability and the guidance to accept any truth thereafter. Allāh says in Surah Saff, "When they remained crooked, Allāh bent their hearts further." [Surah 61, verse 5]

Allāh guides only those who sincerely wish to be guided and work towards their goal. Those who are obstinate are left to their own devices.

"When you mention your Lord alone in the Qur'ān, they turn on their heels in aversion." The polytheists believed in Allāh, but also attached other minor gods to Allāh's sovereignty. They took oaths by Allāh and also by these gods. Therefore, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to mention the belief in oneness of Allāh (Tawhīd) to emphasise that there is only One Allāh, they disliked this and left the gathering.

"We know best what they attentively listen to when they attentively listen to you..." They used to pretend to be interested, but presented themselves to interrupt the recitation of the Qur'ān with their mutterings and noise. They listened so that they could mock the Qur'ān and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, Allāh knew their intentions. Allāh also knew well "when they whisper in secrecy saying, 'You are merely following a bewitched man.'"

Allāh continues to say, "Look how they call you names!" They would call the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a wizard, a madman, a poet, a soothsayer, etc. Allāh declares, "They have gone astray and will not find the way." This is so because their ability to perceive has been lost.

وَقَالُوا أَإِذَا كُنَّا عِظْمًا وَرَفَلْنَا آءَاتَا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ خَلْقًا جَدِيدًا ﴿٤٩﴾ قُلْ كُونُوا حِجَارَةً أَوْ حَدِيدًا ﴿٥٠﴾ أَوْ خَلْقًا مِمَّا يَكْبُرُ فِي صُدُورِكُمْ فَسَيَقُولُونَ مَنْ يُعِيدُنَا قُلِ الَّذِي فَطَرَكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ فَسَيُنْغِضُونَ إِلَيْكَ رُءُوسَهُمْ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هُوَ قُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ قَرِيبًا ﴿٥١﴾ يَوْمَ يَدْعُوكُمْ فَتَسْتَجِيبُونَ بِحَمْدِهِ وَتَقُولُونَ إِنْ لَيْسَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٥٢﴾

(49) They say, "Is it that when we turn into bones and pieces, we will be resurrected as a new creation?" (50) Say, "Become stones or metal... (51) ..... or any other creation that seems appealing in your hearts." Soon they will say, "Who will resurrect us?" Say, "Him Who created you the first time." They will then nod their heads to you saying, "When will it be?" Say, "It will occur very shortly." (52) The day when He will summon you, you shall respond by praising Him and you will think that you tarried only for a little while.

THE REPLY TO THE DISBELIEVERS WHO EXPRESS SURPRISE THAT THEY WILL BE RESURRECTED AFTER BEING DECOMPOSED

While the previous verses discussed those who refute revelation, these verses discuss those people who refute resurrection. When they were presented with the belief of resurrection and Qiyāmah, they said, "Is it that when we turn into bones and pieces, we will be resurrected as a new creation?"

The reply to their astonishment is given as "Say, 'Become stones or metal or any other creation that seems appealing in your hearts.'" Although bones were once part of a living being, Allāh tells them that even if they become objects like stones and metal (that had no previous association with life), then too Allāh will raise them on the Day of Judgement. Allāh has power over everything.

After listening to this, "Soon they will say, 'Who will resurrect us?' Say, 'Him Who created you the first time.'" When Allāh created them from a drop of dirty fluid, He can certainly recreate them. In fact, according to man's understanding, for anyone to repeat an act is easier than doing it the first time. Allāh mentions in Surah Rūm, 'it is He Who initiated the creation and will recreate it, which will be easier for Him.' [Surah 30, verse 27]

Allāh says in Surah Yāsin, "Has man not seen that We created him from a seed, after which he is suddenly an open adversary? He coins similitude's for us and forgets how he was created. He says, 'Who will give life to bones after they have decomposed?' Say, 'The One Who gave life to it the first time will revive it. He has knowledge of all things.'" [Surah 36, verses 77-79]

When the disbelievers (kuffār) are convinced about the possibility of judgment day (Qiyāmah), they then adopt another stance. Allāh describes this saying, "They will then nod their heads to you saying (sarcastically), 'When will it be?'" It is indeed strange that when man does not see anything taking place before him, he thinks that it will never happen. As Allāh mentions in another verse that many a nation asked the Prophets عليهم السلام, "When shall this promise [of judgment day (Qiyāmah)] materialise if you are truthful?"

Allāh gives the following reply in Surah Saba, "Say, 'You have an appointment of a day, which you will be unable to postpone for moment, nor bring forward.'" [Surah 34, verse 30]

Here in Surah Isrā Allāh replies by saying, "Say, 'It will occur very shortly.'" Whatever is still pending is considered to be close by and whatever has passed is considered to be far gone. Allāh says in Surah Ān'am, "Without a trace of doubt, what you have been promised will certainly come to pass and you cannot escape."

"(On) The day [of judgment day (Qiyāmah)] when He will summon you, you shall respond by praising Him..." Mankind will all gather on the plains of reckoning reciting, "Alhamdu Lillāh" ("All praise be for Allāh").

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abd bin Humayd رحمه الله عليه that the people will all be reciting, "Subhān'a Kallāhumma Wa Bihamdik." Even the disbelievers (kuffār) will recite this, but it will not help them.

".....and you will think that you tarried only for a little while." Because of the strain of the Day of Judgement, people will think that their stay in the world and in their graves was for an extremely short period.

وَقُلْ لِعِبَادِي يَقُولُوا الَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَنْزِعُ بَيْنَهُمْ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ كَانَ
لِلْإِنْسَانِ عَدُوًّا مُبِينًا ﴿٥٣﴾ رَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِكُمْ إِنْ يَشَأْ يَرْحَمْكُمْ أَوْ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ وَمَا
أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَكِيلًا ﴿٥٤﴾ وَرَبُّكَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَقَدْ فَضَّلْنَا
بَعْضَ النَّبِيِّينَ عَلَى بَعْضٍ وَءَاتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ زَبُورًا ﴿٥٥﴾

(53) Tell My bondsmen that they should speak what is good. Undoubtedly Devil (Shaytān) will create friction between them. Indeed Devil (Shaytān) is an open enemy to man. (54) Your Lord knows you best. If He wills, He may show mercy to you and if He wills He may punish you. We have not sent you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] as a warder to them. (55) Your Lord knows best who is in the heavens and the earth. Verily We have favoured some Prophets above others and granted Dawūd the Zabūr.

PEOPLE ARE INSTRUCTED TO SPEAK ONLY WHAT IS GOOD, CERTAIN PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام ARE SUPERIOR TO OTHERS AND SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام RECEIVED THE ZABŪR

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Tell My bondsmen that they should speak what is good." This includes all speech that is gentle and beneficial. It refers to all the details mentioned as "Mow'idhatul Hasanah (Beautiful exhortation)". All speech that will be accepted by people and cause them to embrace the truth is implied by this verse. These modes of speech must be adopted when propagating Islām to the people. One should refer to verse 125 of Surah Nahl (Surah 16), where we have explained the details of "Mow'idhatul Hasanah" and how to debate with people cordially.

"Undoubtedly Shaytān will create friction between them." Devil (Shaytān) waits to exploit any opportunity whereby Muslims and disbelievers (kuffār) may enter into a dispute and battle. This is so because "Indeed Devil (Shaytān) is an open enemy to man."

Some commentators say that Allāh is advising the believers (Mu'minīn) at large that they should live in harmony with each other and not cause Devil (Shaytān) to divide them. [Qurtubi v. 10 p. 277]

"Your Lord knows you best. If He wills, He may show mercy to you and if He wills He may punish you." The author of "Ruhul Ma'ānī" writes that the believer (Mu'minīn) should tell the polytheists that Allāh may be merciful to them by granting them Imān, or He may punish them by granting them death as disbelievers (kuffār). They should not be told directly that they will enter Hell because this will make them more obstinate.

"We have not sent you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] as a warder to them."

The task of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was only to pass the message on to the people, not to force it on them.

"Your Lord knows best who is in the heavens and the earth." Certain commentators have mentioned that this verse is a reply to those polytheists who said that it was not possible for an orphan (whose companions had no decent clothes and food) to become a Prophet instead of the leaders and affluent people.

Allāh tells them that He best knows the physical and spiritual merits of every person on earth, and He may confer the mantle of Prophethood on whomsoever He pleases. Allāh says in Surah Ān'ām, 'Allāh knows best where to entrust His message.' [Surah 6, verse 124]

"Verily We have favoured some Prophets above others..." The details about this were discussed in the commentary of verse 253 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2).

".....and granted Dawūd the Zabūr." Allāma Baghawī رحمه الله عليه has written in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (V3 p.120) that the Zabūr comprised of 150 chapters and contained du'ās (supplications) and praises of Allāh. There was no mention in it of obligations (Farā'idh), compulsories (Wājibāt), penal codes and matters pertaining to Lawful (Halāl) and unlawful (Harām). The original Zabūr cannot be traced today, so nothing can be verified. It is possible that it did contain some laws and injunctions of religion (D'īn).

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was from the Bani Isrā'īl and the Bani Isrā'īl used to follow the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Even the last Prophet from the Bani Isrā'īl viz. Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام said, 'I confirm that which was before me of the Torah, and I make lawful for you some of that which was forbidden unto you.' Although certain changes were effected in the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, the rest of the Shari'ah was like that of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Therefore, it may be assumed that the Zabūr did not contain any laws because these were already discussed in the Torah of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

قُلْ ادْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ فَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ كَشْفَ الضُّرِّ عَنْكُمْ وَلَا تَحْوِيلًا ﴿٥٦﴾
 أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ أَيُّهُمْ أَقْرَبُ وَيَرْجُونَ رَحْمَتَهُ
 وَيَخَافُونَ عَذَابَهُ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ كَانَ مَحْذُورًا ﴿٥٧﴾ وَإِنْ مِنْ قَرَبَةٍ إِلَّا نَحْنُ
 مُهْلِكُوهَا قَبْلَ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ أَوْ مُعَذِّبُوهَا عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا كَانَ ذَلِكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ
 مَسْطُورًا ﴿٥٨﴾

(56) Say, "Call on those that you consider as gods besides Allāh. They are unable to remove difficulties from you, nor can they alleviate them." (57) Those that the idolaters call upon also seek a means to approach their Lord, (vying with each other to see) who of them shall be closest and they aspire for His mercy while fearing His punishment. Undoubtedly, the punishment of your Lord is frightening. (58) We shall destroy every town before the day of judgment (Qiyāmah) or severely punish it. This has been recorded in the Book.

THE FALSE GODS CANNOT EVEN ASSUAGE ANY HARDSHIP AND EVERY TOWN WILL BE DESTROYED OR PUNISHED BEFORE THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

The polytheists worshipped many idols that they shaped according to the form of Shaytān, while many also worshipped the angels, the Jinn and Sayyidina Isā and Maryam عليهما السلام. Allāh says with regard to these false gods, "Say, 'Call on those that you consider as gods besides Allāh. They are unable to remove difficulties from you, nor can they alleviate them.'" Only Allāh has the ability to do this.

"Those that the idolators call upon [i.e. their gods like Sayyidina Isā and Sayyidah Maryam عليهما السلام] also seek a means to approach their Lord, (vying with each other to see) who of them shall be closest and they aspire for His mercy while fearing His punishment.

Bukhari (v. 2 p.685) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that certain people worshipped certain jinns. Although these jinns became Muslims, their worshippers refused to desist. The above verse was revealed with regard to this.

It is obvious that the verse does not refer to the idols since they are lifeless, but even the living gods of these people cannot effect any good or evil without Allāh's will. They cannot even help themselves. Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, 49. Say, "I do not possess the power to hurt myself nor to benefit myself except what Allāh wills. [Surah Yunus (10), verse 49]

"Undoubtedly, the punishment of your Lord is frightening." The Prophets عليهم السلام and the angels who are worshipped all recognise Allāh and therefore fear His punishment.

"..... they aspire for His mercy while fearing His punishment." From this part of the verse, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has deduced that aspiration for Allāh's mercy and fear for Him should be found equally in a person when he worships Allāh. This verse also proves that it is not incorrect to have an aspiration for Heaven (Jannah) and fear for Hell when worshipping Allāh. When some pious ones mention that they do not worship Allāh for Heaven (Jannah) nor to be saved from Hell, they mean that Allāh should be worshipped even if Heaven (Jannah) and Hell were not present.

One should always maintain hope in Allāh's mercy as well as fear for His punishment. However, when one is approaching death, 'one's hope should exceed one's fear.

"We shall destroy every town before the day of judgment (Qiyāmah) or severely punish it." Many towns were ruined when the inhabitants all died naturally leaving none to live on. Others were destroyed by Allāh's punishment. However, the rest will certainly be destroyed when the trumpet is blown to sound the advent of judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "Every soul shall taste death."

The Ahadīth have mentioned the destruction of certain towns. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Leave the people of Habsha (ethiopia) as long as they leave you, because it will be person of Habsha with short calves who will remove the treasures of the Ka'ba." [Abu Dawūd]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the last town to be deserted will be Madinah. [Mishkāt p. 240]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reported that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "People will leave Madinah in a very good state. There shall be only wild animals in search of food. The last to be brought there will be two shepherds of the Bani Muzayna tribe who will head for Madinah calling to their flocks. When they arrive they will see Madinah deserted and they will drop dead on their faces upon reaching Thaniyatul Wadā." According to another narration, they will find only wild animals there. [Bukhari p.252]

The commentator of Muslim, Imām Nawawi رحمه الله عليه says that this incident will occur just before judgment the last hour.

"This has been recorded in the Book." The above will certainly occur since it has already been decreed in the protected tablet (Lawhul Mahfūz).

وَمَا مَنَعَنَا أَنْ نُرْسِلَ بِالْآيَاتِ إِلَّا أَنْ كَذَّبَ بِهَا الْأَوَّلُونَ وَإِنَّا لَآتُونَكَ مَبْصُرَةً
فَظَلَمُوا بِهَا وَمَا نُرْسِلُ بِالْآيَاتِ إِلَّا تَخْوِيفًا ﴿٥٩﴾

(59) The only factor that prevented us from sending signs was that the former people had denied them. We granted the camel to the Thamud as a portent, but they treated it unjustly. We send signs only as warnings.

MIRACLES ARE NOT SHOWN BECAUSE THE FORMER PEOPLE DENIED THEM

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 3 p.121) and "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 15 p.103) report the following narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه from "Ahmad",

"Nasā'ī" and "Tabrani". He narrates that the Makkans requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to transform the mount of Safa into gold and remove all the mountains from Makkah so that they could cultivate the land. They said that they would believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم if he did this.

Allāh informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if he wanted, Allāh could grant them respite (and not fulfil the request); otherwise He could fulfil the request for them. If they then did not believe, they would all be destroyed like the people of the past. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pleaded to Allāh to rather grant them respite. It was on this occasion that the above verse was revealed.

"The only factor that prevented us from sending signs was that the former people had denied them." Allāh says in this verse that He does not show them the signs (miracles) that they demand because it would lead to their destruction when they reject them. This was the condition of the former people and they were likely to do the same.

"We granted the camel to the Thamūd as a portent, but they treated it unjustly." According to the request of the Thamūd, Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام performed the miracle of removing a pregnant camel from a rock. However, when he told them that the camel will drink from the watering hole every alternate day and their animals will drink in the intermediate days, they acted unjustly by killing the camel. Thereafter Allāh's punishment destroyed them all.

By right, they were supposed to believe from the time when the camel was removed from the rock, but they did not. Allāh has mentioned the incident of the Thamūd because they were Arabs and the ruins of their city could be seen by the Quraysh as they travelled to Syria.

"We send signs only as warnings." The previous Ummahs were warned that they would be destroyed if they did not believe in the miracles. When they did not believe they were annihilated. Since this Ummah will not be destroyed in this manner, their requests for miracles will not be entertained.

Other commentators mention that this verse refers to signs like solar and lunar eclipses, lightning, thunder, cyclones, earthquakes, etc. These are normally sent by Allāh to warn man so that he takes heed and mends his ways.

وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لَكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ أَحَاطَ بِالنَّاسِ وَمَا جَعَلْنَا الرِّهْمَ الَّيْحَ أَرْنَتَكَ إِلَّا فِتْنَةً لِلنَّاسِ
وَالشَّجَرَةُ الْمَلْعُونَةَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ وَنُحَوِّفُهُمْ فَمَا يَزِيدُهُمْ إِلَّا طُغْيَانًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٦٠﴾

(60) When We told you that your Lord encompasses people. We only made the sight that We showed you and the accursed tree mentioned in the Qur'an as trials for the people. And We warn them, but this only increases their rebellion tremendously.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF YOUR LORD IS ALL ENCOMPASSING AND THE SIGHT AND THE TREE ARE MERELY TESTS FOR THE PEOPLE

Allāh firstly addresses His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying, "When We told you that your Lord encompasses people." Allāh has knowledge of all past, present and future affairs. He knows exactly what will be the destiny of every person and what trials they may have to suffer in this world.

"We only made the sight that We showed you and the accursed tree mentioned in the Qur'ān as trials for the people." i.e. as a trial to see which of them will believe and who will reject. Although the word "ru'yah" normally refers to a dream, it also refers to something that is seen while one is awake. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that in this context the word refers to something seen in a conscious state, The "accursed tree" refers to the tree called "Zaqqūm." [Bukhari]

The entire epic of ascension (Mi'rāj) has already been mentioned. It was mentioned there that many of the polytheists did not believe the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he reported the incident to them. However, the believers (Mu'minīn) had firm faith in the words of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In this way, the belief (Imān) of the people was tested.

Surah Saffāt and Surah Wāqī'ah make mention of the Zaqqūm tree in Hell. Allāh says about it in Surah Saffāt, "We have certainly made it a test for the oppressors." [Surah 37, verse 63]

The people of Hell, because of their extreme hunger, will eat from this tree although it will taste very unpleasant. Thereafter they will be given boiling water to drink (as mentioned in verse 67 of Surah Saffāt).

Verse 64 and 65 of Surah Saffāt mention that the roots of the Zaqqūm tree will be in the depths of Hell and it will appear like the heads of snakes. A hadith of "Mishkāt" (p.503) states that the taste of this tree is so foul that if one drop of it is placed in this world, it would spoil all of man's sustenance.

It is narrated that Abu Jahl sarcastically told the people that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was warning them of a fire, the fuel of which is stone, yet says that there is a tree therein. He told them that fire burns trees, so how could it exist there? A person by the name of Abdullāh bin Zab'ari (who was then not a Muslim), said that, in his opinion, Zaqqūm was dates and butter. Thereafter, Abu Jahl told his slave girl to serve them some Zaqqūm i.e. dates and butter. He then announced, "O people! Come and partake of the Zaqqūm that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم warns you of." Thereafter Allāh revealed the verse of Surah Saffāt describing this tree. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p.122]

The polytheists mockingly called dates and butter Zaqqūm. By making these snide remarks and rejecting the words of Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they fell deeper into the abyss of disbelief (kufr). This made the tree a test of their belief (Imān).

"And We warn them (of the punishment of the Hereafter), but this only increases their rebellion tremendously."

وإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اسْجُدُوْا لِاٰدَمَ فَسَجَدُوْۤا اِلَّاۤ اِبٰلِیْسَ قَالَ ؕاَسْجُدُ لِمَنْ خَلَقْتَ طِیْنًا ﴿۶۱﴾ قَالَ اَرَاۤیْنَكَ هٰذَا الَّذِیْ كَرَّمْتَ عَلٰی لَیْنٍ اٰخَرٰتِیْنَ اِلٰی یَوْمِ الْقِیَمَةِ

لَا حَسْبَكَ دُرِّيَّتُهُ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالَ أَذْهَبَ فَمَنْ يَبْعَكَ مِنْهُمْ فَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ
 جَزَاءُكُمْ جَزَاءً مَوْفُورًا ﴿٦٣﴾ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ مَنْ أَسْطَغَتْ مِنْهُمْ بِصَوْتِكَ وَأَجْلِبْ عَلَيْهِمْ
 بِخَيْلِكَ وَرَجِلِكَ وَشَارِكِهِمْ فِي الْأَمْوَالِ وَالْأَوْلَادِ وَعِدَّهُمْ وَمَا يَعِدُهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ
 إِلَّا غُرُورًا ﴿٦٤﴾ إِنَّ عِبَادِي لَيْسَ لَكَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانٌ وَكَفَىٰ بِرَبِّكَ وَكِيلًا ﴿٦٥﴾

(61) When We told the angels, "Prostrate to Ādam!" they all prostrated except Satan (Iblīs). He said, "Should I prostrate to one whom You have created from mud?" (62) He said, "Are You telling me that this is the being whom You have honoured above me? If You grant me respite until the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), I will surely gain control of his progeny save a few individuals." (63) Allāh said, "Go henceforth! Whoever of them will follow you, then Hell will definitely be ample retribution for them." (64) "Annihilate as many of them as you can with your call, attack them with your cavalry and infantry, be a partner in their wealth and children and promise them. The promises made by Satan (Shaytān) are only deceptive." (65) "Indeed you will have no sway over My bondsmen. Your Lord suffices as an ally."

THE REPLY OF IBLĪS AFTER REFUSING TO PROSTATE TO SAYYIDINA ĀDAM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, AND HIS VOW TO MISLEAD MAN ALLĀH ALLOWS HIM TO GAIN CONTROL OF WHOMSOEVER HE CAN

After creating Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, Allāh instructed all the dwellers of the heavens (the angels and Satan (Iblīs), who lived with them) to make prostration (sajdah) to him as a token of respect. Recounting this incident, Allāh says, "When We told the angels, 'Prostrate to Ādam!' they all prostrated except Iblīs."

When Allāh asked him why he did not make sajdah, Satan (Iblīs) argued that he was created from fire (which he deemed to be superior), while Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was created from sand. He said, "Should I prostrate to one whom You have created from mud?" He also said, 'Are You telling me that this is the being whom You have honoured above me?'

Allāh then cursed him and he was dispelled from the heavens. The details of this are discussed in verses 11 to 25 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) and verses 71 to 85 of Surah Sād (Surah 38). As he was cursed, he requested, "If You grant me respite until the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), I will surely gain control of his progeny save a few individuals." He refers to the exceptions in Surah Hijr and Surah Sād by saying, "Except Your chosen bondsmen from them."

Iblīs knew that Allāh had created man to be His viceroy on earth. Therefore, he realised that some of them will truly fulfil this task of theirs and will not be influenced by him.

"Allāh said, 'Go henceforth! Whoever of them will follow you, then Hell will definitely be their ample retribution for them.'" Surah Sād says that Allāh told him, "Allāh declared, 'I speak the truth, and it is the truth that I always speak. I shall certainly fill Hell with yourself and all those of them who follow you." [Surah 38, verses 84, 85]

Thereafter Allāh addressed him further saying, 'Annihilate as many of them as you can with your call, attack them with your cavalry and infantry...' This means, according to the Arabic proverb ("with your cavalry and infantry"), that he could employ all the resources available to him to mislead man. After reporting this, Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله also narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that every horse that is led in Allāh's disobedience, every footstep taken for this purpose, all unlawful (Harām) wealth acquired and all illegitimate children are products of Shaytān's ploys.

Allāma Qurtubi (v. 1 p.288) says that any call towards Allāh's disobedience will be regarded as being part of the process 'to 'Annihilate as many of them as you can with your call...'

It has been narrated from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله that this "call" refers to music, singing and dancing. They say that Satan (Shaytān) employs these evils to mislead man from the truth and to make him negligent of his Salāh and other religious duties. It will be noticed that those people who are enamoured with the works of Satan (Shaytān) have a liking for music.

Nowadays, churches and temples cannot be imagined without musical instruments and singing. Cinemas, radios and television are all inundated with music. Many people claim that the musical "Qawali" sessions that they participate in accrue rewards, for them because the songs contain praises of Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This is foolish because they spend entire nights engrossed in this and hence miss the Fajr Salāh for the sole purpose of enjoying themselves. They merely please Satan (Shaytān) by this.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My Lord has commanded me to destroy musical instruments, idols, the cross and all practices of ignorance." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 318]

It is the height of ignorance to utilise such means to praise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he was commanded to destroy. To make matters worse, they consider the act to be pleasing to Allāh! Satan (Shaytān) has such a hold of these people that they cannot perceive the truth of the Qur'an and the Ahādith.

Allāh further told devil (Shaytān), "be a partner in their wealth and children..." This means that he could deceive them into earning Harām income and spending their wealth [Lawful (Halāl) or unlawful (Harām)] in unlawful (Harām) avenues.

According to other commentators, the verse means that people will be lured to make their wealth Lawful (Halāl) and Harām (unlawful), like how the polytheists made certain animals Lawful (Halāl) for themselves and forbade others.

With regard to being a partner in their children, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned two interpretations. The first is that people will be induced to kill their children or to do any other unlawful (Harām) activity with them. The other interpretation is that children will be named Abdul Hārith [slave of Devil (Shaytān)], Abdul Lāt (the slave of Lāt, an idol), Abdul Uzza (the slave of Uzza, another idol), Abdush Shams (the slave of the sun), etc.

Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه interpreted this verse to mean that parents will be so influenced with beliefs of infidelity (kufr) and polytheism (shirk) that they will teach these things to their children.

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه says that when a man has intercourse with his wife without reciting "Bismillah," Devil (Shaytān) joins him in the act. Devil (Shaytān) then has a share in the resultant offspring. [All the above interpretations have been quoted from Qurtubi v. 2 p.89]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked her, "Have you seen any 'Maghribūn' among you?" When she enquired who the "Maghribūn" were, he replied, "These are those people whose partners are the Devils (Shaytān's)."

Mulla Ali Qārī رحمه الله عليه has written in "Mirqāt" (v. 8 p.367) that Devil (Shaytān) has a share in illegitimate children because he was the one who initiated that acts of adultery that caused the birth of these children.

It is reported in the book "Ākāmul Marjān" (v. 1 p.77) from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that hermaphroditic people are the children of devil (Shaytān). When someone asked him how this was possible, he replied, "Allāh has prohibited his Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from cohabiting when a woman is menstruating. Therefore, when a person has intercourse with his menstruating wife, the children born of this communion are hermaphrodites."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that devil (Shaytān) cannot harm the child who was conceived from that communion before which the father recited,

{TRANSLATION:} "I begin with the name of Allāh. O Allāh! Keep devil (Shaytān) away from us and keep him away from the child that You bestow upon us. } [Bukhari and Muslim]

The commentators of hadith have reported that the child conceived after reciting the above dua will not suffer from epilepsy, nor from insanity. Others say that devil (Shaytān) will not be able to attack the Belief (Imān) of this child. Such a child will live as a Muslim and die as one.

Allāh also told devil (Shaytān) to "promise them." e.g. devil (Shaytān) promises people that their false gods will intercede for them in the Hereafter, that their lineage will rescue them in the Hereafter irrespective of their deeds, etc. He promises various things to various people, according to the situation. However, Allāh warns man, "The promises made by devil (Shaytān) are only deceptive."

Allāh then tells Satan (Iblīs) that try as he may, 'indeed you will have no sway over My bondsmen.' In Surah Hijr Allāh mentions that He told devil (Shaytān), 'indeed you will have no sway over My bondsmen, except those deviant ones who follow you.' [Surah 15, verse 42]

Those who are caught in devils (Shayātīn) clutches cannot escape, nor will they want to. As for those who wish to be safeguarded from him and trust in Allāh, they should remember that "Your Lord suffices as an ally." Allāh shall protect them from devil (Shaytān).

Note: In the above verses, Allāh neither permitted nor instructed Iblis to carry out all these actions, because Allāh will never do such a thing. Allāh was warning him that should he do these actions, he should also fear the repercussions. These are as He has mentioned in Surah Sād, "I shall certainly fill Hell with yourself and all those of them who follow you." [Surah 38, verses 84, 85]

رَبُّكُمُ الَّذِي يُرْجِي لَكُمْ الْفَلَكَ فِي الْبَحْرِ لِيَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا بِكُمْ رَحِيمًا ﴿٦٦﴾ وَإِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فِي الْبَحْرِ ضَلَّ مَنْ تَدْعُونَ إِلَّا إِلَهًُا فَلَمَّا بَلَغَكُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ آعْرَضْتُمْ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ كَفُورًا ﴿٦٧﴾ أَفَأَمِنْتُمْ أَنْ يَخْسِفَ بِكُمْ جَانِبَ الْبَرِّ أَوْ يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ حَاصِبًا ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُوا لَكُمْ وُكَيْلًا ﴿٦٨﴾ أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ أَنْ يُعِيدَكُمْ فِيهِ تَارَةً أُخْرَى فَيُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ قَاصِفًا مِنَ الرِّيحِ فَيُغْرِقَكُم بِمَا كَفَرْتُمْ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُوا لَكُمْ عَلَيْنَا بِهِ تَبِيعًا ﴿٦٩﴾ وَلَقَدْ كَرَّمْنَا بَنِي آدَمَ وَحَمَلْنَاهُمْ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ وَرَزَقْنَاهُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقْنَا تَفْضِيلًا ﴿٧٠﴾

(66) Your Lord is He Who causes the ships to move with you so that you may seek from His bounty. Indeed He is Most Merciful to you. (67) When any adversity afflicts you at sea, all those that you call besides Him are lost to you. When He rescues you to land, you turn away. Man was ever ungrateful. (68) Are you not concerned that He may take you to the outer limit of the land, causing you to sink there? Or unleash a storm that rains stones on you, where after you shall not find a helper? (69) Or are you not concerned that He will return you to the sea and then send a severe tempest to you? Then you will be drowned on account of your sins and will not find any avenger against Us. (70) It is indeed true that We have granted honour to the children of Ādam. We carried him on land and sea, provided him with pure sustenance and granted him great superiority over many of Our creation.

ALLĀH HAS THE POWER TO DESTROY MAN AS AND WHEN HE PLEASES

Allāh begins by saying, "Your Lord is He Who causes the ships to move with you..." Even without the agency of the wind, Allāh granted man the intelligence to develop ships that travel with engines. In this manner, man is able to derive numerous benefits from the sea, like food, medicines, valuables and other things with which he can earn a living. All these are implied in the phrase, "so that you may seek from His bounty." One of the greatest benefits of the sea and ships is, of course, that goods can be imported and exported to the various continents. Recalling all these bounties, man should realise that 'indeed He is Most Merciful to you."

Allāh then speaks of man's terrible attitude of remembering Him only in distress, using all the times of safety to worship others. Allāh says, "When any adversity afflicts you at sea, all those that you call besides Him are lost to you. When He rescues you to land, you turn away. Man was ever ungrateful."

Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "When any adversity afflicts man, he supplicates to Allāh, turning to Him only. Then, when Allāh confers a bounty upon him, he forgets for what he supplicated to Allāh before. He then ascribes partners to Allāh, thereby misleading (others) from Allāh's path. Say, 'Enjoy your disbelief for a while! You will certainly be from the inmates of the Fire.'" [Surah 39, verse 8]

Allāh says in Surah Ankabūt, "When they board a ship they supplicate to Allāh with sincere belief in Him. But when He rescues them to land, they again begin to ascribe partners to Him." [Surah 29, verse 65]

Allāh then warns man that although he may have been rescued this time, there is always a possibility that he may encounter other calamities. Allāh says, "Are you not concerned that He may take you to the outer limit of the land, causing you to sink there? Or unleash a storm that rains stones on you, where after you shall not find a helper? Or are you not concerned that He will return you to the sea and then send a severe tempest to you? Then you will be drowned on account of your sins and will not find any avenger against Us."

Thereafter Allāh speaks of the distinction that He bestowed upon man. He says, "it is indeed true that We have granted honour to the children of Ādam. We carried him (man) on land and sea, provided him with pure sustenance and granted him great superiority over many of Our creation."

Allāh bestowed man with the distinctive qualities of clear and eloquent speech. He can verbally express himself in various ways, as well as use the written word to do the same. Allāh has also gifted him with physical beauty that other creations do not possess. He is neither too large, nor too small and also has sufficient strength to carry out his tasks.

Allāh has also granted man the power of intelligence to discern matters by which he is able to harness the services of the other creations. Allāh has even allowed him to ride a large and powerful creation like the elephant and control large mountain-like ships. Allāh refers to this when He says, "We carried him on land and sea."

".....provided him with pure sustenance..." Allāh has bestowed man with the best of foods, clothing and bedding. The Arabic word "Tayyibāt" (translated above as "pure") refers to all things that are wholesome, beautiful, Lawful (Halāl) and beneficial. It does not refer only to foods.

"..... and granted him great superiority over many of Our creation." The superiority of man is physical and spiritual, and it applies to both the worlds. The Prophets عليهم السلام were the best of Allāh's creation. Therefore, man has the privilege of being from the same species as the best of creation.

The above verse does not state that all members of the human race are superior to all the members of the other creations. Therefore, one cannot ask what superiority has the infidels (kāfir) got over other creations when he will be doomed to Hell. On a general basis man has been preferred above all the other creations with regard to the bounties of this world.

Allāh did not say that man is superior to all creation, but he has superiority over 'many' of the creation. Therefore, it will be proper to say that the angels are superior to the average Muslim. The details of this belief can be found in the books of Aqā'id (Islāmic beliefs).

يَوْمَ نَدْعُوا كُلَّ أَنَاسٍ بِإِمَامِهِمْ فَمَنْ أُوِّقِيَ كِتَابَهُ يَمِينِهِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ يَقْرَءُونَ
كِتَابَهُمْ وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ فَتِيلًا ﴿٧١﴾ وَمَنْ كَانَتْ فِي هَذِهِ أَعْمَىٰ فَهُوَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ
أَعْمَىٰ وَأَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٧٢﴾

(71) The day when We will call every person by his Imām. As for those who will be given their book in their right hand, they will be the ones who will read their book and will not be oppressed in the least. (72) Whoever is blind in this world will be blind in the Hereafter and will be even more astray.

THOSE WHO ARE SPIRITUALLY BLIND IN THIS WORLD WILL BE BLIND IN THE HEREAFTER

Referring to the Day of Judgement Allāh says, "The day when We will call every person by his Imām." The Arabic word "Imām" refers to a person's record of deeds according to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Hasan and Qatadah رحمه الله عليه. [Qurtubi]

In verses 13 and 14 of this Surah Allāh mentioned, "We shall cast every person's record of deeds upon his neck. On the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) We shall take out for him a book that he will see opened before him. 'Read your book. Today you are a sufficient witness against yourself."

The person whose record will be good will call to others saying, "Come and read my record! I was certain that my reckoning would take place." Allāh continues to say, "As for those who will be given their book in their right hand, they will be the ones who will read their book and will not be oppressed in the least." The Arabic word "fatil" refers to the tiny string that is found in the slit of a date seed. The Arabs use the word to denote anything that is miniscule and insignificant.

Surah Hāqa mentions that the unsuccessful people will receive their record of deeds in their left hand, while Surah Inshiqāq states that they will receive it behind their backs. This will be so because they will receive the book in their left hands while their hands are tied behind their backs. These people will be doomed to Hell.

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه says that the word "Imām" refers to the Prophets عليهم السلام. Therefore, each nation will be called with their Prophet عليه السلام. This interpretation is supported by the verse of Surah Nisā where Allāh says, "How will it be when We shall bring forth from every nation a witness?" [Surah 4, verse 41]

Allāma Qurtubī رحمه الله عليه has also quoted another interpretation that states that every nation will be called with the divine scripture that they received. They will then be asked if they had practised the teachings of their scripture.

Note: Some people have incorrectly translated the word "Imām" as "mothers." This is incorrect because the Arabic word for 'mothers' will be "Ummahāt" not "Imām." Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه has narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the Day of Judgement you will be called by your names and your father's names, therefore keep good names." [Abu Dawūd]

Bukhari has also written a chapter proving that people will be summoned on the Day of Judgement by their fathers' names, not their mothers'. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" has disproved the fact that people can be called by the names of their mother's since these falsify the authentic Ahadith.

"Whoever is blind in this world will be blind in the Hereafter and will be even more astray." Allāh has created the perfect system of this world and He has filled it with various natural signs like the sun, moon, stars, mountains, rivers, etc. Seeing these, man cannot help but to recognise Allāh. In addition to this Allāh has also sent the Prophets عليهم السلام with the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and proved their authenticity by miracles and various signs. However, there are those who chose to turn a blind eye to these factors and do not believe.

As they were spiritually blind in the world, they will be physically blind in the Hereafter because they will be unable to mend their ways then. In fact, it will be too late in the Hereafter. In this world they could always repent, but the Hereafter has no room for repentance. It is for this reason that they will be "even more astray" in the Hereafter.

Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Have they not travelled in the land so that they develop hearts to understand and ears to hear? It is really not eyes that become blind, but the hearts that lie in bosoms which become blind." [Surah 22, verse 46]

Allāh says in verse 97 of this Surah, "We shall raise them on their faces on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), blind, dumb and deaf. Their abode shall be Hell. Each time it abates, We will increase its intensity." This verse proves that such people will even be physically handicapped on the Day of Judgement.

وَأِنْ كَادُوا لَيَفْتِنُونَكَ عَنِ الَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ لِتَفْتَرِيَ عَلَيْنَا غَيْرَهُ وَإِذَا لَا تَخَذُوكَ خَلِيلًا ﴿٧٣﴾ وَلَوْلَا أَنْ ثَبَّنَّاكَ لَقَدْ كِدْتَ تَرْكُنْ إِلَيْهِمْ شَيْئًا قَلِيلًا ﴿٧٤﴾ إِذَا لَا ذَقْنَكَ ضِعْفَ الْحَيَاةِ وَضِعْفَ الْمَمَاتِ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ عَلَيْنَا نَصِيرًا ﴿٧٥﴾

(73) They had begun to turn you away from what We have revealed unto you so that you may attribute something else to Us. They would then have taken you as a friend. (74) If We had not kept you firm, you could have inclined slightly towards them. (75) In that case We would have let you taste a double punishment in this life and after death. Then you would not have found any assistant for you against Us.

THE POLYTHEISTS WANTED THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ TO INCLINE TOWARDS THEM AND THEN MAKE HIM THEIR FRIEND

Many unauthentic narrations have been reported about the circumstances surrounding the revelation of this verse. Of those that may be regarded as reliable, the following has been reported from Ibn Abi H ātim in "Ruhul Ma'āni".

Sayyidina Jubayr bin Nufayr رحمه الله reports that the Quraysh approached the Holy Prophet ﷺ and told him that if he wanted them to draw close to him, he should get rid of the poor and underrated Sahābah رضي الله عنهم. (It was mentioned in the commentary of verse 52 of Surah Ān'ām (Surah 6) that this incident caused the revelation of the verse: "Do not shun those who call unto their Lord morning and evening, aspiring for His pleasure...")

Thereafter "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from the same source that the Quraysh then asked the Holy Prophet ﷺ to replace the verses containing punishment to verses containing mercy and vice versa. They said that they would then follow the Holy Prophet ﷺ. The above verses were revealed with regard to this.

Whatever that incident may be, it is evident from the wording of the verse that the polytheists made some request to the Holy Prophet ﷺ that was contrary to the Shari'ah, promising to be his friend if he complied. However Allāh kept the Holy Prophet ﷺ firmly on the truth and he did not even sway an inkling towards them.

Allāh says that had the Holy Prophet ﷺ inclined towards the polytheists, "We would have let you taste a double punishment in this life and after death. Then you would not have found any assistant for you against Us." This verse serves to warn the Muslims of the consequences that they would suffer if they were to fall into such a trap of the disbelievers (kuffār) and polytheists.

وَإِنْ كَادُوا لَيَسْتَفْرِزُونَكَ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ لِيُخْرِجُوكَ مِنْهَا وَإِذَا لَا يَلْبَثُونَ خِلْفَكَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٧٦﴾ سُنَّةَ مَنْ قَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنْ رُسُلِنَا وَلَا تَجِدُ لِسُنَّتِنَا تَحْوِيلًا

77

(76) They were close to uprooting you from this earth to remove you from it. If this had happened, only a few of them would have remained behind you. (77)

This was the practice of Our messengers that We sent before you. You will not find any change in Our practices.

THE POLYTHEISTS WANTED TO REMOVE THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ FORCEFULLY FROM MAKKAH

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله and Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله report that the polytheists intended to forcefully expel the Holy Prophet ﷺ from Makkah. However, Allāh intended that he migrate peacefully with Allāh's permission.

Allāh says, "They were close to uprooting you from this earth to remove you from it. If this had happened, only a few of them would have remained behind you." If they had attempted to forcefully remove the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh would have caused them to perish in His punishment. However, Allāh had mercy on them and instructed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to leave by himself. In this way, the polytheists were not annihilated and were later afforded the opportunity to accept Islām.

"This was the practice of our messengers that we sent before you." The polytheists of Makkah would also be punished if they had forcefully expelled the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, just as the previous nations were destroyed when they did this to their Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh then says, "You will not find any change in Our practices."

أَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ لِذُلُوكِ الشَّمْسِ إِلَى عَسَقِ اللَّيْلِ وَقُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ إِنَّ قُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ كَانَ
مَشْهُودًا ﴿٧٨﴾ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَتَهَجَّدْ بِهِ نَافِلَةً لَّكَ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَبْعَثَكَ رَبُّكَ مَقَامًا مَّحْمُودًا

(78) Establish Salāh from the setting of the sun until darkness of the night, as well as the Fajr Salāh. Indeed the Fajr Salāh is attended. (79) In a portion of the night perform the Salāh of Tahajjud that is extra for you. Soon your Lord will accord to you the "Maqām Mahmūd".

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF SALĀH AND THE "MAQĀM MAHMŪD"

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that after consoling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and telling him of the disbelievers (kuffār's) plot, Allāh turns his attention to worship. Allāh then promises him the "Maqām Mahmūd," which is such an exalted position that the entire mankind will envy.

Allāh says, "Establish Salāh from the setting of the sun until darkness of the night..." The Arabic word "dulūkush shams" refers to either the setting of the sun or the time when the sun has passed its meridian after noon. While Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه have adopted the second meaning, other Sahābah رضى الله عنهم and commentators have adopted the first.

According to the "Qāmūs" and "Mufradātul Qur'ān" the word "Ghasaqul Layl" refers to both the beginning of the night as well as to the later, more intense darkness of the night.

If the first word is interpreted as the time when the sun passes its zenith, and the second word is interpreted as the later darkness of the night, then the verse will denote all four Salāhs from Zuhr until Isha. The next part of the verse specifically mentions the Fajr Salāh. Therefore, the verse commands the performance of all five Salāh.

"...as well as the Fajr Salāh." Allāh commands that this Salāh also be established. The Salāh of Fajr is termed as the "Qur'ān of Fajr" because the longest recitation of Qur'ān takes place in this Salāh compared to the other obligatory (Fardh) Salāhs. The recitation in this Salāh is also audible.

"Indeed the Fajr Salāh is attended." Tirmidhi reports that the Holy Prophet ﷺ explained this verse to mean that the angels of the day and the angels of the night attend this Salāh.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet ﷺ that the angels of the day and the night alternate each day. They all gather during the time of the Fajr and Asr Salāhs; When the angels who were with man during the night ascend to Allāh, He asks them (despite possessing more knowledge than them) in what condition they had left His slaves. They reply that they left them while they were performing Salāh and they found them the day before while performing Salāh. [Bukhari v. 1 p.79]

Although Fajr and Asr are times when the angels are present, only Fajr has been mentioned to lend emphasis to its performance. The verse encourages people to sacrifice their sleep to be present with the angels.

"In a portion of the night perform the Salāh of Tahajjud that is extra for you." The literal meaning of the word "Tahajjud" is to leave one's sleep after a while. Performing any act of worship during the night holds extreme virtue, even if it may be performed before sleeping.

Sayyidina Thaubān رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet ﷺ that remaining awake is undoubtedly difficult and hard for the soul. Therefore, a person should try to perform two rakāhs after the Witr when this is performed at the beginning of the night. It will be best if the person woke up later to perform Salāh. However, if he could not, the two rakāhs (after the Witr) will count as Tahajjud. ["Mishkāt" p. 113]

The performance of Tahajjud was the regular habit of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. At times he would awaken several times during the night to perform the Tahajjud. The verse addresses the Holy Prophet ﷺ and mentions that the Tahajjud Salāh is "extra" for the Holy Prophet ﷺ. However, some Scholars (Ulama) are of the opinion that it was obligatory (Fardh) only for the Holy Prophet ﷺ. They maintain that the word "extra" means that it was an additional Salāh over and above the normal five Salāh that are incumbent for the rest of the Ummah.

Other Scholars (Ulama) state that the verse addressed the entire Ummah, although the mode of address seems specific to the Holy Prophet ﷺ. This is noticed in numerous other verses. They say that the Tahajjud Salāh was initially obligatory (Fardh) for the entire Ummah and was later made mandatory (Nafl) for all except the Holy Prophet ﷺ. According to many, this compulsion remained upon the Holy Prophet ﷺ until his death. However, many also say that the compulsion was lifted from him as well.

Whatever the case, the Holy Prophet ﷺ was always particular about this Salāh and greatly encouraged the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم as well.

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Remain steadfast upon performing Salāh at night because it was the habit of the pious people before you. It is a means of gaining proximity to Allāh, an expiation for sins and a deterrent from sin." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh loved the Salāh and fasting of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام the most. He would sleep for the first half of the night, and then awaken for Salāh during the next third of the night. Thereafter, he would go back to sleep for the remaining sixth of the night. He would also fast on every alternate day [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Mughiera رضى الله عنه narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would exert himself so much in his nightly worship that his feet used to swell. When he was asked why he exerted himself so when all his past and future sins were forgiven, he would reply, "Should I then not be a grateful servant?" [Bukhari p. 102]

Sayyidina Amr bin Abasa رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a person draws closest to Allāh during the last portion of the night. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then advised that if one is able to, one should be of those who remember Allāh during that time of the night. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrates that someone asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which prayers (du'ā's) were most acceptable to Allāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that these were those prayers (du'ā's) that were made during the last portion of the night and after the obligatory (Fardh) Salāh. ["Mishkāt" p. 111]

Sayyidina Abu Mālik Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that there are such balconies in Heaven (Jannah), the inside of which can be seen from outside and vice versa. These have been reserved for those people who speak gently, feed others, fast continuously and perform Salāh when others are asleep. [Bayhaqi]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to perform thirteen rakāhs of Salāh every night including the Compulsory Salāh. [Muslim]

Allāh says in Surah Dhāriyāt, "Verily the abstinent ones shall be in gardens and springs receiving what their Lord confers to them. Indeed these people used to carry out good deeds before. Little was it that they slept at night and during the closing portions of the night they would be seeking forgiveness (from Allāh)." [Surah 51, verses 15-18]

Allāh also says in Surah Alif Lām Mīm Sajdah, "Their sides part from their beds, they supplicate to their Lord in fear and hope, and they spend from what We have provided for them." [Surah 32, verse 16]

Note: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه both reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If a person ever missed any of his nightly devotions (because of illness or any other reason), and he performed it between the Fajr and Zuhr Salāh, it would be as if he had performed them during the night." [Muslim]

Note: If a person strongly feels that he will awaken at night for Tahajjud, he should leave the Witr for then. However, if he feels that he may not awaken, he should perform it during the early part of the night. Devil (Shaytān) and the carnal self will never allow a person to wake up for Tahajjud Salāh if he does not resolve to do so before sleeping.

Note: The verse promises lofty stages for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم since he was innocent of any sins. As for the Ummah, the Tahajjud will serve to secure forgiveness for the sins that inundate them. It also amends the deficiencies in their obligations (Farā'idh). ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

"Soon your Lord will accord to you the 'Maqām Mahmūd.'" This part of the verse consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by informing him that he will have to endure only a few more days in this world with the difficulties of the disbelievers (kuffār). Soon he will be leaving for such a position, the "Maqām Mahmūd," which is the envy of the entire creation.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that, on the Day of Judgement, people will run to all the Prophets عليهم السلام pleading with them to intercede before Allāh for the reckoning to commence. However, they will all refuse. Eventually, when they ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he will intercede for them all. This is the station called the 'Maqām Mahmūd.'" [Bukhari p.686]

The details of this narration is that people will be in terrible suffering on the Day of Judgement. The sun will be scorching them overhead and they will first run to Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, pleading with him to intercede on their behalf before Allāh to commence the reckoning. When he will refuse, them, they will run to Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, then to Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, then to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, then to Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Finally they will reach the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He will accede to the request and prostrate beneath Allāh's throne. Allāh will then inspire him to praise Him in such a way that has never crossed the heart. Allāh will then tell the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Raise your head. Ask and your request will be fulfilled. Intercede and your intercession will be accepted." [Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم interpreted the verse "Soon your Lord will accord to you the 'Maqām Mahmūd,'" as the intercession. [Tirmidhi]

Although Allāh has promised the "Maqām Mahmūd" to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Ummah has been requested to make prayer (du'ā) that Allāh confers this to him. This prayer (du'ā) is included in the prayer (du'ā) that is usually recited after the adhān.

وَقُلْ رَبِّ ادْخُلْنِيْ مُدْخَلَ صِدْقٍ وَّاَخْرِجْنِيْ مُخْرَجَ صِدْقٍ وَّاجْعَلْ لِّيْ مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ سُلْطٰنًا
نَّصِيْرًا ﴿٨٠﴾ وَقُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَزَهَقَ الْبٰطِلُ اِنَّ الْبٰطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوْقًا ﴿٨١﴾ وَنَزَّلَ مِنْ
الْفَرَّانِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَلَا يَزِيْدُ الظَّٰلِمِيْنَ اِلَّا خَسٰرًا ﴿٨٢﴾ وَاِذَا

أَتَعْمَنَا عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ أَعْرَضَ وَنَا بِجَانِبِهِ وَإِذَا مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ كَانَ يَئُوسًا ﴿٨٣﴾ قُلْ كُلُّ يَعْمَلْ
عَلَى شَاكِلَتِهِ فَرَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ هُوَ أَهْدَى سَبِيلًا ﴿٨٤﴾

(80) Say, "O my Lord! Allow me to enter a pleasant place, allow me to leave pleasantly, and grant me such authority from Yourself that is coupled with assistance." (81) Say, "The truth has arrived and falsehood has vanished. In deed, falsehood was bound to disappear." (82) We have revealed such a Qur'an that is a cure and mercy for mankind. It only increases the loss of the oppressors. (83) When We bestow favours upon man, he turns away and, changing direction, goes far. And when an adversity afflicts him, he becomes despondent. (84) Say, "Every person practises in his own way. Your Lord knows best who is the most rightly guided."

THE QUR'ĀN IS A CURE AND MERCY FOR THE BELIEVERS BUT INCREASES THE LOSS OF THE DISBELIEVERS (KUFFĀR)

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that the first of the above verses was revealed when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was commanded to make the migration (Hijrah). Allāh advised His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say, 'O my Lord! Allow me to enter a pleasant place (Madinah), allow me to leave pleasantly (from Makkah), and grant me such authority from Yourself that is coupled with assistance.'"

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that, when Makkah was conquered, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم broke all the idols in the Ka'ba while reciting the verse, "Say, 'The truth has arrived and falsehood has vanished. Indeed, falsehood was bound to disappear.'" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was also reciting the verse, "Say, 'The truth has arrived and falsehood shall not show it's face, nor make a return.'" [Bukhari p.686]

Thereafter Allāh says, "We have revealed such a Qur'an that is a cure and mercy for mankind. It only increases the loss of the oppressors." The disbelievers (kuffār) have destroyed themselves and prepared their own places in Hell by obstinately rejecting the truth. This is the meaning of their "loss." Their rejection of every verse of the Qur'an plunged them further into destruction.

Allāh then describes the ingratitude of man. He says, "When We bestow favours upon man, he turns away and, changing direction, goes far. And (on the other hand) when an adversity afflicts him, he becomes despondent."

Allāh says in verses 9, 10 and 11 of Surah Hūd (Surah 11), "Undoubtedly, if We allow man to taste of Our mercy and then snatch it away from him, he will certainly be despondent and ungrateful. Undoubtedly, if We allow him to taste of any bounty after an adversity has afflicted him, he will certainly say, 'All difficulties have left me!' Indeed he then becomes boastful and arrogant. Except those who adopt patience and do good deeds. For them shall be forgiveness and an immense reward."

Allāh then says, "Say, 'Every person practises in his own way.'" Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has quoted numerous interpretations of this verse and states in the end that it basically means that every person acts in a way that is suited to his temperament and in conformity with the traits and habits that he is accustomed to. He says that this verse is therefore a praise for the believers (Mu'minīn) and a slur to the disbelievers (kuffār), who act according to their despicable traits. On the other hand, the believers (Mu'minīn) act according to the religion (D'īn) and will be rewarded for this in the Hereafter.

"Your Lord knows best who is the most rightly guided." Allāh knows how every person behaves in this world and will grant them their rewards or punishment.

وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الرُّوحِ قُلِ الرُّوحُ مِنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّي وَمَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٨٥﴾

(85) They ask you about the soul. Say, "It is from the command of my Lord." You have been granted only a bit of knowledge.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم REPLIES TO THE JEWS WHO ASK ABOUT THE SOUL

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that he was once walking with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the fields while he was using a date branch as a walking stick. A group of Jews passed by and each told the other to ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the soul. They all then sat down to consult whether they should pose the question because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم might give them a reply that they would not like.

Finally they decided to ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reply, but remained silent. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says that he anticipated that revelation was being sent to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he also remained where he was. Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the above verse to them. [Bukhari p.44 and 686]

Tirmidhi reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the Quraysh asked the Jews for a question that they could pose to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by which his Prophethood can be verified. They advised that he be asked about the soul. When they asked this question, the above verse was revealed.

Both these narrations prove that the Jews prompted the question. They wanted to know the nature of the soul which causes man to die when it leaves his body. The verses of the Qur'an and the Ahadīth tell us a great deal about the soul.

According to a narration of Bukhari, all the souls are initially gathered at a place called the "Ālam Arwāh" where they recognise each other. Allāh says about Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, "When I completed him (his mould), and blown My spirit (the soul) into him..." [Surah Hijr (15), verse 29]

Bukhari and Muslim report that the soul of a child is instilled while it is still in its mother's womb. When a person dies, the angel of death extracts the soul. It is then taken to the heavens and later returned to the grave for questioning. ["Mishkāt" p. 141] After the stay in the grave, the souls are restored to their bodies and presented before Allāh on the Day of Judgement.

Allāh says, "They ask you about the soul. Say, 'It is from the command of my Lord.'" Allāh does not disclose the reality of the soul in this verse because it does not affect a person's life as a believer (Mu'min) to know exactly what the soul is. The verse does, however, confirm that the soul is one of the creations of Allāh. This refutes the theory of the early philosophers who believed that the soul is everlasting (without a beginning) and has no creator.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has written that Allāh has not disclosed the reality of the soul to make man realise that since he is incapable of perceiving his own reality, how can he possibly hope to perceive the true reality of Allāh?

Allāma Baghawi رحمه الله عليه has quoted many definitions of the soul in "Ma'ālimut Tanzil", but finally says that the truth of the matter is best understood by Allāh. He says that this is the belief of the Ahlus Sunnah wal Jama'ah.

"You have been granted only a bit of knowledge." This part of the verse is addressed to all mankind Sayyidina Ibn Jurayj رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that all of mankind, including the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is addressed here. Although the knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is greater than that of all mankind, even his knowledge is still extremely limited compared to that of Allāh.

"Durrul Manthūr" reports that when the Jews heard the verse "You have been granted only a bit of knowledge," they said that they possessed the knowledge of the Torah, which contains everything. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that all that knowledge was extremely little compared to Allāh's knowledge. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse of Surah Luqmān, where He says, "If all the trees on earth were pens and the ocean was augmented by seven oceans (as ink), Allāh's words will never be exhausted. Verily Allāh is Mighty, the Wise." [Surah 31, verse 27]

وَلَيْنَ شِئْنَا لَنذْهَبَنَ بِالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا وَكِيلًا ﴿٨٦﴾ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِن رَّبِّكَ إِنَّ فَضْلَهُ كَانَ عَلَيْكَ كَبِيرًا ﴿٨٧﴾ قُلْ لَّيْنِ اجْتَمَعَتِ الْإِنْسُ وَالْجِنُّ عَلَى أَنْ يَأْتُوا بِمِثْلِ هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ لَا يَأْتُونَ بِمِثْلِهِ وَلَوْ كَانَ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ ظَهِيرًا ﴿٨٨﴾ وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ فَأَبَى أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ إِلَّا كُفُورًا ﴿٨٩﴾

(86) f We wish, We could certainly snatch away whatever We have revealed to you, where after you will not find a helper against Us... (87) .... except with the mercy of your Lord. Indeed His grace upon you has been tremendous. (88) Say, "If mankind and the Jinn combine to produce the like of this Qur'ān, they would not be able to produce it's example even if they are assistants to each other." (89) Verily We have fully expounded every type of subject matter to mankind in this Qur'ān. However, most people have chosen not to accept.

EVEN IF ALL OF MANKIND AND JINN COMBINE TO PRODUCE THE LIKE OF THE QUR'AAN, THEY WILL FAIL

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the revelation that he has received is a bounty from Allāh. Only Allāh sent it and He will ensure that it remains forever. Allāh says, "If We wish, We could certainly snatch away whatever We have revealed to you, where after you will not find a helper against Us, except with the mercy of your Lord."

"Indeed His grace upon you has been tremendous. "Allāh has made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the leader of creation and will bestow the noble station called the "Maqām Mahmūd" exclusively to him. Allāh also granted him the glorious Qur'an and a perpetual Shari'ah and made him the seal of the Holy Prophets with the largest Ummah.

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah Nisā, "Allāh has revealed to you the Book and wisdom and taught you what you knew not. The grace of Allāh upon you has been tremendous indeed." [Surah 4, verse 113]

Thereafter Allāh says, "Say, 'If mankind and the Jinn combine to produce the like of this Qur'an, they would not be able to produce its example even if they are assistants to each other.'" The Qur'an is a miracle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that will exist until judgment day (Qiyāmah). It been bestowed to him because his Ummah will also be existing until judgment day (Qiyāmah). It is miraculous in its composition, eloquence, style and in so many innumerable ways.

The Qur'an has challenged mankind since its revelation, but none has since been able to meet the challenge to reproduce even a single Surah like it. The tragedy of the situation is that people refuse to accept it even after being convinced of its miraculous nature. Allāh says, "Do they not ponder over the Qur'an or are there locks upon their hearts?" [Surah Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم (Surah 47), verse 24]

"Verily We have fully expounded every type of subject matter to mankind in this Qur'an." The Qur'an contains laws, similitude's, advice, admonitions, narratives and verses about various matters covering every aspect of man's life. "However, most people have chosen not to accept."

وَقَالُوا لَنْ نُؤْمِنَ لَكَ حَتَّى تَفْجُرَ لَنَا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ يَنْبُوعًا ﴿٩٠﴾ أَوْ تَكُونَ لَكَ جَنَّةٌ مِّنْ نَّجِيلٍ وَعِنَبٍ فَتُفَجِّرَ الْأَنْهَارَ خِلَالَهَا تَفْجِيرًا ﴿٩١﴾ أَوْ تُسْقِطَ السَّمَاءَ كَمَا زَعَمْتَ عَلَيْنَا كِسْفًا أَوْ تَأْتِيَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ قَبِيلًا ﴿٩٢﴾ أَوْ يَكُونَ لَكَ بَيْتٌ مِّنْ زُخْرَفٍ أَوْ تَرْفَىٰ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَلَنْ نُؤْمِنَ لِرُقِيِّكَ حَتَّىٰ نُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا كِتَابًا نَقْرَأُ قُلْ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّي هَلْ كُنْتُ إِلَّا بَشَرًا رَسُولًا ﴿٩٣﴾

(90) They say, "We shall never believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth for us from the earth... (91) "Or you have a special orchard of dates and grapes, amid which you cause many rivers to flow." (92) "Or you drop the sky upon us in fragments as you claim, or you bring angels before us." (93) "Or you have a house of gold or you ascend to the sky. And we will never be convinced of your ascension until you send to us a book that we can read." Say, "My Lord is Pure! I am but a human and a messenger."

THE OBSTINACY OF THE QURAYSH AND THEIR ABSURD DEMANDS

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم began to invite the Quraysh to Islām, they became his enemy and refused to accept his preaching. They raised numerous objections and made all types of absurd requests. Some of these have been mentioned in the above verses.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that some individuals of the Quraysh approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and told him that if he desired wealth by preaching, they would give him enough wealth to make him the richest person. They proposed to make him their king if he desired position or sovereignty. They told him that if he were insane, they were prepared to spend all their money to seek a cure for him.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that none of the above were true. He told them, "Allāh has sent me as a messenger to you and granted me a Book. I have been charged with the task of conveying to you the glad tidings of accepting and warn you of the consequences of rejecting. I have conveyed the message to you and explained to you with care. If you accept, then you will attain the fortune of both worlds, and if you reject, I shall be patient until Allah decides between us.

They then said that he should ask Allāh to remove the mountains in Makkah that cause their cultivating land to be restricted. They also requested that he make rivers to flow like the rivers of Iraq and Syria. They even added that their forefathers, including a certain Qusay bin Kilāb, be raised from the dead so that they may attest to the veracity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They said that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم complied with their requests, only then would they follow him.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that this was not his task. He told them that they should accept if they wished to, otherwise he would wait for Allāh to pass the decision of punishment against them.

They then submitted that if this proposal was not acceptable, he should request Allāh to send an angel or confer upon him orchards, palatial homes and treasures of gold and silver. In this way, they said, he would be distinguished from them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم again told them that this was not his task. He told them that he was sent as only as a warner.

They then proposed that he cause a piece of the sky to fall on them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم responded by telling them that this was in Allāh's control and that Allāh would do so if and when He pleased.

Thereupon one of them said that they would believe in him only when he presented Allāh and His angels to them. After this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم rose to leave. As he did so, the son of his paternal aunt [Ātiqa bint Abdil Muttalib [رضى الله عنه], whose name was Abdullāh bin Abi Umayyah, said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Your people have proposed many things to you, but you have refused all of them. Why don't you take a ladder and climb to the heavens before me to bring a written book to us. There should also be an angel with you to confirm your veracity. If you do so, I shall believe in you."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was very grieved over the matter and Allāh revealed the above verses, instructing him to reply to them by saying, "My Lord is Pure! I am but a human and a messenger."

There is no reason why a messenger of Allāh should not be a human like the others and fulfil the necessary requirements of living in this world. His responsibility was to convey Allāh's message to the people.

Note: There is a group of people present today who, out of excessive love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم make such claims that contradict the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth. One of their beliefs is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not a human.

They make the absurd claim that the above verse (viz. 'My Lord is Pure! I am but a human and a messenger') is a negative verse. They therefore translate it as "I am not a human". This they say because they do not understand Arabic. Besides this verse, there are other verses also that prove that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a human.

وَمَا مَنَعَ النَّاسَ أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَبَعَثَ اللَّهُ بَشَرًا رَسُولًا ﴿٩٤﴾
 قُلْ لَوْ كَانَتْ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَلَائِكَةٌ يَمْشُونَ مُطْمَئِنِّينَ لَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
 مَلَكًا رَسُولًا ﴿٩٥﴾ قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِعِبَادِهِ
 خَبِيرًا بَصِيرًا ﴿٩٦﴾

(94) The only factor that prevented people from believing when guidance came to them was that they said, "Has Allāh sent a human as a messenger?" (95) Say, "If there were angels walking peacefully on earth, We would have sent to them an angel from the skies as a messenger. (96) Say, "Allāh suffices as Witness between us. Verily He is Informed and Watchful of His slaves."

PEOPLE DO NOT BELIEVE BECAUSE THEY DO NOT ACCEPT THAT A HUMAN CAN BE A MESSENGER

Allāh has mentioned in Surah Ibrahim that, when people refused to accept the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام, they said, "You are but mere humans like ourselves" They refused to accept that a human could be a Prophet. The same was said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh replies to them in the above verse by saying that a human was sent as a messenger because the people on earth were all humans themselves.

Allāh tells them, "If there were angels walking peacefully on earth, We would have sent to them an angel from the skies as a messenger." Man can derive maximum benefit from another man, as opposed to any other species, because this is the system of the world.

"Say, 'Allāh suffices as Witness between us.'" The disbelief of the disbelievers (kuffār) will have no impact upon the truth of the message. It will only affect the disbelievers (kuffār) themselves, because "Verily He is Informed and Watchful of His slaves." Allāh will punish people for their sins and disbelief (kufr).

وَمَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدِ وَمَنْ يُضِلِّ فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لَهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ مِنْ دُونِهِ وَيَحْشُرُهُمْ
يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَلَى وُجُوهِهِمْ عُمِيًّا وَيُعَذِّبُهُمْ جَهَنَّمَ كُلَّمَا خَبَتْ زِدْنَاهُمْ
سَعِيرًا ﴿٩٧﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَاؤُهُمْ بِمَا كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَقَالُوا أَإِذَا كُنَّا عِظْمًا وَرُفَّتًا وَإِنَّا
لَمَبْعُوثُونَ خَلْقًا جَدِيدًا ﴿٩٨﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
قَادِرٌ عَلَى أَنْ يَخْلُقَ مِثْلَهُمْ وَجَعَلَ لَهُمْ أَجَلًا لَارِيبَ فِيهِ فَأَبَى الظَّالِمُونَ إِلَّا كُفُّوا

﴿٩٩﴾

(97) He is rightly guided whom Allāh guides. You shall never find any allies besides Allāh for those whom He sends astray. We shall raise them on their faces on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), blind, dumb and deaf. Their abode shall be Hell. Each time it abates, We will increase its intensity. (98) This is their punishment because they denied Our verses and said, "Will we be resurrected as a new creation when we have become bones and fragments?" (99) Do they not see that the same Allāh Who created the heavens and the earth is capable of creating the likes of them, and He has appointed for them a term in which there is no doubt. The oppressors have only rejected.

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE DEAF, DUMB AND BLIND ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

Allāh says, "He is rightly guided whom Allāh guides." No person can be rightly guided without guidance from Allāh. On the other hand, "You shall never find any allies besides Allāh for those whom He sends astray. We shall raise them on their faces on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), blind, dumb and deaf" This will be their condition when they are raised initially. Thereafter, their senses will be restored when the need arises.

Allāh describes their plight further when He says, "Their abode shall be Hell (Jahannam) Each time it abates, We will increase its intensity."

"This is their punishment because they denied Our verses and said, 'Will we be resurrected as a new creation when we have become bones and fragments?'" They will be severely punished because they reject the resurrection, as if Allāh is not capable of accomplishing it. Therefore Allāh says, "Do they not see that the same Allāh Who created the heavens and the earth is capable of creating the likes of them..." Allāh has created these great things from nothing. Resurrection will entail only raising bodies that already have souls. Allāh has ample power to do this.

"....and He has appointed for them a term in which there is no doubt." i.e. The time of judgment (Qiyāmah) has been fixed by Allāh and it will definitely take place. It will not take place earlier because of peoples' rejection, nor will it be postponed. However, some people are still obstinate, as Allāh says, "The oppressors have only rejected."

قُلْ لَوْ أَنْتُمْ تَمْلِكُونَ خَزَائِنَ رَحْمَةِ رَبِّي إِذًا لَأَمْسَكْتُمْ خَشْيَةَ الْإِنْفَاقِ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ
فَتُورًا ﴿١٠٠﴾

(100) Say, "If you people were in control of the treasures of my Lord's mercy, you would hold back for fear of spending. Man was ever miserly."

IF PEOPLE COULD CONTROL ALLĀH'S TREASURES OF MERCY, THEY WOULD BE AFRAID TO SPEND OF IT

Allāh tells man that he would be extremely miserly if he were given control over Allāh's treasures. However, Allāh has cared for the entire creation from their inception and will continue to do so without stint and restraint. There is no depletion in His favours even though the creation continues to increase. He fulfils the needs of all his creation, even though some of them may be enemies to Him.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "How much has Allāh not spent since He created the heavens and the earth? However, nothing has been depleted from his treasures." ["Mishkāt" p. 21]

"Man was ever miserly." This is his nature. This part of the verse also serves as a reply to the request of the polytheists, when they asked that Makkah be made fertile and that rivers run there. They believed that this would alleviate their poverty. Allāh tells them that even if they were to be affluent, they would still remain miserly.

وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى تِسْعَ ءَايَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ فَمَسَّ لِبَاسِ إِسْرَءِيلَ إِذْ جَاءَهُمْ فَقَالَ لَهُ فِرْعَوْنُ
إِنِّي لَأَظُنُّكَ يَمُوسَى مَسْحُورًا ﴿١٠١﴾ قَالَ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا أَنزَلَ هَؤُلَاءِ إِلَّا رَبُّ
السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ بِصَآئِرٍ وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّكَ يَفِرْعَوْنُ مَثْبُورًا ﴿١٠٢﴾ فَأَرَادَ أَنْ
يَسْتَفِزَّهُمْ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ جَمِيعًا ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَقُلْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِ لِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ
أَسْكِنُوا الْأَرْضَ فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ الْآخِرَةِ جِئْنَا بِكُمْ لَفِيفًا ﴿١٠٤﴾

(101) Indeed We granted Mūsa nine clear signs, so ask the Bani Isrā'īl when he came to them and Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said to him, "O Mūsa! I really think that you are bewitched." (102) He replied, "You know very well that only the Lord of the heavens and the earth revealed these as eye-openers. And, O Pharaoh (Fir'aun), I really think that you will be destroyed." (103) So he intended to annihilate them from the face of the earth, but We drowned him and all those with him. (104) Thereafter, We told the Bani Isra'īl, "Live in the land. When the promise of the Hereafter comes, We shall gather you all for presentation."

ALLĀH GAVE SAYYIDINA MŪSA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام NINE CLEAR SIGNS, DROWNED PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS ACCOMPLICES AND COMMANDED THE BANI ISRA'ĪL TO SETTLE IN THE LAND

At the beginning of this Surah (verse 7) Allāh told the Bani Isra'īl, "If you do good, you will be doing good for yourselves and if you do evil it will be to your detriment." Thereafter Allāh discussed many beliefs and refutations of the polytheists. There were also many prohibitions and command in the other verses. Now, towards the close of the Surah, Allāh again speaks of the Bani Isra'īl. In it are lessons for all.

Allāh sent Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to preach to the Bani Isra'īl, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his people. The Bani Isra'īl suffered for centuries at the hands of the Egyptian Copts. Eventually, Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام secured their release from Pharaoh (Fir'aun) after much difficulty. The entire episode was discussed from verse 103 to verse 157 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), and will be repeated in verses 9 to 99 of Surah TāHā (Surah 20).

Allāh says, "Indeed We granted Mūsa nine clear signs, so ask the Bani Isra'īl when he came to them and Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said to him, 'O Mūsa! I really think that you are bewitched.' "" "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" has reported the interpretation of Muhammad bin Jarīr رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) told Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام that he was an expert magician.

Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام courageously replied by saying, "You know very well that only the Lord of the heavens and the earth revealed these as eye-openers. And, O Pharaoh (Fir'aun), I really think that you will be destroyed."

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) did not allow the Bani Isra'īl to leave Egypt, but when he noticed that the strength of the Bani Isra'īl was quickly multiplying under the leadership of Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, he decided that they should be dealt with. Allāh says, "So he intended to annihilate them from the face of the earth..." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that this means that he wished to kill all of them.

Allāh says in Surah A'rāf that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) told his courtiers, "Now we shall slay their sons and allow their daughters to live. We still have power over them." [Surah 7, verse 127]

Another interpretation of the verses is that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) wished to exile the Bani Isra'īl from Egypt, but this interpretation does not seem very accurate because, if it were true, they would not have left Egypt stealthily by night. Whatever the interpretation, the fact of the matter is that Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) plan was foiled and, Allāh says, "but We drowned him and all those with him."

"Thereafter, We told the Bani Isra'īl, 'Live in the land.'" i.e. the lands of Shām and Egypt, whichever they preferred. They chose to live in Palestine (in Shām), but entered the area only forty years later because of their disobedience to Allāh, as was mentioned in the commentaries of Surah Baqarah and Surah Mā'idah. [Qurtubi]

"When the promise of the Hereafter comes, We shall gather you all for presentation." All people will be raised from their graves on the Day of Judgement as one body. Certain commentators have mentioned in the interpretation of this verse that the disbelievers (kuffār) will try to hide themselves by joining the ranks of the believer (Mu'minīn). Allāh will then announce, "Separate yourselves today, O you criminals!" [Surah Yāsīn (36), verse 59].

Note: The "nine signs" mentioned refer to nine miracles of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. These were: (1) The staff. (2) The glowing hand. (3) The splitting of the sea for the Bani Isra'īl to pass through. (4) The drought that afflicted the Copts. (5) The depletion of crops for the Copts. (6) The punishment of locusts, (7) ticks and (8) frogs that afflicted them. (9) The punishment of blood that contaminated all their utensils and water.

In place of the above, some commentators have mentioned the other miracles of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, like the flowing of water from a rock and the descent of Manna and Salwa from the skies.

وَبِالْحَقِّ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ وَبِالْحَقِّ نَزَلَ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا ﴿١٠٥﴾ وَقُرْآنًا فَرَقْنَاهُ لِتَقْرَأَهُ عَلَى
النَّاسِ عَلَى مَكْثٍ وَنَزَّلْنَاهُ تَنْزِيلًا ﴿١٠٦﴾ قُلْ ءَامِنُوا بِهِ أَوْ لَا تُؤْمِنُوا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ
قَبْلِهِ إِذَا يُتْلَى عَلَيْهِمْ يَخِرُّونَ لِلْأَذْقَانِ سُجَّدًا ﴿١٠٧﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّنَا إِنْ كَانَ وَعْدُ رَبِّنَا
لَمَفْعُولًا ﴿١٠٨﴾ وَيَخِرُّونَ لِلْأَذْقَانِ يَبْكُونَ وَيَزِيدُهُمْ خُشُوعًا ﴿١٠٩﴾

(105) We have revealed it with the truth, and with the truth did it come. We have sent you only as a giver of glad tidings and a warner. (106) We have divided the Qur'ān so that you may recite it steadily to the people and We have revealed it gradually. (107) Say, "Believe it or do not believe. Verily, those who were granted knowledge before this fall prostrate upon their chins when it is recited to them. (108) ....and they say, 'Pure is our Lord! Without doubt, the promise of our Lord will surely come to pass.'" (109) They fall weeping on their chins and it increases their humility.

THE QUR'ĀN WAS REVEALED WITH THE TRUTH AND THE PEOPLE OF THE BOOK FALL DOWN IN PROSTRATION WHEN THEY HEAR IT

"We have revealed it (the Qur'ān) with the truth, and with the truth did it come." The Qur'ān did not undergo any form of transformation, nor was it changed in any way as it passed from Allāh to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم via the agency of Jibr'il عليه السلام.

Allāh then tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "We have sent you only as a giver of glad tidings and a warner." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conveyed the glad tidings of Heaven (Jannah) to the believers (Mu'minīn) and warned the disbelievers (kuffār) of their pending doom.

"We have divided the Qur'ān so that you may recite it steadily to the people..." The Qur'ān had been revealed gradually as separate verses and chapters (Surahs). They have also been divided according to subject matter, so that it is easy for people to follow and grasp. If it were continuous, it would be difficult to comprehend and to memorise. Reciting the Qur'ān steadily could also mean to recite it with Tajwīd and slowly.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the meaning of the division of the Qur'ān is that the matters of Lawful (Halāl) and unlawful (Harām) have been clearly divided and highlighted separately. Other commentators have stated that this means that the truth and falsehood have been clearly divided so that they can be distinctly told apart. The same applies to the commands and prohibitions and the advice and admonitions.

"...and We have revealed it gradually." "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 15 p.188) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the entire Qur'ān was revealed from the Protected Tablet (Lawhul Mahfūz) to the heavens above the earth on the night of Qadr in the month of Ramadhān. It was then kept in the "Baitul Izzah". Thereafter, it was revealed by Jibr'il عليه السلام to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم according to necessity over a period of 23 years.

Allāh then instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say. 'Believe it (the Qur'ān) or do not believe.'" People should understand that belief in the Qur'ān will benefit them and rejection will be to their own peril. Their rejection will not affect the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, nor will it affect the preservation of the Qur'ān, nor the spread of Islām.

Allāh continues to say, "Verily, those who were granted knowledge before this fall prostrate upon their chins when it is recited to them and they say, 'Pure is our Lord! Without doubt, the promise of our Lord will surely come to pass.' They fall weeping on their chins and it (the Qur'ān) increases their humility." The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" says that these verses refer to the true adherents to their faith from the people of the book (Ahlul Kitāb). They were constantly in search for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and, when they heard the Qur'ān, they prostrated to Allāh in gratitude. Examples of these people are Sayyidina Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Salmān Farsi رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has reported from Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه that these verses refer to those Jews who accepted Islām. In my humble opinion, the reference is to the Ethiopian king, Najashi and his courtiers. With regard to them, the verses of Surah Mā'idah were revealed where Allāh says, "When they hear what has been revealed to the messenger, you will see their eyes flow with tears because they recognise the truth. They say, 'Our Lord, we believe, so record us among those who testify. How can we not believe in Allāh and the truth that has come to us? We desire that our Lord include us in the ranks of the righteous ones..." [Surah 5, verse 83-85]

Falling prostrate on their "chins" refers to their faces according to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. When a person performs sajdah (prostration) correctly, his chin comes close to the ground, because of which it is said that they fall prostrate on their chins.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه writes that every person who has knowledge will be elevated to that rank where the recitation of the Qur'ān will cause him to increase in humility. Thereafter he will adopt humble manners and qualities. The "Musnad of Dārmī" reports from Abu Muhammad Taymī رحمه الله عليه that the person whose knowledge of religion (D'in) does not cause him to weep is not worthy of that knowledge because that Qur'ān states that this knowledge is supposed to cause a person to prostrate and weep before Allāh.

Allāma Qurtubī رحمه الله عليه has also deduced from this verse that crying does not nullify the Salāh. Abu Dawūd (v. 1 p. 130) reports from Sayyidina Mutarrāf bin Abdillāh رحمه الله عليه that his father told him about the sound of a grinding stone that used to emerge from the chest of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he performed Salāh. According to another narration in Nasāī (v. 1 p. 179), the sound is described as that of a boiling pot.

Crying out of fear for Allāh is a hallmark of the believers (Mu'minīn).* Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh forbids the fire of Hell from the face of that person who, out of fear for Allāh, wept a tear even the size of a fly's head. [Ibn Majah]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Two eyes will not be touched by the fire of Hell. One is that eye which wept out of fear for Allāh, and the other is the eye that stayed awake while keeping guard in Allāh's path (Jihād)." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Uqba bin Amir رضي الله عنه reports that he once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what was the way to salvation. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Hold your tongue, make your home your place (do not emerge from it without reason) and weep over your sins." ["Mishkāt" p. 413]

قُلْ اَدْعُوا اللَّهَ اَوْ اَدْعُوا الرَّحْمٰنَ اَبَا مَا تَدْعُوْنَ فَلَهُ الْاَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنٰى وَلَا تَجْهَرْ بِصَلَاتِكَ
وَلَا تُخَافَتْ بِهَا وَابْتَغْ بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ سَبِيْلًا

(110) Say, "Call unto Allāh or call unto Rahmān. By whichever name you call to Him, to Him belongs the most beautiful names. Do not recite very loudly in your Salāh, nor too softly, but seek a path in between these."

WHETHER YOU CALL ALLĀH OR RAHMĀN, TO HIM BELONGS THE MOST BEAUTIFUL NAMES, AND RECITE IN A MODERATE VOLUME DURING SALĀH

"Durrul Manthūr" (v. 4 p.606) reports from Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "O Allāh!" O Rahmān!" during his prayer (du'ā). Upon hearing this, the polytheists said, "Look at this bringer of a new religion (D'in)! He forbids us from worshipping two gods, but worships two himself." It was on this occasion that the verse was revealed viz. "Say, 'Call unto Allāh or call unto Rahmān. By whichever name you call to Him, to Him belongs the most beautiful names."

Allāh is The One and Only, but can be called by any of His various names. On the other hand, the polytheists called on different gods who were also named differently. Tirmidhi reports that Allāh has 99 names, and these are recorded in “Mishkāt” p. 199.

Bukhari (v. 2 p.686) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to secretly lead the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم in Salāh in Makkah, but used to recite very loudly in the' Salāh. When the polytheists used to hear this, they swore at the Qur'ān, the Revealer of the Qur'ān (Allāh) and the one who brought the Qur'ān. For this reason Allāh revealed the verse instructing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, “Do not recite very loudly in your Salāh, nor too softly, but seek a path in between these.”

Therefore, the Qur'ān should be recited only so loudly in Salāh so that the followers are able to hear the recitation. Then too, Allāh is able to hear all sounds and does not need a loud voice to be able to listen.

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa رضى الله عنه reports that once on journey, while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was ascending a mountain pass, a Sahabi رضى الله عنه was loudly reciting, “Lā Ilāha Illallāhu Wallāhu Akbar!” Hearing this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, “You are not calling someone who is deaf or absent.” Thereafter he turned to Sayyidina Abu Mūsa رضى الله عنه and said, ‘Lā hawla Wa Lā Quwwata Illa Billāh’ is from the treasures of Heaven (Jannah).” [Bukhari p.949]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once passed by Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه during the night. That morning, he said, “O Abu Bakr! I passed close to you and noticed that you were reciting very softly.” Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه replied by saying, “The One with Whom I was whispering heard me.” Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him to raise his voice slightly.

Then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم turned to Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and said, “When I passed by you, I noticed that you were reciting very loudly.” He said, “By reciting loudly I intended to awaken those who were asleep and chase devil (Shaytān) away.” The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him to lower his voice slightly. [Tirmidhi]

وَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَمْ يَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَمْ شَرِيكٌ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَمْ وَلِيٌّ مِّنَ
الَّذِ كَبْرُهُ تَكْبِيرًا

(111) Say, “All praise is for Allāh Who has not taken a child, has no partner in sovereignty and is not so weak that He requires an assistant. And declare His greatness in abundance.”

EXPRESS THE PRAISE AND GREATNESS OF ALLĀH WHO HAS NO PARTNER AND DOES NOT REQUIRE ANY ASSISTANT

“Durrul Manthūr” (v. 4 p.208) reports from Sayyidina Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi رحمه الله عليه that the Jews and Christians attributed children to Allāh and the polytheists used to chant during their hajj, “O Allāh! You have no partner, except those partners whom You control and who have no control themselves.” At the same time the Sabians and the Majūsī (fire-worshippers) used to say that Allāh would be helpless without His assistants. In refutation to all of these, Allāh revealed the verse, "Say, 'All praise is for Allāh, Who has not taken a child, has no partner in sovereignty and is not so weak that He requires an assistant. And declare His greatness in abundance.'"

Allāh says in a Hadith, "I am Pure from having a wife and children." Allāh has complete sovereignty over the entire universe and none shares in His authority. He is Omnipotent and Mighty, not needing any assistants at all. Allāh says in Surah Saba, "Say, 'Call those whom you worship besides Allāh. They have no control over an atom's weight in the heavens or in the earth. They do not even share any partnership in the two, and none of them are assistants to Allāh.'" [Surah 34, verse 22]

This verse also instructs that people praise Allāh and hymn His greatness. Ibn Kathir رحمه الله reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to teach this verse to young and old in his household. It is also reported in certain narrations that when this verse is recited in any home, it will be secure against theft and all other calamities.

Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best remembrance of Allāh (dhikr) is 'Lā Ilāha Illallāh' and the best supplication (du'ā) is 'Alhamdu Lillah.'" [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the first people to be called to Heaven (Jannah) will be those who praised Allāh during times of prosperity and adversity.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Praising Allāh is actually showing gratitude to Him. The person who does not praise Allāh has not been grateful to Him." [Both narrations are from Bayhaqi]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه has narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "For me to recite 'Subhā Nallāh Wal Hamdulillāh Wa Lā Ilāha Illallāhu Allāhu Akbar' is more beloved than everything on which the sun shines." [Muslimi]

سورة الكهف

Makkan	Surah Kahf	Verses 110
--------	------------	------------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ الْكِتَابَ وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَمْ عِوَجًا ﴿١﴾ قِيمًا يُنْذِرَ بِأَسَافٍ شَدِيدًا مِّنْ لَّدُنْهُ وَيُبَشِّرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ الصَّالِحَاتِ أَنَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا حَسَنًا ﴿٢﴾ مَّكَثِينَ فِيهِ أَبَدًا ﴿٣﴾ وَيُنْذِرَ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ وَلَدًا ﴿٤﴾ مَا لَهُمْ بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ وَلَا لِآبَائِهِمْ كَبُرَتْ كَلِمَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَفْوَاهِهِمْ إِنَّ يَقُولُونَ إِلَّا كَذِبًا ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, The Beneficent, The Most Merciful.

- (1) All praise be to Allāh, Who has revealed the Book to His slave and has not placed any crookedness in it. (2) He has made the Book upright so as to warn of a severe punishment and to convey glad tidings to the believers who do good works that they shall have a splendid reward... (3)..... in which they will abide forever. (4) And so that it may warn those who say that Allāh has taken a child. (5) Neither they, nor their forefathers have any knowledge. Grave is the statement that emerges from their mouths. They speak only lies.

Surah Kahf comprises of 120 verses, all of which were revealed in Makkah, except verse 28. Some commentators say that even the last few verses (from verse 107 to the end) were revealed in Madinah.

The Surah derives its name from the incident of the people of the "Kahf" (cave), whose story is narrated in the Surah. The Surah also contains the story of Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام with Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام and the story of Dhul Qarnain رحمه الله عليه, whose travels to the east and west led him to imprison the barbaric Gog Magog (Yājūj Mājūj) tribe behind a wall.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF REVELATION

Commentators mention that the Jews told the polytheists to pose three questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The first concerned the reality of the soul, the second concerned the story of the people of the cave and the third was about the story of Dhul Qarnain. The reply to the first question was discussed in Surah Bani Isra'īl [Surah 17, verse 85] and the second two appear in Surah Kahf. By posing these questions they wished to assess the truth about the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, when the replies were favourably received, neither the Jews nor the polytheists accepted Islām.

THE VIRTUE OF RECITING SURAH KAHF

Sayyidina Abu Darda رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who learns the first ten verses of Surah Kahf will be saved from the evil of Dajjāl. [Muslim v. 1 p.271]

According to another narration the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever of you encounter Dajjāl should recite the first ten verses of Surah Kahf before him and he will be saved from him." [Muslim v. 1 p.401]

Another narration on page 271 of Muslim reports that the last ten verses of this Surah will secure protection against Dajjāl. According to Imām Nawawī رحمه الله، the last ten verses begin from verse 102 until the end of the Surah.

Sayyidina Abu Saïd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who recites Surah Kahf on a Friday will have a celestial light until the following Friday. This hadith means that his heart will be illuminated for the entire week. According to others, his grave will be illuminated for a week thereafter so that it will be bright for him if he enters it within the week.

Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله has reported a hadith from Bayhaqi stating that the person who recites Surah Kahf as it was revealed shall have light on the Day of Judgement. He has also reported from the book "Kitābul Mukhtāra" by Diyā'ud Dīn Maqdasi رحمه الله that the person who recites Surah Kahf on a Friday will be saved from all problems for the following eight days. If Dajjāl has to appear within this period, he will be safe from him as well.

This Surah, like Surah Fātiha (1), Surah Ān'ām (6), Surah Saba (34) and Surah Fātir (35), begins with the words "All praise be to Allāh." By prompting the polytheists to ask these questions, the Jews intended to disprove that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a Prophet. In this way they would also be falsifying the Qur'ān. It is for this reason that Allāh commenced the Surah with the verse, "All praise be to Allāh, Who has revealed the Book to His slave and has not placed any crookedness therein."

This means that there are neither iniquities nor muddling of words in the Qur'ān. There is also no shortage of eloquence in it, nor any discrepancies.

Of the four places in the Qur'ān where it is necessary to pause during recitation, one is after the word "Iwajā" (translated as "crookedness"). The Imām of Qirā'ah, Imām Hafs رحمه الله was once passing by a villager who recited the verse in the following manner: "All praise be to Allāh, Who has revealed the Book to His slave and has not placed any crookedness or uprightness in it." He told the person, "How can an upright thing have crookedness?" He then advised the person to pause after the word "Iwajā" so that the recitation does not carry the above obscure meaning.

"He has made the Book upright..." i.e. it is absolutely accurate in every way. Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the Qur'ān does not contain any confusion and bungling of words or meaning. Others have interpreted the verse to mean that the Qur'ān is not immoderately excessive, nor deficient in any way. According to Farra رحمه الله عليه, it means that the Qur'ān confirms all the previous scriptures. Abu Muslim رحمه الله عليه interprets the verse to mean that the Qur'ān undertakes to see to the welfare of man and guides him towards all aspects that will correct and improve his existence.

Thereafter Allāh says that the Qur'ān has been revealed "so as to warn of a severe punishment and to convey glad tidings to the believers who do good works that they shall have a splendid reward. Therein they will abide forever."

The Qur'ān was also revealed specifically "so that it may warn those who say that Allāh has taken a child." The polytheists said that the angels were Allāh's daughters. The Jews said that Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام was Allāh's son and the Christians said that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was His son. The Qur'ān serves to admonish these people.

With regard to these people Allāh says, "Neither they, nor their forefathers have any knowledge." They were unaware of the truth and merely spoke on the basis of conjecture and misguided speculation.

"Grave is the statement that emerges from their mouths. They speak only lies." Their beliefs are sheer slander and can never be warranted.

Allāh says in Surah Maryam, "They say, 'Ar Rahmān has taken a child.' You have certainly said a grave thing. The heavens may split asunder because of it, the earth may be cleaved open and the mountains may crash to smithereens. All this because they ascribed children to Ar Rahmān. It is not befitting of Ar Rahmān to take children. Everything within the heavens and the earth shall come to Ar Rahmān as slaves." [Surah 19, verse 88-93]

فَلَعَلَّكَ بَنِيعٌ نَّفْسَكَ عَلَىٰ ءَاثَرِهِمْ إِن لَّمْ يُؤْمِنُوا بِهَٰذَا الْحَدِيثِ أَسَفًا ﴿٦﴾ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا مَا عَلَى الْأَرْضِ زِينَةً لِّهَا لِنَبْلُوهُمْ أَيُّهُمْ أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا ﴿٧﴾ وَإِنَّا لَجَاعِلُونَ مَا عَلَيْهَا صَعِيدًا جُرُزًا ﴿٨﴾

(6) It should not be that you destroy yourself after them in grief because they do not believe in this subject. (7) Verily We have placed everything on earth as an adornment so as to test which of them will carry out the best actions. (8) We shall certainly turn everything on earth into an open plain.

ALLĀH CONSOLES THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Despite the various miracles and replies to their innumerable questions, the Jews and the polytheists still adamantly refused to accept. Their disbelief greatly grieved the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh knew that even after listening to the account of the people of Kahf, they would still not believe. Therefore, before revealing the story of the people of Kaḥf, Allāh first consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying, "It should not be that you destroy yourself after them in grief because they do not believe in this subject." The task of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was only to convey the message, not to force people to believe.

"Verily We have placed everything on earth as an adornment so as to test which of them will carry out the best actions." If the world presented no attraction for people, there would not have been any test for them. However, in the engrossment with this world people forget Allāh and they refuse to hearken to the Prophets عليهم السلام because they fear a loss to their worldly possessions and status.

In their involvement with the world, people fail to realise that the pleasures of this world are only temporary and will disappear one day, like flourishing crops that are bound to wilt away in time. Therefore Allāh reminds man, "We shall certainly turn everything on earth into an open plain."

Allāh says in Surah Tāḥā, "They ask you about the mountains. Say, 'My Lord shall completely remove them [on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah)], leaving the earth as a barren plain on which you will not see any protrusions, nor any depressions.'" [Surah 20, verses 105-107]

أَمْ حَسِبْتَ أَنَّ أَصْحَابَ الْكَهْفِ وَالرَّقِيمِ كَانُوا مِنْ آيَاتِنَا عَجَبًا ﴿٩﴾ إِذْ أَوَى
الْفِتْيَةُ إِلَى الْكَهْفِ فَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّا مِنْ لَدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً وَهَيِّئْ لَنَا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا رَشَدًا ﴿١٠﴾
فَضَرَبْنَا عَلَى آذَانِهِمْ فِي الْكَهْفِ سِنِينَ عَدَدًا ﴿١١﴾ ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَاهُمْ لِنَعْلَمَ أَيُّ الْحِزْبَيْنِ
أَحْصَى لِمَا لَبِثُوا أَمَدًا ﴿١٢﴾

(9) Did you think that the people of the cave and the Raqīm were wonders from Our signs? (10) When the youths took refuge in the cave saying, "O our Lord! Bestow on us mercy especially from Yourself and facilitate a suitable solution for us to our plight." (11) So We cast a veil upon their ears for many years in the cave. (12) Thereafter We raised them so that We may know which of the two groups will be able to specify correctly for how long they had remained (in the cave).

WHO WERE "THE PEOPLE OF THE KAHF AND THE RAQĪM"?

The verse refers to a few youths who hid in a cave to escape the persecution of the disbelievers (kuffār) and their king. According to Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Sha'bi رضى الله عنه, "Raqīm" was the name of their dog, while Sayyidina Saīd bin Jubair رضى الله عنه says that "Raqīm" was the stone tablet on which the incident of these people was engraved. This was hung at the mouth of their cave.

According to one narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, the "Raqīm" was a book containing some facts about the Sharī'ah of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has also mentioned that this was the name of a valley between Īla and Palestine in which the cave is situated.

Once, when Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه was asked about the "Raqīm," he said that he was not certain. Thereafter he said that he had heard from Sayyidina Ka'b Aḥbār رحمه الله عليه [a former Jewish Rabbi (Lord)! who accepted Islām during the time of the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم] that this was the name of the town from which the people of the cave came.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 15 p.409) writes that all these narrations confirm that the "people of the cave" and the people of the "Raqīm" refer the same group. Although certain commentators have stated that these were two different groups, there are no Ahadith to substantiate their claim. Allāh knows best.

THE ERA OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CAVE

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has written in "Al Bidāya wan Nihāyah" (v. 2 p. 114) that these people were the children of kings and lived during the period of a king called Digyanūs. They once happened to join the masses during a celebration and noticed that the people prostrated to idols and revered them deeply. Allāh opened their hearts and guided them to realise that this practice was incorrect. They then decided to leave the people because they would not be allowed to adhere to their belief in oneness of Allāh (Tauḥīd). They sought refuge in a cave with a dog who guarded the entrance.

Allāh firstly dispels the surprise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying, "Did you think that the people of the cave and the Raqīm were wonders from Our signs?" This is hardly as astonishing as the other greater signs of Allāh, like the creation of the heavens, the earth and the multitude of other things that Allāh created from nothing. The only thing that happened with the people of the cave was that they were put to sleep for an extensive period without their bodies decaying. The disbelievers (kuffār) were astonished with this incident, yet they failed to perceive the wondrous nature of Allāh's other creation.

THEY ENTER THE CAVE

Allāh says that the time should be brought to mind "When the youths took refuge in the cave saying, "O our Lord! Bestow on us mercy especially from Yourself and facilitate a suitable solution for us to our plight." Allāh is Capable of protecting people wherever on earth they may, in a crowd, alone, on a mountain, at sea, in a cave, etc. The youths made this du'ā because they were apprehensive of the persecution of the disbelievers (kuffār) who dominated the area.

In reply to their supplication (du'ā), Allāh says, "So We cast a veil upon their ears for many years in the cave." Allāh caused them to sleep soundly in the cave for a long time. When they awoke they began to question each other about the period that they spent asleep in the cave. Allāh says, "Thereafter We raised them so that We may know which of the two groups will be able to specify correctly for how long they had remained (in the cave)."

Commentators mention that the first group refers to those of them who questioned the time they spent in the cave. The second group was those who did not delve into the matter and said, "Your Lord knows best how long you stayed."

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the one group was the people of the cave and the other group was that of the kings who successively ascended to the throne during the period that the youths slept. ["Ruhul Ma'ani" v. 15 p.212]

Although sleeping is related to the shutting of the eyes, Allāh speaks of their ears being veiled so as to denote that their sleep was so deep that they could not even hear anything.

نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ نَبَأَهُم بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّهُمْ فِتْيَةٌ آمَنُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ وَزِدْنَاهُمْ هُدًى ﴿١٣﴾
وَرَبَطْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ إِذْ قَامُوا فَقَالُوا رَبُّنَا رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَنْ نَدْعُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ
إِلَهًا لَقَدْ قُلْنَا إِذَا شَطَطًا ﴿١٤﴾ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمُنَا اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ آلِهَةً لَوْلَا يَأْتُونَ
عَلَيْهِمْ يَسْطَلُونَ بَيْنَ قَمَرٍ أَظْلَمٍ مِمَّنْ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا ﴿١٥﴾ وَإِذْ أَعْرَضْتَهُمْ
وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ إِلَّا اللَّهَ فَأَوْأَىٰ إِلَى الْكَهْفِ يَنْشُرْ لَكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَيَهَيِّئْ لَكُمْ
مِنْ أَمْرِكُمْ مَرْفَقًا ﴿١٦﴾

(13) We narrate to you their story in perfect truth. They were a few youths who believed in their Lord and We increased them in guidance. (14) We consolidated their hearts when they stood up and said, "Our Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth. We will never accept another as deity besides Him, for then we will have definitely uttered sheer transgression. (15) "These are our people who have taken others as gods besides Him. Why do they not present a clear proof for it? Who can be more unjust than he who invents a lie against Allāh?" (16) "When you have separated yourselves from them and the gods that they worship besides Allāh, then seek refuge in the cave. Then your Lord shall shower His mercy upon you and make your objectives easy to reach."

THE DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CAVE

The people during the period of the "Ashābul Kahf" (people of the cave) were all polytheists and their king (Digyanūs) used to force people to worship idols. When the "As'hābul Kahf" noticed their people worshipping idols during their celebrations, they disapproved of these practices and left. Although they were all strangers to each other and were observing the scene separately, Allāh made all of them gather at a certain point.

As they were all unaware of each other's beliefs, they were apprehensive to say anything. However, one of them said that each one should express why he had left the people. Someone got up and said that he found the actions of the people despicable. He said that he was disgusted at how they worshipped idols when Allāh, the Lord of the heavens and the earth was the Only One worthy of worship. Eventually all of them said the same thing and they forged a true bond of brotherhood.

They then built their own premises to worship Allāh. When the people reported the incident to the king, he summoned them and asked them what their beliefs were. Allāh strengthened their hearts and they expressed their belief in oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) without fear. They also invited the king to conform to their beliefs. Allāh says, "We consolidated their hearts when they stood up and said (to the king), 'Our Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth. We will never accept another as deity besides Him, for then we will have definitely uttered sheer transgression.'"

However, the king refused to accept what they said and had them stripped of their fine clothes. He then allowed them grace to reconsider their stand and warned them of the severe consequences should they not change their beliefs.

THEY ESCAPE FROM THE KING AND THEIR PEOPLE

Among themselves they discussed, "These are our people who have taken others as gods besides Him. Why do they not present a clear proof for it?" They realised that there can never be any reason for polytheism (shirk) and said, "Who can be more unjust than he who invents a lie against Allāh?"

They then resolved to leave the town and to take refuge in a cave. So they told each other, "When you have separated yourselves from them and the gods that they worship besides Allāh, then seek refuge in the cave."

They required provisions for their stay in the cave and pinned their trust in Allāh saying, "Then your Lord shall shower His mercy upon you and make your objectives easy to reach." With this conviction they proceeded to the cave.

وَتَرَى الشَّمْسَ إِذَا طَلَعَتْ تَزَّوُّرَ عَنْ كَهْفِهِمْ ذَاتَ الْيَمِينِ وَإِذَا غَرَبَتْ تَقَرَّبُ مِنْهُمْ
ذَاتَ الشَّمَالِ وَهُمْ فِي فَجْوَةٍ مِنْهُ ذَلِكَ مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ مَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدِ
وَمَنْ يَضِلَّ فَلَنْ يُجِدَ لَهُ وِلِيًّا مُرْسِدًا ﴿١٧﴾ وَتَحْسَبُهُمْ آيَافًا طَائِفًا وَهُمْ رُقُودٌ وَنُقِلَبُهُمْ
ذَاتَ الْيَمِينِ وَذَاتَ الشَّمَالِ وَكَلْبُهُمْ بَاسِطٌ ذِرَاعَيْهِ بِالْوَصِيدِ لَوِ اطَّلَعْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ
لَوَلَّيْتَ مِنْهُمْ فِرَارًا وَلَمُلِئْتَ مِنْهُمْ رُعبًا ﴿١٨﴾

(17) You will see that, when the sun rises, it would pass by their cave on the right and, when it would set, it would pass by on the left, while they were in a spacious portion of the cave. These are from Allāh's signs. The person whom Allāh guides is rightly guided. As for him whom Allāh sends astray, you shall not find for him any guiding friend. (18) You would have deemed them to be awake though they were asleep. And We used to turn them over on their right and left sides, while their dog stretched out his paws at the threshold. If you were to observe them closely, you would surely have turned away and fled from them, and you would have been filled with awe.

A DESCRIPTION OF THE CAVE

These verses describe that the youths slept in a spacious part of the cave and were not disturbed by the sun. Allāh caused the cave to be positioned in such manner that the rays of the sun never entered the cave. Allāh says, "You will see that, when the sun rises, it would pass by their cave on the right and, when it would set, it would pass by on the left, while they were in a spacious portion of the cave."

"These are from Allāh's signs." They relied on Allāh to protect them and care for them, so He made their task comfortable and easy. Their gazes were not on the visible means at their disposal, but on Allāh's treasures. Therefore Allāh ensured their well being.

"The person whom Allāh guides is rightly guided (like the people of the cave). As for him whom Allāh sends astray (like the Jews of Madinah and the Polytheists of Makkah), you shall not find for him any guiding friend."

"You would have deemed them to be awake though they were asleep." Some commentators say that they slept with their eyes open, while others are of the opinion that there were no signs of sleep on their bodies. Their bodies did not appear relaxed like those of sleeping people.

"And We used to turn them over on their right and left sides..." Because they were asleep for such a long period, Allāh ensured that the earth does not decompose their bodies and so Allāh turned them from side to side as they slept.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 2 p.154) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that they were turned over once a year, while Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه says that they were turned over twice a year. However, these reports are based on narrations from the Bani Isra'īl, since no hadith has been reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم concerning this.

"... while their dog stretched out his paws at the threshold." According to certain narrations, the dog joined them as they proceeded to the cave. Others mention that the dog belonged to the king's cook, who was also one of them. Some say that it was the hunting dog belonging to one of them.

Many opinions have been cited in the books of exegesis (tafsīr) with regard to the colour of the dog, but none of these are substantiated and it is not even necessary to know about it.

The Arabic word "wasīd" (translated above as "threshold") has also been translated as "door," "sand" and "courtyard." [Ibn Kathīr v. 3 p.76 and "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p.154]

"If you were to observe them closely, you would surely have turned away and fled from them, and you would have been filled with awe." Some commentators have mentioned that the cave was a frightening place, while others say that one would have been afraid because the youths slept with their eyes open and their hair and nails were extremely long.

Allāh protected them by not allowing the sun to fall on them, by turning their bodies from side to side, by placing the dog on guard and by causing them to appear gruesome so that no person will have the courage to accost them.

وَكَذَلِكَ بَعَثْنَاهُمْ لِيَتَسَاءَلُوا بَيْنَهُمْ قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِّنْهُمْ كَمْ لَبِثْتُمْ قَالُوا لَبِثْنَا يَوْمًا
 أَوْ بَعْضَ يَوْمٍ قَالُوا رَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثْتُمْ فَابْعَثُوا أَحَدَكُمْ بِوَرِقِكُمْ هَذِهِ
 إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ فَلْيَنْظُرْ أَيُّهَا أَزْكَى طَعَامًا فَلْيَأْتِكُمْ بِرِزْقٍ مِنْهُ وَلْيَتَلَطَّفْ وَلَا
 يُشْعِرَنَّ بِكُمْ أَحَدًا ﴿١٩﴾ إِنَّهُمْ إِنْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَيْكُمْ يَرْجُمُوكُمْ أَوْ يُعِيدُوكُمْ
 فِي مِلَّتِهِمْ وَلَنْ تُفْلِحُوا إِذَا أَبَدًا ﴿٢٠﴾

(19) In this manner We raised them so that they could ask each other. One of them said, "How long have you remained?" They replied, "We remained here for a day or a part of a day." Others said, "Your Lord knows best how long you tarried. Dispatch someone to the town with this silver. Let him then see which food is purest so that he can bring you some provisions from there. However, he should be subtle in his approach and never inform anyone about you. (20) Surely, if they become aware of your presence, they will certainly stone you or return you to their religion (D'in), after which you shall never again be successful.

THE PEOPLE OF THE CAVE AWAKEN, TRY TO ESTABLISH HOW LONG THEY SLEPT AND THEY SEND SOMEONE TO BRING FOOD FOR THEM FROM THE CITY

After their long sleep, Allāh caused them to rouse. As they did so, "One of them said, 'How long have you remained?' They replied, 'We remained here for a day or a part of a day.' They could not say with certainty how long they slept, but estimated the period. Commentators say that they slept during the morning and, when they awoke all the years later, it was evening. It therefore appeared to them that it was the evening of the same day on which they slept.

"Others said, 'Your Lord knows best how long you tarried.'" These people realised that they must have slept for a longer period, which could not be determined because of their uncertainty after awakening. Some commentators say that this realisation dawned on them when they noticed the extent to which their hair and nails had grown.

People normally grow very hungry after sleeping. Therefore, they said, "Dispatch someone to the town with this silver (coins). Let him then see which food is purest [Lawful (Halāl) and not slaughtered in the name of any idol] so that he can bring you some provisions from there. However, he should be subtle in his approach and never inform anyone about you." They thought that the same disbelievers (kuffār) dominance prevailed in the territory. Therefore, they said, "Surely, if they become aware of your presence, they will certainly stone you or return you to their religion (D'in), after which you shall never again be successful."

A question arises at this juncture. The question is that if any believer (Mu'min) is forced to claim disbelief (kufr), he is permitted to do so to preserve his life. In this case he will not be accountable in the Hereafter. This being the case, why did the people of the cave then say that if they are forced back to disbelief (kufr) they "shall never again be successful?"

In my humble opinion, these people did not know about this because they had not learned from a Prophets عليهم السلام or any other man of knowledge. This is similar to the case of Sayyidina Hanzalah رضى الله عنه when he came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Hanzalah has become a Munāfiq (hypocrite)!" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him the reason for this statement, he said that when he was in the company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and heard of Heaven (Jannah) and Hell, these actually seemed to appear before them. However, he said, when he left the noble presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and engaged in play and frolic with their families and children, he seemed to forget Prophetic words.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "By the Being in Whose control my life is! If you could perpetually maintain the frame of mind you have when you are with me, the angels would shake your hands while you are in your beds and while you walk. But, O Hanzalah, this is rare (i.e. the condition in which you are when in my company)." Just as Sayyidina Hanzalah رضى الله عنه thought that he had turned hypocrite (munāfiq), the people of the cave thought that they would become disbelievers (kuffār) if they spoke words of infidelity (kufr) under duress.

Certain commentators have mentioned that they referred to total success i.e. although it will be permissible under such extenuating circumstances to utter words of disbelief (kufr), but the best would be to refuse and face the consequences. They therefore felt that they would be deprived of practising this better option.

However, when the person (by the name of Tamlikha) bought some food, he paid with the old coins that he had with him. Seeing these extremely old coins, the merchant from whom he bought was taken aback, and the story spread in the city. The city was by then dominated by believers and even the king was a believer (Mu'min). When the king received news about this stranger, he rode back with the people to the cave.

According to one narration, when Tamlikha informed the others that the city was populated by believers (Mu'minīn) and that the king had arrived to meet them, they were exuberant and emerged to meet him. He honoured them and they were pleased to meet him. According to another narration, they died upon receiving this news. Both these narrations are Isra'iliyāt (from the Bani Isra'il). [Qurtubi v. 10 p.389]

وَكَذَلِكَ أَغْتَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ لِيَعْلَمُوا أَنَّهُ وَعْدُ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَأَنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا إِذْ يَتَنَزَّعُونَ بَيْنَهُمْ أَمْرَهُمْ فَقَالُوا ابْنُوا عَلَيْهِمْ بُيُوتًا رَبُّهُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِهِمْ قَالَ الَّذِينَ غَلَبُوا عَلَى أَمْرِهِمْ لَنَتَّخِذَنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ مَسْجِدًا ﴿٢١﴾

(21) In this manner We disclosed them so that the people might know that Allāh's promise is true and that there is no doubt about the coming of judgment day (Qiyāmah). The people disputed about them and said, "Build a structure over them. Their Lord knows them best." Those who proved dominant in their affairs said, "We shall definitely build a Masjid over them."

THE PEOPLE DECIDE TO CONSTRUCT A MASJID AT THE SITE OF THE CAVE

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه writes that after many generations, a believer (Mu'min) king ascended to the throne. He accepted the belief in resurrection, but there were people in his kingdom who believed that only souls will be resurrected, not physical bodies. They said this because they felt that bodies will be decomposed by the earth.

The king was perturbed by this difference of opinion and, putting on clothing of coarse cloth, he sat in the sand and prayed to Allāh to reveal some sign by which people can be convinced that it was not at all impossible for people to be resurrected with body and soul. Allāh accepted his supplication (du'ā) by rousing the people of the cave in his period. He realised that they were the same people who went into hiding from the time of the tyrant Dīg'yānūs and he was now able to convince the masses that people can be physically resurrected after hundreds of years.

With reference to this Allāh says, "In this manner We disclosed them so that the people might know that Allāh's promise is true and that there is no doubt about the coming of judgment day (Qiyāmah)." After the people witnessed them, the people of the cave passed away in the cave, according to the wording of the Qur'ān.

"The people disputed about them and said, 'Build a structure over them. Their Lord knows them best.' Those who proved dominant in their affairs said, 'We shall definitely build a Masjid over them.'" This verse seems to indicate that the dispute arose at the cave when they died.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 15 p.234) reports that the king saw that the faces of people of the cave were still resplendent and that their clothing was still intact. They related their story to him and, as they were discussing, they told him, "We hand you over in trust to Allāh. May the peace and blessings of Allāh be on you. May Allāh, the Most Exalted protect you and your kingdom. We seek refuge on your behalf with Allāh from the evils of man and Jinn." They then returned to their positions in the cave and passed away. The king buried them and constructed a mosque (Masjid) at the entrance of the cave.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has also reported that when the person who was charged with buying food was brought to the king, the king asked him who he was. He replied that he was from the same city and that he had left it only the day before. He showed them where he lived and even mentioned the names of some people whom those present did not recognise.

However, the king recalled that some youths had disappeared at one stage and that their names were recorded on a tablet that was kept in the state treasury. When he sent for the tablet, it revealed that these were the same persons. The king then went to the cave with a few people. As the person informed his companions of the situation, Allāh caused them all to pass away and the king and his men were unable to enter the cave when Allāh cast a veil upon their eyes.

It was then that "the people disputed with regard to them and said, 'Build a structure over them. Their Lord knows them best.' Those who proved dominant in their affairs (viz. the king and his men) said, 'We shall definitely build a Masjid over them.'" This Masjid (mosque) was built at the mouth of the cave and not over the graves. The graves were also not the Qibla of the Masjid. Therefore, none may raise the objection that a Masjid should not be built upon graves.

With regard to the phrase "Their Lord knows them best" the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this was in reply to another debate that ensued with regard to the details of the people of the cave. The people argued with regard to their ancestry, their history and with regard to the period that they spent in the cave.

سَيَقُولُونَ ثَلَاثَةٌ رَّابِعُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ وَيَقُولُونَ خَمْسَةٌ سَادِسُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ رَجْمًا بِالْغَيْبِ
وَيَقُولُونَ سَبْعَةٌ وَثَامُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ قُلْ رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ بِعَدَّتِهِمْ مَا يَعْلَمُهُمْ إِلَّا قَلِيلٌ فَلَا
تُمَارِ فِيهِمْ إِلَّا مِرَاءً ظَاهِرًا وَلَا تَسْتَفْتِ فِيهِمْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدًا ﴿٢٢﴾

(22) Some people said, "They were three, their dog being the fourth." Others said, "They were five, their dog being the sixth." They are merely guessing. Others say, "They were seven and their dog was the eighth." Say, "My Lord knows best what their number was and only a few people know them. So do not delve into debate regarding them, except for superficial discussion. And do not even ask anyone about them."

THE DISPUTE REGARDING THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE IN THE CAVE AND THE SOLUTION

The above verse cites three opinions with regard to the number of people who were in the cave. The first says that "They were three, their dog being the fourth". The second states that "They were five, their dog being the sixth." The third says that "They were seven and their dog was the eighth."

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 15 p.480) says that these three opinions arose during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The first was held by the Jews, the second by the Christians of Najrān who came to Madinah. With them was the leader of the Nāstūriya sect of Christians by the name of Āqib. The third opinion was that of some Muslims.

After mentioning the first two opinions, Allāh says, "They are merely guessing." After mentioning the third opinion Allāh says, "Say, 'My Lord knows best what their number was and only a few people know them.'" Commentators deduce from this that the third opinion is the correct one.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that he is of those few who know the correct number. He then said that they were seven and their dog was the eighth. This is the view of Muslims in general. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has enumerated their names as Makaslimina, Yamlikha, Martūs, Thayunus, Dardanūs, Kafashaytitūs and Mantaanwasīs, and their dog was named Qitmīr.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has most probably heard the names from someone of the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb). The correct pronunciation of these names is not known.

“So do not delve into debate regarding them, except for superficial discussion.” One should narrate only what the Qur’ān says and not delve further into the subject. Allāh also instructs, “And do not even ask anyone about them.” Whoever will be asked will report only such things that have no concrete basis.

وَلَا نَقُولَنَّ لِشَيْءٍ إِنِّي فَاعِلٌ ذَٰلِكَ غَدًا ﴿٢٣﴾ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ وَادْكُرْ رَبَّكَ إِذَا نَسِيتَ وَقُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَهْدِيَنِي رَّبِّي لِأَقْرَبَ مِنْ هَٰذَا رَشْدًا ﴿٢٤﴾

(23) Never say with regard to anything, “I will certainly do so tomorrow. (24) Unless you add, “By Allāh’s will.” Remember your Lord when you forget and say, “I have the hope that my Lord will guide me to what is closer thereto in direction.”

REPROACH FOR NOT ADDING “INSHA ALLĀH” WHEN MAKING A PROMISE

Ibn Kathir reports that the Quraysh sent Nadhr bin Hārith and Uqba bin Abi Mu’it to Madinah [before the migration (Hijrah)] to ask the Jews about the description of the final Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Jews told them to pose three questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. If he answered these, then he was a true Prophet.

The first question was that they should ask him to relate the story about some youths who had left their homes in the past. The second question was that they should ask him about the person who extensively travelled to the east and the west. The third was about the reality of the soul.

When they returned from Madinah, they told the Quraysh that they now had a decisive way of ascertaining the truth about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When they posed the questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he told them that he would give them a reply the following day. However, he omitted to add “Insha Allāh” (“If Allāh wills”).

As a result of this, no revelation came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for fifteen days and the Polytheists began to taunt him. This caused him much grief, but on the 15th day, Jibr’il عليه السلام appeared with Surah Kahf, in which Allāh chides the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for not adding “Insha Allāh” to his promise. The reply to them questions came in this Surah and the third was answered in Surah Bani Isra’īl.

People of high rank are rebuked even for things that seem minor. Being the best of creation, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was chided by Allāh even for omitting a non-obligatory act. A person can never be certain of the duration of his life and can die before he can fulfil his promises. Even if he lives, he still cannot be certain whether he will be able to conclude the intended act. He should therefore add "Insha Allāh" to every promise. "Insha Allāh" should not be added because a person intends to breach the promise.

Thereafter Allāh says, "Remember your Lord when you forget..." It has been reported from certain commentators, including Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, that a person may add "Insha Allāh" to his promise if he forgets, even though this may be after some time. The addition of "Insha Allāh" will then be considered to be part of the promise. Although this interpretation seems to correlate with the context, yet this verse alone is insufficient to pass a ruling in this regard because it does not clearly state this. Imām Abu Hanifa رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that the late addition of "Insha Allāh" will serve only to increase blessings and amend the omission. However, it will not annul a vow or a promise to free a slave. It will annul these things only if it is added immediately after speaking the sentence. Many other Imāms agree with the view of Imām Abu Hanifa رحمه الله عليه and this view is substantiated by many other sources.

According to this view, the above verse will mean that Allāh should be immediately brought to mind when a person errs and forgets Him. This is similar to the night of Ta'ris when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم slept through the Fajr Salāh. On that occasion he told them, "When any of you forget a Salāh or sleeps through it, then he should perform it as soon and he remembers because Allāh says, "Establish Salāh for My remembrance."

".....and say, 'I have the hope that my Lord will guide me to what is closer thereto in direction.'" i.e. my Lord will guide me to display to you things that are even more convincing of my Prophethood than the story of the people of the cave. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was therefore able to tell people of stories that predated the people of the cave. These were such that none could have known without divine revelation.

وَلَبِثُوا فِي كَهْفِهِمْ ثَلَاثَ مِائَةٍ سِنِينَ وَازْدَادُوا تِسْعًا ﴿٢٥﴾ قُلِ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثُوا
لَهُ غَيْبُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَبْصَرَ بِهِ، وَأَسْمِعُ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا
يُشْرِكُ فِي حُكْمِهِ أَحَدًا ﴿٢٦﴾

(25) They remained in their cave for three hundred years, adding another nine to it. (26) Say, "Allāh knows best how long they stayed. He has knowledge of the unseen things within the heavens and the earth. How well does He see and hear! They have no helper besides Him, and none can be partner in His law."

HOW LONG DID THE YOUTHS REMAIN IN THE CAVE?

"They remained in their cave for three hundred years, adding another nine to it. Say, 'Allāh know best how long they stayed. He has knowledge of the unseen things within the heavens and the earth.'" Since the cave and the people in it were all on earth, Allāh has the most complete knowledge about them.

In emphasis Allāh adds, "How well does He see and hear!" None is more capable of hearing and seeing than He is. The translation of the above phrase cannot truly be expressed in any language besides Arabic.

"They have no helper besides Him, and none can be partner in His law." Allāh decrees as He pleases and His decree is binding on all.

Note 1: It is apparent from the above verse that the youths remained in the cave for 309 years. This is the accepted belief of the commentators. However, it has been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that this is the statement of the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb), and that Allāh wishes to refute this statement of theirs when he says, "Say, 'Allāh know best how long they stayed."

However, the authenticity of this report from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has not been established and it is not necessary that anyone be refuted by the sentence, "Say, 'Allāh know best how long they stayed."

Note 2: Some commentators have mentioned that the phrase "three hundred years, adding another nine to it" does not mean 309 years. They say that the true period was 300 years according to the solar calendar and 309 according to the lunar calendar. They say that Allāh phrased the verse in this manner to indicate the period according to the two calendars. However, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has refuted this opinion because he says that 300 solar years would add up to exactly 309 years, 73 days, 9 hours and 48 minutes. And Allāh knows best.

وَأَتْلُ مَا أُوْحِيَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ كِتَابِ رَبِّكَ لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمَاتِهِ وَلَنْ تَجِدَ مِنْ دُونِهِ
مُلْتَحَدًا ﴿٢٧﴾ وَأَصْبِرْ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدْوَةِ وَالْعَشيِّ يُرِيدُونَ
وَجَهَنَّمَ وَلَا تَغْدُ عَيْنَاكَ عَنْهُمْ تُرِيدُ زِينَةَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا تُطِعْ مَنْ أَغْفَلْنَا قَلْبَهُ عَنْ
ذِكْرِنَا وَاتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُهُ فُرُطًا ﴿٢٨﴾

(27) Recite what has been revealed to you from the Book of your Lord. There is none who can alter His words and you will certainly not find another place of refuge besides with Him. (28) Restrain yourself with those who, seeking His pleasure, call to their Lord morning and evening. And do not shift your attention from them with the intent of acquiring the adornment of this worldly life. Do not obey him whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance, who pursues his passions and whose affair is transgressing.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS COMMANDED TO RECITE ALLĀH'S BOOK AND TO REMAIN WITH THOSE WHO ARE ATTACHED TO ALLĀH

"Durrul Manthūr" (v. 4 p.2 19) reports from Sayyidina Salmān Farsi رضى الله عنه that Uyayna bin Badr and Aqra bin Hābis (who were from those whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gratified for certain reasons) once came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم They told him that they would sit with him and converse only if he sat apart from the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم like Sayyidina Salmān رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه, etc so that they do not have to smell the stench of their coarse clothing.

In response to this request Allāh revealed the verses "Recite what has been revealed to you from the Book of your Lord ... (until the verse) ... We have prepared for the disbelievers..."

Sayyidina Sahl bin Hunayf رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once in one of his rooms when Allāh revealed the verse "Restrain yourself with those who, seeking His pleasure, call to their Lord morning and evening." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then went out to look for these people.

These were the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم whose hair was dishevelled, whose skin was parched and who had only one piece of cloth to clothe themselves with. Upon seeing them, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sat with them and said, "All praise be to Allāh Who has created within my Ummah such people with whom I have been commanded to remain with."

Normally, the leaders of nations look down upon the poor pious people, not realising that the wealth and position that intoxicate them will soon disappear, whereas Belief (Imān) and good deeds last forever. It is extremely foolish to look down on those who are busy acquiring the things that are everlasting.

There were people who did not accept Islām fully during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to give them things to maintain their Belief (Imān). They were called the "Mu'allifatul Qulūb". The narration mentioned initially quoted the names of some of them who asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to sit apart from the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم.

Allāh did not allow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to accede to their request, but revealed the verses, "Recite what has been revealed to you from the Book of your Lord." If their request entails ostracising the true believers (Mu'minīn), it will not be entertained. This is Allāh's decree and "There is none who can alter His words and you will certainly not find another place of refuge besides with Him."

"Restrain yourself (remain) with those who, seeking His pleasure, call to their Lord morning and evening. And do not shift your attention from them with the intent of acquiring the adornment of this worldly life." This verse is filled with praise for the illustrious Sahābah رضى الله عنهم. Here Allāh addresses the thought that might have entered the mind of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, that by acceding to the requests of these affluent people, Islām could be strengthened by them becoming Muslims. Allāh says that the adornment of Islām is not in worldly wealth but in Belief (Imān) and obedience to Allāh.

"Do not obey him whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance, who pursues his passions and whose affair is transgressing." This verse refers to the leaders of the Quraysh.

وَقُلِ الْحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّكُمْ فَمَن شَاءَ فَلْيُؤْمِن وَمَن شَاءَ فَلْيُكْفُرْ إِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ نَارًا

أَحَاطَ بِهِمْ سُرَادِقُهَا وَإِنْ يَسْتَغِيثُوا يُغَاثُوا بِمَاءٍ كَالْمُهْلِ يَشْوِي الْوُجُوهَ بِئْسَ
الشَّرَابُ وَسَاءَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا ﴿٢٩﴾

(29) Speak the truth that comes from your Lord. Whomsoever is willing, should believe, and whoever is unwilling should remain as a disbeliever. We have surely prepared for the oppressors a Fire, the walls of which will encompass them. If they beseech help, they will be helped with water that is like the residue of burnt oil and will scorch their faces. A terrible drink indeed! Hell is the worst of resting places.

THE TRUTH IS APPARENT SO THOSE WHO WISH TO BELIEVE SHOULD DO SO AND THOSE WHO DO NOT WISH TO BELIEVE NEED NOT DO SO THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE DOOMED TO HELL

The Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures have made the truth crystal clear. Therefore Allāh declares, "Speak the truth that comes from your Lord. Whomsoever is willing, should believe, and whoever is unwilling should remain as a disbeliever." Each party will receive their dues in the Hereafter.

No foolish person should think that this verse permits being a disbeliever (kāfir). The verse merely expresses the choice that is presented to every person. It is for this reason that the adjoining verses describe the plight of the disbelievers (kuffār) and the bliss to be enjoyed by the believers (Mu'minīn). In the same way, someone might say, "Go on. Do as you please. Soon you shall see what punishment you will receive!"

Allāh then continues to describe the plight of the disbelievers (kuffār). He says, "We have surely prepared for the oppressors a Fire, the walls of which will encompass them." They will be unable to escape from Hell. Besides the scorching of the fire, they will suffer the severest of thirst. Allāh says, "If they beseech help, they will be helped with water that is like the residue of burnt oil..." Despite the condition of the drink, they will be so thirsty that they will take it to their lips to drink. It will then "scorch their faces."

In addition to this drink, they will be fed with the Zaqqūm tree, which will be extremely unpalatable and stinking. This will be given to them with boiling water. Surah Sāffāt, Surah Wāq'ah and Surah Dukhān make mention of the Zaqqūm tree in Hell. A verse of Surah Muhammad says, "those who will abide forever in the Fire and are given boiling water to drink, which tears their innards to shreds?" Despite the heat of the boiling water, the people of Hell will drink it "like thirsty camels."

"A terrible drink indeed! Hell is the worst of resting places." Hell has been termed as a resting-place (although it can never be so) to admonish the disbelievers (kuffār) for choosing the life of this world and flouting Allāh's laws. They thought that they would be depriving themselves of rest and comfort in the world by accepting Islām. Therefore, they considered disbelief (kufr) as their ticket to rest and enjoyment. Allāh tells them here that this Hell was the resting-place that their infidelity (kufr) eventually earned them, and it is indeed a terrible resting-place!

Sayyidina Abu Saïd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Hell has four walls, the length of each being the distance of a forty year's walk. [Tirmidhi]

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ إِنَّا لَا نُضِيعُ أَجْرَ مَنْ أَحْسَنَ عَمَلًا ﴿٣٠﴾
 أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ تَجْرَىٰ مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْأَنْهَارُ يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَيَلْبَسُونَ
 ثِيَابًا خُضْرًا مِّن سُندُسٍ وَإِسْتَبْرَقٍ مُّتَّكِئِينَ فِيهَا عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ نِعَمَ الثَّوَابِ وَحَسُنَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا ﴿٣١﴾

(30) As for those who believe and do good deeds, We shall certainly not put to waste the rewards of those whose actions are good. (31) For these people shall be eternal gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they will be adorned with golden bangles and will wear green garments of "Sundus" and "Istabraq" and they will recline on couches. A fine reward indeed, and the best of resting-places!

THE REWARD OF THE BELIEVERS AND A DESCRIPTION OF THE CLOTHING AND JEWELLERY OF HEAVEN (JANNAH)

After describing the people of Hell, Allāh speaks about those who are believers (Mu'minin). Allāh says, "As for those who believe and do good deeds, We shall certainly not put to waste the rewards of those whose actions are good." These are the people whose deeds were sincerely for Allāh and according to the teachings of the Qur'ān and Ahadith.

"For these people shall be eternal gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they will be adorned with golden bangles and will wear green garments of 'Sundus' and 'Istabraq' and they will recline on couches." We cannot base our perception of the Hereafter upon our knowledge of this world. Although gold and jewellery are forbidden for men in this world, it will be permitted in the Hereafter. Then too, although one might think that bangles and other jewellery do not suit men, these will look beautiful in Heaven (Jannah). In fact, people in many parts of the world still dress their men in such items of finery, especially the royalty.

The clothing of Heaven (Jannah) will be green because green appeals to the eye. A verse of Surah Hajj states, "Their clothing therein [in Heaven (Jannah)] will be of silk." 'Sundus' and 'Istabraq' will be types of silk, the first being a thinner type than the second. Ibn Kathīr states that 'Istabraq' is that silk which has a shine and is used for underwear. It seems that 'Istabraq' will be worn as undergarments in Heaven (Jannah) and 'Sundus' will be worn over it.

Allāh concludes this discussion by stating that Jannah is "A fine reward indeed, and the best of resting places."

وَأَضْرَبَ لَهُمْ مَثَلًا رَجُلَيْنِ جَعَلْنَا لِأَحَدِهِمَا جَنَّتَيْنِ مِنْ أَعْنَابٍ وَحَفَفْنَاهُمَا بِنَخْلٍ وَجَعَلْنَا
 بَيْنَهُمَا زَرْعًا ﴿٣٢﴾ كِلْتَا الْجَنَّتَيْنِ ءَانَتْ أُكْلُهُمَا وَلَمْ تُطْلَمْ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا وَفَجَّرْنَا خِلَالَهُمَا نَهْرًا
 ﴿٣٣﴾ وَكَانَ لَهُ ثَمَرٌ فَقَالَ لِصَاحِبِهِ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ أَنَا أَكْثَرُ مِنْكَ مَالًا وَأَعَزُّ نَفَرًا ﴿٣٤﴾
 وَدَخَلَ جَنَّتَهُ وَهُوَ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ قَالَ مَا أَظُنُّ أَن تَبِيدَ هَذِهِ أَبَدًا ﴿٣٥﴾ وَمَا أَظُنُّ
 السَّاعَةَ قَائِمَةً وَلَئِن رُّدِدْتُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي لَأَجِدَنَّ خَيْرًا مِنْهَا مُنْقَلَبًا ﴿٣٦﴾ قَالَ لَهُ
 صَاحِبُهُ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ أَكَفَرْتَ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَكَ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ سَوَّكَ رَجُلًا
 ﴿٣٧﴾ لَكِنَّا هُوَ اللَّهُ رَبِّي وَلَا أُشْرِكُ بِرَبِّي أَحَدًا ﴿٣٨﴾ وَلَوْلَا إِذْ دَخَلْتَ جَنَّتَكَ قُلْتَ مَا
 شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ إِن تَرَنِ أَنَا أَقَلُّ مِنْكَ مَالًا وَوَلَدًا ﴿٣٩﴾ فَعَسَىٰ رَبِّي أَن
 يُؤْتِيَنِي خَيْرًا مِنْ جَنَّتِكَ وَيُرْسِلَ عَلَيْهَا حُسْبَانًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَتُصْبِحَ صَعِيدًا زَلَقًا ﴿٤٠﴾
 أَوْ يُصْبِحَ مَاءُهَا غَوْرًا فَلَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ لَهُ طَلَبًا ﴿٤١﴾ وَأُحِيطَ بِشَرِّهِ فَأَصْبَحَ يَقْلُبُ
 كَفْتِهِ عَلَىٰ مَا أَنْفَقَ فِيهَا وَهِيَ خَاوِيَةٌ عَلَىٰ عُرُوشِهَا وَيَقُولُ يَا لَيْتَنِي لَمْ أُشْرِكْ بِرَبِّي أَحَدًا ﴿٤٢﴾
 وَلَمْ تَكُن لَّهُ فِتْنَةٌ يَصْرُوهُ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَمَا كَانَ مُنْصِرًّا ﴿٤٣﴾ هُنَالِكَ الْوَلَايَةُ لِلَّهِ الْحَقِّ
 هُوَ خَيْرٌ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ عُقْبًا ﴿٤٤﴾

- (32) Relate to them the analogy of two men We had granted one of them two vineyards surrounded by date palms and grown a plantation between the two.
- (33) Both orchards bore fruit and We did not withhold anything from them. We even caused a river to gush forth amidst the two. (34) He had an abundance of fruit. While speaking to his companion, he said, "I have more wealth than you and my people are dominant." (35) He entered his garden as an oppressor unto himself and said, "I do not suppose that this garden will ever be destroyed." (36) "And I do not suppose that judgment day (Qiyamah) will ever arrive. If I should ever be returned to my Lord I shall certainly find a better place of return." (37) As they spoke, his companion told him, "Do you disbelieve in Him Who has created you from sand, then from a drop and then perfected you as a man?" (38) "But He is my Lord and I shall not ascribe anyone as partner unto Him." (39) "When you enter your garden, why do you rather not say, 'Māshā Allāh La Quwwata illa billāh'? If you think that I have less wealth and children than you.... (40) ....then the time is close when My Lord shall grant me better than your garden and send to your garden a calamity from the sky, turning it into an open plain. (41) ...or it's water would sink into the depths of the earth, after which you will be unable to even look for it." (42) So his fruit were engulfed by a disaster and he began to wring his hands in lamentation of what he had invested in it. The vineyards had collapsed on their trellises and he said, "if only

I had not ascribed any partner to my Lord!" (43) He had no troops to assist him against Allāh, neither could he avenge himself. (44) At times like this, assistance is only from Allāh, the True Deity. He is the best for reward and the best in the end.

THE ANALOGY OF TWO PERSONS, ONE BEING WEALTHY, WHILE THE OTHER WAS POOR

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 3 p. 161) reports that the above incident occurred between two persons in Makkah. They both belonged to the Bani Makhzūm tribe. The Muslim was Sayyidah Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه [who was married to Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], and the infidel (kāfir) was Aswad bin Abdul Asad.

According to others, the two men belonged to the Bani Isra'īl and their example is quoted here as a lesson, the first person being a representation of Uyayna bin Hisn and his comrades, whole the believer (Mu'min) being the representation of Sayyidina Salmān Farsi رضى الله عنه and the other poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم. (Uyayna and his party were the ones who requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to sit apart from the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم so that they could draw closer).

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the two were the sons of a king from the Bani Isra'īl. The one spent his wealth in Allāh's path, while the other was a disbeliever (kāfir). Allāh says, "We had granted one of them (the disbeliever (kāfir)) two vineyards surrounded by date palms (like a wall) and grown a plantation between the two. Both orchards bore fruit and We did not withhold anything from them. We even caused a river to gush forth amidst the two."

These orchards made him extremely wealthy. The other brother was poor, so the wealthy one "While speaking to his companion (the poorer brother), he said, 'I have more wealth than you and my people are dominant.'"

In addition to belittling his brother, "He entered his garden as an oppressor unto himself (as a disbeliever (kāfir) and ungrateful for Allāh's bounties) and said, 'I do not suppose that this garden will ever be destroyed. And I do not suppose that judgment day (Qiyāmah) will ever arrive. If I should ever be returned to my Lord I shall certainly find a better place of return.'"

The affluent disbelievers (kuffār) and the sinners think that they will find good fortune in the Hereafter as well because they deem themselves to be Allāh's favourites in this world. However, they are unaware of the procedure adopted by Allāh. When a person refuses to believe, Allāh grants him the things in this world despite his disbelief so that these can lead him further astray and make him more deserving of the punishment in store for him.

"As they spoke, his companion [the believer (Mu'min)] told him, 'Do you disbelieve in Him Who has created you from sand, then from a drop and then perfected you as a man?'" In this manner he reproached him for his undue pride and haughtiness, impressing upon his mind that he is nothing in reality.

Allāh created Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام from sand and all of mankind stemmed from him by way of the seeds of their fathers. Here, the believer

(Mu'min) brother also drew the attention of his brother to the fact that he should be thankful to Allāh for allowing him to be properly formed at birth because all children are not so fortunate. Thereafter, he expressed his belief by declaring, "But He is my Lord and I shall not ascribe anyone as partner unto Him."

Advising him further he said, "When you enter your garden, why 'do you rather not say, 'Māshā Allāh La Quwwata illa billāh?" (i.e. Only what Allāh wills shall happen and there is no might without Allāh's help). Only Allāh preserves things.

He continued to say, "If you think that I have less wealth and children than you, then the time is close when My Lord shall grant me better than your garden (in the Hereafter or in both worlds) and send to your garden a calamity from the sky, turning it into an open plain, or its water would sink into the depths of the earth, after which you will be unable to even look for it." He told him all of this in reply to his earlier statement that "I do not suppose that this garden will ever be destroyed."

The believer (Mu'min) brother wished to inform the other that Allāh is capable of destroying everything that he has in numerous ways that are beyond his control. Thereafter, he would have nothing to boast about.

However, his advice fell on deaf ears and the disbeliever (kāfir) was soon struck by an awful calamity.

Allāh says, "So his fruit (his possessions) were engulfed by a disaster (a raging fire) and he began to wring his hands in lamentation of what he had invested in it. The vineyards had collapsed on their trellises..." He began to mourn over the wealth that he had invested, thinking that if he had not invested so much, he would only have lost a bit of the orchards and not all his money as well. Then the advice of his brother made sense to him and he said, "If only I had not ascribed any partner to my Lord!"

Allāh then says, "He had no troops to assist him against Allāh, neither could he avenge himself"

Although two vineyards were mentioned initially, the later verses spoke of one only. It should be understood that the singular word used refers to both orchards and also includes the plantation enclosed within the orchards.

"At times like this assistance is only from Allāh, the True Deity. He is the best for reward and the best in the end." Whatever is spent in Allāh's path shall earn great rewards and the outcome will be best in the Hereafter, where the person will have no regrets. The rewards of the Hereafter are unlimited and unending.

Of course, the true believers (Mu'minīn) can also suffer calamities in this world, but these are not sent as punishment for them. They are a means of forgiving their sins and elevating their stages in the Hereafter. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه has narrated from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the believer (Mu'min) man and believer (Mu'min) woman will be afflicted by adversities in this world until they meet Allāh without a sin to their account. ["Mishkāt" p. 136]

Note: The previous ruku mentioned that the wealthy Quraysh leaders wanted to alienate the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم from the company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Thereafter, mention was made of Heaven (Jannah) and Hell, alluding to the fact that the poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم would be exalted to the high ranks of Heaven (Jannah) because of their Belief (Imān) whereas the wealthy disbelievers (kuffār) would have to suffer in Hell. In the similitude of the two brothers, the same distinction is drawn between the believers (Mu'minīn) and the disbelievers (kuffār), even though the disbelievers (kuffār) may possess more worldly wealth. Therefore, none should look down with scorn at the poor believers (Mu'minīn) because they will enter Heaven (Jannah) and the proud and haughty people may lose all their wealth in this very world and will be absolutely bankrupt in the Hereafter.

وَأَصْرِبْ لَهُمْ مَثَلِ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا كَمَا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَاخْتَلَطَ بِهِ نَبَاتُ الْأَرْضِ فَأَصْبَحَ هَشِيمًا تَذْرُوهُ الرِّيْحُ ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُقَدِّرًا ﴿٤٥﴾
 الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْبَاقِيَةُ الصَّالِحَةُ خَيْرٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ أَمَلًا ﴿٤٦﴾ وَيَوْمَ نُسِيرُ
 الْجِبَالَ وَتَرَى الْأَرْضَ بَارِزَةً وَحَشَرْنَاهُمْ فَلَمْ نُغَادِرْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدًا ﴿٤٧﴾ وَعَرَضُوا عَلَى رَبِّكَ
 صَفًّا لَقَدْ جِئْتُمُونَا كَمَا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ بَلْ زَعَمْتُمْ أَلَّنْ نَجْعَلَ لَكُمْ مَوْعِدًا ﴿٤٨﴾
 وَوُضِعَ الْكِتَابُ فَتَرَى الْمُجْرِمِينَ مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا فِيهِ وَيَقُولُونَ يُوَيْلِنَا مَا لِهَذَا
 الْكِتَابِ لَا يَغَادِرُ صَغِيرَةً وَلَا كَبِيرَةً إِلَّا أَحْصَاهَا وَوَجَدُوا مَا عَمِلُوا حَاضِرًا وَلَا
 يَظِلُّ رَبُّكَ أَحَدًا ﴿٤٩﴾

(45) Relate to them the similitude of this worldly life as the rain that We send from the sky, by which the plants of the earth flourish. Thereafter they become debris, to be carried by the winds. Allāh always has control over everything. (46) Wealth and sons are merely adornments of this worldly life. The lasting good deeds are best in the sight of your Lord in terms of reward and best in terms of expectations. (47) That day when We will cause the mountains to fly, when you will see the earth as an open plain and We shall resurrect them, not omitting any of them at all. (48) They will be presented before your Lord in rows. "We have certainly brought you as We have created you the first time. But you deemed that We would never fix an appointment for you." (49) The record of deeds shall be placed and you will see the sinners afraid of what is contained in them. They will say, "Woe be to us.' What is with this book that it does not leave anything small or large unrecorded?" They will find their deeds present and your Lord shall not oppress anyone.

A SIMILITUDE OF THE TEMPORARY WORLD AND THE ANXIETY OF THE SINNERS ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION (QIYĀMAH)

Explaining the reality of this world Allāh says, "Relate to them the similitude

of this worldly life as the rain that We send from the sky, by which the plants of the earth flourish." These plants and vegetation begin to grow extremely well and they begin to intertwine and merge into each other because of their abundance. People become excited and pleased with this. However, the time comes when these wilt away and dry up, "Thereafter they become debris, to be carried by the winds."

The life of this world is much the same. Initially everything seems to flourish. Then man becomes so engrossed in the pleasures of this world that he forgets Allāh and the Hereafter. Eventually the curtains close on him and he is left with nothing.

Sayyidina Abu Saïd رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This world is sweet and flourishing. However, Allāh has placed man as viceroy on earth and will observe how he behaves. Therefore, guard against the world (by not attaching oneself to it) and guard against women. The first dissension that arose among the Bani Isra'il was over women." [Muslim]

"Allāh always has control over everything." He will create when He pleases, will preserve when He wills and will destroy when He wills.

"Wealth and sons are merely adornments of this worldly life. The lasting good deeds are best in the sight of your Lord in terms of reward and best in terms of expectations." Therefore, the intelligent person will strive to gain what is eternal instead of the temporary commodities. Allāh says at the end of this Surah (verse 110), "So whoever aspires for the meeting with his Lord should perform good deeds and not associate anyone as partner to the worship of his Lord."

The adjective "lasting" alludes to the fact that only those deeds that last will be rewarded i.e. those deeds that are not destroyed by other evil deeds or by insincerity.

Thereafter Allāh describes the scene of judgment day (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "The day when We will cause the mountains to fly, when you will see the earth as an open plain..."

Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "They ask you about the mountains. Say, 'My Lord shall completely remove them [on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah)] leaving the earth as a barren plain on which you will not see any protrusions, nor any depressions.'" [Surah 20, verses 105-107]

On the Day of Judgement, even the sun, the moon and the stars will lose their glitter and the sky will be rent asunder. When the trumpet is blown, people will be raised from their graves. Allāh says, "...and We shall resurrect them, not omitting any of them at all."

Thereafter "They will be presented before your Lord in rows. (They will be told,) 'We have certainly brought you as We have created you the first time.'" They will appear before Allāh without any of their worldly wealth, not even their shoes and clothes. Surah Ān'ām states that Allāh will tell them, "Undoubtedly you come to Us alone as We created you the first time and you have left behind what We had blessed you with." [Surah 6, verse 94]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

عليه وسلم said, "You will be raised barefooted, naked and uncircumcised." Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, "As We initiated the first creation, We shall return it. This is a binding promise upon Us. We are undoubtedly the Ones Who can do."

Some commentators have interpreted the phrase "as We have created you the first time" to mean that Allāh will recreate people just as easily as He had done when they were sent to this world. Therefore none should think that judgment day (Qiyāmah) is an impossibility.

The disbelievers (kuffār) will also be told on the Day of Judgement, "But you deemed that We would never fix an appointment for you."

"The record of deeds shall be placed and you will see the sinners afraid of what is contained in them. They will say, 'Woe be to us! What is with this book that it does not leave anything small or large unrecorded?'" Although Allāh is able to punish people on the basis of His supreme knowledge, He will still present their record of deeds to them so that none may object. In addition to this, their limbs and other witnesses will be called to testify against them.

Those whose records will be given in their right hands will joyfully enter Heaven (Jannah). On the other hand, the person whose record will be unfavourable will say, "O dear! If only I had not been given my record and had not known my reckoning!" [Surah Hāqā (69), verses 25, 26]

"They will find their deeds present and your Lord shall not oppress anyone." Nothing will be omitted, neither will they be punished for something that they did not do. Of course, those sins that were forgiven will not appear since they had long vanished.

وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ كَانَ مِنَ الْجِنِّ فَفَسَقَ عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِ أَفَتَتَّخِذُونَهُ وَذُرِّيَّتَهُ أَوْلِيَاءَ مِنْ دُونِي وَهُمْ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ بِئْسَ لِلظَّالِمِينَ بَدَلًا ﴿٥٠﴾ مَا أَشْهَدُهُمْ خَلْقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَا خَلْقَ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَمَا كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذَ الْمُضِلِّينَ عَضُدًا ﴿٥١﴾ وَيَوْمَ يَقُولُ نَادُوا شُرَكَائِيَ الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ فَدَعَوْهُمْ فَلَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُمْ وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ مَوْبِقًا ﴿٥٢﴾ وَرَأَى الْمَجْرِمُونَ النَّارَ فَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ مُوَاقِعُوهَا وَلَمْ يَجِدُوا عَنْهَا مَصْرِفًا ﴿٥٣﴾

(50) When We told the angels, "Prostrate to Ādam," they all prostrated except for Devil (Iblīs). He was from the Jinn and disobeyed the command of his Lord. Do you take him and his progeny as friends besides Me, whereas they are your enemies. Evil indeed is the substitution of the oppressors. (51) I have not made them witness to the creation of the heavens and the earth, nor witness to their own creation. And I shall not take those as accomplices who lead others astray. (52) Remember the day when Allāh will say "Call those whom you ascribed as partners to Myself." Then they will call them, but they will not respond and We shall place a barrier between them. (53) The criminals will see the Fire and will be certain that they will plunge into it. They will not find anyone to rescue them from it.

SATAN (IBLĪS) REFUSES TO PROSTRATE TO SAYYIDINA ĀDAM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND HIM AND HIS PROGENY ARE ENEMIES TO MAN

"When We told the angels, 'Prostrate to Ādam (in reverence, not worship),' they all prostrated except for Iblis. He was from the Jinn and disobeyed the command of his Lord. " The details of this epic were discussed in the verse 34 of Surah Baqarah, verses 11 and 12 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) and in verses 61 and 62 of Surah Bani Isra'īl (Surah 17). It was then that he vowed to mislead man. His progeny are also his accomplices in this sinister task.

Allāh says in surprise, "Do you take him and his progeny as friends (by obeying them) besides Me, whereas they are your enemies. Evil indeed is the substitution of the oppressors." Because of their ignorance, people foolishly chose to substitute the allegiance they owe to Allāh with allegiance to Satan (Shaytān).

Allāh says, "I have not made them witness to the creation of the heavens and the earth, nor witness to their own creation." Allāh says that He did not require the presence and assistance of Satan (Shaytān) and his progeny when He created the universe. They are unable to assist Him in any way because He does not need them. It is therefore foolish to take them as friends instead of Allāh.

Allāh says further, "And I shall not take those as accomplices who lead others astray." Allāh tells man here that he is foolish to ascribe idols and other beings as partner to Him, because He never took them as partners and friends.

Allāh says in Surah Saba [Surah 34, verse 22], "Say, 'Call those whom you worship besides Allāh. They have no control over an atom's weight in the heavens or in the earth. They do not even share any partnership in the two, and none of them are assistants to Allāh.'"

"Remember the day when Allāh will say, 'Call those whom you ascribed as partners to Myself' Then they will call them (for help), but they will not respond..." They will not be able to help themselves, let alone be of any help to others. Allāh adds by saying, "..... and We shall place a barrier between them." Thereafter they will not even be able to see and reach each other.

"The criminals will see the Fire and will be certain that they will plunge into it. They will not find anyone to rescue them from it." To their utter despair, their inevitable doom will not be averted from them.

Note: The Arabic word "mowbiqa" (translated above as "barrier") literally refers to a place of destruction. The verse will therefore mean that a place of destruction viz. Hell will be between them, since they will all be cast into it. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" quotes from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that "mowbiqa" is the name of one of the valleys of Hell. Sayyidina Ikrama رحمه الله says that it is a river of fire that flows along the edge of Hell. Therein are snakes that resemble black mules.

وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِي هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ أَكْثَرَ شَيْءٍ
 جَدَلًا ﴿٥٤﴾ وَمَا مَعَ النَّاسِ أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ
 تَأْتِيَهُمْ سُنَّةُ الْأَوَّلِينَ أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ قُبُلًا ﴿٥٥﴾ وَمَا نُرْسِلُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرِينَ
 وَمُنذِرِينَ وَيُجَادِلُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِالْبَاطِلِ لِيُدْحِضُوا بِهِ الْحَقَّ وَاتَّخَذُوا آيَاتِي وَمَا
 أُنذِرُوا هُزُوًا ﴿٥٦﴾ وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ فَأَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا وَنَسِيَ مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاهُ
 إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ أَكِنَّةً أَنْ يَفْقَهُوهُ وَفِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا وَإِنْ تَدْعُهُمْ إِلَى الْهُدَىٰ
 فَلَنْ يَهْتَدُوا إِذًا أَبَدًا ﴿٥٧﴾ وَرَبُّكَ الْغَفُورُ ذُو الرَّحْمَةِ لَوْ يُؤَاخِذُهُمْ بِمَا كَسَبُوا
 لَعَجَلَ لَهُمُ الْعَذَابَ بَلْ لَهُمْ مَوْعِدٌ لَنْ يَجِدُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ مَوْيلًا ﴿٥٨﴾ وَتِلْكَ
 الْقُرَىٰ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ لَمَّا ظَلَمُوا وَجَعَلْنَا لِمَهْلِكِهِمْ مَوْعِدًا ﴿٥٩﴾

(54) We have undoubtedly expounded all types of subjects in the Qur'ān for people. Man has always been the worst disputant. (55) After the arrival of guidance the only thing that prevented people from believing and seeking forgiveness from their Lord was that the treatment of the previous people should come to them or that punishment should appear before them. (56) We sent the messengers only as bearers of glad tidings and warners. The disbelievers dispute using falsehood in order to eradicate the truth and they make a mockery of My verses and the warnings that have been given to them. (57) Who can be more unjust than he who has been advised with the verses of his Lord, but ignored them and forgot what he has sent forth? We have certainly placed a veil on their hearts lest they should understand it and placed a prop in their ears. In this condition even if you call them to guidance they shall never be guided aright. (58) Your Lord is the Most Forgiving, Full of mercy. If He were to take them to task for their deeds, He would have speedily afflicted them with punishment. However, they have been promised a term from which they will not find any sanctuary. (59) These are the towns that We have destroyed when they were oppressive, and We have stipulated a term for their destruction.

MAN IS EXTREMELY CONTENTIOUS AND USES FALSEHOOD TO ARGUE AGAINST THE TRUTH

Describing the contentious nature of man Allāh says, "We have undoubtedly expounded all types of subjects in the Qur'ān for people. (However, despite all of this, man refuses to accept because) Man has always been the worst disputant."

Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, "Has man not seen that We created him from a seed, after which he is suddenly an open adversary?" [Surah 36, verse 77]

Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "They only say this to you (i.e. coin similitudes) to dispute, for they are a people given to arguing." [Surah 43, verse 58]

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reports that one night the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived at his home to awaken him and Sayyidah Fātima رضي الله عنها for the Tahajjud Salāh. When he arrived he exclaimed, "Are you not performing Salāh?" Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه replied, "Our souls are in Allāh's control. He will awaken us when He pleases." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reply and, while walking away, hit his hands on his thighs reciting the verse, 'Man has always been the worst disputant.'

Further discussing the nature of man, Allāh says, "After the arrival of guidance the only thing that prevented people from believing and seeking forgiveness from their Lord was that the treatment of the previous people should come to them or that punishment should appear before them." This verse means that man seems to await punishment to come to him before he mends his ways and believes, just as it happened with the previous nations. However, when this happens, it will be too late.

"We sent the messengers only as bearers of glad tidings and warners. (However, instead of believing) The disbelievers dispute using falsehood in order to eradicate the truth..." Not stopping at this, they even go a step further and "they make a mockery of My verses and the warnings that have been sounded to them."

"Who can be more unjust than he who has been advised with the verses of his Lord, but ignored them and forgot what he has sent forth (i.e. his evil deeds)?" The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that because the Qur'ān was first revealed to the Arabs, they are addressed first. Thereafter the rest of mankind is also addressed in the same breath. It was the practice of the Arab polytheists to ignore what was told to them and to forget the evil of the infidelity (kufir) and polytheism (shirk) that they perpetrated.

With regard to those who shall never believe, Allāh says, "We have certainly placed a veil on their hearts lest they should understand it (the Qur'ān) and placed a prop (deafness) in their ears."

Emphasising the tragedy of their situation, Allāh says, "In this condition even if you call them to guidance they shall never be guided aright." They mocked and denied so much that there now remains no hope of their guidance.

"Your Lord is the Most Forgiving, Full of mercy." Allāh forgives whoever sincerely repents irrespective of the sins that he committed and He even allows people respite until they repent. Therefore He says, "If He were to take them to task for their deeds, He would have speedily afflicted them with punishment. However, they have been promised a term from which they will not find any sanctuary."

Despite the fact that the disbelievers (kuffār) request punishment from Allāh, it will not come to them until their period expires. When it does expire, they will not be granted any more respite whatsoever, nor will they be able to save themselves. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that another interpretation of the verse is that people will not find a sanctuary in which to hide against Allāh. [v. 15 p.306]

"These are the towns that We have destroyed when they were oppressive..." When the earlier nations disobeyed their Prophets عليهم السلام, they were destroyed. Allāh has phrased the verse in this manner because the Makkans were aware of these places and passed by some of them en route to Syria.

".....and We have stipulated a term for their destruction." Allāh warns the people of Makkah that they would also suffer the same fate when their term expires. Consequently, when the battle of Badr took place many of the polytheists leaders were killed and disgraced.

وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَى لِفَتْنِهِ لَا أُبْرَحُ حَتَّىٰ أَتِلْغَ مَجْمَعَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ أَوْ أَمْضِيَ حُقُبًا ﴿٦٠﴾ فَلَمَّا بَلَغَا مَجْمَعَ بَيْنَهُمَا نَسِيَا حُوتَهُمَا فَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيلَهُ فِي الْبَحْرِ سَرَبًا ﴿٦١﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاوَزَا قَالَ لِفَتْنِهِ إِنَّا غَدَاةٌ لَّقَدْ لَقِينَا مِنْ سَفَرِنَا هَذَا نَصَبًا ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَ إِذْ أَوَيْنَا إِلَى الصَّخْرَةِ فَإِنِّي نَسِيتُ الْحُوتَ وَمَا أَنسَيْنِيهِ إِلَّا الشَّيْطَانُ أَنْ أَذْكُرَهُ وَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيلَهُ فِي الْبَحْرِ عَجَبًا ﴿٦٣﴾ قَالَ ذَلِكَ مَا كُنَّا نَبِغُ فَارْتَدَّا عَلَىٰ آثَارِهِمَا قَصَصًا ﴿٦٤﴾ فَوَجَدَا عَبْدًا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا ءَاتَيْنَاهُ رَحْمَةً مِنْ عِندِنَا وَعَلَّمْنَاهُ مِنْ لَدُنَّا عِلْمًا ﴿٦٥﴾ قَالَ لَمْ يُوسَىٰ هَلْ أَتَيْتُكَ عَلَىٰ أَنْ تَعْلَمَ مِنْ مِمَّا عَلَّمْتَ رُشْدًا ﴿٦٦﴾ قَالَ إِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٦٧﴾ وَكَيْفَ تَصْبِرُ عَلَىٰ مَا لَمْ تُحِطْ بِهِ خُبْرًا ﴿٦٨﴾ قَالَ سَتَجِدُنِي إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ صَابِرًا وَلَا أَعْصِي لَكَ أَمْرًا ﴿٦٩﴾ قَالَ فَإِنِ اتَّبَعْتَنِي فَلَا تَتَّبِعْنِي عَنْ شَيْءٍ حَتَّىٰ أُحْدِثَ لَكَ مِنْهُ ذِكْرًا ﴿٧٠﴾ فَانْطَلَقَا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَكِبَا فِي السَّفِينَةِ خَرَقَهَا قَالَ أَخَرَقَهَا لِنُفُورِ أَهْلِهَا لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا إِمْرًا ﴿٧١﴾ قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ إِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٢﴾ قَالَ لَا تُؤَاخِذْنِي بِمَا نَسِيتُ وَلَا تُرْهِقْنِي مِنْ أَمْرِي عُسْرًا ﴿٧٣﴾ فَانْطَلَقَا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا لَقِيَا غُلَامًا فَقَتَلَهُ قَالَ أَقْتَلْتَنِي بِمَا نَسِيتُ بَغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا نُكْرًا ﴿٧٤﴾ قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَكَ إِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٥﴾ قَالَ إِنْ سَأَلْتُكَ عَنْ شَيْءٍ بَعْدَهَا فَلَا تُصَحِّبْنِي قَدْ بَلَغْتَ مِنَ لَدُنِّي عُذْرًا ﴿٧٦﴾ فَانْطَلَقَا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَنَا أَهْلَ قَرْيَةٍ اسْتَطَعْنَا أَهْلَهَا فَبِأَوَّاءٍ أَنْ يُضَيِّقُوهُمَا فَوَجَدَا فِيهَا جِدَارًا يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَنْقُضَ فَاقَامَهُ قَالَ لَوْ شِئْتَ لَتَّخَذْتَ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا ﴿٧٧﴾ قَالَ هَذَا فِرَاقُ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ سَبْعَ بَنَاتٍ بِنَاوِيلٍ مَا لَمْ تَسْتَطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٨﴾

(60) When Mūsa said to the youngster, "I shall continue to walk until I reach the confluence of two seas or until a long period expires." (61) So when they reached the confluence of the two, they both forgot their fish and it tunnelled its path into the ocean. (62) When they proceeded further, Mūsa عليه السلام told the

youngster, "Bring our breakfast. Without doubt, this journey has been extremely wearisome for us." (63) He replied, "Did I not tell you that when we sought shelter by the boulder I forgot the fish? It was certainly Shaytān that made me forget the fish. It made it's way into the sea in an extremely marvellous way." (64) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "That was what we were seeking!" So they retraced their steps. (65) Then they found a slave of Ours whom We had granted mercy especially from Ourselves and to whom We had given Our special knowledge. (66) Mūsa عليه السلام said to him, "May I follow you on condition that you teach me some of the special knowledge that has been taught to you?" (67) He replied, "You will surely not be able to bear with me..." (68) "How can you possibly bear with something, the knowledge of which you have not encompassed?" (69) Mūsa عليه السلام replied, "Insha Allāh, you shall find me to be patient and I shall not disobey any command of yours." (70) He said, "If you must follow me, then do not ask me about anything until I make mention of it myself" (71) So they proceeded until they boarded a boat and he made a hole in it. Mūsa عليه السلام exclaimed, "Have you made a hole to drown the people of the boat? You have certainly perpetrated a grave act." (72) He said, "Did I not say that you will be unable to bear with me?" (73) Mūsa عليه السلام said "Do not take me to task for what I have forgotten and do not be harsh with me in matters. (74) So they proceeded until they met a boy whom he killed. Mūsa عليه السلام burst out, "Have you killed an innocent soul that has not taken another soul? You have now surely perpetrated a great wrong." (75) He said "Did I not tell you that you will not be able to bear with me?" (76) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "If I question you about anything after this, then you need not remain with me. You have received an excuse from me." (77) So they proceeded until they came across the people of a town from whom they asked for food, but the people refused to host them. They then found a wall in the town that was on the point of collapse and he straightened it. Mūsa عليه السلام said, "If you wished, you could have taken payment for this." (78) He said, "This is the parting between us. I shall inform you of the interpretation of the incidents which you could not bear with patience."

THE STORY OF SAYYIDINA MŪSA AND KHIDR عليهما السلام

The story of Sayyidina Mūsa and Khidr عليه السلام has been mentioned in the books of hadith. Bukhari has recorded it in various places, sometimes briefly, and sometimes in detail. He has recorded it twice in the chapter of knowledge, the first time (v. 1 p. 17) in brevity and the second time (v. 1 p.23) in detail. He has recorded another detailed narration in the chapter of exegesis (Tafsīr) (v. 2 p.287-290).

Muslim has recorded the story in (v. 2 p.269) and "Nasāī" in (v. 2 p.386.). "Nasāī" has also recorded the hadith in the chapter of exegesis (Tafsīr) with many points of wisdom and lessons attached.

We shall presently relate the incident based on the narration of Bukhari from the chapter of exegesis (Tafsīr). Sayyidina Ubay bin Ka'b رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that once when Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام delivered a sermon to the Bani Isra'īl, their eyes filled with tears and their hearts softened. After the sermon someone asked him whether there was anyone more knowledgeable than him on earth. He replied that there was none. According to another narration he was asked as to who was the most knowledgeable person. He replied that he was.

Since he did not reply, "Allāh knows best," Allāh reproached him and informed him that another servant of His at "the confluence of two seas" was more knowledgeable than himself. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام expressed the desire to meet this person and asked Allāh how he would recognise him.

Allāh told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to carry a fish with him in a basket. The fish would be given life at the place where he would meet this person. So Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام set out with the fish and his servant by the name of Sayyidina Yusha bin Nūn عليه السلام. He instructed Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام to inform him when the fish came to life. Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام told him that this was an extremely simple task and well within his capability.

They travelled throughout that day and night. Thereafter, they came to a boulder where they rested and slept. As they slept, the fish came to life, escaped from the basket and swam out into the sea. Allāh created a shelf in the sea for the fish, which was an extremely wondrous sight for Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام to witness.

They later proceeded further, but Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام forgot to mention the incident to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. When the morning of the following day dawned, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام "told the youngster, 'Bring our breakfast. Without doubt, this journey has been extremely wearisome for us."

Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام replied, "Did I not tell you that when we sought shelter by the boulder I forgot the fish? It was certainly Satan (Shaytān) that made me forget the fish. It made its way into the sea in an extremely marvellous way." It was certainly Satan (Shaytān) that caused him to forget because the event was such that none could easily forget. According to one narration, Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام did not inform Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام immediately when the event occurred because Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was asleep and he did not want to disturb him.

However, after informing him, "Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'That was what (the place) we were seeking!' So they retraced their steps."

THEY MEET SAYYIDINA KHIDR عليه السلام AND SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام REQUESTS TO ACCOMPANY HIM

As they reached the spot, they noticed a person lying in the water in his clothes. This was Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام greeted him with Salām and, being surprised, he asked, "Where has Salām come from in this place?" He asked Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام who he was and, when he received the reply, he asked whether he was the same Mūsa عليه السلام from the Bani Isra'īl. When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام confirmed his identity, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام asked him why he had come.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told him that he had come to learn from him. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said, "Is the Torah and the revelation that you receive not sufficient for you? O Mūsa! Allāh has granted me such knowledge that He has not granted to you and has granted you such knowledge that He has not granted to me."

As they were speaking, a sparrow came nearby and took some water in its beak. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said, "O Mūsa! In comparison to Allāh's knowledge, my knowledge and your knowledge do not even equal to the amount of water that this sparrow has taken from the ocean.

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام requested to learn from Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, "He replied, 'You will surely not be able to bear with me. How can you possibly bear with something, the knowledge of which you have not encompassed?'"

"Mūsa عليه السلام replied, 'Insha Allāh, you shall find me to be patient and I shall not disobey any command of yours. He said, 'If you must follow me, then do not ask me about anything until I make mention of it myself.'"

They then walked along the coast until they came across a ferry that transported people across to another shore. When the two asked to be taken along, the owners of the ferry did not charge them a fee because they recognised Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام.

SAYYIDINA KHIDR عليه السلام REMOVES A PLANK FROM THE FERRY

As they proceeded on the ferry, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام took an axe and used it to remove one of the planks from the deck of the boat. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was astonished and asked Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام how he could do such a thing when the people had been kind enough to take them along without a fee. He said that this act would drown the people.

"Have you made a hole to drown the people of the boat? You have certainly perpetrated a grave act." Here Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did not accuse Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام of wanting to drown the people, but meant that the act would result in their drowning.

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said this, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام replied by saying, "Did I not say that you will be unable to bear with me?"

"Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'Do not take me to task for what I have forgotten and do not be harsh with me in matters.'"

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام OBJECTS WHEN SAYYIDINA KHIDR عليه السلام KILLS A BOY

After disembarking from the ferry, the two proceeded to a place where they noticed some boys playing. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام took one of the boys aside and, twisting his head, decapitated him. According to another narration, he severed his head with a knife.

Upon witnessing this "Mūsa عليه السلام burst out, 'Have you killed an innocent soul (because the child was not even mature) that has not taken another soul? You have now surely perpetrated a great wrong.

Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said, "Did I not tell you that you will not be able to bear with me?" Realising that the two of them cannot possibly relate to each other, "Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'If I question you about anything after this, then you need not remain with me. (I understand that) You have received an excuse (to separate yourself) from me."

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام OBJECTS TO THE RESTORATION OF A WALL AND THE TWO ARE SEPARATED

After journeying awhile, the twosome grew very tired and "came across the people of a town from whom they asked for food, but the people refused to host them. They then found a wall in the town that was on the point of collapse and he straightened it (by hand)."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام responded by telling Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, "These people refused to feed us and be our hosts. Why have you done this favour for them, If you wished, you could have taken payment for this (with which we could have bought some food)."

At this juncture Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said, "This is the parting between us. I shall inform you of the interpretation of the incidents which you could not bear with patience."

According to a narration in "Fat'hul Bārī" (v. 8 p.420) from Tha'labī رحمه الله عليه, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "You have reprimanded me for damaging the boat, for killing the boy and for repairing the wall, but have forgotten your own deeds. You were cast into the river (as a child), killed a Copt and you gave water to the daughters of Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام only for reward."

The explanation of Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام will follow in the next part. Insha Allāh.

أَمَّا السَّفِينَةُ فَكَانَتْ لِمَسْكِينٍ يَعْمَلُونَ فِي الْبَحْرِ فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَعِيبَهَا وَكَانَ وَرَاءَهُمْ مَلِكٌ
يَأْخُذُ كُلَّ سَفِينَةٍ غَصْبًا ﴿٧٩﴾ وَأَمَّا الْغُلَامُ فَكَانَ أَبَوَاهُ مُؤْمِنَيْنِ فَخَشِينَا أَنْ يُرْهِقَهُمَا
طُغْيَانًا وَكُفْرًا ﴿٨٠﴾ فَأَرَدْنَا أَنْ يُبْدِلَهُمَا رَبُّهُمَا خَيْرًا مِمَّا رَكِبُوا وَأَقْرَبَ رُحْمًا ﴿٨١﴾
وَأَمَّا الْجِدَارُ فَكَانَ لِغُلَامَيْنِ يَتِيمَيْنِ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ وَكَانَ تَحْتَهُ كَنْزٌ لَهُمَا وَكَانَ
أَبُوهُمَا صَالِحًا فَآرَادَ رَبُّكَ أَنْ يَبْلُغَا أَشُدَّهُمَا وَيَسْتَخْرِجَا كَنْزَهُمَا رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ
وَمَا فَعَلْتُمْ عَنْ أَمْرِي ذَلِكَ تَأْوِيلُ مَا لَمْ تَسْطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ﴿٨٢﴾

(79) "As for the boat, it belonged to a few poor persons who worked by the sea. I wished to damage it (because) there was a king ahead of them who forcefully seized possession of every boat." (80) "As for the boy, both his parents were believers so we feared that he would embroil them in rebellion and disbelief" (81) "We intended that their Lord replace for them children who are better than he in purity and affection. (82) "As for the wall, it belonged to two orphaned boys in the town. Beneath it was their treasure and their father was a pious person, so your Lord intended that they come of age and excavate their treasure. This is the mercy of your Lord. I did not carry out these actions of my own accord. This is the interpretation of the things that you could not bear with patience."

SAYYIDINA KHIDR عليه السلام EXPLAINS THE ACTUALITY OF THE THREE INCIDENTS

Before they departed, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام informed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام about the reasons why he carried out the three actions, which Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام found incorrigible.

"As for the boat, it belonged to a few poor persons who worked by the sea." The boat was their source of livelihood because they used it as a ferry. However, "I wished to damage it (because) there was a king ahead of them who forcefully seized possession of every boat." The tyrant took away every boat that was in serviceable condition. For this reason, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام damaged that boat so that the king would not want it for himself. The owners could later repair the boat and continue with their business.

"As for the boy (he was a disbeliever while), both his parents were believers..." Muslim (v. 2 p. 271) reports that the boy was destined to remain a disbeliever. Since the parents were extremely attached to the child, "we feared that he would embroil them in rebellion and disbelief"

He would have exploited the love that his parents bore for him to make them disbelievers as well. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام continued to say, "We intended that their Lord replace for them children who are better than he in purity and affection." These children would be believers (Mu'min) and a blessing for their parents.

"As for the wall, it belonged to two orphaned boys in the town. Beneath it was their treasure..." If the wall fell, the people of the town would usurp the treasure that the father had left as inheritance for his children. Since they were orphans and "their father was a pious person," therefore Allāh wished to treat them well. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said that "your Lord intended that they come of age and excavate their treasure. This is the mercy of your Lord."

"I did not carry out these actions of my own accord." Allāh commanded all the actions. Finally he said to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "This is the interpretation of the things that you could not bear with patience."

NOTES AND RULINGS

[1] Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was correct when he told the people that there was none more knowledgeable than he. He was the Prophet of Allāh عليه السلام who had his own Shari'ah and even the Torah was revealed to him. He was also a messenger to a large nation like the Bani Isrā'il. Allāh reprimanded him for his statement because it was a claim that did not befit his status.

It is learnt from this that no person should claim that he knows the most even if it appears so. There could always be another who is more knowledgeable than himself, but whom he is unaware of. There are also numerous others who possess knowledge about things that he does not know anything about.

[2] It is learnt from this incident that it is permissible for one to take a servant along on a journey and to entrust certain tasks to him, like how Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام took Sayyidina Yusha bin Nūn عليه السلام with him. It is not preferable for a person to travel alone. There were many Sahabah رضي الله عنهم who served the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The most famous of these, is Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه.

[3] Another lesson learnt from this incident is that the student should go out to seek knowledge from the teacher and that the teacher does not have to go to the student. It for this reason that Imām Bukhari رحمه الله عليه has narrated this story in his chapter concerning going out in search of knowledge. In this chapter he also mentions that Sayyidina Jābir bin Abdullāh رضي الله عنه undertook a month's journey merely to learn a single hadith from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Unays رضي الله عنه.

[4] Age does not matter when seeking knowledge. A person may be a child or an old man, but he is never exempted from acquiring knowledge. Bukhari reports that the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم even acquired knowledge after reaching old age.

[5] One should not be ashamed to learn from another person who may be lower in status to one. In this narrative, a great Prophet like Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام set out to learn from Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, who taught him something that he was unaware of.

[6] The student should never be lethargic in his travels for knowledge, and should be prepared to endure all difficulties. Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام said, "I shall continue to walk until I reach the confluence of two seas or until a long period expires." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that the Arabic word "huqub" (translated above as "a long period") refers to a period of eighty years according to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه.

Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه says that it refers to a period of seventy years, while the linguist, Farra رحمه الله عليه, has mentioned that it denotes a period of one year according to the terminology of the Quraysh. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that it refers to an indefinite extensive period.

[7] Muslim reports that when Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام told the person that he does not know of any person more knowledgeable than himself, Allāh told him, "But Our servant Khidr is more knowledgeable than yourself!" This indicates that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام knew the name of Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام before meeting him.

[8] The word "Khidr" means 'green and lush.' The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام got this name because he once sat on a dry and barren piece of ground; where after it became green and lush. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 483]

[9] Commentators say that "the confluence of two seas" mentioned to by Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام refers to the confluence of the Persian Sea and the Roman Sea.

[10] Muslim (v. 2 p. 270) reports that the fish was taken along as provision for the journey and was sprinkled with salt. The revival of this fish was to be the sign of their rendezvous with Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. This fact demonstrates that carrying provisions for a journey does not contradict Tawakkul (reliance on Allāh).

Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام began to feel tired only after passing by his destination. Allāh has made man such that he does not tire along the way because of his eagerness and mustered courage. However, once he reaches his destination, he is overcome with exhaustion. Although Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام never realised that he had already passed the rendezvous, he had already done so and was affected by the above natural instinct.

[11] Although Satan (Shaytān) caused the journey to be prolonged when he made Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام forget the fish, the extra difficulty that the two endured was predestined by Allāh, for which they will receive added rewards from Allāh. A believer (Mu'min) realises that he will be rewarded in trying times and appreciates these just as he appreciates good times.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام knew that man is bound to err and did not rebuke Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام when he told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام that he had forgotten to inform him about the incident.

[12] Upon meeting Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام first greeted him with Salām. This teaches us that one should always greet another Muslim whenever he wishes to draw his attention. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Salām should always precede speech. [Mishkāt p. 390]

[13] Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام asked Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, "May I follow you on condition that you teach me some of the special knowledge that has been taught to you?" This statement teaches that one does not necessarily have to learn everything that a teacher can offer.

The mode of address used by Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was one of respect, which did not make Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام feel that he was obliged to accede to the request. He did not tell Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام that he had travelled a great distance and that he now had no option but to teach him. In a similar respectful manner should a student make requests of his teacher.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام came to learn a different type of knowledge from Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام that was not imperative for eternal salvation. A person requires knowledge of the Shari'ah for eternal salvation, which Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام already had. This indicates that it is permissible for one to travel in search of knowledge that is not imperative for salvation once this has already been acquired.

[14] The teacher should inform the student of his preferences and styles so that the student can decide whether he will be able to tolerate the mannerism of the teacher. If the student then promises to abide by the instructions of the teacher, the teacher should accept him.

The student should also rely on Allāh to grant him the ability to fulfil the requirements by adding "Insha Allāh" to his promise as Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did.

[15] The teacher has the right to attach conditions to the studies of the student. The student is then obliged to abide by these after he has accepted them. He would, of course, be forgiven if he forgets. If he does forget, he should offer his reason to the teacher and ask for forgiveness.

[16] Despite accepting the conditions of the teacher, the student should correct the teacher when he contradicts the Shari'ah. Although Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام admitted that he forgot the first time, he intentionally objected to the killing of the boy. This also proves that a person is obliged to object to anything that violates the Shari'ah even though he has undertaken a restraining promise of some kind.

Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله writes that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام seemed to have promised Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام that he would be patient through all conditions, as long as these did not contravene the Shari'ah.

{17} The teacher has the right to admonish the student when need be. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام the first time, "Did I not say that you will be unable to bear with me?" On the second occasion, Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام told him, "Did I not tell you that you will not be able to bear with me?" The second statement was more emphatic and assertive than the first because the error had been repeated.

{18} When the student realises that he can no longer remain with the teacher, he should seek permission to leave, as Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said, "If I question you about anything after this, then you need not remain with me. You have received an excuse from me." He gave Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام the choice in the matter and did not just leave on his own.

{19} When a student has to leave his teacher, the teacher should ensure that he leaves with the facts before him. It should not be that the student leaves with negative thoughts about the teacher. In this way he will be saved from backbiting about the teacher.

{20} Even though a person's conscience is clear, he should ensure that people do not get the wrong impression about him. He must never be content with the knowledge that others will suffer for their misconceptions about him. He should clarify the matter so that no person is guilty of the sin of backbiting and harbouring ill thoughts merely because of a misunderstanding.

{21} When a person is in dire straits he may ask for assistance, as the two did when they asked the people of the town for food.

{22} It is permissible to ask remuneration for one's labour, as Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, "If you wished, you could have taken payment for this."

{23} Muslim reports the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying that the people of the town in question were wicked, but behaving correctly towards wicked people is a noble trait of the righteous [like Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام].

{24} The story also teaches us that ferrying people across water is permissible trade. Another lesson learnt from this episode is that people may still be termed as being poor or destitute ("Miskīn"), even though they may have some means of earning a living.

{25} It is Forbidden (Harām) to usurp any person's property and a person will be greatly rewarded for protecting another from the tyranny of an oppressor.

{26} It is also learnt that the children of pious people must be treated well. It is for this reason that the pious people always have a high regard for the children of other pious persons, even though the children may not, be as pious as their parents.

{27} Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was greatly upset at the killing of the boy, as mentioned by a narration of Muslim. It was then that he decided that he could no longer bear to be with Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام.

This incident raises certain questions about whether the killing of the boy was justified according to the Shari'ah, and whether the reason given by Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was acceptable in the Shari'ah? In reply one should understand that the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام differed from ours. Therefore, one cannot base one's judgement upon our Shari'ah.

More conclusively, the reply would be that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was merely carrying out Allāh's command - and none can object to that. This is confirmed by the statement of Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام when he told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام at the end, "I did not carry out these actions of my own accord."

[28] "So they proceeded until they met a boy whom he killed. Mūsa عليه السلام burst out, 'Have you killed an innocent soul that has not taken another soul?'" This verse appears to imply that (Qisās) (the death penalty) will apply to an immature child if he is guilty of murder. However, it should again be borne in mind that the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was different from ours. Retaliation (Qisās) does not apply to immature children in our Shari'ah.

[29] "Fat'hul Bāri" (v. 8 p. 421) reports from Ibn Juraij رحمه الله عليه and others that Allāh blessed the parents of the boy with an extremely pious daughter. A narration of Nasāi states that this daughter was the mother of a Prophet عليه السلام.

A narration of Ibn Abi Hātim reports that the Holy Prophet born to her was Sayyidina Sham'un عليه السلام. He was that Prophet عليه السلام whom the Bani Isrā'il requested, "Appoint for us a king so that we may fight in Allāh's way..." According to another narration, this daughter was the mother of seventy Prophets عليهم السلام.

[30] Men of knowledge grieve at the loss of knowledge. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم related the words, "This is the parting between us," he said, "May Allāh have mercy on Mūsa. If only he had been patient, then he could have reported to us more about the two of them." [Bukhari p. 23]

Muslim (v. 2 p. 271) reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If he had been patient, he could have seen more surprises, but he was embarrassed to keep questioning his companion."

[31] The incident also teaches us that it is permissible to accept favours from disbelievers, just like the two accepted the free ride on the boat and asked the people of the town for food.

[32] A person will not be regarded as being intolerant if he expresses his difficulty to a friend, just as Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام, "Without doubt, this journey has been extremely wearisome for us."

[33] Permission does not have to be sought to render assistance to another, just as Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام assisted the ferrymen and the two orphans. However, this will not apply if the person being assisted is extremely foolish and lacking in understanding.

[34] Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said, "We intended that their Lord replace for them children who are better than he in purity and affection." Another interpretation of this verse is that the parents will be more affectionate towards the other children.

[35] A pious daughter is better than an irreligious son.

[36] Although everything occurs by the will of Allāh, it is best and most respectful not to attribute unpleasant happenings to Allāh, like Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام said, "I wished to damage it (because) there was a king ahead of them who forcefully seized possession of every boat."

However, when an event is pleasant, it is most appropriate to attribute it directly to Allāh, like Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام did when he said, "We intended that their Lord replace for them children who are better than he in purity and affection," and "your Lord intended that they come of age and excavate their treasure. This is the mercy of your Lord."

[37] No person can claim that he murdered another for certain legitimate reasons because his spiritual mentor had also done so. When a person is proven to be guilty of murder, Retiation (Qisās) will be enforced irrespective of the motive for the murder. The case of Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was different because he was acting under the direct command of Allāh.

[38] It is sufficient to use just a few words when expressing something that will be understood without elaboration. Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام sufficed to say, "there was a king ahead of them who forcefully seized possession. of every boat." It is obvious that the king will seize only those boats that are in serviceable condition. This fact is understood without the need to mention it.

[39] Like Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, there are many people whom Allāh has appointed to carry out certain actions to maintain the system of the physical world. Regarding this subject Sheikh Abdul Aziz Dabbāgh رحمه الله عليه has written a book titled "Tabriz Ibriz" and Allāma Jalālud Dīn رحمه الله عليه has penned a work called "Khairud Dāl Ala Wujūdil Qutubi Wal Awtād Wan Nujaba Wal Abdāl".

The "Musnad of Ahmad" reports that when the Leader of the believers (Amīrul Mu'minīn), Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, arrived in Iraq he was asked to curse the people of Syria (Shām). He replied, "I shall never do so. I have heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, 'The Abdāl are in Shām. They are forty individuals whom Allāh replaces with another whenever one passes away. It is by virtue of their presence that the people of Shām receive rain, are victorious over their enemies and are saved from punishment.'"

[40] Some commentators have mentioned that the town where Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام and Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام asked for food was Antioch. Others say that it was Īla, others say it was Spain, some refer to a place called Nāsira and another group say it was town called Būqa. While it is not possible to attach a definite name to the place, the famous opinion is that it was Antioch, a place in southern Turkey, on the border of Syria.

A story is narrated that some people from Antioch once offered Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه a substantial amount of money to alter the Arabic word "abou" into "atou" in the verse, "... they asked for food, but the people refused to host them..." The alteration would change the meaning completely and mean that they played host to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. They claimed that the verse ruined their reputation as long as it remained in the Qur'ān.

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه told them that it was now too late. He told them that if the people of their town had even offered a few grains of food to the two travellers, the Qur'ān would have said that they did act as hosts.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 6) states that these people came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with some gold as payment. Another narration says that they came to Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه when he was the Leader of the believers (Amīrul Mu'minin).

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes thereafter that the incident is baseless and even if it were true, it would confirm the lack of intelligence of these people and that they actually fitted the description of being wicked (as mentioned by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم).

[41] It occurred that the ferrymen easily repaired the boat after the tyrannical king passed by. Because of the presence of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام on the boat, Allāh caused it not to fill with water while they were aboard.

"Fat'hul Bāri" (v. 8 p. 419) reports that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام informed the ferrymen that he intended to damage their boat, telling them that it was for their own good. They consented to the action. Another narration has it that only Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام saw him do what he did and that the others would not have consented to it.

[42] The commands that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام received from Allāh were a revelation to him and not just "Ilhām" (inspiration). "Ilhām" that contradicts the Shari'ah cannot be condoned at all. One can therefore not kill a person or damage someone's property claiming that one was commanded to do so by "Ilhām". The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 15 p. 17) quotes Allāma Sha'rāni رحمه الله as saying that many people have gone astray in this regard and they are leading others astray as well.

[43] Many ignorant so-called "pious ones" claim that the Shari'ah does not apply to "Tariqa" (the practices of ascetism and sufism). They fail to perceive that Tariqa is subject to the Shari'ah and that every saint and sufi has to follow the Shari'ah without exception. The person who fails to adhere to the obligatories (Farā'idh) and Compulsories of the Shari'ah will be regarded as a sinner.

People who claim that they or their 'Sheikh' need not follow the Shari'ah are disbelievers and can never be followed. Those people are also disbelievers who say that they need not comply with the teachings of the Prophets عليهم السلام and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and that there are other ways that can be observed besides the laws brought by them.

[44] It is blasphemous and an act of disbeliefs to believe that the Shari'ah applies only to the masses. Some people have been heard to say that the Shari'ah does not apply to those knowledgeable people who have clean hearts and upon whose hearts divine knowledge descends. They say that these people are able to follow the dictates of the special knowledge that is revealed to them. This belief is totally heretical and sacrilegious.

[45] According to the wording of the verses, no mention is made of Sayyidina Yusha عليه السلام after he found Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام with Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله writes in "Fat'hul Bārī" (v. 1 p. 220) that it is possible that he did accompany the two, but is not mentioned because he was merely following Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. At the same time, the possibility also exists that he did not accompany them at all.

{46} Mention was made previously of how Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام got the title of "Khidr." However, Imām Nawawī رحمه الله has written that his real name was Balya, while other commentators maintain that it was Kalyān. His cognomen was Abul Abbās and his father was a king called Malkān. His father is a descendant of Sām, one of the sons of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. [Commentary of Muslim v. 2 p. 269]

{47} There exists a difference of opinion with regard to whether Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was the Holy Prophet or a Wali (pious person). Sayyidina Abu Hayyān رحمه الله has recorded in his exegesis (tafsīr) that most Scholars (Ulama) are of the opinion that he was the Holy Prophet. In support of this opinion, he quotes the parting statement of Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, where he said, "I did not carry out these actions of my own accord." It will be farfetched to assume that he received his instructions from another Prophet عليه السلام.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was such a Prophet that was not sent to any particular nation with a message. Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله supports this opinion, judging from the talks that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام had with Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. [Isāba v. 1 p. 43011]

{48} Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has written in "Fat'hul Bārī" (v. 1 p. 221) that many ignorant people say that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was superior in status to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. These people merely look at this isolated incident and forget that Allāh spoke directly to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and that he was given the Torah, which contained the knowledge of all things.

They have also forgotten that all the Prophets عليهم السلام of the Bani Isrā'īl after Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, including Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, followed his Shari'ah. In this regard Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام will be superior in status to Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, because the latter did not receive a Shari'ah of his own. Even if it assumed that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام did receive a Shari'ah, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام would still be superior because his apostleship was greater and his Ummah was larger.

If Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was a Wali, then the person who says that he is superior to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام will be a disbeliever because the entire Ummah is unanimous that any Prophet is superior to any Wali.

Although Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was superior in status, he was sent to learn from Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام as a test and a lesson, so that he may not unconditionally claim to be the most knowledgeable person. ["Fat'hul Bārī" v. 1 p. 221]

{49} Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has written approximately 18 pages in his book "Isāba" on the topic of whether Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام is alive presently or not. He first quotes the proofs of those who claim that he has passed away. The strongest of their proofs is a hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in which he once told the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم after the Isha Salāh, 'None of the people presently upon the back of the earth will be alive after a hundred years.' Bukhari has narrated this hadith in three places.

Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه has quoted Imām Nawawi رحمه الله عليه as saying that the majority of the Scholars (Ulama) are against this opinion and say that at the time when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, this hadith Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was at sea, and therefore exempted from the general intention of the words "upon the back of the earth."

Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه has also quoted from Hāfiz Ibnul Jowzi رحمه الله عليه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the following supplication (du'ā) before the battle of Badr i.e. "O Allāh! If you wish, you would not be worshipped after this day." Muslim (v. 2 p. 84) narrates the supplication (du'ā) as follows: "O Allāh! If you so wish, you would not be worshipped on earth." (i.e. If the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم are destroyed in the battle, there would be none to worship Allāh).

He deduces from this that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام must have already passed away when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made this supplication (du'ā) because he was certainly a worshipper of Allāh. Even if the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم were annihilated in the battle, he would still have been alive to worship Allāh.

Another proof for his death is that if he were alive he would have certainly met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and believed in him as Allāh's messenger. However, this proof holds no weight because he could have met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم without our knowledge. The absence of a narration to this effect does not negate the occurrence.

Thereafter, Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه narrates the proofs of those who claim that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام was alive during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and after him as well. None of these are reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself, many are extremely unreliable, while there are those that are fabricated.

One of the narrations are extracted from "Kitābul Mujālisa", in which Sayyidina Umar bin Abdul Aziz رحمه الله عليه is reported to have said that he had seen Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام walking hastily. A narration from the "Tarikh" of Ya'qūb bin Sufyān رحمه الله عليه states that Sayyidina Umar bin Abdul Aziz رحمه الله عليه said, "I met my brother Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام and he conveyed to me the glad tidings that I shall be in charge of the peoples' affairs and that I shall be just." Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه says that this was the most authentic narration regarding this subject. [Isābah v. 1 p. 480]

He then quotes Abu Hayyān رحمه الله عليه as saying that one of the narrators of his hadith [viz. Abdul Wāhid Abbāsi Hambali رحمه الله عليه] is known by his students as having personally met Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه says that he also met many people who claim to have met Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. Of these is Qādhi Ilmud Dīn Basāti رحمه الله عليه, who was the chief justice during the reign of the king Zāhir Barqūq.

Imām Bayhaqi رحمه الله عليه has reported in "Dalā'ilun Nabuwwa" (v. 7 p. 268) that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed away, the people of his house heard a voice from a corner of the room saying, "O people of the home! Peace be on you, and the mercy of Allāh and His blessings. There is undoubtedly consolation in the Being of Allāh from every calamity, a replacement for every destroyed thing, and compensation for every lost thing. (i.e. Despite all the losses in life, it should be borne in mind that Allāh is still Ever Present, so seek assistance from Him). So trust only in Allāh and pin your hopes in Him Alone, because the person who is truly afflicted by a calamity is he who is deprived of reward."

Upon hearing this, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه asked the people if they recognised the voice. He then informed them that the speaker was Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. [Mishkāt p. 549]

Many Muhaddithin, including Imām Bukhari رحمه الله عليه, strongly oppose the belief that Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام is alive and their opinion cannot be conclusively rebutted. Both parties have their proofs. The subject is not one on which any law of Shari'ah is based, neither will it affect a person's belief (Imān) in any way. Allāh knows best.

وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ ذِي الْقَرْنَيْنِ قُلْ سَأَتْلُوا عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْهُ ذِكْرًا ﴿٨٣﴾ إِنَّا مَكَنَّا لَهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَءَايَيْنَاهُ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ سَبِيلًا ﴿٨٤﴾ فَاتَّبَعَ سَبِيلًا ﴿٨٥﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ مَغْرِبَ الشَّمْسِ وَجَدَهَا تَغْرُبُ فِي عَيْنٍ حَمِئَةٍ وَوَجَدَ عِنْدَهَا قَوْمًا قُلْنَا يَبْدَأُ الْقَرْنَيْنِ إِمَّا أَنْ تُعَذِّبَ وَإِمَّا أَنْ تَتَّخِذَ فِيهِمْ حُسْنًا ﴿٨٦﴾ قَالَ أَمَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ فَسَوْفَ نُعَذِّبُهُ ثُمَّ يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ فَيُعَذِّبُهُ عَذَابًا ثَكْرًا ﴿٨٧﴾ وَأَمَّا مَنْ ءَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلَهُ جَزَاءٌ الْحَسَنَىٰ وَسَنُقُولُ لَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِنَا يُسْرًا ﴿٨٨﴾ ثُمَّ أَتْبَعَ سَبِيلًا ﴿٨٩﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ مَطْلِعَ الشَّمْسِ وَجَدَهَا تَطْلُعُ عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ لَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِهَا سَبِيلًا ﴿٩٠﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ وَقَدْ أَحَطْنَا بِمَا لَدَيْهِ خُبْرًا ﴿٩١﴾ ثُمَّ أَتْبَعَ سَبِيلًا ﴿٩٢﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ بَيْنَ السَّدَّيْنِ وَجَدَ مِنْ دُونِهِمَا قَوْمًا لَا يَكَادُونَ يَفْقَهُونَ قَوْلًا ﴿٩٣﴾ قَالُوا يَبْدَأُ الْقَرْنَيْنِ إِنْ يَأْجُوجُ وَمَاجُوجُ مُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَهَلْ نَجْعَلُ لَكَ خَرْجًا عَلَىٰ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ سَدًّا ﴿٩٤﴾ قَالَ مَا مَكَّنِّي فِيهِ رَبِّي خَيْرٌ فَأَعِينُونِي بِقُوَّةٍ أَجْعَلْ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَهُمْ رَدْمًا ﴿٩٥﴾ ءَاتُونِي زُبَرَ الْحَدِيدِ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا سَاوَىٰ بَيْنَ الصَّدَفَيْنِ قَالَ انْفُخُوا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَعَلَهُ نَارًا قَالَ ءَاتُونِي أُفْرِغْ عَلَيْهِ قِطْرًا ﴿٩٦﴾ فَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا أَنْ يَظْهَرُوهُ وَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا لَهُمْ نَقْبًا ﴿٩٧﴾ قَالَ هَٰذَا رَحْمَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّي فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ رَبِّي جَعَلَهُ دَكَّاءَ وَكَانَ وَعْدُ رَبِّي حَقًّا ﴿٩٨﴾ وَتَرَكْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَمُوجُ فِي بَعْضٍ وَفُتِحَ فِي الْأُصُورِ فَمَجَعْنَاهُمْ مَجْعًا ﴿٩٩﴾ وَعَرَضْنَا جَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَرَضًا ﴿١٠٠﴾ الَّذِينَ كَانَتْ أَعْيُنُهُمْ فِي غَطَاٍ عَنْ ذِكْرِي وَكَانُوا لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَمْعًا ﴿١٠١﴾

(83) They ask you about Dhul Qarnain. Tell them, "I shall shortly make mention of him to you. (84) We verily granted him kingship on earth and gave him every type of asset. (85) So he journeyed on a road... (86) Until he reached the place where the sun sets. He found it setting in a black spring, where he found a nation. We told him. "O Dhul Qarnain! Either you punish them or you adopt a kind attitude towards them." (87) He said, "As for him who oppresses, we shall soon punish him and then return him to his Lord, Who will punish him most severely." (88) "As for him who believes and does good deeds, his shall be a most beautiful reward. And we will speak mildly of him with regard to our affairs." (89) He then journeyed on a road... (90) Until he reached the place where the sun rose, he found it rising upon a nation to whom We had not given any veil against it. (91) This is how it was, and We surely had knowledge of everything that he possessed. (92) He then journeyed on a road... (93) Until he reached between two mountain, he found nearby a nation who could barely understand anything. (94) They submitted, "O Dhul Qarnain! The Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj spread anarchy on earth, so is it possible that we collect some money for you so that you may erect a barrier between us and them?" (95) He replied, "The power and authority that my Lord has vested in me is better, so assist me with strength and I shall erect a fortified wall between you and them. (96) "Bring me some pieces of iron." When these were levelled between the cliffs, he commanded, "Blow!" When it was made into fire, he said, "Bring me molten copper to pour over it." (97) They were not able to scale it, neither were they able to make a hole in it. (98) He said, "This is a mercy from my Lord. When the promise of my Lord will come, He will shatter it to pieces. The promise of my Lord is ever true. (99) On that day We will leave the criminals to surge against each other, the trumpet will be blown and We will gather them all. (100) On that day We will present Hell before the disbelievers. (101) Those whose eyes were veiled from My remembrance and they were unable to hear.

THE STORY OF DHUL QARNAIN, HIS TRAVELS AND THE ERECTION OF A WALL TO STOP THE GOG (YA'JŪJ) AND MAGOG (MA'JŪJ)

It has already been mentioned that the Jews told the polytheists to pose three questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a test of his apostleship. The question regarding the soul was answered in Surah Bani Isrā'il and the question about the people of the cave has also been discussed. Now Allāh discusses the story of Dhul Qarnain.

Questions are often asked about who was Dhul Qarnain, where were the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) and where is the wall that Dhul Qarnain erected? These questions fill the minds of people. Although a believer (Mu'min) should not be affected by these questions and be satisfied with what the Qur'an explains, people nowadays are accustomed to research and investigation.

WHO WAS DHUL QARNAIN, WHAT WAS HIS REAL NAME AND WHY WAS HE GIVEN THE TITLE OF "DHUL QARNAIN?"

Some people have mentioned that Dhul Qarnain was Alexander of Macedonia, whose advisor was the philosopher Aristotle. However, the research scholars have refuted this notion because Dhul Qarnain is described in the Qur'ān as a pious believer (Mu'min) (in fact, some Scholars (Ulama) say that he was the Prophet).

It is well known that Alexander of Macedonia was a tyrant and founded the city of Alexandria in Egypt. Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله also mentions that Alexander reigned long after Dhul Qarnain. He lived approximately three hundred years before Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. He killed Darius III and disgraced the Persian royalty.

Thereafter Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله writes, "We have clarified the point because many people believe that the Dhul Qarnain mentioned in the Qur'ān is the same Dhul Qarnain whose advisor was Aristotle.

This notion causes many errors and associated evils because the first one was a believer (Mu'min) and a just ruler, whose advisor was Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام. He was also a Prophet, as we have already established. The second was a polytheist and his advisor was a philosopher. There was also a period of two thousand years between the two..."

Thereafter Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله presents several opinions about the real name of Dhul Qarnain. These are:

- (1) Abdullāh bin Dahhāk bin Ma'd
- (2) Mus'ab bin Abdullah bin Qattān
- (3) Marzubān bin Marzabā
- (4) Sa'b bin Dhi Marā'id
- (5) Harmas
- (6) Hardīs

He also states that Dhul Qarnain was from the progeny of Sām, the son of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. He states further that he belonged to the Bani Himyar tribe. Whatever the case, the difference of opinion regarding his name does not affect the purpose of the incident.

Ibn Kathir reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that Dhul Qarnain was a Prophet and he reports from Is'hāq bin Bishr رحمه الله that his advisor was Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, who also doubled as the leader of the reconnoitring section of Dhul Qarnain's army.

He also quotes Azraq رحمه الله as saying that Dhul Qarnain accepted Islām at the hands of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. He performed tawāf with Sayyidina Ibrahim and Isma'il عليه السلام. He performed the Hajj on foot and, when Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام was informed of his arrival, he welcomed him and made pray (du'ā) for him. Allāh also made the clouds subservient to him and he could take them wherever he pleased.

The Arabic word "Qarnain" denotes two horns or two centuries. "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 24) quotes eleven opinions concerning the reason for the title of Dhul Qarnain ("The one who possesses two horns or two centuries"). Of these many are incorrect. Of those that seem appropriate is that he was titled in this manner because he reigned for two centuries.

Another opinion states that he had two horns on his head like goats have. He is reported to be the first person to wear a turban to hide these horns. Others state that he was titled likewise because his crown had two horns. A fourth opinion is that he was given the title because of his extensive travels to the east and the west, both directions denoting a horn.

HIS JOURNEY TO WEST

Allāh says, "They ask you about Dhul Qarnain. Tell them, 'I shall shortly make mention of him to you. We verily granted him kingship on earth and gave him every type of asset.'" Allāh granted him everything that he required to rule his kingdom efficiently.

"So he journeyed on a road (to the west)." En route he conquered many territories and continued "Until he reached the place where the sun sets (a place that was the furthest westerly settlement). He found it setting in a black spring..." "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 32) mentions that this refers to a spring within the sea, or to the sea itself. The word "spring" can very well refer to the ocean because it is as minute as a spring when compared to Allāh's great power and kingdom.

A "black spring" would mean that he saw the sun setting upon a coastline that appeared to be black because of its vastness (and distance). Of course, the sun never actually sets in the sea, but the sight appears to portray this.

In this westerly territory "he found a nation. We told him, 'O Dhul Qarnain! Either you punish them [by putting them to the sword because of their adherence to disbeliefs after receiving the message of (Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd)) or you adopt a kind attitude towards them (by repeating the message to them and allowing them to accept)."

Dhul Qarnain opted to first invite them to belief (Imān). "He said, 'As for him who oppresses (by rejecting to believe), we shall soon punish him and then return him to his Lord, Who will punish him most severely.'"

He continued to say, "As for him who believes and does good deeds, his shall be a most beautiful reward. And we will speak mildly of him with regard to our affairs." i.e. He will not be imposed upon, neither verbally nor physically.

HIS JOURNEY TO THE EAST

Allāh says further, "He then journeyed on a road (to the east)." He continued on his journey "Until he reached the place where the sun rose..." i.e. He journeyed to the furthest easterly settlement.

When he reached this place, he noticed that the sun rose "upon a nation to whom We had not given any veil against it." These people did not live in homes or tents, but lived in the open. It is possible that the place was cold and they required the sunlight to keep themselves warm. Rain must have also been scarce and, when it did fall, they must have taken shelter under trees.

Allāh then says, "This is how it was, and We surely had knowledge of everything that he possessed."

Allāh does not mention in the above verse whether the people in the east were believers (Mu'minīn) or disbelievers, or what Dhul Qarnain did with them. If they were disbelievers, he may have treated them as he did with the people, of the west.

THE THIRD JOURNEY

"He then journeyed on a road until he reached between two mountains, he found nearby a nation who could barely understand anything." These people were terrified for the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) tribe.

"They submitted, 'O Dhul Qarnain! The Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj spread anarchy on earth, so is it possible that we collect some money for you so that you may erect a barrier between us and them?'"

HOW WAS THE WALL CONSTRUCTED?

When these people requested Dhul Qarnain to build a barricade between themselves and the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj), "He replied, '(You need not pay me anything because) The power and authority that my Lord has vested in me is better (than what you can give to me), so assist me with strength (i.e. manpower and support) and I shall erect a fortified wall between you and them."

Dhul Qarnain told the people, "Bring me some pieces of iron." The iron was used as bricks, while wood and coal were used as mortar. Allāh then continues, "When these were levelled between the cliffs (and the valley was barricaded), he commanded, 'Blow!'" The author of "Jalālain" says that some instruments were used to blow to stimulate combustion.

Eventually "When it (the iron) was made into fire..." The iron melted and the pieces joined together to form a solid wall on its own. This was sufficient in itself, yet Dhul Qarnain fortified it further. He then instructed the people saying, "Bring me molten copper to pour over it." When the molten copper was poured over the iron wall, it filled all the gaps and covered the wall.

Because of the height, strength and smoothness of the wall the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) "were not able to scale it, neither were they able to make a hole in it."

After completing the wall Dhul Qarnain said to the people, "This is a mercy from my Lord." It was mercy from Allāh that he was accorded the honour of completing this great feat and it was because of His mercy that these people were now safe from the harassment of the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj).

Dhul Qarnain continued to tell the people, "When the promise of my Lord will come, He will shatter it to pieces. The promise of my Lord is ever true." Allāh shall cause the wall to be shattered when He decides.

Some commentators have mentioned that the 'promise' refers to the day of Judgement. Others say that this 'promise' refers to the time when the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) are destined to escape from the valley. The second opinion is more suitable in the context of the next verse that (according to many commentators) refers to the emergence of the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj).

The emergence of the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) is a sign of Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "Until the time arrives when the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will be released and they will scurry down every hill." [Surah 21, verse 96]

"On that day We will leave the criminals to surge against each other..." The Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will break out from captivity and spread on earth in great haste. According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, this verse refers to the emergence of all creation from their graves on the day of Judgement. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 16 p. 43]

"..... the trumpet will be blown and We will gather them all. On that day We will present Hell before the disbelievers." Then Allāh describes the disbelievers by saying that they are "Those whose eyes were veiled from My remembrance and they were unable to hear."

Allāh depicts the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) because the Jews and the polytheists of Makkah were stubborn and refused to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even after he had recounted these incidents to them upon their demand. Allāh tells them that they will never be able to escape on the day of Judgement and they will all receive their due punishment.

THE EMERGENCE OF THE GOG (YA'JŪJ) AND MAGOG (MA'JŪJ) BEFORE JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

We shall repeat what Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, viz. "Until the time arrives when the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will be released and they will scurry down every hill." [Surah 21, verse 96].

Muslim (v. 2 p. 393) reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) shall never dawn until ten signs appear. These are:

1. People are swallowed by the earth in the east.
2. People are also swallowed in the west.
3. This incident occurs in the Arabian peninsula as well.
4. Smoke appears.
5. Dajjāl makes his appearance.
6. The 'creature of the earth' appears (this is a type of animal that will emerge from the ground. Mention will be made' of this in Surah Naml).
7. The emergence of Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj).
8. The rising of the sun from the west.
9. A fire will rage from Aden (and drive people towards the plains of reckoning).
10. The descent of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام from the heavens.

Muslim (v. 2 p. 401) sheds more light on the emergence of Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj). It is recorded from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that after Dajjāl is killed by Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and he lives among the people, Allāh will send the following revelation to him: "O Isā! I shall release such servants of Mine against whom none can fight. Therefore take My [Believer (Mu'min)] servants to Mount Tūr for safety."

Consequently Allāh will release them "and they will scurry down every hill." Their numbers will be so large that when the first part of their army will pass by the lake of Tabariyya they will finish all the water and, when the later part of their army will pass by, they will say, "It seems that there was once water here." Allāma Yaqūt Hamawi رحمه الله reports from Allāma Azhari رحمه الله that this lake measured ten miles in length and six miles in breadth during his time.

When they will reach the Khamar Mountain in Baitul Muqaddas, they will say, "We have killed all on earth. Let us now kill those in the heavens." They will then fire their arrows to the skies and Allāh will cause these to return with blood on them.

In the meantime, the believers (Mu'minīn) with Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام will be so hard pressed for food in the Tūr mountain that the head of a bull will be more valuable to them than a hundred gold coins. Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and the believers (Mu'minīn) will implore Allāh to destroy the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj and Allāh will afflict them with a disease that normally kills goats and camels when it erupts from the nose. It will erupt from their necks and kill them all as if they were one person.

Their corpses will be scattered about as if a wild animal ravaged them. When Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and the believers (Mu'minīn) will descend from the mountain they will not find a single place that is free from the bodies and stench of the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj. They will then again supplicate to Allāh whereupon Allāh will send large birds with necks like camels. These birds will cast all the corpses away to where Allāh wills. Thereafter Allāh will send a light rain that will fall on every part of the earth, washing it as clean as if it is a mirror.

Allāh will then command the earth to bring forth its vegetation and provisions. It will then spill forth everything and produce all its fruits. As a result of this blessings, a group of people will be able to eat from a single pomegranate and they will be able to make umbrellas from the skin of a pomegranate.

There will be so much blessings in milk that a large gathering of people will be able to fill themselves with the milk of one camel. In a like manner, a large tribe will be able to satisfy themselves with the milk of a cow, and a smaller tribe will require the milk of only a goat to fill themselves.

Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will then be very close and the believers (Mu'minīn) will enjoy extremely comfortable lives. Since Judgment day (Qiyāmah) can dawn only upon the disbelievers, Allāh will send a pleasant breeze that will reach the sides of the believers (Mu'minīn), causing them all to pass away. Thereafter only the worst of people will live on earth, who will commit adultery in public like donkeys. Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn upon these people.

The verse of Surah Anbiya and the hadith of Muslim make it clear that the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj will emerge just before Judgment day (Qiyāmah). First Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام will descend and then Dajjāl will appear. After he is killed by Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will be released. This is the only correct sequence of events before Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

However, since the introduction of secular history and the study of its books and the narrations of the Jews, people have begun to draw illogical deductions. Some of them say that the Tartars and the barbaric Western nations were the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj.

These nations caused untold bloodshed and plundered many nations in Africa and Asia. Until today they spread anarchy in numerous ways. The possibility does exist that some of them are from the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj because the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj consisted of many tribes. However, the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj mentioned in the Qur'ān and the Ahdith will certainly appear only before Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

The signs of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) are classified into two categories. The first are those that appear a long time before and the second are those that appear close to Judgment day (Qiyāmah). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) and himself are like the index and middle fingers of his hand. [Mishkāt p. 480]

All the events mentioned above concerning the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj are not apparent before us. It is therefore only logical that they could not yet have appeared on earth.

Ibn Majah reports that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the night of Ascension (Mi'rāj) that the corpses of the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj will be cast into the sea and that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) shall occur so close thereafter like a pregnant woman who is near to delivery and her family have no idea when she might surprise them with her delivery.

THE NUMBERS OF THE GOG (YA'JŪJ) AND MAGOG (MA'JŪJ)

A narration of Bukhari also tells us that the numbers of the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will be so large that they cannot be counted. In a chapter discussing the story of the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj, Imām Bukhari رحمه الله quotes the verses of Surah Anbiya and Surah Kahf, followed by three Ahdith.

In one of these Ahdith, he reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) Allāh will instruct Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام to separate those people who are destined for Hell. When he will ask how many are they to be, Allāh will say that the people of Hell will number 999 from every 1000. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that at that moment, Upon hearing this, every youth will turn white, "every nursing mother will forget her suckling infant and every pregnant woman will abort. And you will see people in a drunken stupor whereas they will not be drunk, but Allāh 's punishment is severe."

When the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم heard this from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم they asked who will enter Heaven (Jannah) if only one from every thousand will enter. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Accept the glad tidings that the one will be from yourselves and a thousand will be from the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj)." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 472]

This hadith informs us that the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) are from the progeny of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. Hāfiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه writes that the hadith illustrates the number of the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) as being a thousand to one when compared to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is therefore evident that no nation has emerged thus far in such numbers.

WHO ARE THE YA'JŪJ AND MA'JŪJ AND WHERE ARE THEY?

The historian Ibn Khaldūn رحمه الله عليه writes that to the west of Ghazz and east of the cities of Kimia lies the Caucasus Mountains. He says that these mountains surround the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj).

WHERE IS THE WALL CONSTRUCTED BY DHUL QARNAIN?

Historians have written that the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) attacked and plundered many places and many walls were erected as barricades against them. One of these is that Great Wall of China. However, this is definitely not the wall constructed by Dhul Qarnain. The Great Wall of China cannot be the wall of Dhul Qarnain because the wall of Dhul Qarnain is established to be made of iron and copper.

Another similar wall is found in Asia, close to Russia, in a district called Darbind. A third such wall is found in Dagestan and is famously known as Darbind or Bābul Abwāb. The fourth is found to the west of Dagestan and is between two mountains. This is close to the Caucasian Mountains and many historians believe that this is the wall built by Dhul Qarnain. However, any wall that is not built of iron and copper cannot be the wall of Dhul Qarnain.

Allāma Yaqūt Hamawī رحمه الله عليه writes in his book "Mu'jamul Buldān" that the Caliph (Khalifa) Wāthiq Billah dispatched an expedition of fifty men with five thousand gold coins. En route, Falakul Jazar joined five guides with them. They came across a steep mountain in which there was a valley that spanned 150 arm-lengths. They found a wall of iron bricks spanning the width of this valley, between which they noticed copper. The height of the wall was fifty hand-lengths and it also had an iron door with a lock. The expedition then left the place and reached the town Surra Man Ra'a after eight months.

After quoting this and other narrations in three pages, Allāma Hamawī رحمه الله عليه says that he got the information from other books without being able to verify their authenticity. Only Allāh knows the location of the wall, but its existence is certain.

Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has also recounted the above expedition of Wāthiq Billah and Ibn Khaldūn has also referred to it on p. 79. However, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 42) has mentioned that the reliable historians have declared the incident to be unauthentic. He says that any person with in-depth knowledge will acknowledge that there are many untruths in the story that contradict the verses of the Qur'an.

The claim of the disbelievers that they have explored the earth and have not found this wall does not nullify the existence of the wall. This is so because the possibility is great that they did not yet explore every part of the world.

In the past they thought that Asia, Africa and Europe made up the entire world. However, they realised their folly when Columbus (or Vespucci?) accidentally discovered America and thought that it was India. It was only long thereafter that they discovered Australia. In a like manner, they have yet to discover the territory of the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj.

No Islāmic belief depends upon the knowledge of where the wall and the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj are located. This knowledge will not even affect a person's understanding of the Qur'ān. Therefore it will not be necessary to delve deeply into the matter. A believer (Mu'min) believes in what Allāh has revealed without question.

THE WORDS "YA'JŪJ" AND "MA'JŪJ" ARE NOT ARABIC

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" and other historians and commentators have mentioned that the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) were descendants of Yāfith, the son of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. Some Muslim researchers have mentioned that two tribes living behind the Qafqāz Mountains are called the Ya'qūq and the Ma'qūq. In converting these two words to Arabic, the Arabs have coined the words Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj).

Others have mentioned that the original form of these words was Gog and Magog, Kās and Mikās, or Chīn and Machīn. Whatever the original, it is evident that the words were never Arabic, but transformations into Arabic. However, some people have justified their belief that these words are originally Arabic. And Allāh knows best.

Note: It has already been established from the narration of Bukhari that the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj are humans and that all of them will be cast into Hell. Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has mentioned the objection which states that they cannot be punished when no Prophet has preached to them. This is in conformance to the verse where Allāh says, "We shall not punish (any nation) until We send a messenger (to them)." [Surah Bani Isrā'il (17), verse 15]

The reply to this objection is that the word "messenger" in this verse may refer to the Prophet or to any messenger or disciple of a Prophet. Allāh may have sent such people to them as well. The fact that we are unaware of this does not mean that it never occurred.

أَفَحَسِبَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنْ يَتَّخِذُوا عِبَادِي مِنْ دُونِي أَوْلِيَاءَ إِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا جَهَنَّمَ لِلْكَافِرِينَ نُزُلًا ﴿١٠٢﴾ قُلْ هَلْ نُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِالْأَخْسَرِينَ أَعْمَالًا ﴿١٠٣﴾ الَّذِينَ ضَلَّ سَعِيَّهُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَهُمْ يَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ يُحْسِنُونَ صُنْعًا ﴿١٠٤﴾ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ وَلِقَائِهِ فَحَبِطَتْ أَعْمَالُهُمْ فَلَا نُقِيمُ لَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَزَنًا ﴿١٠٥﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَاءُهمْ جَهَنَّمُ بِمَا كَفَرُوا وَاتَّخَذُوا آيَاتِي وَرُسُلِي هُزُوًا ﴿١٠٦﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ الْفِرْدَوْسِ نُزُلًا ﴿١٠٧﴾ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا

(102) Do the disbelievers think that they can exclude Me to take My slaves as assistants? Without doubt, We have prepared Hell as a reception for the disbelievers. (103) Say, "Should we inform you of those who are the worst losers in terms of their deeds? (104) They are those whose efforts are destroyed in this worldly life while they think that they are carrying out good deeds. (105) These are the ones who disbelieve in the verses of their Lord and in meeting with Him. So their deeds are wasted and no weight will be attached to them on the Day of Judgment. (106) This punishment of Hell will be their retribution because of their disbelief and because they ridiculed My verses and My messengers. (107) As for those who believe and do good deeds, Gardens of Paradise (Jannātul Firdous) shall be their reception. (108) They will abide therein forever and will never want to leave it.

THE DISBELIEVER IS THE GREATEST LOSER AND ALL HIS DEEDS WILL BE WASTED AND WEIGHTLESS

Allāh speaks of the disbelievers in these verses and asks, "Do the disbelievers think that they can exclude Me to take My slaves as assistants?" Foolishly thinking that they are doing right, they do not realise that "Without doubt, We have prepared Hell as a reception for the disbelievers."

The disbelievers are of a few types. There are those who totally refute the existence of Allāh and apply themselves only to acquiring the things of this world. Then there are those who believe in Allāh, but associate others as partner to Him. They adhere to other religions (Dīn's) instead of the true religion (Dīn) taught by Allāh.

There are also those disbelievers who exert themselves in various spiritual exercises in the name of worship. The deeds of all these people are wasted because they will not receive any rewards for them in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Say, 'Should we inform you of those who are the worst losers in terms of their deeds? They are those whose efforts are destroyed in this worldly life while they think that they are carrying out good deeds.'"

Describing them further Allāh says, "These are the ones who disbelieve in the verses of their Lord and in meeting with Him. So their deeds are wasted and no weight will be attached to them on the Day of Judgement."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that many people will appear healthy and plump on the Day of Judgement, but they will not even weigh as much as the wing of a mosquito in Allāh's estimation. In support of his statement, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse, "no weight will be attached to them on the Day of Judgement" [Bukhari v. 2 p. 691]. The person will appear in this manner as a personification of his worldly status, position and affluence.

Some commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that these people will have no standing and position before Allāh. Others say that for such people no scale will be erected to weigh their deeds on the Day of Judgement. They will be dispatched to Hell without their deeds being weighed. The opinions of the Scholars (Ulama) with regard to the scales have been mentioned in the commentary of verse 8 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Allāh says, "The weighing on that day is the truth! As for him whose scale is heavy, these will be the successful ones."

People envy the lives of the rich and famous and are overawed at the publicity that these people enjoy. Even their deaths are globally publicised. However, few ever reflect upon whether the person dies as a believer (Mu'min) or a disbeliever. If he dies as a disbeliever, his plight is most pitiable because he will suffer in the grave, in the 50,000 year duration of the Day of Judgement, and then eternally in Hell. All this popularity will be of no avail to them after they die. Everything will be wasted.

Allāh says in verse 18 of Surah Ibrahim (Surah 14), "The example of the actions of those who disbelieve in their Lord is like that of ashes that are blown away by a wind on a stormy day. They have absolutely no control over what they earn. This is a distant deviation."

Just as there remains no trace of the ashes, there shall be no trace of their actions, this includes even the extreme spiritual exercises performed by the Hindu Sādhūs and the Christian monks.

Finally Allāh says, "This punishment of Hell will be their retribution because of their disbelief and because they ridiculed My verses and My messengers."

GARDENS OF PARADISE (JANNĀTUL FIRDIOUS) ARE PROMISED FOR THE BELIEVERS WHO DO GOOD DEEDS

"As for those who believe and do good deeds, Gardens of Paradise (Jannātul Firdous) shall be their reception." The Arabic word "Janāt" is the plural of Heaven (Jannah), which refers to a garden and, more specifically, to the garden of Paradise.

"Firdous" has been termed by many commentators to be a Roman or Hebrew word that means 'a garden.' According to other commentators, it is an Ethiopian word referring to an extremely densely foliated garden. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 16 p. 16]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that a person should always pray for Gardens of Paradise (Jannātul Firdous) because it is the highest rank of Heaven (Jannah). Above it lies the throne of Allāh, and all four rivers of Heaven (Jannah) have their source therein. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 391]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" then makes mention of an objection. The objection states that if everyone reached Gardens of Paradise (Jannātul Firdous) how would the different ranks of the believers (Mu'minīn) be differentiated? The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" says that Gardens of Paradise (Jannātul Firdous) refers to the entire Heaven (Jannah) and every person will attain to the rank that is promised to him.

"They will abide therein forever and will never want to leave it." This is so because there is no better place. Allāh says in Surah Hijr, "No difficulty shall afflict them there, neither will they be removed from there." [Surah 15, verse 48]

قُلْ لَوْ كَانَ الْبَحْرُ مِدَادًا لِكَلِمَاتِ رَبِّي لَنَفِدَ الْبَحْرُ قَبْلَ أَنْ تَنفَدَ كَلِمَاتُ رَبِّي وَلَوْ جِئْنَا بِمِثْلِهِ مَدَدًا ﴿١٠٩﴾ قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُكُمْ إِلَهٌُ وَاحِدٌ فَمَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوا لِقَاءَ رَبِّهِ فَلْيَعْمَلْ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا وَلَا يُشْرِكْ بِعِبَادَةِ رَبِّهِ أَحَدًا ﴿١١٠﴾

(109) Say, "If the ocean was ink for the words of my Lord, the ocean would be depleted before the words of my Lord can end, even if We supplement it with a like amount of ink." (110) Say, "I am but a human being like yourselves. Revelation comes to me that your Deity is but One Deity. So whoever aspires for the meeting with his Lord should perform good deeds and not associate anyone as partner in the worship of his Lord."

THE ATTRIBUTES AND EXCELLENCE OF ALLĀH ARE LIMITLESS

In concluding the Surah, Allāh makes mention of Oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), the Prophethood and those things that will benefit one in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Say, 'If the ocean was ink for the words (denoting the attributes and excellence) of my Lord, the ocean would be depleted before the words of my Lord can end, even if We supplement it with a like amount of ink.'" Even if all the seven oceans are transformed into ink and all the trees of the world become pens to write this, they will never be able to do so. This is similar to the verse that Allāh has mentioned of Surah Luqmān, where He says, "If all the trees on earth were pens and the ocean was augmented by seven oceans, Allāh's words will never be exhausted. Verily Allāh is Mighty, the Wise." [Surah 31, verse 27]

This feat will not be accomplished even if the trees and the oceans were considered to be infinite. Therefore, it will be foolish to even consider ascribing anyone as partner to Allāh because none can match even one of His attributes.

A HUMAN BEING IS PERFECTLY CAPABLE OF BEING A PROPHET (NABI)

"Say, 'I am but a human being like yourselves. (The only difference being that) Revelation comes to me that your Deity is but One Deity.'" There is no reason why a human being cannot be a Prophet. In fact, it is best that he is human.

Allāh goes on to say, "So whoever aspires for the meeting with his Lord (on the Day of Judgement), should perform good deeds [in association with belief in all Allāh's Prophets عليهم السلام, especially in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم]. In addition to this he should "not associate anyone as partner in the worship of his Lord." No deed will be of help when a person is a polytheist. Only the deeds of believers (Mu'minīn) will be accepted by Allāh, as has already been mentioned.

A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF SURAH MARYAM

Surah Maryam gets its name from the detailed account that verses 16 to 37 of the Surah give about Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام and her giving birth to Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Verses 1 to 15 of this Surah mention how Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام and his barren wife were blessed with a son viz. Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام.

Verses 41 to 50 speak of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, while verses 51 to 58 speak of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام, Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام and Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام. The verses thereafter discuss Judgment day (Qiyāmah) and how people will be sent to Heaven (Jannah) and Hell.

سورة مريم

Makkan

Surah Maryam

Verses 98

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

كَهَمِيعَصَ ۝ (1) ذَكَرَ رَحْمَتَ رَبِّكَ عَبْدُكَ زَكَرِيَّا ۝ (2) إِذْ نَادَى رَبَّهُ يَدَّاءُ
خَفِيًّا ۝ (3) قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي وَهَنَ الْعَظْمُ مِنِّي وَاشْتَعَلَ الرَّأْسُ شَيْبًا وَلَمْ أَكُنْ
بَدُاعًا لَكَ رَبِّ شَقِيًّا ۝ (4) وَإِنِّي خِفْتُ الْمَوَالِيَ مِنْ وَرَائِي وَكَانَتِ امْرَأَتِي
عَاقِرًا فَهَبْ لِي مِنْ لَدُنْكَ وَلِيًّا ۝ (5) يَرِنُنِي وَإِنِّي كُنْتُ مِنَ الْيَقِينِ ۝ (6) يَزَكَرِيَّا إِنَّا نُبَشِّرُكَ بِغُلَامٍ اسْمُهُ يَحْيَى لَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُ مِنْ
قَبْلُ سَمِيًّا ۝ (7) قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّى يَكُونُ لِي غُلَامٌ وَكَانَتِ امْرَأَتِي عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ
بَلَغْتُ مِنَ الْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ۝ (8) قَالَ كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَى هَيْنٍ وَقَدْ
خَلَقْنَاكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَمْ تَكُ شَيْئًا ۝ (9) قَالَ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ لِي آيَةً قَالَ
ءَايَتُكَ أَلا تَكَلِّمُ النَّاسَ لَيْلًا نَوْمًا ۝ (10) فَخَرَجَ عَلَى قَوْمِهِ مِنَ
الْحِرَابِ فَأَوْحَى إِلَيْهِمْ أَنْ سَبِّحُوا بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًّا ۝ (11) يَبْخِي خُذِ الْكِتَابَ
بِقُوَّةٍ وَءَاتَيْنَاهُ الْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا ۝ (12) وَحَنَانًا مِنْ لَدُنَّا وَزَكَاةً وَكَانَ تَقِيًّا ۝ (13) وَبَرًّا
بِوَالِدَيْهِ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ جَبَّارًا عَصِيًّا ۝ (14) وَسَلَامٌ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمَ وُلِدَ وَيَوْمَ يَمُوتُ وَيَوْمَ
يُبعَثُ حَيًّا ۝ (15)

In the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Kāf Hā Yā Ayn Sād. (2) This is a mention of the mercy of your Lord upon His slave Zakariyya. (3) When he secretly called to his Lord. (4) He said, "O my Lord! My bones have weakened and my hair has turned white because of old age. I have never been unfortunate in my prayers to You.” (5) “I truly fear for my relatives after me and my wife is barren. So grant me an heir...” (6) “....who can succeed me and succeed the family of Ya’qūb. And, O my Lord, make him beloved unto You.” (7) “O Zakariyyā, We convey to you the glad tidings of a son called Yahyā. We have never kept the same name for anyone before him.” (8) He said, “O my Lord! How will I have a son when my wife is barren and I have reached the pinnacle of old age?” (9) He said, “So it shall be. Your Lord declares, “It will be easy for Me. Indeed I have created you before whereas you were nothing. (10) He said, “O my Lord! Appoint a sign for me.” He said, “Your sign shall be that you will be unable to speak to people for three nights, even though you will be healthy.” (11) So he came forth unto his people from the sanctuary and gestured to them, “Engage in glorifying your Lord morning and evening.” (12) O Yahya.’ Hold fast on to the scripture. “ We granted him command in childhood... (13) ...And (We granted him) compassion from Ourselves and purity. He was abstinent indeed. (14) He was kind to his parents and he was not rebellious nor disobedient. (15) Peace be on him the day he was born, the day that he passed away and the day when he will be resurrected.

SAYYIDINA ZAKARIYYA عليه السلام PRAYS FOR A SON AND THE SUBSEQUENT BIRTH OF SAYYIDINA YAHYA عليه السلام

Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام was the Prophet عليه السلام of the Bani Isrā’īl. When he became old, he grew concerned about the plight of his religion (Dīn) after him because none of his relatives were capable of continuing the duty of propagation and upholding the Torah. Therefore, according to the etiquette of supplication (du’ā) “he secretly called to his Lord.”

“He said, ‘O my Lord! My bones have weakened and my hair has turned white because of old age. I have never been unfortunate in my prayers to You. (Soon I shall be leaving this world without anyone to succeed me). I truly fear for my relatives after me and my wife is barren. So grant me an heir who can succeed me and succeed the family of Ya’qūb. And, O my Lord, make him beloved unto You.”

In this manner Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام supplicated to Allāh to grant him a son so that the child can uphold the religion (Dīn) and continue with the legacy of the Holy Prophethood and divine knowledge. Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام was also the leader of his people and desired that someone worthy should lead after him.

His supplication (du’ā) was accepted by Allāh and he was told, “O Zakariyya, We convey to you the glad tidings of a son called Yahya. We have never kept the same name for anyone before him.” Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that no other child like him was born before. Other say that the reference is to his unmatched leadership qualities and abstinence.

SAYYIDINA ZAKARIYYA’S عليه السلام SURPRISE AT THE NEWS

When Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام heard the news of a son “He said, ‘O my Lord! How will I have a son when my wife is barren and I have reached the pinnacle of old age?’” The question may be asked about why did he express astonishment at the news when, in his supplication (du’ā), he had already accepted the fact that his wife was barren and that he was old?

The commentators have tendered the following replies:

1. His question regarded the manner in which this birth will take place. He was unsure whether the child would be born from the same wife, or whether he would have to marry a younger woman.
2. Although he knew that Allāh had the power to grant him a child without the apparent means, yet the question was spontaneous because of human nature.
3. He said this out of excessive joy, anticipating a repetition of the glad tiding to add to his exuberance.

In reply to his astonishment Allāh told him, "So it shall be." Thereafter Allāh added, "It will be easy for Me. Indeed I have created you before whereas you were nothing." Allāh can repeat the process of creation whenever He pleases.

Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام then said, "O my Lord! Appoint a sign for me (whereby I may know that my wife has conceived)." Allāh replied by saying, "Your sign shall be that you will be unable to speak to people for three nights, even though you will be healthy." For three days and nights he would not be able to talk to anyone, as indicated by a verse of Surah Āl Imrān, where Allāh told him, "Your sign is that you shall be unable to talk to people for three days, except by indications." [Surah 3, verse 41]

Allāh also told him in Surah Āl Imrān that since he will be unable to speak he should "Remember your Lord abundantly and hymn His purity by night and day." Commentators say that this refers to punctuality in Salāh. Others say that it refers to making Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) at all times.

Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "So We responded to his plea, gifted him with Yahya and allowed his wife to bear children." Allāh creates the means and can even create things without means.

"So he came forth unto his people from the sanctuary and gestured to them, 'Engage in glorifying your Lord morning and evening.'" The people would wait for Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام to emerge from his sanctuary to lead them in Salāh. However, when his wife conceived, he came out from the sanctuary and found that he could not speak. Therefore, he had to instruct them using signs. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 190]

The Arabic word "mihṛāb" (translated above as "sanctuary") refers to a place of worship. The same word is used in Surah Āl Imrān where Allāh says, "Whenever Zakariyya went into the sanctuary in which she [Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام] was, he found food by her." The same word is also used in verse 39 of Surah Āl Imrān, where Allāh says, "So the angels called to him [Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام] while he stood praying in the mihṛāb." The literal meaning of the word "mihṛāb" is "a place of battle." A place of worship is referred to as a "mihṛāb" because a worshipper is engaged in battle against Satan (Shayṭān) when he is praying.

THE NOBLE QUALITIES OF SAYYIDINA YAHYA عليه السلام

Speaking via Sayyidina Zakariyya عليه السلام, Allāh commanded Sayyidina

Yahya عليه السلام saying, "O Yahya! Hold fast on to the scripture." The scripture refers to the Torah because all the Prophets عليهم السلام of the Bani Isrā'il after Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام followed the teachings of the Torah. Allāh says in Surah Mā'idah, "The Prophets عليهم السلام, who were subservient to Allāh, judged the Jews with it (i.e. with the Torah)." [Surah 5, verse 44]

Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام was thus instructed to practise the teachings of the Torah. Allāh then says, "We granted him command in childhood..." Some commentators have mentioned that "command" refers to the Holy Prophethood.

Other commentators have mentioned that "command" refers to the understanding of the Torah. Others say that it refers to acute intuition. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 16 p. 72]

"....And (We granted him) compassion from Ourselves..." In this way he was effectively able to invite the people to oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) with love. He was also able to bear any hardships that they presented to him.

Allāh also granted him "purity." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has interpreted this to mean obedience and sincerity. Sayyidina Qatadah رحمه الله عليه say that the word refers to good deeds, and Sayyidina Kalbi رحمه الله عليه says that Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام was a charity that Allāh gave to his parents.

"He was abstinent indeed." The word "taqi" means that he carried out all Allāh's commands with sincerity and abstained from all sins. Commentators say that Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام never committed a single sin, nor did he ever intend to.

Further describing him, Allāh says, "He was kind to his parents and he was not rebellious nor disobedient."

"Peace be on him the day he was born, the day that he passed away and the day when he will be resurrected." Sayyidina Sufyān bin Uyayana رحمه الله عليه says that the above three days are days when a person is overcome with anxiety. However, Allāh will save Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام from all grief and stress on these days. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

وَأَذْكُرُ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَرْيَمَ إِذِ انْتَبَذَتْ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا مَكَانًا شَرْقِيًّا ﴿١٦﴾ فَأَتَّخَذَتْ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ حِجَابًا فَأَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهَا رُوحَنَا فَتَمَثَّلَ لَهَا بَشَرًا سَوِيًّا ﴿١٧﴾ قَالَتْ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِالرَّحْمَنِ مِنْكَ إِنْ كُنْتَ نَصِيًّا ﴿١٨﴾ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَنَا رَسُولُ رَبِّكِ لِأَهَبَ لَكِ غُلَامًا زَكِيًّا ﴿١٩﴾ قَالَتْ أَنَّى يَكُونُ لِي غُلَامٌ وَلَمْ يَمَسِّنِي بَشَرٌ وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا ﴿٢٠﴾ قَالَ كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَى هَيْنٌ وَلَنَجْعَلَنَّ آيَةً لِلنَّاسِ وَرَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَكَانَ أَمْرًا مَقْضِيًّا ﴿٢١﴾ فَحَمَلَتْهُ فَانْتَبَذَتْ بِهِ مَكَانًا قَصِيًّا ﴿٢٢﴾ فَأَجَاءَهَا الْمَخَاضُ إِلَى جِذْعِ النَّخْلَةِ قَالَتْ يَلَيْتَنِي مِتُّ قَبْلَ هَذَا وَكُنْتُ نَسِيًّا

مَنْسِيًّا ۚ فَادْنَاهَا مِنْ نَحْوِهَا أَلَّا تَخْزِي قَدْ جَعَلَ رَبُّكَ تَحَنُّكَ سِرًّا ۚ وَهَرَىٰ
إِلَيْكَ بِجَنْعِ النَّخْلَةِ تَسْقُطُ عَلَيْكَ رَطْبًا جَنِيًّا ۚ فَكُلِي وَاشْرَبِي وَفَرِّ عَيْنًا فَإِمَّا
تَرَيْنَ مِنَ الْبَشَرِ أَحَدًا فَقُولِي إِنَّي نَذَرْتُ لِلرَّحْمَنِ صَوْمًا فَلَنْ أُكَلِّمَ الْيَوْمَ
إِنْسِيًّا ۚ

(16) Remember Maryam in the Book. When she withdrew from her family to go to a place far to the east. (17) She secluded herself from the people, when We sent Our angel to her, who assumed the likeness of a perfect man before her. (18) She said, "I seek refuge with Rahmān (the Merciful) from you, if you fear Allāh." (19) He said, "I am but a messenger of your Lord to convey to you the glad tidings of a pure son." (20) She responded, "How can I have a son when no human has touched me and I am not lecherous?" (21) He said, "It shall be so. Your Lord says, "It is simple for Me. And so that We make him a sign for people and a mercy from Us. This is a decided matter." (22) So she conceived him and withdrew with him to a distant place. (23) The labour pains brought her to the trunk of a date palm. She said, "O! If only I had died before this and had been completely forgotten." (24) He called to her from below saying, "Do not grieve. Your Lord has certainly created a stream beneath you." (25) "Shake the trunk of the date palm towards you, causing fresh ripened dates to fall on you." (26) "So eat, drink and cool your eyes. Should you see any person then say, 'I have vowed to fast for Rahmān (the Merciful), so I cannot speak to anyone today.'"

SAYYIDAH MARYAM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND THE BIRTH OF HER SON, SAYYIDINA ISA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

The incident has already been discussed in Surah Āl Imrān where the wife of Sayyidina Imrān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام vowed to dedicate her unborn child to the service of Baitul Muqaddas. Allāh then granted her a daughter instead of the son that she anticipated. She named the child Maryam (meaning "worshipper") and she was offered to the keepers of Baitul Muqaddas for upbringing.

After a type of drawing lots, the child was handed over in the care of Sayyidina Zakariyya عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Allāh grew her up to be pious and righteous and later gave her the tidings of the birth of a child called "Masih," who will be high ranking in both worlds.

SAYYIDAH MARYAM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام WAS PARTICULAR ABOUT CONCEALING HERSELF AND IS STARTLED BY THE SUDDEN APPEARANCE OF AN ANGEL

Here, in Surah Maryam, Allāh says, "Remember Maryam in the Book. When she withdrew from her family to go to a place far to the east." "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" mentions that it was an extremely cold day and she went to a sunny place to comb her hair. Another report says that she went to a place to bath.

"She secluded herself from the people, when We sent Our angel [Jibril عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام] to her, who assumed the likeness of a perfect man before her."

Sayyidina Maryam عليه السلام was a chaste woman and was startled by the appearance of Jibril عليه السلام. Therefore "She said, 'I seek refuge with the Merciful from you, if you fear Allāh.'" She told him that he appears to be a pious person who fears Allāh and therefore has no reason to be with her.

Jibril عليه السلام told her, "I am but a messenger of your Lord to convey to you the glad tidings of a pure son." This surprised her even more and "She responded, 'How can I have a son when no human (husband) has touched me and I am not lecherous?'" She was surprised that a child should be born of her when she had no husband, nor did she ever commit adultery.

THE ANGEL'S REPLY

In response to her astonishment Jibril عليه السلام said in Surah Āl Imrān, "In this way Allāh creates what He wills. When He decrees a thing He merely says to it, 'Be!' and it is." [Surah 3, verse 47]

Here in Surah Maryam he replies by saying, 'it shall be so. Your Lord says, 'It is simple for Me.'" When Allāh could create Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام without both parents and Sayyidina Hawwa عليه السلام without a mother, He can certainly create someone without a father. Allāh mentions in Surah Āl Imrān, "Vèrily the likeness of Isā عليه السلام with Allāh is as the likeness of Ādam عليه السلام. He created him from clay then said to him, 'Be!' and he was." [Surah 3, verse 59]

Jibril عليه السلام quoted Allāh as saying further that the child will be born, "so that We make him a sign for people and a mercy from Us." The miraculous birth of the child will show people that Allāh has the power to create without means. He will be a "mercy" for people because those who follow him will attain Allāh's pleasure and proximity.

He added, "This is a decided matter." None can avert this occurrence.

THE CONCEPTION OF THE CHILD, THE BIRTH, CONSOLATION NOT TO GRIEVE AND PROVISION FOR HER

"So she conceived him and withdrew with him to a distant place."

Allāh says in Surah Tahrīm, "Maryam, the daughter of Imrān, who protected her chastity and We blew Our spirit in her collar. She attested to the messages of her Lord and His scriptures, and she was of the obedient ones." [Surah 66, verse 12]

The blowing of the soul into the collar of Sayyidina Maryam عليه السلام by Jibril عليه السلام is attributed to Allāh because it was done by Allāh's command.. She then conceived the child and left home.

Allāh continues to relate, "The labour pains brought her to the trunk of a date palm. She said, 'O! If only I had died before this and had been completely forgotten.'" She expressed this desire because she was extremely perplexed. There she sat alone in the forest without even a bed on which to rest. She was even more worried about what reply she would give to the people after the birth.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام had a very brief pregnancy. This is indicated by the tone of the Qur'ān and it is farfetched to believe that she could have left home for a very long period.

Another indication to substantiate this fact is that people reprimanded her only after the birth. If she had remained with them during the pregnancy, they would have guessed before that she was expecting. Allāh knows best.

"He [Jibrīl عليه السلام] called to her from below (the hill upon which she sat) saying, 'Do not grieve. Your Lord has certainly created a stream beneath you.'" ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 16 p. 82]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that the stream began to flow when Jibrīl عليه السلام struck his foot on the ground. Another narration says that there was a dry stream nearby which Allāh caused to flow and a wilted date palm which Allāh caused to bear dates. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 193]

Jibrīl عليه السلام said to her, "Shake the trunk of the date palm towards you, causing fresh ripened dates to fall on you." This was also miraculous because normally even a strong man will be unable to shake a date palm, let alone a weakened woman in labour. She was able to shake the tree so that dates fell.

She was then told, "So eat, drink and cool your eyes." The newborn child will be the coolness of her eyes i.e. a source of comfort to her.

DATES ARE BENEFICIAL FOR LABOUR FROM A MEDICAL POINT OF VIEW

The following is an extract from "Bayānul Qur'ān":

"Your Lord has certainly created a stream beneath you. "Happiness is naturally stimulated by looking at a stream and drinking its water. According to a narration of "Ruhul Ma'āni", she was thirsty at that time. In addition to this, things that are hot in nature are medically proven to be advantageous when consumed before or after birth. They serve to make labour easy, prevent excrement and also act as a stimulant for mental well being. Water is hot in nature, as is noticed in hot springs, so it is appropriate at this juncture."

"In addition, dates are filling, nutritious, conducive for the production of blood, and strengthening for the back and joints. For these reasons it is the best food and medicine for labour. The possibility of harm coming to a person because of the heat is minimal because the heat in fresh dates is very little. In addition to this, water serves to reduce the heat further."

THE ANGEL INSTRUCTS SAYYIDAH MARYAM عليها السلام TO TELL PEOPLE THAT SHE CANNOT SPEAK TO THEM ON ACCOUNT OF HER FAST

Jibrīl عليه السلام further advised Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام by saying, "Should you see any person then say, 'I have vowed to fast for the Merciful, so I cannot speak to anyone today.'" Abstaining from speaking during fasting was permissible for the Bani Isrā'īl, but is prohibited in our Shari'ah. Of course, if a person wishes to speak less or remain silent for some personal reason, there would be no harm.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once delivering the sermon when he noticed a person standing. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم who he was and received the reply that he was a person called Abu Isrā'il. They told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had vowed not to sit, not to take shade, not to talk and to remain in the state of fasting.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم to tell him to sit, take shade, to talk, but to complete the fast. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 991]

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reports that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "None can be an orphan after maturity and none may remain silent the entire day until the night." [Abu Dawūd v. 2 p. 41] This means that Islām does not permit a person to remain silent the entire day with the intention of fasting.

فَأَتَتْ بِهِ قَوْمَهَا تَحْمِلُهُ قَالُوا يَمْرِئٌ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا فَرِيًّا ﴿٢٧﴾ يَأْتِخَتْ هَرُونَ
مَا كَانَ أَبُوكَ امْرَأَ سَوْءٍ وَمَا كَانَتْ أُمُّكَ بَغِيًّا ﴿٢٨﴾ فَأَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ قَالُوا كَيْفَ نُكَلِّمُ
مَنْ كَانَ فِي الْمَهْدِ صَبِيًّا ﴿٢٩﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ ءَاتَنِي الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلَنِي نَبِيًّا ﴿٣٠﴾
وَجَعَلَنِي مُبَارَكًا أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُ وَأَوْصَانِي بِالصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ مَا دُمْتُ حَيًّا ﴿٣١﴾
وَبَرًّا بِوَالِدَتِي وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْنِي جَبَّارًا شَقِيًّا ﴿٣٢﴾ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَيَّ يَوْمَ وُلِدْتُ وَيَوْمَ
أَمُوتُ وَيَوْمَ أُبْعَثُ حَيًّا ﴿٣٣﴾

(27) She brought the child before her people. They exclaimed, "O Maryam! You have surely perpetrated a grave act." (28) "O sister of Harūn! Your father was never an evil person, neither was your mother lecherous. (29) She gestured towards the child. They said, How can we speak to one who is still a baby in a cradle? (30) He said, "I am a slave of Allāh. Allāh gave me a scripture and made me the Holy Prophet..." (31) "...And Allāh has blessed me wherever I may be and has commanded me to perform Salāh and pay Zakāh as long as I am alive." (32) "Allāh has also made me kind to my mother and has not made me rebellious and wretched." (33) "Peace be on me the day I was born, the day death comes to me, and the day when I shall be resurrected."

SAYYIDAH MARYAM عليها السلام BRINGS HER CHILD HOME, THE PEOPLE OBJECT AND SAYYIDINA ISA عليه السلام REPLIES TO THEM

After the birth of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام "brought the child before her people. (Because she was unmarried) They exclaimed, 'O Maryam! You have surely perpetrated a grave act.'"

They continued to rebuke her saying, "O sister of Harūn! Your father was never an evil person, neither was your mother lecherous."

Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام did not reply to their reprimands, but "She gestured towards the child." The people thought that she was merely jesting, so they said "How can we speak to one who is still a baby in a cradle?"

Allāh granted Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام the ability to speak and "He said, 'I am a slave of Allāh. Allāh gave me a scripture and made me a Holy Prophet عليه السلام." i.e. Allāh will soon confer these two blessings on me. He then continued to say, "...And Allāh has blessed me wherever I may be..." i.e. Blessings and good will spread wherever I go.

Furthermore he said that Allāh had "commanded me to perform Salāh and pay Zakāh as long as I am alive. And Allāh has made me kind to my mother and has not made me rebellious and wretched."

He concluded his address by saying, "Peace be on me the day I was born, the day death comes to me, and the day when I shall be resurrected."

Allāh knew that the Jews will be antagonistic towards Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and that the Christians will praise him excessively by calling him Allāh and the son of Allāh. It for this reason that Allāh made him state from the beginning that he is not Allāh, but a "slave of Allāh."

He also impressed upon their minds that he is as much subjected to Allāh's commandments as they are. For this reason he said that Allāh had "commanded me to perform Salāh and pay Zakāh as long as I am alive." It is obvious that one who worships another cannot himself be a deity.

THE STATEMENT "KIND TO MY MOTHER" DENOTES THAT SAYYIDINA ISA عليه السلام HAD NO FATHER

In the previous ruku Allāh mentioned with regard to Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام, "He was kind to his parents..." However, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام does not speak of both parents, but says, "Allāh has made me kind to my mother..." This makes it clear that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام did not have a father, otherwise he would have mentioned "parents" instead of "mother."

This evidently disproves the misconception of the Christians who claim that a certain carpenter by the name of Joseph fathered Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. They also claim that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was fathered by Allāh (Allāh forbid!). Many irreligious people in today's times also subscribe to these beliefs, whereas the Qur'ān refutes these in Surah Maryam and in Surah Āl Imrān.

ذَٰلِكَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ قَوْلَ الْحَقِّ الَّذِي فِيهِ يَمْتَرُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ مَا كَانَ لِلَّهِ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ
 مِنْ وَلَدٍ سُبْحَانَهُ إِذَا قَضَىٰ أَمْرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكُمْ
 فَاعْبُدُوهُ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٣٦﴾ فَاخْتَلَفَ الْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ بَيْنِهِمْ فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
 مِنْ مَّشْهَدٍ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ أَسْمِعْ يَوْمَ وَأَبْصِرْ يَوْمَ يَأْتُوتُنَا لَكِنِ الظَّالِمُونَ الْيَوْمَ فِي ضَلَالٍ
 مُبِينٍ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَأَنذِرْهُمْ يَوْمَ الْحَسْرَةِ إِذْ قُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ وَهُمْ فِي غَفْلَةٍ وَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّا
 نَحْنُ نَرِثُ الْأَرْضَ وَمَنْ عَلَيْهَا وَإِلَيْنَا يُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(34) This is Isā, the son of Maryam. We have spoken the truth regarding which they have doubts. (35) It does not behove Allāh to take a son. He is Pure! When He decrees anything, all He has to say is "Be!" and it comes into being. (36) "And Without doubt Allāh is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is the straight path." (37) However, the groups began disputing among themselves. Woe be to the disbelievers on the occasion of a momentous day. (38) How well will they hear and see on the day when they will come to Us! But the oppressors are in manifest error today. (39) Warn them of the day of remorse, when judgement shall be passed. Yet they are negligent and they do not believe! (40) Without a shadow of doubt We will be the inheritors of the earth and whoever is upon it and they will return only to Us.

IT IS NOT PROPER TO SAY THAT ALLĀH HAS A SON

Allāh says about the previously related account, "This is Isā, the son of Maryam. We have spoken the truth regarding which they have doubts." The Jews and the Christians still doubt the matter and dispute about it.

"It does not behove Allāh to take a son. He is Pure! When He decrees anything, all He has to say is 'Be!' and it comes into being." It is therefore not farfetched to believe that Allāh could have created a person without a father. He has power to do anything. It is foolish to believe that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام can be Allāh's son when there is no similarity between the two. The Creator cannot be like the creation.

Fathers normally require assistance from their sons. However, Allāh does not require any assistance from anyone because He is Omnipotent and Independent. There is therefore no reason for Allāh to have a son.

SAYYIDINA ISA عليه السلام ANNOUNCES THAT HIS LORD (RABB) AND THE LORD (RABB) OF THE PEOPLE IS ALLĀH ALONE

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام also told the people, "And Without doubt Allāh is my Lord and your, so worship Him. This is the straight path." Despite the clarity of his address to the Jews and the Christians, "the groups began disputing among themselves." They disregarded the teachings of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and fabricated their own beliefs and practices. They claimed that he was Allāh, Allāh's son and one of three gods.

"Woe be to the disbelievers on the occasion of a momentous day." On the day of Judgement the plight of the disbelievers will be pitiable indeed.

"How well will they hear and see on the day when they will come to Us!" On the day of Judgement, all truths will be exposed and people will clearly differentiate between right and wrong. They will then be forced to concede the truth, but it will be too late. Allāh says, "But the oppressors are in manifest error today." They fail to realise the error of their ways and do not even attempt to reform themselves.

THE ANXIETY OF "THE DAY OF REMORSE"

"Warn them of the day of remorse, when judgement shall be passed. Yet they are negligent and they do not believe!" The disbelievers shall express different types of regrets on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Some will say, "O, if only we could be returned, had not denied the verses of our Lord and had been from the believers!" [Surah An'ām (6), verse 27]

Others will cry, "if only we could return (to the world), then we too will disassociate ourselves from them (our leaders) as they now do to us [now on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)]." [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 167]

They will also lament saying, "If only we were given the chance to return. Then we would have been from the believers." [Surah Shu'arā (26), verse 102]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that death will take the form of a sheep on the day of Judgement. A caller will then announce, "O people of Heaven (Jannah)" When they will hearken to the call, they will be asked, "Do you recognise this?" They will submit that they recognise it as death. This will be because they had all experienced death.

The caller will then announce, "O people of Hell!" When they will hearken to the call, they will also be asked, "Do you recognise this?" They will submit that they recognise it as death because they would also have experienced death. Then the sheep of death will be slaughtered before them all and the announcement will be made, "O people of Heaven (Jannah)! You shall live forever in Heaven (Jannah) and you will never die. O people of Hell! You will live forever in Hell and you will not die."

After saying this to the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, "Warn them of the day of remorse, when judgement shall be passed. Yet they are negligent and they do not believe!" [Bukhari v. 2 p. 291]

Tirmidhi reports that when death will be slaughtered as described above, the people of Heaven (Jannah) will be so exuberant that, if anyone could die of joy, they would. On the other hand, the convicts of Hell will be so grieved that, if anyone could die of grief, they certainly would.

Ibn Majah reports that death will be slaughtered at the bridge of Sirāt. [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 4 p. 524]

"Without a shadow of doubt We will be the inheritors of the earth and whoever is upon it and they will return to Us only." Every person on earth, who acts as master to his possessions, will soon die.

Eventually none shall be alive besides Allāh. Then everything (which was always His) will once again be His exclusive property.

A REFUTATION TO THOSE WHO BELIEVE THAT SAYYIDINA ISA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام PASSED AWAY

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام mentioned that Allāh "has commanded me to perform Salāh and pay Zakāh as long as I am alive." Some people have deduced from this verse that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام has passed away. They are foolish enough not to realise that the verse actually proves that he is still alive and will return to the world. While Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was living on earth he never had the opportunity to pay Zakāh on account of his poverty. However, when he will return to this world among the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he will then pay Zakāh.

وَأَذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صِدِّيقًا نَبِيًّا ﴿٤١﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ يَتَّبِعْ لِمَ تَعْبُدُ مَا لَا يَسْمَعُ وَلَا يُبْصِرُ وَلَا يُغْنِي عَنْكَ شَيْئًا ﴿٤٢﴾ يَتَّبِعْ إِنِّي قَدْ جَاءَنِي مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا لَمْ يَأْتِكَ فَاتَّبِعْنِي أَهْدِكَ صِرَاطًا سَوِيًّا ﴿٤٣﴾ يَتَّبِعْ لَا تَعْبُدِ الشَّيْطَانَ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ كَانَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ عَصِيًّا ﴿٤٤﴾ يَتَّبِعْ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يَمَسَّكَ عَذَابٌ مِنَ الرَّحْمَنِ فَتَكُونَ لِلشَّيْطَانِ وَلِيًّا ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَ أَنْتَ عَنْ إِلَهِي يَتَّبِعُ إِبْرَاهِيمُ لِيْن لَمْ تَنْتَهِ لَأَرْجُمَنَّكَ وَاهْجُرْنِي مَلِيًّا ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالَ سَلِمْتُ عَلَيْكَ سَأَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكَ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِي حَفِيًّا ﴿٤٧﴾ وَأَعْتَزِلُكُمْ وَمَا تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَأَدْعُوا رَبِّي عَسَىٰ أَلَا أَكُونَ بِدُعَاءِ رَبِّي شَقِيًّا ﴿٤٨﴾ فَلَمَّا أَعْتَرَهُمْ وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَهَبْنَا لَهُمْ إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ وَكُلًّا جَعَلْنَا نَبِيًّا ﴿٤٩﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِنَا وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ عَلِيًّا ﴿٥٠﴾

(41) Remember Ibrahīm in the scripture. He was undoubtedly extremely true and a Holy Prophet. (42) When he told his father, "O my father! Why do you worship things that cannot hear, cannot see and cannot be of any assistance to you." (43) "O my father! Such knowledge has come to me that has not come to you, so follow me and I shall guide you to the straight path." (44) "O my father. Do not worship Satan (Shaytān). Indeed Satan (Shaytān) was ever disobedient to Rahmān." (45) "O my father! Indeed I fear that a punishment should afflict you from the Merciful, after which you would be a friend of Satan (Shaytān). (46) His father retorted, "Are you averse to my gods, O Ibrahīm? If you do not desist, I shall stone you. Leave me forever." (47) Ibrahīm said, "Peace be on you. I shall shortly seek forgiveness from my Lord on your behalf. He has always been compassionate towards me." (48) "I shall separate myself from you and from those whom you worship instead of Allāh. Then I shall call upon my Lord. I am hopeful that I shall not be deprived in my call unto my Lord" (49) When he departed from them and from what they worshipped instead of Allāh, We gifted him with Is'hāq and Ya'qūb. We made each one of them a Holy Prophet. (50) And We bestowed on them a portion of Our mercy and raised for them tongues of truthfulness.

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام DISCUSSED ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) WITH HIS FATHER

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام was from Babylon, where he invited the king Nimrūd and his idolatrous people to Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd). He also never failed to preach to his father.

Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "When Ibrahīm told his father Āzar, 'Do you take idols as your deity? Indeed I see you and your people in manifest error.'" [Surah An'ām (6), verse 74]

Here, in Surah Maryam, he told his father, "O my father! Why do you worship things (idols) that cannot hear, cannot see and cannot be of any assistance to you." They are more helpless than the people who worship them. He then impressed upon his father's mind that age was not an issue in this matter. His father was to listen to him even though he was the son. Therefore he said, "O my father! Such knowledge has come to me that has not come to you, so follow me and I shall guide you to the straight path."

He went on further to say, "O my father! Do not worship Satan (Shaytān). Satan (Shaytān) instigates people to worship idols and himself as well. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام added, "Indeed Satan (Shaytān) was ever disobedient to the Merciful." By obeying Satan (Shaytān), a person will be led on to further disobey Allāh.

"O my father! Indeed I fear that a punishment should afflict you from Rahmān (the Merciful), after which you would be a friend of Satan (Shaytān) (by being his companion in Hell as well)." He refers to Satan (Shaytān) as being a friend in the Hereafter as well even though every person in Hell will be enemies to each other. He has mentioned this because the cause for this punishment in Hell will be the friendship that the disbelievers fostered with Satan (Shaytān) in this world.

Instead of being favourably influenced by the words of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, "His father retorted, 'Are you averse to my gods, O Ibrahim? If you do not desist, I shall stone you. Leave me forever.'"

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام replied, "Peace be on you." This salutation (Salām) that he greeted his father with was not the type of salutation (Salām) that a person greets a fellow Muslim with. It is rather the salutation (Salām) used to escape from ignorant people. Allāh says in Surah Furqān about the good people, 'The Merciful's (Rahmān) bondsmen are those who walk on earth in humility and, when the ignorant talk to them, they say, 'Peace.'" [Surah 25 verse 63]

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام also added, "I shall shortly seek forgiveness from my Lord on your behalf He has always been compassionate towards me." True to his word, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام prayed for his father, as mentioned in Surah Shu'arā, "(O Allāh!) Forgive my father, for he is amongst those who have deviated." [Surah 26, verse 86]

Allāh says in Surah Tauba. "Ibrahim عليه السلام sought forgiveness for his father only because of a promise that he had made to him. When it became clear to him that his father was Allāh's enemy, he exonerated himself from him. Indeed Ibrahim عليه السلام was extremely soft-hearted and tolerant." [The details of this were discussed in the commentary of this verse of Surah Tauba.]

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام continued to address his father saying, "I shall separate myself from you and from those whom you worship instead of Allāh. Then I shall call upon my Lord. I am hopeful that I shall not be deprived in my call unto my Lord." He was hopeful that Allāh would not reject his supplication (du'ā) and that Allāh would protect him from the wretchedness of the idolaters. Consequently, he migrated to Syria (Shām).

Allāh says, "When he departed from them and from what they worshipped instead of Allāh, We gifted him with (a son named) Is'hāq and (a grandson called) Ya'qūb. We made each one of them a Holy Prophet." Another renowned son of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام was Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام, who is mentioned in Surah Baqarah and also later in this Surah.

PEOPLE OF LATER GENERATIONS WILL ALWAYS MAKE FAVOURABLE MENTION OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام AND HIS CHILDREN

"And We bestowed on them a portion of Our mercy and raised for them tongues of truthfulness." Allāh granted Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام and his children the esteemed mantle of the Prophethood and many other bounties as well. Another extremely great favour was that people will always make favourable mention of them.

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام made the supplication (du'ā), "And maintain a favourable word for me amongst those who are to come." Allāh accepted this supplication (du'ā) and all the later generations always spoke well of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام. The Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم invoke Allāh's special mercy and blessings at the end of every Salāh when they recite the Durūd Ibrahīm in 'Tashahhud'.

وَأَذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ مُوسَىٰ إِنَّهُ كَانَ مُخْلَصًا وَكَانَ رَسُولًا نَّبِيًّا ﴿٥١﴾ وَنَدَيْتُهُ مِنْ جَانِبِ
الطُّورِ الْأَيْمَنِ وَفَرَّقْنَاهُ يُحْيَا ﴿٥٢﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ مِنْ رَحْمِنَا أَخَاهُ هَارُونَ نَبِيًّا ﴿٥٣﴾ وَأَذْكُرْ فِي
الْكِتَابِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صَادِقَ الْوَعْدِ وَكَانَ رَسُولًا نَبِيًّا ﴿٥٤﴾ وَكَانَ يَأْمُرُ أَهْلَهُ بِالصَّلَاةِ
وَالزَّكَاةِ وَكَانَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ مَرْضِيًّا ﴿٥٥﴾ وَأَذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِدْرِيْسَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صِدِّيقًا نَبِيًّا
﴿٥٦﴾ وَرَفَعْنَاهُ مَكَانًا عَلِيًّا ﴿٥٧﴾

(51) Remember Mūsa in the scripture. He was surely chosen and was a messenger (Rasūl) and a Prophet (Nabi). (52) We called him from the right side of Mount Tūr and We brought him close in communion. (53) From Our mercy We gifted him with his brother Harūn as a Prophet. (54) Remember Isma'il in the scripture. Verily he was true to his promise and he was a "Rasul" and a Prophet (Nabi). (55) He used to enjoin Salāh and Zakāh on his family and was beloved to his Lord. (56) Remember Idrīs in the scripture. He was certainly extremely true and he was a Prophet. (57) We elevated him to a high rank.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA, HĀRŪN, ISMA'ĪL AND IDRĪS عليهم السلام

Allāh begins by saying, "Remember Mūsa in the scripture. He was surely chosen and was a messenger (Rasul) and a Prophet (Nabi)."

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A RASŪL AND A NABI

Literally the word 'Rasul' means a 'messenger' i.e. one who conveys a message. The word 'the Holy Prophet' literally means an 'informer.' Both may be termed as Holy Prophets. Technically speaking, a messenger (Rasul) is Prophet (Nabi) who has been given a divine scripture and a Shari'ah of his own. Such a the Holy Prophet will be termed as a messenger (Rasul) and a Prophet (Nabi) as well. Therefore, Prophet who propagates the Shari'ah of a previous the Holy Prophet may be termed only a Rasul.

Referring to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, Allāh says, "We called him from the right side of Mount Tūr (situated between Madyan and Egypt)..." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the verse refers to the right side of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, not that of the mountain because a mountain does not have a right and left side. Therefore, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was summoned when the mountain was on his right.

The word "aymin" (translated above as "right") can also be translated as "blessed." In this case the verse will mean that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was called from the "blessed side" of the mountain, or from his blessed side.

".....and We brought him close in communion." The Arabic word "naji" (translated above as "communion") refers to speaking in confidence to someone. The verse thus means that Allāh spoke to him personally and directly without any mediums in between.

Allāh mentions this privilege of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام in Surah Nisā, where He says, "Allāh specially spoke to Mūsa." [Surah 4, verse 164]

"From Our mercy We gifted him with his brother Harūn as a Prophet." When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was commanded to preach to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), he submitted to Allāh thus, "Appoint for me an assistant from my family, my brother Harūn, strengthen me with him And make him a partner to my affairs..." [Surah TāHā (20), verses 29-32]

Allāh says in Surah Qasas that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said, "My brother Harūn is more eloquent in speech than me, so send him as an aide to me to endorse me. I fear that they will falsify me." Allāh accepted his supplication (du'ā) and said, "We shall shortly strengthen your arm with your brother." Consequently Allāh made Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام a Prophet and addressed them both saying, "Proceed, the two of you, to Pharaoh (Fir'aun). Indeed he is rebellious."

THE NOBLE QUALITIES OF SAYYIDINA ISMA'ĪL عليه السلام

Thereafter Allāh says, "Remember Isma'il in the scripture. Verily he was true to his promise and he was a messenger (Rasūl) and a Prophet (Nabi). He used to enjoin Salāh and Zakāh on his family and was beloved to his Lord."

Although all the Prophets عليهم السلام and even many believers (Mu'minīn) are true to their word, Allāh specially says about Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام "Verily he was true to his promise...

This is so because he truly displayed great courage in keeping to the word that he gave his father when he said, 'Oh my beloved father! Do as you have been commanded (by slaughtering me). If Allāh wills, you will soon find me to be amongst the patient ones.' Consequently, when Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام placed him down to be slaughtered, he complied and lay down calmly.

".....and he was a messenger (Rasūl) and a Prophet (Nabi). "It is commonly believed that Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام did not have a scripture of his own, nor a Shari'ah. He propagated the teachings of his father, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. Therefore, the literal meaning of the word "Rasul" (messenger) will apply to him and not the technical meaning (i.e. a Prophet who was given a Shari'ah of his own).

Hakimul Ummah Thanwi رحمه الله states that Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام is termed a "Rasul" as well because he was the one who conveyed the teachings and the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام to the Jurhum tribe that settled in Makkah.

The third attribute mentioned about him was that "He used to enjoin Salāh and Zakāh on his family..." Salāh is a physical form of worship and Zakāh is a monetary form. Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام paid particular attention to these two acts of devotion when instructing his family because by being particular about these two aspects of religion (D'in) the rest of religion (D'in) becomes easy to practise.

The fourth quality was that he "was beloved to his Lord." He was one of Allāh's beloved bondsmen because of his deeds and behaviour.

Thereafter Allāh continues to mention other Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh says, "Remember Idrīs in the scripture. He was certainly extremely true and he was a Prophet (Nabi). We elevated him to a high rank." It is commonly believed that Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام was raised alive to the heavens and that death came to him there.

Ibn Kathīr (v. 3 p. 126) states that he was raised like Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and never died there. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that he was raised to the sixth heaven and passed away there.

However, none of these narrations have been reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and their chains of narrators are obscure. They have been narrated from Sayyidina Ka'b Aḥbār رحمه الله عليه, and are therefore narratives of the Bani Isrā'il.

A narration reported by "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 106) from Ibnul Mundhir رحمه الله has been attributed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, the words of this narration are so obscure that they can never be those of the most eloquent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

It is possible that the narration was attributed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because of its popularity. However, it is the words of Sayyidina Ka'b Aḥbār رحمه الله عليه. Even the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" did not clearly say, "the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said..."

The best meaning of the verse is that Allāh elevated his status and increased his proximity to Allāh.

THE UNIQUE CONTRIBUTIONS OF SAYYIDINA IDRĪS عليه السلام

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from the "Mustadrak of Hākim" a narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه in which he says that Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام

عليه السلام lived a thousand years before Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. His name was Akhnūkh and he was linked to Sayyidina Shith عليه السلام via four forefathers.

Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام was the first person to study the stars, the first to write and the first to wear sewn clothes. He used to sew clothing while the people of his time were still wearing animal skins. Allāh revealed 30 booklets to him and it was he who first introduced concepts for weighing and measuring. He was also the first person to develop weapons.

"Ma'ālimut Tarīzīl" reports that he was also the first to fight the disbelievers. He was called Idrīs because he was actively engaged in teaching (called "dars" in Arabic) the divine scriptures. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that many Scholars (Ulama) are of the opinion that the name 'Idrīs' is not an Arabic word, but Hebrew. Therefore, it needn't be a derivative of "dars." However, the possibility does exist that it could have the same meaning in Hebrew as it does in Arabic.

أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِنْ ذُرِّيَةِ آدَمَ وَمِمَّنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَةِ
إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْرَءِيلَ وَمِمَّنْ هَدَيْنَا وَاجْتَنَيْنَا إِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُ الرَّحْمَنِ خَرُّوا سُجَّدًا
وَبُكْيًا ﴿٥٨﴾ خَلَفَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ خَلْفٌ أَضَاعُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَاتَّبَعُوا الشَّهْوَةَ فَسُوفَ يَلْقَوْنَ
عَذَابًا ﴿٥٩﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَأُولَئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ شَيْئًا
﴿٦٠﴾ جَنَّتٍ عَدْنٍ الَّتِي وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ عِبَادَهُ بِالْغَيْبِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا وَعْدُ مَا يُنَاقِلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ لَا
يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَعْوًا إِلَّا سَلَامًا وَلَهُمْ رِزْقُهُمْ فِيهَا بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًّا ﴿٦٢﴾ تِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِي
نُورِثُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا مَنْ كَانَ تَقِيًّا ﴿٦٣﴾

(58) These are the Holy Prophets (Nabi) whom Allāh has favoured from the progeny of Ādam and from the progeny of those whom We carried with Nūh (on the ark). And from the progeny of Ibrāhīm and Isrā'īl and those who We guided and selected. When the verses of their Lord are recited, they fall down weeping in prostration. (59) They were succeeded by such evil successors who destroyed Salāh and pursued their passions. Soon they shall meet devastation. (60) Except for him who repents and who carries out good deeds. These people will enter Heaven (Jannah) and will not be oppressed in the least. (61) Theirs shall be eternal gardens of Heaven (Jannah) that Rahmān (the Merciful) has promised in the unseen. Undoubtedly, His promise shall come to pass. (62) There they will not hear any futility, only Salām. They shall have their sustenance there morning and evening. (63) This is the Heaven (Jannah) that Our slaves who fear shall inherit.

THE MUTUAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE AMBIYA عليهم السلام

Referring to all the Prophets عليهم السلام mentioned thus far in the Surah, Allāh says, "These are the prophet whom Allāh has favoured from the progeny of Ādam and from the progeny of those whom We carried with Nūh (on the ark)." All of mankind after Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام were from his progeny. The only exception that is mentioned in this Surah is Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام because he preceded Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام.

"And from the progeny of Ibrāhīm and Isrā'īl..." Sayyidina Isrā'īl عليه السلام was Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام. His descendants (mentioned in this Surah) include Sayyidina Zakariyya, Sayyidina Yahya عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Those linked directly to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام were Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام and Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام. With regard to all of these Allāh says that He "guided and selected" them.

They were such people that "When the verses of their Lord are recited they fall weeping in prostration."

Thereafter Allāh makes mention of the other side of the coin. He says, "They were succeeded by such evil successors who destroyed Salāh..." This entails omitting Salāh totally, delaying its performance until after the time expires, or not performing it properly.

Allāh says in Surah Mā'ūn, "Woe be to those who are neglectful of their Salāh." Sayyidina Mus'ab bin Sa'd رضي الله عنه narrates that he asked his father, Sayyidina Sa'd bin Abi Waqqās رضي الله عنه about the verse "Woe be to those who are neglectful of their Salāh." He explained that the word "neglectful" does not refer to one's thoughts wandering in Salāh, but refers to destroying the Salāh by engaging in other activities during the time of Salāh. [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 1 p. 387]

PURSUING ONE'S PASSIONS PROVOKES ALL TYPES OF SINS

Regarding the evil successors, Allāh says that they "pursued their passions." When a person allows his carnal passions to reign, he loses the capability of restraint and resoluteness. This eventually leads to his destruction. It leads to deficiencies in all one's acts of devotion and leads one to commit sin.

Since the passions demand that one indulges in fornication, unlawful (Harām) acts and the pleasures of life, a person is prone to indulge in these if he does not exercise control over his passions.

"Soon they shall meet devastation." The word "ghay" (translated above as "devastation") literally means deviation. It is for this reason that many Scholars (Ulama) have translated the verse to mean that these people will soon receive the punishment for their deviation.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" narrates from Sayyidina Abu Umāmah رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Ghay is a river at the bottom of Hell that runs with the pus emanating from the people of Hell."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه reports that "Ghay" is the name of a river or valley in Hell that is extremely deep and unpleasant. Those who follow the dictates of their passions will be flung into it.

THE RIGHTEOUS ARE PROMISED ADMISSION INTO HEAVEN (JANNAH)

Allāh has promised that the evil people shall be punished "Except for him who repents and carries out good deeds. These people will enter Heaven (Jannah) and will not be oppressed in the least." Allāh is always prepared to forgive people who repent sincerely irrespective of their previous sins.

With regard to the bounties they will receive in the Hereafter, Allāh says, "Theirs shall be eternal gardens of Heaven (Jannah) that Rahmān (the Merciful) has promised in the unseen." These people believe and aspire for Heaven (Jannah) even though they never saw it. They were informed about it by Allāh's messengers and Books. Allāh then assures man that "Undoubtedly, His promise shall come to pass."

Continuing with the description of Heaven (Jannah), Allāh says, "There they will not hear any futility, only salutation (Salām)." Allāh will also send salutations (Salāms) on them, as He says in Surah Yāsīn, "They will have a greeting of Salām (peace) from the Most Merciful Lord."

They will also greet each other with salutation (Salām) and the angels will convey salutations (Salāms) upon them. Allāh says that it will be said to them, "Peace be on you because of the patience that you exercised. What a grand outcome you shall have in this existence."

"They shall have their sustenance there morning and evening." Ibn Kathīr (v. 3 p. 129) narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that there will be no day and night in Heaven (Jannah) as there is in this world. The only way that time will be noticed is when the curtains of Heaven (Jannah) will be opened and closed.

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه says that there will be no alternation of day and night and that the verse means that they will be served food twice a day as they are accustomed to in this world. Of course, they can eat whenever they want besides these times.

"This is the Heaven (Jannah) that Our slaves who fear shall inherit." These people adopt piety (Taqwa) i.e. they carry out Allāh's commands and abstain from all sins. The greatest piety (Taqwa) is to abstain from disbeliefs and polytheism (shirk). No polytheist or disbeliever will be able to enter Heaven (Jannah). The people of Heaven (Jannah) will be ranked according to the level of piety (Taqwa) that they possess.

وَمَا نَنْزِلُ إِلَّا بِأَمْرِ رَبِّكَ لَهُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِينَا وَمَا خَلْفَنَا وَمَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ وَمَا كَانَ
رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا ﴿٦٤﴾ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فَاعْبُدْهُ وَاصْطَبِرْ لِعِبَادَتِهِ هَلْ تَعْلَمُ
لَهُ سَمِيًّا ﴿٦٥﴾

(64) "We descend only upon the command of your Lord. To Him belongs whatever is before us, whatever is behind us and whatever is between the two.

Your Lord never forgets." (65) The Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two, so worship Him and be steadfast in His worship. Do you know of any that share His name?

SAYYIDINA JIBR'ĪL عليه السلام REPLIES TO THE REQUEST OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Bukhari (v. 2 p. 691) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Jibril عليه السلام, "What prevents you from visiting me more often than you do?" In reply to this request, the above verse was revealed viz. "We (angels) descend only upon the command of your Lord (Rabb)..."

"Ruhul Ma'ani" (v. 16 p. 113) reports that when revelation stopped coming to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for a few days after he promised the Polytheists that he would reply to their three questions (regarding the soul, the people of the cave and Dhul Qarnain), Jibril عليه السلام came with the required revelation. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he had been eagerly awaiting him.

Jibril عليه السلام told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he was also eager to meet him, but he is merely Allāh's slave. He said that he descends to the earth only when Allāh commands him and does not come when 'Allāh does not command him. It was then that the above verse was revealed with Surah Duhā (Surah 93).

Jibril عليه السلام said, "We descend only upon the command of your Lord. To Him belongs whatever is before us, whatever is behind us and whatever is between the two." Some commentators say that "whatever is before us" refers to the future, "whatever is behind us" refers to the past, and "whatever is between the two" refers to the present. Therefore, the angels may descend only when Allāh permits them to.

Sayyidina Abul Āliā رحمه الله says that "whatever is before us" refers to the entire universe before the blowing of the trumpet, "whatever is behind us" refers to the Hereafter, and "whatever is between the two" refers to the time between the first blowing of the trumpet and the second 'blowing. This intermediate period will last for 40 years.

According to other commentators "whatever is before us" refers to the earth and "whatever is behind us" refers to the skies. The author of "Ruhul Ma'ani" says that some commentators have mentioned that the verses refer to place and time. Therefore, the verse will mean that Allāh is in control of all places and all times. None may move from one place to another without His permission. Similarly, none can do anything at any time unless Allāh ordains it. ["Ruhul Ma'ani" v. 16 p. 114]

Allāma Baḡhawī رحمه الله states on pg. 202 of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" that this verse means that Allāh's knowledge encompasses everything before and behind.

"Your Lord never forgets." Allāh has knowledge of everything. He did not forget to send revelation to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but delayed it for reasons best known to Him.

"The Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two, so worship

Him and be steadfast in His worship." Only He deserves to be worshipped. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is encouraged in this verse to remain steadfast in Allāh's worship and not to be affected by the cessation of revelation, nor by the taunts of the polytheists when revelation was paused.

"Do you know of any that share His name?" No Muslim can ever call another being 'Allāh.' Even the polytheists do not have the courage to call any of their idols 'Allāh.' Another translation of the Arabic word "samiyā" (translated above as someone who shares His name) is a partner. The verse will therefore mean that Allāh can have no partners.

وَيَقُولُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَإِذَا مَاتَ لَسَوْفَ أُخْرَجُ حَيًّا ﴿٦٦﴾ أَوَلَا يَذْكُرُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنَّا خَلَقْتَهُ
 مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَمْ يَكُ شَيْئًا ﴿٦٧﴾ فَوَرَبِّكَ لَنَحْشُرَنَّهُمْ وَالشَّيَاطِينَ ثُمَّ لَنُحْضِرَنَّهُمْ حَوْلَ
 جَهَنَّمَ جِثِيًّا ﴿٦٨﴾ ثُمَّ لَنَنْزِعَنَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شِيعَةٍ أَهْبَئًا أَشَدُّ عَلَى الرَّحْمَنِ عَيْنًا ﴿٦٩﴾ ثُمَّ
 لَنَعْلَمَنَّ بِالَّذِينَ هُمْ أَوْلَىٰ بِهَا صِلًىٰ ﴿٧٠﴾

(66) Man says, "Shall I be resurrected alive after I have died?" (67) Does man not recall that We created him before when he was nothing? (68) By your Lord! We will certainly gather them and the Satans (Shayātīn). Then We shall present them before Hell on their knees. (69) Then We will definitely separate from every group those who were most rebellious against the Merciful. (70) Then only We will know best who are most deserving of admission into Hell.

MAN DENIES RESURRECTION AND WILL BE GATHERED WITH THE SATANS (SHAYĀTĪN) ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

After making mention of His Oneness and power, Allāh reminds man of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh begins by saying, "Man says, 'Shall I be resurrected alive after I have died?'" He says this out of astonishment and because he rejects the belief. This subject is tackled in many verses of the Qur'ān.

Allāh replies to man by saying, "Does man not recall that We created him before when he was nothing?" When Allāh could create billions of people from a mere drop of fluid, why can He not raise the dead?

Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, "Has man not seen that We created him from a seed, after which he is suddenly an open adversary? He coins similitude's for Us and forgets how he was created. He says, 'Who will give life to bones after they have decomposed?' Say, 'The One Who gave life to it the first time will revive it. He has knowledge of all things.'" [Surah 36, verses 77-79]

Allāh then continues to depict the scene of Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "By your Lord! We will certainly gather them and the Shayātīn." The Shayātīn engage themselves in misleading mankind. Therefore, on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), they will also be raised for questioning with the ones whom they misled. Commentators mention that the Satans (Shayātīn) will be chained with those whom they misled in the world. They are together in this world and will be together in the Hereafter.

"Then we shall present them before Hell on their knees." This will serve to intensify their humiliation before actually entering Hell. All the disbelievers, irrespective of their positions in the world will be there together. However, sifting will then take place. Allāh says, "Then We will definitely separate from every group those who were most rebellious against the Merciful."

In this manner, the disbelievers will be classified according to the level of their disobedience to Allāh. They will be cast into Hell accordingly i.e. the worst of them will be placed in that part of Hell that is the worst.

Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "For those who disbelieve and forbid (others) from Allāh's path, We shall add punishment to their punishment because of the corruption that they caused." [Surah 16, verse 88]

"Then only We will know best who are most deserving of admission into Hell." Only Allāh knows who belongs to which level of Hell.

وَلَنْ مِّنكُمْ إِلَّا وَارِدُهَا كَانَ عَلَىٰ رَبِّكَ حَتْمًا مَّقْضِيًّا ﴿٧١﴾ ثُمَّ نَجَّيَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَنَذَرُ
الظَّالِمِينَ فِيهَا جِثَا ﴿٧٢﴾

(71) Every one of you shall pass by it (Hell). This is a decreed command of your Lord. (72) Then we shall rescue those who fear and we will leave the oppressors there on their knees.

ALL OF MANKIND WILL PASS HELL (JAHANNAM) AND ALLĀH WILL RESCUE THE PEOPLE OF PIETY (TAQWA) FROM IT

The above verses imply that every person, be he good or evil, will pass over Hell when people cross the bridge of Sirāt. Allāh will cause the believers (Mu'minīn) to cross over safely, each according to the level of their piety. However, the sinners will not be able to cross so easily. Massive hooks will grab at them from beneath and cast many of them into Hell. There will be many sinful believers (Mu'minīn) whom Allāh will allow to cross the bridge, albeit with difficulty.

Those Believers (Mu'minīn) who will fall into Hell may be later reprieved because of the intercession of the Prophets (Anbiya) عليهم السلام, the angels and the pious Believers (Mu'minīn). Eventually the last of them will also be freed from Hell by the grace of Allāh Himself. Only the polytheists and hypocrites shall remain in Hell forever. [At Targhūb wat Tarhūb p. 407-4 13]

Other commentators have translated the verse to mean that every person will actually enter Hell. However, the fire will be cool for the believers (Believer (Mu'min)in) like how Allāh cooled the fire for Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام in this world. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās and Jābir bin Abdullah رضي الله عنه both narrate this interpretation from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم [Ibn Kathir p. 131-133]

The crossing of the Sirāt cannot be rejected because it has been mentioned in numerous authentic Ahdith. It is possible that those believers (Mu'minīn) who are allowed to cross over the Sirāt will be later put into Hell, but the fire will be cooled for them. Allāh knows best.

وَإِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَيُّ الْفَرِيقَيْنِ خَيْرٌ مَّقَامًا
وَأَحْسَنُ نَدِيًّا ﴿٧٣﴾ وَكَوْا أَهْلَكَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِّن قَرْنٍ هُمْ أَحْسَنُ أَثْنًا وَرِءًيَا ﴿٧٤﴾ قُل مَّن كَانَ فِي
الضَّلَالَةِ فَلْيَمْدُدْ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ مَدًّا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَأَوْا مَا يُوعَدُونَ إِمَّا الْعَذَابَ وَإِمَّا السَّاعَةَ
فَسَيَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ هُوَ شَرٌّ مَّكَانًا وَأَضْعَفُ جُنْدًا ﴿٧٥﴾ وَيَزِيدُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ أَحْتَدَوْا
هُدًى وَالْبَاقِيَتُ الصَّالِحَاتُ خَيْرٌ عِندَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ مَّرَدًّا ﴿٧٦﴾

(73) When Our clear verses are recited to them, the disbelievers ask the believers, "Which of the two groups has a better position and which of them has a finer gathering?" (74) How many generations did We destroy before them, who were better off than them in terms of resources and appearance? (75) Say, "Allāh shall grant respite to those who are astray until they witness what has been promised to them, Thereafter there shall be either punishment or Judgment (Qiyāmah). Then they will know who is in the worst position and who has the weakest army." (76) Allāh will increase the guidance of those who are rightly guided. The lasting good deeds are best in the sight of your Lord in terms of reward and best in terms of consequences.

THE REPLY TO THE QUESTION OF THE DISBELIEVERS REGARDING WHICH OF THE TWO GROUPS ENJOY THE BEST POSITION AND BEST ASSEMBLY

Allāh says, "When Our clear verses are recited to them [by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], the disbelievers ask the believers, 'Which of the two groups (ourselves and yourselves) has a better position and which of them has a finer gathering?' By saying this, the disbelievers insinuated that they were more affluent and their gatherings were more embellished and refined, whereas the Muslims were poor and simple people.

In this way they told the Muslims that if they (the disbelievers) were wrong in their ways, Allāh would not have favoured them in terms of the world. Rather, they said, it seems that Allāh is displeased with the Muslims since He is not conferring on them the comforts of this world. They therefore believed that they were more beloved to Allāh than the Muslims.

Refuting this claim of theirs, Allāh says, "How many generations did We destroy before them, who were better off than them in terms of resources and appearance?" Allāh tells them that the affluence of this world is no indication of acceptance by Allāh. If it were, then Allāh would never have destroyed the many nations before them who were even more affluent and wealthier than them.

Allāh says in Surah Saba, "Those before them denied. These people cannot even reach a tenth of what We gave them (those before them), yet they falsify My messengers.

How will My retribution be?" [Surah 34, verse 45]

THE DISBELIEVERS ARE GRANTED 'RESPITE' AND ARE THEN MADE TO SEE THEIR OUTCOME

"Say, 'Allāh shall grant respite to those who are astray until they witness what has been promised to them. Thereafter there shall be either punishment or Judgment day (Qiyāmah)." Allāh informs people in this verse that the affluence and apparent well-being of the disbelievers are a result of Allāh's leniency towards them and not because He likes them.

Allāh allows them respite and increases their wealth so that they gradually increase in rebelliousness and sin. Thereafter, Allāh seizes them with punishment or with the pangs of death. When this occurs, "Then they will know who is in the worst position and who has the weakest army." The reply to their earlier question to the Believers (Mu'minīn) will present itself before them. At that time neither their affluence nor their numbers and gatherings will be of any avail to them.

Allāh mentions one of the many bounties that He bestows on the Believers (Mu'minīn). He says, "Allāh will increase the guidance of those who are rightly guided." An increase in guidance increases one's belief (Imān).

This increase in belief (Imān) will, in turn, encourage an increase in good deeds. Therefore, Allāh adds, "The lasting good deeds are best in the sight of your Lord in terms of reward and best in terms of consequences." These deeds will earn a person the eternal bliss of Heaven (Jannah), which is the best outcome and consequence one can expect.

أَفَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي كَفَرَ بِآيَاتِنَا وَقَالَ لَأُوتِيَنَّكَ مَالًا وَّوَلَدًا ﴿٧٧﴾ أَطَّلَعَ الْغَيْبَ أَمْ أَخَذَ
عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ﴿٧٨﴾ كَلَّا سَنَكْتُبُ مَا يَقُولُ وَنَمُدُّ لَهُ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ مَدًّا ﴿٧٩﴾
وَنَرِيَّهُمْ مَا يَقُولُ وَبِأَيْنِنَا فَرَدًّا ﴿٨٠﴾

(77) Have you seen him who rejects Our verses and says, "I shall certainly be granted wealth and children"? (78) Has he peeked into the unseen or has he made a pact with the Merciful? (79) Never! We shall shortly record what he says and continue to intensify the punishment for him. (80) And We shall be the Owners of what he says and he will come to Us all alone.

REFUTING THOSE DISBELIEVERS WHO CLAIM THAT THEY WILL RECEIVE WEALTH AND CHILDREN ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AS WELL

Sayyidina Khabbāb bin Aratt رضى الله عنه reports that he was a goldsmith and the polytheist Ās bin Wā'il owed him some money. He says that when he asked for the money, Ās said that he would never pay it back until Sayyidina Khabbāb رضى الله عنه rejected the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidina Khabbāb رضى الله عنه told him, "I shall never reject the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until you die and are resurrected."

Ās queried, "Will I be resurrected?" When Sayyidina Khabbāb رضي الله عنه replied in the affirmative, Ās said, "Then I shall repay your debt there because I will be granted wealth and children there as well." On this occasion the above verse was revealed viz. "Have you seen him who rejects Our verses and says, 'I shall certainly be granted wealth and children'?" [Bukhari v. 2 p. 691/2]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that Ās bin Wā'il owed money to a few Sahabah رضي الله عنهم. When they approached him to collect their dues, he asked them whether they believed that there shall be gold, silver, silk and all types of fruit in Heaven (Jannah). When they attested to this belief, he said that he would repay them there because he was because of receive wealth and children in the Hereafter. He even claimed that he would receive the Qur'ān there. The verse was revealed with regard to this.

He said such things mockingly and wished to insult the poor Sahabah رضي الله عنهم. He believed that he was the beloved of Allāh merely because Allāh had granted him wealth. Allāh replies to him, and to all others who may subscribe to the same belief. Allāh says, "Has he peeked into the unseen..." i.e. Has he seen these happenings of the future? Indeed, whatever he says is baseless and untrue.

".....or has he made a pact with the Merciful?" i.e. a pact to the effect that Allāh shall confer these things on him in the Hereafter? Allāh replies, "Never!" None of these things can be true. Only the believers (Mu'minīn) will profit in the Hereafter, while the disbelievers shall be in total loss.

Allāh continues, "We shall shortly record what he says and continue to intensify the punishment for him." He will be punished for his disbeliefs and will have added punishment because he was audacious enough to claim that he shall have wealth and children in the Hereafter and because he ridiculed Islām.

"And We shall be the Owners of what he says..." i.e. Allāh owns all the wealth and children that he speaks of. Eventually, when he dies, even his supposed ownership will be lost to him.

"..... and he will come to Us all alone." On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), his wealth and children will not accompany him. When all that he once possessed will not be with him, how can he expect more to be given to him there?

وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً لِيَكُونُوا لَهُمْ عِزًّا ﴿٨١﴾ كَلَّا سَيَكْفُرُونَ بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ وَيَكُونُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ ضِدًّا ﴿٨٢﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَا أَرْسَلْنَا الشَّيَاطِينَ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ تَوْرُثُهُمْ أَيَّامًا ﴿٨٣﴾ فَلَا تَعْجَلْ عَلَيْهِمْ إِنَّمَا نَعُدُّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا ﴿٨٤﴾

(81) Leaving Allāh, they adopt many gods so that these may be a token of honour for them. (82) This will never be. They (their gods) will soon reject their worship and become adversaries to them. (83) Have you not seen that We have set the Satans (Shayātīn) upon the disbelievers, who instigate them tremendously? (84) So do not be hasty with regard to them. We are meticulously keeping records of them.

FALSE GODS WILL DENY THE WORSHIP OF THEIR WORSHIPPERS AND BECOME THEIR FOES

The polytheists boasted about their idols and considered them to be a source of pride and honour. During the battle of Uhud, Abu Sufyan called out to the Muslims, "We have Uzza (the name of one of their idols), while you do not!" In reply to this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh is our ally, while you have none!"

Allāh says, "Leaving Allāh, they adopt many gods so that these may be a token of honour for them. This will never be! They (the false gods) will soon reject their worship (the worship of the Polytheists) and become adversaries to them." The polytheists will therefore never get the intercession that they expected from these false gods.

Allāh says in Surah Aḥqāf, "When people are resurrected they (their false gods) will be enemies to them and will deny their worship' In addition to this, the false gods will even put the blame on these people and entreat Allāh to punish them.

Allāh then says, "Have you not seen that We have set the Satans (Shayātīn) upon the disbelievers, who instigate them tremendously?" Because of the incitement of the Satans (Shayātīn), these people continue to reject the truth and remain steadfast on disbeliefs. By behaving in this manner they are inviting Allāh's wrath upon themselves. Allāh reassures the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that His punishment will soon overtake them at its appointed time, "So do not be hasty with regard to them. We are meticulously keeping records of them."

Certain commentators have translated the last part of the above verse as, "We are meticulously counting their breaths/days." Therefore, their days are numbered and they shall soon meet with the consequences of their deeds. Even lengthy lives in this world are insignificant when compared to the Hereafter.

يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا ﴿٨٥﴾ وَنَسْوَاقُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ إِلَى جَهَنَّمَ وَرِدًا ﴿٨٦﴾ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ الشَّفْعَةَ إِلَّا مَنِ اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ﴿٨٧﴾

(85) The day when We shall gather the pious unto the Merciful as guests. (86) And We will drag the criminals to Hell, thirsty. (87) Only those who receive permission from Allāh will have the ability to intercede.

THE PIOUS WILL BE LED AS ALLĀH'S GUESTS, WHILE THE SINNERS WILL BE LEFT THIRSTY AND DRAGGED TO HELL (JAHANNAM)

These verses depict the scene of the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "The day when We shall gather the pious unto the Merciful as guests." They will be treated with reverence and granted whatever they desire.

On the other hand, "We will drag the criminals to Hell, thirsty." They will be dragged like animals and will not be allowed to slake their intense thirst.

"Only those who receive permission from Allāh will have the ability to intercede."

Allāh makes a similar statement in the Āyatul Kursi, where He says, "Who is there to intercede before Him without His permission?" [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 255]

وَقَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَلَدًا ﴿٨٨﴾ لَقَدْ جِئْتُمْ شَيْئًا إِدًّا ﴿٨٩﴾ تَكَادُ السَّمَوَاتُ
يَنْفَطَرْنَ مِنْهُ وَتَنْشَقُّ الْأَرْضُ وَتَخِرُّ الْجِبَالُ هَدًا ﴿٩٠﴾ أَنْ دَعَوْا لِلرَّحْمَنِ وَلَدًا ﴿٩١﴾ وَمَا
يَنْبَغِي لِلرَّحْمَنِ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا ﴿٩٢﴾ إِنْ كُلُّ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِلَّا آتِي
الرَّحْمَنِ عَبْدًا ﴿٩٣﴾ لَقَدْ أَحْصَاهُمْ وَعَدَّهُمْ عَدًّا ﴿٩٤﴾ وَكُلُّهُمْ آتِيهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فَرْدًا ﴿٩٥﴾

(88) They say, Rahmān "the Merciful has taken a child." (89) You have certainly said a grave thing. (90) The heavens may split asunder because of it, the earth may be cleaved open and the mountains may crash to pieces. (91) All this because they ascribed children to Rahmān (the Merciful). (92) It is not befitting of the Merciful to take children. (93) Everything within the heavens and the earth shall come to Rahmān as slaves. (94) Allāh has counted them all and numbered them all precisely. (95) Each one of them will come to Him all alone on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

THE GRAVITY OF CLAIMING THAT ALLĀH HAS CHILDREN

The polytheists of Makkah claimed that the angels were Allāh's daughters. The Jews claimed that Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام was Allāh's son and the Christians said that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was His son.

Expressing the gravity of this belief Allāh says, "They say, 'Rahmān (the Merciful) has taken a child.' You have certainly said a grave thing. The heavens may split asunder because of it, the earth may be cleaved open and the mountains may crash to pieces. All this because they ascribed children to Allāh."

Such a belief constitutes an insult to the grandeur of Allāh. Allāh says, "It is not befitting of the Merciful to take children." Allāh has no need for any partners and assistants. It is absurd to claim that these people are Allāh's children because there can be no similarity between them and Allāh.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh says, "The son of Ādam has falsified Me whereas he should not do so. He swears Me whereas he should not. His falsification is that he says that I cannot resurrect him, whereas it is the same to Me to create him the second time as I did the first time. His swearing is that he says that I have children, whereas I am Pure from having a wife and children. I am the One, The Independent. I beget not nor was I begotten. There is none equal to Me." [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "None is more tolerant than Allāh with unacceptable talks. People attribute children to Him, yet He forgives them and continues to feed them." [Mishkāt p. 13]

"Everything within the heavens and the earth shall come to the Merciful as slaves." All of creation are Allāh's slaves and they will appear as such on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). How can Allāh's slaves be regarded as His children?

"Allāh has counted them all and numbered them all precisely." Allāh has perfect knowledge of every one of His creation and none of them will be able to escape Him on the Day of Judgement.

"Each one of them will come to Him all alone on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)." There will be none to assist them and Allāh will grant each one of them their just dues and punishment.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ سَيَجْعَلُ لَهُمُ الرَّحْمَنُ وُدًّا ﴿٩٦﴾ فَإِنَّمَا
يَسَّرْنَاهُ بِلِسَانِكَ لِتُبَشِّرَ بِهِ الْمُتَّقِينَ وَتُنذِرَ بِهِ قَوْمًا لَّدُنَّا ﴿٩٧﴾ وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا
قَبْلَهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْنٍ هَلْ يُحِشُّ مِنْهُمْ مِّنْ أَحَدٍ أَوْ تَسْمَعُ لَهُمْ رِكْزًا ﴿٩٨﴾

(96) As for those who believe and do good deeds, Rahmān will soon authorise love for them. (97) We have made the Qur'ān easy on your tongue so that you may convey glad tidings to the pious with it and warn the quarrelsome people with it. (98) How many were the generations that We destroyed! Do you see any of them or do you hear any whisper from them?

THE REVERENCE TO BE ACCORDED TO THE BELIEVERS (MU'MINĪN), THE SIMPLICITY OF THE QUR'ĀN AND THE DESTRUCTION OF PREVIOUS NATIONS

Expressing the virtue of the Believers (Mu'minīn), Allāh says, "As for those who believe and do good deeds, the Merciful will soon authorise love for them." Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when Allāh loves a person, He calls Jibrīl عليه السلام and tells him, "I love such a person, so you also love him." Jibrīl عليه السلام then begins to love the person and announces in the heavens, "Behold! Allāh loves a certain person, so you should all love him also." Consequently, the inhabitants of the heavens all begin to love the person. Thereafter the person is accepted on earth and all on earth begin to love him (i.e. the good people on earth. It is of no consequence if the Disbelievers and sinners dislike him).

In a similar manner, when Allāh dislikes a person, He calls Jibrīl عليه السلام and tells him, "I detest such a person, so you also detest him." Jibrīl عليه السلام then begins to detest the person and announces in the heavens, "Behold! Allāh detests a certain person, so you should all detest him also." Consequently, the inhabitants of the heavens all begin to detest the person. Thereafter the person is rejected on earth and all on earth begin to abhor him. [Muslim v. 2 p. 331]

Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the essence of the above verse is that Allāh places love for the pious in the hearts of people. He adds that in addition to this, Allāh also provides for them, guides them to perform good deeds, to possess excellent conduct and Allāh prompts people always to speak favourably of them.

Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه related that a person once resolved to worship Allāh with such vehemence that it should cause a stir among the people. Consequently, he constantly stood in Salāh, was always the first in the mosque (Masjid) and always last to leave. After seven months of exertion, he noticed that whenever he passed people they muttered, "Look! There goes the show-off."

He then addressed himself saying, "See how your fame has turned to disrepute. I should change my intention and act only to attain Allāh's pleasure." When he changed his intention and continued with his actions, people would comment as he passed, "May Allāh bless him." After recounting this incident, Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه recited the verse, "As for those who believe and do good deeds, Rahmān the Merciful will soon authorise love for them."

Sayyidina Uthmān bin Affān رضي الله عنه has mentioned that Allāh will adorn a person with the shawl of his deeds, be the deeds good or evil. [Ibn kathīr v. 3 p. 140].

This means that good people will be recognised as being good and evil people will be recognised as they are. Those who were righteous are favourably remembered until today, though they may have passed away centuries ago. However, those evil souls who were evil are not remembered with good words, even though they may have been wealthy monarchs.

"We have made the Qur'ān easy on your tongue so that you may convey glad tidings to the pious with it and warn the quarrelsome people with it." The Qur'ān was revealed in Arabic, which was the mother tongue of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh made it easy for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even though he was not taught by anyone. Allāh has also made the recitation and understanding of the Qur'ān easy for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم although they may not be Arabs.

Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه says that the "quarrelsome people" refers to the Quraysh. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه interprets "quarrelsome people" to mean people who cannot be reformed. Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that these are such people whose ears of the heart are deaf. [Ibn kathīr v. 3 p. 140]

"How many were the generations that We destroyed! Do you see any of them or do you hear any whisper from them?" Allāh has destroyed many nations in the past because of their disbeliefs. They were people who made lavish claims and had much to say. However, today even their whispers cannot be heard. People should derive a lesson from these extinct nations.

سورة طه

Makkan

Surah Tā Hā

Verses 135

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

طه ﴿١﴾ مَا أُنزِلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ لِتَشْقَى ﴿٢﴾ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ لِّمَن يَخْشَى ﴿٣﴾ تَزِيلًا
 لِّمَن خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ وَالسَّمَوَاتِ الْعُلَى ﴿٤﴾ الرَّحْمَنُ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ اسْتَوَى ﴿٥﴾ لَّهُ مَا فِي
 السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَمَا تَحْتَ الثَّرَى ﴿٦﴾ وَإِنْ يُجْهَرُ بِالْقَوْلِ فَإِنَّهُ
 يَعْلَمُ السِّرَّ وَأَخْفَى ﴿٧﴾ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَى ﴿٨﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

- (1) Tā Hā. (2) We have not revealed the Qur'ān to you to cause you difficulty.
 (3) However it is advice for him who fears. (4) Revealed from Him Who created the earth and the lofty skies. (5) The Merciful has focused on the throne. (6) To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens, whatever is in the earth, whatever is between the two, and whatever is beneath the clay. (7) Even if you speak loudly,
 He knows what is whispered and all that is even more hidden. (8) Allāh is such that there is no deity besides Him. His are the most beautiful names.

THE QUR'ĀN WAS REVEALED BY THE CREATOR OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH AS ADVICE TO THE FEARFUL

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 211) reports from the commentator Kalbi رحمه الله عليه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to exert himself greatly when the revelation of the Qur'ān began. He would exhaust himself so much that he was forced to lean sometimes on the right leg, and sometimes on the left leg when performing Salāh. He used to spend the entire night in Salāh. It was for this reason that Allāh revealed the verse, "We have not revealed the Qur'ān to you to cause you difficulty."

According to another narration, the verse was revealed when the polytheists, after witnessing this exertion, told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! It seems like this Qur'ān was revealed to cause you difficulty."

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم need not grieve over those who reject the Qur'ān. According to this interpretation, the verse will resemble the 6th verse of Surah Kahf, where Allāh says, 'it should not be that you destroy yourself after them in grief because they do not believe in this subject (the Qur'ān).'' ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 16 p. 149]

"However it is advice for him who fears (Allāh)." Although the Qur'ān was revealed for all of mankind, it makes no difference whether they listen to the Qur'ān or not. They will never believe. Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, "You can warn only him who follows the advice and fears the Merciful without seeing Him." [Surah 36, verse 11]

Allāh says further that the Qur'ān is "Revealed from Him Who created the earth and the lofty skies."

"the Merciful has focused on the throne." A detailed discussion on Allāh's rising to the throne was discussed in the commentary of verse 54 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Allāh says, "Undoubtedly your Lord is Allāh, Who has created the heavens and the earth in six days and then rose to the Throne."

ALLĀH HAS KNOWLEDGE OF EVERYTHING IN THE HEAVENS, IN THE EARTH, IN BETWEEN THE TWO AND OF WHAT IS BENEATH THE CLAY

"To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens, whatever is in the earth, whatever is between the two, and whatever is beneath the clay." "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه as saying that "whatever is beneath the clay" refers to whatever is beneath the seventh earth. (The Ahadīth and verses of the Qur'ān attest to the presence of seven earths).

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who usurps even a hand's span worth of land shall have the seven earths as a yoke around his neck on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). [Bukhari]

Another narration of Bukhari states that the person who usurps the land of another will be sunk below the seven earths.

According to a narration of Ahmad, if a person usurps the amount of hand's span, he will be made to dig until he reaches the end of the seventh earth. Then this shall be placed as a yoke around his neck until all the people have been judged on the day of Judgment. [Mishkāt p. 286]

ALLĀH IS AWARE OF WHAT IS SPOKEN AUDIBLY AND SILENTLY

"Even if you speak loudly, He knows what is whispered and all that is even more hidden." Allāh is even aware of the unspoken thoughts that the hearts conceal. This meaning is revealed by the fact that Allāh uses the word "knows" instead of "hears."

"Allāh is such that there is no deity besides Him. His are the most beautiful names." These various names denote His excellent attributes and perfection. The discussion of Allāh's names was discussed in verse 179 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) and at the end of Surah Bani Isrā'il (Surah 17).

وَهَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ مُوسَى ﴿٩﴾ إِذْ رَأَى نَارًا فَقَالَ لِأَهْلِهِ امْكُثُوا إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا
لَعَلِّي آتِيكُمْ مِنْهَا بِقَبَسٍ أَوْ أَجْدٍ عَلَى النَّارِ هُدًى ﴿١٠﴾ فَلَمَّا أَتَاهَا نُودِيَ يَلْمُوسَى
﴿١١﴾ إِنِّي أَنَا رَبُّكَ فَاخْلَعْ نَعْلَيْكَ إِنَّكَ بِالْوَادِ الْمُقَدَّسِ طُوًى ﴿١٢﴾ وَأَنَا اخْتَرْتُكَ
فَأَسْمِعْ لِمَا يُوحَى ﴿١٣﴾ إِنَّنِي أَنَا اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاعْبُدْنِي وَأَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ
لِذِكْرِي ﴿١٤﴾ إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ آتِيَةٌ أَكَادُ أُخْفِيهَا لِتُجْزَى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا سَعَى ﴿١٥﴾
فَلَا يَصُدُّكَ عَنْهَا مَنْ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِهَا وَاتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ فَتَرْدَى ﴿١٦﴾ وَمَا تِلْكَ يَمِينُكَ
يَمُوسَى ﴿١٧﴾ قَالَ هِيَ عَصَايَ أَتَوَكَّأُ عَلَيْهَا وَأَهُشُّ بِهَا عَلَى غَنَمِي وَلِيَ فِيهَا
مَنَازِبٌ أُخْرَى ﴿١٨﴾ قَالَ أَلْقِهَا يَمُوسَى ﴿١٩﴾ فَالْقَهَا فَإِذَا هِيَ حَيَّةٌ سَعَى ﴿٢٠﴾ قَالَ
خُذْهَا وَلَا تَحْزَنْ سَنُعِيدُهَا سِيرَتَهَا الْأُولَى ﴿٢١﴾ وَاضْمُمْ يَدَكَ إِلَى جَنَاحِكَ تَخْرُجْ
بَيَضَاءً مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ آيَةً أُخْرَى ﴿٢٢﴾ لِنُرِيكَ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا الْكُبْرَى ﴿٢٣﴾ أَذْهَبَ إِلَى فِرْعَوْنَ
إِنَّمْ طَغَى ﴿٢٤﴾

(9) Has not the story of Mūsa come to you? (10) When he saw a fire and said to his wife, "Wait! I perceive a fire. Perchance I may bring to you a brand from there, or I may find some guide at the fire. (11) When he came to the fire, it was announced, "O Mūsa!" (12) "I am indeed your Lord, so remove your shoes for you are upon the pure plain of Tuwa." (13) "I have selected you, so hearken to what is being revealed." (14) "Verily I am Allāh. There is no deity besides Me, so worship Me and establish Salāh for My remembrance." (15) "Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is undoubtedly near. I shall conceal it so that every soul can be granted retribution for its efforts." (16) "Therefore the person who does not believe in it, and who follows his carnal passions should never forbid you from it, causing you to be destroyed." (17) "What is that in your right hand, O Mūsa?" (18) He replied, "It is my staff on which I lean, beat down leaves for my goats to graze on and I have many other uses for it." (19) Allāh said, "Throw it down, O Mūsa." (20) So he threw it down, and suddenly it was a slithering snake. (21) Allāh said, "Grab hold of it and do not be afraid. We shall soon return it to its former state." (22) "And thrust your hand into your side, it shall emerge shining, without any defects. This is the second sign." (23) "So that We may show you some of Our magnificent signs." (24) "Go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun). He is indeed rebellious."

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام SEES A FIRE WHILE RETURNING FROM MADYAN, BECOMES A PROPHET (NABI) AND IS COMMANDED TO PREACH TO PHARAOH (FIR'AUN)

As was mentioned previously, the twelve sons of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام, including those of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام, settled in Egypt. Their progeny grew from then, but the Coptic Egyptians always persecuted them. Eventually Allāh raised Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام among them. He grew up in the house of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and, after inadvertently killing a Copt, fled to Madyan. There he married and lived for ten years.

The above verses of Surah Tā Hā describe the time when Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was returning with his wife to Egypt. This episode is also narrated in Surah Naml and Surah Qasas. It was during winter that they travelled and it so happened that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام lost the road. Thereafter he noticed a fire burning from the direction of Mount Tūr.

Recounting this epic, Allāh says, "Has not the story of Mūsa come to you? When he saw a fire and said to his wife, 'Wait! I perceive a fire. Perchance I may bring to you a brand from there (to warm yourself), or I may find some guide at the fire.'" This verse shows that a person should provide for the needs of his family together with his own needs.

Because Allāh intended to appoint him as a Prophet, "When he came to the fire, it was announced (by Allāh), 'O Mūsa! I am indeed your Lord, so remove your shoes for you are upon the pure plain of Tuwa.'"

Sayyidina 'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه says that his shoes were impure because they were made from the untreated skin of donkey. Sayyidina Mujāhid and Ikramah رحمه الله are of the opinion that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was commanded to remove his shoes so that the pure and holy sand of Tuwa may touch his feet. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 213]

Allāh continued to address him saying, "I have selected you, so hearken to what is being revealed. Verily I am Allāh. There is no deity besides Me, so worship Me and establish Salāh for My remembrance." Although Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was a believer (Mu'min) from before, Allāh intended to fortify his belief.

Allāh also told him, "Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is undoubtedly near. I shall conceal it so that every soul can be granted retribution for its efforts. Therefore the person who does not believe in it and who follows his carnal passions should never forbid you from it, causing you to be destroyed." Allāh merely intended to warn him, even though it was impossible that any deviant person could influence any Prophet.

Since Allāh wanted Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to preach to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), He granted him two miracles with which he could prove his apostleship to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his people. Describing these, Allāh says that He asked, "What is that in your right hand, O Mūsa?"

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام replied, "It is my staff.." Instead of sufficing with this reply, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام seized the golden opportunity of speaking to Allāh, and added, ..... on which I lean, beat down leaves for my goats to graze on and I have many other uses for it."

"Allāh said, 'Throw it down, O Mūsā.' So he threw it down, and suddenly it was a slithering snake." Seeing this, Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام withdrew, but Allāh told him, "Grab hold of it and do not be afraid. We shall soon return it to its former state."

Thereupon Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام held the snake and Allāh transformed it back into a staff. This was the first miracle (sign) for Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. Thereafter, Allāh describes the second, when He says, "And thrust your hand into your side, it shall emerge shining, without any defects (i.e. without you suffering from white liver, etc). This is the second sign."

Allāh then told Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام that He had granted him these two miracles "So that We may show you some of Our magnificent signs." Thereafter, Allāh commanded him saying, "Go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun). He is indeed rebellious."

SAYYIDINA MŪSĀ عليه السلام MISTAKES THE CELESTIAL LIGHT OF ALLĀH FOR FIRE

Allāma Baghawī رحمه الله states in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 213) that commentators say that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام mistook the "Nūr" (celestial light) of Allāh for fire. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Ikramah رحمه الله and others all hold the view that the light that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام saw was Allāh's "Nūr" (celestial light).

Sayyidina Abu Mūsā Ash'ari رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh's veil is Nūr and that His brilliance would shine whatever the eye can see if it is exposed to the world. [Muslim]

Some commentators have mentioned that the Nūr that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام saw was the Nūr of Allāh's veil. "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 126) reports from the "Musnad of Ahmad" that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام saw an extremely strange sight at Tuwa. He saw what appeared to be a fire engulfing a tree. However, the tree was totally unaffected and not a single branch or leaf was burned. In fact, the beauty and bloom of the tree was enhanced by the 'fire'.

Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام then waited for a flame so that he could take it with him. However, this did not happen. He then placed some grass near it expecting it to light, but to no avail. According to some narrations, the 'fire' leapt forward, causing him to recede. It was then that Allāh addressed him.

SALĀH IS FOR ALLĀH'S REMEMBRANCE

Allāh instructed Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام with the words, "establish Salāh for My remembrance." This emphasises the importance of Salāh and also tells us that the previous Prophets عليهم السلام were also enjoined with the performance of Salāh.

In verse 37 of Surah Ibrāhīm (Surah 14), Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام supplicated to Allāh saying, "O our Lord! I have settled my children in a valley that cannot be cultivated, close to Your sacred house. O our Lord! So that they establish Salāh..." Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام also made the supplication (du'ā), "O my Lord! Make me one who establishes Salāh, and my progeny as well. O my Lord! Accept my prayer." [Surah 14, verse 40]

Salāh is the most important facet of Islām after believe (Imān) and is obligatory (Fardh) when ill or healthy, on journey and at home, as long as one is conscious. Salāh is the only act of worship that requires the Adhān and Salāh is a remembrance of Allāh from beginning to end. Every part of the body is engaged in Allāh's subservience and submission during Salāh, the hands, tongue, eyes, etc. Salāh was the first injunction to be ordained and shall be the first to be asked about on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

The heart should be attentive and submissive to Allāh during salāh so as to comply with the dictates of "establish Salāh for My remembrance." When Salāh is performed correctly, the heart and soul desire to perform it and do not consider it a burden.

THE BENEFIT AND WISDOM OF GRAZING GOATS

Upon reaching Madyan, a pious old man married Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to his daughter on condition that he graze the old man's goats for eight or ten years. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did the work for ten years.

Sayyidina Utba bin Nadar رضي الله عنه reports that they [some Sahabah رضي الله عنهم] came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he recited Surah Qasas (Surah 28) to them. When he reached the incident of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام hired himself out for eight or ten years to safeguard his chastity and to fill his stomach." [Mishkāt p. 218]

All the Prophets عليهم السلام grazed goats. The wisdom of this is that a person has to endure many difficulties in the process and gains experience with working with the weak. Goats have to be treated with patience and cannot be beaten because of their weakness. They have to be retrieved when they flee and then treated gently.

Goats are humble creatures and will not attack a person. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted people to perform Salāh in a goat's enclosure and prohibited performing Salāh in camel's pen. [Mishkāt]

The Prophets عليهم السلام gained invaluable experience when grazing goats, which helped them tremendously when dealing with the people. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم that every Prophet sent by Allāh, grazed goats. They asked, "You too, O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم?" "Yes," was the reply, "I grazed the goats of the Makkans and received a few Qirāt as wages." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 304] A Qirāt is a fraction of silver that was equivalent to the weight of four gains of barley.

Note: The Qur'ān uses three words when describing the transformation of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام's staff. The words "thu'bān" (a large serpent), "hayya" (a normal snake) and "jān" (a thin snake) are used. Some people have objected to this seeming discrepancy.

However, it will be noticed that there is no inconsistency at all. The word "thu'bān" is used only when describing the transformation of the staff in the presence of Pharaoh (Fir'aun), since it appeared as a large serpent only before him. On the occasion of Tuwa, Surah TāHā describes the reptile as "hayya," while Surah Naml and Surah Qasas depict it as a 'jān." There is no discrepancy between these two verses because the word "hayya" would refer to any size of snake, even one that is a "jān" (a thin snake).

The third occasion that the staff is mentioned is when it was transformed as Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام contested the magicians (in Surah A'rāf, Surah Tā Hā and Surah Shu'arā). When describing this scene, none of the above three words are used. Therefore, there can be no objection there.

قَالَ رَبِّ اشْرَحْ لِي صَدْرِي ﴿٢٥﴾ وَيَسِّرْ لِي أَمْرِي ﴿٢٦﴾ وَاحْلُلْ عُقْدَةً مِنْ لِسَانِي ﴿٢٧﴾ يَفْقَهُوا قَوْلِي ﴿٢٨﴾ وَاجْعَلْ لِي وَزِيرًا مِنْ أَهْلِي ﴿٢٩﴾ هَارُونَ أَخِي ﴿٣٠﴾ اشْدُدْ بِهِ أَزْرِي ﴿٣١﴾ وَأَشْرِكْهُ فِي أَمْرِي ﴿٣٢﴾ كَيْ تَسْبِّحَكَ كَثِيرًا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَتَذْكُرَكَ كَثِيرًا ﴿٣٤﴾ إِنَّكَ كُنْتَ بِنَا بَصِيرًا ﴿٣٥﴾ قَالَ قَدْ أُوتِيتَ سُؤْلَكَ يَمُوسَى ﴿٣٦﴾

(25) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! Relieve my mind..." (26) "...make my task easy..." (27) "...and untie the knot on my tongue..." (28) "... so that they may understand my speech." (29) "Appoint for me an assistant from my family..." (30) "...my brother Hārūn" (31) "...Strengthen me with him..." (32) "... and make him a partner to my affairs..." (33) "...so that we may glorify You abundantly..." (34) "... and remember You in abundance. (35) "Undoubtedly You are Ever Watchful over us." (36) Allāh said, "You have been granted your request O Mūsa."

ALLĀH ACCEPTS THE REQUEST OF SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام THAT HIS BROTHER HĀRŪN عليه السلام BE APPOINTED AS HIS ASSISTANT

When Allāh entrusted Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام with the task of preaching to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), he entreated Allāh thus, "O my Lord! Relieve my mind..." Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah Nashr saying, "Have We not relieved your mind?" Peace of mind is an extremely great blessing from Allāh and is absolutely necessary to encourage a person to fulfil his tasks.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام also prayed to Allāh saying, "make my task easy and untie the knot on my tongue so that they may understand my speech." Some commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was born with a stutter. Others say that, as a child, he once tugged at Pharaohs (Fir'aun's) beard. This happened while he was living in Pharaohs (Fir'aun's) palace. It then occurred to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) that this may be the very child who was expected to ruin Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) empire. He therefore intended to kill the child.

His wife intervened by telling Pharaoh (Fir'aun) that the child was behaving just like any other and the tugging at his beard should not be construed as being that very child regarding whom the above prophesy was made. They then decided to test the intelligence of the child by placing burning coals and jewels before him. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام took a coal and placed it in his mouth, causing his tongue to burn. Although the wound healed, the injury caused him to stutter.

Some commentators have mentioned that Allāh did not cause the stuttering handicap to be completely cured because Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام added the phrase "so that they may understand my speech." Therefore, some degree of stuttering was still apparent, because of which Pharaoh (Fir'aun) used say, "Am I not better than this person who is ignoble and can hardly express himself?" Of course, it is possible that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said this out of sheer obstinacy."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام also supplicated to Allāh saying, "Appoint for me an assistant from my family..." He then stipulated who the aide should be when he said, "my brother Hārūn. Strengthen me with him and make him a partner to my affairs..." It was in response to this supplication (du'ā) that Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام was also made a Prophet.

Allāh quotes Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام in Surah Qasas, "My brother Hārūn is more eloquent in speech than me, so send him as an aide to me to endorse me. I fear that they will falsify me." Allāh accepted his supplication (du'ā) and said, "We shall shortly strengthen your arm with your brother and grant the two of you a power, in the presence of which they will never reach you. The two of you and those who follow you will be victorious with Our signs." [Surah Qasas (28), verse 35]

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام requested Allāh for the support of Sayyidina Harūn رضي الله عنه and he added. "...so that we may glorify You abundantly and remember You in abundance." If every person engages in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), they will serve to remind each other without having to tell each other.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام concluded the supplication (du'ā) by saying, "Undoubtedly You are Ever Watchful over us." He understood that Allāh would be with them every step of the way.

"Allāh said, 'You have been granted your request O Mūsa.' Allāh thus made Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام a Prophet and Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام joined him in Egypt..

وَلَقَدْ مَنَّا عَلَيْكَ مَرَّةً أُخْرَىٰ ﴿٣٧﴾ إِذْ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمِّكَ مَا يُوحَىٰ ﴿٣٨﴾ أَنْ أَقْذِفِيهِ فِي
التَّابُوتِ فَاقْذِفِيهِ فِي الْيَمِّ فَلْيُلْقِهِ الْيَمُّ بِالسَّاحِلِ يَأْخُذْهُ عَدُوٌّ لِّي وَعَدُوٌّ لَّهُ وَأَلْقَيْتُ عَلَيْكَ
حَبَّةَ مَنَىٰ وَلَوْصَعَ عَلَىٰ عَيْنِي ﴿٣٩﴾ إِذْ تَمْشِي أُخْتُكَ فَتَقُولُ هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَىٰ مَن
يَكْفُلُهُ فَرَجَعْنَاكَ إِلَىٰ أُمِّكَ كَيْ تَقَرَّ عَيْنُهَا وَلَا تَحْزَنَ ۚ وَقَلَلْتَ فَنَسَاءً فَنَجَّيْنَاكَ مِنَ الْغَمِّ
وَفَتْنَاكَ فَنُونا فَلَئِمْتَ سِنِينَ فِي أَهْلِ مَدْيَنَ ثُمَّ جِئْتَ عَلَىٰ قَدَرٍ يَمْوَسَىٰ ﴿٤٠﴾

(37) "We have indeed showered favours upon you a second time." (38) "... when We inspired your mother with what she was inspired (39) That, 'Place him in a box, then cast the box into the river. The river will wash him on to the bank, to be taken by My enemy and his enemy. I have cast on you love from Me and so that you may grow up under My supervision.'" (40) "When your sister arrived walking and she said 'Should I not show you who can care for him?' So We returned you to your mother so that her eyes may be cooled and she may not grieve. Then you killed a person and We saved you from grief and tried you with many trials. You stayed several years with the people of Madyan and then, O Mūsa, you have arrived to an appointed time."

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام IS PLACED IN A BOX AT BIRTH AND HE GROWS UP IN PHARAOH'S (FIR'AUN'S) PALACE

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and the Egyptians refused to allow the Bani Isrā'il to leave Egypt so that they could be relieved of their tyranny. It once occurred that Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) fortune-teller told him that a child will be born among the Bani Isrā'il who would destroy his empire. As a result of this, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) had every newborn boy of the Bani Isrā'il killed. When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was born, his mother was overly concerned about her child and did not know what to do. Allāh thus inspired her to, "Place him in a box, then cast the box into the river. The river will wash him on to the bank, to be taken by My enemy and his enemy."

According to a verse of Surah Qasas, Allāh told his mother, neither fear nor grieve. We shall certainly return him to you and make him from the apostles." When the box washed up on to the riverbank adjoining Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) palace, his wife spotted it and found the child inside.

Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "So the family of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) picked him up to be an enemy and a source of grief for them." Pharaoh (Fir'aun) feared that the child was the very same one who would destroy his kingdom and wished to kill the child. However, his wife said to him, "A coolness for my eyes and yours. Do not slay him. Perchance he may benefit us or we may adopt him as a son." (because it is believed that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) did not have any children). [Surah Qasas (28), verse 8]

"I have cast on you love from Me..." Allāh made Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام beloved to all people. Whoever saw the young Mūsa عليه السلام would want to take him upon their laps. Therefore, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) agreed to his wife's proposal even though he still sensed the possibility of the child being the one that he was warned about.

Allāh reminds Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام further, "...and so that you may grow up under My supervision." While Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was being adopted by Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) wife, Sayyidina Mūsa's mother was extremely worried about her child. She was so perturbed that she was close to disclosing the secret if Allāh had not strengthened her heart. Verse 9 of Surah Qasas states, "The heart of Mūsa's mother was restless. She would have almost revealed his condition if We had not strengthened her heart to be from those with conviction." Therefore, she sent her daughter to see where the box went. Followed her mother's instructions, she saw how her brother was taken into the palace of Pharaoh (Fir'aun). However, the people of the palace were unaware of her presence, as Allāh says in verse 10 of Surah Qasas, "So she spied on him from afar without their knowledge."

When Pharaoh (Fir'aun) tried to get the child to suckle, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام refused to suckle from every woman that was brought for the purpose. Eventually, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام's sister appeared and said, "Should I not show you a family who will care for him on your behalf, and who will dote on him?" She then called for her mother, from whom the child suckled with great joy. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) then allowed her to raise the child and stipulated remuneration for the service. In this way Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was returned to his mother. Allāh says, "So We returned you to your mother so that her eyes may be cooled and she may not grieve."

Allāh relates the incident in Surah Qasas in the following words:

"We forbade all wet nurses to him from before and she [Mūsa's sister] told them, 'Should I not show you a family who will care for him on your behalf and who will dote on him?' So We returned him to his mother so that her eyes be cooled and so that she may not grieve. And so that she may know that Allāh's promise is true, but most of them do not know." [Surah 28, verses 11, 12]

After reminding Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام of the favours that he was blessed with during his childhood, Allāh reminded him of certain other favours. Consequently Allāh says, "Then you killed a person and We saved you from grief and tried you with many trials." The details of this will be mentioned in the commentary of verses 15 to 21 of Surah Qasas. However, the following brief facts will be cited here.

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام grew up, he told the people that he was from the Bani Isrā'il and that pharaoh (Fir'aun) was not his father. It transpired one day that he noticed a Copt fighting with a person from the Bani Isrā'il. The person from the Bani Isrā'il called Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to help him. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام punched the Copt, but the punch killed him by mistake. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was extremely upset by this. However, no one found out how the person was killed.

The next day, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام again saw the same person from the Bani Isrā'il fighting with another Copt. When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام again came to his assistance, the person of the Bani Isrā'il thought that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was going to assault him. Therefore he called out, "O Mūsa! Do you wish to kill me like you killed the person yesterday?" [Surah Qasas (28), verse 19]

When the news spread that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام killed the Copt, the ministers decided to kill Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام in return. Fortunately, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was warned by someone to escape from the town. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام then left for Madyan, where he stayed for a while. Referring to this Allāh say, "You stayed several years with the people of Madyan and then, O Mūsa, you have arrived to an appointed time."

وَأَصْطَفَعْتُكَ لِنَفْسِي ﴿٤١﴾ أَذْهَبَ أَنْتَ وَأَخُوكَ بِآيَاتِي وَلَا نَبِيَّ فِي ذِكْرِي ﴿٤٢﴾ أَذْهَبَا إِلَى
 فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّهُ طَغَى ﴿٤٣﴾ فَقُولَا لَهُ قَوْلًا لَّيْسًا لَّعَلَّهُ يَتَذَكَّرُ أَوْ يَخْشَى ﴿٤٤﴾ قَالَ رَبَّنَا إِنَّا نَخَافُ
 أَنْ يَفْزُقَ عَلَيْنَا أَوْ أَنْ يَطْغَى ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ لَا تَخَافَا إِنِّي مَعَكُمَا أَسْمِعُ وَأَرَى ﴿٤٦﴾
 فَأَنبَاهُ فَقُولَا إِنَّا رَسُولَا رَبِّكَ فَأَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ وَلَا تَغْلِبْهُمْ قَدْ جِئْنَاكَ بِآيَةٍ

مِنْ رَبِّكَ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَىٰ مَنْ أْتَيْتُمُ الْهُدًى ﴿٤٧﴾ إِنَّا قَدْ أُوحِيَ إِلَيْنَا أَنَّ الْعَذَابَ عَلَىٰ مَنْ
كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّىٰ ﴿٤٨﴾

(41) "I chose you for Myself" (42) "You and your brother should go with My signs and should not be lax in My remembrance." (43) "Proceed, the two of you to Pharaoh (Fir'aun). Indeed he is rebellious," (44) "Speak to him in gentle words, perchance he may take heed or fear. (45) They said, "O our Lord! We truly fear that he would be defiant or rebel against us." (46) Allāh said, "Have no fear, for verily I am with you, hearing and seeing." (47) Go to him and say, "We are indeed two messengers of our Lord, so send the Bani Isrā'īl with us and do not torment them. We have come to you with a sure sign from your Lord. May peace be on those who follow the guidance." (48) "It has been revealed to us that punishment shall be for those who falsify and turn away."

ALLĀH INSTRUCTS THE SAYYIDINA MŪSA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND SAYYIDINA HĀRŪN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام TO PREACH TO PHARAOH (FIR'AUN), NOT TO BE LAX IN REMEMBRANCE (DHIKR) AND TO SPEAK TO HIM GENTLY

Earlier on Allāh told Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, "I have selected you, so hearken to what is being revealed." Here Allāh reiterates by saying, "I chose you for Myself" This was indeed an extremely great favour of Allāh upon Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام.

Thereafter Allāh goes on to tell him, "You and your brother should go with My signs and should not be lax in My remembrance. Proceed, the two of you, to Pharaoh (Fir'aun). Indeed he is rebellious."

Allāh advises them further, "Speak to him in gentle words (even though he may be harsh, because), perchance he may take heed (to what is said to him) or fear (Me)." This teaches people that Da'wa (calling people towards Allāh) should be given with patience and tolerance because it is more effective.

Expressing their fears, "They said, 'O our Lord! We truly fear that he would be defiant or rebel against us.'"

Allāh reassured them by saying, "Have no fear, for verily I am with you, hearing and seeing. Go to him and say, 'We are indeed two messengers of our Lord, so send the Bani Isrā'īl with us and do not torment them. (And to substantiate our claim to the Prophethood,) We have come to you with a sure sign from your Lord.'" i.e. the miracles of the staff and the shining hand.

Allāh also commanded them to encourage Pharaoh (Fir'aun) by telling him, "May peace be on those who follow the guidance." He was also to be warned with the words, "It has been revealed to us that punishment shall be for those who falsify and turn away." These verses emphasise the fact that a preacher should give people glad tidings as well as warnings.

It is not permissible to greet the disbelievers with the words, "Assalāmu Alaikum." Therefore, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم opened his letter addressed to

Hercules with the words, 'May peace be on those who follow the guidance.' [Bukhari v. 1 p. 5]

Surah Nāzi'āt states that Allāh said to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام, "Go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), for verily he is rebellious. Tell him, 'Have you any desire to purify yourself and that I guide you to your Lord so that you fear Him?'" [Surah 79, verses 17-19]

قَالَ فَمَنْ رَبُّكُمَا يَمُوسَى ﴿٤٩﴾ قَالَ رَبُّنَا الَّذِي أَعْطَى كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلْقَهُ ثُمَّ هَدَى ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالَ فَمَا بَالُ الْقُرُونِ الْأُولَى ﴿٥١﴾ قَالَ عَلِمَهَا عِنْدَ رَبِّي فِي كِتَابٍ لَا يَضِلُّ رَبِّي وَلَا يَنْسَى ﴿٥٢﴾ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَسَلَكَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا وَأَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْرَجْنَا بِهِ أَزْوَاجًا مِّن نَّبَاتٍ شَتَّى ﴿٥٣﴾ كُلُوا وَارْعَوْا أَنْعَمَكُم إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّأُولِي النَّهَى ﴿٥٤﴾ وَمِنَّا خَلَقْتُمُ فِيهَا نَعِيدُكُمْ وَمِنَّا نُخْرِجُكُمْ تَارَةً أُخْرَى ﴿٥٥﴾

(49) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Then who is the Lord of you two, O Mūsa?" (50) He replied, "Our Lord is He Who granted each thing its creation, then guided it." (51) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Then what about the previous generations?" (52) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "The knowledge of them is with my Lord in the Book. My Lord does not err, nor does He forget." (53) "(My Lord is) He Who made the earth a bedding for you, made roads for you and sent water from the sky." Then We extracted by this (rain) various species of plants for you. (54) Eat and graze your animals. There are certainly signs in this for the intelligent. (55) We have created you from it (the earth), shall return you to it, and will extract you from it a second time.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام ADDRESSES PHARAOH (FIR'AUN)

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام preached to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), the haughty king began to make various absurd statements. Some are mentioned here, and others are mentioned in Surah Shu'arā (Surah 26, verses 18-34).

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) claimed, "I am your Lord, the most high!" Therefore, when Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told him to accept Allāh, "Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said (before the gathering of his courtiers), 'Then who is the Lord of you two, O Mūsa?'"

In response to his question, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام replied, "Our Lord is He Who granted each thing its creation..." Allāh fashioned everything as He pleased, and granted them the limbs and capabilities that He willed.

".....then guided it." i.e. Allāh granted everything the understanding and faculties to ascertain what is beneficial and what is detrimental to it. This subject is too vast to be discussed here as it keeps expanding as one thinks deeper.

It is only Allāh that teaches a little infant to suck when given the mother's breast. Only He teaches that little chicken to run for a grain of food and teaches an animal to care for its young. Allāh has not granted hands to the animals because they do not really require them.

Allāh has granted the spider the ability to secure its food by spinning a web, the lizard has to merely approach a light to eat the multitude of insects attracted there. Allāh has even allowed them to be able to walk upside down on a ceiling to do this. Allāh teaches the goats to lick their young clean and teaches the hen to remain with her eggs until they hatch. It is only Allāh who teaches cats to eat mice but never to put their mouths to a scorpion. There are millions of other such examples.

Another interpretation of the verse is that Allāh created mankind and then sent the Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures to guide them.

"Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, 'Then what about the previous generations?'" i.e. What has become of them after their destruction? "Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'The knowledge of them is with my Lord in the Book [the protected tablet (the Lawhu Mahfūz)]. My Lord does not err, nor does He forget. "Allāh will grant them all their just retribution in the Hereafter without error.

Further describing Allāh's attributes, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said, "Him Who made the earth a bedding for you, made roads for you and sent water from the sky." Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام wished to impress upon Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) mind that he has no say in all these affairs and can therefore never be Allāh.

Allāh Himself continues from the speech of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Allāh says, "Then We extracted by this (rain) various species of plants for you. Eat and graze your animals. There are certainly signs in this for the intelligent." The Arabic word "naha" is a verb that means 'to prevent.' The word "nuha" (translated above as "intelligence") is derived from this verb, and denotes something that prevents one from evil. Therefore, a person whose intelligence does not prevent him from evil cannot be called an intelligent person, irrespective of what people say. .

Even the commonly used Arabic word "aql" (intelligence) refers to something that keeps a person away from evil and vice.

"We have created you from it (from the earth), shall return you to it, and will extract you from it a second time [on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)]." Allāh says in Surah Mursalāt, "Have We not made the earth a collector of the living and the dead?" [Surah 77, verses 25, 26]

وَلَقَدْ آرَيْنَاهُ ءَايَاتِنَا كُلَّهَا فَكَذَّبَ وَأَبَىٰ ﴿٥٦﴾ قَالَ أَجِئْتَنَا لِتُخْرِجَنَا مِنْ أَرْضِنَا بِسِحْرِكَ
يَمُوسَىٰ ﴿٥٧﴾ فَلَنَأْتِيَنَّكَ بِسِحْرِ مِثْلِهِ ۖ فَأَجْعَلْ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكَ مَوْعِدًا لَا نُخْلَفُهُ نَحْنُ
وَلَا أَنْتَ مَكَانًا سُوَّىٰ ﴿٥٨﴾ قَالَ مَوْعِدُكُمْ يَوْمَ الزَّيْنَةِ وَأَنْ يُحَشَّرَ النَّاسُ ضُحَىٰ ﴿٥٩﴾
فَتَوَلَّىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ فَجَمَعَ كَيْدَهُ ثُمَّ أَتَىٰ ﴿٦٠﴾ قَالَ لَهُمْ مُوسَىٰ وَيَلَكُمْ لَا تَقْتُلُوا عَلَى
اللَّهِ كَذِبًا فَيُسْحِتَكُمْ بِعَذَابٍ ۖ وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ افْتَرَىٰ ﴿٦١﴾ فَتَنَزَّعُوا أَمْرَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ

وَأَسْرُوا النَّجْوَى ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّ هَٰذَانِ لَسَاحِرَٰنِ يُرِيدَانِ أَنْ يُخْرِجَاكَ مِنْ أَرْضِكَ بِسِحْرِهِمَا وَيَذْهَبَا بِطَرِيقَتِكُمُ الْمُثَلَّى ﴿٦٣﴾ فَأَجْمِعُوا كَيْدَكُمْ ثُمَّ أَتُونَا صَفًّا وَقَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْيَوْمَ مَنْ أَسْتَعَلَى ﴿٦٤﴾

(56) Verily We showed Pharaoh (Fir'aun) all Our signs, yet he falsified and rejected. (57) He said, "Have you come to us to remove us from our land with your magic, O Mūsa?" (58) So we will certainly present the same kind of magic before you, so arrange an appointment between us, that neither us nor you will violate. Fix an open plain for this. (59) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "our appointment shall be on the day of adornment, and the people should be gathered at midmorning. (60) Then Pharaoh (Fir'aun) went back, mustered his resources and returned. (61) Mūsa told them, "Woe be to you! Do not invent lies against Allāh, for then He will annihilate you with a punishment Whoever has' invented lies has certainly lost." (62) They contested the issue between themselves and then secretly convened. (63) They said, "These are but two magicians who want to remove you from your land with their magic and destroy your excellent ways." (64) "So assemble your plans and present yourselves in rows. Only the victor shall succeed today."

PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) TERMS THE MIRACLES OF SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام AS MAGIC AND THEY FIX A TIME FOR A CONTEST WITH OTHER MAGICIANS

After Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام explained to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) about Allāh and showed him the miracles of the staff and the hand, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) still refused to believe. Allāh says, "Verily We showed Pharaoh (Fir'aun) all Our signs, yet he falsified and rejected." He said that the miracles were the products of magic and added, "Have you come to us to remove us from our land with your magic, O Mūsa?"

When Pharaoh (Fir'aun) told his courtiers that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was performing acts of magic, they advised that he send an emissary to all the towns with the express motive of gathering all the magicians to challenge Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) then said to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "So we will certainly present the same kind of magic before you, so arrange an appointment between us, that neither us nor you will violate. Fix an open plain for this."

Deeming the opportunity feasible, "Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'Your appointment shall be on the day of adornment (the day when they held their customary celebrations), and the people should be gathered at midmorning.' " This was the perfect opportunity to present the case before all the people.

Allāh says, "Then Pharaoh (Fir'aun) went back, mustered his resources and returned."

The day had not yet arrived, but Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his followers were actively plotting their moves. Seeing this, "Mūsa told them, 'Woe be to you! Do not invent lies against Allāh (by referring to the miracles given by Him to His Prophet as magic), for then He will annihilate you with a punishment. Whoever has invented lies has certainly lost."

When the magicians heard what Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام had said, "They contested the issue between themselves and then secretly convened." They decided that they would follow Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام if he defeated them. Other commentators mentioned that when the magicians heard Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام saying, "Do not invent lies against Allāh, for then He will annihilate you with a punishment," they decided not to face him. However, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) forced them to.

While some were scared of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and others desired proximity to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), they said in his presence, "These are but two magicians who want to remove you from your land with their magic and destroy your excellent ways. So assemble your plans and present yourselves in rows, only the victor shall succeed today."

Because Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his associates were worldly minded, they feared only the loss of their worldly possessions and properties. People who do not have conviction in the Hereafter always consider the loss of their worldly gains as the greatest loss. The same prevails today. Those in power always fear the loss of their authority and will do anything to maintain their positions, including openly lying to the public and even murder.

قَالُوا يَمُوسَى إِمَّا أَنْ تُلْقَى وَإِمَّا أَنْ نَكُونَ أَوَّلَ مَنْ أَلْقَى ﴿٦٥﴾ قَالَ بَلْ أَلْقُوا فَإِذَا حِجَابُهُمْ
وَعَصِيَّتُهُمْ يَخِيزُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ سِحْرِهِمْ أَنَّهَا تَسْعَى ﴿٦٦﴾ فَأَوْجَسَ فِي نَفْسِهِ خِيفَةً مُوسَى ﴿٦٧﴾
قُلْنَا لَا تَخَفْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْأَعْلَى ﴿٦٨﴾ وَالْقَى مَا فِي يَمِينِكَ تَلْقَفُ مَا صَنَعُوا إِنَّمَا صَنَعُوا
كَيْدٌ سِحْرٌ وَلَا يُفْلِحُ السَّاحِرُ حَيْثُ أَتَى ﴿٦٩﴾ فَأَلْقَى السَّحَرَةُ سُجَّدًا قَالُوا ءَامَنَّا بِرَبِّ
هَارُونَ وَمُوسَى ﴿٧٠﴾

(65) They said "O Mūsa: Either you throw; or we be first to throw. (66) He replied, "You rather throw." Then their ropes and their staffs suddenly seemed to appear like slithering snakes to him on account of their magic. (67) So Mūsa sensed a bit of fear in his heart. (68) We said, "Do not fear! You shall definitely remain high." (69) "Throw down what is in your right hand and it will devour what they have colluded. They have merely contrived the plot of a magician, and a magician will never succeed wherever he goes." (70) So the magicians were cast into prostration saying, "We believe in the Lord of Harūn and Mūsa."

THE MAGICIANS COMPETE WITH SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام AND THEN FALL INTO PROSTRATION AFTER CONCEDED DEFEAT

When the magicians appeared on the plain, "They said, 'O Mūsa! Either you throw, or we be first to throw.' He replied, 'You rather throw.' Then their ropes and their staffs suddenly seemed to appear like slithering snakes to him on account of their magic."

They mesmerised the eyes of the people and everyone thought that these were real snakes.

Witnessing this scene, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام "sensed a bit of fear in his heart." However, Allāh reassured him saying, "Do not fear! You shall definitely remain high."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام then threw down his staff at the command of Allāh, where after his snake devoured all the imaginary ones of the magicians. Allāh says, "They have merely contrived the plot of a magician, and a magnificent will never succeed wherever he goes."

In another verse, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told the magicians, "You have displayed magic. Soon Allāh shall obliterate it. Indeed Allāh does not rectify the deeds of those who spread corruption."

When the magicians realised that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was not demonstrating magic, they "were cast into prostration saying, 'We believe in the Lord of Harūn and Mūsa.'" The verse does not say that they fell into prostration, but says that they were "cast into prostration." This denotes that they were helpless in the matter and were forced to prostrate by the truth of what they saw. They even forgot the tyranny of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) at that moment.

History is witness to the fact that thousands of people have braved the tyranny of the worst types of people when true Belief (Imān) entered their hearts. Nothing could then sway them off the course of truth.

قَالَ ءَامَنْتُمْ لِمُ قَبْلَ أَنْ ءَاذَنَ لَكُمْ إِنَّهُ لَكَبِيرُكُمُ الَّذِي عَلَّمَكُمُ السِّحْرَ فَلَأُقَطِّعَنَّ
 أَيْدِيَكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ مِنْ خِلَافٍ وَلَأُصَلِّبَنَّكُمْ فِي جُذُوعِ النَّخْلِ وَلِنَعْلَمَنَّ أَيُّنَا أَشَدُّ عَذَابًا
 وَأَبْقَى ﴿٧١﴾ قَالُوا لَنْ نُؤْثِرَكَ عَلَى مَا جَاءَنَا مِنَ الْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالَّذِي فَطَرَنَا فَاقْضِ مَا أَنْتَ
 قَاضٍ إِنَّمَا تَقْضِي هَذِهِ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا ﴿٧٢﴾ إِنَّا ءَامَنَّا بِرَبِّنَا لِنَغْفِرَ لَنَا خَطَايَنَا وَمَا
 أَكْرَهْتَنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنَ السِّحْرِ وَاللَّهُ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى ﴿٧٣﴾ إِنَّهُمْ مِنْ يَأْتِ رَبَّهُمْ مَجْرِمًا فَإِنَّ لِمُ جَهَنَّمَ
 لَا يَمُوتُ فِيهَا وَلَا يَحْيَى ﴿٧٤﴾ وَمَنْ يَأْتِهِ مُؤْمِنًا قَدْ عَمِلَ الصَّالِحَاتِ فَأُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ
 الدَّرَجَاتُ الْعُلَى ﴿٧٥﴾ جَنَّتٌ عَدْنٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ مَنْ
 تَزَكَّى ﴿٧٦﴾

(71) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Do you believe in Mūsa before I permitted you? He must surely be your superior who taught you magic. I shall certainly sever your hands and your legs on opposite ends and will surely crucify you on the trunks of date palms. Then you will shortly learn who of us is more severe in punishment and whose punishment is more lingering." (72) The magicians replied, "We shall never prefer you to the clear signs that have come to us and to the One Who has created us. So do as you decide. You can only make a decision in this worldly life." (73) "We have verily believed in our Lord so that He may forgive us for our sins and for the magic that you have forced us to practise. Allāh is Best and Eternal." (74) Indeed whosoever comes to his Lord as a criminal, then his shall be Hell, where he shall neither live nor die. (75) As for him who comes to his Lord as a believer, having performed good deeds, then these people will have the lofty ranks. (76) The eternal gardens of Heaven (Jannah) beneath which rivers flow. Therein they shall abide forever. This is the reward for those who are pure.

THE MAGICIANS REPLY TO THE THREATS OF PHARAOH (FIR'OUN)

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) was publicly humiliated when the magicians believed in Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and fell into prostration. Being unable to do anything, he expressed his fury and told them, "Do you believe in Mūsa before I permitted you? He must surely be your superior who taught you magic." Surah A'rāf states that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) accused the magicians of collaborating with Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to remove the people from their land. He told them, "Do you believe in Him before I have permitted you? Surely this must be a grand scheme that you all devised in the city to remove its inhabitants from it. Soon you shall come to know!" [Surah 7, verse 123]

He then pronounced his punishment for them when he said, "I shall certainly sever your hands and your legs on opposite ends and will surely crucify you on the trunks of date palms. Then you will shortly learn who of us is more severe in punishment and whose punishment is more lingering."

He made the final statement in reference to the earlier statement of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, in which Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said, "It has been revealed to us that punishment shall be for those who falsify and turn away." Therefore Pharaoh (Fir'aun) meant to say that instead of him and his party being punished, they will see that they [the believers (Mu'minīn)] will be punished first and that his [Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's)] punishment was the most severe.

"According to another verse of the Qur'ān, the magicians remained perseverant and replied, 'indeed we shall return to our Lord.'" [Surah A'rāf (7), verse 125]

They told Pharaoh (Fir'aun), "We shall never prefer you to the clear signs that have come to us and to the One Who has created us. So do as you decide. You can only make a decision in this worldly life" i.e. you have no say in the matters of the Hereafter, where we will enjoy eternal bliss. The pain and suffering of this world is but brief.

They continued to say, "We have verily believed in our Lord so that He may forgive us for our sins and for the magic that you have forced us to practise. Allāh is Best and Eternal."

Surah Shu'arā says that they said, "We desire that our Lord forgives our sins because we have been the first believers." They realised that they should fear only Allāh and aspire only for His grace and bounty.

The verses of the Qur'ān do not mention whether Pharaoh (Fir'aun) actually carried out his threats. Allāma Ibn kathīr رحمه الله عليه believes that he did as he threatened. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Ubaid bin Umair رحمه الله عليه say that these people were magicians at the beginning of the day and martyrs by the evening.

The verses hereafter have been described as being part of the magician's speech. However, other commentators say that it is not. Allāh says, 'indeed whosoever comes to his Lord as a criminal (as a Disbeliever), then his shall be Hell, where he shall neither live nor die.' There will be no death in Hell and the life there cannot be termed as life because of its misery.

"As for him who comes to his Lord as a believer, having performed good deeds, then these people will have the lofty ranks."

Their reward shall be "The eternal gardens of Heaven (Jannah) beneath which rivers flow. Therein they shall abide forever. This is the reward for those who are pure." i.e. pure from all evils and sin.

وَلَقَدْ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ أَسْرِ بِعِبَادِي فَاضْرِبْ لَهُمْ طَرِيقًا فِي الْبَحْرِ يَبَسًا لَا تَخَفُ
دَرَكًا وَلَا تَحْشَىٰ ۚ (77) فَأَنْبَعَثَهُمْ فِرْعَوْنُ بِجُنُودِهِ ۚ فَغَشِيَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ مَا عَشِيَهُمْ (78) وَأَضَلَّ
فِرْعَوْنُ قَوْمَهُ وَمَا هَدَىٰ (79)

(77) Indeed, We revealed to Mūsa, "Leave with My bondsmen during the night, then make for them a dry road in the sea. Neither should you fear anyone pursuing you, nor should you have any other fear." (78) So Pharaoh (Fir'aun) followed them with his army and there covered them that of the sea that did cover them. (79) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) misled his nation and did not guide them.

ALLĀH COMMANDS SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام TO LEAVE WITH HIS PEOPLE DURING THE NIGHT AND NOT TO FEAR PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS ARMY PURSUE THEM AND ARE DROWNED IN THE SEA

The Bani Isrā'il had to leave Egypt to be safe from Pharaoh (Fir'aun), but he would not allow them to. However, Allāh revealed to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام saying, "Leave (Egypt) with My bondsmen during the night, then (when you reach the coast, strike the sea with your staff and) make for them a dry road in the sea. Neither should you fear anyone pursuing you, nor should you have any other fear."

It was already sunrise when Pharaoh (Fir'aun) learnt that the Bani Isrā'il had left. "So Pharaoh (Fir'aun) followed them with his army..." When the Bani Isrā'il saw the army approaching them, they thought that they would be overtaken. However, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام reassured them by telling them that Pharaoh (Fir'aun's) army will never apprehend them because "My Lord is with me and He will certainly guide me."

Then Allāh commanded him to strike the sea with his staff, causing it to divide into twelve pathways for the Bani Isrā'il to cross through. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his army followed the Bani Isrā'il, but entered the waters only after the Bani Isrā'il has already crossed over. It was then that "there covered them that of the sea that did cover them." The walls of water that stood as high as mountains crashed on to them and drowned them.

In Arabic, something is not mentioned specifically to show its large proportions. Therefore, the phrase is used "there covered them that of the sea that did cover them."

"Pharaoh (Fir'aun) misled his nation and did not guide them." He was drowned and caused all his people to drown with him.

Referring to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his followers, Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "We made them leaders who called towards the Fire. They will not be assisted in the Hereafter. We set a curse after them in this world, and on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) they shall be amongst the hateful." [Surah 28, verse 41, 42]

يَبْنَیْ اِسْرَءِیْلَ قَدْ اَنْجَيْنَاکُمْ مِنْ عَدُوِّکُمْ وَوَعَدْنَاکُمْ جَانِبَ الطُّورِ الْاَیْمَنِ وَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَیْکُمُ الْمَنَّٰ وَالسَّلْوٰی ﴿٨٠﴾ کُلُوْا مِنْ طَیِّبٰتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاکُمْ وَلَا تَطْغَوْا فِیْهِ فِیَحِلَّ عَلَیْکُمْ غَضَبِیْ وَمَنْ یَحِلَّ عَلَیْهِ غَضَبِیْ فَقَدْ هَوٰی ﴿٨١﴾ وَاِنِیْ لَغَفَّارٌ لِّمَنْ تَابَ وَءَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ صٰلِحًا ثُمَّ اهْتَدٰی

﴿٨٢﴾

(80) O Bani Isrā'il! We have certainly rescued you from your enemy, made a tryst with you at the right side of Mount Tūr and sent for you Manna and Salwā. (81) Eat from the pure things that We have provided for you and do not transgress the limits, for then My wrath shall descend on you. The one upon whom My wrath descends has certainly fallen. (82) Verily I am the Most Forgiving towards the one who repents, believes, does good deeds and is thereafter rightly guided.

ALLĀH ADDRESSES THE BANI ISRĀ'ĪL, REMINDING THEM THAT HE SAVED THEM FROM THEIR ENEMY AND GAVE THEM MANNA AND SALWA FROM THE HEAVENS

Allāh says, "O Bani Isrā'il! We have certainly rescued you from your enemy, made a tryst with you at the right side of Mount Tūr..." Allāh called Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام to the right side of Mount Tūr, where he was given the Torah. Since the Torah was for the benefit of the Bani Isrā'il, Allāh says that the appointment at Mount Tūr was an appointment for them.

Certain commentators have translated the word "ayman" (translated above as "right") as 'blessed' i.e. the tryst took place on the blessed side of the mountain. This side of the mountain was certainly blessed because the Torah was received there.

The third bounty that Allāh reminds them about is that He "... sent for you Manna and Salwa." This discussion has been given in the commentary of verse 57 of Surah Baqarah.

"Eat from the pure things that We have provided for you and do not transgress the limits..." i.e. you should not be ungrateful, should not use these things for sinful purposes, should not waste them, nor oppress others with them. Allāh then warns them of the consequences of transgression. He say that if they transgress, "then My wrath shall descend on you. The one upon whom My wrath descends certainly fallen."

"Verily I am the Most Forgiving towards the one who repents, believes, does good deeds and is thereafter rightly guided. This verses refers to repentance from disbeliefs and polytheism (shirk). It is for this reason that repentance is mentioned before belief. When a person adopts the above behaviour, then Allāh will certainly forgive him.

وَمَا أَعْجَلَكَ عَنْ قَوْمِكَ يَمُوسَى ﴿٨٣﴾ قَالَ هُمْ أُولَاءِ عَلَىٰ أَثَرِي وَعَجِلْتُ إِلَيْكَ رَبِّ لِتَرْضَىٰ ﴿٨٤﴾ قَالَ فَإِنَّا قَدْ فَتَنَّا قَوْمَكَ مِنۢ بَعْدِكَ وَأَضَلَّهُمُ السَّامِرِيُّ ﴿٨٥﴾ فَرَجَعَ مُوسَىٰ إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ غَضْبَنَ أَسْفًا قَالَ يَنْقُومِ آلَمُ يَعِدْكُمْ رَبِّكُمْ وَعَدَا حَسْبًا أَفَطَالَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْعَهْدُ أَمْ أَرَدْتُمْ أَن يَحِلَّ عَلَيْكُمْ غَضَبٌ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ فَأَخْلَفْتُم مَّوْعِدِي ﴿٨٦﴾ قَالُوا مَا أَخْلَفْنَا مَوْعِدَكَ بِمَلِكِنَا وَلَكِنَّا حَمَلْنَا أَوْزَارًا مِّن زِينَةِ الْقَوْمِ فَقَذَفْنَاهَا فَكَذَلِكَ أَلْقَى السَّامِرِيُّ ﴿٨٧﴾ فَأَخْرَجَ لَهُمْ عِجْلًا جَسَدًا لَهُم خُورٌ فَقَالُوا هَذَا إِلَهُكُمْ وَإِلَهُ مُوسَىٰ فَنَسِيَ ﴿٨٨﴾ أَفَلَا يَرَوْنَ أَنَّهُ يَرْجِعُ إِلَيْهِمْ قَوْلًا وَلَا يَمْلِكُ لَهُمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا نَفْعًا ﴿٨٩﴾ وَلَقَدْ قَالَ لَهُمْ هَارُونُ مِن قَبْلُ يَقُومِ إِنَّمَا فُتِنْتُمْ بِهِ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكُمُ الرَّحْمَنُ فَاتَّبِعُونِي وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِي ﴿٩٠﴾ قَالُوا لَن نَّبْرَحَ عَلَيْهِ عَاكِفِينَ حَتَّىٰ يَرْجِعَ إِلَيْنَا مُوسَىٰ ﴿٩١﴾ قَالَ يَهْرُونَ مَا مَنَعَكَ إِذْ رَأَيْتَهُمْ ضَلُّوا ﴿٩٢﴾ أَلَّا تَتَّبِعَنِ أَفَعَصَيْتَ أَمْرِي ﴿٩٣﴾ قَالَ يَبْنَؤُمْ لَا تَأْخُذْ بِلِحَيِّتِي وَلَا يَرَأْسِي إِنِّي خَشِيتُ أَن تَقُولَ فَرَّقْتَ بَيْنَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ وَلَمْ تَرْقُبْ قَوْلِي ﴿٩٤﴾

(83) "What has made you hasten ahead of your people, O Mūsa?" (84) He replied, "They are on my track. I have hastened to You, O my Lord, so that You be pleased." (85) Allāh said, "Indeed, We have certainly tested your people after you ) and Sāmiri has led them astray." (86) Then Mūsa عليه السلام returned to his people in anger and remorse. He said, "O my people! Has your Lord not made you a fair promise? Has too much time elapsed for you or did you wish that the wrath of your Lord descend upon you, because of which you broke the tryst made with me?" (87) They said, "We have not broken the tryst made with you of our own accord, but we were laden with the burdens of a nation and cast it off In this way Sāmiri cast the mould." (88) So he made for them a calf that was a body which made the sounds of a cow. They said, "This is your Lord and the Lord of Mūsa, but he forgot. (89) Could they not see that it could not reply to them nor did it possess the ability to benefit or harm them? (90) Harūn عليه السلام definitely told them before, "O my people! You are merely being tested with this. Without doubt, your Lord is the Merciful, so follow me and obey me." (91) They replied, "We shall certainly remain devoted to it until Mūsa returns to us." (92) Mūsa said, "O Harūn! When you saw them going astray, what prevented you..." (93) "...from coming to me? Did you disobey my instruction?" (94) Harūn said, "O son of my mother! Do not grab my beard or my head. I feared that you would say, 'You divided the Bani Isrā'īl and did not wait for my word.'"

THE BANI ISRĀ'ĪL WORSHIP A GOLDEN CALF MADE BY SĀMIRI IN THE ABSENCE OF SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام

After the Bani Isrā'īl left Egypt, they experienced many events before reaching Palestine. Of these was the revelation of the Torah and the descent of Manna and Salwa, as mentioned in the previous verses. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 227) records that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام chose 70 persons from the Bani Isrā'īl to accompany him to Mount Tūr. However, he walked ahead of them and told them to meet him there. Referring to this, Allāh asked him, "What has made you hasten ahead of your people, O Mūsa? He replied, 'They are on my track. I have hastened to You, O my Lord, so that You be pleased.'"

The women of the Bani Isrā'īl had borrowed jewellery from the Coptic women to use in a celebration of theirs. However, they never got the opportunity to return it because they had to leave Egypt very suddenly one night. When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام left for Mount Tūr, Sāmiri (who was a goldsmith) gathered all this gold jewellery and cast the mould of a calf. Since this calf was made to emit the sounds of a cow, people began to worship it.

While Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was at the mountain, Allāh informed him of the proceeding by telling them, "Indeed, We have certainly tested your people after you and Sāmiri has led them astray."

"Then Mūsa عليه السلام returned to his people in anger and remorse. He said, 'O my people! Has your Lord not made you a fair promise? (You were supposed to await my return with the Torah.) Has too much time elapsed for you (Did I go away for such a long period that you lost hope of receiving the Torah?) or did you (deliberately) wish that the wrath of your Lord descend upon you, because of which you broke the tryst made with me?'"

The Bani Isrā'īl replied most foolishly. "They said, 'We have not broken the tryst made with you of our own accord, but we were laden with the burdens of a the nation (i.e. the jewellery of the Coptic women) and cast it off. In this way Sāmiri cast the mould.

"So he made for them a calf that was a body which made the sounds of a cow. They said, 'This is your Lord and the Lord of Mūsa, but he forgot.' They claimed that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام forgot that this was his Lord (Allāh forbid!) and rather went to the mountain to get the Torah there.

The Bani Isrā'īl had grown accustomed to seeing the Copts worshipping idols (including the 'Cow). Since it was their desire to do that same, that they once told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام that he should make an idol for them as well (this they said after crossing the sea, as was discussed in verse 138 of Surah A'rāf). Therefore, when Sāmiri made the calf, they easily succumbed to the temptation of worshipping it. They were so intoxicated by their passions and foolishness that they even claimed that the calf was Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام's Lord. Their centuries' old exposure' to polytheism (shirk) finally took its toll on them.

Allāh expresses their ignorance when he says, "Could they not see that it (the calf) could not reply to them nor did it possess the ability to benefit or harm them?" It is obvious that such a creature can never be worshipped.

The statement of the Bani Isrā'īl that "We have not broken the tryst made with you of our own accord," was intended to place the blame squarely on the shoulders of Sāmiri. However, this does not absolve them from blame because Sāmiri did not force them to worship the calf.

"....but we were laden with the burdens of the nation and cast it off" Some commentators say that Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام told them that they were sinful because they had the possessions of others with them. Therefore, the jewellery was a burden of sin for them. He advised them to rather throw it away.

Other commentators say that Sāmiri advised them in this manner, but used this as a ploy to gather all the gold for the calf.

When wealth is seized from the disbelievers in war, it will become halāl booty for the Muslims. However, this applies only to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Booty was not permissible for the previous Ummahs. Another aspect to consider is that the Bani Isrā'īl merely borrowed the jewellery from the Copts. Therefore, it was given to them as a trust, which they were obliged to return.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم migrated for Madinah, he had many possessions of the disbelievers with him, which they kept as trusts with him. However, he ensured that these were returned to them by leaving Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه at his house to discharge this responsibility.

Even if it is proven that the jewellery was in the class of booty, it would still not be permissible for the people because it was not distributed properly. Later on Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did as the previous Prophets عليهم السلام always did to the booty i.e. burn it (as will be mentioned in the forthcoming verses). However, the booty of the previous Prophets عليهم السلام was always burnt by a fire that came from the skies. The calf was not burnt in this manner because its burning in a natural manner served to teach the Bani Isrā'īl that the very thing that they claimed was a god could be burnt like any other thing of this world.

The burning of the calf by Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام therefore represented the burning of booty by the heavenly fire. By understanding this, one will not object to the fact that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام burnt the possessions of other people and should therefore be responsible for it. It is also not possible to raise this objection because the leader of the believers (Amīrul Mu'minīn) has the right to destroy objects of sin.

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام left for the mountain, he left his brother Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام in charge. Therefore, when they began worshipping the calf, "Harūn عليه السلام definitely told them before, 'O my people! You are merely being tested with it. Without doubt, your Lord is the Merciful, so follow me and obey me.'"

However, the calf was now a part of their own souls. They therefore refused to listen to him and said, "We shall certainly remain devoted to it until Mūsa returns to us."

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did return, he could not contain his emotions. He cast down the tablets of the Torah, breaking some of them, and grabbed the beard and head of Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام saying, "O Harūn! When you saw them going astray, what prevented you from coming to me? Did you disobey my instruction?"

"Harūn said, 'O son of my mother! Do not grab my beard or my head. I feared that you would say, 'You divided the Bani Isrā'īl and did not wait for my word....'"

Verse 150 of Surah A'rāf states that Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "O my mother's son! Verily the people regarded me to be weak and nearly killed me. So let not the enemies laugh at me and do not count me among the oppressive folk." Thereafter "Mūsa said, 'O my Lord! Forgive me and my brother and enter us in Your mercy. Surely You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Receiving information regarding an incident is not the same as witnessing it one's self. When Allāh informed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام that the Bani Isrā'īl were worshipping a calf, he was not as greatly affected as to throw down the tablets of the Torah. However, when he witnessed it himself, he cast them aside in utter disbelief, causing them to break." [The Musnad of Ahmad v. 1 p. 271]

Allāh says Surah A'rāf, "When the anger of Mūsa abated, he took hold of the tablets. Written in its script was guidance and mercy for those who fear their Lord." [Surah 7, verse 154]

Commentators mention that there were three groups among the Bani Isrā'īl at that time. The first group of 12000 were with Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام. The second were from those who worshipped the calf, but intended to abandon this practice once Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام forbade them. The third group adamantly refused to forsake their worship even after the return of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. They were the ones who claimed that the calf was also the Lord of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

When Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام heard the reply of the second two groups, he separated himself and his group of 12000 from them. When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام returned, he told him that he had disassociated from these people but thought it improper to fight them for it would have caused more dissention and division among the Bani Isrā'īl.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام accepted this reason and prayed to Allāh to forgive both of them.

قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكَ يَسْمِيرِيُّ ﴿٩٥﴾ قَالَ بَصُرْتُ بِمَا لَمْ يَبْصُرُوا بِهِ فَقَبَضْتُ قَبْضَةً
 مِنْ أَثَرِ الرَّسُولِ فَنَبَذْتُهَا وَكَذَلِكَ سَوَّلَتْ لِي نَفْسِي ﴿٩٦﴾ قَالَ فَاذْهَبْ
 فَإِنَّ لَكَ فِي الْحَيَاةِ أَنْ تَقُولَ لَا مِسَاسَ وَإِنَّ لَكَ مَوْعِدًا لَنْ تُخْلَفَهُ وَانْظُرْ إِلَى
 إِلَهِكَ الَّذِي ظَلْتَ عَلَيْهِ عَاكِفًا لَنُحَرِّقَنَّهُ ثُمَّ لَنَنْسِفَنَّهُ فِي الْيَمِّ نَسْفًا ﴿٩٧﴾
 إِنَّمَا إِلَهُكُمُ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَسِعَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا ﴿٩٨﴾

(95) Mūsa said, "What have you to say, O Sāmiri?" (96) He replied, "I saw what they did not see. So I took a handful from the tracks of the messenger and cast it. Thus did my soul entice me. (97) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "Go! Your punishment in this world shall be that you wander around saying, 'Do not touch!' You certainly have an appointment that you cannot miss. Look at your deity that you remained so devoted to. We will surely burn it and then scatter it well in the ocean." (98) Your deity is only Allāh, besides Whom there is no other deity. His knowledge encompasses everything.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام SPEAKS TO SĀMIRI, CURSES HIM AND BURNS THE CALF

After addressing the Bani Isrā'il and Sayyidina Harūn عليه السلام, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام turned his attention towards Sāmiri. "Mūsa said, 'What have you to say, O Sāmiri?' He replied, 'I saw what they did not see. So I took a handful from the tracks of the messenger and, cast it. Thus did my soul entice me.'"

While some commentators mention that Sāmiri was from the Bani Isrā'il, others maintain that he was from the Copts of Egypt and crossed the sea with the Bani Isrā'il pretending to be a believer. When Jibril عليه السلام used to come on horseback to assist the Bani Isrā'il, Sāmiri noticed that every piece of ground on which the horse stepped used to flourish. Realising that the ground was unique, he placed a handful of it in the calf. He referred to this when he told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "So I took a handful from the tracks of the messenger and cast it."

The question is asked how did Sāmiri recognise Jibril عليه السلام? The reply is quite simple. Just as Allāh made him realise that the tracks of the horse caused the earth to flourish, so too did Allāh cause him to realise the identity of the horseman.

The author of "Durrul Manthūr" and others have reported that Sāmiri was born to a woman of the Bani Isrā'il. Fearing that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) would kill her child, she hid him in a cave. Allāh sent Jibril عليه السلام to tend to the child. Allāh also caused honey to emerge from the one finger and milk from the other for the child. Therefore, Sāmiri could recognise Jibril عليه السلام.

The soil (soil : dust taken beneath the horse of Jibr'il عليه السلام has life giving power.) taken from beneath the horse of Jibril عليه السلام caused the calf to give off the lowing sounds of a cow. The foolishness of the polytheists causes them to worship anything that seems to be against the norm. Therefore, the Bani Isrā'il were so taken aback by the realistic nature of the calf that they failed to realise that even if it were real, it was still not worthy of being worshipped.

It is often the trickery of many false saints that they exert themselves to practise a strange skill so that people fall head over heels for them.

Addressing Sāmiri, "Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'Go! (Because you beguiled people to be attracted to you) Your punishment in this world shall be that you wander around saying, 'Do not touch!'" Allāh made it such that whenever someone touched Sāmiri, or he touched anyone, both persons would be immediately affected by severe fever. Therefore, people stayed far from him and he vehemently avoided them.

That was his punishment in this world. With regard to the Hereafter, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told him, "You certainly have an appointment (with punishment) that you cannot miss."

The Hindus of India hold beliefs with regard to the worship of cows and touching. It is possible that they were influenced by the Bani Isrā'īl and Sāmiri in these beliefs. They could have attached some customary importance to the punishment of Sāmiri, resulting in their present-day practices.

To emphasise to Sāmiri and to all his followers that their calf was not worthy of worship, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told him, 'Look at your deity that you remained so devoted to. We will surely burn it and then scatter it well in the ocean.' It is also possible that the Hindus derived their practice of cremation and casting the ashes into a river from this.

Another question that arises is that how could the calf burn to ashes when it was made from gold and silver? It ought to melt instead. Some commentators have mentioned that the sand that caused it to make sounds transformed it into a living calf of flesh and blood. Other commentators say that the calf was first broken to pieces before being burnt. However, this will still not cause it to burn to ashes.

The best reply therefore, is to say that Allāh caused the gold and silver to become ashes. Nothing is impossible for Him. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 63]

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام continued to say, "Your deity is only Allāh, besides Whom there is no other deity. His knowledge encompasses everything." The last sentence refutes the beliefs of all polytheists because if their gods and idols have no knowledge of even themselves, how can they possibly compare with Allāh, Whose "knowledge encompasses everything?"

كَذَلِكَ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ مَا قَدْ سَبَقَ وَقَدْ آتَيْنَاكَ مِنْ لَدُنَّا ذِكْرًا ۖ مَنْ أَعْرَضَ
عَنْهُ فَإِنَّهُ يَحْمِلُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وِزْرًا ۖ (100) خَلْدَيْنِ فِيهِ ۖ وَسَاءَ لَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ حِمْلًا ۖ (101)
يَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّورِ وَنَحْشُرُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ يَوْمَئِذٍ زُرْقًا ۖ يَخْفَتُونَ يَنْتَهُمُ إِنْ لَيْسَتْ
إِلَّا عَشْرًا ۖ (103) نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ إِذْ يَقُولُ أَمْثَلُهُمْ طَرِيقَةً إِنْ لَيْسَتْ إِلَّا يَوْمًا

(99) Thus do We narrate to you some of the incidents that have passed. We have certainly given you advice from Ourselves. (100) Whoever turns away from it will surely carry a burden on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). (101) They will remain in this condition forever. It shall be a terrible burden indeed for them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). (102) The day when the trumpet will be blown and the criminals shall be gathered with blue eyes. (103) They will whisper to each other saying, "You have tarried only for ten days. (104) We know best what they speak, when the most sensible of them will say, "You have only tarried for a single day."

THOSE WHO ARE AVERSE TO ALLĀH'S ADVICE WILL CARRY A BURDEN ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH), THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE RAISED WITH BLUE EYES AND PEOPLE WILL THINK THAT THEY LIVED ONLY FOR A DAY IN THE WORLD

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that just as he has been informed about the story of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "Thus do We narrate to you some of the incidents that have passed. We have certainly given you advice from Ourselves." This refers to the Qur'ān, which is a universal advice to the creation.

Those who take heed to this advice will attain salvation. However, "Whoever turns away from it will surely carry a burden (of disbeliefs) on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). They will remain in this condition (of punishment) forever."

"It shall be a terrible burden indeed for them on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). The day when the trumpet will be blown..." When the trumpet is blown the first time, everything in existence will cease to remain alive and will be destroyed. Thereafter, when it is blown for the second time, people will be raised from their graves. Then "the criminals (the disbelievers) shall be gathered with blue eyes." This will be a sign of the disbelievers on the day of Judgement.

The disbelievers will be so terrified on that day that they will question each other as to how long were they in their graves. Allāh says, "They will whisper to each other saying, 'You have tarried only for ten days. ... While they always denied resurrection, they will now be totally surprised to learn that they have already been raised.

"We know best what they speak, when the most sensible of them will say, 'You have tarried only for a single day.'" This person will have tendered the best reply because the entire period in the grave will only seem like a day when compared to the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Allāh mentioned in verse 97 of Surah Isrā (Surah 17), "We shall raise them on their faces on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), blind, dumb and deaf" Since the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) will be so lengthy, people will undergo various changes during its course. The various verses of the Qur'ān refer to these various stages.

Allāh says in Surah Rūm, "When the day when Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn, the criminals will swear on oath saying, 'We never tarried more than a moment.'"

[Surah 30, verse 55]

The concluding verse of Surah Nāzi'āt states, "The day when they will witness Judgment (Qiyāmah), it will seem to them that they only tarried an evening or a morning." The above are all opinions of various people on the day of Judgement.

وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْجِبَالِ فَقُلْ يَنْسِفُهَا رَبِّي نَسْفًا ﴿١٠٥﴾ فَيَذَرُهَا قَاعًا صَفْصَفًا ﴿١٠٦﴾ لَا تَرَى فِيهَا عِوَجًا وَلَا أَمْتًا ﴿١٠٧﴾ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَتَّبِعُونَ الدَّاعِيَ لَا عِوَجَ لَهُمْ وَخَشَعَتِ الْأَصْوَاتُ لِلرَّحْمَنِ فَلَا تَسْمَعُ إِلَّا هَمْسًا ﴿١٠٨﴾ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَا تَنْفَعُ الشَّفَعَةُ إِلَّا مَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ وَرَضِيَ لَهُ قَوْلًا ﴿١٠٩﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَلَا يُحِيطُونَ بِهِ عِلْمًا ﴿١١٠﴾ وَعَنْتِ الْأَوْجُهُ لِلْحَيِّ الْقَيُّومِ وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ حَمَلَ ظُلْمًا ﴿١١١﴾ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِنَ الصَّالِحَاتِ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَا يَخَافُ ظُلْمًا وَلَا هَضْمًا ﴿١١٢﴾

(105) They ask you about the mountains. Say, "My Lord shall completely remove them (106) "... leaving the earth as a barren plain..." (107) "... on which you will not see any protrusions, nor any depressions. (108) On that day they will follow the caller before whom there will be no crookedness. Voices will be lowered before the Merciful and you will hear only the sound of footsteps. (109) On that day intercession will benefit only those whom the Merciful permits and whose speech He is pleased with. (110) He knows what is before them and what is behind them, while they will be unable to encompass His knowledge. (111) All faces will bow before The Living, The Controller. The one who carried oppression will certainly be lost. (112) Whoever carried out good deeds as a believer will not have to fear any oppression, nor any shortage.

ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) THE EARTH WILL BE A BARREN PLAIN, VOICES WILL BE LOWERED, HEADS WILL BE BOWED BEFORE ALLĀH AND INTERCESSION WILL PROFIT ONLY THOSE WHO RECEIVE ALLĀH'S PERMISSION

"Ma'alimut Tanzil" (v. 3 p. 231) reports that a person from the Bani Thaḳīf tribe asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "What will become of the mountains on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)?" In response to this, Allāh revealed the above verses saying, "They ask you about the mountains. Say, 'My Lord shall completely remove them...' "Allāh shall cause the mountains to be smashed to pieces.

Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "When the earth shall convulse with violent earthquakes and the mountains will be shattered to pieces and become like scattered dust." [Surah 56, verses 4-6]

Surah Qāri'ah says, "The mountains will become like carded wool." [Surah 101, verse 5]

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to describe the earth on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) as "Say, 'My Lord shall completely remove them (the mountains), leaving the earth as a barren plain, on which you will not see any protrusions, nor any depressions."

"On that day they will follow the caller before whom there will be no crookedness." People will be forced to follow only the caller towards the plains of reckoning. They will be unable to deviate to another path.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 264) reports that "the caller" will be Israfil عليه السلام. After blowing the trumpet for the second time, he will stand upon the rock at Baitul Muqaddas i.e. beneath the dome of the rock. From there he will make the following announcement, "O decomposed bones! O shredded skins! O disjoined pieces of flesh! Come forth to the Merciful!" Hearing this, all of mankind will proceed to the plains of reckoning.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" states that people will neither be able to turn to the left nor to the right. They will swiftly follow the caller.

"Voices will be lowered before the Merciful and you will hear only the sound of footsteps." All speech will be whispered on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), as was mentioned before "They will whisper to each other saying, 'You have tarried only for ten days.'" Even those people who spoke loudly, proudly and boisterously in the world will not be able to raise their voices.

"On that day intercession will benefit only those whom the Merciful permits and whose speech He is pleased with." Every person will not be able to intercede, and even the pious people who are worthy of interceding will not be able to do so until Allāh permits them.

Allāh says in the Ayatul Kursi, "Who is there to intercede before Him without His permission?" [Surah 2, verse 255]

No disbeliever will be able to intercede at all, nor will any believer (Mu'min) be allowed to intercede on behalf of a disbeliever. Those verses that negate intercession refer to intercession on behalf of the disbelievers e.g. Allāh says in Surah Mu'min, "The oppressors shall have no friend, nor any intercessor who will be obeyed." [Surah 40, verse 18]

"He knows what is before them and what is behind them, while they will be unable to encompass His knowledge." "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 16 p. 225) says that another interpretation of this verses is that the creation can never perceive the true reality of Allāh with all His attributes.

"All faces will bow before The Living, The Controller. - The creation will be helpless before Allāh, even those who were proud in this world.

"The one who carried oppression will certainly be lost." The greatest oppression is disbeliefs and polytheism (shirk). All other forms of oppression are also implied in this verse

On the other hand, "Whoever carried out good deeds as a believer will not have to fear any oppression, nor any shortage." In fact, the rewards for their deeds will be multiplied many fold.

Allāh says in verse 40 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), "Undoubtedly Allāh does not oppress even the weight of an atom. If it be a good deed, He shall multiply it and confer from His side a tremendous reward."

Says Allāh in Surah Jinn, "Whoever believes in his Lord will not fear any stint or injustice." [Surah 72, verse 13]

The condition attached to this verse is Belief (Imān). The person who does not have Belief (Imān) will not receive any rewards for his deeds.

وَكَذَلِكَ أَنزَلْنَاهُ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا وَصَرَّفْنَا فِيهِ مِنَ الْوَعِيدِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَنْقُونَ أَوْ يُحْدِثُ لَهُمْ ذِكْرًا
فَنَعْلَى اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ وَلَا تَعْجَلْ بِالْقُرْآنِ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يُقْضَىٰ إِلَيْكَ
وَحْيُهُ وَقُلْ رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا

(113) Thus have We revealed it as an Arabic Qur'ān and expounded in it various warnings so that they fear or that it creates some type of understanding within them. (114) Exalted is Allāh, the Sovereign, the Truth. Do not be hasty with the Qur'ān before its revelation is completed to you. And say "O my Lord! Increase my knowledge."

ALLĀH SAYS THAT THE QUR'ĀN WAS REVEALED IN ARABIC, CONTAINING VARIOUS WARNINGS AND THAT THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم SHOULD PRAY FOR MORE KNOWLEDGE

Allāh begins the discussion of the Qur'ān by saying, "Thus have We revealed it as an Arabic Qur'ān..." Since the Qur'ān was revealed in the language of the Arabs and they understood the eloquence and miraculous nature of its text, they had no reason to reject it.

In addition to, this, Allāh says that He "expounded in it various warnings so that they fear or (if they do not inculcate piety (Taqwa) within themselves, then at least it is hoped) that it creates some type of understanding within them."

"Exalted is Allāh, the Sovereign, the Truth." It is therefore incumbent that a person believes in and worships Allāh. Whoever does not will be harming only himself.

Thereafter Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Do not be hasty with the Qur'ān before its revelation is completed to you." When Jibril عليه السلام used to recite the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the latter used to hastily repeat that words, fearing that he would forget them. In this way, he tired himself greatly. Allāh advises him not to do so, but to rather wait until Jibril عليه السلام has completed the recitation of that particular piece of revelation.

Allāh says in Surah Qiyāmah, "Do not move your tongue in haste (to recite the Qur'ān). Its collection and recitation is Our responsibility. So once We have recited it, then repeat the recitation. Then the explanation is Our task." [Surah 75, verse 16-19]

Allāh reduced the strain from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this verse. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that this command was revealed because sometimes it may occur that something is not heard properly while a person is reciting something else.

“And say ‘O my Lord! Increase my knowledge.’” This includes further revelation of the Qur’ān as well as the other types of knowledge that Allāh can bestow on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whereby Allāh’s recognition is attained. A believer (Mu’min) should always aspire to increase his knowledge and never be satisfied with what he already knows.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “A believer (Mu’min) is never satisfied with merely hearing something until he reaches Heaven (Jannah).” [Mishkāṭ p. 44]

وَلَقَدْ عَهِدْنَا إِلَىٰ آدَمَ مِن قَبْلِ فَنَسَىٰ وَلَمْ يُحْدِثْ لَهُ عَزْمًا ﴿١١٥﴾ وَإِذْ قُلْنَا
لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ أَبَىٰ ﴿١١٦﴾ فَقُلْنَا يَتَّعَدُمُ إِنَّ
هَذَا عَدُوٌّ لَّكَ وَلِزَوْجِكَ فَلَا يُخْرِجُكَ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ فَتَشْقَىٰ ﴿١١٧﴾ إِنَّ لَكَ أَلَّا تَجُوعَ
فِيهَا وَلَا تَعْرَىٰ ﴿١١٨﴾ وَأَنَّكَ لَا تَظْمَأُ فِيهَا وَلَا تَصْحَىٰ ﴿١١٩﴾ فَوَسْوَسَ إِلَيْهِ
الشَّيْطَانُ قَالَ يَتَّعَدُمُ هَلْ أَدُلُّكَ عَلَىٰ شَجَرَةٍ خَالِدٍ وَمُلْكٍ لَا يَبُلَىٰ ﴿١٢٠﴾ فَأَكَلَا
مِنْهَا فَبَدَتْ لَهُمَا سَوْآتُهُمَا وَطَفِقَا يَخْصِفَانِ عَلَيْهِمَا مِن وَرَقِ الْجَنَّةِ وَعَصَىٰ آدَمُ
رَبَّهُ فَنَوَىٰ ﴿١٢١﴾ ثُمَّ أَجْنَبَهُ رَبُّهُ فَأَبَىٰ عَلَيْهِ وَهَدَىٰ ﴿١٢٢﴾ قَالَ أَهْبِطَا مِنْهَا جَمِيعًا
بَعْضُكُم لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ فَأِمَّا يَا أَبْنَاءَ كُفٍّ مِّنِّي هُدَىٰ فَمَنِ اتَّبَعَ هُدَايَ فَلَا يَضِلُّ
وَلَا يَشْقَىٰ ﴿١٢٣﴾

(115) Undoubtedly We commanded Ādam before, but he forgot and We did not find him to be resolute. (116) When We told the angels, “Prostrate before Ādam,” so they all prostrated, except for Satan (Iblīs). He refused. (117) So We said, “O Ādam! Indeed he is an enemy to you and your wife, so he should never remove the two of you from Heaven (Jannah), causing you to be unfortunate.” (118) “Without doubt you shall never be hungry nor naked here. (119) “You will never be thirsty here, nor will you be exposed to sunlight.” (120) However, Satan (Shayṭān) whispered to him saying, “O Ādam! Should I not show you the tree of eternity and a kingdom in which there is no weakness?” (121) So they both ate from there and their private parts became exposed to each other. They then started covering themselves with the leaves of Heaven (Jannah). Ādam disobeyed the command of his Lord and fell into error. (122) Thereafter his Lord chose him, accepted his repentance and made him steadfast on guidance. (123) Allāh said, “The two of you should go down from here and you (your progeny) will be enemies to each other. If there should ever come to you guidance from Me, then whoever will follow My guidance shall never go astray, nor shall he be unfortunate.”

SATAN (SHAYTĀN) ENTICES SAYYIDINA ĀDAM AND HAWWA عَلَيْهِمَا السَّلام TO EAT FROM THE FORBIDDEN TREE, AFTER WHICH THEY ARE SENT DOWN TO EARTH

The detailed account of the story of Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلام and his wife Sayyidah Hawwa عَلَيْهِ السَّلام was discussed in Surah Baqarah and Surah A'rāf. Thereafter, brief mention was also made about Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلام in Surah Hijr and Surah Bani Isrā'īl.

In the first of the above verses, Allāh says that He 'commanded Ādam before (not to eat from the tree), but he forgot and We did not find him to be resolute.'

Thereafter Allāh relates the incident in detail. He says, "When We told the angels, 'Prostrate before Ādam,' so they all prostrated, except for Iblīs. He refused." Iblīs then argued that he was better than Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلام because he was created from fire and Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلام was created from soil.

Allāh then warned Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلام saying, "O Ādam! Indeed he is an enemy to you and your wife, so he should never remove the two of you from Heaven (Jannah), causing you to be unfortunate." i.e. if you are sent to earth, you will encounter all sorts of difficulties and adversities, unlike Heaven (Jannah). As for Heaven (Jannah), Allāh told him. "Without doubt you shall never be hungry nor naked here. You will never be thirsty here, nor will you be exposed to sunlight."

When Satan (Shaytān) was cursed and expelled from Heaven (Jannah), he resolved to get Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلام also out of Heaven (Jannah) and mislead his progeny on earth. Therefore satan (Shaytān) tempted them to eat from the forbidden tree. He told them, "Your Lord has prohibited you from this tree so that you do not become two angels and so that the two of you do not become of the immortal. He took an oath before them saying, 'Most assuredly I am definitely an advisor to you!'" [Surah A'rāf (7), verses 20,21]

Referring to the same, he also said, "O Ādam! Should I not show you the tree of eternity and a kingdom in which there is no weakness?"

As a result of his deceit and oaths, they succumbed. Allāh says, "So they both ate from there and their private parts became exposed to each other. They then started covering themselves with the leaves of Heaven (Jannah). Ādam disobeyed the command of his Lord and fell into error."

The Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلام and the various divine scriptures have allied.

Allāh told them, 'Did I not forbid you from that tree and warned you that Satan (Shaytān) is your open enemy?' However, like true believers (Mu'minīn), they both realised their folly and submitted to Allāh saying, "O our Lord, we have oppressed our souls and if You do not forgive us and show mercy to us we will surely be of the losers." [Surah A'rāf (7) verses 22/23]

Consequently, "Thereafter his Lord chose him, accepted his repentance and made him steadfast on guidance." Although Allāh forgave him, Allāh had already predestined that he should be a vicegerent on earth. Therefore, "Allāh said, 'The two of you should go down from here and you (your progeny) will be enemies to each other.'" One of the duties of the vicegerent is to maintain peace and harmony between the warring factions.

Allāh addresses man saying, "if there should ever come to you guidance from Me, then whoever will follow My guidance shall never go astray, nor shall he be unfortunate."

The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام and the various divine scripture have already come. Even though there will be no more Prophets عليهم السلام after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the work of propagation (Da'wah and Tabligh) and [Enjoining good and forbidding evil "Amr Bil Ma'rūf Wan Nahy Anil Munkar"] still continue. The Qur'ān and the Ahādith are still present before man. Following these man can still reach the elevated position of Heaven (Jannah) from where his great grandparents, Sayyidina Ādam and Hawwa عليه السلام came from.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that Allāh will keep that person rightly guided in this world who follows the Qur'ān, and Allāh will save him from an evil reckoning on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). This is because Allāh says, "whoever will follow My guidance shall never go astray, nor shall he be unfortunate."

A FEW IMPORTANT NOTES

Note: Explaining the verse, "Undoubtedly We commanded Ādam before, but he forgot," the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام forgot the command not to eat from the tree because he failed to attach importance to the instruction. It is for this reason that Allāh explained the point by saying, "We did not find him to be resolute." Therefore, if he had attached importance to the command and not allowed himself to succumb to forgetfulness, he would have been more resolute. In this way he could have averted the error.

Another interpretation of "We did not find him to be resolute," is that he was unable to resist the temptation of eating from the tree. "Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported from other commentators that the verse means that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام never resolved to sin, but it happened in a moment of negligence.

Even the Prophets عليهم السلام are prone to err, because they are human. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I am but a human like yourselves. I also forget just like how you forget." [Mishkāt p. 92]

The question then arises, that if it was merely an error, why was it necessary for him to seek forgiveness, and why was Allāh displeased? One reply to this question is that he was not taken to task because of the erroneous deed, but for the fact that he did not pay heed to the command, thereby allowing himself to forget. He could have made an undertaking with his wife that they should remind each other should the deed occur.

It once happened on a journey that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم went to sleep just before Fajr. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed Sayyidina Bilāl رضي الله عنه to remain awake and to wake them for Fajr Salāh. However, he also fell asleep and they all missed the Salāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم, "If any of you misses Salāh because of sleep or forgetting it, and he then awakens with a fright, he should perform it as if he were performing it in its proper time." [Mishkāt p. 67]

In this incident the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took the precaution of appointing Sayyidina Bilāl رضي الله عنه before going to sleep. However, Sayyidina Adam عليه السلام did not take any precautions to prevent the error. It is for this reason that he was reprimanded.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله has mentioned [v.11 p. 251] that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was reprimanded purely for his error, although the average person would not be. The reason for this is that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was a person of high rank and such behaviour was thus not becoming of him.

It is not possible to doubt the innocence of the Prophets عليهم السلام from this incident because Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام did not sin, but he erred. Furthermore, the error occurred before his Prophethood was made evident and it occurred in the heavens, where no person is bound to the Shari'ah.

Many Scholars (Ulama) have mentioned that no Prophet can be guilty of disbeliefs and lying before announcing their Prophethood. Besides these two sins, the possibility exists that they can commit any other sin.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was actually tricked by Satan (Shaytān) into thinking that he would remain in Heaven (Jannah) forever by eating from the tree. Conversely, he was then required to leave Heaven (Jannah). [v. 16 p. 274]

Note: Allāh said, "O Ādam! Indeed he is an enemy to you and your wife, so he should never remove the two of you from Heaven (Jannah), causing you to be unfortunate." The end of this verse should actually read, "..... causing the two of you to be unfortunate" because both of them are being addressed. Scholars (Ulama) have deduced from this that it is the duty of the husband to earn. If he does not provide for his family, he will be held responsible and will have to face the consequences not her.

Note: Despite the multitude of bounties of Heaven (Jannah), Allāh reminded Sayyidina Ādam and Hawwa عليه السلام of only a few when He said, "Without doubt you shall never be hungry nor naked here. You will never be thirsty here, nor will you be exposed to sunlight."

Certain Scholars (Ulama) have deduced from this that the basic necessities of a human are food, drink, clothing and shelter. The rest are all superfluous. Sayyidina Uthmān رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the child of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام has a right only to three things. These are (1) a house to live in, (2) sufficient clothing to conceal his private parts, and (3) a piece of bread and water. [Tirmidhi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned, "The person who awakens in safe conditions, in good health and with enough food for the day, then it is as if he has gained the entire world." [Tirmidhi]

Another necessity of life is marriage because it safeguards one's chastity and allows reproduction. It has not been mentioned in the above verse because Sayyidina Ādam and Hawwa عليهما السلام already had each other in wedlock.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "When a person marries, then half of his Belief (Imān) has been safeguarded. He should then fear Allāh for the other half." [Mishkāt p. 268]

Some people who deemed themselves to be poor once came to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه. One of them asked him, "Are we not poor immigrants?" Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه asked, "Do you have a wife from whom you find comfort?" When he replied in the affirmative, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه asked, "Do you have a home to live in?" When he again replied in the affirmative, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه said, "You are then from the wealthy people." The person then added that he even had a slave. Thereupon Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه said, "You are then from the kings." [Muslim]

Note: Allāh is the Creator and Master of all creation. He chooses whom He wills to be Prophets عليهم السلام. If they commit any errors, He shall deal with them as He pleases. However, other people have no say in the matter. We have no right to say that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was a sinner, nor should we talk about their mistakes. We may express only what Allāh has said in the Qur'ān, but should never quote other narrations that defile them in any way.

This is especially important when Allāh Himself has declared that He pardoned them, as He says above about Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, "Thereafter his Lord chose him, accepted his repentance and made him steadfast on guidance."

Allāh says in Surah Nūn about Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام, "His Lord chose him and made him among the righteous." [Surah 68, verse 50]

A person should consider how bad he will feel if another calls his grandfather a sinner. Worse still is attributing this name (sinner) to the father of mankind.

وَمَنْ أَعْرَضَ عَنْ ذِكْرِي فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا وَنَحْشُرُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَعْمَى
 (124) قَالَ رَبِّ لِمَ حَشَرْتَنِي أَعْمَى وَقَدْ كُنْتُ بَصِيرًا (125) قَالَ كَذَلِكَ أَنتَ أَبْنَاتُ
 فَنَسِينَهَا ۖ وَكَذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ نُنْسِي ۖ وَكَذَلِكَ نُجْزِي مَنْ أَشْرَفَ وَلَمْ يُؤْمِنْ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ
 وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَشَدُّ وَأَبْقَى (126) أَفَلَمْ يَهْدِ لَهُمْ كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ يَمْشُونَ
 فِي مَسْكِينَهُمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّأُولِي النُّهَى (127)

(124) Whoever turns away from My advice shall surely have a narrowed life, and We shall raise him blind on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). (125) He will say, "O my Lord! Why have you raised me blind when I was indeed a seeing one?" (126) Allāh will say, "Thus did Our verses come to you, but you forgot them. In the same way you will be forgotten today." (127) Thus do We punish those who transgress the limits and do not believe in the verses of their Lord. The punishment of the Hereafter is undoubtedly more severe and more lasting. (128)

Were they not guided by the fact that We destroyed many nations before them, in whose localities they now walk? There are definitely signs in this for the intelligent ones.

THE PUNISHMENT OF THOSE WHO ARE AVERSE TO ALLĀH'S ADVICE AND DO NOT TAKE LESSON FROM THE RUINS OF PREVIOUS NATIONS

At the end of the incident of Sayyidina Ādam and Hawwa عليهما السلام, Allāh said, "The two of you should go down from here and your people will be enemies to each other. If there should ever come to you guidance from Me, then whoever will follow My guidance shall never go astray, nor shall he be unfortunate."

Now Allāh mentions the plight of those who fail to comply to Allāh's advice and reminders. Allāh says, "Whoever turns away from My advice shall surely have a narrowed life..." While some commentators have interpreted "My advice" as the Qur'ān, others say that it refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself. In essence, both are applicable because the Ahadīth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were all revelation from Allāh as well.

Ibn Kathīr has reported a hadith from the "Musnad of Bazzār" that "a narrowed life" refers to the punishment in the grave. He has also quoted other interpretations of "a narrowed life". [v. 3 p. 169]

The general reference of the verse allows one to assume that "a narrowed life" denotes the life of this world. Although the disbelievers and sinners seem to be extremely affluent in this world, they do not have any peace and contentment in their lives. They are constantly plagued with worries and are continuously struck with calamities and disasters.

As far as their punishment in the Hereafter is concerned, Allāh says, "..... and We shall raise him blind on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). He will say, 'O my Lord! Why have you raised me blind when I was indeed a seeing one?'"

"Allāh will say, 'Thus did Our verses come to you (in the world), but you forgot them (i.e. turned a blind eye to them). In the same way you will be forgotten today.'" i.e. He will be left forever in Hell.

"Thus do We punish those who transgress the limits and do not believe in the verses of their Lord. The punishment of the Hereafter is undoubtedly more severe and more lasting." Every disbeliever will suffer this punishment.

"Were they not guided by the fact that We destroyed many nations before them, in whose localities they walk? There are definitely signs in this for the intelligent ones." The disbelievers heard about the various nations that were destroyed in the past because of their sins, and even visited the sites of their ruins. However, none of this had any effect on them.

Instead of repenting and accepting the truth, they seem totally indifferent. They rather enjoy themselves at these sites, eagerly snapping pictures and capturing the scene on video. They then return without gaining anything.

وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَكَانَ لِزَامًا وَأَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى ﴿١٢٩﴾ فَاصْبِرْ عَلَىٰ مَا يَقُولُونَ
 وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ غُرُوبِهَا وَمِنْ آنَاءِ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْ وَأَطْرَافَ
 النَّهَارِ لَعَلَّكَ تَرْضَىٰ ﴿١٣٠﴾ وَلَا تَمَدَّنْ عَيْنَيْكَ إِلَىٰ مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهِ أَزْوَاجًا مِنْهُمْ زَهْرَةَ الْحَيَاةِ
 الدُّنْيَا لِنَفْتِنَهُمْ فِيهِ وَرِزْقُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَىٰ ﴿١٣١﴾ وَأْمُرْ أَهْلَكَ بِالصَّلَاةِ وَاصْطَبِرْ عَلَيْهَا لَا
 نَسْأَلُكَ رِزْقًا نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُكَ وَالْعَاقِبَةُ لِلتَّقْوَىٰ ﴿١٣٢﴾

(129) If it were not for a decree that had already proceeded forth from your Lord, and an appointed term, punishment would have certainly come. (130) So patiently endure what they say and glorify the praises of your Lord before the rising of the sun and before it sets. And glorify Him during the hours of the night and at the ends of the day so that you become happy. (131) Never strain your eyes towards the splendour of the worldly life and the wives that We have granted the disbelievers to enjoy, to test them. The provision of your Lord is best and more lasting. (132) Enjoin Salāh upon your family and yourself remain steadfast upon it. We do not ask provision from you, but We provide for you. The best result is for abstinence.

GLORIFY ALLĀH IN THE MORNING AND IN EVENING, DO NOT DESIRE THE PLEASURES GRANTED TO THE DISBELIEVERS AND ENJOIN SALĀH ON YOUR FAMILY

The polytheists refused to accept the preaching of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, insulted him and would make absurd statements when warned of Allāh's punishment. They would ask why punishment was not inflicted upon them immediately if they were wrong about their beliefs.

Allāh replies to this by saying, "If it were not for a decree that had already proceeded forth from your Lord, and an appointed term, punishment would have certainly come." Allāh will punish them when He decrees. Until then, He allows them grace.

Allāh then advises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So patiently endure what they say and glorify the praises of your Lord before the rising of the sun and before it sets. And glorify Him during the hours of the night and at the ends of the day so that you become happy." By adopting patience and engaging in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), a person will attain contentment and will be freed from all anxieties.

Allāh says in the concluding verses of Surah Hijr, "We know very well that your bosom is constrained by what they say. So glorify the praises of your Lord and be of the ones who prostrate. And worship your Lord until the certainty (death) comes to you." [Surah 15, verses 97-99]

Commentators say that all five Salāh are mentioned in the above verse. They say that "before the rising of the sun" denotes Fajr, "before it sets" denotes Zuhr and Asr and "the hours of the night" refer to Maghrib and Isha. They say that Fajr and Asr are emphasised by the addition of the phrase 'it the ends of the day'

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم chose to live in poverty even though he sometimes gave people thousands of goats as gifts. The Sahabah رضي الله عنهم were also generally poor, whereas the disbelievers of their time were affluent. Allāh advises the believers (Mu'minīn) in the following verse, although the address appears to be directed towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Allāh says, "Never strain your eyes towards the splendour of the worldly life and the wives that We have granted the disbelievers to enjoy, to test them."

These worldly pleasures are fleeting and not worthy to be envied because "The provision of your Lord is best and more lasting." The rewards that Allāh will grant the righteous in Heaven (Jannah) are far more superior to anything that the disbelievers may ever hope to possess in this world. Even the worldly possessions that Allāh grants to the believers (Mu'minīn) are far superior to that which the disbelievers receive. They spend all they have in disbelief and sin, thereby earning themselves destruction in both worlds.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Never envy any bounty of a sinner because you never know what he will meet after death. Allāh shall delegate a murderer for him who will never die i.e. the Fire of Hell." [Mishkāt p. 447]

It is foolish to envy someone who will suffer forever in Hell. This world has no value in the sight of Allāh. Therefore the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If the world was worth even a mosquito's wing in Allāh's estimation, He would have never given the disbeliever a single drop of water to drink." [Mishkāt p. 441]

"Enjoin Salāh upon your family and yourself remain steadfast upon it." The verse is addressed to the entire Ummah. Salāh is the most important aspect of Islām after Belief (Imān) and the Shari'ah has accorded extreme prominence to it. A person can truly advise others to something only if he himself is particular about.

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه wrote the following instruction to his governors: 'Indeed Salāh is the most important of your duties in my opinion. Whoever safeguards it and is particular about his Salāh, has safeguarded the rest of religion (D'in). Whoever destroys his Salāh will destroy the rest of his religion (D'in) to a greater extent.' [Mu'atta of Mālik]

People misconstrue present-day governments as being the same as the righteous Caliph (Khilāfah) of the first four Caliph (Khalifas). This is extremely erroneous because the primary objective of the four righteous khalifas was to make people practise Dīn and to safeguard Islām. Together with this, they never left a stone unturned to see to the welfare of people in all other regards as well.

Nowadays the leaders concern themselves only with safeguarding their posts. They have no regard for the religion (D'in) themselves, let alone being concerned with the spiritual welfare of the masses. They wish to please the people irrespective of their sins and even issue licenses for them to sin.

"We do not ask provision from you, but We provide for you." Allāh has not burdened man with the task of providing sustenance for himself. He has to merely engage in some Lawful (Halāl) occupation and continue to worship and obey Allāh. Allāh will ensure that he survives. A person should never compromise on the commands of Allāh to sustain himself. Allāh provides for the one who abstains from Unlawful (Harām) financial sources just as well as He provides for those people who adopt every Unlawful (Harām) avenue. In fact, Allāh sustains all of His creation.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always enjoined Salāh upon his household when they encountered any problems. He would then recite to them the verse, "Enjoin Salāh upon your family and yourself remain steadfast upon it." ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

It was the practice of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه to perform Salāh during the night and then awaken his household during the last portion of the night. He would tell them, "Perform Salāh! "Perform Salāh!" Then he would also recite the above verse to them. [Mu'atta of Mālik]

"The best result is for abstinence." The word "abstinence" here refers to piety (Taqwa), which entails carrying out all the commands of Allāh and refraining from everything the He has prohibited.

وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا يَأْتِينَا بِآيَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّهِ ؕ أَوَلَمْ تَأْتِهِم بَيِّنَةٌ مَّا فِي الصُّحُفِ الْأُولَىٰ ﴿١٣٣﴾ وَلَوْ
 أَنَّا أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ مِّن قَبْلِهِ لَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا لَوْلَا أَرْسَلْتَ إِلَيْنَا رَسُولًا فَنَتَّبِعَ
 ءَايَاتِكَ مِن قَبْلِ أَن نَّذِلَّ وَنَخْزَىٰ ﴿١٣٤﴾ قُلْ كُلُّ مَتَرَبِّصٍ فَتَرَبَّصُوا ۚ فَسَتَعْلَمُونَ
 مَن أَصْحَابُ الصِّرَاطِ السَّوِيِّ وَمَنِ اهْتَدَىٰ ﴿١٣٥﴾

(133) They say, "Why does he not bring us a sign from his Lord?" Has the clear proof from the previous scriptures not reached them? (134) If We had to destroy them with a punishment from before, they would have said, "O our Lord! Why did You not send a messenger to us so that we could have followed Your signs before being disgraced and humiliated?" (135) Say, "Everyone is waiting, so you also wait. Soon you shall come to learn who are the people of the straight path and who are rightly guided."

IF ALLĀH DESTROYS A NATION AFTER THE TRUTH WAS MADE APPARENT TO THEM, THEY WOULD NOT HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO SAY THAT THEY WOULD HAVE FOLLOWED THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IF THEY WERE GIVEN THE CHANCE

In the first of these concluding verses of Surah TāHā, Allāh says about the Quraysh, "They say, 'Why does he [the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] not bring us a sign from his Lord?' i.e. a miracle to prove his apostleship. They constantly demanded that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم show them miracles that they desired to see.

They did not say these things with the intention of believing after witnessing the miracle, but did so because of their obstinacy. If they were sincere, they would have believed in the miraculous Qur'ān and the other miracles that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم showed to them. Therefore Allāh says, "Has the clear proof (the Qur'ān) from the previous scriptures (the Torah and Injil) not reached them?"

"If We had to destroy them with a punishment from before, they would have said, 'O our Lord! Why did You not send a messenger to us so that we could have followed Your signs before being disgraced and humiliated (by being Disbelievers)?" Allāh always sends the Prophets ﷺ to people so that they never have the opportunity of saying this.

Allāh says in Surah Isrā, "We shall never punish (any nation) until We send a messenger." Allāh also says in Surah Fātir, "Verily We have sent you [O the Holy Prophet ﷺ with the truth as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. A warner passed in every nation." [Surah 35, verse 24]

Allāh then instructs the Holy Prophet ﷺ "Say, 'Everyone is waiting (to see the outcome of this world and the Hereafter), so you also wait. Soon you shall come to learn who are the people of the straight path and who are rightly guided.'" People will realise the facts only after death, when it will be too late. Therefore, they should all prepare beforehand.

CONCLUSION

It was generally the poor people who accepted Islām during the early stages and they were always afraid to make their belief publicly because of the intensity of persecutions that they suffered. One of these people was the sister of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, by the name of Fātimā رضي الله عنها, and her husband, Sayyidina Sa'id bin Zaid رضي الله عنه [who was one of the ten people who were collectively given the tidings of entry into Heaven (Jannah) by the Holy Prophet ﷺ]. The two of them used to receive secret lessons in Qur'an from Sayyidina Khabbāb Bin Aratt رضي الله عنه.

It once occurred that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه [while he was still a Polytheist] took his sword and marched through Makkah with the intention of assassinating the Holy Prophet ﷺ. En route he met Sayyidina Nu'aym bin Abdullah رضي الله عنه, who asked him where he was headed. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه replied, "Muhammad ﷺ has invented a new religion (D'in), divided the Quraysh, made them look foolish, brought disrepute to their religion (D'in), and spoken ill of their gods. I am on my way to slay the one who brings a new religion (D'in).

Sayyidina Nu'aym رضي الله عنه told him, "Do you not realise that the Banu Abd Manāf tribe will never leave you alive if you kill Muhammad ﷺ? Why don't you see to your family first?"

When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه asked him what he meant, he replied, "Your sister Fātimā and your brother-in-law cum cousin Sa'id bin Zaid have also accepted Islām and follow Muhammad ﷺ. You should rather see to them first."

Upon hearing this, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه stormed to his sister's house, where Sayyidina Khabbāb رضي الله عنه was busy teaching them Surah TāHā. Hearing the footsteps of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Khabbāb رضي الله عنه hid away. In the meantime, Sayyidina Fātimā رضي الله عنها hid the leaves of the Qur'an. However, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had already heard something and asked his sister what it was.

When she and her husband told him that it was nothing, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه bellowed, "How could it be nothing? I know that the two of you have accepted the religion (D'īn) of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم!" Saying this, he grabbed Sayyidina Sa'id رضي الله عنه to beat him up. When Sayyidah Fātimā رضي الله عنها intervened to save her husband, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه beat her so severely that her face bled.

The couple then told him, "We have accepted Islām. You may do as you please." When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه saw the bleeding face of his sister, he became ashamed of himself and said, "Bring me the leaves that you were reciting. I would like to see what Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has brought."

His sister told him that she did not trust him because he was likely to tear up the leaves. He then swore by his gods that he would merely read them and then return them to her. Realising that this may be the perfect opportunity for her brother to accept Islām, Sayyidah Fātimā رضي الله عنها told him that he could not yet touch the leaves because he was impure. He then had a bath, after which she handed the leaves over to him.

When he recited the first few verses of Surah TāHā, Sayyidina' Umar رضي الله عنه exclaimed, "This is indeed a beautiful composition and an honourable thing!" Hearing this, Sayyidina Khabbāb رضي الله عنه emerged from his hiding place and said, "O Umar! By Allāh! I think that Allāh has accepted you by virtue of the supplication (du'ā) of His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. I heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pray last night. He said, 'O Allāh! Strengthen Islām with Abul Hikam bin Hishām (Abu Jahl) or with Umar bin Khattāb.' I think that the supplication (du'ā) was in your favour."

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه asked Sayyidina Khabbāb رضي الله عنه, "Tell me where is the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. I wish to accept Islām at his hands." Sayyidina Khabbāb رضي الله عنه told him that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in a house near mount Safa with other people.

When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه knocked at the door, some Sahabah رضي الله عنهم said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Umar is here with a sword in his hand!" Sayyidina Hamzah رضي الله عنه [Who was the uncle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] said, "Call him in. If his intentions are good, we shall be in attendance to him. If his intentions are evil, then we will kill him with his own sword."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted him to enter and, when he came in, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pulled him by his shawl and said, "O son of Khattāb! How have you arrived? It seems as if you will refrain from disbeliefs and polytheism (shirk) only when some calamity afflicts you."

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه replied, "I have come to declare my belief in Allāh, His Holy Prophet and everything that has come from Allāh." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exclaimed in a loud voice, "Allāhu Akbar!" All present realised that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had accepted Islām and they were pleased that they would be safe from the oppression of the disbelievers with Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Hamzah رضي الله عنه on their side. ["Al Bidāya wan Nihaayah" v. 3 p. 79-81]

PART SEVENTEEN

سورة الانبياء

Makkan

Surah Al-Anbiya

Verses 112

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَقْرَبَ لِلنَّاسِ حِسَابُهُمْ وَهُمْ فِي غَفْلَةٍ مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿١﴾ مَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ ذِكْرِ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ تُحَدِّثُ إِلَّا أَسْتَمَعُوهُ وَهُمْ يَلْعَبُونَ ﴿٢﴾ لَاهِيَةً قُلُوبُهُمْ وَأَسْرَأُ النَّجْوَى الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا هَلْ هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ أَفَتَأْتُونَ السَّحَرَ وَأَنْتُمْ تَبْصُرُونَ ﴿٣﴾ قَالَ رَبِّي يَعْلَمُ الْقَوْلَ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٤﴾ بَلْ قَالُوا أَضْغَثَ أَحْلَمٍ بَلْ أَفْتَرَاهُ بَلْ هُوَ شَاعِرٌ فَلْيَأْنَسْ بِشَايَةِ كَمَا أُرْسِلَ الْأَوَّلُونَ ﴿٥﴾ مَا آمَنَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ مِنْ قَرِيَةٍ أَهْلَكْنَاهَا أَفَهُمْ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٦﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ إِلَّا رِجَالًا نُوْحِي إِلَيْهِمْ فَاسْتَلَوْا أَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧﴾ وَمَا جَعَلْنَاهُمْ جَسَدًا لَا يَأْكُلُونَ الطَّعَامَ وَمَا كَانُوا خَالِدِينَ ﴿٨﴾ ثُمَّ صَدَقْنَاهُمُ الْوَعْدَ فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُمْ وَمَنْ نَشَاءُ وَأَهْلَكْنَا الْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿٩﴾ لَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ كِتَابًا فِيهِ ذِكْرُكُمْ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٠﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Peoples' reckoning has drawn near, yet they are averse in negligence. (2) They listen in jest to any new advice that comes to them from their Lord..... (3) while their hearts are heedless. The oppressors secretly convene Saying, "He is but a human like yourselves. Do you succumb to magic while you see it?" (4) He said, "My Lord knows the speech in the heavens and the earth, and He is All Hearing, All Knowing. (5) However, they say, "These are confused dreams. Nay, he has concocted it! Nay, he is a poet! He should bring us a sign like the ones sent with the previous people." (6) None of the towns that We destroyed before them had believed. Will these people now believe? (7) Before them We have sent only men to whom We have sent revelation, so ask those who have knowledge if you do not possess any knowledge. (8) We have not made them bodies that do not eat food, neither did they live forever. (9) Then We made true the promise to them, rescued them, and destroyed those who transgressed the limits. (10) We have certainly revealed to you people a Book which contains advice to you. Will you still not understand?

THE REPLY TO THE STUBBORN STATEMENTS OF THE DISBELIEVERS

Until the end of verse 50, Surah Anbiya continues with the arguments of the disbelievers and replies to them. Thereafter, Allāh relates the accounts of many Prophets عليهم السلام until the end of the Surah.

Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "Peoples' reckoning (Qiyāmah) has drawn near, yet they are averse in negligence." They are in this condition of heedlessness because they do not believe in the day of Judgement. Instead of accepting what is being revealed, "They listen in jest to any new advice that comes to them from their Lord while their hearts are heedless."

In addition to this, they deny the Holy Prophets of Allāh عليهم السلام and "secretly convene saying, 'He is but a human like yourselves. Do you succumb to magic while you see it?'" Here they refer to the miracles of the Prophets عليهم السلام.

In reply, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says, 'My Lord knows the speech in the heavens and the earth, and He is All Hearing, All Knowing.' Allāh will punish these disbelievers for their deeds and denial.

About the Qur'ān, they say, "These are confused dreams. (Furthermore, they made the accusations that) Nay, he has concocted it! Nay, he is a poet!"

They also said, "He should bring us a sign like the ones sent with the previous people." They refuse to accept even the greatest miracle (the Qur'ān), yet they ask for more. Although they realise that they cannot even match a single Surah of the Qur'ān, yet they refute the Qur'ān!

Allāh replies by saying that their demands are futile because "None of the towns that We destroyed before them had believed (when they were granted the miracles they requested). Will these people now believe?" If they do not believe after being shown the miracles, they will be destroyed, like the previous nations. However, since Allāh has not yet decreed their punishment, they will not be shown what they ask for.

In reply to the age-old argument that humans cannot be the Holy Prophets, Allāh says, "Before them We have sent only men to whom We have sent revelation, so ask those who have knowledge if you do not possess any knowledge." "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets this verse to mean that the ignorant people should enquire from the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) about the previous Prophets عليهم السلام, concerning whom they are well aware.

Allāh tells the polytheists that they should ask the People of the Book whether the Prophets عليهم السلام were men or angels and how to ascertain the truth of a person's claim to the Prophethood. They learnt from these very people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) how to say, "He should bring us a sign like the ones sent with the previous people." Therefore, they should also learn the other facts from them. When they learn from them that the previous Prophets عليهم السلام were all humans, they will not have any objections to the status of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh says further about the Prophets عليهم السلام, "We have not made them bodies that do not eat food, neither did they live forever."

Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "All the messengers that We sent before you used to eat food and walk in the market places." [Surah 25, verse 20]

Allāh continues to speak about the Prophets عليهم السلام when He says, "Then We made true the promise (of assistance) to them, rescued them (from punishment), and destroyed those who transgressed the limits."

Allāh then says, "We have certainly revealed to you people a Book which contains advice to you. Will you still not understand?" Commentators have mentioned that the fact that the Qur'ān was revealed in Arabic gave credence and honour to the Arabs and by following the Qur'ān, Allāh Ta'āla granted them sovereignty over all other nations.

Note: "ask those who have knowledge if you do not possess any knowledge." This verse has also passed in Surah Nahl. Scholars (Ulama) say that its purport is general and that people who do not have knowledge of the religion (D'in) should consult those who possess this knowledge. Ignorance of any law is no excuse. It is tragic indeed that some people choose to remain ignorant of the religion (D'in) and do not even care to educate their children.

وَكَمْ قَصَمْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ كَانَتْ ظَالِمَةً وَأَنْشَأْنَا بَعْدَهَا قَوْمًا آخَرِينَ ﴿١١﴾ فَلَمَّا
أَحْسَوْا بِأَسْنَانَا إِذَا هُمْ مِنْهَا يَرْكُضُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ لَا تَرْكُضُوا وَارْجِعُوا إِلَى مَا أُتْرِفْتُمْ فِيهِ
وَمَسْكِنِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَنَبَّهُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ قَالُوا يَوَيْلَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَمَا زَالَتْ تِلْكَ
دَعْوَتُهُمْ حَتَّى جَعَلْنَاهُمْ حَصِيدًا خَمِيدِينَ ﴿١٥﴾

(11) How many were the towns that We annihilated, who were oppressive, and We then created another nation after them. (12) When they sensed Our punishment, they suddenly began to flee from the town. (13) "Do not flee, but return to the things that gave you pleasure and to your homes so that you may be questioned." (14) They said, "Woe betide us. We were oppressors indeed!" (15) This remained their call until We made them like reaped corn, totally extinguished.

THE PLIGHT OF DESTROYED NATIONS

Allāh depicts the scene of a town being destroyed so that people can learn from it. Allāh's says, "How many were the towns that We annihilated, who were oppressive (by perpetrating disbeliefs and polytheism (shirk), and We then created another nation after them.

"When they sensed Our punishment, they suddenly began to flee from the town. (It was then told to them either by angels or the believers (Mu'minin)) 'Do not flee, but return to the things that gave you pleasure and to your homes so that you may be questioned (about the result of your pleasant lives).' When Allāh's punishment came, they forgot all about their items of leisure and the palaces that they built and boasted about. Nothing could save them from the punishment.

When the punishment closed in on them, "They said, 'Woe betide us! We were oppressors indeed!' This remained their call until We made them like reaped corn, totally extinguished." After the punishment, their corpses lay in heaps like stacked corn after harvesting. Their pomp and glory was also extinguished like a raging fire that is suddenly put out.

Although the verses do not mention which town is being described, some commentators say that it was Hadhramaut, a place in Yemen. The people killed a the Holy Prophet who was sent to them, after which Allāh made the tyrant Bakht Nasar (Nabuchadnezzar) plunder their town, killing many and capturing the others. In fear and terror, they fled the town for their lives. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 240]

وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا لِعَيْنٍ ﴿١٦﴾ لَوْ أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نَتَّخِذَ لَهُمْ لَا تَخَذَنَّهُ
مِنْ لَدُنَّا إِنْ كُنَّا فَعَلِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ بَلْ نَقْذِفُ بِالْحَقِّ عَلَى الْبَاطِلِ فَيَدْمَغُهُ فَإِذَا هُوَ
زَاهِقٌ وَلَكُمْ الْوَيْلُ مِمَّا نَصِفُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَلَهُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَنْ عِنْدَهُ لَا
يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهِ وَلَا يَسْتَحْسِرُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ يُسَبِّحُونَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ لَا يَفْترُونَ

﴿٢٠﴾

(16) We have not created the heavens and the earth in futility. (17) If We intended to create a toy, We would have done so from Our side if We were to really do so. (18) However, We hurl truth at falsehood, shattering its head, after which it suddenly disappears. Woe betide you for what you concoct. (19) To Him belongs whoever is in the heavens and the earth. Those who are with Him are not ashamed to worship Him, nor do they tire. (20) They glorify Him night and day without being lax.

CONFIRMATION OF THE TRUTH AND THE ANNIHILATION OF FALSEHOOD

Allāh begins by saying, "We have not created the heavens and the earth in futility." Allāh created everything with great wisdom, so that people may recognise His power and grandeur by it. Therefore Allāh says, "If We intended to create a toy (i.e. something for futility), We would have done so from Our side if We were to really do so." i.e. If the purpose were only recreation and sport, Allāh could have rather created something else instead of the universe to amuse Himself with. Of course, Allāh does not require such a futile thing like recreation.

Truth and falsehood have always been at loggerheads with each other because one is the antithesis of the other. However, the truth always prevails and remains dominant. Referring to this, Allāh says, "However, We hurl truth at falsehood, shattering its head, after which it suddenly disappears. Woe betide you for what you concoct (about Allāh having partners)."

"To Him belongs whoever is in the heavens and the earth. Those who are with Him (the angels) are not ashamed to worship Him, nor do they tire. They glorify Him night and day without being lax." The angels are constantly engaged in Allāh's worship and never stop worshipping Him.

أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا إِلَهًا مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ هُمْ يُشْرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ لَوْ كَانَ فِيهَا إِلَهَةٌ إِلَّا اللَّهُ لَفَسَدَتَا فَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ لَا يُسْأَلُ عَمَّا يَفْعَلُ وَهُمْ يُسْأَلُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا مِن دُونِهِ إِلَهًا قُلْ هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ هَذَا ذِكْرٌ مِّن مَّعَىٰ وَذِكْرٌ مِّن قَبْلِي بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ الْحَقَّ فَهُمْ مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِن قَبْلِكَ مِن رَّسُولٍ إِلَّا نُوحِي إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاعْبُدُونِ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَقَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَلَدًا سُبْحَانَهُ بَلْ عِبَادٌ مُّكْرَمُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ لَا يَسْئِقُونَهُ بِالْقَوْلِ وَهُمْ بِأَمْرِهِ يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَلَا يَشْفَعُونَ إِلَّا لِمَنِ ارْتَضَىٰ وَهُمْ مِّن خَشْيَتِهِ مُشْفِقُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَمَن يَقُلْ مِنْهُمْ إِنِّي إِلَهٌ مِّن دُونِهِ فَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِيهِ جَهَنَّمَ كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(21) Or have they chosen gods from the earth who can resurrect? (22) If there were other deities besides Allāh in the heavens and the earth, the system of both would be in chaos. Allāh, the Lord of the Arsh (throne), is Pure from what they ascribe. (23) He will not be questioned about what He does, but they will be questioned. (24) Or have they chosen other deities besides Him? Say, "Produce your proof!" This is a reminder of those with me, and of those before me. But most of them do not know the truth, because of which they are averse." (25) We sent revelation to every messenger before you that, "Without doubt there is no deity besides Me, so worship Me only." (26) They say, "the Merciful has taken a son." He is Pure! They are but honourable slaves. (27) They do not speak ahead of Him and duly carry out His orders. (28) He knows what is before them and what is behind them and only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede. They tremble with fear for Him. (29) Whoever of them has to say, "I am a deity besides Him," then We shall punish him in Hell. Thus do We punish the oppressors.

THE PROOFS OF ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) AND THE LOYALTY OF THE ANGELS

Refuting the beliefs of the polytheists, Allāh says, "Or (after exhaustive searches) have they chosen gods from the earth who can resurrect?" It is obvious that the idols that they have themselves carved from stone and wood cannot possibly resurrect anything.

Allāh says regarding their false gods in Surah Nahl, "They are dead without any life. They do not even know when they will be raised." [Surah 16, verse 21]

"If there were other deities besides Allāh in the heavens and the earth, the system of both would be in chaos." It is apparent that if there were many gods, each would want to do things his way. These conflicting opinions would certainly impact upon the functioning of the universe, causing it to be cast in turmoil. However, it is clear to all that the universe is functioning perfectly. Therefore, it follows that there is only One Allāh controlling everything.

Allāh says in Surah Mu'min, "Allāh has not taken any son, nor are there any deities with Him. If there were, then every deity would have separated his creation and some would overpower the others. Allāh is Pure from the partners that they ascribe to Him." [Surah 23, verse 91]

Declaring His independence from all that the polytheists say, Allāh announces, "Allāh, the Lord of the throne, is Pure from what they ascribe."

"He will not be questioned about what He does, but they will be questioned." Allāh has the unrestricted authority to do as He pleases because everything belongs to Him. However, man is answerable to Allāh for everything that he does and believes. He is answerable in this world, as well as in the Hereafter.

"Or have they chosen other deities besides Him? Say, 'Produce you proof'" There can be no proof to justify polytheism (shirk). It is abominable logically and from a religious point of view. The Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures have all attested to its evil and forbidden it.

"This (Qur'ān) is a reminder of those with me, and of those before me." The previous scriptures also verified the evil of polytheism (shirk). However, "most of them do not know the truth, because of which they are averse."

"We sent revelation to every messenger before you that, 'Without doubt there is no deity besides Me, so worship Me only.'" This verse refutes the belief of the Christians, who claim that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is Allāh. Once it has been established that all the Prophets عليهم السلام received the same message of Oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), it is sheer foolishness to attribute beliefs of polytheism (shirk) to these Prophets عليهم السلام.

"They say, 'the Merciful has taken a son.' He is Pure! They (the angels) are but honourable slaves." In this verse Allāh refutes that claim of the polytheists, who said that the angels are Allāh's daughters. Allāh describes the loyalty of worship that the angels portray when he says, "They do not speak ahead of Him and duly carry out His orders. He knows what is before them and what is behind them and only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede. They tremble with fear for Him. Whoever of them has to say, 'I am a deity besides Him,' then We shall punish him in Hell. Thus do We punish the oppressors."

أَوَلَمْ يَرَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ كَانَتَا رَتْقًا فَفَتَقْنَاهُمَا وَجَعَلْنَا مِنَ
الْمَاءِ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ حَيٍّ أَفَلَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا فِي الْأَرْضِ رَوَاسِيَ أَنْ تَمِيدَ بِهِمْ
وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا فِجَاجًا سُبُلًا لَعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا السَّمَاءَ سَقْفًا مَحْفُوظًا
وَهُمْ عَنْ آيَاتِنَا مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ وَالشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ فِي
فَلَاقٍ يَسْبَحُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾

(30) Do the disbelievers not see that the skies and the earth were once closed, then We opened them? And We created every living thing from water. Will they still not believe? (31) We have placed ballast upon the earth so that it does not shake with them, and We have made wide roads on earth so that they be guided. (32) And We have made the sky a protected roof, yet they are averse to Our signs. (33) It is Allāh Who created the night, the day, the sun and the moon, each swimming in its own orbit.

FURTHER PROOFS OF ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) AND THE CREATION OF THE EARTH, SKY, SUN AND MOON

In the above verses, Allāh describes His power of creation and presents some great feats of His creation to illustrate the point. Allāh says, "Do the disbelievers not see that the skies and the earth were once closed, then We opened them?" Initially no rain fell from the sky, nor did any vegetation grow on the earth. However, when Allāh sends the rains, the earth springs to life with various plants and vegetation.

This should serve a sign to the disbelievers and the polytheists, who deny Allāh's existence and who ascribe partners to Him.

'And We created every living thing from water. Will they still not believe?' Every living thing originated from the rains, either directly or indirectly. Herein also is a sign for the disbelievers, but they still do not believe.

Furthermore, Allāh says, "We have placed ballast upon the earth so that it does not shake with them..." To give stability to the earth, Allāh has placed mountains on it. Allāh says in Surah Nāzi'āt, "Allāh stationed the mountains on earth." [Surah 79, verse 32]

Allāh says in Surah Wal Mursalāt, "We have placed towering mountains on earth." [Surah 77, verse 27]

The mountains extend towards the sky and are also embedded deep within the ground. They serve the purpose of stabilising the earth, thus preventing it from shaking. Allāh says in Surah Naba, "Have We not made the earth a bed and the mountains as pegs." However, if Allāh wills, He can cause parts of the earth to shudder with earthquakes together with the mountains.

Allāh continues by saying that He “made wide roads on earth so that they be guided.” Allāh has made causeways and paths through the lands and even in the mountains. These facilitate easy journeys for people.

Allāh says in Surah Nūh, “Allāh has made the earth a carpet for you so that you may traverse on its broad roads.” [Surah 71, verse 19, 20]

Allāh then describes the sky when He says, ‘And We have made the sky a protected roof..’ Allāh has protected the sky from falling and cracking. It will be rent asunder only on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Allāh has also protected the skies from the infiltration of the Satan (Shayātīn). Allāh says in verses 17 and 18 of Surah Hijr (Surah 15), “And We have safeguarded it (the sky) from every accursed Satan (Shaytān). Except the one who steals a hearing. A clear flame pursues him.”

“...yet they are averse to Our signs.” Despite witnessing the numerous manifestations of Allāh’s power, the disbelievers refuse to believe in Him.

“It is Allāh Who created the night, the day, the sun and the moon, each swimming in its own orbit.” Witnessing these great creations of Allāh, the sensible person cannot help but recognise Allāh’s power and glory. The sun and the moon are travelling in their orbits with the fluidity and speed of something swimming in water.

Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, “It is not possible for the sun to catch up with the moon, nor is it possible for the night to precede the day. They all rotate within their orbits.” [Surah 36, verse 40]

وَمَا جَعَلْنَا لِلشَّرِّ مِن قَبْلِكَ الْخُلْدَ أَفَإِن مِّنْ لَهُمُ الْخُلْدُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَائِقَةُ
 الْمَوْتِ وَنَبْلُوكُمْ بِالشَّرِّ وَالْخَيْرِ فِتْنَةً وَإِلَيْنَا تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَإِذْ أَرَأَاكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
 إِن يَتَّخِذُونَكَ إِلَّا هُزُوًا أَهَذَا الَّذِي يَذْكُرُ آلِهَتَكُمْ وَهُمْ بِذِكْرِ
 الرَّحْمَنِ هُمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانُ مِنْ عَجَلٍ سَأُورِيكُمْ آيَاتِي فَلَا
 تَسْتَعِجِلُونِ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾ لَوْ يَعْلَمُ
 الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا حِينَ لَا يَكْشَفُونَ عَنْ وُجُوهِهِمُ النَّارَ وَلَا عَن ظُهُورِهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ
 يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ بَلْ تَأْتِيهِمْ بَغْةٌ فَتَبْتَهُمْ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ رَدَّهَا وَلَا هُمْ
 يُنظَرُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَسْتَهْزِئُ بِرُسُلٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَحَاقَ بِالَّذِينَ سَخِرُوا مِنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا
 بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٤١﴾

(34) We have not prescribed eternal life for any human before you. If you pass away, will they live forever? (35) Every soul shall taste death. We test you well with good and bad conditions and you will return to Us. (36) When the

Consequently, the polytheists of Makkah suffered in the battle of Badr, when many of their leaders were killed and others were captured.

"They say, 'When will the promise come to pass if you are truthful?'" They often repeated this question because they never believed in Judgment day (Qiyāmah). In reply to this question, Allāh says, "If only the disbelievers knew the time when they will neither be able to avert the Fire from their faces, nor from their backs. They will also not be helped. However, it (the Fire) will come to them suddenly, totally confounding them. Then they will neither be able to thwart it off, nor will they be granted any respite." If they realised this, they would never speak the way they do and would rather become Muslims, thereby saving themselves from this terrible torment.

"Undoubtedly, the messengers before you were also ridiculed, so those who ridiculed them were engulfed by their own ridicule." Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this verse by reminding him that the previous nations were all punished because they ridiculed the Prophets عليهم السلام. In the same way, those who ridiculed and derided the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will also soon suffer the same fate.

قُلْ مَنْ يَكْلُؤُكُمْ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ مِنَ الرَّحْمَنِ بَلْ هُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّهِمْ
مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ أَمْ لَهُمْ آلِهَةٌ تَمْنَعُهُمْ مِنْ دُونِنَا لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ نَصْرَ
أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ مِنَّا يُصْحَبُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ بَلْ مَتَّعْنَا هَؤُلَاءِ وَآبَاءَهُمْ حَتَّى طَالَ
عَلَيْهِمُ الْعُمُرُ أَفَلَا يَرَوْنَ أَنَّا نَأْتِي الْأَرْضَ نَنْقُصُهَا مِنْ أَطْرَافِهَا أَفَهُمْ
الْغَالِبُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ قُلْ إِنَّمَا أُنْذِرُكُمْ بِالْوَحْيِ وَلَا يَسْمَعُ الصُّمُّ الدُّعَاءَ إِذَا مَا
يُنْذَرُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَلَئِنْ مَسَّتْهُمْ نَفْحَةٌ مِنْ عَذَابِ رَبِّكَ لَيَقُولُنَّ يُوَيْلَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا
ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾

(42) Say, "Who can protect you from the Merciful each day and night?" However, they are averse to the Oneness of their Lord. (43) Or do they have deities that will protect them from Us? They cannot even help themselves, nor will anyone align with them against Us. (44) Nonetheless, We granted ease to them and their forefathers until a long period passed by them. Do they not see that We gradually diminish the earth from its ends? Will they be victorious? (45) Say, "I warn you only with revelation. The deaf cannot hear the call when they are warned." (46) Undoubtedly if a puff of your Lord's punishment has to afflict them they will certainly say, "May destruction overtake us! We were oppressors indeed!"

NONE CAN PROTECT FROM ALLĀH'S PUNISHMENT, AND PEOPLE DO NOT BELIEVE BECAUSE OF THE COMFORTS THAT THEY HAVE BEEN GRANTED

"Say, 'Who can protect you from the Merciful each day and night?' The disbelievers also realise that none can rescue them from Allāh's punishment once it strikes. "However (despite this realisation), they are averse to the Oneness of their Lord."

Allāh goes on further to say, "Or do they have deities that will protect them from Us? (This is not possible because) They cannot even help themselves, nor will anyone align with them against Us."

"Nonetheless, We granted ease to them and their forefathers until a long period passed by them." As their generations passed by, living in ease and comfort, they succumbed to the pleasures of this type of life and never responded to the preaching of the Prophets عليهم السلام. They were also so engrossed in their own pleasures, that they failed to heed the constant changes and revolutions that took place around them. They then opposed the Prophets عليهم السلام and their religion's (D'in's)

"Do they not see that We gradually diminish the earth from its ends?" i.e. Allāh gradually allows the Muslims to gain control of the earth. Despite this, do the disbelievers still think that they will gain victory, therefore, Allāh asks, "Will they be victorious?"

"Say, 'I warn you only with revelation. (However, the disbelievers play deaf, so) The deaf cannot hear the call when they are warned.'" They refuse to heed the repeated warnings of Allāh's punishment.

"Undoubtedly if a puff of your Lord's punishment has to afflict them they will certainly say, 'May destruction overtake us! We were oppressors indeed!'" Then it will be too late for regrets. They should take heed in this world and accept Islām.

وَنَضَعُ الْمَوَازِينَ الْقِسْطَ لِيَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ فَلَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا وَإِنْ كَانَ مِثْقَالُ
حَبَّةٍ مِّنْ خَرْدَلٍ أَتَيْنَا بِهَا وَكَفَى بِنَا حَاسِبِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾

(47) On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), We will erect the scales of justice and no soul will be oppressed in the least. Even if a deed is equal to the weight, of a mustard seed, We shall present it. We suffice as Reckoners.

THE SCALES OF JUSTICE WILL BE ERECTED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND NONE WILL BE OPPRESSED

Allāh reminds man of the scene of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) when He says, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), We will erect the scales of justice and no soul will be oppressed in the least. Even if a deed is equal to the weight of a mustard seed, We shall present it."

Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Undoubtedly Allāh does not even oppress the weight of an atom. If it be a good deed, He shall multiply it and confer from His side a tremendous reward." [Surah 4, verse 40]

Says Allāh in Surah Zilzāl, "Whoever does an iota's weight of good will see it and whoever does an iota's weight of evil will see it." [Surah 99, verse 7, 8]

Allāh then says, "We suffice as Reckoners." After Allāh reckons with people, there will be no need for any other to repeat the process. None can pass judgement after Allāh.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that a person once came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and, after being seated asked, "I have few slaves who lie to me, deceive me and disobey me. I scold them and sometimes even hit them. What will become of us?"

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), their lies, deceit and disobedience will be reckoned against the punishment that you mete out to them. If the two are found to be equal, then the matter will be resolved. Neither will you receive anything from them, nor will you be punished. If your punishment is found to be less than their misdeeds, you will receive compensation for it. However, if your punishment exceeds the extent of their misdeeds, then they will be compensated at your expense."

Hearing this, the person moved away, weeping and wailing. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told him, "Did you not read in Allāh's Book, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), We will erect the scales of justice and no soul will be oppressed in the least?"

The person then told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O The Holy Prophet By Allāh! I see nothing better for them and for me except that I should be separated from them. I call you to witness that I have freed all of them." [Mishkāt p. 484]

Because the above verse mentions "scales" (in the plural form), many commentators maintain that there will be several scales on the Day of Judgement. However, the majority of Islāmic scholars say that there will be only one scale, which will be large enough for everyone.

Sayyidina Salmān Fārsi رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the scale to be used on the Day of Judgement will be so large that the heavens and the earth can be accommodated in it. When it will be erected, the angels will ask Allāh for whom will this be used. Allāh will reply, "For those of My bondsmen whom I desire." [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 4 p. 425]

The details regarding the method of weighing were discussed in the commentary of verses 8 and 9 of Surah A'rāf.

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ الْفُرْقَانَ وَضِيَاءَ وَذِكْرًا لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ وَهُمْ مِّنَ السَّاعَةِ مُشْفِقُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَهَذَا ذِكْرٌ مُّبَارَكٌ أَنزَلْنَاهُ أَفَأَنْتُمْ لَمْ تُنْكِرُوا ﴿٥٠﴾

(48) Without doubt, We have granted Mūsa and Harūn the Decider, a light, and a reminder to the abstinent ones. (49) Those who fear their Lord without seeing Him, and they are fearful of Judgment day (Qiyāmah). (50) This is a blessed advice that We have revealed. Will you then reject it?

THE ATTRIBUTES OF THE QUR'ĀN AND THE TORAH

Allāh says about the Torah, "Without doubt, We have granted Mūsa and Harūn the Decider (between truth and falsehood), a light (for the heart), and a reminder to the abstinent ones." Although the Torah was revealed for all people, it was especially beneficial for the "abstinent ones." Allāh then describes who the "abstinent ones" are. Besides being people who abstain from all sin, Allāh says that they are "Those who fear their Lord without seeing Him, and they are fearful of Judgment day (Qiyāmah)." These were those people who truly followed the teachings of the Torah.

Certain commentators have mentioned that "the Decider" refers to the assistance that Allāh rendered to Sayyidina Mūsa and Harūn عليه السلام. They say further that "a light and a reminder" refer to the Torah.

Thereafter, Allāh speaks of the Qur'ān. He says, "This is a blessed advice that We have revealed. Will you then reject it?"

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ رُشْدَهُ مِن قَبْلُ وَكُنَّا بِهِ عَالِمِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ
مَا هَذِهِ التَّمَاثِيلُ الَّتِي أَنتُمْ لَهَا عَاكِفُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ قَالُوا وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا لَهَا عِبَادِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾
قَالَ لَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ أَنتُمْ وَآبَاؤُكُمْ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ قَالُوا أَجِئْتَنَا بِالْحَقِّ أَمْ أَنتَ
مِنَ اللَّاعِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ قَالَ بَلْ رَزَقَكُمُ رَبِّي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ الَّذِي فَطَرَهُمْ وَأَنَا عَلَى ذَلِكُمْ
مِنَ الشَّاهِدِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾ وَتَاللَّهِ لَأَكِيدَنَّ أَصْنَامَكُمْ بَعْدَ أَنْ تُوَلُّوا مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾
فَجَعَلَهُمْ جُودًا إِلَّا كَبِيرًا لَهُمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ قَالُوا مَنْ فَعَلَ هَذَا
بِإِلَهِنَا إِنَّهُمْ لَمِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٥٩﴾ قَالُوا سَمِعْنَا فَتًى يَذْكُرُهُمْ يُقَالُ لَهُ إِبْرَاهِيمُ ﴿٦٠﴾
قَالُوا فَأَتُوا بِهِ عَلَى أَعْيُنِ النَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْهَدُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالُوا ءَأَنتَ فَعَلْتَ هَذَا
بِإِلَهِنَا يَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالَ بَلْ فَعَلَهُ كَبِيرُهُمْ هَذَا فَاسْأَلُوهُمْ إِنْ كَانُوا
يَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ فَرَجَعُوا إِلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَقَالُوا إِنَّكُمْ أَنتُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ ثُمَّ
نَكِسُوا عَلَى رُءُوسِهِمْ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا هَؤُلَاءِ يَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ قَالَ أَفَتَعْبُدُونَ
مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُكُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَضُرُّكُمْ ﴿٦٦﴾ أَفِ لَكُمْ وَلِمَا تَعْبُدُونَ
مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ قَالُوا حَرِّقُوهُ وَانصُرُوا آلِهَتَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
فَاعِلِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ فَلَمَّا يَنْتَرُ كُونِي بَرْدًا وَسَلَامًا عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَأَرَادُوا بِهِ كَيْدًا
فَجَعَلْنَاهُمُ الْأَخْسَرِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾

(51) Indeed We had granted Ibrāhīm his correct course from before and We were ever Aware of him. (52) When he told his father and his people, "What are these statues that you are devoted to?" (53) They replied, "We found our forefathers worshipping them." (54) Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said, "Verily you people and your forefathers were certainly in manifest error." (55) They said, "Do you bring us the truth or are you from the jesters?" (56) He said, "Nay, but your Lord is the Lord of the heaven and the earth, Who has created you. I am of those who bear witness to this." (57) "And by Allāh! I shall certainly formulate a scheme for your idols after you have turned your backs." (58) So he reduced them to fragments, except for the largest of them so that they may have recourse towards him. (59) They exclaimed, 'Who has done this to our gods? He is certainly from the oppressors!' (60) They said, "We have heard a youth make mention of them. He is called Ibrāhīm." (61) They said, "Bring him before the people so that they may be witnesses. (62) They asked, "Is it you who did this to our gods, O Ibrāhīm?" (63) He replied, "But this large one has done it. Ask them if they can talk." (64) They all searched their souls and said, "You are oppressors indeed." (65) They then lowered their heads saying, "You know very well that these cannot speak." (66) He said, "Do you then worship besides Allāh such things that can neither profit you, nor harm you?" (67) "Shame on you and those that you worship besides Allāh! Do you not understand?" (68) They said, "Burn him and assist your gods if you will do so." (69) We said, "O fire! Be cool and peaceful for Ibrāhīm." (70) While they intended to plot against Ibrāhīm, We made them the worst losers.

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام CALLS HIS PEOPLE TO ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD), BREAKS THEIR IDOLS AND IS CAST INTO A FIRE

The people in the region where Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was born all worshipped idols. Although there was none to teach Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام about Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), Allāh imbued in him the correct beliefs. Allāh made him so staunch that none could mislead him. Allāh also granted him the ability to propagate this belief to the people. Referring to this, Allāh says, 'indeed We had granted Ibrāhīm his correct course (of guidance) from before and We were ever Aware of him.'

"When he told his father (in particular) and his people (in general), 'What are these statues that you are devoted to?' he meant to impress upon their minds the futility of worshipping lifeless objects. They could not give any suitable reply, so "They replied, 'We found our forefathers worshipping them.' So they blindly followed in the tracks of their blind forefathers.

With conviction and vehemence, "Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said, 'Verily you people and your forefathers were certainly in manifest error.'

"They said, 'Do you bring us the truth or are you from the jesters?'" He replied by telling them that what he said was no joke. He told them, "Nay, but your Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Who has created you. I am of those who bear witness to this."

He then added, "And by Allāh! I shall certainly formulate a scheme for your idols after you have turned your backs."

Allāh relates the episode in verses 85 to 98 of Surah Sāffāt (Surah 37) where Allāh says, "When he [Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام] said to his people and his father, 'What do you worship? Do you desire concocted deities instead of Allāh? What is your opinion about the Lord of the universe.' He glanced once at the stars and then he said, 'I feel ill.' So they turned their backs on him and left. He hurried to their gods and said, 'Do you not eat? What ails you that you do not speak?' He then turned to them, striking them with force. The people came to him in haste. He said, 'Do you worship what you carve whereas Allāh has created you and what you do?' They said, 'Construct a building for him and cast him into a blazing fire.' They devised a plot against him, but We made them the ones to look down."

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that the people of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام used have a celebration out of town every year, after which they returned to prostrate to their idols. It was when they went to one such celebration that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام broke the idols. On that day, his father told him to accompany them so that he may take a liking to their faith. As he walked with them, he looked at the stars (which they revered) and said that he felt sick. He then returned to the town.

The people had left food as offerings before the idols, so when Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام approached the idols, he said, 'Do you not eat?' They could not reply, so he said, "What ails you that you do not speak?"

He then began to hit the idols with an axe until "he reduced them to fragments, except for the largest of them so that they may have recourse towards him." He then placed the axe around the neck of this large idol.

Some Commentators have mentioned that "towards him" refers to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام i.e. they would now abort their religion (Dīn) and would turn to his religion (Dīn). Others say that "towards him" means that they would turn to this big idol and ask him who the culprit was. Seeing the axe around its neck, they may also think that this large idol was responsible. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 248]

When the people returned to find their idols demolished, "They exclaimed, 'Who has done this to our gods? He is certainly from the oppressors!'" Some of those present said, "We have heard a youth make mention of them (when he threatened to plot a scheme for them). He is called Ibrāhīm. They said, 'Bring him before the people so that they may be witnesses."

When Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was brought before the people, "They asked, 'Is it you who did this to our gods, O Ibrāhīm?' He replied, 'But this large one has done it. (If you people do not believe me then) Ask them if they can talk."

"They all searched their souls and (realising the error of their ways) said (to each other), 'You are oppressors indeed.' They then lowered their heads (in embarrassment) saying, 'You know very well that these cannot speak."

This was a most excellent method of propagation because Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام got the people to admit their own folly. He then told them, "Do you then worship besides Allāh such things that can neither profit you. nor harm you?"

Shame on you and those that you worship besides Allāh! Do you not understand?"

When the people could not find any reply to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, they blurted out, "Burn him and assist your gods if you will do so." (It is strange that these people had to hurry to the assistance of their gods, when the gods should have been assisting them!)

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that they kept Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام imprisoned in a room and began to build an enclosure in which they could light a large fire. Thereafter they started collecting wood to fuel the inferno. People were so antagonistic towards Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام that sick people would vow to collect firewood if they were cured and women also took similar vows if any of their tasks were accomplished. People even bought wood to add to the fire, even if it meant that women spent the profits of their spinning for it.

Eventually they lit the fire. The heat of the fire was so intense that animals passing by it died of the heat. They stoked the fire for an entire week. Although a smaller fire would have sufficed to burn one person, the people exerted themselves to make the fire that big because they feared being disgraced if Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was not burnt by a smaller fire.

When the fire was ready, the people hesitated awhile because they did not know how to put Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام into the fire, since it was unapproachable. It was then that Iblis, the enemy of the Prophets عليهم السلام, came to their aid. (Even today he continues to give ideas to the enemies of Islām). He advised them to build a catapult, with which they could cast Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام into the fire.

When Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was being thrown into the fire, the angels in charge of the waters came to offer assistance, telling him that, if he wished, they could extinguish the fire. The angels in charge of the winds also offered their assistance. However, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام refused their assistance, saying, "Allāh is sufficient for me and He is the best of assistants."

Sayyidina Ubay bin Ka'b رضى الله عنه narrates that Jibrīl عليه السلام came to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, asking him if he required anything. Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام replied, "I do not require any assistance from you." Sayyidina Jibrīl عليه السلام then told him, "Then seek help from your Lord." Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said, "My Lord has perfect knowledge of my situation. His knowledge suffices for me." In this way, he handed his affairs over to Allāh without even making supplication (du'ā).

Allāh commanded the fire saying, "O fire! Be cool and peaceful for Ibrāhīm." Allāh added the word "peaceful" so that the fire does not become so cold that it would freeze Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Consequently, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام stayed in the fire for seven days without being burnt at all. The only thing that burnt were the shackles that bound his feet.

The angel in charge of shadows appeared in the form of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام himself and kept him company in the fire. Since Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was deprived of his clothes when thrown into the fire, Jibrīl عليه السلام brought for him clothing from Heaven (Jannah) and a carpet from Heaven (Jannah) as well. Jibrīl عليه السلام put the clothes on for him and spread out the carpet, whereupon the two sat and spoke.

Nimrūd, the king, was astonished when he saw Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام in a garden, talking to someone while the wood around him was being consumed by the fire. He called out to Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام saying, "Can you get out of the fire?" "Certainly," replied Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, and he came out. Nimrūd said, "It seems that your Lord is exceptionally powerful, Even the fire is subservient to him. I shall sacrifice four thousand cows in the name of your Lord."

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام said to him, "Your sacrifices will not be accepted by Allāh as long as you remain an adherent to your religion (Dīn). Forsake your religion (Dīn) and accept mine." Nimrūd replied, "I cannot forsake my religion (Dīn) and my kingdom, but I will sacrifice the cows." He then sacrificed the cows and desisted from persecuting Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 251]

Surah Sāffāt mentions that the disbelievers said, "Construct a building for him and cast him into a blazing fire." They therefore constructed a special place where they lit the fire.

The entire nation converged on the plot to kill the solitary the Holy Prophet of Allāh عليه السلام, but were unsuccessful. Therefore, Allāh says, "While they intended a plot against Ibrahīm, We made them the worst losers.

The verse of Surah Sāffāt says, "They intended to plot against him, but We made them the lowest." [Surah 37, verse 98]

Much of what has been recounted above from "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" conforms with the narrative of the Qur'ān. However, the rest seems to be sourced from the Bani Isrā'īl. It has been narrated here though, because it does not contradict any law of the Sharī'ah, nor any verse of the Qur'ān. We shall presently relate some Ahadith pertaining to the same incident.

THE EVIL NATURE OF THE CHAMELEON AND THE PROMISE OF REWARD FOR THE PERSON WHO KILLS IT

Sayyidina Umm Sharīk رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed that chameleons be killed, saying that one of them blew at Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 474]

This hadith means that the chameleon blew into the fire kindled for Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام with the intention of stoking it further. Although its blowing would not have affected such a large fire at all, still the chameleon blew in it because of its inherent evil nature. An enemy leaves no stone unturned to cause injury to his adversary, even if it means doing the most insignificant act. Because of its inherent evil and the fact that it could be harmful to man, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the Muslims to kill chameleons.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who kills a chameleon with the first strike, shall receive the reward of a hundred good deeds. The person who kills it with the second strike, shall receive a lesser reward, and the person who kill it with the third strike shall earn a lesser than the second. [Muslim v. 2 p. 236]

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام WILL BE THE FIRST TO BE CLOTHED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You will all be resurrected bare-footed, naked and uncircumcised on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). The first person to be clothed will be Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام." [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام will receive this privilege because he was stripped of his clothing when he was cast into the fire.

THE THREE "LIES" OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام, BECAUSE OF WHICH HE WILL NOT WANT TO INTERCEDE FOR THE COMMENCEMENT OF RECKONING

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام never lied, except about three matters. The first two were for Allāh's pleasure. The first of these was when he refused to accompany his people and said, "I feel ill." The second was when he told them, "But this large one has done it."

The third occasion transpired when he was once travelling with his wife, Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام. They happened to pass by the territory of a tyrannical king. Someone informed the king that a person [Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام] was passing by with an exceptionally beautiful woman. When the king sent a messenger to ask Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام who the lady was, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام told him that she was his sister.

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام then told Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام that if the king ever called her up, she should tell him that she was his sister. This was because the king would retain her if he knew that she was his wife. He also told her that she could be called his sister because she was really his sister in religion (Dīn), since they were the only two believers in the land.

Nevertheless, the king forcefully summoned her to him. As she left, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام began performing Salāh. When the king tried to touch her, he became paralysed. He pleaded to her to pray for him, promising never to harass her again. When she did so, he was cured. However, he again attempted to touch her. This time the same paralyse took place more severely. He again pleaded with her to pray for him and promised that he would not harm her again. When she did so and he was relieved of the malady, he called his officer, telling him that he had not brought a human to him, but some devil.

He then released Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام, gifting her with a maidservant by the name of Hājar. When she returned to Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, she found him engaged in Salāh. When he asked her what has happened by a gesture of the hand, she replied, "Allāh had overturned the plot of the disbeliever upon him and given me a maidservant by the name of Hājar." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 474]

The first of the three "lies", (when he said "I feel ill") was mentioned so that he could have the opportunity to destroy the idols for Allāh's sake. The statement meant that he was not in the mood of accompanying them, which may be described as being sick. Using certain linguistic rules of Arabic, other Scholars

(Ulama) have interpreted the statement to mean that he 'could get sick,' which is not a lie at all. The people merely misunderstood what he really meant.

The second "lie" (when he told them, "But this large one has done it.") was mentioned to impress upon the peoples' minds that their idols were helpless. In this way, he was able to present Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) to them. Scholars (Ulama) say that the statement could be interpreted as "if he could, this large one would have done it" or "if these could talk, then it is also possible that the large one could have done it."

The third untruth was also not a real lie because Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام was really his sister in religion (D'in). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not say that this third untruth was for the pleasure of Allāh because it included a degree of personal interest as well. However, it should be borne in mind that their journey was one of migration (Hijrah), which was sure to be amply rewarded by Allāh. Then too, a person will be greatly rewarded for protecting the chastity of a believing woman, especially his wife.

"Fa'hul Bāri" reports from the "Musnad of Ahmad" that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه said, "Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام mentioned the three things (that appeared to be untrue) for the protection of Allāh's religion (D'in) and to combat his enemies." [v. 6 p. 392]

These "lies" were therefore not really lies in the true sense of the word. They were only referred to as lies in the hadith because the lofty mantle of the Prophethood demands that the Prophets عليهم السلام also be cautious in these matters.

Bukhari (v. 1 p. 74) reports a hadith in which it is mentioned that on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) people will run to Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام to plead with him to intercede for reckoning to commence. He will declare himself incapable of the task and send them to Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. When they will place the same request to Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, he will also decline, saying that he spoke the above three untruths. For this reason, he will also consider himself unfit for this task.

Commenting on this hadith, Mulla Ali Qāri رحمه الله writes that these three untruths were not really lies, but are referred to as such because they appear to be lies. This caused Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام to consider Himself unworthy of this great intercession. The closer a person is to Allāh, the more he fears Allāh and apprehends accountability for even the slightest error. This applies to all the Prophets عليهم السلام who may have erred. Ibnul Malik رحمه الله has mentioned that the perfectionists may be taken to task for certain deeds that would appear to be acts of devotions if carried out by others.

Note: A question has been posed about the third untruth of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. The necessity of his statement has been questioned, because the tyrannical king would have apprehended Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام irrespective of whether she was the sister of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام or his wife. In fact, he did apprehend her despite the untruth. Why was it then necessary to say that she was his sister?

Commentators have mentioned that although the king was a tyrant, his religion (D'in) demanded that he does not apprehend anyone's sister. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام expected him to adhere to his religion (D'in) in this regard. However, the king was unable to resist the temptation of molesting her when he saw her stunning beauty.

When the king attempted to molest her, she made the following supplication (du'ā), "O Allāh! You know that I have believed in You and in Your Holy Prophet. I have also guarded my chastity, so do not, allow this disbeliever to overpower me." ["Fat'hul Bārī"]

The ignorant king would not admit that he was wrong in his ways, but rather chose to call Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام as devil. However, he did realise that she was a pious woman, because of which he gave the maidservant, Hājar as a gift. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام later married Sayyidah Hājar عليها السلام and Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام was born from her. The mother and son were later taken to Makkah.

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام endured many trials and adversities for Allāh's religion (D'in), because of which Allāh declares in Surah Nisā, "Allāh chose Ibrahim for a friend." Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام became known as the father of all the Prophets عليهم السلام.

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام built the Ka'ba with Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام, after which he prayed for the people of Makkah saying, "O our Lord! Send among them a messenger from their midst who will recite Your verses to them, teach them the Book and wisdom, and purify them. Without doubt, You are the Mighty, the Wise." Allāh accepted this supplication (du'ā) with the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from his progeny via Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام. Even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was instructed to adhere to the creed of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام.

وَبَجَّيْنَاهُ وَلُوطًا إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الَّتِي بَارَكْنَا فِيهَا لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ نَافِلَةً ۖ وَكُلًّا جَعَلْنَا صَالِحِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَيْمَةً يَهْدُونَ بِأَمْرِنَا وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْهِمْ فِعْلَ الْخَيْرَاتِ وَإِقَامَ الصَّلَاةِ وَإِيتَاءَ الزَّكَاةِ وَكَانُوا لَنَا عَبِيدَ ﴿٧٣﴾

(71) We rescued Ibrahim and Lūt to a land that We had blessed for all in the universe. (72) We gifted Ibrahim with Is'hāq and a grandson, Ya'qūb. We made all of them righteous. (73) We made them leaders who guided by Our orders, and We commanded them to perform good deeds, to establish Salāh, and to pay Zakāh. They were all Our worshippers.

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM AND LŪT عَلَيْهِمَا السَّلَام Migrate to a BLESSED LAND

The above verse makes mention of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام, who was the son of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام's paternal uncle. They both left their homeland and migrated to Palestine, which Allāh refers to as "a land that We had blessed for all in the universe."

Allāh says that thereafter "We gifted Ibrāhīm with (a son by the name of) Is'hāq and a grandson, Ya'qūb." Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام was the son of Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام.

"We made all of them righteous." They were all adherents of Allāh's commands and abstained from everything that He prohibited.

Allāh says further, "We made them leaders who guided (others) by Our orders, and We commanded them to perform good deeds, to establish Salāh and to pay Zakāh. They were all Our worshippers."

وَلَوْ طَآءَنَيْنَهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا وَبَجَيْنَهُ مِنَ الْقَرْيَةِ الَّتِي كَانَتْ تَعْمَلُ الْفَحْشَىٰ
إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمَ سَوِءٍ فَسِيقِينَ ۖ وَأَدْخَلْنَاهُ فِي رَحْمَتِنَا ۖ إِنَّهُمْ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ

(74) We granted Lūt wisdom and knowledge, and We rescued him from a town that used to perpetrate despicable acts. They were certainly evil and lecherous people. (75) And We admitted him into Our mercy. He was indeed from among the righteous.

ALLĀH BESTOWS HIS GRACE UPON SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام BY RESCUING HIM FROM A SINFUL NATION AND SHOWERING HIS MERCY UPON HIM

Allāh says that He "granted Lūt wisdom and knowledge..." After he migrated with Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, Allāh made him also a Holy Prophet عليه السلام and sent him to preach to certain towns near Jordan. The people of these towns engaged in numerous depraved actions, one of them being deriving sexual gratification from men and boys (sodomy). This vile deed dwarfed all other sins, causing the people to indulge in all other sins as well.

Despite all his efforts, the people refused to desist from their atrocities. Eventually Allāh punished these people by overturning their towns and raining stones on them. Allāh saved Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and the believers (Mu'minīn) (his family) from this punishment. Referring to this, Allāh says, "We rescued him from a town that used to perpetrate despicable acts. They were certainly evil and lecherous people."

This entire incident has been discussed in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 80-84] and Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 77-83].

Allāh says further, "And We admitted him into (the ranks of those pious bondsmen upon whom We showered) Our mercy. He was indeed from among the righteous." The rank of the "Sālihīn" (the righteous) is indeed extremely high, the highest echelon of which is occupied by the Prophets عليهم السلام because of their innocence.

وَنُوحًا إِذْ نَادَىٰ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ فَجَعَلْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ مِنَ الْكَرْبِ
 الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَنَصَرْنَاهُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمَ سَوْءٍ
 فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾

(76) And remember Nūh. When he called from before and We responded to him. So We rescued him and his family from tremendous distress. (77) And We granted him salvation from a nation who denied Our verses. They were indeed an evil nation, so We drowned all of them.

THE SUPPLICATION (DU'Ā) OF SAYYIDINA NŪH عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND ALLĀH'S SUBSEQUENT HELP

After preaching to his nation for an extensive period of 950 years, only a few people accepted the message of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Finally, he submitted to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Do not leave a single disbeliever alive on earth."

Allāh accepted this supplication (du'ā) of his and sent torrential rains and waters from the earth itself. As a result, all the disbelievers were drowned, while the believers were rescued on the ark that Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had built. All the members of his family were also rescued, except his wife and one son.

Allāh says in Surah Nūh, "On account of their sins, they were drowned and entered into the Fire." A detailed account of this incident has passed in Surah A'raf [Surah 7, verses 59-64] and Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 25-49].

Allāh says, "So We rescued him and his family from tremendous distress." This refers to being rescued from the floods and from the persecution of his nation.

وَدَاوُدَ وَسُلَيْمَانَ إِذْ يَحْكُمَانِ فِي الْحَرْثِ إِذْ نَفَشَتْ فِيهِ غَنَمُ الْقَوْمِ وَكُنَّا
 لِحُكْمِهِمْ شَاهِدِينَ ﴿٧٨﴾ فَفَهَّمْنَاهَا سُلَيْمَانَ وَكُلًّا آتَيْنَا حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا وَسَخَرْنَا
 مَعَ دَاوُدَ الْجِبَالَ يُسَبِّحْنَ وَالطَّيْرَ وَكُنَّا فَاعِلِينَ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَعَلَّمْنَاهُ صَنْعَةَ لَبُوسٍ
 لَكُمْ لِنُخَصِّنَكُمْ مِنَ بَأْسِكُمْ فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ شَاكِرُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَسَلَيْمَانَ الرِّيحَ عَاصِفَةً
 تَجْرِي بِأَمْرِهِ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الَّتِي بَرَكْنَا فِيهَا وَكُنَّا بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَالِمِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَمِنَ
 الشَّيَاطِينِ مَنْ يَغُوصُونَ لَهُ وَيَعْمَلُونَ عَمَلًا دُونَ ذَلِكَ وَكُنَّا لَهُمْ
 حَافِظِينَ ﴿٨٢﴾

(78) Remember Dawūd and Sulaymān, when they arbitrated about a crop that was trampled by the goats of a people. We were Witnesses to their decision. (79) We explained the decision to Sulaymān and granted wisdom and knowledge to both of them. We subjugated the mountains and birds to Dawūd's service and they all engaged in Allāh's glorification. We are the ones Who can do. (80) We taught Dawūd the skill of making armour, so that it protects you in your wars. Will you be grateful? (81) And We Subjugated the swift wind for Sulaymān. By his command, it carried him to the land that We had blessed. We have knowledge of all things. (82) There were some Satan (Shayātīn) who used to dive for him and do other work for him. We are their Protectors.

ALLĀH'S BOUNTIES ON SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عليه السلام AND ON HIS SON, SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عليه السلام

"Remember Dawūd and Sulaymān, when they arbitrated about a crop that was trampled by the goats of a people. We were Witnesses to their decision." This verse refers to an incident that occurred during the reign of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام. A farmer brought a person to the court of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, claiming that the person's goats had escaped from their enclosure at night and ravaged his (the farmer's) crops.

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام ruled that all the goats should be given to the farmer as compensation. When the two left Sayyidina Dawūd's court, they met Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. When he asked them what the judgement of his father was, they informed him about it. Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام told them, "If I had passed judgement, it would have been beneficial to both parties."

He then went to his father and repeated the same statement. Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام asked him what he had in mind. Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام said that the goats be put in the custody of the farmer so that he may use the milk and wool. In the meantime, the other person should be given the farm and work the land until the crops grow to the condition that they were when the goats destroyed them. Thereafter, the goats were to be returned to the original owner.

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was pleased with this decision and called the two back, instructing them likewise. Allāh refers to this decision when He says, "We explained the decision to Sulaymān and granted wisdom and knowledge to both of them." The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that this verse indicates that the original decision of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was also correct. He decreed that the goats be given to the farmer because the value of the goats equalled the value of the crops. This conformed with the law and both parties were constrained to abide.

However, this decision was detrimental to the owner of the goats because he stood to lose everything. On the other hand, the ruling of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام was beneficial to both, but required the consent of both parties. Once they both agreed, it was duly enforced.

This shows that the second decision did not indicate that the first was wrong. It is for this reason that Allāh said that He "granted wisdom and knowledge to both of them." At the end, it should be borne in mind that this was an affair between father and son.

THE RULING OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

It has been reported that a camel belonging to Sayyidina Barā bin Āzib رضى

اللّٰه عنه once wandered into the orchard of some people, and caused much damage. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ruled that the owner of the camel was not responsible for the damage because it was the duty of the owners of the orchard to ensure that their orchard was secure during the daytime.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added that the owners of animals should ensure that their animals are secured at night. They would be responsible for any damage caused by their animals if their animals caused damage during the night. [Abu Dawūd]

The different rulings of the jurists can be referred to in the books of jurisprudence.

ANOTHER STORY ABOUT SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عليه السلام

Bukhari (p. 487) reports that two women had an infant son each. It transpired that a wolf attacked and fled with one of their sons. Each one of them then claimed that the living child was theirs. When the case was brought before Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, he, after much deliberation, awarded the child to the elder woman.

As the two were returning from his court, they chanced upon Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام, and related the entire incident to him. Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام told someone, "Bring me a knife. I shall cut the child in half and give each woman one half." The younger lady submitted, "May Allāh have mercy on you! It is her child." At this, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام handed the child over to the younger lady because her concern for the child was greater. This proved that the child was really hers. If it belonged to the elder woman, she would not have remained silent.

Both decisions (regarding the goats and the one about the two women) were not inspired by revelation from Allāh, but the respective Prophets عليهم السلام gave their verdicts based upon their personal knowledge.

THE KINGDOM OF SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عليه السلام AND HIS CONTROL OVER THE MOUNTAINS AND BIRDS

Allāh conferred upon Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام the divine scripture called the Zabūr. After recounting one of his decisions in Surah Sād, Allāh said to him, "O Dawūd! Indeed, We have made you a deputy on earth, so judge between people with the truth, and do not follow carnal passions, which will mislead you from Allāh's path." [Surah 38, verse 26]

Allāh says in Surah Naml, "Indeed We granted knowledge to Dawūd and Sulaymān. They both said, 'All praise is due to Allāh Who has preferred us above many of His believing bondsmen.'" Sulaymān succeeded Dawūd and he said, "Oh people! We have been taught the speech of the birds and have been granted everything. This is certainly a manifest bounty." [Surah 27, verses 15, 16]

In the verse under discussion (verse 79 of Surah Anbiya) Allāh says about Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, "We subjugated the mountains and birds to Dawūd's service and they all engaged in Allāh's glorification. We are the ones Who can do." All these creation engaged in glorification (Tasbīh) with Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام.

Allāh says in Surah Saba, "Verily, We granted Dawūd a great bounty from Us. 'Oh mountains! Repeat (the Tasbih) with Dawūd.' And the birds were also given the command. We also made iron soft for him." [Surah 34, verse 10]

Says Allāh in Surah Sād, "Be patient with all they say and remember Our slave Dawūd, the strong. He was certainly penitent. Verily, We subjugated the mountains with him, who would glorify Allāh by evening and at daybreak. We also subjugated the birds, who all gathered together. They were all penitent towards Allāh. We strengthened his kingdom and granted him wisdom and decisive speech." [Surah 38, verses 17-20]

The Ahadīth report that Allāh had granted Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام a beautiful voice. One can well imagine the magnificent scene of him reciting the Zabūr with the chorus of the birds and mountains.

We have already explained how the seemingly inanimate creations of Allāh engage in remembrance (Dhikr). This was mentioned in the commentary of verse 74 of Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, 'indeed there are some of them (the rocks) that fall out of the fear for Allāh.' However, we humans cannot understand how they make remembrance (Dhikr).

THE SKILL OF MAKING ARMOUR

People in former times used coats of armour, shields and helmets to protect themselves in battle. Allāh mentions another favour upon Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, when He says, "We taught Dawūd the skill of making armour, so that it protects you in your wars. Will you be grateful?"

Allāh says in Surah Saba, "We also made iron soft for him (for Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, and We instructed him) 'Make coats of armour, perfect the links and you all should do good deeds. I am certainly watching whatever you do.'" [Surah 38, verse 11]

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام used to mould the links of the armour by hand and then piece them together to complete the coat of armour.

Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله has reported that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام used to make one coat of armour daily, which he used to sell for six thousand dirhams. He would then spend two thousand on the needs of his family, and the remaining four thousand would be used to feed the Bani Isrā'īl with bread made of fine white flour. [v. 3 p. 547]

The incident of the two decisions of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام and Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام illustrates that a judge can retract his decision if another is found to be more suitable. However, this will apply only when his decision was not based on an explicit law of the Qur'ān or Ahadīth. It will apply when a judge bases his decision on a personal opinion in the absence of any explicit law from the Qur'ān and Ahadīth. Of course, when a law is categorically stated in the Qur'ān or the Ahadīth, it will be Unlawful (Harām) for the judge to use his personal reasoning.

Imām Dāraqutni رحمه الله has recorded the following letter of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, in which the principles of court judgements are outlined. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه wrote, "It should be noted that passing judgement between people is an essential responsibility and should always be adopted. So if anyone comes to you with a case, then pass judgement in favour of the truth because the truth cannot be of any use if it is not enforced. Be just between people with regard to whom you admit to your gatherings, to whom you pay attention, and in your judgements This should be done so that no high ranking person may feel that you would oppress another because of him, and so that no low ranking person should think that you would oppress him."

He continues to write, "Presenting a witness is the duty of the plaintiff, while the defendant will be required to swear on oath (in the absence of a witness). While it is permissible to reconcile between people, reconciliation cannot be adopted when it means permitting something that is Unlawful (Harām) or forbidding something that is permissible (Halāl). If you learn of the correct ruling after already passing one, let not your original ruling prevent you from enforcing the truth (the second ruling), because the truth is the real thing and error cannot alter it. It is better to take recourse to the truth than to be obstinate about error.

"Exert yourself to unravel whatever creates doubts in your heart. If you do not find any explicit guidance in the Qur'ān and the Ahdith, then try to understand similar situations and examples. Then base your decisions upon an assimilation and comparative study of the two situations. Then you should pass judgement according to that which Allāh would be pleased with, and which seems most correct in your estimation."

"Grant the plaintiff grace to produce his evidence. When he does, then pass judgement accordingly, otherwise pass judgement against him. This period of grace will prove to be beneficial in unravelling the truth and bringing the criminal to justice."

"All Muslims are reliable and may offer testimony for each other. The only exceptions are those who have been previously lashed for slander, those whom you have previously found to be liars, and those who have been found guilty of nepotism in a previous testimony. The testimony of these people should never be accepted. Allāh knows the secrets of the hearts and peoples' intentions. Witnesses terminate disputes."

"Do not be agitated when people bring their disputes to you and do not let it distress you. Do not sit in isolation with those who have brought their disputes to you. Judge between them with equity and Allāh will reward you for it. Speak favourably of people solely for Allāh's pleasure. Allāh will solve all those problems that may arise because of your association with people. Allāh will expose the faults of those who pretend to look good, but are really not so."

THE WINDS WERE AT THE SERVICE OF SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN

عليه السلام

"And We subjugated the swift wind for Sulaymān. By his command, it carried him to the land that We had blessed. We have knowledge of all things."

A verse of Surah Sād says that Sayyidina Sulaymān prayed, "O my Lord! Forgive me and grant me a kingdom that cannot be had by any other after me. Undoubtedly, You are the Great Giver." Allāh continues, "So We subjugated the wind for him, which would blow gently by his command wherever he wished to go. (We also subjugated) the Shayātīn for him, who were builders and divers. Besides these [Satan (Shayātīn)] there were others who were shackled in chains. 'This is Our gift, so spend or withhold without any accountability.' Undoubtedly, he has a close position to Us, and a favourable return." [Surah 38, verses 35-40]

Allāh accepted the supplication (du'ā) made by Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام above. He was therefore given control over the Jinn and the winds. In a short while, the winds carried him and his army (consisting of humans, Jinn and birds) wherever they needed to go. Sometimes, according to the need, the wind carried him speedily, as mentioned in the above verse of Surah Anbiya where Allāh say that it was a "swift wind". When Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام desired, it would also carry him gently, as mentioned in the above verse of Surah Sād where Allāh says that the wind "would blow gently by his command". Allāh says in verse 12 of Surah Saba (Surah 34) that, in a single morning or in a single evening, the wind would carry them a distance that would normally take a month to travel.

Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام also had control over the Jinn, who would carry out various tasks for him. He would also punish them for any misdeeds and bind them in chains, from which they could not escape. Allāh says, "There were some Shayātīn who used to dive for him and do other work for him." The divers from them used to find various gems and jewels from the sea, bringing them back to Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام.

Allāh says in Surah Saba, "As he pleased, they would construct for him huge buildings, statues, dishes the size of dams and large pots which could not be moved from their place." [Surah 34, verse 13]

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم CAPTURES A JINN

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that a Jinn once attempted to disrupt the Salāh of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh granted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the ability to capture this Jinn. The following morning, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم that he wanted to tie this Jinn to one of the Masjid pillars so that they could see it. However, he recalled the supplication (du'ā) of his brother Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام when he prayed, "O my Lord! Forgive me and grant me such a kingdom that will not be granted to anyone after me. Verily You are the Bestower." Therefore, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم released him and Allāh sent him back disgraced. [Bukhari and Muslim]

According to a narration of Sayyidina Abu Darda رضى الله عنه, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh's enemy, Iblīs, came to throw a flame at my face. I thrice repeated, 'I seek protection with Allāh from you!' and 'I curse you with the full curse of Allāh!'" However, he was still not deterred. I then wanted to grab hold of him. By Allāh! If it were not for the prayer of my brother Sulaymān, I would have tied him up and kept him until the morning so that the children of Madinah could play with him." [Muslim v. 1 p. 205]

REMINDING SNAKES OF THE PLEDGE THAT THEY MADE WITH SAYYIDINA NŪH AND SULAYMĀM عليهما السلام

Tirmidhi reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you see a snake in your home, then say to it, 'We remind you of the pledge that you took with Nūh and Sulaymān, the son of Dawūd عليه السلام, that you will not harm us.' If the snake reappears thereafter, then kill it." Since Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام had control of the Jinn and birds, it is obvious that he also exercised control over all the other animals and reptiles as well.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that mention was once made of certain words that were reputed to cure the effects of poison. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم to recite these for him. When it was recited to him, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that there was no harm in saying them. These were the words that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام derived from the poisonous creatures themselves. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 327]

﴿٨٣﴾ وَإِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ أَفَىٰ مَسْنَىٰ الضُّرِّ وَأَنْتَ أَرْحَمُ الرَّاحِمِينَ
فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ فَكَشَفْنَا مَا بِهِ مِنْ ضُرٍّ وَآتَيْنَاهُ أَهْلَهُ وَمِثْلَهُمْ مَعَهُمْ رَحْمَةً
مِّنْ عِنْدِنَا وَذِكْرَىٰ لِلْعَابِدِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾

(83) And remember when Ayyūb supplicated to his Lord saying, "Difficulty has certainly afflicted me and You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

(84) So We answered his call and alleviated the difficulty that beset him. We then granted him his family and the like thereof in addition as a special mercy from Us and as a remembrance for the worshippers.

THE DIFFICULTY OF SAYYIDINA AYYŪB عليه السلام

The above verses, as well as verses 41 to 44 of Surah Sād (Surah 34), make mention of the severe illness that befell Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام. However, no verse mentions exactly what disease affected him and for what period he suffered. These facts are not even mentioned in any Ahadith from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, it is established that he suffered more than the average Prophet عليه السلام and that he lost all his children in the process.

All the narrations that have been mentioned about him find their source from the Bani Isrā'il. The above verses make it clear that he prayed to Allāh for relief from his difficulty and Allāh accepted this supplication (du'ā) by granting him a cure from his illness. This was intended as a "remembrance for the worshippers"

"We then granted him his family and the like thereof in addition as a special mercy from Us..." Commentators have mentioned that this could mean that Allāh returned his lost family and children to him, or that Allāh granted him a new family after the first had died. The numbers of his family were doubled afterwards.

The details of this incident will be mentioned in Surah Sād. However, it should be borne in mind that the narrations stating that Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام had to lie in the dumps for a long period does not seem authentic because it contradicts the high standards of purity and cleanliness that the Prophets عليهم السلام maintained.

The narrations stating that worms fell off from his body also does not seem correct because this would cause people to shun him, thereby hindering propagation.

وَيَسْمِعِيلَ وَإِدْرِيسَ وَذَا الْكِفْلِ كُلٌّ مِنَ الصَّابِرِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَأَدْخَلْنَاهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِنَا إِنَّهُمْ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾

(85) And remember Isma'īl, Idrīs and Dhul Kifl. They were all from the patient ones. (86) We admitted them all into Our mercy. They were indeed for the righteous.

SAYYIDINA ISMA'ĪL IDRĪS AND DHUL KIFL عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام

Allāh says that all three of these Prophets عليهم السَّلَام were from the "patient ones." Mention has already been made of Sayyidina Isma'īl and Idrīs عليهم السَّلَام in Surah Maryam. However, Sayyidina Dhul Kifl عليه السَّلَام has been mentioned here for the first time in the Qur'ān. Mention of him will also follow in Surah Sād, where Allāh says, "Call to mind Isma'īl, Yasa and Dhul Kifl. They were all from the very best." [Surah 34, verse 48]

Since the Ahadīth do not make clear mention of Sayyidina Dhul Kifl عليه السَّلَام, there exists some differences of opinion about his personality.

WHO WAS SAYYIDINA DHUL KIFL عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام?

The following narrations have been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه. However, they also seem to stem from Isrā'iliyāt (narrations of the Bani Isrā'il).

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that the Prophet عليه السَّلَام once gathered his people together and asked them who would assume the role of judge among them. However, he stipulated that the person should never become angry at any time. A youth accepted the post, but the Prophet عليه السَّلَام repeated the question thrice. When the youth accepted the post all three times, the task was handed over to him.

Thereafter, it once occurred that Satan (Shaytān) awakened the judge while he was asleep and told him that another person had oppressed him. He grabbed hold of the judge's hand and led him away. As they were walking, Satan (Shaytān) released his hand and ran away. Despite being deceived after being rudely awakened from his sleep, the judge did not become angry and remained true to his post as judge. As a result, he was titled "Dhul Kifl" (i.e. "The one who upholds his responsibility").

"Durrul Manthūr" has also reported from Sayyidina Abu Mūsā Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that Sayyidina Dhul Kifl was not a Prophet, but a pious person from the Bani Isrā'il. He was given the title of "Dhul Kifl" because he undertook to fulfil the responsibility of worshipping Allāh day and night to succeed another person from the Bani Isrā'il who had been doing so.

Tirmidhi has reported a hadith in which it is reported that Dhul Kifl عليه السلام was a person from the Bani Isrā'il who could never abstain from sin. He once contracted a deal with a woman to commit adultery, and paid her sixty gold coins. When they were about to perpetrate the act, she began to weep. He asked, "Why are you crying? I never forced you into this." She admitted that she was not forced, but said that this was the first time that she was doing such a thing, and that necessity had forced her to do so.

He then allowed her to leave and let her have the sixty gold coins. He then repented and took an oath never to sin again. He happened to pass away the same night. The next morning, the inscription was found emblazoned on his door, "Allāh has verily forgiven Kifl."

It is possible that this person was another Dhul Kifl. If he were the same person mentioned in the Qur'ān, then it will have to be believed that he was not the Holy Prophet, because the Prophets عليهم السلام never committed any major sins before proclaiming Prophethood. It should also be noted that the hadith merely mentions the name Kifl and not Dhul Kifl. Commentators have merely quoted this hadith because of the similarity of names.

وَذَا النُّونِ إِذْ ذَهَبَ مُغَاضِبًا فَظَنَّ أَنْ لَنْ نَقْدِرَ عَلَيْهِ فَنَادَى فِي الظُّلُمَاتِ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ إِنِّي كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾ فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ وَبَجَيْنَاهُ مِنَ الْغَمِّ وَكَذَلِكَ نُخْرِجُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾

(87) Remember the person of the fish. When he left in anger and thought that We would not straiten things for him, so he supplicated in the darkness saying, "There is no deity besides You. You are Pure. I have certainly been from among the oppressors." (88) So We responded to his call and rescued him from distress. Thus do We reward the believers.

THE INCIDENT OF SAYYIDINA YUNUS عليه السلام WHEN HE WAS SWALLOWED BY A FISH AND THEN RESCUED BY ALLĀH

The details of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام were given in Surah Yunus and will also be mentioned in Surah Sāffāt and Surah Nūn.

Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام was sent as a messenger to the town of Nineveh. After preaching to them for a long time, they refused to accept. Eventually, he warned them that they would be afflicted with punishment after three days. However, the people opted to repent to Allāh and believe after witnessing the signs of punishment. Allāh says in verse 98 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10), "When they believed, We averted from them a punishment of disgrace in this worldly life and We granted them enjoyment for a while."

In the meantime, however, Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام has already left the town. He left for the coast and boarded a ship. When the ship was in danger of sinking because of poor weather, the sailors exclaimed that there was slave on board who had fled from his master. When they thrice drew lots to determine who the person was, the name of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام emerged each time. Consequently, he cast himself overboard to avert disaster to the ship.

He was swallowed by a large fish and remained alive in its stomach. There he engaged himself in Allāh's remembrance and recited the supplication (du'ā), "Lā Ilāha Illā Anta Subhānaka Inni Kuntu Minaz Zālimīn" (translated above as "There is no deity besides You. You are Pure. I have certainly been from among the oppressors.").

Allāh says in Surah Sāffat, "If he were not from those who glorify Allāh he would have remained in its belly until the day people are resurrected." [Surah 37, verses 143, 144]

Allāh says in Surah Nūn Wal Qalam, "So patiently await the command of your Lord and do not be like the person of the fish. He cried out while containing his grief. If the grace from his Lord had not reached him, he would have been thrown onto land in a contemptible condition. However, his Lord chose him and made him from the righteous." [Surah 68, verses 48-50]

The Qur'ān does not say that Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام committed any sin. He merely did not await Allāh's command to leave the place. However, ignorant commentators are still angry with him, even though Allāh has declared His forgiveness and pleasure for him. Allāh admonished him for his error just like how Allāh admonished the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he accepted ransom from the prisoners of Badr instead of executing them.

It is incorrect for people to say anything against the Prophets عليهم السلام. One is allowed only to quote what the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth have mentioned about them. This discussion has been mentioned in the commentary of verse 115 of Surah TāHā (Surah 20), under the discussion of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام.

Note: The supplication (du'ā) of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام includes the expression of Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) ("There is no deity besides You."), glorification of Allāh ("You are Pure."), and admission to sin ("I have certainly been from among the oppressors."). This shows that Allāh's forgiveness can be attained without actually mentioning the words of repentance and to seek forgiveness (Tauba and Istighfār), when the above approach is adopted.

Sayyidina Sa'd رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, that the supplication (du'ā) of a Muslim will be accepted if he includes the supplication (du'ā) of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام in his own supplication (du'ā), i.e. if he recites, "Lā Ilāha Illā Anta Subhānaka Inni Kuntu Minaz Zālimīn."

"Durrul Manthūr" has reported from Sayyidina Sa'd bin Abi Waqās رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Should I not inform you of Allāh's name? It is in "Lā Ilāha Illā Anta Subhānaka Inni Kuntu Minaz Zālimīn." The person who recites this forty times during his illness (du'ā) will die as a martyr if he passes away during the same illness. If he recovers, he will recover with all his sins being forgiven."

وَرَكْرَكِيَّا إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْنِي فَرْدًا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْوَارِثِينَ ﴿٨٩﴾
 فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ يَحْيَىٰ وَأَصْلَحْنَا لَهُ زَوْجَهُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا
 يُسْرِعُونَ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ وَيَدْعُونَنَا رَغَبًا وَرَهَبًا وَكَانُوا لَنَا خَشِيعِينَ
 ﴿٩٠﴾ وَالَّتِي أَحْصَيْنَا فَرْجَهَا فَنَفَخْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ رُوحِنَا وَجَعَلْنَاهَا وَابْنَهَا
 ءَايَةً لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٩١﴾

(89) And remember when Zakariyya supplicated, "O my Lord! Do not leave me childless, for You are the Best of Successors." (90) So We responded to his plea, gifted him with Yahya and allowed his wife to bear children. Verily, they would hasten to perform good deeds and supplicated to Us in anticipation and fear. They were humble before Us. (91) And remember the woman who preserved her chastity, so We blew Our soul within her and made her and her son a sign for the universe.

SAYYIDINA ZAKARIYYA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام PRAYS FOR A SON IN OLD AGE, AND IS GRANTED HIS REQUEST

Sayyidina Zakariyya عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was childless and he feared that there would be none after him to continue the task of propagation. He was extremely old then and his wife was barren. Therefore, he made supplication (du'ā) to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Do not leave me childless, for You are the Best of Successors,"

When Sayyidina Zakariyya عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was informed that he was soon to beget a son, he expressed surprise and said, "O my Lord! How will I have a son when my wife is barren and I have reached the pinnacle of old age?" The reply was, "So it shall be. Your Lord declares, 'It will be easy for Me. Indeed I have created you before whereas you were nothing.'" [Surah Maryam (19), verses 8, 9]

This episode has passed in Surah Āl Imrān [Surah 3, verses 38-41] and the beginning of Surah Maryam [Surah 19, verses 1-15].

THREE NOTABLE TRAITS OF THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام

Allāh then describes the attributes of all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام who have been mentioned in the Surah. Allāh says, (1) "Verily, they would hasten to perform good deeds and (2) supplicated to Us in anticipation and fear. (3) They were humble before Us." These qualities should be cultivated by every believer (Mu'min).

About the first, Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Hasten to the forgiveness of your Lord and that Jannah (paradise) which has the expanse of the heavens and the earth, which has been prepared for the pious." [Surah 3, verse 133]

The second trait teaches us that a person should always be positive that Allāh will accept his supplications (du'ā's). At the same time, he should also be fearful of Allāh when thinking of his sins. He should be apprehensive that his supplication (du'ā) may not be accepted on account of his sins and the negligence in the etiquette of supplication (du'ā).

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that supplication (du'ā) should be made when a person is fearful and also when he is not.

The third quality of being humble means that their hearts submit to the greatness of Allāh, because of which they do not display any pride. Allāh says that they are humble "before Us." This denotes that the greatness of Allāh remains imbued within their hearts, whether they are engaged in Salāh or not. Therefore, they always carry out the deeds that Allāh instructs them to do and refrain from what Allāh forbids them.

SAYYIDAH MARYAM AND SAYYIDINA ISĀ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

"And remember the woman who preserved her chastity..." This verse refers to Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام, who neither married, nor allowed any man to commit any sin with her. Allāh decreed that she should bear Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, so he "blew Our soul within her..."

Consequently, she bore Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, whom Allāh made a Prophet, gave him the Injil and sent him to preach to the Bani Isrā'īl. His story has been mentioned in many Surahs of the Qur'ān.

Allāh then says that He "made her and her son a sign for the universe." Allāh intended to demonstrate to people that He possessed the awesome power to create a child without a father, just as He created Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام without parents.

Allāh has declared that Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام was chaste. This was not declared in favour of any other woman. Therefore, another unmarried woman will be punished if she claims that she conceived without committing fornication.

إِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَأَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُونِ وَتَقَطَّعُوا أَمْرَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ كُلُّ إِلَيْنَا رَاجِعُونَ

(92) This is indeed your religion (Dīn), that is the one and only way. I am your Lord, so worship Me. (93) They caused divisions in their affairs. Each of them shall return to Us.

THE RELIGION (DĪN) OF ALL THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام WAS THE SAME

All the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام preached the same messages of Oneness of Allāh (Tawhīd), the Prophethood and Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ reports that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said, "I am the closest to Isā, the son of Maryam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام in this world and in the Hereafter. All the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام are brothers, just like how people share the same father and have different mothers. The religion (Dīn) of all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام is the same, and there were no Prophets between Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and myself." [Mishkāt p. 509]

The religions (Dīn's) of all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام were principally the same. They differed only slightly in aspects that pertained to the finer aspects of practice. The Prophets عليهم السلام impressed upon every person to accept that Allāh is their Creator, Sustainer and Master. Therefore, Allāh says, "I am your Lord, so worship Me."

"They caused divisions in their affairs." Instead of remaining united upon their religions (Dīn's), people fell into disputes: They fabricated false beliefs and split into various denominations. After the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, only those who adhered to his religion (Dīn) will be considered to be on the right path. The rest are all disbelievers and destined for the fire of Hell.

"Each of them shall return to Us." All the various groups and denominations of the Religion's (Dīn's) will have to answer before Allāh on the day of Judgement. There they will be justly rewarded or punished.

فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْلَ الصَّالِحَاتِ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَا كُفْرَانَ لِسَعِيدِهِ وَإِنَّا لَهُ
كَاتِبُونَ

(94) Whoever does a good deed as a believer, his effort will not be unappreciated in the least. We are indeed the scribes thereof.

THE GOOD DEEDS OF A BELIEVER (MU'MIN) WILL ALWAYS BE APPRECIATED

Allāh says in the above verse that He will definitely reward a believer (Mu'min) for any good deed that he may carry out. In fact, Allāh will multiply the rewards for every deed manifold. The least reward that he will receive shall be tenfold.

"We are indeed the scribes thereof" The angels appointed to record the deeds of man are meticulously engaged in their tasks. These records will be presented on the Day of Judgement. Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "They will find their deeds present and your Lord shall not oppress anyone." [Surah 18, verse 50]

وَحَرَامٌ عَلَىٰ قَرْيَةٍ أَهْلَكْنَاهَا أَنَّهُمْ لَا يَرْجِعُونَ

(95) It is an established fact that the town which We have destroyed shall never return.

DESTROYED TOWNS WILL NEVER REPENT

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه interprets the above verse to mean that the inhabitants of a town which has been destined to be destroyed will die as disbelievers. They will never receive the guidance to repent for their disbeliefs.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has also interpreted the verse to mean that these people shall never return to this world. However, many commentators tend not to accept this interpretation because every person, be he destroyed by Allāh's punishment, or if he dies naturally, shall also never return to this world.

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فُتِحَتْ يَأْجُوجُ وَمَأْجُوجُ وَهُمْ مِّن كُلِّ حَدَبٍ يَنْسِلُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾
 وَاقْتَرَبَ الْوَعْدُ الْحَقُّ فَإِذَا هِيَ شَاخِصَةٌ أَبْصَرُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُنْوِلُنَا قَدْ
 كُنَّا فِي غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ هَذَا بَلْ كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٩٧﴾ إِنَّكُمْ وَمَا تَعْبُدُونَ
 مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ حَصَبُ جَهَنَّمَ أَنتُمْ لَهَا وَارِدُونَ ﴿٩٨﴾ لَوْ كَانَتْ هَتُولَاةَ
 ۞ إِلَٰهَةً مَّا وَرَدُوهَا وَكُلٌّ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾ لَهُمْ فِيهَا زَفِيرٌ وَهُمْ فِيهَا لَا
 يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾

(96) Until the time arrives when Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will be released and they will scurry down every hill. (97) The true promise will be nigh and the eyes of the disbelievers will be fixed above. They will say, "Woe betide us! We were negligent of this. Nay! We were oppressors indeed!" (98) Yourselfes and whatever you worshipped besides Allāh will be the fuel of Hell. You shall surely enter it. (99) If these really were deities, they would not have entered it. They will all remain there forever. (100) They will scream and shout in Hell and will be unable to hear.

THE GOG (YA'JŪJ) AND MAGOG (MA'JŪJ) SHALL BE RELEASED BEFORE JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH), THE DISBELIEVERS WILL LAMENT ON THAT DAY AND ENTER HELL (JAHANNAM) WITH THEIR FALSE GODS

Allāh says that the disbelievers will remain adamantly upon their incorrect beliefs, rejecting the truth "Until the time arrives when Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) will be released and they will scurry down every hill. The true promise will be nigh and the eyes of the disbelievers will be fixed above. They will say, 'Woe betide us! We were negligent of this. Nay! We were oppressors indeed!'"

It will be only then that they will realise the error of their ways. However, it will be too late. They will now lament their previous rejection of the truth. They will now only have themselves to blame. The details of the Gog (Ya'jūj) and Magog (Ma'jūj) was discussed in the commentary of verses 92 to 99 of Surah Kahf (Surah 18).

Allāh will then tell the polytheists, "Yourselfes and whatever you worshipped besides Allāh will be the fuel of Hell. You shall surely enter it." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that the address in this verse is to the polytheists of Makkah. On the Day of Judgement, the polytheists will realise that "If these (gods) really were deities, they would not have entered it (Hell)."

However, "They will all remain there forever (without a chance of escape). They will scream and shout in Hell and will be unable to hear." The polytheists thought that their gods would intercede for them on the Day of Judgement, but will be utterly dejected to find them also burning in Hell,

The idols will not be cast into Hell for punishment, but to teach the polytheists a lesson. Allāh has the power to place something in Hell without causing it to suffer, like the angels who are appointed to punish people in Hell.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ سَبَقَتْ لَهُمْ مِنَّا الْحُسْنَىٰ أُولَٰئِكَ عَنْهَا مُبْعَدُونَ ﴿١٠١﴾ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ حَسِيسَهَا وَهُمْ فِي مَا اشْتَهَتْ أَنفُسُهُمْ خَالِدُونَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ لَا يَحْزَنُهُمُ الْفَزَعُ الْأَكْبَرُ وَتَتَلَقَّاهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ هَذَا يَوْمُكُمْ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ ﴿١٠٣﴾

103

(101) Indeed those for whom We have ordained the best, these shall be kept far from Hell. (102) They will not even hear its whisper. They will abide forever in whatever they desire. (103) The greatest fright shall not distress them and angels will welcome them (saying), "This is your day that you have been promised."

THOSE FOR WHOM THE BEST FORTUNE HAS BEEN RESERVED WILL BE FAR FROM HELL

When the verse "Yourselves and whatever you worshipped besides Allāh will be the fuel of Hell," was revealed, Abdullāh bin Zab'ari (who was not yet a Muslim) said, "Therefore, Isā عليه السلام, Uzair عليه السلام and the angels will all be in Hell because they are worshipped." In reply to this statement, Allāh revealed the verse, "Indeed those for whom We have ordained the best, these shall be kept far from Hell. They will not even hear its whisper. They will abide forever in whatever they desire."

Further describing the good fortune of these people, Allāh says, "The greatest fright shall not distress them and angels will welcome them (saying), 'This is your day that you have been promised.'" The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that "greatest fright" refers to the second time that the trumpet will be blown on the Day of Judgement, after which people will rise from their graves and be ushered to the plains of reckoning.

According to Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه, the "greatest fright" refers to the time when the people of Hell will be condemned to it. Other commentators say that the "greatest fright" refers to the anxiety at the time when death will be slaughtered in the form of a sheep in the Hereafter. There is no contradiction between these various interpretations, since the fortunate people will be saved from all these frightful occasions.

When these people will rise from their graves, the "angels will welcome them (saying), 'This is your day that you have been promised.'" i.e. This is the day when you will receive the bounties promised to you for your Belief (Imān) and good deeds.

يَوْمَ نَطْوِي السَّمَاءَ كَطَيِّ السِّجِلِّ لِلْكُتُبِ ﴿١٠٤﴾ كَمَا بَدَأْنَا أَوَّلَ خَلْقٍ نُعِيدُهُمْ وَعَدًا عَلَيْنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا فَاعِلِينَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ وَلَقَدْ كَتَبْنَا فِي الزَّبُورِ مِن بَعْدِ الذِّكْرِ

أَنَّا الْأَرْضَ يَرِثُهَا عِبَادِيَ الصَّالِحُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ إِنَّ فِي هَذَا لَبَلَاغًا لِّقَوْمٍ
عٰكِدِيْنَ ﴿١٠٦﴾

(104) The day when We will fold the skies like the folding of written scrolls. As We initiated the first creation, We shall return it. This is a binding promise upon Us. We are undoubtedly the Ones Who can do. (105) Without doubt, We have already written in the Zabūr after the reminder that My pious bondsmen shall inherit the land. (106) There is certainly sufficient sense in this for the worshipping people.

THE SKIES WILL BE FOLDED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND EVERYTHING WILL BE RECREATED

The previous verses made mention of Judgment day (Qiyāmah). In the above verses, Allāh tells people how easy it will be for Him to cause Judgment day (Qiyāmah) to take place. About one of the greatest creations, Allāh says, "The day when We will (easily) fold the skies like the folding of written scrolls." There is no contradiction between this verse and others that state that the skies will be rent asunder and become red like dyed wool. This is so because the different occurrences will take place during various stages of the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

In reply to the question as to how will Allāh be able to recreate the creation after they have turned to dust, Allāh says, "As We initiated the first creation, We shall return it." It is normally easier to do something a second time because of the previously gained experience. However, all is the same to Allāh. Yet, the disbelievers refuse to believe in Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

"This is a binding promise upon Us. We are undoubtedly the Ones Who can do." The refutation of the disbelievers will not deter the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

"Without doubt, We have already written in the Zabūr (i.e. in all the previous scriptures) after the reminder [protected tablet (the Lawhul Mahfūz)] that My pious bondsmen shall inherit the land." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and numerous other commentators have mentioned that the "land" (Ardh) refers to Heaven (Jannah). Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "All praise be to Allāh, Who has fulfilled His promise to us, made us inheritors of the Ardh [Heaven (Jannah)], and we may settle wherever we wish in Heaven (Jannah). Excellent indeed is the reward of those who perform good deeds!" [Surah 39, verse 74]

However, even when the "land" is interpreted to refer to the earth, one may not raise the objection to say that the pious have not inherited the entire earth. The verse does not say that the pious will prevail over earth until eternity. They may have ruled at times, but the weakness of the Muslims caused their kingdoms to diminish and fall into the hands of the disbelievers and sinful Muslims.

"There is certainly sufficient sense in this for the worshipping people." There is enough food for thought for people to grow concerned over their situations in the Hereafter. Ka'b Aḥbār رحمه الله عليه says that the "worshipping people" refers to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Sayyidina Ḥaṣan رحمه الله عليه says that the "worshipping people" are those who are particular about their five daily Ṣalāh. Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه says that it refers to those who practise their knowledge. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 341]

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٧﴾

(107) We have sent only you as a mercy to the universe.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم HAS BEEN SENT AS A MERCY TO THE UNIVERSE

The above verse confers the title of "Rahmatul Lil Ālamīn" ("a mercy to the universe") to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه has reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been sent as a gift and mercy to mankind."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned, "Allāh has sent me as a mercy to the universe and has commanded me to destroy musical instruments, idols, the cross and all acts of ignorance."

Before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the entire universe was plunged into the abyss of disbeliefs and polytheism (shirk). However, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spread the light of guidance throughout the world and gave rise to many believers (Mu'minīn), the survival of each of them being fundamental to the existence of the universe. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will never come as long as there is someone saying, "Allāh! Allāh!" (i.e. as long as a single believer (Mu'min) lives). [Muslim v. 1 p. 84]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that all the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, including the fish in the waters, seek forgiveness for the Ālim (the religious scholar). [Mishkāt p. 34]

The reason for this is that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will not come as long as there are people practising the religion (Dīn) according to the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Therefore, every person should make prayer (du'ā) for the students of religion (Dīn).

It is mentioned in a ḥadīth that a mountain calls another by its name and asks whether a person taking Allāh's name had passed on it that day. When the mountain replies in the affirmative, the questioning mountain becomes exuberant. [Hisnul Ḥasīn]

The exuberance of the mountain is explained by the fact that the existence of one such believer (Mu'min) guarantees that these mountains and all other creation will not yet be annihilated by Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Therefore, all this is dependant upon that Belief (Imān) which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم brought to the world.

Another manner in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a mercy to the universe is in that he taught people the ways of drawing Allāh's mercy to themselves in this world and in the Hereafter. Those who did not benefit from his mercy are like blind people who cannot benefit from the light of the sun. The fault lies with them and not with the sun.

The Ummahs of the previous Prophets عليهم السلام were destroyed when they refused to believe. However, the disbelieving Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will not be destroyed in this way in this world. They will suffer the consequences of their deeds in the Hereafter. This is also a manifestation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mercy to the universe.

Muslim reports a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked to curse the disbelievers. He replied, "I have not been sent as one who curses, but as a mercy." [Mishkāt p. 519]

When the people of Ta'if stoned and maimed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he could have allowed the angel in charge of the mountains to crush them. However, he told the angel not to crush them adding, "Perhaps their progeny will accept Islām." [Mishkāt p. 523]

Allāh says in Surah Taubah, "Undoubtedly a messenger from yourselves has come to you. The difficulties that afflict you are very distressing to him. He is anxious for you (he wants the believers (Mu'minīn) to be in good stead in both worlds) and extremely forgiving and merciful unto the believers." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم possessed deep feelings for his Ummah and never wanted to see them in difficulty.

Whenever any of the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم would fall ill, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to visit them, console them and advise them about medicines and cures. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would be affected by the difficulties of the Muslims. He would visit the sick, comfort them and taught the Muslims how to do this as well. He even warned the Muslims against situations that could be harmful for them. For this reason he prohibited people from sleeping on roofs that have no walls surrounding them, so that none may fall off and injure himself. [Mishkāt p. 404]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person sleeps without washing the stickiness (of some food) off his hands, he will have only himself to blame if any harm comes to him." (e.g. some insect bites him). [Mishkāt p. 366]

For purposes of hygiene the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also advised the Muslims that they should not immerse their hands into water after awakening, for they cannot say where their hands have been that night. [Bukhari and Muslim]

He taught people to wear shoes saying that it was like riding a conveyance. Just as people are protected from dangerous creatures and harmful objects by riding, he will be protected when wearing shoes. [Muslim]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also advised the Ummah to always repair the straps of their sandals if one broke and never to walk with only one shoe or sock because this will disrupt his balance when walking. [Muslim]

In this way the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised the Ummah just as affectionate parents advise their children out of immense concern for them.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم, "I am like a father unto you and I teach you. Whenever you relieve yourselves in the toilet, do not face the Qibla, nor face your backs towards it." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also instructed the Ummah to make Istinjā with three stones and not to use dung for this purpose, nor the right hand. [Mishkāt p. 42]

He also advised that a person should see well where he is relieving himself e.g. It should not be a hard place that causes the urine to splash back onto him, nor a place where the wind blows against the direction of the urine. [Mishkāt p. 42]

In a similar manner he advised that a person should not urinate in a hole for fear of it being occupied by a snake or another poisonous creature. [Mishkāt]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My example and yours is like a person who lit a fire. When it began to light all around him, moths began to fall into the fire. He tries to prevent them from flying into the fire, but they overcome him and continue to fall into it. This is my example. I am saving you from falling into the fire of Hell by grabbing hold of your waists. However, you are overcoming me and falling into it."

[Bukhari and Muslim]

Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "It is because of the mercy of Allāh that you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) are lenient with them. If you had been ill tempered and hard-hearted, they would have all dispersed from around you. So pardon them, seek forgiveness for them and consult with them in matters. When you have taken a decision, then place your trust in Allāh. Verily Allāh loves those who place their trust in Him." [Surah 3, verse 159]

Whenever a person shook hands with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he never removed his hand from the grasp of the person until the person did so himself. He would also not turn his face away from the person until the person did so himself.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه says that he never saw anyone more compassionate towards his family than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He also says that he served the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for ten years and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never once harmed him, nor ever rebuked him. He says that whenever any of the household people would scold him, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would say to them, "Leave him. Whatever Allāh decides must happen."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "The person who is not merciful will not have mercy shown to him." [Bukhari and Muslim]

In another hadith, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the Believers (Mu'minīn) are like one body in terms of mutual affection. If any part of the body is ailing, the entire body becomes feverish and uneasy.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the unfortunate person is he whose heart is deprived of mercy. [Mishkāt]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "the Merciful has mercy on those who show mercy. Be merciful to those on earth, and the one in the heavens will show mercy to you."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That person is not from among us who does not show respect to our youngsters, does not respect our elders, does not enjoin good and does not forbid evil." [Mishkāt p. 423]

It is incumbent upon the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to emulate their illustrious the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and behave like that single body in unity. The commentary of verse 128 of Surah Taubah (Surah 9) should also be referred to for more details.

قُلْ إِنَّمَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُكُمُ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ﴿١٠٨﴾
 فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقُلْ ءَاذَنْتُكُمْ عَلَىٰ سَوَاءٍ وَإِنْ أَدْرَىٰ أَقْرَبُ أَمْ بَعِيدُ مَا تُوعَدُونَ
 إِنَّهُ يَعْلَمُ الْجَهْرَ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَكْتُمُونَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ وَإِنْ أَدْرَىٰ
 لَعَلَّهُ فِتْنَةٌ لَّكُمْ وَمَنْعٌ إِلَىٰ حِينٍ ﴿١١٠﴾ قُلْ رَبِّ أَحْكُم بِالْحَقِّ وَرَبُّنَا الرَّحْمَنُ الْمُسْتَعَانُ
 عَلَىٰ مَا تَصِفُونَ ﴿١١١﴾

(108) Say, "It has been revealed to me that your deity is but One Deity. So will you submit to this?" (109) If they turn away, then say, "I have informed you in a clearly distinct manner. I have no idea whether what you have been promised is nearby or still far off" (110) Without doubt, Allāh knows what is spoken loudly and He knows what you hide. (111) I have no idea whether it is a test for you or an enjoyment until a stipulated time. (112) The messenger said, "O my Lord, Judge in truth! Our Lord is the Most Merciful, and the One from Whom assistance is sought against what you people concoct."

ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) AND THE WARNING AGAINST TURNING AWAY FROM IT

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم "Say, 'It has been revealed to me that your deity is but One Deity. So will you submit to this?'" Only Allāh is worthy of worship and "the mercy to the universe," The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has come to invite man towards Allāh's worship only.

However, "If they turn away, then say, 'I have informed you in a clearly distinct manner.'" After the clear pronouncements and proofs expressed in the Qur'an, people have no recourse but to follow.

About the warnings of punishment and Resurrection day (Qiyāmah), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is further instructed to tell the people, "I have no idea whether what you have been promised is nearby or still far off" However, people should never think that these will never occur because of their delay.

"Without doubt, Allāh knows what is spoken loudly and He knows what you hide." The punishment for rejecting the truth will be met irrespective of whether a person declares his rejection or hides it within the inner recesses of his heart.

"I have no idea whether it is a test for you or an enjoyment until a stipulated time."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would not know why Allāh chooses to delay the punishment. It could be to test people, or because the time for their punishment has already been specified. They will therefore be allowed grace to enjoy themselves until then. The more they succumb to the pleasures and enjoyments of this world, the deeper they sink into disbeliefs. Thereafter, they augment the punishment due to them.

"The messenger said, 'O my Lord! Judge in truth!'" This supplication (du'ā) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was accepted when the battle of Badr took place. The result of this battle proved to the disbelievers that Islām was true and that it could withstand the forces of disbeliefs and decisively defeat them.

Allāh mentions on Surah Anfāl, "If you require a decision, then indeed a decision has already come to you." It is for this reason that the battle of Badr is called the day of "Furqān" i.e. when the truth is discerned from falsehood. The polytheists thought that they would annihilate Islām and the Muslims. However, Allāh made it so that the tables were turned against them and they were left as losers.

"Our Lord is the Most Merciful, and the One from Whom assistance is sought against what you people concoct." Allāh therefore showered His mercy upon the Muslim and provided them with the necessary assistance.

سورة الحج

Madinan	Surah Al-Hajj	Verses 78
---------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمُ إِنَّ زَلْزَلَةَ السَّاعَةِ شَيْءٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١﴾
 تَرَوْنَهَا تَذْهَلُ كُلُّ مُرْضِعَةٍ عَمَّا أَرْضَعَتْ وَتَضَعُ كُلُّ ذَاتِ حَمْلٍ
 حَمْلَهَا وَتَرَى النَّاسَ سُكَرَىٰ وَمَا هُمْ بِسُكَرَىٰ وَلَٰكِنَّ عَذَابَ اللَّهِ شَدِيدٌ ﴿٢﴾
 وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَيَتَّبِعُ كُلَّ شَيْطَانٍ مَّرِيدٍ ﴿٣﴾ كُتِبَ
 عَلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ مَن تَوَلَّاهُ فَأَنَّهُ يُضِلُّهُ وَيَهْدِيهِ إِلَىٰ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) O people! Fear your Lord. The earthquake of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is a tremendous thing indeed. (2) The day when you will witness it, every nursing mother will forget her suckling infant and every pregnant woman will abort. And you will see people in a drunken stupor although they will not be drunk, but Allāh's punishment is severe. (3) There are those people who, without knowledge, dispute with you about Allāh and they follow every rebellious Satan (Shaytān). (4) About the Satan (Shaytān), it has been decreed that he will mislead whoever befriends him, and he will lead him to the punishment of the Blaze.

THE TERROR OF THE DAY OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH)

This Surah derives its name from the mention of Hajj in verse 27 of this Surah. In the opening verses, Allāh speaks about the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) so that those people who deem it an impossibility can be convinced about its reality.

Allāh begins by saying, "O people! Fear your Lord." Allāh should be held in awe as the greatness of His Being demands. This means that people should follow the teachings of the Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures. This includes belief in the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah), which is an extremely grave matter.

Describing Judgment day (Qiyāmah), Allāh says, "The earthquake of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is a tremendous thing indeed." The day will be so grave that "every nursing mother will forget her suckling infant and every pregnant woman will abort. And you will see people in a drunken stupor although they will not be drunk, but (they will be terrified because) Allāh's punishment is severe."

Sayyidina Alqama and Sha'bi رحمه الله عليهما say that the "earthquake" referred to in the above verse will occur very close to Judgment day (Qiyāmah). They say this because there is nothing to prove that women will be raised from their graves pregnant and with suckling children. They also maintain that there are Ahadith supporting their opinion of an earthquake close to Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

Other commentators say that the earthquake will take place at the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah), as mentioned in Surah Zilzāl. Allāh says in Surah Wan Nāzi'āt, "The day when the first sound of the trumpet will resound, followed by the second." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that all things will shudder at the sound of the first blowing of the trumpet. [Bukhārī v. 2 p. 965]

Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "When the earth shall convulse with violent earthquakes." [Surah 56, verse 4]

In accepting this opinion, the question will arise about the nursing mothers and pregnant women i.e. where will they be then? The first reply to this question is that the verse presents a hypothetical situation i.e. If they were there, they would have forgotten the suckling infants or aborted. The second reply is that the possibility exists that Allāh will raise them in the same condition in which they died.

Other commentators say that the "earthquake" refers to the condition of the people and not to the shaking of the earth. (In this case it will merely be translated as a "shudder" or "quake." This is not impossible, because the Arabic word for an earthquake ('zilzāl') can also refer to the shaking of people. This form of the word has been used in Surah Ahzāb, where Allāh says, "On that occasion, the believers were put to the test and violently shaken." [Surah 33, verse 11]

This interpretation is supported by a hadith of Bukhari (v. 1 p. 966), reported by Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضي الله عنه. He reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh will instruct Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام to separate those people who are destined for Hell. When he will ask how many they are, Allāh will say that the people of Hell will number 999 from every 1000. Upon hearing this, every youth will turn white and every expectant woman will abort her child. "And you will see people in a drunken stupor although they will not be drunk, but Allāh's punishment is severe."

When the Companions (Sahabah) رضي الله عنهم heard this from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم they asked who will enter Heaven (Jannah) if only one from every thousand will enter. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Accept the glad tidings that a thousand people will be from the Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj and one will be from yourselves. By the Being in whose control lies my life! I have the hope that you will comprise a third of all the inhabitants of Heaven (Jannah)."

The Sahabah رضى الله عنهم then glorified and praised Allāh. Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "By the Being in whose control lies my life! I have the hope that you will comprise half of all the inhabitants of Heaven (Jannah). The sum of all the other Ummahs in comparison to yourselves is like the example of a single white hair on the body of a black bull or like a white patch on the front foot of a black donkey." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 472]

The same two replies can be given here to the previous question regarding the presence of pregnant and nursing mothers, since this question may apply here as well.

"There are those people who, without knowledge, dispute with you about Allāh and they follow every rebellious Satan (Shaytān)." Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه reports that a polytheist once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether Allāh was made of gold or silver. When he persisted in his obstinacy, Allāh caused a lightning bolt to decapitate him. Referring to people who ask such absurd questions, Allāh revealed the above verse.

Basing their ideas on their idols, the polytheists made these ludicrous statements. They were instigated by their friend, Satan (Shaytān), to say these things and blindly responded to his bidding. They fail to realise that "About the Satan (Shaytān), it has been decreed that he will (in this world) mislead whoever befriends him, and he will (in the Hereafter) lead him to the punishment of the Blaze." Such are the terrible consequences of befriending Satan (Shaytān).

يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِي رَيْبٍ مِّنَ الْبَعْثِ فَإِنَّا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ مِّن نُّطْفَةٍ
ثُمَّ مِّنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ مِّنْ مُّضْغَةٍ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ وَغَيْرِ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ لِّنُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ وَنُقَرُّ فِي
الْأَرْحَامِ مَا نَشَاءُ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ نُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوا أَشَدَّكُمْ
وَمِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُّنْفِقُ وَمِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُّرَدُّ إِلَىٰ أَرْدَلِ الْعُمُرِ لِكَيْلَا يَعْلَمَ مِنْ
بَعْدِ عِلْمٍ شَيْئًا وَتَرَى الْأَرْضَ هَامِدَةً فَإِذَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ اهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ
وَأُنْبِتَتْ مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ بَهِيجٍ ﴿٥﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنَّهُ يُخَيِّ الْمَوْتَىٰ وَأَنَّهُ
عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٦﴾ وَأَنَّ السَّاعَةَ آتِيَةٌ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْعَثُ مَنْ فِي
الْقُبُورِ ﴿٧﴾

(5) O people! If you are in doubt regarding resurrection, then (remember) We have certainly created you from sand, then from a drop of semen, then from a clot of blood, then from a lump of flesh, which was shaped or unshaped. (You were created from these) so that We may show you. And, according to Our will, We keep you in wombs until an appointed time. Thereafter, We remove you as children, after which you come of age. There are those of you whose souls We claim, while others reach the age of infirmity so that they know nothing after once possessing knowledge. And you will see the earth barren, then we send rains to it, causing it to stir, flourish and grow every kind of beautiful species. (6) This is all because Allāh is the Truth, because He gives life to the dead, and because He has power over all things... (7) And (all this is because) Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is imminent - without any doubt - and because Allāh will surely raise those who are in their graves.

A REPLY TO THOSE WHO DENY THE COMING OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH) AND THE VARIOUS STAGES IN HUMAN REPRODUCTION

Many people think that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) and resurrection are impossible because they cannot understand how, after decomposing, bodies can be restored to life. Allāh replies to their qualms by explaining to them how they were initially created. Allāh says, "O people! If you are in doubt regarding resurrection, then (remember) We have certainly created you from sand..." The mould of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was cast from sand, after which the soul was instilled in him. Thereafter, Allāh devised a system by which his progeny would grow. The system is presently described by Allāh.

Allāh then says that the human being is initiated 'from a drop of semen... "When the male's sperm mates with the egg of the female, the child is said to have been conceived. Thereafter, this communion becomes "a clot of blood." This clot then develops into "a lump of flesh." This piece of flesh which is initially "unshaped" and has no definite form becomes the foetus of a newborn child. Later, Allāh fashions the various limbs, causing it to be "shaped."

Thereafter, this formed foetus is still kept in the womb of the mother until Allāh decides that it be delivered. Referring to this, Allāh says, "And, according to Our will, We keep you in wombs until an appointed time. Thereafter, We remove you as children, after which you come of age." Even after birth, the child undergoes many changes and stages in life. It first passes the phase of childhood, soon to be followed by maturity, when it begins to understand things. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that this age is between 18 and 30. Others say that it refers to the ages between 30 and 40.

Surah Ghāfir says, 'It is Him Who created you from sand, then from a drop of fluid, then from a clot of blood, after which' Allāh extracted you as a child. Thereafter, (Allāh preserves you) to reach your strength, and then to become old people, the lives of some of you being taken first. However, not everyone attains old age. Allāh says, "There are those of you whose souls We claim (at an early age), while others (after passing old age) reach the age of infirmity so that they know nothing after once possessing knowledge." Everyone witnesses these stages of life. It is only Allāh who allows man to pass from stage to stage, yet people find it difficult to believe that He can resurrect man for the Day of Judgement!

About the interpretation of "shaped or unshaped," certain commentators say that it refers to children who are born and those who are miscarried (respectively). Others say that "unshaped" refers to those children who are deformed.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى

الله عليه وسلم that the foetus remains as a drop of fluid in the womb for forty days. Thereafter, it assumes the form of a clot of blood for another forty days, after which it becomes a lump of flesh for forty days. After this stage, Allāh sends an angel to record the deeds, age and sustenance of the child. The angel also records whether the person will be good or evil. [Bukhari]

After explaining the stages of human development, Allāh speaks of another example. He says, "And you will see the earth barren, then we send rains to it, causing it to stir, flourish and grow every kind of beautiful species." Just as Allāh has the ability to cause the dead land to flourish with vegetation, He is also able to revive dead bodies as well.

Allāh says in Surah HāMīm Sajdah, "From His signs also, is that you see the earth bare. Then, when We send rain upon it, it begins to stir and flourish. Verily, the One Who gave life to it is the One Who gives life to the dead. Indeed, He has power over all things." [Surah 41, verse 39]

Allāh then says the development of man and the revival of the dead earth are "all because Allāh is the Truth, because He gives life to the dead, and because He has power over all things. And (all this is because) Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is imminent without any doubt - and because Allāh will surely raise those who are in their graves."

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَلَا هُدًى وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُّنِيرٍ ﴿٨﴾ ثَانِي
عَظِيمٍ لِيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ لَمَّا فِي الدُّنْيَا خِزْيٌ وَنَذِيقُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَذَابَ الْحَرِيقِ
﴿٩﴾ ذَلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمْتَ يَدَاكَ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَيْسَ بِظَلَمٍ لِلْعَبِيدِ ﴿١٠﴾

(8) There are those people who dispute regarding Allāh without any knowledge, any guidance, and without any book that directs towards light. (9) He is a person who turns and walks away to mislead (others) from Allāh's path. He shall suffer disgrace in this world and we shall make him taste of the punishment of the Blaze on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). (10) This is on account of what your hands have sent forth and Allāh is certainly not oppressive towards His bondsmen.

THE PROUD BEHAVIOUR OF THE REJECTERS AND THEIR PUNISHMENT IN THE HEREAFTER

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the above verses were revealed with reference to Abu Jahl. Other commentators say that it concerned Akhnas bin Sharik, while others are of the opinion that it refers to Nadhr bin Hārith. However, the verse is general in its context and may refer to any disbeliever who objects to the religion (D'in) of Allāh without any relevant knowledge, basing his facts on his personal opinions and views.

Such people consider it an injury to their pride to accept the truth. Because of their pride, they turn around and walk away from the truth. Regarding this type of a person, Allāh says that he "shall suffer disgrace in this world and we shall make him taste of the punishment of the Blaze on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)."

When these people will be cast into Hell, they will be told, "This is on account of what your hands have sent forth and Allāh is certainly not oppressive towards His bondsmen." Allāh will never punish people for what they did not do.

Nadhr bin Hārith and Abu Jahl died at Badr, while the circumstances surrounding the death of Akhnas bin Sharik still remain dubious. They will all be subjected to the tortures of Hell until eternity.

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَعْبُدُ اللَّهَ عَلَى حَرْفٍ فَإِنْ أَصَابَهُ خَيْرٌ اطْمَأَنَّ بِهِ وَإِنْ أَصَابَتْهُ فِتْنَةٌ
 انْقَلَبَ عَلَى وَجْهِهِ خَسِرَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةَ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١١﴾ يَدْعُوا
 مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَضُرُّهُ وَمَا لَا نَفْعَ لَهُ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلَالُ الْبَعِيدُ ﴿١٢﴾
 يَدْعُوا لَمَن ضَرُّهُ أَقْرَبُ مِّن نَّفْعِهِ لَيْسَ الْمَوْلَىٰ وَلَيْسَ الْعَشِيرُ ﴿١٣﴾

(11) Among man is he who worships Allāh like a person on edge. If any good comes to him, he is content with it. However, if any trial overtakes him, his face turns. He is at a loss in this world and in the Hereafter. This is the manifest loss.

(12) He worships besides Allāh that which can neither harm nor benefit him. This is the far deviation. (13) He worships that, the harms of which are nearer at hand than the benefits. A terrible ally and a terrible companion indeed.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THOSE WHO ACCEPT ISLĀM FOR WORLDLY MOTIVES

Bukhari (v. 2 p. 694) reports from Sayyidina Abū Sa'īd bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that soon after some people arrived in Madinah, their wives bore sons and their horses also gave birth. They would then say that the religion (D'īn) of Islām is very good. However, when their wives and animals did not bear children, they would say that Islām was not good. The first of the above verses was revealed concerning these people.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported that Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضى الله عنه transmitted the hadith that a Jew accepted Islām, after which he lost his sight, his wealth and his children. He then came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, requesting that his, pledge of allegiance be revoked because he considered Islām to be unfortunate for him.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "O Jew! Islām melts people with trials just like how a furnace melts iron, gold and silver, removing the alloys and dirt from it. The verse was revealed with regard to this incident. Other commentators say that the verse was revealed about the hypocrites (munāfiqīn).

Whatever the circumstances of revelation, the fact remains that people who accept Islām for ulterior motives do not remain Muslims. In reality these people do not really desire the truth and do not believe in Allāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Hereafter. Regarding such a person, Allāh says, "He is at a loss in this world and in the Hereafter. This is the manifest loss."

Regarding the person who commits polytheism and foolishly seeks assistance from his idols and false gods, Allāh says, "He worships besides Allāh that which can neither harm nor benefit him. This is the far deviation. He worships that the harms of which are nearer at hand than the benefits." Worshipping these false gods will cause a person to suffer in this world as well as in Hell until eternity.

Allāh says regarding their false gods, "A terrible ally and a terrible companion indeed." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that when the polytheists will see that they will be punished in the Hereafter for worshipping these false gods, they will cry out, "Those whom we worshipped were terrible allies and terrible companions!"

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيدُ ﴿١٤﴾ مَنْ كَانَتْ يَظُنُّ أَنَّ لَنْ يَنْصُرَهُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ فَلْيَمْدُدْ بِسَبَبٍ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ ثُمَّ لْيَقْطَعْ فَلْيَنْظُرْ هَلْ يُذْهِبَ كَيْدُهُ مَا يَعِظُ ﴿١٥﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ ءَايَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يُرِيدُ ﴿١٦﴾

(14) Allāh will certainly admit those who believe and perform good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. Verily Allāh does as He pleases. (15) He who thinks that Allāh will never assist his Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this world and in the Hereafter, should extend a rope to the skies and then cut (the process of revelation) to see whether his scheme will remove the cause of his anger. (16) In this way We reveal Our clear verses, and Allāh will definitely guide whom He wills.

ALLĀH HAS REVEALED CLEAR VERSES AND WILL GUIDE WHOEVER HE WILLS

In opposition to the despicable plight of the disbelievers and polytheists mentioned in the previous verses, Allāh now highlights the good fortune of the believers (Mu'minīn). Allāh says, "Allāh will certainly admit those who believe and perform good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. Verily Allāh does as He pleases." Allāh grants the ability to perform good deeds to whoever He wills and none can alter His decisions.

Allāh then speaks of those people who thought that the religion (Dīn) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would last only for a while and would die away once he has left this world. They anticipated that Allāh would never assist the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the religion (D'īn). Allāh says, "He who thinks that Allāh will never assist his Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this world and in the Hereafter, should extend a rope to the skies (and climb to the heavens) and then cut (the process of revelation) to see whether his scheme will remove the cause of his anger."

Allāh proposes this hypothetical situation to explain to the disbelievers that their enmity towards the religion (D'īn) will not cause it to be impeded in any way, let alone stopping it completely. No plot of the disbelievers will stem the tide of Islām. In a similar strain, Allāh has mentioned in Surah Āl Imrān, "Tell them, 'Perish in your rage!'"

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the person who detests that Allāh assists the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should renounce his ambitions. Allāh tells him that he may rather fasten a rope from the roof of his home and use it to hang himself.

Another interpretation of this verse suggests that it refers to the person who believes that Allāh has not been just in his stipulation of sustenance. He believes that Allāh has not given him enough, thereby not assisting him in the world and in the Hereafter. Allāh tells this person that he can do as he pleases even if it means that he hangs himself. However, he will still be unable to change the predestined fate decreed by Allāh.

The verse will therefore tell these people that they should not think that they gain anything by renouncing Islām, while they stand to lose something by remaining as Muslims. Do as they may, they can never change Allāh's divine plan.

Allāh then says, "In this way We reveal Our clear verses, and Allāh will definitely guide whom He wills."

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَالَّذِينَ هَادُوا وَالصَّابِئِينَ وَالصَّرِيَّةَ وَالْمَجُوسَ وَالَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ﴿١٧﴾
أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَسْجُدُ لَهُمْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ وَالنُّجُومُ
وَالْجِبَالُ وَالشَّجَرُ وَالْدَّوَابُّ وَكَثِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ وَكَثِيرٌ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِ الْعَذَابُ وَمَنْ
يُهِنِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ مُّكْرِمٍ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاءُ ﴿١٨﴾

(17) Those who believe, the Jews, the Sabians, the Christians, the fire worshippers and those who are polytheists, Allāh shall certainly decide between them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Verily Allāh is Witness to all things.

(18) Do you not see that all within the heavens and the earth prostrate to Allāh, as well as the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the beasts and many people. And there are many who justly deserve punishment. There is none to honour the person whom Allāh humiliates. Indeed, Allāh does as He pleases.

ALLĀH WILL DECIDE BETWEEN THE MEMBERS OF ALL FAITHS. ALL THE INHABITANTS OF THE HEAVENS AND EARTH PROSTRATE TO ALLĀH

Although the disbelievers are divided into many different religions (Dīn's) and creeds, they all share the common factor of disbeliefs. For this reason, they are collectively antagonistic towards Islām. There are now only two distinctions; Belief (Imān) and disbeliefs.

All of these denominations and religion's (Dīn's) also believe that they are correct in their beliefs and practices. However, Allāh will decide on the Day of Judgement between them and disclose to them that only the Muslims were guided aright. Therefore, Allāh says, 'Allāh shall certainly decide between them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Verily Allāh is Witness to all things.' Allāh has knowledge of everything and will recompense people accordingly.

Thereafter Allāh addresses the reader saying, "Do you not see that all within the heavens and the earth prostrate to Allāh, as well as the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the beasts and many people." All of these creations prostrate to Allāh in the manner that Allāh granted them the ability to do so. Other commentators say that "prostrate" refers to being subservient to Allāh's commands and dictates.

While all the creation of Allāh yield before Him, there are many people who choose to remain disbelievers. About them Allāh says, "And there are many who justly deserve punishment. There is none to honour the person whom Allāh humiliates. Indeed, Allāh does as He pleases." The disbelievers will be humiliated when condemned to Hell, as well as when their souls are extracted. They are even disgraced in this world.

The sinful Muslims also suffer humiliation in this world when they hanker after the wealth and titles of this world. They sacrifice everything they have to attain these prizes, only to be humiliated when they are killed by their enemies, or dismissed from their posts.

Note: Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه reports that once when the sun had set, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked where the sun had gone to. Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه replied, "Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The sun keeps moving until it sets beneath the Allāh's throne (Arsh), where it prostrates to Allāh. It then seeks Allāh's permission to rise and then rises when permission is received. The day is near when its prostration will not be accepted and it will not be permitted to rise as normal: Instead, it will be commanded to rise from where it had set. It will then rise from the west. Allāh says the same thing when He mentioned, 'The sun travels towards its destination.' Their resting point is beneath Allāh's throne (Arsh)." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 454]

All Allāh's creation prostrate to Him as the sun does. The plants and even the seemingly inanimate objects have a degree of sense, although much less than that of man. They are all subservient to Allāh as well. However, those creations that Allāh had blessed with intelligence, submit to him willingly and prostrate in the manner that we recognise.

Allāh says in verse 74 of Surah Baqarah, "indeed there are some of them (the rocks) that fall out of the fear of Allāh."

Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "There is nothing that does not glorify His praises, but you do not understand their glorification." [Surah 17, verse 44]

Say Allāh in Surah Nahl, "To Allāh's command submits all within the heavens and the earth, including all creatures and angels, and they are not proud." [Surah 16, verse 49]

This subject has been discussed in the commentaries of the above verses. Allāh has also mentioned in Surah Nūr, "Do you not see that everyone in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh, including the birds with their wings spread out? Each one knows its Salāh (supplication special form of worship) and method of glorification." [Surah 24, verse 41]

هَذَانِ خَصْمَانِ أَخَصَمُوا فِي رَبِّهِمَا فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا قُطِعَتْ لَهُمْ ثِيَابٌ مِنْ نَارٍ
يُصَبُّ مِنْ فَوْقِ رُءُوسِهِمُ الْحَمِيمُ (19) يُصْهَرُ بِهِ مَا فِي بُطُونِهِمْ وَالْجُلُودُ (20)
وَهُمْ مَقْلَعُونَ مِنْ حَدِيدٍ (21) كُلَّمَا أَرَادُوا أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا مِنْهَا مِنْ غَمٍّ أُعِيدُوا فِيهَا
وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيقِ (22)

(19) These are two opponents who debate about their Lord. As for those who disbelieve, garments of fire shall be cut out for them and boiling water will be poured over their heads. (20) It will melt whatever is in their bellies, as well as their skins. (21) There will be iron hammers for them. (22) Whenever they will attempt to escape from the punishment out of grief, they will be returned and told, "Taste the punishment of burning."

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS IN HELL, WHERE THEY WILL WEAR CLOTHES OF FIRE AND HAVE BOILING WATER POURED OVER THEM

Allāh says, "These are two opponents (the disbelievers and the believers (Mu'minin) who debate about their Lord." Their disputes sometimes lead to wars, the Muslim fighting for Allāh, while the disbelievers fight for their gods, whom they regard as "their Lord"

When the polytheists marched towards the battle of Badr, they prayed, "O Allāh! Grant victory to the army that is on the truth." When the Ansār advanced to combat the polytheists at Badr, the Quraysh said, "We have not come to fight you, but wish to fight our relatives." Thereupon Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Hamza رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Ubaidah bin Hārith رضي الله عنه stepped forward to engage the enemy in combat. Shaybah bin Rabi'ah, Utbah bin Rabi'ah and Walid bin Utbah advanced from the enemy lines.

Sayyidina Hamza رضي الله عنه killed Shaybah, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه killed Walid, while Sayyidina Ubaidah رضي الله عنه was fatally wounded by Utbah. In the skirmish Sayyidina Ubaidah رضي الله عنه also managed to mortally wound Utbah. Thereafter Sayyidina Hamza رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه killed Utbah and removed Sayyidina Ubaidah رضي الله عنه from the battlefield. He passed away at a place called Safrā while returning to Madinah. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه says that the above verses were revealed with reference to the two opposing armies at Badr. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 565 and "Al Bidāya wan Nihāyah"]

The general context of the verse will include every two opposing groups of disbelievers and Muslims. The battle of Badr was just an example of such a clash.

Thereafter Allāh describes the plight of the disbelievers in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "As for those who disbelieve, garments of fire shall be cut out for them." Clothing made of fire will be prepared for the disbelievers, adding to the torment which they will suffer in Hell.

In addition to this, "boiling water will be poured over their heads. It will melt whatever is in their bellies, as well as their skins." Explaining these verses, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Boiling water will surely be poured over the heads of the people in Hell. This water will reach their bellies, destroying everything within. It will then emerge from the feet, where after the process will be repeated. This is meant by the verse, 'it will melt whatever is in their bellies, as well as their skins.'" [Tirmidhi]

"There will be iron hammers for them. Whenever they will attempt to escape from the punishment out of grief they will be returned and told, 'Taste the punishment of burning.'" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "If one iron hammer was placed on earth, all man and Jinn collectively would not be able to lift it."

According to another narration the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that a single strike from such a hammer would reduce a mountain to dust. [At Targhib wat Tarhib v. 4 p. 274]

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
الْأَنْهَارُ يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَلُؤْلُؤًا وَلِبَاسُهُمْ فِيهَا حَرِيرٌ
وَهُدًى إِلَى الطَّيِّبِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَهُدًى إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْحَمِيدِ

(23) Allāh will surely admit those who believe and do good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they will be adorned with bangles of gold and pearls. Their clothes in Heaven (Jannah) shall be of silk. (24) They will be guided to the best of speech and guided to the path of Him, Who is most deserving of praise.

THE JEWELLERY AND CLOTHES IN HEAVEN (JANNAH) OF THOSE BELIEVERS WHO DO RIGHTEOUS DEEDS

Allāh describes the bounties that will be bestowed on the Believers (Mu'minīn). He says, "Allāh will surely admit those who believe and do good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. Therein they will be adorned with bangles of gold and pearls. Their clothes therein shall be of silk." Although gold and silk are not permissible for men in this world, it will be given to them in the Hereafter.

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Gold and silk are Permissible (Halāl) for the women of my Ummah, but Unlawful (Harām) for the men." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The man who wears silk in this world will be deprived of it in the Hereafter." [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Uqbah bin Āmir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you desire the jewellery and silk of Heaven (Jannah), do not wear them in this world." [Mishkāt p. 379]

"They will be guided to the best of speech..." This verse means that they will be guided towards the recitation of "Lā Ilāha Illallāh." They believe in the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Qur'ān and for this they shall receive the comforts of Heaven (Jannah).

"...and guided to the path of Him, Who is most deserving of praise." Those who tread Allāh's path in this world will be allowed to tread the path leading to Heaven (Jannah) in the Hereafter.

Note: Although the above verse makes mention only of bangles, Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه has narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A crown will be placed on the heads of the people in Heaven (Jannah). The brilliance of the dullest pearl on this crown is sufficient to illuminate the distance between the east and the west." [Mishkāt p. 499]

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ الَّذِي جَعَلْنَاهُ
لِلنَّاسِ سَوَاءً أَعْرَفُوا فِيهِ وَالْبَاءَ وَمَنْ يُرِدْ فِيهِ بِإِلْحَادٍ بِظُلْمٍ نُذِقْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ
الْعَذَابِ

25

(25) Indeed those who disbelieve, forbid (others) from Allāh's path and from the Masjidul Harām, which We have appointed for the people, residents and visitors being equal therein, and whoever intends to unjustly perpetrate an act of irreligiousness there, We shall let him taste a painful punishment.

THE RESIDENT AND VISITOR TO THE MASJIDUL HARĀM ARE ALL EQUAL AND IRRELIGIOUSNESS THERE WILL INVITE PUNISHMENT

The polytheists of Makkah prevented the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Muslims from performing their Salāh in the Masjidul Harām because they were the custodians of it. Even after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned in the 6th year after Hijrah to perform Umrah, they did not allow him entry into the Masjidul Harām.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that the above verse was revealed with reference to Abu Sufyan and his companions when they resisted the entry of the Muslims to Makkah in the 6th year after Hijrah.

Describing the attributes of the Masjidul Harām, Allāh says that He has "appointed (it) for the people, residents, and visitors being equal therein." Certain commentators maintain that "the Masjidul Harām" refers to the entire city of Makkah. It is deduced from this verse that the people of Makkah cannot prevent outsiders from entering the city.

According to Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه, it is detestable (Makrūh) for the people of Makkah to let out their homes to outsiders during the Hajj season. Imām Abu Yusuf رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Muhammad رحمه الله عليه are also of this opinion. They have only said this because there is no clear proof in the Shari'ah to explicitly declare the act as Unlawful (Harām). They have stated the ruling as above because people tend to exploit those who make Hajj by charging exorbitant rentals. This would inadvertently discourage people from performing Hajj because they are already burdened with the expense of travelling.

Many people make a fortune from subletting buildings that belong to others. Instead of assisting the people to perform Hajj, they wish only to make themselves rich.

Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that homes can be let out during the non-Hajj periods. However, the opinion of Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه is not clear about whether land in Makkah may be sold or not. The other Imāms of jurisprudence are of the opinion that it is perfectly permissible to sell land in Makkah.

"Whoever intends to unjustly perpetrate an act of irreligiousness there, We shall let him taste a painful punishment." Many commentators state that the injustice referred to in this verse denotes polytheism (shirk) and all sins. Abu Dawūd reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that "irreligiousness" refers to 'Ihtikār' i.e. stockpiling necessary foods for the purpose of inflating the price.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says that merely intending a sin in Makkah will invite Allāh's punishment, whereas this will be the case in other cities only when the sin is actually committed. This is so because Allāh says, "Whoever intends to..." ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 351]

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that sins are multiplied many fold when committed in Makkah, just as the rewards of good deeds are multiplied. He also reports that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه had a house within the Haram and another outside the borders of the Haram (in the "Hil"). He performed his Salāh in the house that was within the Haram and would scold his children in the house that was in the "Hil". When asked about this, he replied that he interpreted using words like, "Never, By Allāh!" while scolding as "irreligiousness." Since the verse prohibited "irreligiousness" in the Harām, he did this outside the Harām. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 4 p. 3 52]

Those who suffer this punishment in this world will surely meet with punishment in the Hereafter. The incident of the people who brought elephants to destroy the Ka'ba is well documented. Allāh destroyed them in this world with pebbles that were thrown by little birds. These pebbles reduced the mighty army of men and elephants to resemble "a pile of eaten corn."

"Durrul Manthūr" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that a person by the name of Taba once set out to destroy the Ka'ba. When he reached place called Kurā'un Na'im, a severe tempest struck. The wind was so intense that it became impossible even to sit or stand. He summoned two learned men who accompanied him and asked them the reason for the terrible windstorm.

Before replying to his question, they requested him to spare them if they replied. When he assured them that they had nothing to fear, they told him that the tempest was raging because he had set out to destroy a house that was safeguarded by Allāh. Taba then asked them what was to be done to cause the tempest to abate. They advised him that he should remove his clothing and wear two sheets of cloth. Thereafter, he should recite, "Labbaik! Allāhumma Labbaik!" and then make Circumambulation (Tawāf) of the Ka'ba. When he did this, the wind stopped. [Ibid]

وَإِذْ بَوَّأْنَا لِإِبْرَاهِيمَ مَكَاتِ الْبَيْتِ أَنْ لَا تُشْرِكْ بِي شَيْئًا وَطَهِّرْ بَيْتِيَ
لِلطَّائِفِينَ وَالْقَائِمِينَ وَالرُّكَّعِ السُّجُودِ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَأَذِّنْ فِي النَّاسِ بِالْحَجِّ يَأْتُوكَ
رِجَالًا أَوْ عَلَىٰ صُمَلٍ يَأْتِينَكَ مِنْ كُلِّ فِجٍّ عَمِيقٍ ﴿٢٧﴾ لِيَشْهَدُوا مَنَافِعَ لَهُمْ
وَيَذْكُرُوا أَاسْمَ اللَّهِ فِي أَيَّامٍ مَّعْلُومَاتٍ عَلَىٰ مَا رَزَقَهُمْ مِنْ بَهِيمَةِ الْأَنْعَامِ
فَكُلُوا مِنْهَا وَأَطْعِمُوا الْبَائِسَ الْفَقِيرَ ﴿٢٨﴾ ثُمَّ لِيَقْضُوا تَفَثَهُمْ وَلِيُوفُوا
نُذُورَهُمْ وَلِيَطَوفُوا بِالْبَيْتِ الْعَتِيقِ ﴿٢٩﴾

(26) When We showed Ibrahīm the location of the house saying, "Do not ascribe any as partner to Myself and cleanse My house for those who make Circumambulation (Tawāf), those who stand (in Salāh), those who bow and those who prostrate. (27) And announce the Hajj among the people, they will come to you on foot and on every lean camel, travelling from every distant road... (28)..... to witness the things of benefit for them and, during the stipulated days, to take Allāh's name on every animal that Allāh has provided for them. So eat from it and feed it to the afflicted poor. (29) Then they should remove their untidiness, fulfill their oaths and perform Tawāf around the "Baitul Atīq".

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام CONSTRUCTS THE KA'BA BY ALLĀH'S COMMAND AND ANNOUNCES THE HAJJ

The Ka'ba was initially constructed by the angels and Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام later reconstructed it for a second time. However, after the floods during the time of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, no sign was left of the Ka'ba. Thereafter, Allāh commanded Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام to reconstruct the Ka'ba. However, since the exact location was not known to Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, Allāh pointed it out to him, as mentioned in the verse, "When We showed Ibrahīm the location of the house..." Allāh sent a strong wind, which exposed the foundation of the Ka'ba for Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام to see.

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام told his son, Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام that his Lord has commanded him to fulfil a certain task. When Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام told his father that he should "obey Allāh's command, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام requested his help. Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام duly complied.

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام pointed to a hill and told his son that Allāh has commanded him to construct a house at that location. The two then commenced raising the foundation of the Ka'ba. Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام used to bring the stones and Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام would lay them down.

Eventually, when the walls became high, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام used the stone known as the "Maqām Ibrahim" as a ladder to continue the construction.

Allāh also commanded Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام saying, "Do not ascribe any as partner to Myself and cleanse My house for those who make Circumambulation (Tawāf) those who stand (in Salāh), those who bow and those who prostrate."

Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "We commanded Ibrahim and Isma'il (saying), 'Purify My house for those who perform Circumambulation (Tawāf) those who remain secluded therein and those who bow (in ruku) and prostrate.'" [Surah 2, verse 125]

In these verses, Allāh commands that the Ka'ba and the Masjidul Harām be kept clean because Circumambulation (Tawāf) and Salāh take place there. This command includes cleansing the place from disbeliefs, polytheism (shirk), lies and all types of evil and sin. Physical forms of impurities, like dirt and rubbish, must also be removed.

Circumambulation (Tawāf) can be performed only in the Masjidul Harām. According to Sayyidina Sa'id bin Jubair رحمه الله عليه, the words "those who reside there" refer to those people who live in Makkah. Sayyidina Ata رحمه الله عليه says that it refers to those people who come from other places and stay in the Masjidul Harām.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned, "We are regarded as 'those who reside there' whenever we sit in the Masjidul Harām." The general context of the verse even includes those people who perform Seclusion (Itikāf) in the Masjidul Harām.

In both the above verses "those who bow and those who prostrate" refers to those people who perform Salāh in the Masjidul Harām. The words "those who stand" also refers to those people who perform Salāh. In this way, the three postures of Salāh [viz. genuflexion (Ruku), prostration (Sajdah) and Standing up (Qiyām)] have all been mentioned.

Some commentators have interpreted "those who stand" to mean those people who reside there. Whatever the interpretation, the fact is clear that the custodians are obliged to keep the Ka'ba and the Masjidul Harām clean and to allow people to perform Circumambulation (Tawāf) and Salāh there at all times. With the grace of Allāh, the doors of the Masjidul Harām have remained open to people since the time that Makkah was conquered by the Muslims until today.

"And announce the Hajj among the people..." When Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام completed the construction, Allāh commanded Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام to call people for Hajj. He submitted, "O My Lord! How can I announce to the people when my voice cannot reach them."

Allāh told him, "You make the announcement. We shall ensure that the message reaches." Consequently, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام stood on Mount Safa (or, according to another narration, on the Mount of Abu Qubais) and announced, "O people! Indeed your Lord has appointed a house, so make Hajj of it!" Allāh made the call reach every corner of the world and to reach every person who was destined to perform Hajj, even those people who were yet unborn in the wombs of their mothers or in the backs of their fathers.

Every person who was destined to perform Hajj until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), responded to this call by saying, "Labbaik! Allāhumma Labbaik!" This has been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. People in the past could not understand how a person's voice could reach the entire world. However, with the invention of modern instruments, this is not hard to believe.

Allāh promised Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام that when he makes the announcement, people "will come to you on foot and on every lean camel, travelling from every distant road..." The Arabs used to feed their camels and horses less so that they would become lean and travel faster.

When Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام left his family in Makkah, he prayed to Allāh saying, "cause some hearts of people to be inclined towards them." Allāh accepted this supplication (du'ā) and until today millions of people have travelled from all parts of the world to make the Hajj. The people of Makkah have benefited tremendously from the influx of people to Makkah, and these people also benefit greatly from them in terms of the world and in terms of the religion (D'īn). This has been referred to in the verse, ... to witness the things of benefit for them..."

Some details of this have been given in the commentary of the verse, "Allāh has made the Ka'ba, the sacred house, a means by which mankind remains in existence, as well as the sacred months, the sacrificial animal and garlands placed (around its neck)." [Surah Mā'idah (5), verse 97]

"...and, during the stipulated days, to take Allāh's name on every animal that Allāh has provided for them." Some commentators have mentioned that "the stipulated days" refer to the first ten days of Dhul Hijjah. Remembrance (Dhikr) should be made in abundance during these days.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has narrated from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that good deeds are most beloved to Allāh during the first ten days of Dhul Hijjah. The Sahabah رضى الله عنهم asked, "Is Jihād also not better than worship during these days?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Even Jihād is not better than worship during these days, except for the person who proceeds in Jihād with his wealth and life, not returning with either of the two." [Mishkāt p. 128]

Allāh mentions that, during these ten days, man should thank Allāh for the animals that he is able to slaughter. Although the animals are slaughtered only on the tenth day, the preceding days are spent searching for the animal, feeding it and preparing it for the day of sacrifice. These are all Allāh's bounties.

The religious significance of the sacrifice is that it secures Allāh's pleasure when the animal is offered before Allāh. The sacrifice is also of worldly benefit because one rides the animal, eats the flesh and drinks the milk.

Other commentators have interpreted "the stipulated days" to mean that days of Nahr (10th, 11th and 12th of Dhul Hijjah). During these days, all the people of the world offer their sacrifices. Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) should also be made in abundance when people are slaughtering their animals at Mina. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Carry out the Dhikr (remembrance) of Allāh during the limited days i.e. the days at Mina." [Surah 2, verse 203]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Pelting the Jamarāt and Sa'ī between Safa and Marwa have been ordained to establish Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr)."

 [Tirmidhi]

Every aspect of Hajj is filled with Allāh's remembrance, be it reciting the Talbiyah, Circumambulation (Tawāf), Sa'ī or while staying at Arafāt, Muzdalifa and Mina. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 1 p. 178) reports that Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه used to recite that Talbiya ("Labbaik! Allāhumma Labbaik!...") while in gatherings, on their beds and on the road.

Muslim (v. 1 p. 360) reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "Do not fast during these days because they are days of eating, drinking and remembrance of Allāh."

The "animals" mentioned in the verse refers to those animals that may be slaughtered during the days of Nahr and not all animals. One may slaughter only cattle, camels, goats and sheep. Oxen may also be slaughtered because they are like cattle. The age of these animals have been stipulated by the Shari'ah and the animals must be free of any defects, unless these are minimal. The details of this can be found in the books of jurisprudence.

Camels have to be at least five years of age before they are deemed fit for sacrifice. Cattle and oxen have to be at least two years old, while sheep and goats need to be at least one year old. Seven people can share a single camel, cow, bull or ox for sacrificial purposes.

The Qur'ān has termed the sacrificial animal to be slaughtered by the Hāji (person performing Hajj) as "Hadi." It is compulsory for the person performing Tamattu and Qirān Hajj to slaughter an animal. The animals can be slaughtered at any time during the 10th, 11th and 12th of Dhul Hijjah. If the Hāji slaughters the animal after sunset of the 12th, he will have to slaughter another animal as a penalty.

The person performing Tamattu or Qirān can shave or trim his hair only after slaughtering. If he does so before slaughtering, he will have to slaughter another animal as a penalty. The person performing the Ifrād Hajj does not have to slaughter an animal unless he wants to.

"So eat from it and feed it to the afflicted poor." There are four categories of sacrifices that take place during Hajj. The first is the animal slaughtered by those who perform the Tamattu and Qirān Hajj. The second is that animal that is slaughtered on a voluntary basis. These two types of animals (as well as the one slaughtered by people not on Hajj) can be eaten by the slaughterer himself. Although he can use the meat as he pleases, it is best that he reserves one-third for the poor.

The third category of sacrifice is the animal that is slaughtered as a penalty for an offence committed by the Hāji. The fourth is the animal slaughtered because of "Ihsār" (i.e. when a person cannot complete his Hajj) These two types of sacrifice require that all the meat of the animal be given to poor people. Although it is best to distribute the meat among the poor people living within the Haram, it not obligatory to do so.

The person making the sacrifice cannot eat the meat of the last two categories of sacrifices, nor can his family eat from it, nor any person who possesses Nisāb.

Note: All the above four types of sacrifices, except the second (the optional one) have to be carried out within the Haram. It is best that the first takes place at Mina.

The detailed laws pertaining to the above can be found in the books of jurisprudence. Much has also been discussed in the commentary of verse 196 and the consequent verses of Surah Baqarah.

"Then they should remove their untidiness..." On the 10th of Dhul Hijjah, the Hājis proceed to Mina from Muzdalifa. The person performing the Ifraad Hajj will now pelt only the Jamara Aqba, after which he can have his hair shaved. However, if he wills, he can slaughter an animal before shaving or trimming. Those performing the Tamattu and Qirān Hajj will have to first pelt the Jamara Aqba, then slaughter, then shave or trim their hair. Thereafter they will be allowed to cut their nails and remove other unwanted hair from the body. This hair is referred to in the above verses as "untidiness."

The Hāji has the choice to have his hair shaved or trimmed, shaving being best. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم thrice made supplication (du'ā) for mercy upon those who have their hair shaved, while he only made it once for those who have their hair trimmed. Women, of course, are not permitted to have their hair shaved.

When the man has his hair trimmed, the entire head should be trimmed by the length of about an inch. The minimum requirement is that at least the hair of a quarter of the head must be cut. If the hair is not long enough to meet these requirements, he has to have the hair shaved off.

Note: The recent practice of clipping only a few hairs is not established from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم. This practice will not qualify to release a person from Ihrām. He will have to (at least) shave all the hair or trim an inch off at least a quarter of the head's hair. If this is not done, the person will remain perpetually in Ihrām, after which he will be liable for penalties if he wears fitting clothes, applies perfume, cuts his nails, etc.

".....(they should) fulfil their oaths..." When people have vowed to carry out certain acts of worship, they will be obliged to fulfil these. Praising the righteous on Surah Dahar, Allāh says about them, "They fulfil their oaths and fear the day when adversity will be widespread." [Surah 76, verse 7]

"and (they should) perform Tawāf around the 'Baitul Atiq' (i.e. the Ka'ba)." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Zubair رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh named the Ka'ba "Baitul Atiq" (the free house) because it has been freed from tyrants and despots. They can never gain control of it.

There are three Farāidh (obligatory requisites) of Hajj. The first is to adopt the state of Ihrām. The second is to be present at Arafāt at any time from after midday of the 9th of Dhul Hijjah, until dawn of the 10th. This is termed "Wuqūful Arafah." The third is to perform what is termed as the Tawāfuz Ziyārah, Tawāful Ifādah, Tawāfur Rukan, or the Tawāful Fardh.

Commentators say that the above portion of the verse refers to the performance of this Tawāfuz Ziyārah because it follows after the removal of one's "untidiness." This was the procedure followed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, a person will be permitted to proceed straight to Makkah from Muzdalifa for this Circumambulation (Tawāf). This Circumambulation (Tawāf) can be performed at any time during the days and nights of the 10th, 11th and 12th of Dhul Hijjah. If a person was forced by extenuating circumstances to delay this Circumambulation (Tawāf) until after sunset of the 12th, it can still be performed, but with a penalty.

If the Tawāfuz Ziyārah is missed completely, it cannot be recompensed. Only the person who dies after the Wuqūful Arafah is able to bequest that a camel or cow be slaughtered on his behalf as a compensation for the missed Tawāfuz Ziyārah. The meat of this animal must be distributed among the poor.

The Tawāf of Qudūm is the only Sunnah Tawāf during Hajj. This is performed upon arrival in Makkah. The Circumambulation (Tawāf) of Widā is Compulsory, and will be performed before leaving Makkah, after the Tawāfuz Ziyārah. However, this is only Compulsory for those people who live outside the Haram and Hil (i.e. the area adjacent to the Haram).

Every other circumambulation (Tawāf) will be regarded as optional. However, when a person vows to make Circumambulation (Tawāf), it will be Compulsory for him to fulfil this oath. Every Circumambulation (Tawāf) comprises seven circuits around the Ka'ba, each with its beginning and end at the Hajrul Aswad.

Note: If the Tawāfuz Ziyārah is not performed, it can be performed at any other time during one's lifetime. However, a person will be unable to cohabit until the Circumambulation (Tawāf) is performed. If the person ever does cohabit, there will be different types of penalties, according to the specific act. Sometimes the penalty will be to slaughter a goat, while at other times, he will have to slaughter a camel or a cow.

If the cohabitation takes place several times in one place after shaving or trimming the hair, only one penalty will be due. If incurred at many places, several penalties will be due.

ذَٰلِكَ وَمَنْ يُعْظَمَ حُرْمَتِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ. وَأَجَلْتَ لَكُمْ
الْأَنفُسَ إِلَّا مَا يُتْلَى عَلَيْكُمْ فَاجْتَنِبُوا الرِّجْسَ مِنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَاجْتَنِبُوا

قَوْلِكَ الزُّورِ ﴿٣٠﴾ حُفَاءَ لِلَّهِ غَيْرَ مُشْرِكِينَ بِهِ وَمَنْ يُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ فَكَأَنَّمَا خَرَّ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَتَخَطَفُهُ الطَّيْرُ أَوْ تَهْوِي بِهِ الرِّيحُ فِي مَكَانٍ سَحِيقٍ ﴿٣١﴾ ذَلِكَ وَمَنْ يُعَظِّمْ شَعَائِرَ اللَّهِ فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ تَقْوَى الْقُلُوبِ ﴿٣٢﴾ لَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ مَحْمُلُهَا إِلَى الْبَيْتِ الْحَرَامِ ﴿٣٣﴾

(30) So be it. And whoever will respect Allāh's sacred things, then this will be best for him with his Lord. Animals have been permitted for you, with the exception of those that have been recited to you. So abstain from the impurity of idols and abstain from false talk... (31) .... in a state that you are inclined only towards Allāh, not ascribing any partners to Him. The example of the one who ascribes partners to Allāh is like one who has fallen from the sky, to have his remains snatched up by birds or blown off to a distant place by the wind. (32) So be it. And whoever honours Allāh's signs, then this is because of the taqwa of hearts. (33) There are things of benefit for you in it until a stipulated period. Then their destination is the "Baitul Atiq".

THE COMMAND TO REVERE ALLĀH'S SACRED THINGS AND SIGNS, THE SIMILITUDE OF THE POLYTHEISTS AND THE BENEFITS FOUND IN ANIMALS

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that the word "Dhālika" (translated above as "So be it.") is used in Arabic to denote that one subject has been terminated. It therefore signifies the beginning of another topic or another facet of the same topic. According to others, it serves to tell the reader that one should practise what has been mentioned.

Allāh says thereafter, "And whoever will respect Allāh's sacred things, then this will be best (and most rewarding) for him with his Lord." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that "Allāh's sacred things" refers to all those things that Allāh has commanded man to revere, be these related to Hajj or not. This includes Salāh, the knowledge of religion (D'in) and all the acts of devotion ordained by the Shari'ah.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that the instruction to respect "Allāh's sacred things" means that one should abstain from all sins during Hajj. These include disputing, behaving intimately with one's spouse, hunting, and perpetrating the acts that are normally forbidden in the state of Ihrām.

"(The slaughtering and consuming of) Animals have been permitted for you, with the exception of those that have been recited to you." i.e. recited to you in the Qur'ān. The details of these forbidden foods have been mentioned in Surah Baqarah, Surah Mā'idah and Surah An'ām the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has made mention of the rest.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned that this point has been made here to inform people that the Hājis can slaughter the animals that are usually slaughtered as sacrifice. They are only not permitted to hunt and kill other animals.

"So abstain from the impurity of idols..." Here Allāh warns the Muslims to abstain from the practices of the polytheists, who used to consider their sacrifices as devotions to their idols. Allāh has also mentioned this point during the discussion of Hajj because the polytheists added these practices to the Hajj rites that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام taught them.

They also added the following words to their Talbiyah, "You (Allāh) have no partners besides the partners that are with You."

Allāh then commands, "and abstain from false talk..." Although all lies should be shunned, this verse refers particularly to the lies that the polytheists spoke about Allāh. This occurred when they attributed certain fabricated prohibitions to Allāh. This discussion is given in the commentary of the verse in 103 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5), where Allāh says, "Allāh did not ordain the 'Bahīrah,' nor the 'Sā'ibah,' nor the 'Wasilah,' nor the 'Hām,' but the disbelievers had invented a lie about Allāh. And most of them have no understanding."

The subject has also been discussed in the commentary of verse 28 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Allāh says, "When they perpetrate a sin they say, 'We found our forefathers upon this and Allāh has commanded us with it.' Say, 'Surely Allāh does not command lewdness! Do you say against Allāh what you know not?'"

Sayyidina Khuraim bin Fātik رضى الله عنه reports that once, after the Fajr Salāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم thrice declared that rendering false testimony is equivalent to polytheism (shirk). Thereafter, he recited the verse, "So abstain from the impurity of idols and abstain from false talk in a state that you are inclined only towards Allāh, not ascribing any partners to Him." This verse mentions 'false talk' immediately after 'idols's indicating that the two are linked.

Allāh then describes that condition of the polytheists. He says, "The example of the one who ascribes partners to Allāh is like one who has fallen from the sky, to have his remains snatched up by birds or blown off to a distant place by the wind." Allāma Baghawī رحمه الله عليه has mentioned in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 286) that this example depicts that the polytheist will be destroyed in any event and will not be able to avoid his imminent destruction, just like the person in the similitude. He will suffer in Hell until eternity, unless he repents and accepts Islām.

In my humble opinion, the similitude depicts the control that idols and other false gods have on people. These people have allowed these gods to control their lives, thereby placing themselves in the talons of these gods. They are then reduced to bits of flesh by these predators, having their remains scattered about.

The second similitude of being "blown off to a distant place by the wind" is similar to the similitude cited in Surah An'ām, where Allāh says, "he whom Satan (Shaytān) had deviated from the path in a forest, leaving him bewildered when he has companions calling him to guidance saying, 'Come to us!'" The deviated person cannot reach the straight path despite being called from all directions. Wherever he goes, he falls deeper into deviation. Allāh knows best.

"So be it And whoever honours Allāh's signs, then this is because of the piety (Taqwa) of hearts." Only those people who have Circumambulation (Tawāf) will be able to honour Allāh's "signs." Although Allāh's "signs" are included in the broad meaning of "Allāh's sacred things," it has been mentioned separately to emphasise the command.

Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Verily Safa and Marwa are from the signs of Allāh." Allāh says in verse 2 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5), "O you who believe, do not legalise Allāh's signs..."

"Allāh's signs" refer to all things that have been ordained as means of worship. However, some commentators have restricted the sense of this verse to specific things. Sayyidina Zaid bin Aslam رحمه الله عليه says that "Allāh's signs" are six, viz. (1) Safa and Marwa, (2) the sacrificial animal, (3) the area where pelting takes place during Hajj, (4) the Masjidul Harām, (5) Arafāt, (6) The "rukn" i.e. the Black Stone:

Respecting these "signs" means that the actions stipulated for these places should be carried out when one is present there.

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه has mentioned that all the sites of Hajj are included in "Allāh's signs." Therefore, Mina and Muzdalifa will also be included.

"There are things of benefit for you therein (i.e. in the sacrificial animals) until a stipulated period." Before these animals are designated to be slaughtered as sacrifices, they can be used for various purposes like riding and milking. However, once they are fixed to be sacrificed, no benefit may be derived for them, even their wool cannot be sheared. They may be used for riding only under extreme conditions, when other animals are unavailable.

In the past many people used to take their sacrificial animals along with them from their homes. The rules that apply to such a person will differ from those that apply to other people. When performing the "Farewell Hajj," The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent many animals ahead with Sayyidina Nājiya Aslami رضى الله عنه. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه also brought many from Yemen for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. There were one hundred in number, all of which were slaughtered by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, with the help of Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه.

Although the person performing Tamattu or Qirān has to slaughter only one animal, he will be greatly rewarded for every extra animal that he slaughters. The person performing Umrah does not have to slaughter an animal, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took an animal along with him for Umrah (in the 6th year after Hijrah), which he had to slaughter at Hudaybiyyah after being prevented from entering Makkah.

The udders of the sacrificial animals should be sprinkled with cold water to prevent milk from filling. This will save the animal pain because the milk cannot be removed. The reins and saddle blanket of the sacrificed animal must be donated to charity and cannot be given as wages to anyone assisting in the slaughtering.

"Then their destination is the 'Baitul Atiq.'" The animals to be sacrificed during Hajj have to be slaughtered within the borders of the Haram. About the penalty for Ihsār, Allāh has mentioned, "And do not shave your heads until the sacrificial animal has reached its place." This was also stated as a condition in the verse where Allāh describes the penalty for hunting. [Surah Mā'idah (5), verse 95].

Ruling: If the animal (which was to be sacrificed on an optional basis) comes close to dying while travelling to Makkah, it should be slaughtered on the spot and marked with its blood so that the poor may realise that they can use the animal. The owner may not use any part of this animal.

If it is Compulsory for the person to sacrifice an animal and if it develops a defect, or falls seriously ill en route to Makkah, he will have to purchase a replacement. He can then do as he pleases with the first animal.

وَلِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ جَعَلْنَا مَنْسَكًا لِّيَذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ مَا رَزَقَهُمْ مِنْ بَهِيمَةٍ
الْأَنْعَامِ فَإِلَهُكُمْ إِلَهُ وَاحِدٌ فَلَهُ أَسْلِمُوا وَبَشِّرِ الْمُخْسِتِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾ الَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِرَ
اللَّهُ وَجَلَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَالصَّابِرِينَ عَلَىٰ مَا أَصَابَهُمُ الْمَقِيبُ الصَّلَاةَ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ
يُنْفِقُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾

(34) We have ordained rites for every nation so that they may take Allāh's name on the animals that Allāh has provided for them. Your Deity is but One Deity, so submit to Him. And convey glad tidings to the humble... (35) Those who, when Allāh is mentioned, their hearts tremble, who patiently endure the adversities that afflict them, who establish Salāh and spend (in charity) from what We have provided for them.

GLAD TIDINGS ARE FOR THOSE WHO ARE HUMBLE, CONSCIOUS OF ALLĀH, PATIENT, AND ARE PARTICULAR ABOUT SALĀH AND CHARITY

The Arabic word "mansak" translated above as "rites" refers to all forms of worship, as well as sacrificing animals and the other rites and rituals of Hajj. The verse could refer to all these meanings. However, judging from the context of the verse, it would more appropriately refer to the sacrificing of animals. Allāh says, "We have ordained rites for every nation so that they may take Allāh's name on the animals that Allāh has provided for them. Your Deity is but One Deity, so submit to Him."

Thereafter, Allāh says, 'And convey glad tidings to the humble...' Describing who these people are, Allāh then says that they are "Those who, when Allāh (or His qualities, commands, warnings, etc) is mentioned, their hearts tremble."

Further describing them, Allāh continues to say that they are those "who patiently endure the adversities that afflict them, who establish Salāh and spend (in charity) from what We have provided for them." This includes spending in Zakāh and all other avenues, not forgetting spending on animals for sacrificial purposes.

وَالْبُدْنَ جَعَلْنَاهَا لَكُمْ مِنْ شَعَائِرِ اللَّهِ لَكُمْ فِيهَا خَيْرٌ فَاذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهَا صَوَافَّ فَإِذَا وَجَبَتْ جُنُوبَهُمْ فَكُلُوا مِنْهَا وَأَطْعِمُوا الْقَانِعَ وَالْمُعْتَرَّ كَذَلِكَ سَخَّرْنَاهَا لَكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ لَنْ يَنَالَ اللَّهُ لُحُومُهَا وَلَا دِمَاؤُهَا وَلَكِنْ يَنَالُهُ التَّقْوَىٰ مِنْكُمْ كَذَلِكَ سَخَّرَهَا لَكُمْ لِتُكَبِّرُوا اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ مَا هَدَاكُمْ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾

(36) And We have made the large animals from Allāh's signs, in which lies good for you. So take Allāh's name on them as they stand in rows. Then eat from them when they fall on their sides, and feed the perseverant and the mendicant. We have subjugated them for you in this manner so that you be grateful. (37) Their flesh and blood will never reach Allāh, but your taqwa will reach Him. Allāh has subjugated them for you in this way so that you proclaim His greatness for the guidance that He has granted you. And convey glad tidings to those who do good.

THE SACRIFICIAL ANIMAL IS FROM ALLĀH'S SIGNS AND SHOULD BE FED TO THOSE WHO ARE CONTENT AS WELL AS TO THOSE WHO BEG

The Arabic word "budn," (translated above as "large animals") is the plural of "badanah" and refers to camels and cattle according to Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه. Allāh says, "And We have made the large animals from Allāh's signs, in which lies good for you." The benefits of these animals lie in this world (as is commonly understood), as well as in the Hereafter (because sacrificing them for Allāh will earn great rewards in the Hereafter).

According to Imām Shafī'i رحمه الله عليه, the "large animal" refers only to the camel when applied to the rules of the average sacrificial animal. However, he says that when the word is used with reference to the rites of Hajj, it would refer to all types of animals that may normally be sacrificed viz, camels, cattle, goats and sheep.

The Arab tribes possessed many camels and even kept records of the lineage of these camels. When the time for Hajj came, they would line up the camels, tie their legs and slaughter them while the camel stood. This is referred to as "nahr." The wisdom behind slaughtering them standing is that their souls emerge more easily in this way. After slaughtering the camels, they fall to the ground and are skinned.

Referring to the process of nahr, Allāh says, "So take Allāh's name on them as they stand in rows. Then eat from them when they fall on their sides, and feed the perseverant (i.e. the one who is needy, yet does not beg from others) and the mendicant." It is more virtuous to give to those who are needy but do not beg.

"We have subjugated them for you in this manner so that you be grateful." Man should thank Allāh for causing these animals to be subservient to him so that he can derive various benefits from them. If it were not for Allāh, man could never subjugate these animals, who are larger and stronger than he.

"Their flesh and blood will never reach Allāh, but your piety (taqawa) will reach Him." Man derives, the benefit of the animal's meat and organs. Allāh does not require these things. Allāh looks for the person's sincerity and devotion to Him when slaughtering. He must offer the sacrifice solely for Allāh's pleasure and not for any other ulterior motive. Allāh knows the inner secrets of the heart and what intentions they bear.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the most beloved act to Allāh on the day of nahar (10th of Dhul Hijjah) is the spilling of blood (of sacrificial animals). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم continued to say, "The animal will appear with its horns, hairs and hooves on the Day of Judgement and it is accepted even before the first drop of blood falls to the ground. Therefore sacrifice them with a happy heart." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه narrates that the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "What is this sacrifice?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "It is the practice of your father Ibrahim عليه السلام." They enquired, "What reward is in it for us?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You will receive the reward of a good deed for every hair on the animal's body."

The Sahabah رضى الله عنهم then asked, "What about those animals that have wool?" the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You will receive the reward of a good deed for every fibre of wool."

"Allāh has subjugated them for you in this way so that you proclaim His greatness for the guidance that He has granted you." None would be able to carry out any virtuous deeds without the gift of Belief (Imān) and the guidance from Allāh. Had Allāh not granted guidance to the Muslims, they would also be slaughtering animals for false gods. Therefore, He has to be thanked in abundance.

"And convey glad tidings to those who do good." All those who are sincere, worshipping, believing and grateful slaves of Allāh must be congratulated because they shall all be blessed with innumerable bounties in the Hereafter.

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَدْفَعُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ خَوَّانٍ كَفُورٍ﴾

(38) Verily Allāh defends those who believe. Allāh surely does not like every treacherous ingrate.

ALLĀH DEFENDS THE BELIEVERS AND DETESTS THOSE WHO ARE TRAITORS AND UNGRATEFUL

It was mentioned earlier that the polytheists prevented the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم from entering Makkah during the 6th year after Hijrah. They permitted him to perform his Umrah only the following year after attaching many conditions. In the above verse, Allāh assures the believers (Mu'minīn) that these types of obstacles will come from time to time, but Allāh will grant the Muslims eventual victory. Allāh fulfilled this reassurance when He allowed them to march unharmed into Makkah during the 8th year after Hijrah.

Allāh says, "Allāh surely does not like every treacherous ingrate." Every disbeliever and polytheist is treacherous because they do not worship Allāh and do not follow the teachings of His scriptures. They are also ingrates because although they have been created by Allāh, yet they opt to worship others. Allāh grants them whatever they need, yet they follow religion's (D'in's) that they have fabricated. Allāh detests such people and will soon teach them a lesson.

أُذِنَ لِلَّذِينَ يُقَتِّلُونَ بِأَنَّهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ نَصْرِهِمْ لَقَدِيرٌ ﴿٣٩﴾ الَّذِينَ أُخْرِجُوا
مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ إِلَّا أَن يَقُولُوا رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ وَلَوْلَا دَفْعُ اللَّهِ النَّاسَ بَعْضَهُم بِبَعْضٍ
لَّهَدَمَتِ صَوْمِعٌ وَيَعٍ وَصَلَوْتُ وَمَسْجِدٌ يُذَكَّرُ فِيهَا اسْمُ اللَّهِ كَثِيرًا
وَلَيَنْصُرَنَّ اللَّهُ مَن يَنْصُرُهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَقَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ الَّذِينَ إِنْ مَكَّنَّهُمْ فِي
الْأَرْضِ أَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ وَأَمَرُوا بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَنَهَوْا عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ
وَلِلَّهِ عَاقِبَةُ الْأُمُورِ ﴿٤١﴾

(39) Permission has been granted to those who are under attack because they have been oppressed. Without doubt, Allāh is Most Capable of rendering assistance to them... (40) Those who were driven from their homes only because they proclaimed, "Allāh is our Lord!" If it were not for the fact that Allāh opposes some people with others, monasteries, churches and synagogues would be destroyed, as well as Masājid in which Allāh's name is taken in abundance. Allāh will certainly assist those who assist Him. Verily Allāh is Omnipotent, Mighty. (41) These are people who, if We grant them authority on earth, they establish Salāh, pay Zakāh, enjoin good and forbid evil. The result of all deeds rest with Allāh.

THE PERMISSION TO WAGE JIHĀD, ITS BENEFITS AND THE DUTY OF LEADERS

It was normally the poor people who were the first to accept the message of Islām. They were harshly persecuted by the Polytheists and were forced to migrate to Abyssinnia and later to Madinah. They were enjoined to patiently endure the sufferings in Makkah, without being permitted to retaliate. However, once they regrouped in Madinah, they became a united force. Only then were they permitted to wage Jihād.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the Hijrah to Madinah, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said, "Those people who drove their Prophet out of his town will certainly be destroyed." Thereupon Allāh revealed the above verse saying, "Permission (to wage Jihād) has been granted to those who are under attack because they have been oppressed. Without doubt, Allāh is Most Capable of rendering assistance to them..."

After hearing the verse, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said, "I have understood from this verse that the polytheists will soon attack. The following year, the battle of Badr took place, soon to be followed by the battle of Uhud and many others thereafter.

If Allāh had so desired, He could have granted the Muslims safety in Makkah and then in Madinah as well. However, Allāh desired that the lives and wealth of the believers (Mu'minīn) be spent for the religion (D'in) so that they can attain great rewards in, the Hereafter.

The disbelievers and the polytheists had no reason to compel the Muslims to leave their homes because they had not committed any crime. The only reason they harassed them was that they accepted Islām and took Allāh as their Lord. Referring to this, Allāh says, "Those who were driven from their homes only because they proclaimed, 'Allāh is our Lord!'"

Jihād has been carrying on throughout the history of man because there has always been an ongoing struggle between disbeliefs and Belief (Imān). The previous Prophets عليهم السلام also led their followers into battle against the disbelievers. Allāh has instituted Jihād for the protection of the true religion's (Din's) and their places of worship throughout the ages. Allāh says, "If it were not for the fact that Allāh opposes some people with others, monasteries, churches (of the Christians) and synagogues (of the Jews) would be destroyed, as well as Masājid in which Allāh's name is taken in abundance. Allāh will certainly assist those who assist Him. Verily Allāh is Omnipotent, Mighty."

After the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, all other religion's (D'in's) have paled into insignificance and no longer exist as true religion's (D'in's). The disbelievers have all united now in their attempts to fight Islām. They are tirelessly trying to destroy the Masājid so that Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) ceases to exist. Jihād will be necessary to defend these Masājid.

Allāh then describes the Muslims who were forced to leave Makkah and were then granted sovereignty. Allāh says, "These are people who, if We grant them authority on earth, they establish Salāh, pay Zakāh, enjoin good and forbid evil." This verse applies perfectly to the first four righteous khalifas (Caliphs) of Islām.

Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه [v. 3 p. 226] reports that Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه said, "This verse applies to myself and my companions. We were expelled from our homes merely because we proclaimed that Allāh is our Lord. Thereafter, Allāh granted us authority and we established Salāh, paid Zakāh, and practised (enjoining good and forbidding evil) 'Amr Bil Ma'rūf Wan Nahy Anil Munkar.'"

The insolence of the Rawāfidh can be clearly seen from the above verse. Whereas Allāh praises the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم, these foolish people claim that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and the other Sahabah رضى الله عنهم were all disbelievers (Allāh forbid!).

It is indeed tragic that the leaders of today do not come close to the above description of leadership. They have no interest in performing Salāh and paying Zakāh. Let alone enjoining good and forbidding evil, they legislate such laws whereby they actually enjoin evil and forbid good. They fear the people and shy away from correcting their irreligious nature.

"The result of all deeds rest with Allāh." Although the Muslims had to suffer initially, they were soon granted sovereignty over the major portion of the Old World. Even today, the Muslims have dominance over a great part of the world. In this world, the true believer (Mu'min) will be victorious over the disbelievers and most definitely in the Hereafter.

وَأِنْ يَكْذِبُوا فَدَعَا كَذَبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَعَادٌ وَثَمُودٌ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَقَوْمُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَقَوْمُ لُوطٍ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَأَصْحَابُ مَدْيَنَ وَكَذَّبَ مُوسَى فَأَمَلَيْتُ لِلْكَافِرِينَ ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُهُمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَكَأَيِّنْ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ أَهْلَكْنَاهَا وَهِيَ ظَالِمَةٌ فِيهَا خَاوِيَةٌ عَلَى عُرُوشِهَا وَيَبْرِ مَعْطَلَةٍ وَقَصْرِ مَشِيدٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَتَكُونْ لَهُمْ قُلُوبٌ يَعْقِلُونَ بِهَا أَوْ آذَانٌ يَسْمَعُونَ بِهَا فَإِنَّهَا لَا تَعْمَى الْأَبْصَارُ وَلَكِنْ تَعْمَى الْقُلُوبُ الَّتِي فِي الصُّدُورِ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَيَسْتَعْجِلُونَكَ بِالْعَذَابِ وَلَنْ يُخْلِفَ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ وَإِنَّ يَوْمًا عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ كَأَلْفِ سَنَةٍ مِمَّا تَعُدُّونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَكَأَيِّنْ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ أَمَلَيْتُ لَهَا وَهِيَ ظَالِمَةٌ ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُهَا وَإِلَى الْمَصِيرِ ﴿٤٨﴾

(42) If they deny you, then the nation of Nūh, the Ād and the Thamud also denied before them... (43) ... as well as the nation of Ibrāhīm and the nation of Lūt... (44) .. And the people of Madyan (also denied). Mūsa was also denied, and We granted respite to the disbelievers, after which we seized them. How was My punishment? (45) Many were the towns that We destroyed when they were oppressive. They now lie collapsed upon their roofs, and many are the disused wells and the fortresses that were once well built. (46) Have they not travelled in the land so that they develop hearts to understand and ears to hear? It is really not eyes that become blind, but the hearts that lie in bosoms which become blind. (47) They want to hurry you with the punishment whereas Allāh will never break His promise. Verily a single day with your Lord is like a thousand years according to your count. (48) Many were the towns to which I had granted respite although they were oppressive. Thereafter I seized them, and to Me shall be the return.

THE DESTROYED TOWNS ARE LESSONS FOR OTHERS

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "If they deny you, then the nation of Nūh, the Ād [who denied Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام] and the Thamud [who denied Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام] also denied before them; as well as the nation of Ibrāhīm and the nation of Lūt. And the people of Madyan [who denied Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام]. Mūsa was also denied..."

Allāh expresses to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should also be patient like these Prophets عليهم السلام and continue with his mission. However, Allāh say that He "granted respite to the disbelievers, after which we seized them. How was My punishment?"

"Many were the towns that We destroyed when they were oppressive. They (i.e. their ruins) now lie collapsed upon their roofs..." The roofs of buildings cave in first. Thereafter the walls collapse upon the roofs.

Allāh continues to say, "and many are the disused wells and the fortresses that were once well built." These now stand as useless rubble of no benefit to anyone.

"Have they not travelled in the land (to witness the ruins described above) so that they develop hearts to understand and ears to hear?" These people have not taken a lesson from these events and do not respond to the truth. These things are in front of them, yet they fail to perceive them, as if they were blind. Therefore, Allāh says, "It is really not eyes that become blind, but the hearts that lie in bosoms which become blind."

"They want to hurry you with the punishment..." They do this with the intention of falsifying the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when the punishment is not sent immediately upon their request. However, it should be remembered that "Allāh will never break His promise." The disbelievers will certainly receive the punishment when Allāh decrees that they should. The punishment cannot arrive before the decreed hour.

"Verily a single day with your Lord is like a thousand years according to your count." If the disbelievers are not punished in this world, they will certainly be punished in the Hereafter, when they will be subjected to the tortures of the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) before actually being sent to Hell. This day will last for a thousand years of the world and the sun will be brought so close to people that the perspiration of some will reach until their mouths, while that of other's will embrace their throats like the reins of an animal.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه has reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The poor will enter Heaven (Jannah) 500 years before the rich. This 500 years will be half the duration of the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)." [Tirmidhi]

Allāh says in Surah Ma'ārij, "On a day, the duration of which will be fifty thousand years..." This verse seems to contradict the view mentioned above (that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will last for a thousand years). In reality there is no discrepancy here. Each person will feel the duration of that day differently. It will appear; to some that it lasts for a thousand years, while others may feel that it is 50,000 years.

Imām Bayhaqī رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked, "The day that will last for 50,000 years shall be long indeed (i.e. how will this be tolerated?)" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "By Him in Whose control lies my life! To the believer (Mu'min), this day will seem shorter than the time in which he performs his Fardh Salāh."

When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه was asked about the verse, "On a day, the duration of which will be fifty thousand years," he replied by saying, "Allāh knows best. I do not consider it appropriate to comment on something about which I have no knowledge."

As a conclusion and a summary of the above subject matter, Allāh says, "Many were the towns to which I had granted respite, although they were oppressive. Thereafter I seized them, and to Me shall be the return."

قُلْ يَتَايَهٗا النَّاسُ إِنَّمَا أَنَا لَكُمْ نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَالَّذِينَ سَعَوْا فِي ءَايَاتِنَا مُعْجِزِينَ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ
الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٥١﴾

(49) Say, "O people! I am but a clear warner unto you." (50) As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, theirs shall be forgiveness and a bounteous provision. (51) Those who make attempts to subdue Our verses shall be the dwellers of the Inferno.

FORGIVENESS FOR THOSE WHO BELIEVE AND DO GOOD DEEDS, AND PUNISHMENT FOR THOSE WHO REJECT

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Say, 'O people! I am but clear warner unto you.'" The duty of the Prophets عليهم السلام was merely to warn people of the consequences of not believing. They were not entrusted with the task of making people accept.

They also came to inform the people that "As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, theirs shall be forgiveness and a bounteous provision." In this way they were bearers of glad tidings. However, they also warned people that "Those who make attempts to subdue Our verses shall be the dwellers of the Inferno."

This verse refers to those people who attempted to undermine the Qur'ān by telling people that it was magic or poetry. Sometimes they would also tell others that the Qur'ān comprised of mere tales. They did all this so that people become disinclined towards the Qur'ān and Islām.

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رَّسُولٍ وَلَا نَبِيٍّ إِلَّا إِذَا تَمَنَّى أَلْقَى الشَّيْطَانُ فِي أُمْنِيَّتِهِ
فَيَنْسَخُ اللَّهُ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطَانُ ثُمَّ يُحْكِمُ اللَّهُ ءَايَتَهُ ۚ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٥٢﴾
لِيَجْعَلَ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطَانُ فِتْنَةً لِّلَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ وَالْفَاسِقِ ۚ فَلَوْبِهِمْ وَإِنْ
الظَّالِمِينَ لَنُفِى شِقَاقٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَلِيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ
رَبِّكَ فَيُؤْمِنُوا بِهِ ۖ فَتُخْبِتَ لَهُ قُلُوبُهُمْ ۚ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهَادٍ لِّلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ
مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَلَا يَزَالُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي مَرِيقَةٍ مِنْهُ حَتَّىٰ تَأْتِيَهُمُ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً
أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابٌ يَوْمٍ عَقِيمٍ ﴿٥٥﴾ الْمَلَأَ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلَّهِ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ

فَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فِي جَنَّاتِ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٥٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ ﴿٥٧﴾

(52) It occurred to every messenger and the Holy Prophet whom we sent before you, that whenever he recited, Satan (Shaytān) cast doubts in his recitation. However, Allāh effaces the doubts that Satan (Shaytān) casts and then consolidates His verses. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise. (53) So that Allāh makes the doubts cast by Satan (Shaytān) a test for those in whose hearts is a disease and for those whose hearts are hard. Indeed, the oppressors are in a far removed disagreement. (54) And so that those granted knowledge should know that it is the truth from your Lord and they believe in it, causing even their hearts to bow. Allāh shall definitely guide the believers to the straight path. (55) The disbelievers will perpetually be in doubt about it, until Judgment day (Qiyāmah) comes to them suddenly or the punishment of such a day comes to them in which there is no good. (56) All sovereignty will belong to Allāh on that day. He will judge between them. Those who believe and perform righteous deeds will be in gardens of bounty. (57) As for those who disbelieve and deny Our verses, theirs shall be a humiliating punishment.

THE PLOTS OF SATAN (SHAYTĀN) AGAINST THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِم السَّلَام CAUSE THE BELIEVERS TO GROW STRONGER IN THEIR FAITH, AND THE DISBELIEVERS TO FALL DEEPER INTO DOUBT

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that all the previous Prophets عَلَيْهِم السَّلَام also suffered the same hindrances that he was suffering. Allāh says. "It occurred to every messenger and the Prophet whom we sent before you, that whenever he recited (the revelation), Satan (Shaytān) cast doubts in (the hearts of the listeners about) in his recitation."

Allāh says in verse 112 of Surah An'ām (Surah 6), "Thus We have appointed for every Prophet an enemy who are devils from humans and Jinn, who whisper to each other things that seem good but are intended to deceive."

In verse 121 of Surah An'ām Allāh says, "The Satans (Shayātīn) surely whisper evil into the hearts of their allies so that they dispute with you."

The Shayātīn and their allies from the human race never accept Islām, nor do they wish others to do so. They therefore continue to sow the seeds of doubt in the hearts of others. "However, Allāh effaces the doubts that Satan (Shaytān) casts and then consolidates His verses. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise."

These doubts are cast into peoples' hearts, but they have different effects on different people. Allāh says that these are cast "So that Allāh makes the doubts cast by Satan (Shaytān) a test for those in whose hearts is a disease (of hypocrisy) and for those whose hearts are hard (i.e. the disbelievers). Indeed, the oppressors (those who harbour these doubts) are in a far removed disagreement." They are obstinate and do not take heed to the truth even when it is before their eyes.

However, Allāh keeps those whom He has guided firm upon their beliefs despite these onslaughts by Satan (Shaytān). Allāh says that these doubts are cast

"so that those granted knowledge should know that it (i.e. the revelation that the Holy Prophet recites) is the truth from your Lord and they believe in it (thereby increasing their Belief (Imān)), causing even their hearts to bow. Allāh shall definitely guide the believers to the straight path."

However, those who refuse to believe stray further away from the truth until they cannot turn back. Allāh says, "The disbelievers will perpetually be in doubt regarding it, until Judgment day (Qiyāmah) comes to them suddenly or the punishment of such a day comes to them in which there is no good." When these events occur, it will be too late for them to believe.

"All sovereignty will belong to Allāh on that day (of Judgment (Qiyāmah)). He will judge between them (the Muslims and the disbelievers). Those who believe and perform righteous deeds will be in gardens of bounty." On the other hand, "As for those who disbelieve and deny Our verses, theirs shall be a humiliating punishment." They will suffer this humiliation because they maintained that adopting Belief (Imān) was an act of humiliation, while disbelief was something to be honoured.

وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ قُتِلُوا أَوْ مَاتُوا لَيَرْزُقَنَّهُمُ اللَّهُ رِزْقًا
حَسَنًا وَإِلَى اللَّهِ لَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ لَيُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ مُدْخَلًا
يَرْضَوْنَهُ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَلِيمٌ حَلِيمٌ ﴿٥٩﴾ ذَلِكَ وَمَنْ عَاقَبَ بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوقِبَ
بِهِ ثُمَّ بَغَى عَلَيْهِ لَيَنْصُرَنَّهُ اللَّهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَظِيمُ غَفُورٍ ﴿٦٠﴾

(58) We shall certainly provide a most splendid provision to those who migrate in Allāh's path and are then martyred or die naturally. Without doubt only Allāh is the Best of providers. (59) He will definitely admit them into a place with which they will be satisfied. Verily Allāh is All Knowing, Forbearing. (60) So be it. And Allāh will surely help the one who is oppressed after he retaliates in proportion to the harm done to him. Verily Allāh is Clement, Most Forgiving.

THE MAGNIFICENT PROVISION FOR THOSE WHO MIGRATE FOR ALLĀH'S PLEASURE

The early Muslims were compelled to migrate from the hometown of Makkah, leaving all their properties and most of their belongings behind. Even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم migrated to Madinah after a few years. When the Muslims based themselves in Madinah, people from all over Arabia also migrated there with some difficulty.

All these people are promised a great reward from Allāh, especially if they had to be later martyred in Jihād. Referring to this, Allāh says, "We shall certainly provide a most splendid provision to those who migrate in Allāh's path and are then martyred or die naturally. Without doubt only Allāh is the Best of providers."

Furthermore Allāh promises these people that "He will definitely admit them into a place with which they will be satisfied [i.e. Heaven (Jannah)]. Verily Allāh is All Knowing, Forbearing." Allāh will punish or reward people according to their deeds, which He is well aware of. He will not punish them suddenly, but after allowing them some grace to reflect about their situation.

The apparent phrasing of the first of these verses seems to denote that those who are martyred will be granted a reward that is equal to those who die naturally. However, it should be borne in mind that any reward granted by Allāh can fit into the description of "a most splendid provision," even if their rewards differ in proportion.

"So be it." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets this to mean that the above mentioned details have been decreed.

Thereafter Allāh says, "And Allāh will surely help the one who is oppressed after he retaliates in proportion to the harm done to him. Verily Allāh is Clement, Most Forgiving." This verse makes it clear that a person is allowed to retaliate for any harm done to him on condition that the retaliation is in proportion to the original aggression. However, it is best to forgive the aggressor without retaliating. Allāh says in Surah Shura, "The retribution for an evil is an evil the like thereof. As for the one who pardons and makes amends, his reward will be with Allāh. Verily, Allāh does not like the oppressors." In verse 43 of the same Surah. Allāh says, "Whoever will exercise patience and pardon, That will certainly be of the most resolute matters." [Surah 42, verse 43]

ذَٰلِكَ يَأْتِ اللَّهَ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٦١﴾ ذَٰلِكَ يَأْتِ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنَّ مَا يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ هُوَ الْبَاطِلُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٦٢﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَتَصَيِّغُ الْأَرْضُ مُخْضَرَّةً إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَطِيفٌ خَبِيرٌ ﴿٦٣﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٦٤﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالْفُلْكَ تَجْرِي فِي الْبَحْرِ بِأَمْرِهِ وَيُمْسِكُ السَّمَاءَ أَنْ تَقَعَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِالنَّاسِ لَرءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٦٥﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَحْيَاكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُحْيِيكُمْ إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَكَفُورٌ ﴿٦٦﴾

(61) This is because Allāh certainly enters the night into the day and enters the day into the night. And Allāh is surely All Hearing, All Seeing. (62) This is because only Allāh is the Truth and all that they worship besides Him are false. And Allāh is certainly The Highest, The Greatest. (63) Do you not see that Allāh sends the rains from the skies, causing the earth to flourish with greenery? Verily Allāh is Compassionate, Informed. (64) To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and in the earth. And Allāh is undoubtedly Independent, Worthy of praise. (65) Do you not see that Allāh has subjugated everything on earth for you, as well as the ships that navigate the oceans by His command? And He restrains the sky from crashing on to the earth without His command. Without doubt, Allāh is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful unto mankind. (66) It is He Who gives you life, then gives you death, after which He will grant you life again. Man is surely an awful ingrate.

THE MANIFESTATION OF ALLĀH'S CREATION, SUBJUGATION AND AUTHORITY

Allāh's assistance to the oppressed person in the previous verse denotes that He possesses supreme control over all affairs, even control over the physical world. Allāh says that He "enters the night into the day and enters the day into the night. And All is surely All Hearing, All Seeing."

Allāh exercises this supreme control over His creation "because only Allāh is the Truth and all that they worship besides Him are false. And Allāh is certainly The Highest, The Greatest."

Further describing His sovereignty, Allāh says, "Do you not see that Allāh sends the rains from the skies, causing the earth to flourish with greenery? Verily Allāh is Compassionate, Informed."

"To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and in the earth. And Allāh is undoubtedly Independent, Worthy of praise. Do you not see that Allāh has subjugated everything on earth for you, as well as the ships that navigate the oceans by His command?" Allāh has placed all of these creations at the service of man.

Even the lofty skies that seem so imposing are at the command of Allāh. Allāh says, "And He restrains the sky from crashing on to the earth without His command." If He willed, He could cause the skies to collapse and destroy everything on earth. However, He did not do this because "Without doubt, Allāh is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful unto mankind." He is so merciful that He even allows the disbelievers to live and sustains them.

"It is He Who gives you life, then gives you death, after which He will grant you life again." Despite witnessing all these things and benefiting from Allāh's bounties, man is still ungrateful to Allāh. Allāh says, "Man is surely an awful ingrate."

لِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ جَعَلْنَا مَنَسَكًا هُمْ نَاسِكُوهُ فَلَا يُنْزِعُكَ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَادْعُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ إِنَّكَ لَعَلَىٰ هُدًى مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَإِنْ جَادَلُوكَ فَقُلِ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ اللَّهُ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كُنْتُمْ فِيهِ تَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ أَلَمْ تَعْلَمْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ فِي كِتَابٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَىٰ اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿٧٠﴾

(67) We have ordained rites for every nation, according to which they worship. So they should never dispute with you in these matters. Call unto Allāh, for you are certainly upon the guidance of the straight path. (68) If they argue with you, then say, "Allāh knows best what you do." (69) "Allāh will decide between you on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) concerning the matters in which you dispute." (70) Do you not know that Allāh knows whatever is in the heavens and the earth? This is all in the Book. This is certainly easy for Allāh.

rites of worship have been ordained for every nation

The Jews and the Christians objected to the religion (D'in) that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم brought. They argued that they did not find any mention of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم teachings in the previous scriptures. They therefore refused to believe in him as a Prophet. Allāh replies to this absurd remark by saying, "We have ordained rites for every nation, according to which they worship."

Allāh is the Master of man and reserves the right to ordain different laws and methods of worship for the different nations. Just as Allāh ordained different injunctions for the previous nations, He has instituted a different code of worship for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh then says, "So they should never dispute with you in these matters." The Shari'ah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم negated all the previous religion's (Din's). The person who raises any objection in this regard against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, is actually objecting to Allāh, because Allāh has ordained all of these.

Allāh then advised the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to fall into disputes with the ignorant but to rather "Call unto Allāh, for you are certainly upon the guidance of the straight path." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم need not argue with these people because he was already on the correct path of guidance.

"If they argue with you, then say, 'Allāh knows best what you do. Allāh will punish them for their insolence and rejection. Allāh further tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to say to these disbelievers, "Allāh will decide between you on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) concerning the matters in which you dispute." The truth will then be made manifest, but it will be too late to accept. Belief (Imān) is only beneficial when adopted in this world, because the believers (Mu'minin) are "those who believe in the unseen."

"Do you not know that Allāh knows whatever is in the heavens and the earth? This is all in the Book [the protected tablet (the Lawhul Mahfūz)]. This is certainly easy for Allāh." Recording the details of everything in this universe is no great task for Allāh.

وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَمْ يَنْزِلْ بِهِ سُلْطَانًا وَمَا لَيْسَ لَهُمْ بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَمَا
لِظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ نَصِيرٍ ﴿٧١﴾ وَإِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ تَعْرِفُ فِي وُجُوهِ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الْمُنْكَرَ يَكَادُونَ يَسْطُونَ بِالَّذِينَ يَتْلُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ

ءَايَاتِنَا قُلْ أَفَأُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِشَرِّ مِّنْ ذَٰلِكُمُ النَّارُ وَعَدَهَا اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَبَشِّرِ
 الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٧٢﴾

(71) Besides Allāh, they worship things regarding which Allāh has not revealed any proof, and about which they have no knowledge. The oppressors will have no helper. (72) When Our clear verses are recited to them, you will detect displeasure on the faces of the disbelievers. They could almost attack those reciting Our verses to them. Say, "Should I inform you of something worse than this? The Fire! Allāh has promised it for those who disbelieve. It is a terrible abode indeed."

RESENTMENT CAN BE DETECTED ON THE FACES OF THE DISBELIEVERS WHEN THEY HEAR THE QUR'ĀN

Allāh says about the polytheists, "Besides Allāh, they worship things regarding which Allāh has not revealed any proof and about which they have no knowledge." They therefore have no excuse for their practices neither a religious proof, nor a logical proof. They have oppressed themselves by perpetrating polytheism (shirk) and should understand that "The oppressors will have no helper (against Allāh's punishment)."

"When Our clear verses are recited to them, you will detect displeasure on the faces of the disbelievers. (They become so incensed by the recitation, that) They could almost attack those (Muslims) reciting Our verses to them."

The resentment expressed by the disbelievers is a trivial matter. There are things far worse than this, as Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say, 'Should I inform you of something worse than this? The Fire! Allāh has promised it for those who disbelieve. It is terrible abode indeed.' " They will never be able to escape from the fire of Hell. All else pales into insignificance when compared to the horror of Hell. A person should therefore concentrate all his endeavours towards saving himself from Hell.

يَتَأَيُّهَا النَّاسُ ضُرِبَ مَثَلٌ فَاَسْتَمِعُوا لَهُ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ لَن يَخْلُقُوا ذُبَابًا وَلَوْ اجْتَمَعُوا لَهُ وَإِن يَسْلُبْهُمُ الذُّبَابُ شَيْئًا لَا يَسْتَفِيدُوهُ مِنْهُ ضَعُفَ الطَّالِبُ وَالْمَطْلُوبُ ﴿٧٣﴾ مَا قَدَرُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ قَدْرِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَقَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ ﴿٧٤﴾

(73) O people! A similitude has been coined, so listen attentively to it. Indeed those whom you worship besides Allāh can never even create a fly, though all of them join forces in this effort. If a fly has to steal anything from them, they cannot retrieve it. The seeker and the sought are both weak. (74) They have not honoured Allāh as He deserves to be honoured. Allāh is surely the Omnipotent, the Mighty.

THE HELPLESSNESS OF ALL FALSE GODS

In the above verse, Allāh depicts the foolishness of the polytheists in a very effectual manner. Allāh says, "O people! A similitude has been coined, so listen attentively to it. Indeed those who you worship besides Allāh can never even create a fly; though all of them join forces in this effort." It is therefore foolish to worship them when their combined power cannot even come near to matching Allāh's awesome powers.

"If a fly has to steal anything from them, they cannot retrieve it." The polytheists used to rub saffron on the bodies of their idols and honey on their heads. Flies used to come through the vents and eat up all the honey. The idols were, of course unable to prevent this. Even today, the Hindus place sweetmeats and other offerings before their idols only for the flies and other insects to enjoy.

However, despite realising the helplessness of their false gods, these people do not desist from their ways. They continue to be subservient to and worship things that are weaker than themselves.

"The seeker (the Polytheist) and the sought (the idol) are both weak." The weakness of the idol is apparent and has been explained in the above verses. The polytheist worshipper of these idols is weak because he cannot utilise his intelligence to fathom the absurdity of his deeds.

"They have not honoured Allāh as He deserves to be honoured." Allāh is the Only Being Who is worthy of worship because He is the Only One Who is Able to do everything and anything. It is incumbent on man to realise that only Allāh should be worshipped, and he must accept and believe in all Allāh's attributes that are mentioned in the Qur'ān and the Ahadith, Taking others as deities will constitute dishonouring Allāh. The polytheists also admit to accepting Allāh as their Lord, but still worship others at the same time. This is also against the honour of Allāh especially when they sacrifice animals in the name of these idols.

"Allāh is surely The Omnipotent, the Mighty." How can one worship helpless and weak gods instead of One Who is "The Omnipotent, the Mighty"

اللَّهُ يَصْطَفِي مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ رُسُلًا وَمِنَ النَّاسِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ
 ﴿٧٥﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ﴿٧٦﴾ يَتَأْتِيهَا
 الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَرْكَعُوا وَاسْجُدُوا وَاعْبُدُوا رَبَّكُمْ وَافْعَلُوا الْخَيْرَ
 لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾

(75) Allāh selects messengers from the angels and from mankind. Verily Allāh is All Hearing, All Seeing. (76) He knows what is before them and what is behind them. All matters return to Allāh. (77) O you who believe, bow, prostrate, worship your Lord and carry out good deeds so that you may be successful.

ALLĀH CHOOSES MESSENGERS FROM AMONG THE ANGELS AND MEN

All of creation has been created by Allāh. Therefore, He reserves the right to grant status to whomsoever He desires. Allāh has conferred the noble mantle of apostleship to those angels and men whom He has chosen. None has the right to question Allāh about His reasons for selecting someone and omitting another, for "Verily Allāh is All Hearing, All Seeing." Allāh knows best who can bear the responsibility and who cannot.

"He knows what is before them and what is behind them." Allāh is Aware of every person's past, present and future situations. "All matters return to Allāh." He has supreme control over all matters in both the worlds. Nothing happens without His will.

Allāh then says, "O you who believe, bow, prostrate (i.e. perform Salāh, which includes these postures), worship your Lord (by carrying out all other acts of devotion) and carry out good deeds (the Farāidh, Compulsories, Optional, good character, etc) so that you may be successful."

According to Imām Shafī'i رحمه الله عليه, this verse requires that a person makes prostration (Sajdah). However, Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه and Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه are of the opinion that prostration (Sajdah) does not have to be made. The details of this difference are mentioned in the books of jurisprudence and commentaries of the Ahadith.

وَجَاهِدُوا فِي اللَّهِ حَقَّ جِهَادِهِ هُوَ اجْتَبَاكُمْ وَمَا جَعَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ مِنْ حَرَجٍ
مِلَّةَ أَبِيكُمْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ هُوَ سَمَّاكُمُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَفِي هَذَا لِيَكُونَ الرَّسُولُ
شَهِيدًا عَلَيْكُمْ وَتَكُونُوا شُهَدَاءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ فَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ
وَأَعْتَصِمُوا بِاللَّهِ هُوَ مَوْلَاكُمْ فَنِعْمَ الْمَوْلَى وَنِعْمَ النَّصِيرُ ﴿٧٨﴾

(78) Strive for Allāh with the endeavour that is His right. He has chosen you and has not placed any hardship upon you in religion (Dīn). Follow the creed of your father Ibrahim. It was Allāh who named you Muslims from before and in this Qur'ān, so that the messenger be a witness over you, and that you may be witnesses over mankind. So establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and hold fast to Allāh. He is your Protecting Friend. The Best Protecting Friend and the Best Helper.

STRIVE IN ALLĀH'S WAY AS ONE SHOULD AND FOLLOW THE CREED OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام

The Arabic word "Jihād" (translated above as "Strive") literally includes all endeavours that are carried out to please Allāh. The 'Jihād' (holy war) that is commonly referred to is a branch of the broader literal meaning. The carnal soul of a person has to be subdued when a person wishes to carry out good deeds and to abstain from sin. The carnal soul also has to be fought to rectify one's intentions when carrying out these deeds so that they are not done for ulterior motives. Striving to curb these desires of the soul may also be termed as Jihād.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the Muslims should wage Jihād against the polytheists with their wealth, lives and tongues. Therefore, Jihād will include spending one's wealth against the disbelievers and even (if need be) the usage of poetry to reply to their vilifying poetry against Islām and the Muslims. Writing books on Islām to combat them and to preach Islām will also be included in the purport of "Strive for Allāh with the endeavour that is His right." In fact, any endeavour for the benefit of religion (D'in) will be included in the meaning of this verse.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "The best Jihād is to speak a word of truth before a tyrannical king." There are various ranks of Jihād, all of which vary in the rewards that they will earn the believer (Mu'min).

Allāh then says, "He (Allāh) has chosen you..." Allāh has granted preference to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم over all other followers (Ummahs). He has conferred the Qur'ān on them, which can easily be committed to memory. Although they are the last of all Ummahs to appear on earth, they will be the first to enter Heaven (Jannah).

Tirmidhi reports a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, "You are the best of all nations who have been raised for mankind." Thereafter, he said, "You have completed the 70th Ummah. You are the best of nations and the most honoured in the sight of Allāh."

THERE IS NO DIFFICULTY IN RELIGION (D'ĪN)

"....and has not placed any hardship upon you in religion (Dīn)." It is also because of the bounties of Allāh on this Ummah that He has made the religion (D'in) of Islām easy to follow. None of the injunctions are impossible to follow and are all perfectly applicable to their individual situations. This religion (D'in) does not have the difficult injunctions that was ordained in the religion (D'in) of the Jews, as discussed in the commentary of the last verse (verse 286) of Surah Baqarah, which reads, "Our Lord, do not place such a burden on us as You had placed on those before us."

Many pure things were forbidden for the Jews and they could not also claim the booty from their wars. They had to pay a quarter of their wealth in Zakāh and had to cut off that portion of their clothes that became contaminated with any impurity. Merely washing the impure portion was not sufficient. Whenever any of them secretly perpetrated a sin at night, it would be emblazoned on his door the following morning.

Booty has been permitted for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and they have to pay only 2.5% of their wealth annually in Zakāh. Then too, Zakāh is not payable on all their wealth - only on gold, silver, cash and merchandise, even though the person may be a millionaire.

Although fasting has been ordained during the month of Ramadhān, it is waived for the ill and the traveller. They may observe their missed fasts after Ramadhān, while the extremely frail person may pay expiation for it. Hajj is obligatory only once in a lifetime for those who are financially capable.

Even the five daily Salāh have been made easy because the entire period between Fajr and Zuhr, as well as the period between Zuhr and Asr have been kept free of any other Salāh so that people could easily engage in earning their living or studying. The lengthy period from Isha to Fajr has also been freed for rest.

The total number of Rakāhs throughout the day (the obligatory prayer (Farā'idh), Witr and Sunan Mu'akkada) comprise only 32 Rakāhs, and it is reduced further for the traveller, when the obligatory prayer (Farā'idh) are lessened to only two Rakāhs instead of four. When a person is unable to stand in Salāh, he may sit and, if he cannot even sit, he may lie down and perform Salāh.

Ablution (Wudhu) and Bath (Ghusl) will earn a person extra reward if made with cold water and, when water is not available or cannot be used, one may perform the Dry ablution (Tayammum). Pure foods can be consumed and man has only been prevented from eating unlawful foods that may adversely affect his character.

Fighting in Jihād is obligatory on every Muslim only when the disbelievers attack and the army cannot cope. Then too, it will serve to protect the lives and property of the Muslims themselves. If a Muslim is killed in the battle, he is promised the lofty mantle of martyrdom, which cannot be matched with thousands of years in worship.

It should be borne in mind that the meaning of an easy religion (D'īn) is not that a person will not feel any difficulty at all in practising, nor does it mean that he can consume anything that he pleases. If this were so then the Fajr Salāh would have never been made Fardh because of the difficulty involved in awakening. Similarly, Asr Salāh would not have been made Fardh, because of the difficulty involved in forsaking business at that time. If this were the case, then the details of lawful (Halāl) and Unlawful (Harām) would have been meaningless.

The meaning of a simple religion (D'īn) is that it is practicable for any person once he decides to practise. Today's times have bred ignoramuses who claim to be jurists. Saying that religion (D'īn) is simple, they have permitted explicit sins like usury, gambling, Unlawful (Harām) meat, etc. They are misled and are misleading others by their foolish rulings. People should understand that these people are actually their enemies, and should remain far from them.

Allāh continues to say; "Follow the creed of your father Ibrahim." Since the Arabs were from the progeny of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, Allāh uses that words "your father." The foundation pillar of Sayyidina Ibrahim's عليه السلام creed was Oneness of Allāh (Tauhid). There are also many other similarities between the Islām preached by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Religion (Dīn) followed by Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام.

"It was Allāh who named you Muslims from before (i.e. in the previous scriptures) and in this Qur'ān..." An example of this in the Qur'ān is verse 102 of Surah Al Imrān (Surah 3), where Allāh says, "O you who believe, fear Allāh as He should be feared and do not die except as Muslims." One cannot truly thank Allāh enough for this title, because it describes this Ummah as people who are truly submissive to Allāh.

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام gave this Ummah the name of Muslim. This has been mentioned in verse 128 of Surah Baqarah, where Allāh quotes the prayer (du'ā) of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام. They submitted, "O our Lord! Make the two of us submissive to You and make from our progeny a nation who are Muslims (submissive to You)."

Allāh then says that Muslims should strive in Allāh's way "so that the messenger may be a witness over you, and that you be witnesses over mankind."

Other commentators interpret the verse to mean that since Allāh has given this Ummah the title of Muslim, they should value this title and act accordingly, by being submissive to all Allāh's commands. The verse therefore means that Allāh gave them the title, "so that (you become worthy enough for) the messenger (to) be a witness over you, and (worthy enough) that you may be witnesses over mankind."

Allāh says in verse 142 of Surah Baqarah, "Thus we have made you such a group that is moderate in nature so that you may be witness over the people and the messenger a witness over you."

When Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام and other Prophets عليهم السلام will attest that they have propagated their messages to the people, they will be required to present witnesses. They will summon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah. The Ummah will then attest to the veracity of these Prophets عليهم السلام. When they will be asked as to how they had knowledge of this fact, they will say that their Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had informed them of the same.

Once Allāh has bestowed this Ummah with this great position of being witnesses to the testimony of the Prophets عليهم السلام, they need to express gratitude and live up to the status. To fulfil this, Allāh commands, "So establish Salāh, pay Zakāh (both of which are among the greater fundamentals of Islām) and hold fast to Allāh." i.e. Only Allāh must be relied on and beseeched for assistance.

"He is your Protecting Friend. The Best Protecting Friend and the Best Helper." The word "mawla" (translated above as "Protecting Friend") also refers to someone who facilitates one's tasks and affairs.

Allāh says in another verse, "This is because Allāh is the Protecting Friend of the believers and because the disbelievers have no protecting friend."

PART EIGHTEEN

سورة المؤمنون

Makkan	Surah Al-Muminun	Verses 118
--------	------------------	------------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١﴾ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ خَاشِعُونَ ﴿٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ
مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٣﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِلزَّكَاةِ فَاعِلُونَ ﴿٤﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِفُرُوجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ
﴿٥﴾ إِلَّا عَلَى أَزْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُومِينَ ﴿٦﴾ فَمَنْ ابْتَغَى
وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ ﴿٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمْتِنَتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُونَ ﴿٨﴾
وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَوَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ ﴿٩﴾ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْوَارِثُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ الَّذِينَ يَرِثُونَ
الْفِرْدَوْسَ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿١١﴾

In the name of Allāh, Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) The believers have truly succeeded... (2) ... those who are humble in their Salāh... (3) ... who are averse to futility... (4) .... who fulfil the act of paying Zakāh... (5).... and those who safeguard their private organs... (6). .. save when it comes to their spouses and the slave women whom they own. They will surely not be blamed about (cohabiting with) them. (7) Whoever seeks more than this, then such persons are transgressors indeed. (8) Those who give due regard to trusts and their pledges... (9) And those who are particular about their prayers. (10) These are the heirs... (11) ... who shall inherit Firdous, in which they shall abide forever.

THE ATTRIBUTES OF THE BELIEVERS AND THE DECLARATION OF THEIR SUCCESS

Allāh begins a detailed description of the believers (Mu'minīn) by saying, "The believers have truly succeeded..." This opening verse refutes that belief of those who think that success can be determined by obtaining the things of this world.

Some think that wealth denotes success, others are under the misconception that social standing represents the degree of success, and there are also those who maintain that physical beauty or a particular profession are tokens of success. Allāh refutes all of this by declaring that true success is measured by one's success in the Hereafter.

Allāh say in another verse, "Whoever is saved from the fire and entered into Heaven (Jannah) shall truly be successful." [Surah Āl Imrān (3). verse 185]

Thereafter, Allāh goes on to enumerate the qualities of the believers (Mu'minīn). Allāh says that they are "Those who are humble in their Salāh..." The internal and external dimensions of a believer (Mu'min) should be focussed on his Salāh when he is performing it. He should be fully aware of what he is doing and must realise that his Salāh should be worthy of acceptance by Allāh.

He should not be hasty in his Salāh, nor must he fidget with his clothing or beard. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said about a person who was fondling his beard in Salāh, "if his heart was submissive (to the Shari'ah), his limbs would also be submissive."

The person performing Salāh is present in Allāh's court and should therefore concentrate properly. It is for this reason that the Shari'ah has encouraged the performance of Salāh behind a screen of some sort. Looking around in Salāh has been forbidden, as well as interlocking the fingers. The Shari'ah has also forbidden the performance of Salāh while one needs to relieve oneself, or is famished and food has been prepared. All these factors disrupt his concentration.

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh's attention is constantly directed towards His slave performing Salāh as long as the slave does not divert his attention. When he diverts his attention, then Allāh also diverts His attention." [Mishkāt p. 91]

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضي الله عنه has also reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person performing Salāh should not fidget with pebbles because Allāh's mercy is directed towards him.

Allāh then describes the second attribute of the believers (Mu'minīn), when He says that they are those "who are averse to futility..." The word 'futility' refers to all deeds and words that are of no benefit in this world and in the Hereafter. Describing a group perform believers (Mu'minīn) in Surah Qasas Allāh says, "When they hear futility, they turn away from it saying, 'Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours. We greet you with peace. We do not wish to converse with the ignorant.'" [Surah 28, verse 55]

Speaking of His special bondsmen, Allāh says in Surah Furqān that they are "those who do not present themselves for acts of deceit and, when they pass by frivolous acts, they pass by gracefully." [Surah 25, verse 72]

One can well imagine that if such emphasis is placed upon being averse to futility, aversion from sin should be stressed much more. Although it would not be sinful to listen to futile talk, such an act will cause the heart to lose its spiritual radiance and will decrease one's desire to perform good deeds. When a person becomes accustomed to futility, it leads him on to perpetrate sins. Another great harm of futile deeds and talks is that they while away valuable time that could have been fruitfully utilised for noble deeds like the recitation of the Qur'ān and remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr).

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه has reported that when a certain Sahabi رضي الله عنه passed away, another said that the deceased will enter Heaven (Jannah). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You are conveying glad tidings of Heaven (Jannah) whereas it is possible that he may have engaged in idle talk or had been niggardly to spend in a cause that would not have brought him any deficiency (like a pinch of salt, imparting some knowledge, a light to make a fire, etc)." [Mishkāt p. 413]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Avoiding futility is from the beauty of one's Islām."

A person once asked Sayyidina Luqman عليه السلام how he had attained the noble position that he enjoyed. The sage replied, "By truthful speech, fulfilling the trusts placed with me and by avoiding everything futile."

Allāh then describes the third attribute of the believers (Mu'minīn) when He says that they are those "who fulfil the act of paying Zakāh..." The literal meaning of the word "Zakāh" is 'to purify.' The payment of poor due has been termed "Zakāh" because by paying this figure, people are purified from miserliness and their wealth is also purified. Taking the literal meaning into account, certain commentators have interpreted the above verse to mean that the believers (Mu'minīn) are those people who purify themselves from evil traits and habits like hatred, jealousy, etc.

Allāh says in Surah A'la, "Those who purify themselves have certainly succeeded." [Surah 87, verse 14]

Allāh then enumerates the fourth quality of the believers (Mu'minīn) by saying that they are those "who safeguard their private organs, save when it comes to their spouses and the slave women who they own. They will surely not be blamed with regard to (cohabiting with) them." Men are permitted to cohabit only with their wives and slave women – none else. Allāh says further, "Whoever seeks more than this, then such persons are transgressors indeed."

This verse clearly indicates that the practice of Mut'ah (practiced by the Rawāfidh) is Unlawful (Harām) because the woman with whom Mut'ah is practised is neither a person's wife, nor his slave. In a like manner, the verse prohibits all other methods of sexual gratification that do not fall into the purport of "spouses and slave women."

The detailed laws pertaining to slave women can be found in the books of jurisprudence. It should be borne in mind that servants and employed labourers are not slaves. Any contact with them will be regarded as fornication by the Shari'ah. Buying or selling a free woman will be Unlawful (Harām) for both contracting parties.

Ruling: It is Unlawful (Harām) to cohabit with a "mahrām" even if a person marries her.

Ruling: It is Unlawful (Harām) to cohabit with one's legal wife and slave girl when they are menstruating. This act will also be deemed as being in the purport of "Whomsoever seeks more than this, then such persons are transgressors indeed."

Enumerating the fifth and sixth attributes of the Believers (Mu'minin), Allāh says, "Those who give due regard to trusts and their pledges. And those who are particular about their prayers."

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم seldom delivered a sermon without adding, "Be aware! The person bereft of trustworthiness has no Belief (Imān), and the person who does not fulfil pledges has no Din!" [Mishkāt p. 15]

Also included in giving "due regard to trusts" is to fulfil the commands of Allāh [be these the obligations (Farā'idh), Compulsories, etc] and to abstain from the prohibitions [and reprehensibles (Makrūhāt)] set by Him. The trusts given to a person by another should also be duly returned and secrets should be safeguarded in a similar responsible manner.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Gatherings are trusts (i.e. the things mentioned in a gathering should be restricted to its venue), unless they concern the unwarranted spilling of blood, fornication, or usurping someone's wealth."

Another hadith states that when a person says something and then looks about (to see that no other person is listening), then his words are a secret (and should be treated as such). [Tirmidhi and Abu Dawūd]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "It is a great betrayal that you tell your brother something about which he deems you to be truthful, whereas you are lying." [Mishkāt]

A hadith of Tirmidhi reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a person who is consulted in any matter should be trustworthy (i.e. he should offer advice that is best)."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a hypocrite can be recognised by three traits even though he performs Salāh, fasts and claims to be a Muslim. These are (1) he lies when he speaks, (2) he breaches his pledges and (3) betrays a trust kept with him.

By accepting Islām, the Muslim has undertaken a pledge with Allāh to fulfil all His commands and obey Him in every condition. A person must also fulfil any pledge or promise made to any other person. People are daily involved in the despicable deed of promising payment for debts on certain dates, but then delaying the payment. Even worse are those who defer paying their debts despite having the means to do so.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Amr رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person possessing four traits is a true hypocrite, and whoever has one of these four possesses one trait of a hypocrite. (These are:) (1) He fails to return the trust placed in his custody, (2) he lies when he speaks, (3) he betrays after making pledges, (4) he swears when arguing." [Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

سليم عليه said, "If you guarantee six things for me, I shall guarantee Heaven (Jannah) for you. (viz.) (1) Speaking the truth, (2) fulfilling promises, (3) returning trusts placed in your care, (4) safeguarding your private organs, (5) lowering your gazes [so that they do not fall on Unlawful (Harām) things] (6) restraining your hands (from evil and futile activities)." [Mishkāt p. 415]

The sixth attribute of the Believers (Mu'minīn) is that they are "particular about their prayers." People who perform some of their Salāh and discard the rest are not included in this verse.

Sayyidina Ubadah bin Sāmīt رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh has ordained five Salāh. Whoever will perform a proper ablution (wudhu), perform them on time with proper performance of the genuflexion (Ruku) and prostration (Sajdah), Allāh undertakes to forgive him. Whoever does not do so shall have no such undertaking from Allāh. If Allāh wills, He will forgive him, otherwise Allāh will punish whoever He wills." [Abu Dawūd]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Amr رضي الله عنه reports that once, while making mention of Salāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Salāh will be an illumination on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) for the person who is particular about them. It will also be a proof of his Belief (Imān) and a means of delivery from Hell. As for the one who was not particular about Salāh, it will neither be an illumination, nor a proof, nor a means of delivery. On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), such a person will be raised with the likes of Pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān and Ubay bin Khalaf." [Dārmi v. 2 p. 21 1 and Mishkāt]

After describing the attributes of the Believers (Mu'minīn), Allāh says about them, "These are the heirs who shall inherit Firdous, in which they shall abide forever." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Whenever you pray, ask Allāh for Firdous because it is the best and highest level of Heaven (Jannah). Above it is the throne of the Merciful, and all four rivers of Heaven (Jannah) have their sources there." [Bukhari]

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ سُلَالَةٍ مِنْ طِينٍ ﴿١٢﴾ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُطْفَةً فِي قَرَارٍ مَكِينٍ
ثُمَّ خَلَقْنَا النُّطْفَةَ عَلَقَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْعَلَقَةَ مُضْغَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْمُضْغَةَ عِظْمًا
فَكَسَوْنَا الْعِظْمَ لَحْمًا ثُمَّ أَنْشَأْنَاهُ خَلْقًا آخَرَ فَتَبَارَكَ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنُ الْخَالِقِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ ثُمَّ
إِنكُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ لَمَيِّتُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ تُعْرَشُونَ ﴿١٦﴾

(12) We have certainly created man from a product of clay... (13) Thereafter We placed him in a safe lodging as a drop of fluid... (14) Thereafter We made the drop of fluid into a clot of blood, then the clot of blood into a lump of flesh, then the lump of flesh into bones, after which We dressed the bones in flesh. Thereafter We made him into another type of creation. So Blessed be Allāh, the Best of all creators. (15) Thereafter you will all definitely die. (16) Thereafter you will surely be resurrected on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

ALLĀH'S CREATIVE POWERS, THE GRADUAL CREATION OF MAN AND LIFE AFTER DEATH

In the above verses, Allāh discusses the fact that man will have to leave this temporary world and be raised for questioning 'on the Day of Judgement. Referring to the creation of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, Allāh says, "We have certainly created man from a product of clay..."

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh took a handful of sand from all over the earth and mixed it with water so that it became mud. Allāh then cast the mould of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام from this mud. Allāh then blew the soul into it. The progeny of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام will therefore be like the portion of sand they were created from. Among them are reddish people, white people, black people and others between these complexions. Some of them are soft, others hard, some good, others bad (according to the type of sand). [Tirmidhi and Abu Dawūd, from Mishkāt p. 22]

"Thereafter We placed him (man) in a safe lodging (the womb) as a drop of fluid. Thereafter We made the drop of fluid into a clot of blood, then (after a while) the clot of blood into a lump of flesh, then (after a period) the lump of flesh into bones, after which We dressed the bones in flesh." Then Allāh placed the soul into this body and caused the child to be born with all its limbs intact—completely different to what it had been initially. Referring to this, Allāh Says, "Thereafter We made him into another' type of creation."

"So Blessed be Allāh, the Best of all creators." All the others are also Allāh's creation. They are all only capable of achieving what Allāh allows them to Allāh granted people the intelligence to invent and design things.

Allāh then draws man's attention to the most pertinent fact when He says, "Thereafter you will all definitely die. Thereafter you will surely be resurrected on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)."

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا فَوْقَكُمْ سَبْعَ طَرَائِقَ وَمَا كُنَّا عَنِ الْخَلْقِ غَافِلِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً يَقْدَرُ فَأَسْكَنَتْهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِنَّا عَلَى ذَهَابٍ بِهِ لَقَادِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَأَنْشَأْنَا لَكُمْ بِهِ جَنَّاتٍ مِّنْ نَّحِيلٍ وَأَعْنَبَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا فَوَاكِهَ كَثِيرَةً وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَشَجَرَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ طُورِ سَيْنَاءَ تَنْبُتُ بِالذَّهْنِ وَصَبِغٍ لِّلْأَكْلِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾

(17) We have certainly created seven paths above you and we are never unaware of the creation. (18) We send stipulated quantities of water from the skies, embedding it into the earth, and We are also capable of withdrawing it. (19) Therewith We create for you gardens of date palms and grapes. In them is an abundance of fruit for you, and you also eat from them. (20) We have also created a certain tree that grows from the mountain of Sinai, bearing oil and gravy for those who wish to eat.

THE CREATION OF THE SKIES AND THE FALLING OF RAIN IN SPECIFIED QUANTITIES, CAUSING VARIOUS THINGS TO GROW IN GARDENS

Allāh says, "We have certainly created seven paths above you..." This refers to the seven skies. They are referred to as "paths" because they are stacked one upon the other, leading upwards from the earth. They may also be referred to as "paths" because the angels traverse them in their ascent to the heavens.

"..... and we are never unaware of the creation." Allāh ever always Aware of all His creation, be they tiny or colossal.

"We send stipulated quantities of water from the skies..." If too much rain falls, floods occur, causing extensive damage to man and animals alike. If the rains are too little, they also suffer just as much. Allāh causes the rains to fall in sufficient quantities so that people are able to fulfil their needs. At the same time, the rainwater does not disappear after falling but is absorbed into the earth to be used when the need arises. It is also stored in rivers and dams for man's benefit. Allāh refers to this when he says that He embeds the water "into the earth."

However, just as Allāh can send rain to man, it should be borne in mind that He is perfectly "capable of withdrawing it."

Allāh then says that, by means of the rain, He creates for people "gardens of date palms and grapes. In them is an abundance of fruit for you, and you also eat from them." These are some of the various benefits of the vegetation that Allāh allows to grow. These fruit are both nutritious and tasty, requiring no additives to improve their taste. They may also be preserved and dried until the next season.

"We have also created a certain tree that grows from the mountain of Sinai, bearing oil and gravy for those who wish to eat." This verse refers to the olive tree. It has been referred to as a "blessed tree" in Surah Nūr, and Allāh has taken an oath by the olive in Surah Tin.

Of the numerous benefits of this tree, the verse mentions two. The first is that the oil may be utilised for a multitude of purposes, and the second is that it may also be eaten as gravy with bread. The olive itself may be consumed. Because olives grow mainly in Shām, the verse says that the olive tree "grows from the mountain of Sinai (which is in Shām)." This is the mountain where Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام saw the fire when he was travelling from Madyan to Egypt.

Surah Tin states the name of this mountain as the "Mountain of Sinīn," whereas the above verse terms it as the mountain of "Sīnā." Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله says that both words mean "blessed," while Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله says that they mean "beautiful."

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله has also mentioned that the word "Sīnā" could refer to the special rocks of Mount Tūr. Sayyidina Ikramah رحمه الله is of the opinion that "Sīnā" is the place where Mount Tūr is situated.

وَلَا لَكُمْ فِي الْأَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةٌ تُشْفِيكُمْ مِمَّا فِي بُطُونِهَا وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ كَثِيرَةٌ وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَعَلَيْهَا وَعَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾

(21) There is certainly a lesson for you in the animals. We give you a drink from, their bellies, there are many benefits for you in them, and you even eat of them.

(22) You are even carried on them and on ships.

THE BENEFITS OF ANIMALS AND THE ADVANTAGE OF SHIPS

After discussing the benefits of trees, Allāh now makes reference to the multitude of benefits to be found in domesticated farm animals. People drink the milk they produce, eat their meat, make various things from their hides and use them for transport. They have proceeded from the earliest times, just as man has passed through the generations. Allāh has subjugated them for man's benefit.

Allāh then speaks of the ships that man uses to travel over the oceans. Man is transported in them, and his goods are also carried over vast distances. Allāh had inspired man to construct these large ships and allows them to travel on the water despite their bulk. One may refer to the commentary of verse 164 of Surah Baqarah for more details.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَقَالَ يَتَقَوَّمُوا عِبَادُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَقَالَ الْمَلَأُوا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ مَا هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَفْضَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَأَنزَلَ مَلَائِكَةً مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ فترَيْصُوا بِهِ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٢٥﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي بِمَا كُنتُ بَدِئْتُكَ بِهِ فَنُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِنَا فَتَضَعُونَ كُفْرَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامِ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَاذْكُورُوا إِلَيْهِ أَنْ يُصْنِعَ لَكُمُ الْفُلْكَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا وَوَحِّينَا فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا وَفَارَ التَّنْزِيلُ فَاسْلُكْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَأَهْلَكَ إِلَّا مَن سَبَقَ عَلَيْهِ الْقَوْلُ مِنْهُمْ وَلَا تُخَاطِبُنِي فِي الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا إِنَّهُمْ مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَإِذَا اسْتَوَيْتَ أَنْتَ وَمَنْ مَعَكَ عَلَى الْفُلْكِ فَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي نَجَّيْنَا مِنَ الْقَوَمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ أُنزِلْنِي مُزْلًا مُّبَارَكًا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْمُنزِلِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ وَإِنْ كُنَّا لَمُبْتَلِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾

(23) We sent Nūh to his nation and he told them, "O my people! Worship Allāh. There is no deity for you besides Him. Do you not fear?" (24) The disbelieving leaders from his nation said, "He is only a human like yourselves, who intends to gain superiority over you. If Allāh desired, He would have rather sent angels. We have not heard of such a thing among our forefathers." (25) "He is but a man afflicted by insanity. So tarry with him a while longer." (26) Nūh عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! Assist me, for they have denied me." (27) So We sent revelation to him saying, "Construct an ark by Our supervision and revelation. When Our command comes and water gushes forth from the oven, then admit into the ark a pair of every species and your family, except those against whom the decree has been passed. And do not entreat me about those who oppress. They will be drowned." (28) "When you and those with you have boarded the ark, then say, 'All praise be to Allāh, Who has rescued us from the oppressive nation. (29) And say, 'O my Lord! Settle me in a blessed settlement. You are surely the Best of hosts. (30) There are undoubtedly signs in this, and We certainly put people to the test.

SAYYIDINA NŪH عليه السلام PREACHED ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) TO HIS NATION, BUT THEY ARE EVENTUALLY DESTROYED BECAUSE OF THEIR DISOBEDIENCE

The nation of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام worshipped idols, the names of which are mentioned in Surah Nūh. He preached Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) to them, as Allāh says, "We sent Nūh to his nation and he told them, 'O my people! Worship Allāh. There is no deity for you besides Him. Do you not fear (His punishment)?"'

The leaders of nations are always reluctant to accept the truth and do not even allow others to do so. The leaders of Sayyidina Nūh's nation were the same and told the people that they saw nothing special in Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام that makes him a Prophet of Allāh. Allāh says, "The disbelieving leaders from his nation said, 'He is only a human like yourselves, who intends to gain superiority over you. If Allāh (really) desired (to send a Prophet), He would have rather sent angels (as the Holy Prophets). We have not heard of such a thing (such as worshipping one Allāh) among our forefathers."

These leaders were even insolent enough to add, "He is but a man afflicted by insanity. So tarry with him a while longer (then we shall see what happens. Either his insanity will vanish, or we will be rid of him upon his death)."

In the face of all this opposition, "Nūh عليه السلام said, 'O my Lord! Assist me, for they have denied me.' So We sent revelation to him saying, 'Construct an ark by Our supervision and revelation. When Our command comes and water gushes forth from the oven, then admit into the ark a pair of every species and your family (as well as all the other believers), except those against whom the decree (of punishment) has been passed. And do not entreat me about those who oppress.'" Allāh commanded Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام not to intercede on behalf of those members of his family (viz, his wife and son) who remained disbelievers because "They will be drowned."

Allāh commanded Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام to take along a pair of each species of creation so that their progenies may continue after the flood.

Allāh also commanded Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام saying, "When you and those with you have boarded the ark, then say, 'All praise be to Allāh, Who has rescued us from the oppressive nation.' And say, 'O my Lord! Settle me in a blessed settlement. You are surely the Best of hosts."

A verse of Surah Hūd states that as they boarded the ark, they were commanded to recite. "With the name of Allāh shall it travel and anchor. Surely my Lord is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." They were to recite these prayers as the ark cruised upon the waters.

The sign that signified the beginning of the floods was that water began to gush forth from an oven. Thereafter, water poured from the skies and the earth. All the disbelievers were drowned, and Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام was saved with the believers (Mu'minin). The details of this epic have been given in Surah Hūd [Sarah 11, verse 25-49].

After describing this episode, Allāh says, "There are undoubtedly signs in this (denoting Allāh's immense power), and We certainly put people to the test." The people of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام were tested when he preached to them for 950 years. They failed miserably when they opted for the life of this world and followed their leaders instead.

ثُمَّ أَنشَأْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ قَرْنًا آخَرِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ فَأَرْسَلْنَا فِيهِمْ رَسُولًا مِنْهُمْ أَنْ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُم مِّنْ إِلَهِ غَيْرُهُ أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا الْآخِرَةِ وَأُفِّرَتْهُمْ فِي الْحَيَوةِ الدُّنْيَا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يَأْكُلُ مِمَّا تَأْكُلُونَ مِنْهُ وَيَشْرَبُ مِمَّا تَشْرَبُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلَئِنْ أَطَعْتُم بَشَرًا مِّثْلَكُمْ إِنَّكُمْ إِذَا لَخَسِرُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ أَعِدُّوا أَنْكُمْ إِذَا مِتُّمْ وَكُنْتُمْ تُرَابًا وَعِظَامًا أَنْكُمْ تُخْرَجُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ هِيَئَاتِ هِيَئَاتِ هِيَئَاتِ لِمَا تُوعَدُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ إِنَّ هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَبْعُوثِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا وَمَا نَحْنُ لَهُ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي بِمَا كَذَّبُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ قَالَ عَمَّا قَلِيلٍ لَّيُصْبِحُنَّ نَادِمِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ فَآخَذْتَهُمُ الصَّيْحَةُ بِالْحَقِّ فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ غُسَاءً فَبَعَدًا لِلْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٤١﴾

(31) Then We created another nation after them. (32) We sent a messenger among them (who told them), "Worship Allāh. There is no deity for you besides Him. Do you not fear?" (33) The disbelieving leaders from his nation, who denied the meeting of the Hereafter and whom We had granted affluence in the worldly life, said, "He is merely a human like your selves, who eats what you eat and drinks what you drink." (34) "Surely, if you follow a human like yourselves, you will certainly be at a loss." (35) "Does he promise you that you will be resurrected after you have died and become dust and bones?" (36) Farfetched! Farfetched is that which you are promised!" (37) "This is but our worldly existence. We die and live, and will never be resurrected." (38) "He is only a man who invents lies against Allāh, and we shall never believe him." (39) The messenger said, "O my Lord! Assist me, for they have denied me. (40) Allāh said, "Shortly these people will regret." (41) So, according to the true promise, a dreadful scream seized them and We reduced them to nothing. May the oppressive nation be far removed!

ANOTHER PROPHET عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام IS SENT AFTER SAYYIDINA NŪH عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, BUT HIS NATION IS ALSO DESTROYED BECAUSE OF THEIR DISBELIEF

Commentators mention that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم referred to in the above verses is either Sayyidina Hūd or Sayyidina Sālih عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. However, he is most likely to be Sayyidina Hūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام because Surah A'rāf Surah Hūd and Surah Shu'arā all make mention of Sayyidina Hūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and his nation (the Ād) after Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. However, he could also be Sayyidina Sālih عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام because his nation was also destroyed by a scream, as mentioned in the above verses. Allāh knows best.

Allāh says, "Their We created another nation after them [the nation of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام]. "We sent a messenger among them (who told them), 'Worship Allāh. There is no deity for you besides Him. Do you not fear (that you will be punished on account of your disbelief)?"

However, as occurred before, "The disbelieving leaders from his nation, who denied the meeting of the Hereafter and whom We had granted affluence in the worldly life, said, 'He is merely a human like yourselves, who eats what you eat and drinks what you drink."

They added, "Surely, if you follow a human like yourselves, you will certainly be at a loss." They then attempted to convince the people that the messenger must be insane because of the seemingly ludicrous statements Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام makes. Therefore, they said, "Does he promise you that you will be resurrected after you have died and become dust and bones? Farfetched! Farfetched is that which you are promised!"

Expressing their own opinions of disbeliefs, they said, "This is but our worldly existence. We die and live, and will never be resurrected. (This has always been the system of this world). He is only a man who invents lies against Allāh (by claiming that Allāh made him a Prophet), and we shall never believe him."

After repeated efforts to convince the people, the messenger finally made the same supplication made earlier by Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. He said, "O my Lord! Assist me, for they have denied me."

Allāh responded to his plea by saying, "Shortly these people will regret." Allāh's promise to His messengers has always been true. Therefore, Allāh says, "So, according to the true promise, a dreadful scream seized them and we reduced them to nothing. May the oppressive nation be far removed (from Allāh's mercy)!"

ثُمَّ أَنشَأْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ قُرُونًا آخَرِينَ ﴿٤٢﴾ مَا تَسْقُ مِنْ أُمَّةٍ أَجَلَهَا وَمَا يَسْتَخِرُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾
ثُمَّ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلَنَا تَتْرًا كُلًّا مَا جَاءَ أُمَّةً رَسُولُهَا كَذَّبُوهُ فَاتَّبَعْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ بَعْضًا وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ
أَحَادِيثَ فَبِعَدَا لِقَوْمٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ وَأَخَاهُ هَارُونَ بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ
مُيِّنٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا عَالِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَقَالُوا أَنُؤْمِنُ

لَيْشَرِينَ مِثْلَكَ وَقَوْمُهُمَا لَنَا عِدُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُمَا فَكَانُوا مِنَ الْمُهْلَكِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَلَقَدْ
 آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ وَأُمَّهُ آيَةً وَآوَيْنَهُمَا إِلَى
 رَبْوَةٍ ذَاتِ قَرَارٍ وَمَعِينٍ ﴿٥٠﴾

(42) Then We created numerous nations after them. (43) No nation can outstrip their term, nor can they delay it. (44) Thereafter We sent Our messengers in succession. Whenever a messenger came to his nation, they denied him. So We brought one nation after the other and made them mere fables. May the disbelieving nations be distanced! (45) Thereafter We sent Mūsa and his brother Harūn with Our signs and a manifest proof (46) (We sent them to) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his ministers, but they were haughty and an arrogant folk. (47) They said, "Should we believe in two humans like ourselves whereas their people are our slaves?" (48) So they falsified the two of them and became of the destroyed ones. (49) We had certainly granted Mūsa the Book so that they may be guided. (50) And We made the son of Maryam and his in mother a sign and settled them on such a hill that was habitable and had water.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA AND HĀRŪN عَلَيْهِمَا السَّلَام ARE SENT TO PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS PEOPLE

Allāh says that after the destruction of Sayyidina Nūh's عليه السلام nation and the one after them, He "created numerous nations after them." These include, among others, the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and the nation of Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام. However, they refused to believe in their Prophets عليهم السلام and were granted grace until a specified term. Allaah says. "No nation can outstrip their term, nor can they delay it." When their terms expired, they were all wiped out by Allāh's punishment.

"There after We sent Our messengers in succession. Whenever a messenger came to his nation, they denied him. So We brought one nation after the other and made them mere fables." There was nothing left of them besides the fact that later nations spoke of them. Allāh then says, "May the disbelieving nations be distanced (from Allāh's mercy)!" A disbeliever can never be worthy of Allāh's grace and mercy.

"Thereafter We sent Mūsa and his brother Harūn with Our signs and a manifest proof" Commentators mention that "Our signs" refer to those mentioned in verse 130 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Allāh says. "Without doubt We afflicted the people of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) with droughts and shortages in their produce so that they take heed..." The "manifest proof" in the above verse refers to the staff of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

"(We sent them to) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his ministers, but they were haughty and an arrogant folk. They said, 'Should we believe in two humans like ourselves whereas their people (the Bani Isrā'il) are our slaves?'" Their pride forbade them from following the two Prophets عليهم السلام because they deemed them to be slaves. As a result, "they falsified the two of them and became of the destroyed ones." They were eventually drowned as they attempted to cross over the sea.

Allāh says, "We had certainly granted Mūsa the Book so that they may be guided. Under the persecution of Pharaoh (Fir'aun), the Bani Isrā'il were unable to practise their Shari'ah. After Pharaoh (Fir'aun) was drowned, they were granted the Torah, containing all the injunctions of their religion (Dīn). Surah An'ām says that the Torah was "a detailed explanation of all things." The details of how the Bani Isrā'il treated their religion (Dīn) have been given in various verses of Surah Baqarah and Surah An'ām.

SAYYIDINA ISA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND MARYAM عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام

Allāh continues to say, "And We made the son of Maryam and his mother a sign..." The miraculous birth of Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام without a father clearly signifies the immense powers of Allāh. The numerous miracles he displayed (as mentioned in Surah Al Imrān and Surah Mā'idah) also express Allāh's grandeur.

Allāh has clearly mentioned in many places of the Qur'ān that Sayyidina Isa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was the son of Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام, and Surah Maryam explicitly mentions that he had no father. However, certain irreligious people are still adamant to falsify these verses of Allāh's Book by saying that his father was a certain person named Yusuf (Joseph). In saying so they are also accusing Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام of fornication (Allāh forbid!). This is nothing short of blasphemy.

Allāh says further about Sayyidina Isa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام that He "settled them on such a hill that was habitable and had water." Here Allāh speaks about the place where he settled mother and son. They had ample provisions from the fertile ground and an abundant supply of water.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ and Sayyidina Sa'id bin Musayyib رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ say that the place referred to is Damascus, whereas Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ is of the opinion that it was a place called Ramla. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ states that it was Baitul Muqaddas. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 31]

These are the authentic opinions of the pious sages of Islām. However contemporary heretics say that the graves of Sayyidina Isa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and Muhammad صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ are in Kashmir! In saying so they are denying the fact that Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام never died, even though Allāh categorically says, "With certainty, they never killed him but Allāh raised him towards Himself" [Surah Nisā (4). verses 157, 158]

"Bayānul Qur'ān" reports that a king by the name of Birdous heard from astrologers that Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was soon to be a leader. He therefore hated Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام from childhood. For this reason Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام took her son to Egypt for his safety and returned to Shām only after this king had died. The land of Egypt is along the Nile, which provides ample water.

يَا أَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُّوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٥١﴾ وَإِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَأَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاتَّقُونِ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَتَقَطَّعُوا أَمْرَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ زُبُرًا كُلٌّ

حِزْبٍ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَذَرَهُمْ فِي غَمَرَتِهِمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ أَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّمَا نُمِدُّهُمْ
بِهِ مِنْ مَّالٍ وَبَنِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ نُسَاجُ لَهُمْ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ بَلْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾

(51) O you messengers! Eat from the pure things and do good deeds. Verily I am Aware of what you do. (52) Without doubt, this way of yours is one and I am your Lord, so fear Me. (53) However, they split their affairs between themselves into segments, each party being content with what they had. (54) So leave them in their ignorance for a while. (55) Do they think that by Our granting them an increase in wealth and sons... (56) .... We wish to hasten in granting them good? But they fail to perceive.

THE COMMAND TO EAT THE PURE THINGS, THE DIVISION OF MAN INTO GROUPS, AND WORLDLY POSSESSIONS DO NOT NECESSARILY SIGNIFY GOOD FORTUNE

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه quotes that Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Allāh is Pure and accepts only pure things. Allāh has given the believers (Mu'minīn) the same command that He has given to the Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh addressed the Prophets عليهم السلام saying, "O you messengers! Eat from the pure things and do good deeds." Allāh addresses the believers (Mu'minīn) saying, "O you who believe! Eat from the pure things which We have provided for you..." [Muslim v. 1 p. 326]

This command entails three aspects. The first is that we should abstained from Unlawful (Harām) and impure foods. The second is that we should consume pure foods, and the third is that we should carry out good deeds.

The strength and nutrition derived from lawful (Halāl) Halāl and pure foods should be utilised in the obedience of Allāh and not in perpetrating sins. Allāh says in Surah Saba, "Eat from the provision of your Lord and be grateful to Him." [Surah 34, verse 15]

"Without doubt, this way religion (D'īn) of yours is one and I am your Lord, so fear Me. However, they split their affairs between themselves into segments, each party being content with what they had." The basic principles of belief in all divine Religion (Dīn)s were the same, for they all propagated Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) and belief in resurrection. However, many people refused to follow the religious teachings of the Prophets عليهم السلام, and chose rather to formulate their own religion's (D'īn's) and codes of belief. They even admit that they are unable to prove conclusively that their religion's (D'īn's) will guarantee salvation in the Hereafter.

Even among those who claim to be Muslims, there are many whose beliefs are totally corrupted. They make preposterous claims such as the Qur'ān has been altered, that their "Imāms" have the authority to declare things lawful (Halāl) and Unlawful (Harām), that their "Imāms" are a part of Allāh, that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not the final Prophet, etc. These are all beliefs that they have fabricated in direct contradiction of the Qur'ān.

Allāh then commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to continue with his duty of preaching to the masses. If they refuse to accept, they cannot be forced, but rather (Allāh tells him), he should "leave them in their ignorance for a while." When they leave this world, they will realise the error of their ways.

"Do they think that by Our granting them an increase in wealth and sons, We wish to hasten in granting them good? But they fail to perceive." If the disbelievers think that Allāh wishes them well by granting them the commodities of this world, they are wrong. Allāh grants them these things so that they can fall deeper into deviation and sin until they are adequately seized for punishment.

Note: The verse "Eat from the pure things and do good deeds" tells us that lawful (Halāl) foods have an impact upon good deeds. They serve to increase one's potential for performing good deeds, whereas Unlawful (Harām) foods considerably decrease this potential. On the contrary, Unlawful (Harām) foods cause one to sin.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ هُمْ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ رَبِّهِمْ مُشْفِقُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾
وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ لَا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْتُونَ مَا آتَاوْا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ وَجَلَةٌ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ
رَاجِعُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ يُسْرِعُونَ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ وَهُمْ لَهَا سَابِقُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ وَلَا نَكِلُفُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا
وُسْعَهَا وَلَدَيْنَا كِتَابٌ يَنْطِقُ بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾

(57) Verily those who are fearful of their Lord ..... (58) And those who believe in the verses of their Lord... (59) And those who do not ascribe partners to their Lord... (60) .... those who spend of what they have been granted and whose hearts tremble because they have to return to their Lord. (61) These people hasten to perform good deeds and are the forerunners in this. (62) We do not burden any soul more than it can bear. We have by Us a Book that speaks the truth, and they will not be oppressed.

THE QUALITIES OF THE PIOUS

The first quality of the pious is that they are "those who are fearful of their Lord..." The second is that they are "those who believe in the verses of their Lord," the third is that they "do not ascribe partners to their Lord," and the fourth is that they are those who spend of what they have been granted and whose hearts tremble because they have to return to their Lord." They are wary of their return to Allāh and are concerned about the way in which they earn and spend their wealth.

Thereafter Allāh praises these people by saying, "These people hasten to perform good deeds and are the forerunners in this." Instead of being like the people of this world, who compete in amassing wealth, the pious people compete in acts of devotion that will benefit them in the Hereafter.

"...those who spend of what they have been granted and whose hearts tremble because they have to return to their Lord." Concerning this verse, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم if those "whose hearts tremble" pertained to those who consume intoxicants and steal.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that they were not implied, but rather those people who perform Salāh and fast, yet are fearful that these deeds will not be accepted from them. These are the ones who "hasten to perform good deeds and are the forerunners in this." [Mishkāt p. 458]

This hadith teaches us that we should be fearful that our deeds will be rejected by Allāh, even though they may be performed in all sincerity and with proper care. There is always the possibility that a person falters in his deed or performs it deficiently.

Allāh has been kind enough to grant man the ability to perform good deeds and still reward him for them. If He has willed, he could have commanded the deeds without promising reward.

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to teach him a supplication (du'ā) that he could recite at the end of the Salāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him to recite:

TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! I have greatly wronged myself, and none can forgive sins besides Yourself. So grant me special forgiveness from Yourself and have mercy on me. Undoubtedly, You are the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

It should be noted that this supplication (du'ā) for forgiveness is recited after a great act like Salāh and was prescribed to a great personality like Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. Scholars (Ulama) therefore mention that a person should seek forgiveness from Allāh after performing good deeds as well, so that he may be forgiven for any deficiencies in them.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "No person's deeds can secure salvation for him." Thereupon Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها asked, "Not even yours?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Not even mine, unless Allāh enshrouds me with His mercy."

"We do not burden any soul more than it can bear." Allāh only commands people to do what they can, and all these deeds will be recorded. On the Day of Judgement, these records will be exposed and people will be rewarded or punished accordingly. None will be oppressed on this day. Referring to this, Allāh says, "We have by Us a Book that speaks the truth, and they will not be oppressed."

بَلْ قُلُوبُهُمْ فِي غَمَرٍ مِّنْ هَذَا وَلَهُمْ أَعْمَلٌ مِّنْ دُونِ ذَلِكَ هُمْ لَهَا عَمِلُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا
 أَخَذْنَا مَتَرَفِهِمْ بِالْعَذَابِ إِذَا هُمْ يَجْعَرُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ لَا تَجْعَرُوا الْيَوْمَ إِنَّكُمْ مِّنَّا لَا تَنْصُرُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾
 قَدْ كَانَتْ ءَايَاتِي تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْكُمْ فَكُنْتُمْ عَلَىٰ أَعْقَابِكُمْ تَنْكِصُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ مُسْتَكْبِرِينَ بِهِ
 سَمِيرًا تَهْجُرُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ أَفَلَمْ يَذَّبُوا الْقَوْلَ أَمْ جَاءَهُمْ مَا لَمْ يَأْتِ آبَاءَهُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ أَمْ
 لَمْ يَعْرِفُوا رَسُولَهُمْ فَهُمْ لَمْ مُنْكَرُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ بَلْ جَاءَهُم بِالْحَقِّ

(63) However, their hearts are in ignorance about this religion (D'īn). And they have other deeds that they carry out besides this. (64) Until the time comes when We will seize the affluent ones among them with punishment, they will suddenly plead. (65) "Do not plead today! You will receive no help from Us." (66) "My verses used to be recited to you, but you turned on your heels... (67) in arrogance, mocking the Qur'ān and raving on." (68) Have they not pondered over this speech, or has such a thing come to them that never came to their forefathers? (69) Or have they not recognised their the Holy Prophet, causing them to reject him? (70) Or do they say that he is insane? No, but he has brought the truth to them and most of them dislike the truth.

THE DISBELIEVERS ARE AVERSE TO THE TRUTH AND DO NOT CONTEMPLATE

After discussing the pious people, Allāh now speaks of the disbelievers. He says. "However, their hearts are in ignorance about this religion (D'īn). And (besides rejecting the truth and adhering to disbeliefs) they have other (evil) deeds that they carry out besides this."

Allāh say that they will remain in this state "Until the time comes when We will seize the affluent ones among them? with punishment..." When this happens, then "they will suddenly plead." However, it will be too late, and they will be told, "Do not plead today! You will receive no help from Us."

Allāh will also tell them, "My verses used to be recited to you, but you turned on your heels in arrogance, mocking the Qur'ān and raving on." They would say that the Qur'ān was a composition of fairy tales and poetry.

Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the Disbelievers of Makkah were arrogant about the fact that they were the custodians of the Masjidul Harām They would sit during the nights and tell tales to each other until the early hours.

"Have they not pondered over this speech (the Qur'ān), or has such a thing come to them that never came to their forefathers?" The only apparent reason for their rejection of the Qur'ān could be that they have never given thought to the beauty of the Qur'ān. If they had really done so, they would have certainly accepted it.

Another reason could be that they have never heard of any Prophets عليهم السلام before, so the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was something new to them. However, this was also not the case, because they were well aware of the previous Prophets عليهم السلام and even professed to follow Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and claimed to make Hajj like he did.

"Or have they not recognised their Prophet, causing them to reject him?" Another apparent reason for their rejection of the Qur'ān could be that they have not recognised the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم However, this is also no excuse because they knew him from childhood and had perfect knowledge of his veracity and high integrity. They would be lying if they used this excuse.

"Or do they say that he is insane?" This excuse is also baseless, because they knew that he was the most noble of them. All these excuses carry no weight. Allāh says that the fact of the matter is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم "has brought the truth to them and (they reject because) most of them dislike the truth."

Although Allāh's punishment seizes all disbelievers, Allāh specifically speaks of the punishment afflicting the "affluent" people because they are often guilty of the double sin of not accepting the truth, as well as forbidding others from accepting it. Another reason is that they are also generally in a better position to defend themselves from adversities, yet they are helpless against Allāh's punishment.

Another reason for mentioning them specifically is that they usually cannot bear difficulties and are more likely to quickly plead and cry over their plight. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the punishment mentioned above refers to the battle of Badr, when many leaders of the Quraysh were killed.

وَلَوْ أَتَبَعَ الْحَقُّ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ لَفَسَدَتِ السَّمَوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ بَلْ أَتَيْنَهُمْ
بِذِكْرِهِمْ فَهُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِهِمْ مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ خَرْجًا فَخَارَجَ رَبُّكَ
خَيْرٌ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَإِنَّكَ لَتَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٧٣﴾ وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا
يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ عَنِ الصِّرَاطِ لَنُكَبُّونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَلَوْ رَحَّمْنَاهُمْ وَكَشَفْنَا مَا بِهِمْ
مِنْ ضُرٍّ لَلَجُوا فِي طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَاهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ فَمَا اسْتَكَانُوا
لِرَبِّهِمْ وَمَا يَضُرُّعُونَ ﴿٧٦﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِم بَابًا ذَا عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ إِذَا هُمْ فِيهِ
مُبْلسُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾

(71) If the truth had to conform to their whims, the heavens, earth and all within the two would be corrupted. But We have brought its advice to them, and they ignore its advice. (72) Or do you ask repayment from them? The payment of your Lord is best and He is the Best of Providers. (73) Verily, you call them to the straight path. (74) Those who do not believe in the Hereafter are certainly deviated from the straight path. (75) If We have mercy on them and alleviate their adversities, they will blindly plunge back into their rebellion. (76) We have surely afflicted them with punishment, but they do not submit to their Lord, nor have they humbled themselves. (77) Until the time comes when We shall open for them a door of severe punishment and they will be left totally bewildered.

IF THE WHIMS OF THE DISBELIEVERS ARE FOLLOWED, THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH WOULD BE CORRUPTED

Allāh says that the truth can never conform to the whims and fancies of people because "if the truth had to conform to their whims, the heavens, earth and all within the two would be corrupted." If people were left to do as they please, they would totally corrupt the system of the universe by inviting Allāh's punishment because of their evils.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will never dawn as long as there is a single person saying "Allāh!" [Muslim]. Therefore, once Belief (Imān) is lost on earth, the universe will be destroyed by the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

"But We have brought its advice to them, and they ignore its advice." People ignore Allāh's counsel to them and continue to behave in their own evil ways.

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Or do you ask repayment from them (because of which they feel it difficult to accept the truth)?" This is a hypothetical situation expressed by Allāh to indicate that the disbelievers have no excuse not to accept Islām because they are not even asked for remuneration for the message.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم needs nothing from the people because "The payment of your Lord is best and He is the Best of Providers."

"Verily, you call them to the straight path." This was the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, "Those who do not believe in the Hereafter are certainly deviated from the straight path." They will not respond to preaching.

Allāh then says, "If We have mercy on them and alleviate their adversities, (then, instead of being grateful to Allāh and accepting His commands,) they will blindly plunge back into their rebellion."

Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "When any adversity afflicts man, he supplicates to Allāh, turning to Him only. Then, when Allāh confers a bounty upon him, he forgets for what he supplicated to Allāh before. He then ascribes partners to Allāh, thereby misleading (others) from Allāh's path. Say, Enjoy your disbelief for a while! You will certainly be from the inmates of the Fire." [Surah 39, verse 8]

"We have surely afflicted them with Punishment, but they do not submit to their Lord, nor have they humbled themselves." "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once supplicated to Allāh to afflict the Quraysh with a drought similar to the one suffered by the people of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. Abu Sufyān came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and said, "Do you not say that you have been sent as a mercy to the worlds?"

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم confirmed this, Abu Sufyān said, "You have destroyed our elders in Badr and are killing our children with starvation? Pray to Allāh to alleviate our drought." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then prayed to Allāh to remove the drought, whereupon the above verse was revealed viz. "We have surely afflicted them with punishment, but they do not submit to their Lord, nor have they humbled themselves."

Those who cannot humble themselves when afflicted by punishment will surely not do so when in comfort and prosperity.

"Until the time comes when We shall open unto them a door of severe punishment and they will be left totally bewildered." This verse sounds a warning to them that they should mend their ways and accept the truth before they are totally annihilated by Allāh's punishment.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the "severe punishment" refers to the battle of Badr. Other commentators say that it refers to death, while another group maintains that it refers to the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

Another interpretation of the verse is that this punishment would leave them totally without hope.

وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَنشَأَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي ذَرَأَكُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَلَهُ اخْتِلَافُ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ بَلْ قَالُوا مِثْلَ مَا قَالَ الْأَوَّلُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ قَالُوا أَإِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا إِذَا نَمْبُوثُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ لَقَدْ وَعَدْنَا نَحْنُ وَآبَاؤُنَا هَذَا مِن قَبْلُ إِن هَذَا إِلَّا أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ قُلْ لِّمَنِ الْأَرْضُ وَمَن فِيهَا إِن كُنتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ سَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّهِ قُلْ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ قُلْ مَن رَّبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبعِ وَرَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٨٦﴾ سَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّهِ قُلْ أَفَلَا نُنْقِطُ ﴿٨٧﴾ قُلْ مَن يَدِيرُ مَلَكُوتَ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ يُجِيرُ وَلَا يُجَارُ عَلَيْهِ إِن كُنتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ سَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّهِ قُلْ فَأَنَّى تُسْحَرُونَ ﴿٨٩﴾ بَلْ أَنزَلْنَاهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿٩٠﴾

(78) Allāh is the One Who created your ears, eyes and hearts. Seldom is it that you show gratitude. (79) It is He Who has dispersed you on earth, and to Him shall you be resurrected. (80) It is He Who gives life and death and it is only because of Him that the night and day alternate. Do you not understand? (81) But they say what their predecessors said. (82) They said, "Will we be resurrected after we have died and become dust and bones?" (83) "Our forefathers and ourselves were certainly promised the same from before. It is but a fable of the old men. (84) Say, "To whom belongs the earth and whoever is on it, if you know?" (85) They will soon reply, "it all belongs to Allāh." Say, "Will you not take heed?" (86) Say, "Who is the Lord of the seven heavens and the tremendous Throne?" (87) They will shortly reply, "It all belongs to Allāh." Say, "Do you not fear?" (88) Say, "In whose grasp is the control of all things? Who is it that can offer refuge, while none can provide refuge against Him, if you know?" (89) Shortly they will say, "It all belongs to Allāh." Say, "Then whence have you been bewitched?" (90) But We have sent the truth to them, and they are certainly liars.

THE MANIFESTATIONS OF ALLĀH'S CREATION AND A REFUTATION TO THE REJECTERS

The previous verses mentioned those who reject and the above verses discuss the Oneness of Allāh and force the disbelievers to admit to His illustrious attributes. Allāh begins by declaring, "Allāh is the one who created your ears, eyes and hearts." Because of these great bounties, people should be grateful to Allāh. However, it is unfortunate that "Seldom, is it that you show gratitude." Instead they express ingratitude by rejecting Allāh's Prophets عليهم السلام and His divine scripture.

"It is He Who has dispersed you on earth..." i.e. Allāh has allowed the various generations of man to flourish on earth. Thereafter He will give death to all, after which "to Him shall you be resurrected."

"It is He Who gives life and death and it is only because of Him that the night and day alternate. Do you not understand?" If man understood these phenomena, he would see Allāh's immense power and realise that there can be only One Allāh.

"But they say what their predecessors said. They said, 'Will we be resurrected after we have died and become dust and bones? Our forefathers and ourselves were certainly promised the same from before. It is but a fable of the old men.' "In making these statements, they reject Judgment day (Qiyāmah), saying that if it were true, why has it not occurred as yet?

They fail to realise that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn only when Allāh wills that it should. The fact that it has not yet come does not negate the truth of its occurrence.

Allāh then commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Say (to them), 'To whom belongs the earth and whoever is on it, if you know?' They will Soon reply, 'It all belongs to Allāh Say, 'Will you not take heed?'" despite realising this fact, they fail to conform.

"Say, 'Who is the Lord of the seven heavens and the tremendous Throne?' They will shortly reply, 'It all belongs to Allāh. Say, 'Do you not fear (that you reject this despite knowing the truth)?"

A third question is posed. "Say, 'In whose grasp is the control of all things? Who is it that can offer refuge, while none can provide refuge against Him, if you know?' Shortly they will say, 'It all belongs to Allāh.' Say, 'Then whence have you been bewitched?'" Their refusal to accept the truth seems totally illogical since they accept that Allāh has sovereignty and power over all things. The only reason for this type of behaviour seems to be that they have been bewitched.

Despite admitting to the above, they still remain adamant not to accept. Therefore, Allāh says, "But We have sent the truth to them, and they are certainly liars."

مَا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ مِنْ وَلَدٍ وَمَا كَانَ مَعَهُ مِنْ إِلَهٍ إِذَا أَذْهَبَ كُلَّ إِلَهٍ مِمَّا خَلَقَ وَلَعَلَّ
بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُصِفُونَ ﴿٩١﴾ عَلِيمٌ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ

فَتَعَلَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾

(91) Allāh has not taken any Son, nor are there any deities with Him. If there were, then every deity would have separated his creation and some would overpower the others. Allāh is Pure from the partners that they ascribe to Him.

(92) Allāh is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, so He is Exalted above the partners that they ascribe.

ALLĀH HAS NO CHILDREN AND IS FREE FROM WHAT THE IDOLATERS ASCRIBE TO HIM

Even today there are those Christians who say that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is Allāh's son. Allāh has refuted this belief in numerous places of the Qur'ān. In the above verse as well, Allāh explicitly says, "Allāh has not taken any son, nor are there any deities with Him."

Allāh then explains to the polytheists that if it is to be assumed that other gods coexisted with Allāh, the situation would certainly arise when "every deity would have separated his creation (so that he could have sole control over them) and (eventually) some would overpower the others." When such a situation takes place, some god would take control over the creation of another. This would cause devastation.

However, all are aware of the fact that nothing like this has taken place and that Allāh has created everything. There is no power struggle in the system of the universe and everything functions perfectly according to Allāh's dictates. However, despite realising all of this, the polytheists still do not accept Oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd).

Allāh declares, "Allāh is Pure from the partners that they ascribe to Him." He has no children, nor any partners.

Allāh then describes Himself when He says, "Allāh is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, so He is Exalted above the partners that they ascribe."

قُلْ رَبِّ إِمَّا تُرِيدُنِي مَا يُوعَدُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ رَبِّ فَلَا تَجْعَلْنِي فِي الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٩٤﴾
وإِنَّا عَلَىٰ أَنْ نُرِيكَ مَا نَعِدُهُمْ لَقَادِرُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾ ادْفَعْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ السَّبِّتَةِ مَخْنُوعًا
بِمَا يَصِفُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيَاطِينِ ﴿٩٧﴾ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ رَبِّ
أَنْ يَحْضُرُونِ ﴿٩٨﴾

(93) Say, "O my Lord! If you happen to show me the punishment promised to the disbelievers, (94) then, O my Lord, do not make me of the oppressive folk."

(95) We are certainly Capable of showing you what We have promised them. (96)

Resist evil with that which is best. We know best what they ascribe. (97) And say, "O my Lord! I seek refuge with You from the evil whispering of the Shayātīn..." (98) "And I seek refuge with You, O my Lord, so that they do not approach me."

RESIST EVIL WITH GOOD AND SEEK ALLĀH'S PROTECTION FOR THE EVIL OF THE SATANS (SHAYĀTĪN)

The disbelievers are sure to be punished after their deaths, but they have also been warned of punishment in this very world. However, Allāh never specified whether they will be punished during the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lifetime or not. Therefore, Allāh teaches His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to supplicate by saying, "O my Lord! If you happen to show me the punishment promised to the disbelievers, then, O my Lord, do not make me of the oppressive folk." i.e. do not let me suffer with them, because usually the people close to those being punished also suffer the effects of the punishment.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه has reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When Allāh's punishment descends, all in the vicinity are affected. However, all will be resurrected according to their deeds on the Day of Judgement." [Bukhārī]

All the previous Prophets عليهم السلام were saved when Allāh's punishment afflicted their respective nations. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to make the above supplication (du'ā) to make him aware that he should never stop fearing Allāh and should never lose reliance in Allāh. The verse also serves to teach the believers (Mu'minīn) the same supplication (du'ā).

"We are certainly Capable of showing you what We have promised them." In another verse Allāh had assured the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that He would never punish the disbelievers while he is present with them. However, this refers to such a punishment that affects everyone. Allāh could still punish individuals and sections of the community. Allāh reserves the right to do as he pleases.

"Resist evil with that which is best." Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to combat the opposition of the disbelievers in a manner that constitutes kind behaviour and forgiveness. It is the demand of good character that evil should not be resisted with evil.

Allāh says in Surah HāMim Sajdah, "Good and evil cannot be equal. Resist with that which is best, and the one between yourself and whom there was enmity, will instantly become like your bosom friend. Only the patient ones will be inspired with this. Only the most fortunate will be inspired with this." [Surah 41, verse 34, 35]

One may not conclude that the above verse has been abrogated by the verses commanding Jihād because good character will always be in vogue.

Allāh says, "We know best what they ascribe (and will punish them accordingly)."

"And say, 'O my Lord! I seek refuge with You from the evil whispering of the Satans (Shayātīn) and I seek refuge with You, O my Lord, so that they do not approach me." Since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has been advised to recite this supplication, its importance for the common Muslim cannot be overemphasised. Every Muslim should recite it constantly so that he may be safeguarded from the evil instigation of the devils.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that a person should recite the following supplication (du'ā) if devils scare him during his sleep viz. [Tirmidhi]

[TRANSLATION]: "I seek refuge with all the words of Allāh from His wrath, His punishment, from the evil of His bondsmen, for the evil whispering of the Satans (Shayātīn) and that they should approach me.

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَ أَحَدَهُمُ الْمَوْتُ قَالَ رَبِّ ارْجِعُونِ ﴿٩٩﴾ لَعَلِّي أَعْمَلُ صَالِحًا فِيمَا تَرَكْتُ
 كَلَّا إِنَّهَا كَلِمَةٌ هُوَ قَائِلُهَا وَمِنْ وَرَائِهِمْ بَرْزَخٌ إِلَىٰ يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِي
 الصُّورِ فَلَا أَنْسَابَ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ وَلَا يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿١٠١﴾ فَمَنْ ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ
 فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ وَمَنْ خَفَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ فَأُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا
 أَنْفُسَهُمْ فِي جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدُونَ ﴿١٠٣﴾ تَلْفَحُ وُجُوهُهُمْ أَلْنَارِ وَهُمْ فِيهَا كَالِحُونَ ﴿١٠٤﴾ أَلَمْ
 تَكُنْ عَائِدَتِي تُنَادِي عَلَىٰ كَرِّمْ فَاكْتُمْتُمْ بِهَا تِكْذِيبُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا غَلَبَتْ عَلَيْنَا شِقْوَتُنَا
 وَكُنَّا قَوْمًا ضَالِّينَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ رَبَّنَا أَخْرِجْنَا مِنْهَا فَإِنْ عُدْنَا فَإِنَّا ظَالِمُونَ ﴿١٠٧﴾ قَالَ
 اخْسَرُوا فِيهَا وَلَا تُكَلِّمُونِ ﴿١٠٨﴾ إِنَّهُمْ كَانَ فَرِيقٌ مِّنْ عِبَادِي يَقُولُوا رَبَّنَا آمَنَّا
 فَاغْفِرْ لَنَا وَارْحَمْنَا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ فَاتَّخَذْتُمُوهُمْ سَخِرَاءَ حَتَّىٰ أَنْسَوَكُم ذِكْرِي
 وَكُنْتُمْ مِنْهُمْ تَضْحَكُونَ ﴿١١٠﴾ إِنِّي جَزَيْتُهُمُ الْيَوْمَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا إِنَّهُمْ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿١١١﴾

(99) Until the time arrives when death comes to any one of them, then he says, "O my Lord! Allow me to return... (100) ..... so that I may perform good deeds whence I have left." Never! It is merely a statement that they speak. Behind them is "Barzakh" until the day that they are resurrected. (101) When the trumpet is blown, neither shall there be any family ties between them, nor will they be able to plead to each other. (102) Whoever's scales are weighty shall surely be successful. (103) Whoever's scales are light, these are the ones who have put themselves at a loss by remaining forever in Hell. (104) The Fire shall scorch their faces and they shall be disfigured there. (105) "Were My verses not recited to you, but then you used to falsify them?" (106) They will cry, "O our Lord! Our wretchedness overpowered us and we were a deviated nation. (107) "O our Lord! Remove us from here! If we ever repeat ourselves, then we must surely be oppressors." (108) Allāh will say, "Remain disgraced therein and do not speak to Me!" (109) "There was certainly a party of My bondsmen who said, 'O our Lord! We have believed, so forgive us and have mercy on us. Indeed You are the Best of those who show mercy.'" (110) "But you people ridiculed them until they made you forget My remembrance. And you used to laugh at them."

(111) "I have rewarded them today for their patience that they are certainly successful."

THE CONDITION OF & 'BARZAKH' AND RESURRECTION, WHERE THE PLEAS OF THE DISBELIEVERS WILL NOT BE HEARD

Allāh says that the disbelievers will continue to lead their lives in the manner that they please "Until the time arrives when death comes to any one of them..." Then he will see the reality of the Hereafter before his very eyes. His soul will be removed by the angels and he will be beaten. He will then regret his past and cry out to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Allow me to return (to the world) so that I may (believe and) perform good deeds whence I have left."

Allāh will reject his plea and say, "Never!" Allāh goes on to say, "It is merely a statement that they speak." Their request shall never be acceded to.

"Behind them is 'Barzakh' until the day that they are resurrected." The word "Barzakh" literally refers to a barrier that separated two places or two conditions. In this context, it refers to the waiting period between death and Judgment day (Qiyāmah). The soul of a person enters the domain of "Barzakh" after his demise. Only if he was good, will he be comfortable there.

After entering into "Barzakh" people cannot return to the world, and after resurrection, none can return to "Barzakh." After people have been sent to their respective abodes of Heaven (Jannah) or Hell. They will never return from there. Only those sinful Muslims, who are sent for a while to Hell to be cleansed of their sins, will later be removed from Hell to be admitted into Heaven (Jannah).

The conditions of "Barzakh" are experienced by all dead people, even though their bodies may be cremated or devoured by predators. The Ahadith have mentioned the details of what transpires in this existence, and I [the author of this exegesis (tafsīr)] have written another book on this subject.

"When the trumpet is blown [after the life of Barzakh to hail the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah)], neither shall there be any firmly ties between them?, nor will they be able to plead to each other." No person will be of assistance to another. In fact, all will flee from each other, lest they ask for help.

Allāh says in Surah Abas, "The day when a man will flee from his brother; his mother, his father, his wife and his sons. Every man shall be engrossed in his own affair." [Surah 80, verses 34-37]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that when the trumpet is sounded for the second time, every man and woman from every century will all be resurrected. A caller will say, "This is so-and-so, the son of so-and-so. Whoever has any rights to claim from him should come forward."

Upon hearing this call, every person will wish that he could claim something from their parents, spouses and children. After saying this, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه recited the verse "neither shall there be any family ties between them..."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه has also interpreted the verse to mean that no person will boast about his family lineage on the Day of Judgement, as they do in this world.

While the above verse states that they will be unable to ask of each other, another verse says, "They will turn to each other asking questions." There is no contradiction between the two verses because the first refers to the fact that they will not ask help from each other on the grounds of family ties. The second instance does not refer to this. (However, the second refers to questions that they will ask each other -not help).

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that there will be various situations that will take place on the Day of Judgement. When they people will be overwhelmed by fear, they will be unable to ask help from each other. However, there will be times when they will be able to do so. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 317/8]

"Whoever's scales are weighty shall surely be successful. Whoever's scales are light, these are the ones who have put themselves at a loss by remaining forever in Hell." The details pertaining to weighing of deeds on the scales were given in the commentary of verses 8 and 9 of Surah A'raf (Surah 7).

Allāh then describes the punishment of the people in Hell. Allāh says, "The Fire shall scorch their faces and they shall be disfigured there." Explaining the concluding words of this verse. Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضي الله عنه has reported the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying, "A person will be so roasted in Hell that his upper lip will draw back and reach the middle of his face. His lower lip will drop until it reaches his navel." [Bukhari]

Allāh will then ask them in Hell, "Were my verses not recited to you, but you used to falsify them? They will cry, O our Lord! Our wretchedness overpowered us and we were a deviated nation"

Admitting their folly, they will then plead to Allāh saying, "O our Lord! Remove us from here! If we ever repeat ourselves, then we must surely be oppressors."

Their plea will be rejected by Allāh, Who will tell them, "Remain disgraced in there and do not speak to Me!" A narration of Tirmidhi says that after this declaration, the people of Hell will lose all hope and begin to lament and wail like the braying of donkeys.

Ibn Kathir reports that the people of Hell will be so disfigured that the Muslims who will want to intercede shall be unable to recognise them. The people of Hell will tell them who they are, but these Muslims will refuse to believe them. [v. 3 p. 258]

After Allāh's declaration all the doors of Hell will be locked and none shall be able to leave.

Allāh will further tell these disbelievers, "There was certainly a party of My bondsmen who said, 'O our Lord! We have believed, so forgive us and have mercy on us. Indeed You are the Best of those who show mercy.' But you people ridiculed them until they (i.e. your intense opposition to them) made you forget My remembrance. And you used to laugh at them. (Now you will suffer for your deeds)."

Allāh continues to tell them, "I have rewarded them today for their patience that they are certainly successful." Allāh says in "Whoever is saved from the fire and entered into Heaven (Jannah) shall truly be successful." [Surah Al Imrān (3), verse 185]

قَالَ كَمْ لَبِثْتُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ عَدَدَ سِنِينَ ﴿١١٢﴾ قَالُوا لَبِثْنَا يَوْمًا أَوْ بَعْضَ يَوْمٍ فَسْئَلُ الْعَادِيْنَ ﴿١١٣﴾ قُلْ إِنْ لَبِثْتُمْ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا لَوْ أَنَّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١١٤﴾ أَفَحَسِبْتُمْ أَنَّمَا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ عَبَثًا وَأَنَّكُمْ إِلَيْنَا لَا تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١١٥﴾ فَتَعَلَّى اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيمِ ﴿١١٦﴾ وَمَنْ يَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ لَا بُرْهَانَ لَهُ بِهِ فَإِنَّمَا حِسَابُهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ إِنَّهُمْ لَا يُفْلِحُ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿١١٧﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَعْرِضْ وَأَرْحَمَ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّحِمِينَ ﴿١١٨﴾

(112) Allāh will ask (them), "How long did you stay on earth by the count of years?" (113) They will say, "We stayed only a day or a part of a day, but ask those who count." (114) Allāh will say, "You stayed only for a little while, if only you had known. (115) "Did you think that We had created you in vain and that you would not return to Us?" (116) Exalted be Allāh, the Sovereign, the Truth. There is no deity besides Him. He is the Lord of the Glorious Throne. (117) He who calls on another deity with Allāh has no proof for it. His reckoning is with Allāh. The fact of the matter is that the disbelievers will not succeed. (118) Say, "O my Lord! Forgive and show mercy. Undoubtedly, You are the Best of those who show mercy."

ALLĀH IS EXALTED, THE KING AND THE TRUTH

On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), "Allāh will ask (the disbelievers), 'How long did you stay on earth by the count of years?' Totally bewildered and frightened, they will reply, "We stayed only a day or a part of a day, but ask those who count." i.e. ask the angels, who know better how long our lives were.

"Allāh will say, 'You stayed only for a little while, if only you had known.'" Even lengthy lives in this world are insignificant when compared to the Hereafter. It would have been best for them if they realised this while still alive.

Allāh will also tell them, "Did you think that We had created you in vain and that you would not return to Us?" This thought has led to the destruction of the disbelievers.

Allāh says in Surah HāMim Sajdah that He will say to them, "but you thought that Allāh is unaware of most of the things you do. That was the perception that you held about your Lord. It has destroyed you and made you amongst the losers." [Surah 41, verses 22,23]

"Exalted be Allāh, the Sovereign, the Truth. There is no deity besides Him. He is the Lord of the Glorious Throne." Allāh is the King of all kings. Those who ascribe partners to Him should bear in mind that they will be called to account for their deeds, after which they will be doomed to Hell.

Allāh declares, "He who calls on another deity with Allāh has no proof for it. His reckoning is with Allāh. The fact of the matter is that the disbelievers will not succeed."

Finally, Allāh advises that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah recite the following supplication (du'ā). Allāh says, "Say, 'O my Lord! Forgive and show mercy. Undoubtedly, You are the Best of those who show mercy.'"

سورة النور

Madinan	Surah An-Nur	Verses 164
---------	--------------	------------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سُورَةٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهَا وَفَرَضْنَاهَا وَأَنْزَلْنَا فِيهَا آيَاتٍ يَسِّرُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿١﴾ الزَّانِيَةُ وَالزَّانِي فَاجْلِدُوا كُلَّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا مِائَةَ جَلْدَةٍ وَلَا تَأْخُذْكُمْ بِهِمَا رَأْفَةٌ فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَلَشَهِدَ عَذَابُهُمَا طَائِفَةٌ مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٢﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Most beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) This is a Surah that We have revealed, that We have ordained, and in which We have revealed clear verses so that you may take heed. (2) The adulterer and adulteress should both be given a hundred lashes. And mercy for them should not take hold of you with regard to Allāh's religion (D'īn), if you believe in Allāh and the Last Day. A group of the believers should witness their punishment.

THE LAWS OF THE SHARI'AH MUST BE PRACTISED AND THE PENALTY FOR ADULTERY IS A HUNDRED LASHES

This Surah is called Surah Nūr because verse 35 contains the word "Nūr" when describing Allāh. Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "This is a Surah that We have revealed, that We have ordained..."

Although the word "faradna" (translated above as "ordained") is used in this verse, all the injunctions mentioned in this Surah are not obligatory (Fardh) as the word usually denotes. In this context the word means that the believers (Mu'minin) must practice all these injunctions.

Allāh then says about the Surah that He has "revealed clear verses so that you may take heed."

WHY DO THE PENALTIES OF THE SHARI'AH SEEM SO HARSH?

"The adulterer and adulteress should both be given a hundred lashes. And mercy for them should not take hold of you with regard to Allāh's religion (D'īn) (i.e. when administering the penalty), if you believe in Allāh and the Last Day." Since "The Most Merciful of those who show mercy" has ordained these penalties, people must enforce them, even though they may deem it to be somewhat harsh.

Allāh has created man and knows exactly what type of penalties will serve as a deterrent for man because Allāh understands the psychology of man perfectly.

Since this penalty also serves as a lesson for others, Allāh instructs that "A group of the believers should witness their punishment." When some people witness the penalty being enforced, they will spread the news to others. This will eventually lead to all the others in the country taking heed and adhering to chaste behaviour.

Sayyidina Ubadah bin Sāmīt رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Enforce Allāh's penal laws near and far, and the reproach of anyone should not affect you in the matters of Allāh's religion (D'in)." [Ibn Majah]

It is unfortunate that Muslim countries fear the reproach of the disbelievers when intending to enforce the penal codes of the Shari'ah. If they enforce these, crime would become extinct or, at least, much less. It would also attract Allāh's mercy.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "When a single penalty of Allāh's is enforced, it is better (more beneficial to the masses) than forty days of continuous rain." [Ibn Majah]

Present day governments have permitted adultery and have outlawed only rape. In this manner they have granted immoral people the license to commit adultery and spread promiscuity. Even those who do commit rape are seldom brought to the book and, if by some miracle they are, they serve light sentences and are let out to continue with their evils.

When the leaders of Muslim countries are told to enforce the laws of the Shari'ah (by cutting the hands of thieves, executing murderers and punishing adulterers, etc), they say that mercy should be shown to these criminals. This is in stark contradiction to the clear command of Allāh above, viz. 'And mercy for them should not take hold of you with regard to Allāh's religion (D'in)....'"

Even worse are those so-called Muslims who perpetrate the act of disbelief by saying that the penal laws of Islām are barbaric and cruel. This pathetic behaviour has led to the spread of immorality and licentiousness and dens of vice are now thriving at the expense of chastity and morality. It seems like the governments (even so-called Islāmic governments) condone adultery. They seek to please people instead of Allāh, who granted them the authority that they possess. How can they then expect Allāh's aid?

CERTAIN PERTINENT RULINGS

Ruling: The Muslim male or female who is free (i.e. not a slave), sane, mature, married, and who has consummated his or her marriage is called a 'Muhsin.' If such a person is found guilty of adultery, one should be stoned to death (rajam).

A person who is not a 'muhsin' will be lashed a hundred lashes when found guilty of adultery.

Ruling: When a man is to be lashed, only that amount of clothing required to cover his 'satar' will be allowed. Everything else must be removed. A woman will be lashed with her body properly covered. Only extra garments that will reduce the effect of the lashes will be removed, like a jacket, a shawl. etc.

Ruling: A man will be lashed standing, while a woman will be seated.

Ruling: They must be lashed with a whip that is not knotted. The lashing must be of a medium nature (that is neither too light nor too hard).

The lashes should be struck on various parts of the body and not restricted to one portion. The whip should not strike the head, face and private part.

Ruling: When the 'Muhsin' is to be stoned, one must be led to a place outside the town. The witnesses who attested to the act of adultery should throw the first stones, followed by the Leader of believers (Amīrul Mu'minīn) and then the rest of the public. However, the stoning will be repealed if the witnesses refuse to stone first.

If the person is to be stoned after one has confessed to adultery (i.e. witnesses did not convict the person), then the Leader of believers (Amīrul Mu'minīn) will commence the stoning, after which the public will follow.

When a woman is to be stoned, a hole must be dug and she will be stoned in this hole with only her upper body visible (i.e. from above the breasts).

Ruling: When four men swear that they witnessed someone committing adultery as clearly as if they saw a stick used to apply kohl entering the kohl bottle, the Muslim Qādhi (judge) or the Leader of believers (Amīrul Mu'minīn) will launch an investigation to ascertain the trustworthiness of these four men. He will determine whether they are pious and trustworthy. Judgement will be passed only when they are all found to be reliable witnesses.

If they are found to be sinners and unreliable, their evidence will be rejected and they will be lashed for slander (eighty lashes each). The details of this will be discussed in the forthcoming verses, Insha Allāh.

Ruling: When a person confesses to having committed adultery four times on four separate occasions, then the Qādhi will ask one whether one knows what is adultery, with whom was the act perpetrated and where was it done. Only after replying to these questions can the judge pass judgement to enforce the penalty.

THE IGNORANT STATEMENTS OF CERTAIN SELF-PROCLAIMED "INTELLECTUALS"

There are many so-called 'scholars' today, who claim to have some knowledge and direct their ignorance at Islām. They are also bribed by certain antagonistic forces to write against the teachings of Islām. Whereas the Muslims have believed for fourteen centuries that the 'muhsin' adulterer must be stoned, these ignoramuses claim that there is no such thing because the Qur'ān does not mention it.

They should be asked which verse of the Qur'ān tells them that whatever is not in the Qur'ān should not be regarded as part of religion (D'in)? In fact, Allāh says, "Hold last to what the messenger gives you and refrain from what He prevents you" [Surah Hashr (59), verse 7]

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself had some people stoned after they confessed, who are these people to say that it should not be done? Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, who had anticipated this plot of some people, once said from the pulpit, "Verily Allāh has sent Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم with the truth and revealed a Book to him. The verse of 'rajam' (stoning) was also among the verses revealed in Allāh's Book. We recited it, understood it and memorised it."

He continued to say, "The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has had people stoned and we also followed his example after him. I fear that after much time elapses, a person should say, 'By Allāh! I do not find the verse of 'rajam' in Allāh's Book.' In this way people will be forsaking an obligation that Allāh has initiated, causing them to go astray. Rajam is in Allāh's Book (i.e. it has not been cancelled). It is a reality and will be enforced on any person who is a muhsin when witnesses attest to it, or when one confesses, or by way of an illegitimate pregnancy." [Bukhari p. 109]

In the above sermon, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه referred to an earlier verse of the Qur'ān that made mention of rajam. The recitation of this verse was later abrogated, but the law remained. Those who have studied the principles of jurisprudence will understand this concept well. Other commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه was referring to verse 15 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), where Allāh says. "As for those of Your women who are guilty of indecent behaviour, call four witnesses against them. If they testify against them, then imprison them in their homes until death claims them or Allāh creates a way for them."

Other commentators have explained the statement to mean that even if an explicit verse of the Qur'ān does not mention 'rajam', the law will still apply because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had practised it. The Qur'ān commands that obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is also necessary.

Those who refuse to accept 'rajam' as part of religion (D'in) because it is not mentioned explicitly in the Qur'ān, should be asked where in the Qur'ān does Allāh command that Fajr has two Rakāhs of obligatory prayer (Fardh), that Zuhr has four, that Asr has Four, etc? Where does the Qur'ān mention the Nisāb of Zakāh? Just as the direction of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم suffices about these pillars of Dīn, it suffices in the matter of 'rajam' as well.

Even after these miscreants refuse to believe anything, they should be asked why they do not ask their despotic pirs in governments to enforce the penalty of a hundred lashes, which is explicitly mentioned in the Qur'ān!? Such people are like the one "whom Allāh has sent astray despite his knowledge."

THE ILL EFFECTS OF ADULTERY AND THE VIRTUE OF CHASTITY AND MARRIAGE

People have made the absurd statement that the Shari'ah should not forbid adultery since it is a personal affair between a couple. They say that a person may gratify himself with whomsoever he wills. Their stance is even more surprising because they fail to realise that man has no right to transgress the laws of Allāh, Who has created man, and is his Master. The body and limbs of a person are not his own, but remain the property of Allāh. Using them against Allāh's dictates will constitute rebellion.

Allāh created Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام to be the legitimate partner of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and allowed them to live with each other as husband and wife. Allāh has permitted man and wife to preserve their chastity and lawfully gratify their passions within wedlock. Islām has conserved the purity of woman within the fort of the home and instructed men to provide for the couple.

The woman will rear her children with love and compassion, carefully tending to the household so that the family can live in harmony and contentment. The children will form part of the larger family, being showered with love by their parents, grandparents, uncles and aunts. They will all be associated with each other in a most amicable manner, being present should their assistance be needed in any way.

They will all celebrate marriages, births and support each other at times of funerals. All this is possible after marriage. If man and woman merely gratify their sexual passions and live as strangers, there can be no joy in life and the children will never know their parents, nor any other relatives. Since the mother has been 'used' by so many men, there will be none to attend to the upbringing and supporting of the child.

Even if the relatives of the mother know the child, they cannot have true love for the child. The child will grow up without any love and without the anchoring factor of a family. Today's rise of delinquents is ample testimony of this!

Parents of illegitimate children will seek 'friends' for their children instead of spouses. It is the ultimate disgrace to a woman that she has to stand naked in the worst of places searching for a toy to gratify herself, who will forsake her when everything is over.

When a woman is without a husband, she will be forced to provide for herself. She will then become a showroom piece, supplying goods to strangers or standing by the roadside and polishing peoples' shoes. It is indeed surprising that women do not regard this as a disgrace, whereas they could be the queens of their homes.

Islām has accorded great status to a woman by preserving her chastity within her home: Islām has allowed her to stipulate her own dowry and she can receive inheritance from the estates of her spouse, children, parents and other relatives. Is this not better than roaming the alleys in search of a sleeping partner, having her dignity trampled upon?

The above sheds a bit of light upon the abomination of adultery. Besides this, Islām detests the fact that family lineage should be corrupted. In this way people will never know whether a child is theirs or not. Children will thus be blemished with the stigma of being illegitimate, causing them to be scorned by others. It is despicable to note that certain nations attach no importance to legitimacy in birth. They are now trying to pass their behaviour on to the Muslims. One of the first steps to realise this goal is to annul the penalty for adultery.

The people of Belief (Imān) cannot follow the trends of the disbelievers. Islām has outlawed fornication in no uncertain terms and ordained a strict penalty for it. On the other hand, the disbelievers have not only permitted fornication, but they have even allowed men to marry other men! These people are mere slaves of their passions and have no concern for humanity. This behaviour has led to the outbreak of horrendous diseases that cannot be controlled.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has reported that Allāh casts fear into the hearts of those who break promises and causes widespread death among people who are habituated to fornication. He also mentioned that Allāh reduces the provisions of those who cheat in weighing and measuring (either literally or by reducing the blessings of their wealth), while He causes murder to abound among people who judge unjustly and causes a tyrant to overpower people who do not honour their pledges. [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p. 278]

Sayyidah Maymūna رضي الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My Ummah shall remain in good fortune until illegitimate children abound among them. When illegitimacy becomes rife among them, Allāh will afflict them with a widespread punishment (that will affect all of them)." [At Targhīb wat Tarhīb v. 3 p. 277]

Bukhari reports a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated to the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم many things that he saw in a dream. One of these was that he saw many naked men and women burning in a large oven-like pit that was wide at the base and narrow at the top. They would be lifted by the rising of the flames and screamed in pain and agony. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Jibril عليه السلام and Sayyidina Mika'il عليه السلام who these people were, he was told that they were the adulterers.

ADULTERY CAUSES WIDESPREAD DISEASES

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once addressed the immigrants (Muhājirīn), telling them that if they involved themselves in five things (and he prayed that they never fall into these), then they will encounter serious repercussions. These five things are:

1. When flagrant immodesty will predominate, then pestilence will spread and people will be afflicted with such diseases that their forebears never heard of.
2. Those people who cheat in weight and measure will be punished with droughts, hard labour and the oppression of tyrannical rulers.
3. Those who do not pay their Zakāh will be deprived of rain. If it were not for the animals, they would not receive a single drop of rain.

4. Those who breach the pledge of Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be vanquished by their enemy who will usurp their wealth.

5. When the leaders of a nation do not pass judgement by the Qur'ān and do not adopt the ways that Allāh has revealed, Allāh will cause such friction between them that will lead to feuds and battles. [Ibn Majah p. 112]

The above hadith clearly spells out the consequences of the sins that man perpetrates, the first one being the atrocious effects of immorality and licentiousness. The gross immorality prevalent at all levels today needs no elucidation. It is for this reason that diseases have taken such a strong hold of community. As medical science progresses, so too do the waves of illnesses spread, leaving man helpless to cure them (AIDS being the best example of these).

The world today is obsessed only with gratification of the carnal passions, and the occidental world is making every attempt to export their immorality to all parts of the world. It is tragic to notice that matters have gone out of control, but none seems to be batting an eyelid.

THOSE WHO DESIRE THAT THEIR CARNAL DESIRES BE GRATIFIED, DO SO AT THE EXPENSE OF MANKIND'S MORALITY

People who have stooped to the level of bestiality have no regard for their values as human beings and are prepared to sacrifice these moral values. Whether they admit it or not, they have become just as the Qur'ān says, viz. "As for the disbelievers, they enjoy themselves and eat like the animals eat. The Fire shall be their abode."

Allāh has granted man the gift of intelligence and has ordained various laws and regulations so that he may remain high above the rest of the creation. Allāh has allowed man to satisfy his desires with a woman provided that it is within marriage. All the Prophets عليهم السلام married, with the exception of Sayyidina Isā and Yahya عليه السلام. It is sad that those who claim to follow Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام are sexually active outside of marriage.

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام will marry after returning to this world to slay Dajjāl, after which he will also father children. He will also destroy the cross and put an end to Christianity. [Muslim]

Note: The text of the Qur'ān addresses woman also when it passes a general command, even though the literal Arabic text uses the male pronoun. However, when specific mention is made of females, it is preceded by mention of the male counterpart e.g. "The Muslim men and Muslim women, believing men and believing women, obedient men and obedient women, truthful men and truthful women..." and "As for the male and female thief cut off their hands in lieu of what they earn..."

However, when the act of adultery is mentioned in the Qur'ān, the "adulteress" is specifically mentioned before male "adulterer." This is to emphasise the fact that adulterous females must also be punished. It also emphasises the fact that women are more prone to this sin and should, therefore, be extra cautious. Since men are more prone to stealing, the verse concerning thieves makes mention of male thieves first.

Note: To some, the punishment for adultery may appear to be extremely severe, but this is necessary to preserve the chastity of the believers (Mu'minīn). Islām has also prescribed such injunctions that serve to prevent people from even drawing near to adultery. These laws include the injunctions of Veil (Hijāb), whereby Muslim women are commanded to conceal themselves from strange men.

Despite these laws, if someone commits adultery, the Shari'ah still lays down stringent laws about finding a person guilty of the act. As explained earlier, the four witnesses have to provide explicit evidence about the sexual act. Of course, this is extremely difficult to come by.

If an adulterer confesses to the deed, the laws of the Shari'ah are still strict, and the judge will have to hear the confession from the person on four separate occasions (as explained earlier). The Shari'ah also instructs the judge to repeal the case if there is the slightest doubt. The object of this penalty is not to punish people, but to prevent them from committing adultery.

When a person is finally found guilty after all these factors, he deserves to be removed from society, just as a cancerous limb has to be amputated for the welfare of the other limbs.

الزَّانِي لَا يَنْكِحُ إِلَّا زَانِيَةً أَوْ مُشْرِكَةً وَالزَّانِيَةُ لَا يَنْكِحُهَا إِلَّا زَانٍ أَوْ مُشْرِكٌ وَحُرِّمَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

(3) An adulterer should marry only an adulteress or an idolatress and only an adulterer or an idolater should marry an adulteress. This is forbidden for the believers.

MARRIAGE OF THE ADULTEROUS BELIEVERS

Many commentators have mentioned that the above verse applied only before the migration (Hijrah). It was thereafter abrogated and the believers (Mu'minīn) were later permitted to marry adulterous Muslims when necessary. Of course, the prohibition against marrying idolaters still applies to this day. They maintain that the verse was cancelled by a later verse which reads, "Marry those from you who are unmarried and those slave men and women who are righteous. If they be poor then Allāh will make each of them wealthy by His grace. Allāh is of ample means, All Knowing." [Surah Nūr (24), verse 32]

Many narratives have been reported about this verse, all of which denote that this law was temporary. One of these, narrated by many commentators, tell us that when the Immigrants (Muhajirīn) رضى الله عنهم arrived in Madinah, they were extremely poor. They had no wealth, no family and no wives. There were many prostitutes in Madinah at the time, so some requested permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to marry these women so that they could benefit from their wealth. The above verse was revealed on this occasion, forbidding them from this. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 323]

وَالَّذِينَ يَزْمُونَ الْمُحْصَنَاتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَأْتُوا بِأَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَاءَ فَاجْلِدُوهُمْ ثَمَانِينَ جَلْدَةً وَلَا يَقْبَلُوا لَهُمْ
شَهَادَةً أَبَدًا وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿٤﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ تَابُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَأَصْلَحُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ
غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٥﴾

(4) As for those who slander chaste women without presenting four witnesses, you should lash them eighty lashes and never accept their testimony ever again. These people are sinners... (5) Except for those who repent thereafter and rectify. Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.

THE PENALTY FOR THOSE WHO SLANDER INNOCENT WOMEN

Islām attaches great importance to the chastity and honour of Muslim men and women. If any person calls another an adulterer in clear words, the offended party may take the case to the Islāmic court, where the accuser will be punished eighty lashes when found guilty of the defamatory remark. This is referred to in the Shari'ah as the "haddul qadhaf."

Another punishment for the slanderer will be that his or her evidence will never be accepted in an Islāmic court. If one repents, the sin will be forgiven, but they will still live with the stigma that their evidence will be rejected by the Islāmic court.

According to Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه, the phrase "Except for those who repent thereafter and rectify," is an exception from the verse, "These people are sinners." This means that they will remain sinful until they repent. It does not mean that their evidence will be accepted after repentance.

وَالَّذِينَ يَزْمُونَ أَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ شُهَدَاءُ إِلَّا أَنْفُسُهُمْ فَشَهَدَةُ أَحَدِهِمْ أَرْبَعُ شَهَادَاتٍ بِاللَّهِ
إِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٦﴾ وَالْخَمْسَةُ أَنْ لَعْنَتُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٧﴾
وَيَدْرَأُ عَنْهَا الْعَذَابَ أَنْ تَشْهَدَ أَرْبَعُ شَهَادَاتٍ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٨﴾ وَالْخَمْسَةَ
أَنْ غَضَبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهَا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٩﴾ وَلَوْ لَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ وَأَنَّ
اللَّهَ تَوَّابٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾

(6) Those who slander their wives and have only themselves as witness, then any of them should bear testimony four times by Allāh that he is indeed from the truthful. (7) On the fifth occasion he should swear that Allāh's curse befalls him if he is from the liars. (8) Punishment will be averted from the wife if she bears testimony four times by Allāh that he is from the liars. (9) She will then swear on the fifth occasion that Allāh's wrath befalls her if he is from the truthful. (10) If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you and His mercy, and for the fact that Allāh is verily the Most Clement, the Wise.

THE LAW OF "LI'ĀN" FOR THOSE WHO ACCUSE THEIR WIVES OF ADULTERY

Whereas a person will be lashed for failing to produce four witnesses when accusing a woman of adultery, he will not be lashed when the matter concerns his own wife. If she refutes his accusation, the law of "li'ān" will apply. The word "li'ān" is derived from the root word "La'na," which refers to a curse. It is called by this name because the couple invoke Allāh's curse upon themselves if they are lying.

If a man claims that his wife committed adultery, or says that one of her children is not his, he will be asked to present witnesses if she refuses to confess. If he fails to present four witnesses (which is common since adultery is never committed in public and he is unlikely to call others to witness the act), but confesses to lying, he will be lashed for slander. However, if he remains adamant that he is truthful, the couple will be forced to engage in "li'ān".

THE METHOD OF "LI'ĀN"

The husband should begin by repeating four times, "I testify by Allāh that I am certainly truthful in the accusation of adultery that I have levelled against her." After saying this the fourth time, he will then say, "May the curse of Allāh befall me if I am untrue in the accusation of adultery that I have levelled against her." On each occasion he must point to his wife when referring to her.

When he has completed the fifth testimony, the wife will say four times, "I testify by Allāh that he is false in the accusation of adultery that he has levelled against me." On the fifth occasion she will say, "May Allāh's wrath befall me if he is truthful in the accusation of adultery that he has levelled against me."

When the two have completed their damning testimony against each other, the Muslim judge will separate the two. This separation will be regarded as a "bā'in" divorce. If the dispute arose over the birth of a child (he disclaimed fatherhood of a child), the child will then be regarded as illegitimate and become the mother's. If the man detracts his testimony afterwards, he will be lashed for slander.

The books of hadith cite the incidents of Sayyidina Uwaymir Ajlāni رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Hilāl bin Umayyah رضي الله عنه, who were both forced into the situation of "li'ān" [Bukhari p. 799/800]. A narration on p. 695, narrated by Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, reports that the above verse was revealed about Sayyidina Hilāl رضي الله عنه.

Among the many conditions of "li'ān" mentioned in the books of jurisprudence, one is that the husband and the wife should be mature and sane. No "li'ān" will take place if the husband is dumb and merely indicates that his wife committed adultery.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ جَاءُوا بِالْإِفْكِ عُصْبَةٌ مِّنْكُمْ لَا تَحْسَبُوهُ شَرًّا لَّكُم بَلْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ
 مِّنْهُمْ مَا أَكْتَسَبَ مِنَ الْإِثْمِ وَالَّذِي تَوَلَّى كِبْرُ مِنْهُمْ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ لَوْلَا إِذْ
 سَمِعْتُمُوهُ ظَنَّ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بِأَنفُسِهِمْ خَيْرًا وَقَالُوا هَذَا إِفْكٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿١٢﴾ لَوْلَا
 جَاءُوا عَلَيْهِ بِأَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَاءَ فَإِذْ لَمْ يَأْتُوا بِالشَّهَدَاءِ فَقَوَّلْتَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ
 ﴿١٣﴾ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ لَسَسْتُمْ فِي مَا أَفَضْتُمْ فِيهِ
 عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٤﴾ إِذْ تَلَقَّوْنَهُ بِالسِّنِّتِمْ وَتَقُولُونَ بَافْوَاهِكُمْ مَا لَيْسَ لَكُمْ بِهِ عِلْمٌ
 وَتَحْسَبُونَهُ هَيِّنًا وَهُوَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٥﴾ وَلَوْلَا إِذْ سَمِعْتُمُوهُ قُلْتُمْ مَا يَكُونُ لَنَا أَنْ
 نَتَكَلَّمَ بِهَذَا سُبْحَنَكَ هَذَا مِثْنٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٦﴾ يَعِظُكُمُ اللَّهُ أَنْ تَعُودُوا لِمِثْلِهِ أَبَدًا إِنْ
 كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَيُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمُ الْآيَاتِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ
 يُحِبُّونَ أَنْ تَشِيعَ الْفَاحِشَةُ فِي الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَاللَّهُ
 يَعْلَمُ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ رَءُوفٌ
 رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٢٠﴾

(11) It was indeed a group from you that brought the slander. Do not regard it as a misfortune, for it was good for you. Every one of them will have his share of the sin, which he earned. A terrible punishment shall be for the one who took the greatest part in it. (12) Why did the believing men, and women not think favourably of themselves when they heard about it, and say, "This is clear defamation!?" (13) Why have they not presented four witnesses? Since they have not presented four witnesses, then these people are surely liars in Allāh's sight. (14) If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you people, and for His mercy in this world and in the Hereafter, a dreadful punishment would have afflicted you because of what you involved yourselves in. (15) When you gossiped about the matter with your tongues and said such things with your mouths that you had no knowledge of. You thought that the matter was trivial, whereas it was grave in Allāh's sight. (16) When you heard about it, why did you not say, "It is not appropriate that we discuss this. Allāh is Pure! This is an atrocious smear!" (17) Allāh advises you against repeating the same ever again if you are indeed believers. (18) And Allāh clearly elucidates the verses for you. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise. (19) There shall be an excruciating punishment in this world and in the Hereafter for those who love immorality to spread among the believers. Allāh knows and you do not know. (20) If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you and His mercy, and for the fact that Allāh is verily the Most clement, the Wise.

THE LIBEL AGAINST SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا AND ALLĀH'S DECLARATION OF HER INNOCENCE

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left on an expedition to the Banu Mustaliq tribe, according to his normal practice, he drew lots among his wives, thereby determining that Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا accompany him on the journey. She rode on a carriage on top of a camel. On their return, the army camped at a place near Madinah. After a rest, the announcement was made during the night that the caravan would soon proceed. This announcement was made so that people could relieve themselves if need be.

Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا then proceeded deep into the woods to relieve herself so as to avoid contact with any men. When she returned to her carriage, she noticed that her necklace was missing. She therefore returned to where she had been in an effort to recover the necklace. This caused her to delay and, in the meantime, the caravan began to leave.

The men who usually mounted the carriage on the camel did not realise that Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا was not in when they lifted it since she was light in weight because of scarcity of food during those times. In this manner the caravan proceeded without her.

When Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا returned to the spot where the caravan was stationed, she was shocked to find that no one was to be seen. Allāh granted her the intelligence to spread out a shawl and lie down right there, thinking that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would search for her at the same place when he found her missing. She then fell asleep.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had appointed Sayyidina Safwān bin Mu'attal Sulami رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ to travel behind the caravan so that he may recover any items that the others may have lost. It so happened that he discovered Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا lying down as he rode past the area. He was startled when he saw her. He recognised her because he had seen her before the verses of veil (Hijāb) were revealed. He exclaimed, "Innā Lillāhī wa Innā Ilayhi Rāji'ūn!"

She immediately woke up when she heard him and covered her face. (This incident clearly falsifies those who claim that a woman does not have to cover her face). He dismounted his camel and made it kneel. Thereupon Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا mounted the camel by stepping on its forelegs. Sayyidina Safwān رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ then led the camel along.

It was afternoon when the two caught up with the rest of the expedition. Abdullāh bin Ubayy, the leader of the hypocrites, was also in the army. When he saw the two approach, he spread the rumour that an affair must be existing between the two, because of which they had remained behind alone. This rumour spread throughout the Muslim community by the efforts of the other Hypocrites and certain other Muslims were also involved in the slander. These Muslims were Sayyidina Hassān bin Thābit رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ, Sayyidina Mistah bin

Uthātha رضى الله عنه and a lady named Sayyidina Hamnah bint Jahsh رضى الله عنه [who was the sister of Mother of the believers (Ummul Mu'minīn), Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها].

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that she was unaware of the rumours, but noticed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not behave as compassionately towards her as he always did. He would greet and ask all of the household about themselves, but would not ask her. In the interim she happened to fall ill and was once walking with the mother of Sayyidina Mistah رضى الله عنه to relieve herself at night.

When they were proceeding, the old lady slipped on her shawl and muttered, "May Mistah be destroyed!" Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها asked her how she could curse a person who participated in the battle of Badr. She replied, "Don't you know what the people (including Mistah) are saying?" She then recounted the rumour to Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها.

This caused Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها to become even more ill. Later, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the members of his household about their condition, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها requested permission from him to visit her parents. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted her.

Upon reaching her parent's home, she asked her mother about the rumours. Her mother consoled her by saying that these things happen between women who share a husband. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها then spent the entire night weeping without respite. She could not sleep at nights and continued to weep and grieve. She spent an entire month in this manner. During the entire period no revelation was revealed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about this matter.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها mentioned that she was sure that Allāh would show the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a dream to absolve her of the scandal because she did not deem herself fit to be blessed with a mention in the Qur'ān.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once with Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and some others when revelation began to descend upon him. He broke out in sweat, which was so severe that the beads of perspiration dropped like pearls even during the coldest winter days. When the revelation terminated, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم laughed and said, "O Ayshah! Praise Allāh, for He has exonerated you." The verses that were revealed commenced with the verse, "It was indeed a group from you that brought the slander..."

Sayyidina Mistah رضى الله عنه was the son of Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه cousin, making him a nephew to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. The generous Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه used to financially assist Sayyidina Mistah رضى الله عنه, but took an oath never to assist him again after Allāh exonerated Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها.

About this oath, Allāh revealed the verse, "The high ranking and wealthy ones among you should not take an oath not to spend on their relatives..." Thereafter Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه swore never to stop spending on Sayyidina Mistah رضى الله عنه. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 364 and v. 2 p. 594/696]

Allāh begins by saying, "It was indeed a group from you that brought the slander." These included Abdullāh bin Ubayy, the hypocrites leader, as well as three other sincere Muslims (mentioned above). Abdullāh and the other hypocrites who played an active part in the episode never repented until the end and are referred to as being part of a group from the believers (Mu'minīn) only because they pretended to be believers (Mu'minīn). All the Muslims involved repented.

"Do not regard it as a misfortune, for it was good for you." This verse is addressed to all the believers (Mu'minīn) in general, but particularly to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, her parents and Sayyidina Safwān bin Mu'attal رضي الله عنه. Although the incident may have caused these parties much grief, they were rewarded immensely by remaining patient. The incident was also to the benefit of mankind because of the great lessons that it taught, and because it declared the innocence of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and Sayyidina Safwān رضي الله عنه, to be learned and recited by students and others until eternity.

"Every one of them will have his share of the sin, which he earned." Every one of the guilty parties would receive punishment in proportion to the part that he played in the rumour. Some people joined in the rumours and others remained silent, whereas they ought to have refuted the story.

"A terrible punishment shall be for the one who took the greatest part in it." This verse refers to the leader of the hypocrites, Abdullāh bin Ubayy. He suffered in this world, and will suffer in the Hereafter as well.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported from Tabarani that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed Sayyidina Abu Ubaidah رضي الله عنه to gather all the Muslims in the Masjid. When they presented themselves, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verses declaring Sayyidah Ayshah's رضي الله عنها innocence to them.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then called for Abdullāh bin Ubayy and had him lashed for slander twice (i.e. 80 times, plus another 80 times). Thereafter Sayyidina Hassān, Mistah and Hamnah رضي الله عنهم were lashed 80 times each.

"Why did the believing man and women not think favourably of themselves when they heard about it, and say, 'This is clear defamation!'" This verse chides those Muslims who participated in the smear, as well as those who entertained doubts or did not refute the story outright, by saying "This is clear defamation!"

This verse tells that every Muslim must have a good opinion of other Muslims and that they should refute unwarranted accusations made against other Muslims.

Sayyidina Mu'adh bin Anas رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a Muslim defends another Muslim from the slander of a Hypocrite, then Allāh will send an angel to protect him from the fire of Hell on the Day of Judgement. Allāh will make the person who finds faults in another remain standing on a bridge of Hell. He may escape from there or remain there" [Abu Dawūd] i.e. he may either satisfy the injured person and escape, otherwise he will be made to suffer the punishment.

This type of behaviour is common among women, especially when they fight with their in-laws. Names are called and slander flies about, even causing some mothers never to forgive their own daughters.

Sayyidah Asmā bint Yazīd رضي الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who defends his brother in his absence, Allāh assumes the responsibility of saving him from the fire of Hell." [Mishkāt p. 424]

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضي الله عنه narrates that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Allāh personally assumes the responsibility of rescuing from Hell that person who defends his brother in his absence." [Ibid]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also said, "Beware of evil opinions, because it is the most false talk." [Bukhari]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also said, "Good opinions are part of good worship."

In the above verse Allāh says, "Why did the believing men and women not think favourably of themselves when they heard about it..." The word "themselves" indicates that all the Muslims are like one single body and that slander against an individual Muslim is tantamount to slandering against all Muslims.

This is similar to the verse of Surah Hujurāt, where Allāh says, "Never find faults with yourselves (i.e. each other)." [Surah 49, verse 11]

Sayyidina Nu'mān bin Bashīr رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The Muslims are like one body. If the eye is hurt, the entire body feels the pain, and if the head is aching, the entire body feels the pain." [Muslim]

Therefore, if any Muslim is physically or emotionally hurt, all the Muslims should feel the discomfort and collectively try to alleviate the grief and rebut the accusations.

"Why have they not presented four witnesses? Since they have not presented four witnesses, then these people are surely liars in Allāh's sight." The allegations were totally unfounded. None could be accused of fornication merely on the grounds of being left behind the army. Any person who makes such an accusation should present four eyewitnesses, otherwise they would be regarded as liars in terms of the Shari'ah. Without the witnesses, the person will be lashed for slander because the matter concerns the honour of another.

The question arises here that since these people had no witnesses to substantiate their allegation, why did the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not have them lashed earlier, instead of waiting for a month?

The fact of the matter is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a "mercy to the universe." It should be borne in mind that the Muslims comprised of all types of people. While the Belief (Imān) of many was strong, there were many others who were still new to Islām. Their Belief (Imān) was not that strong, while there were also those who were in doubt regarding the affair.

Had the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم punished the slanderers, three of whom were sincere believers (Mu'minīn), the weaker Muslims may have inadvertently said that he had done so because the matter concerned his own wife. This would have caused these people to lose their Belief (Imān). Therefore, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accommodated his personal grief so that the Belief (Imān) of these people may be preserved. He punished them only when Allāh commanded it.

Any person would understand that if his wife were to be libelled, he would not want the matter to be reported in any book, even though she may be proven innocent. However, the fact that this matter is recorded in the Qur'ān shows that the Qur'ān was not the work of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and that he had no authority to alter anything in it.

"If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you, and for His mercy in this world and in the Hereafter, a dreadful punishment would have afflicted you because of what you involved yourselves in." Allāh tells those Muslims who played a part in the matter that He would certainly have destroyed them had He had not granted them the guidance to repent.

"When you gossiped about the matter with your tongues and said such things with your mouths that you had no knowledge of. You thought that the matter was trivial, whereas it was grave in Allāh's sight." This verse shows that passing on information about any matter also constitutes participation in the actual slander. It is wrong for a person to say that he is only transmitting a message that has reached him. It will also be a sin to tell others about the affair.

"When you heard about it, why did you not say, 'It is not appropriate that we discuss this. Allāh is Pure! This is an atrocious smear!'" This verse explicitly tells the Muslims that they should not take any part in the slander and should not even discuss it.

"Allāh advises you against repeating the same ever again if you are indeed believers. And Allāh clearly elucidates the verses for you. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise." Allāh has advised man about the penalty for slander and has encouraged him to repent.

"There shall be an excruciating punishment in this world and in the Here after for those who love immorality to spread among the believers. Allāh knows and you do not know." This verse warns those who slandered Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and also advises all the believers (Mu'minin) that they should never publicise any such matter, even if it be established. The sins of others should be concealed and may be disclosed only to such people who are able to redress the situation, such as the Amīrul Mu'minin (Leader of the Believers) or the Qādhī.

Those who broadcast immoral acts and cause great disturbance about the matter are included in the purport of "those who love immorality to spread among the believers."

It is tragic that today even the Muslims are involved in producing movies, publishing magazines and novels that promote immodesty and promiscuity. They are all warned in this verse of a pending "excruciating punishment in this world and in the Hereafter."

Allāh then repeats, "If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you people and His mercy, and for the fact that Allāh is verily the Most Clement, the Wise." i.e. if it were not for this, Allāh's punishment would have surely arrived.

﴿يَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَّبِعُوا خُطُوَاتِ الشَّيْطَانِ وَمَنْ يَتَّبِعْ خُطُوَاتِ الشَّيْطَانِ فَإِنَّهُ
 يَأْمُرُ بِالْفَحْشَاءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ مَا زَكَا مِنْكُمْ مِنْ أَحَدٍ أَبَدًا
 وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يُزَكِّي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿21﴾ وَلَا يَأْتِلِ أُولُو الْفَضْلِ مِنْكُمْ وَالسَّعَةِ
 أَنْ يُؤْتُوا أُولَى الْقُرْبَى وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلْيَعْفُوا وَلْيَصْفَحُوا أَلَا
 تُحِبُّونَ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿22﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَرْمُونَ الْمُحْصَنَاتِ
 الْفَاضِلَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ لُعِنُوا فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿23﴾ يَوْمَ تَشْهَدُ عَلَيْهِمْ
 أَلْسِنَتُهُمْ وَأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَرْجُلُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿24﴾ يَوْمَ لَا يُفِيهِمْ اللَّهُ دِينَهُمُ الْحَقَّ
 وَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِينُ ﴿25﴾ الْحَاشَى لِلْحَاشِيَتِ لِلْحَاشِيَتِ وَالْحَاشِيَتُوكَ لِلْحَاشِيَتِ
 وَالطَّيِّبَتُ لِلطَّيِّبِينَ وَالطَّيِّبُونَ لِلطَّيِّبَتِ أُولَئِكَ مُبَرَّءُونَ مِمَّا يَقُولُونَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ
 وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿26﴾

(21) O you who believe, do not follow the footsteps of Devil (Shaytān). Whoever follows the footsteps of devil (Shaytān), then verily he commands immorality and evil. If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you and His mercy, none of you would ever be pure. However, Allāh purifies whoever He wills. Allāh is All Hearing, All Knowing. (22) The high ranking and wealthy ones among you should not take an oath not to spend on their relatives, the poor and on those who migrate in Allāh's path. They should forgive and pardon. Do you not like Allāh to forgive you? Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (23) Those who slander unwary, chaste believing women are certainly cursed in this world and in the Hereafter. Theirs shall be a terrible punishment... (24) The day when their tongues, hands and legs will testify against them with regard to what they did. (25) On that day Allāh will give them the full punishment due to them, and they will know that Allāh is verily the Truth and the One who discloses matters. (26) Unchaste women are for unchaste men and unchaste men are for unchaste women. Pure women are for pure men and pure men are for pure women. These people are innocent of what the slanderers say. Theirs is forgiveness and a bounteous reward.

AVOID FOLLOWING DEVIL (SHAYTĀN), NEVER SWEAR NOT TO DO GOOD DEEDS AND THE EVIL FOLK ARE WARNED OF A GRIEVOUS PUNISHMENT

Allāh warns the believers (Mu'minīn) by telling them, "O you who believe, do not follow the footsteps of devil (Shaytān). Whoever follows the footsteps of devil (Shaytān), then (he will be destroyed because) verily he [devil (Shaytān)] commands immorality and evil." Those who follow the dictates of devil (Shaytān) will be led far astray if they do not realise the folly of their ways and repent.

"If it were not for Allāh's grace upon you and His mercy, none of you would ever be pure." If Allāh does not grant man the guidance to repent, he can never be pure from sin, like the hypocrites who never repented after slandering Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. Allāh then says, "However, Allāh purifies whoever He wills. Allāh is All Hearing, All Knowing." Allāh grants people the ability to repent and absolves whomsoever He wills from scandal.

"The high ranking and wealthy ones among you should not take an oath not to spend on their relatives, the poor and on those who migrate in Allāh's path. They should forgive and pardon." It has already been mentioned that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه swore not to spend on his nephew Sayyidina Mistah رضي الله عنه because he took an active part in the denigration of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها.

Sayyidina Qatādah رضي الله عنه says that when the above verse was revealed, instructing pardoning, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم summoned Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and recited the entire verse to him. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited, "Do you not like Allāh to forgive you?" Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه said, "I certainly like Allāh to forgive me." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "Then you should forgive and pardon."

Thereupon Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه said, "By Allāh! The amount that Mistah was receiving shall not be stopped, and I will continue giving him." A narration of "Durrul Manthūr" states that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه thereafter began to double the allowance that he previously gave to Sayyidina Mistah رضي الله عنه.

Another narration quotes Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as saying, "When I see good in acting contrary to an oath, I pay the expiation for the oath and carry out the act that is better."

"Durrul Manthūr" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that there were other Sahabah رضي الله عنهم also who stopped spending on those Muslims who participated in the slander against Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. They were all advised in the above verse. [v. 5 p. 34/5]

"Those who slander unwary (women who are unwary of how to commit evil deeds), chaste believing women are certainly cursed in this world and in the Hereafter. Theirs shall be a terrible punishment the day when their tongues, hands and legs will testify against them about what they did." All these limbs will testify against them on the Day of Judgement.

There seems to be a discrepancy between the above verse and a verse in Surah Yāsīn, where Allāh says, "On this day We shall seal their mouths." The simple answer is that each verse describes a separate scene of the Day of Judgement. There will be times on the lengthy Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) when peoples' mouths will be sealed, whereas at other times they will be able to speak.

"On that day Allāh will give them the full punishment due to them, and they will know that Allāh is verily the Truth and the One who discloses matters." People are wrong to think that they will get away with their sins and will not be required to answer for them. Everything will be disclosed on the Day of Judgement. This verse addresses those hypocrites who never repented after the verses were revealed declaring Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها's innocence.

"Unchaste women are for unchaste men and unchaste men are for unchaste women. Pure women are for pure men and pure men are for pure women." Allāh states in this verse that He has made birds of a feather flock together. People with evil inclinations are attracted to others like them, while good people are attracted to other good people.

This verse tells us that Allāh has made the best and purest women the wives of His purest slaves viz, the Prophets عليهم السلام. It follows, therefore, that the wives of the best Prophet of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم must be the best and purest of women. It will therefore be impossible to even fathom that any of them could be guilty of an act as vile as fornication. Saying this would be tantamount to slandering the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself (Allāh forbid!). People who say this are "cursed in this world and in the Hereafter."

Allāh then says about the pure believers (Mu'minīn), "These people are innocent of what the slanderers say. Theirs is forgiveness and a bounteous reward [in Heaven (Jannah)]." This verse clearly spells out the innocence of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and Sayyidina Safwān رضي الله عنه. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 335]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها used to say that she is proud of a few privileges that were accorded to her. These were:

1. She was the only virgin that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married?
2. The Holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) passed away in her lap.
3. He is buried in her room.
4. There were numerous occasions when revelation descended on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while he shared a bed with her.
5. Her innocence was proclaimed from the heavens.
6. She was the daughter of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم first Caliph (Kalifa) and companion in the cave [Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه]
7. She was created pure [because of which she could be a wife of the pure the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم].
8. She has been promised forgiveness and a bounteous sustenance."

Al Isābah reports from Ibn Sa'd that Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "I have been granted certain bounties that were not granted to any other." She then enumerated these as:

1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her when she was barely seven years old?
2. An angel brought her picture to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on a silken cloth.

3. She began to live with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from the age of nine.
4. She saw Jibrīl عليه السلام,
5. She was the most beloved wife of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
6. She cared for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during his last illness and when he passed away no one was present besides her and the angels. [‘Durrul Manthūr’ v. 5 p. 32]

Some Scholars (Ulama) have recounted the virtue of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها by saying that a little child declared the innocence of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام when he was accused of fornication. As a little baby also, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام declared his mother’s innocence when she was accused of the same. However, Allāh Himself declared Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها’s innocence in numerous verses of the Qur’ān.

Allāh has warned in the Qur’ān that those who slandered Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها are “cursed in this world and in the Hereafter,” that they will suffer an “excruciating punishment,” and that “Allāh will give them the full punishment due to them.” However, a group pretending to be Muslims, who call themselves the Shias, claim that the slander directed at Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها was true.

These ignorant people also have the audacity to say that Sayyidina Mahdi رضي الله عنه will lash the grave of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها (as a penalty for fornication) when he comes to this world. There are therefore falsifying the Qur’ān, thus joining the ranks of the disbelievers. They are also “cursed in this world and in the Hereafter.”

يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتًا غَيْرَ بُيُوتِكُمْ حَتَّى تَسْتَأْذِنُوا وَتُسَلِّمُوا
عَلَىٰ أَهْلِهَا ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدُوا فِيهَا أَحَدًا فَلَا
تَدْخُلُوهَا حَتَّىٰ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ وَإِنْ قِيلَ لَكُمْ ارْجِعُوا فَارْجِعُوا ۚ هُوَ أَزْكَىٰ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا
تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتًا غَيْرَ مَسْكُونَةٍ فِيهَا مَتَعٌ
لَّكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُبْدُونَ وَمَا تَكْتُمُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(27) O you who believe, do not enter any home besides your own until you have acquired permission and greeted the inhabitants. This is best for you so that you take heed. (28) If you do not find anyone there, then do not enter until you are permitted to enter. If you are told to return, then return. This is purer for you. Allāh is Aware of what you do. (29) There is no harm if you enter uninhabited homes that contain benefit for you. Allāh knows what you disclose and what you conceal.

THE NECESSITY AND ETIQUETTE OF SEEKING PERMISSION TO ENTER A HOME

The preceding verses discuss the abomination of fornication. There are numerous factors that lead to this vile act, one of them being the casting of glances on to things that one is forbidden to look at. It is for this reason that Allāh has commanded Muslims to seek permission before entering any house.

Allāh says, "O you who believe, do not enter any home besides your own until you have acquired permission and greeted the inhabitants." A Sahabi رضي الله عنه once entered the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم without asking permission to enter. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him to go back to the door and say, "As Salāmu Alaykum. May I enter?" [Abu Dawūd]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Do not allow the person who does not greet to enter." [Mishkāt p. 401]

Allāh then says, "This is best for you so that you take heed."

"If you do not find anyone there, then do not enter until you are permitted to enter." One may not enter a house until one receives permission to do so. This is so because the possibility exists that someone is present there. Even if there is none in the home, one may not enter because it would be tantamount to using the property of another without permission. If this is not permissible, then it is even worse to enter a house without permission when someone is there.

"If you are told to return, then return." Whether a person is verbally refused permission to enter, or such an indication is received, then he should leave the premises. He should not feel disgraced because "This is purer for you." The person should not wait or remain where he is because this will inconvenience the people of the house. The person should also not be persistent when he has already been refused permission to enter.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "When any of you thrice seeks permission to enter and then receives no reply, he should leave." [Bukhari Pg, 923]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once came to the house of Sayyidina Sa'd bin Ubādah رضي الله عنه. After thrice requesting permission to enter, no reply was issued forth. Therefore, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم began to leave. Thereafter, Sayyidina Sa'd رضي الله عنه ran behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, bade him enter and served him some raisins to eat. [Mishkāt p. 369]

This incident teaches us that a person should not continue knocking the door or ringing the bell incessantly when receiving no reply after the third occasion. This is uncivil and annoying for the person of the house.

Allāh continues, "There is no harm if you enter uninhabited homes that contain benefit for you. Allāh knows what you disclose and what you conceal." This verse permits entry into public places. A person need not seek permission to enter any such place which people generally use for their benefit, such as Masājid, Madrassahs, hospitals, hotels, etc. Of course, without permission, one may not enter the Imām's quarters, nor classrooms and other living quarters and offices in these places.

After the verse "O you who believe, do not enter any home besides your own until you have acquired permission..." was revealed, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "When the Quraysh traders travel between Makkah, Madinah, Shām and Baitul Muqaddas, they live in buildings that have been constructed en route. No one lives in these buildings, so from whom should permission be sought and who should be greeted?" It was then that the above verse was revealed viz. "There is no harm if you enter uninhabited homes that contain benefit for you." [v. 5 p. 40]

AHDĪTH PERTAINING TO THE ETIQUETTE AND LAWS OF SEEKING PERMISSION TO ENTER

- It is reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never stood directly in front of a door when he requested permission to enter. He would stand at the right or the left of the door and announce, "As Salāmu Alaykum!" There were no curtains on doors during those days." [Abu Dawūd]

This teaches us that our gazes should never fall into the house when the door is opened.

- Sayyidina Thaubān رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that three things are not permissible for anyone. These are:

- (1) That a person who is the Imām in Salāh should make supplication (du'ā) only for himself. In so doing, he has betrayed them.
- (2) That a person looks into a house before receiving permission to enter. In so doing, he would have betrayed the people of the house.
- (3) That a person performs Salāh while suppressing the need to relieve himself. [Abu Dawūd]

- Sayyidina Sahl bin Sa'd رضي الله عنه narrates that a person peeped through a hole in the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم door. At that time, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم had a type of a comb in his hand, with which he was scratching his head. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "If I knew that you were peeping at me I would have poked your eyes with this instrument. Permission is sought because of the gaze (i.e. to safeguard the gaze)." [Bukhari p. 922]

Another narration states, "Whoever looks into the house has entered." [Abu Dawūd]

When a person seeks permission to enter and someone asks who he is, he should mention his name. If the person of the house is still unaware of his identity, he must introduce himself properly.

Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه narrates that he once came to see the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about settling his father's debts. When he knocked at the door, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked who it was. Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه (instead of saying his name) replied, "Me." Annoyed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Me? Me?" [Bukhari p. 923]

A person does not have to seek permission to enter his own home if he lives alone. However, if others share the house with him, he must first ask permission to enter, even if the others happen to be close relatives like his mother, sister, etc.

Sayyidina Ata bin Yasār رحمه الله reports that a person once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Should I seek permission to enter when my mother's home?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "You must seek her permission first." The person then said, "But I live with my mother." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Then too you should request permission."

The person mentioned, "I have to serve my mother (so I have to see her often)." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "You should seek permission from her at all times. Do you wish to see your mother naked?" "Certainly not," replied the person. "Then," said the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "you must seek permission from her whenever you wish to enter." [Mālik]

It is even preferable for a man to request permission from his wife before entering the home. Otherwise he should at least cough, shuffle his feet or do something else so that she knows he is coming.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd's رضي الله عنه wife reports that her husband always cleared his throat outside the door so that she was aware of his presence. She says that he did this so as not to see her in an unpleasant condition. [Ibn Kathīr]

By making the woman aware that he is approaching the husband will not find his wife unkempt, thereby causing her to be less attractive to him.

Women must also request permission before entering the home of another woman so that she does not see any part of her body that may be exposed. There are many parts of the woman's body that even other women may not see (the details of this will follow soon, Insha Allāh).

It is also possible that the lady may be engaged in something (even though permissible) that she does not like another to know about.

Sayyidah Umm Ayādh رضي الله عنها narrates that she was one of four women who often visited Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. However, she says, they always sought permission before entering and would enter only when permitted.

When a person's voice can be heard while he is still outside, he should greet audibly and state his name so that the people of the house do not have to ask him his identity. When Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه came to the door of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, he announced, "As Salāmu Alaykum! This is Abdullāh bin Qais (his real name). As Salāmu Alaykum! This is Abu Mūsa. As Salāmu Alaykum! This is the Ash'ari." [Muslim v. 2 p. 211]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه has reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a person who has been summoned by another need not request permission to enter with the envoy.

Note: Some people have a very close relationship and do not mind when they enter each other's homes without permission. It will be permissible for such people to enter each other's homes without permission.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه, "It is sufficient permission for you to enter my home that you hear the slightest sound from me, thereby acknowledging that I am at home. In this event you may lift the curtain and enter, unless I forbid you." [Muslim]

Note 1: Verbal permission is not necessary. A person may enter another's home with any recognised form of permission. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reports that he would visit the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once during the day and once during the night. When he went at night, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would merely clear his throat to indicate that he Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه could enter. [Mishkāt p. 401]

Note 2: It is permissible for one to wait by the side of his teacher's or mentor's door without informing him, so that one could ask him something or accompany him somewhere. This is so because he would not be offended by this.

Note 3: A person should not knock harshly at a person's door, because this will startle one who is asleep or confuse a person who may be performing Salāh. One should knock only so audibly that someone is able to hear.

قُلْ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَغُضُّوا مِنْ أَبْصَارِهِمْ وَيَحْفَظُوا فُرُوجَهُمْ ذَلِكَ أَزْكَى لَهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَقُلْ لِلْمُؤْمِنَاتِ يَغْضُضْنَ مِنْ أَبْصَارِهِنَّ وَيَحْفَظْنَ فُرُوجَهُنَّ وَلَا يُبْدِينَ زِينَتَهُنَّ إِلَّا مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَلَا يَضْرِبْنَ بِخُمُرِهِنَّ عَلَى جُيُوبِهِنَّ وَلَا يُبْدِينَ زِينَتَهُنَّ إِلَّا لِبُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ آبَائِهِنَّ أَوْ آبَاءِ بُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ أَبْنَاءِ بُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ إِخْوَانِهِنَّ أَوْ بَنِي إِخْوَانِهِنَّ أَوْ بَنَاتِ أَخَوَاتِهِنَّ أَوْ نِسَائِهِنَّ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَنُهُنَّ أَوْ التَّبَاعِيْنَ غَيْرِ أُولَى الْإِرْبَةِ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ أَوِ الطِّفْلِ الَّذِينَ لَمْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَى عَوْرَاتِ النِّسَاءِ وَلَا يَضْرِبْنَ بِأَرْجُلِهِنَّ لِيُعْلَمَ مَا يُخْفِينَ مِنْ زِينَتِهِنَّ وَتَوْبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا أَيُّهَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٣١﴾

(30) Tell the believing men that they should lower their gazes and protect their chastity. This is purer for them. Allāh is Informed of what they do. (31) And tell the believing women that they should lower their gazes and preserve their chastity. They must not expose their beauty, except what becomes apparent of it. And they should wear their scarves over their bosoms. They may expose their beauty only to their husbands, their fathers, their fathers-in-law, their sons, the sons of their husbands, their brothers, the sons of their brothers, the sons of their sisters, their women, their (female) slaves, those male parasites who have no passions, or children who are not aware of women's concealment. They should also not strike their feet on the ground to reveal the beauties that they conceal. Collectively repent to Allāh, O you believers, so that you may succeed.

SAFEGUARDING THE GAZES, PROTECTING ONE'S CHASTITY AND THE "MAHĀRIM"

These two verses detail the laws of Islāmic veil (Hijāb). Allāh begins by instructing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Tell the believing men that they should lower their gazes and protect their chastity. This is purer for them. Allāh is Informed of what they do. And tell the believing women that they should lower their gazes and preserve their chastity." Lowering one's gaze goes a long way is saving a person from fornication, because this tempts a person and summons him to complete the act.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "The fornication of the eyes is in looking, the fornication of the ears is in hearing, the fornication of the hands is in holding and the fornication of the feet is in walking. The heart desires and hopes, while the private organs culminate or falsify the act." [Muslim v. 2 p. 336]

This means that all the actions leading to the act of adultery are considered as adultery, irrespective of which limb commits it. However, there are times when the couple is unable to terminate the vile deed, referred to here as falsification of the act.

The Shari'ah has formulated stringent laws about which parts of the body should be concealed from sight. No part of the body may be exposed which will arouse the passions of the opposite sex. Even if a woman does not conceal herself, the man should not look at her.

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once forbade them from sitting by the roadside. When they told him that they were forced to talk by the roadside, he told them, "If you must, then observe the rights of the road." When the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what this rights were, he replied, "Lower your gazes, do not harm anyone, reply to greetings, enjoin good and forbid evil." [Bukhari]

Although one may see a woman who is his 'mahram' (whom he cannot marry), he must not look at her if she arouses his desires. He will then have to refrain from looking at her.

Sayyidina Jarīr bin Abdillāh رضي الله عنه once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "What must I do if my gaze falls (on a woman) inadvertently?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Then turn it away."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, "O Ali! Do not sustain a gaze (which falls inadvertently) because the first gaze will be forgiven, but you will be taken to task if you sustain the gaze." [Mishkāt p. 269]

Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmīt رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you guarantee six things for me, I will guarantee Heaven (Jannah) for you. (viz.)

- (1) When you speak you speak the truth.
- (2) When you make a promise you fulfil it.
- (3) When a trust is kept with you, you return it.
- (4) You preserve your chastity.
- (5) You lower your gazes.
- (6) You restrain your hand (from oppression).” [Mishkāt p.415]

Allāh then says, “They (the women) must not expose their beauty, except what becomes apparent of it.” Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه says that this refers to the outer shawl that a woman wears. When a woman has to emerge from her house out of necessity, she should cover her entire body. The only thing that people will then see is her outer shawl.

“And they should wear their scarves over their bosoms.” The women during the period of ignorance used to wear their scarves in such a manner that only their heads were covered. The ends were flung behind their backs, leaving their bosoms and ears uncovered. Allāh instructs women not to do this.

Bukhari (v. 2 p. 700) reports from Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم women tore up their shawls and made them into scarves when the above verse was revealed viz. “And they should wear their scarves over their bosoms.”

A narration of Abu Dawūd (v. 2 p. 211) states that they tore their thicker shawls into two, making scarves out of them. These scarves completely covered all the hair, together with the bosoms and the ears. It should be borne in mind that this law applies to normal conditions when a woman is at home. When she has to leave the house, then she has to conceal her entire body.

The scarves worn by the fashionable women of today do not conform to the standards of the Qur’ān and the Ahadīth. Today’s scarves are much too thin and do not even cover the hair properly. Even Salāh cannot be performed with these types of scarves. Women who wear such scarves are a typical reflection of the women who lived during the period of ignorance.

Thereafter Allāh makes mention of all those men who are considered to be “Mahram” to women. These are primarily relatives from whom a woman has no fear because they are also concerned about her safety and the preservation of her chastity.

Allāh says, “They (women) may expose their beauty only to their husbands...” A woman does not have to conceal any part of her body from her husband. Of course, it will be better if they did not see the private organs of each other.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها says that she never looked at the private organs of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is also strongly advised that a couple should not cohabit while they are both naked. Thereafter, the verse enumerates all the other “Mahārim” (plural of ‘Mahram’).

These are, "their fathers (as well as grandfathers), their fathers-in-law, their sons, the sons of their husbands (from other wives viz. step-sons), their brothers (whether real or step), the sons of their (real and step) brothers (i.e. nephews), the sons of their (real and step) sisters (i.e. nephews)..."

The men mentioned above may see only a woman's face, head, arms and feet. However, if it is feared that any of them may also be aroused by seeing these parts of her body, she should not disclose them to him. If there is no fear of the mahram being aroused by seeing any other parts of her body (besides the permitted parts; like the back, stomach, etc) then too these should remain concealed.

A mahram is actually a person to whom a woman may never be married. There are other mahārim besides those mentioned above, like the uncles (maternal and paternal), those men who were also suckled by the same foster mother as the woman and those boys who were suckled by the woman herself. The same laws will apply to them as do to the other mahārim mentioned above. Cousins are not regarded as mahārim and should be treated as such.

Thereafter Allāh says that women may be seen by "their women..." This refers to other Muslim women. The author of "Hidāya" writes that a man may see the entire body of another man, except for the area between the navel and the knees. Similarly a woman may see the body of another woman, with the exception of the same area between the navel and the knees. Of course, in both the above rulings, it must be remembered that no part of the body may be exposed when there is a fear of sexual arousal.

Many women are extremely negligent when it comes to giving birth. In that situation, only the mid-wife or nurse (who is delivering the baby) is allowed to see between the woman's legs. No other person (including the mother) may see this part of the body. It is Unlawful (Harām) for a woman to be completely naked when delivering her child.

Some jurists have mentioned that Muslim women may not show themselves to disbeliever women because they are not included in the context of "their women." Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه reports Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه as saying that Muslim women may not remove their scarves before disbelievers women.

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه wrote to Sayyidina Abu Ubaidah رضي الله عنه instructing him not to permit women of the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) to share the public baths with Muslim women. It has been recorded in the canonical work "Durrul Mukhtār" that disbeliever women are to be regarded as non-mahram men with regard to the question of veil (Hijāb).

In the commentary of the above extract, the author of "Raddul Mukhtār" writes, "It is not permissible for a Muslim woman to expose herself (i.e. her hair, arms) before Jewish women, Christian women or idolatresses, unless they are her slave women. It is also not proper for pious women to do so before sinful women because these women may describe them to other men. A woman should therefore not remove her scarf before them."

A Muslim woman may therefore show only her face and hands to disbelievers women, even if they are lady doctors, nurses, maids, etc. A woman should attempt to employ the services of Muslim mid-wives to deliver their children. If a disbeliever woman has to be used, the Muslim woman should not expose her hair to her.

The next exception mentioned by Allāh is "their (female) slaves..." When Muslim women participate in Jihād, they may become lawful owners of slaves. Imām Abu Hanīfah رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ and Imām Shafī'ī رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ are of the opinion that the above verse refers to only female slaves i.e. a woman need not adopt veil (Hijāb). in front of them.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that initially Sayyidina Sa'īd bin Musayyib رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ was of the opinion that the verse included male and female slaves. However, he later changed his opinion and used to say, "Never let the verse of Surah Nūr deceive you because it refers to female slaves and not male slaves.

The author of "Hidāya" says that the male slave is a man, a non-mahram and not the husband. Sexual arousal can overcome him as well; therefore the same laws will apply to him as applies to all non-mahārim. In "Ahkāmul Qur'ān", Allāma Qurtubi رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ has reported from numerous commentators that the male slave may not see the hair of his mistress. [v. 12 p. 233/4]

There is no difference of opinion among the Scholars (Ulama) about the servants employed at home. They must be treated as non-mahārim. Male employers may therefore not look at their maids.

".....those male parasites who have no passions..." This refers to those men who are not mentally alert and who have no interest in women. Their only concern is to get a plate of food to eat, because of which they frequent certain households. Women have nothing to fear from them. Women may also treat them as mahārim. Of course, if it is feared that women may be attracted to these men, they will have to conceal themselves from them.

Hail and healthy old men are not to be treated as being of this category because veil (Hijāb). is to be observed in front of such men. Castrated men are also not to be regarded as Mahārim.

Bukhari reports that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was once with Sayyidah Umm Salamah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا while a eunuch was visiting her. The eunuch told her brother, "O Abdullāh, if Allāh allows you to conquer Tā'if, I will show you Ghaylān's daughter. As she arrives, you will see four folds on her stomach, and when she leaves you will see eight folds on her back." Upon hearing this, the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ instructed his wives never to allow such person to visit them. [Mishkāt p. 270]

"...or children who are not aware of women's concealment." i.e. those immature boys who are unaware of the anatomy and distinct features of women. It will be necessary for a woman to conceal herself from boys who are aware of these things.

"They (women) should also not strike their feet on the ground to reveal the beauties that they conceal." Muslim women may wear jewellery on condition that it is not worn to display to others and that the jewellery does not jingle and cause an attraction. It is for this reason that they should also not draw attention to themselves when walking.

A lady, wearing chiming jewellery, once came to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "Do not allow her to approach me until she removes this jewellery. I have heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say that angels never enter the home that contains musical things." [Abu Dawūd]

Since it is forbidden to listen to the musical tones of jewellery, it will be even worse to listen to the sweet voices of non-mahram women. Her voice may be heard only in the case of an exigency.

A woman may leave her home only when she is forced to. Then too, she should cover herself properly and ensure that her outer garments are not decorated and attractive. It is also forbidden for her to apply perfume when she goes out.

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Every eye is adulterous. When a woman applies perfume and passes by a gathering of males, she is so-and-so i.e. like a prostitute." [Abu Dawūd]

"Collectively repent to Allāh, O you believers, so that you may succeed." This verse commands all believers (Mu'minīn) and women to make repentance (Taubah) to Allāh. They should repent for all their sins, especially those related to passions and unlawful gazes, because others are not aware of these. When a person unlawfully looks at something Unlawful (Harām), only he is aware of it - not even the one whom he looked at.

A REJECTION OF FOOLISH STATEMENTS MADE ABOUT VEIL (HIJĀB).

Many so-called Muslims who have no regard for the religion (D'īn), and who wish to adulterate Islām are trying to get Muslim women to roam the streets like the immoral women of the west. Certain Egyptian and Indo-Pak writers have penned some notes on these lines.

The only substantiation that they can fabricate is based on the verse "They (the women) must not expose their beauty, except what becomes apparent of it." Since they find the commentary of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه (that the verse refers to the outer garment of the woman) to be contrary to their whims, these ignorant writers have chosen rather to adopt an interpretation reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, where he says that it refers to the face and the hands.

They have no reason to ignore the interpretation of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself mentioned, "Hold fast to the religious laws that are told to you by the son of Umm Abd i.e. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه." [Mishkāt p. 578]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed that Allāh grant Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه the knowledge of the Qur'ān. Even if his interpretation is assumed, it does not permit women to roam around as they do. Allāh says that a woman may expose those parts of the body that “becomes apparent” not those parts that they deliberately expose. Therefore, when a woman exposes her face and emerges from her home, she will be making her face apparent. Her face will not “become apparent” by itself (as the verse states).

Another factor to be remembered is that the verse does not discuss exposure of the body to non-mahram men. These people themselves apply the laws to non-mahram men because Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه never sanctioned exposure of the face and the hands to non-mahram men. His statement means that a woman is allowed to expose the face and the hands when working in her home and that these may be seen by the mahārim of the house.

There are also those enemies of chastity who pass rulings that covering of the face is preferable (mustahab) and not Compulsory. These ignorant Islāmic jurist have no understanding of the Qur’ān and Ahadīth. They do not realise that women will not stop at merely exposing the face, but that they will soon expose much more than this - as can be seen today.

These people have totally misinterpreted the statement of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه to serve their own ends. Their “knowledge” is really ignorance.

THE COMMAND TO ADOPT VEIL (HIJĀB). IN SURAH AHZĀB

Allāh says in Surah Ahzāb, “So when you ask them for anything, then ask them from behind a curtain. This is purer for your hearts and for their hearts. “What is the necessity for asking from behind a curtain if there was nothing like veil (Hijāb)? Women are not wandering naked in their homes, but generally expose only their faces at home. Despite this, Allāh commands non-mahram men to only speak to them from behind a curtain. This clearly indicates that their faces are not to be seen.

This verse is a command which indicates a obligatory act. Furthermore everyone understands that the face is generally the most attractive part of a person.

Allāh also says in Surah Ahzāb, “O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Tell your wives, your daughters and the women of the believers that they should draw down their ‘jalābīb’ over themselves. This is best for their recognition so that they are not harmed.” Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that this verse commands all believers (Mu’minīn) women to cover their heads and faces with large cloaks (and to expose nothing) except one eye. In this way, they can be recognised as free women (because slave women were not required to be so thorough in covering themselves).

This is that same Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه who has mentioned that faces and hands are implied in the verse “They (the women) must not expose their beauty, except what becomes apparent of it.” Since he has stated that only one eye is to be exposed when a woman leaves her home, it is obvious that he meant to permit exposure of the hands and face only when a woman is at home (as mentioned above).

Satan (Shaytān) is extremely clever and has persuaded people to believe that the laws of veil (Hijāb). apply only to the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, the above verse of Surah Ahzāb clearly refutes this concept. In fact, any sensible person will realise that if the law was addressed only to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives, it will then surely apply to other women to a greater degree.

This is so because Allāh has mentioned that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives are the "mothers" of the believers (Mu'minīn). If they were commanded not to draw attention to themselves, it is obvious that women who desire to be attractive and who lack the modesty of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives, must also be commanded to preserve their chastity in a similar manner.

THE COMMAND OF VEIL (HIJĀB). IN THE AHADĪTH

Mention has already been made of the incident of the slander against Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. When Sayyidina Safwān bin Mu'attal رضي الله عنه saw her lying on the sand, he exclaimed, "Innā Lillahi wa Innā Ilayhi Rāji'ūn!" She awoke with this and immediately covered her face. When recounting the incident she mentioned that he had recognised her because he had seen her before the laws of veil (Hijāb). were revealed. This clearly indicates that the law of veil (Hijāb). included covering of the face as well.

The hadith has also been mention in which Bukhari reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once with Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنه while a eunuch was visiting her. The eunuch told her brother, "O Abdullāh, if Allāh allows you to conquer Tā'if, I will show you Ghaylān's daughter. As she arrives, you will see four folds on her stomach, and when she leaves you will see eight folds on her back." Upon hearing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed his wives never to allow such person even to visit them. [Mishkāt p. 270]

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه reports that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه once told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should instruct his wives to observe veil (Hijāb) because all types of good and evil people visit him at his home. Thereafter, the laws of veil (Hijāb) were revealed. [Bukhari p. 706]

This hadith also indicates that the face is to be covered because it is obvious that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives never exposed anything else to the visitors.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه also narrates that many people were invited to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم Walima meal (an invitation to meals hosted by the bridegroom) when he married Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضي الله عنها. Most people left after eating, but three persons continued to sit behind to talk. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was shy to tell them to leave, so he went to Sayyidah Ayshah's رضي الله عنها room.

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه says that he later informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the men had left. Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه was about to enter the room with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (as he usually did, because he was a servant) when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم drew a curtain between himself and Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه. The verses of veil (Hijāb) had then been revealed viz. "O you who believe! Only enter the rooms of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

وسلم when you are permitted to do so to partake of a meal..." [Bukhari p. 706/7]

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه served the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for ten years. It is obvious that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives never exposed more than their faces to Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه during the period before the command of veil (Hijāb). Since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not allow Sayyidina Anas to be with him, it is therefore certain that veil (Hijāb), entailed the covering of the face as well. The laws of veil (Hijāb), were especially meant to conceal faces from men because the other parts of the body had already been concealed from before.

Abu Dawūd reports that when the son of Sayyidah Umm Khallād رضي الله عنها passed away in a battle, she came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while wearing a veil over her face. A Sahabi رضي الله عنه asked, "You have come to find out about your son, yet you (never failed to remember to) cover your face?" She replied, "I have been afflicted with the calamity of losing my son, but will not be afflicted with the calamity of losing my modesty." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her that her son has attained the reward of two martyrs. When she enquired about the reason, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Because the people of Book (Ahlul Kitāb) had killed him." [v. 1 p. 336]

This hadith also refutes the belief of those who think that the face need not be covered. It also serves as a lesson to those who think that the laws of the Shari'ah do not apply to one who has been afflicted with any calamity. It is often noticed that women wail excessively when any relative passes away. They then insist on following the bier out of the house, totally heedless of the laws of Hijāb. The Shari'ah will always be of paramount importance whether one is suffering from a calamity or whether one is overjoyed about something.

Detailing the laws of Hajj, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the woman performing Hajj should not cover her face. This tells us that women used to cover their faces during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Women are under the misconception that Hijāb is not necessary during Hajj. Dispelling this misnomer, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها says, "When we were in Ihrām with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, we would draw our shawls over our faces when any men passed by. We would then remove it when they passed." [Mishkāt p. 232]

Another hadith quoted by those who refute Hijāb of the face is one narrated by Sayyidah Asmā bint Abi Bakr رضي الله عنها. She narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her, "O Asmā! When a girl comes of age, nothing should be seen of her except the face and the hands."

The first thing to bear in mind is that the chain of narrators who transmitted this hadith is broken i.e. some narrators are unknown. This causes the hadith to be unreliable. This hadith also does not specify that non-mahārim can see these parts of the woman (and it could very well refer to her attire at home).

Those who refute the institution of veil (Hijāb), want others to be just as immoral as they are. They seem to want their mothers, sisters and daughters to parade in the streets as a passing show for all.

HIJĀB AND SALĀH

Some people have quoted the ruling about Salāh which says that the hands and face of a woman are not regarded as “awrah” (i.e. they do not have to be covered in Salāh). They then foolishly say that this ruling applies to a woman when she goes out of her house. These are two separate situations and cannot be confused.

The author of Durrul Mukhtār has written that the free woman should cover her entire body in Salāh besides the hands, face and feet. She should also ensure that her hair is covered, even the hair that may be loose. However, he writes thereafter that this ruling applies to Salāh and should not be confused with the covering of the face in front of non-mahram men. He emphatically states that a woman must cover her face in front of non-mahram men because its neglect leads to sin.

A woman’s face should especially be covered when it is feared that men may be attracted by it. In fact, when there is such a fear, then a person should not look at the face of even a young beardless boy. Everyone knows well that the exposure of the face (especially in today’s times) leads to sin.

The author of “Jalālain” writes in the commentary of the verse “They (women) must not expose their beauty, except what becomes apparent of it” that this refers to the hands and the face [according to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه]. Certain opinions (according to the Shafi’i school of jurisprudence) state that a man can see the face of a woman when there is no fear of sin. Another opinion says that it is Unlawful (Harām) to look at the face of a non-mahram because of the fear of sin. This second opinion has been preferred because it shuts the door to sin. (This proves that even the Shafi’i school of jurisprudence requires that it is incumbent for a woman to cover the face).

CONCLUSION

Modesty plays an exceptionally important role in Islām. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, “Modesty and Belief (Imān) are one and the same thing. When the one is removed, the other must follow.” [Mishkāt p. 432]

Sayyidina Abu Sa’id Khudri رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “No man should see the private parts of another man and no woman must see those of another woman. No two men should lie (naked) beneath one sheet, nor should two women lie (naked) beneath one sheet.” [Muslim]

The “private parts” of the man (which none can see) refer to the area between the navel to just below the knees. It is Unlawful (Harām) to expose this area to anyone (except the wife).

Ruling: It is not permissible to touch any area of the body that cannot be seen, even if it is done beneath the clothes without seeing. This refers to men and women. Of course, when there is an emergency, the above laws may be altered.

However, there are only two instances of emergencies. The first is when a woman has to give birth. In that case, the midwife or nurse is allowed to see only the area that they need to see.

The second exception is undergoing medical treatment. Then too, only that much exposure of the body is permitted as is necessary - not more. If a person is injured on the thigh, the doctor may see only the affected area. This may be achieved by wearing an old garment and cutting away the area where treatment is required. It should be borne in mind that only the doctor may see the affected area at that time and no one else.

A doctor may feel the pulse of a non-mahram patient, but should remove his hand immediately thereafter.

A FINAL NOTE

If a woman does not exercise veil (Hijāb), it will still not be permissible for any man to look at her. The laws of the Shari'ah cannot be shunned even if the husband allows people to look at his wife. It will still be Unlawful (Harām) to look at her. Why should the Muslim women emulate the disbelievers? Our religion (D'in) is perfect and we should not compromise it for the petty gains of this world.

It should also be borne in mind that it is Unlawful (Harām) to look at little boys and beardless youngsters when one fears that it could lead to sin. This will occur when one enjoys looking at them. Casting looks at Unlawful (Harām) things is a grave sin that pollutes the heart and destroys the enjoyment of worship. On the contrary, diverting such gazes will cause a person to feel the sweetness of his worship. [Mishkāt p. 270]

Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh's curse is on the one who looks as well as the one who is looked at." [Ibid]

This hadith spells out that those people who make a spectacle of themselves, causing Unlawful (Harām) gazes to fall on them, are also cursed by Allāh. It especially refers to dancers and others who attract gazes towards themselves as they perform on stage.

When a man stares at a woman who walks in the marketplaces without veil (Hijāb), they are both cursed. Women who look at men also fall under Allāh's curse. When the groom comes into the house of the bride and sits among the non-mahram members of the bride's family, they (including him) are all inviting Allāh's curse upon themselves.

If a woman exposes any part of her body (that should not be shown) to another woman, both become deserving of Allāh's curse. The same will apply to men seeing the private parts of each other, as well as to a mahram man seeing any part of a mahram woman (besides his wife) that he is not supposed to see.

It is indeed tragic that many Muslims, being influenced by the mode of the West, dress in such a manner that certain forbidden parts of their bodies are exposed in their homes. In this way they are inviting Allāh's curse and wrath upon the entire household.

وَأَنْكِحُوا الْأَيَّتَىٰ مِنْكُمْ وَالصَّالِحِينَ مِنْ عِبَادِكُمْ وَإِمَائِكُمْ إِنْ يَكُونُوا فُقَرَاءَ يُغْنِهِمُ اللَّهُ
 مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَاللَّهُ وَاسِعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَلِیَسْتَعْفِفَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ نِكَاحًا حَتَّىٰ يُغْنِيَهُمُ
 اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ

(32) Marry those from you who are unmarried and those slave men and women who are righteous. If they are poor then Allāh will make each of them wealthy by His grace. Allāh is of ample means, All Knowing. (33) Those who are unable to marry should preserve their chastity until Allāh grants them both independence through His grace.

THE NECESSITY OF MARRIAGE AND THE IMPORTANCE OF PRESERVING ONE'S HONOUR AND CHASTITY

The above verse encourages the marriage of those who are unmarried. This applies to those who may never have been married before and to those who may be divorced or widowed. Since being unmarried could lead to one being overcome by his or her passions, Islām encourages people to marry and has promised great reward for it. Marriage serves as a fortress against sin and unlawful lust.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person marries, he has completed half of his religion (D'in). He should thereafter strive for the other half by fearing Allāh." [Mishkāt p. 268]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O youth! Those of you who have the ability should marry because marriage is a means of lowering the gazes and protecting the chastity. Those who cannot should fast because fasting suppresses the passions." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 708]

Castration and permanent birth control measures are not allowed in the Shari'ah because Allāh has granted man the ability to reproduce so that the human race can survive. Muslim parents are expected to produce Muslim children and these will increase the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Therefore, one cannot resort to means that terminate this ability to reproduce.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Marry women who are loving and who can bear children because I will boast (about your numbers) before the other Ummahs on the Day of Judgement." [Abu Dawūd v. 1 p. 280]

Sayyidina Uthmān bin Madh'ūn رضى الله عنه once requested permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to castrate himself. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The one who castrates another and the one who has himself castrated are not from us. The castration of my Ummah is in fasting."

Marriage is normally Sunnah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that four practices were common among all the Prophets عليهم السلام. These are (1) modesty, (2) applying perfume, (3) using the Miswāk and (4) marriage. [Tirmidhi]

The jurists have mentioned that marriage is Compulsory (obligatory) for the person who has the means to marry and feels that he will be unable to control his sexual passions and gazes. However, if he is unable to marry or cannot find a wife, he should fast. It will never be permissible for him to engage in sin in any of these circumstances.

Modesty is one of the demands of Belief (Imān) and it is because of this inherent modesty that people are generally shy to look for their own partners. It will therefore be the duty of the parents or guardians to seek a partner for their sons and daughters. This is ordained in the above verse, where Allāh says, "Marry those from you who are unmarried..." i.e. get them married.

People have made marriage a burden for themselves today and, instead of seeking pious partners for their children, they look for people who are worldly and who have high positions in this world. As a result, some women are still unmarried when they reach an advanced age. These women then look for their own partners, look for a disbeliever court and contract their own marriage. Then the parents wail and lament over this.

At times, these marriages are not even recognised by the Shari'ah, causing the couple to live in sin and to bear illegitimate children. All this sin and vice are caused by the same wailing parents.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you receive a marriage proposal from a person whose religious and moral integrity pleases you, then get him married. If you fail to do this, then extensive corruption will prevail on earth." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه also reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A woman is married for four reasons. (1) For her wealth, (2) for her family lineage, (3) for her beauty and (4) for her religiousness. So marry the woman of religiousness and be successful. May Allāh grant you understanding." [Bukhari]

These two Ahadith teach people to seek partners who are religiously inclined. It is indeed unfortunate that people squander large sums of money and time on extravagant weddings, delaying the function indefinitely. All this because their pride will not allow them to host simple functions. They fail to realise that the daughter of the greatest man on earth was married in the simplest manner. When they are reminded of this, they excuse themselves by saying that times have changed and that no person can marry today without a lavish function.

They do not realise that they are merely emulating the disbelievers, when they should rather be following the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Without doubt, the most blessed marriage is the one with the least expenses." [Mishkāṭ p. 268]

After commanding the marriage of free people, Allāh then says that Muslims should also be concerned to arrange the marrying of "those slave men and women who are righteous." Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to refer to those slaves who are capable of marrying. Whatever the interpretation, it will be Mustahab for a master to seek a partner for his or her slave. The details of marriage pertaining to slaves are mentioned in the books of jurisprudence.

"If they are poor then Allāh will make each of them wealthy by His grace. Allāh is of ample means, All Knowing." Allāh promises people in this verse that He will grant them financial assistance when they marry. They should never fear poverty, but should marry when the opportunity presents itself.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh has assumed the responsibility of assisting the following three persons:

1. The Mukātab slave who intends to repay his master.
2. The person who intends to marry to preserve his chastity.
3. The person who strives in Allāh's way. [Nasai]

"Those who are unable to marry (because of a lack of resources) should preserve their chastity until Allāh grants them both independence through His grace." These people should never think that they will be permitted to fornicate until they are able to marry. They should be patient and keep fasting until Allāh opens the way for them.

وَالَّذِينَ يَبْتَغُونَ الْكِتَابَ مِمَّا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ فَكَاتِبُوهُمْ إِنْ عَلِمْتُمْ فِيهِمْ خَيْرًا وَآتُوهُمْ
مِنْ مَالِ اللَّهِ الَّذِي آتَاكُمْ وَلَا تُكْرِهُوا فَتِيْنَكُمْ عَلَى الْبِغَاءِ إِنْ أَرَدْنَ مُحْصَنًا لِتَبْتَغُوا عَرَضَ
الْحَيَوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَنْ يُكْرِهْنَهُنَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ مِنْ بَعْدِ إِكْرِهِهِنَّ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا
إِلَيْكُمْ آيَاتٍ مُبَيِّنَاتٍ وَمَثَلًا مِنَ الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ وَمَوْعِظَةً لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾

(33) (contd.) You should enter into the contract of "Kitābah," with those slaves of yours who desire to enter into it if you know of any good in them. Give them from Allāh's wealth, which He has given to you. And do not force your slave women into prostitution when they wish to remain chaste, merely to seek the commodities of this world. Whoever forces them, then, after his duress, Allāh is certainly Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (34) We have surely revealed clear laws to you, some narratives of those who passed before you, and advice for those who have piety (taqwa).

THE INSTRUCTION TO ENTER INTO THE CONTRACT OF "KITĀBAH" WITH ONE'S SLAVES

There are innumerable laws pertaining to slaves, which are found in the books of Ahadīth and Islāmic jurisprudence. One of these is called "Kitābah" or "Mukātabah." This means that the master and slave enter into a contract whereby the slave has to gradually pay the master a certain sum to secure his freedom. The slave will then be free to earn money and he/she will be called a "Mukātab."

The two may agree on a time period within which the sum will be paid in instalments. Otherwise, the slave may also take a loan from someone else to pay the master in cash. When the sum (or the last instalment) is paid to the master, the slave immediately becomes a free man/woman.

If the slave is unable to pay the sum, or decides to return to slavery, he/she will again be the slave of the master as before.

"Durrul Manthūr" (v. 5 p. 45) reports that a slave by the name of Subay was refused Kitābah by his master, Sayyidina Huwaytib bin Abdil Uzza رضى الله عنه. It was then that the above verse was revealed viz. "You should enter into the contract of 'Kitābah,' with those slaves of yours who desire to enter into it..."

This has also been reported in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 342) with the addition that the master then stipulated a sum of a hundred dinārs, twenty of which he later remitted. The slave Subay was also a Sahabi رضى الله عنه and was martyred in the battle of Hunain.

Since the verse contains a command to contract the deal, Sayyidina Ata and Umar bin Dinār رحمه الله عليه say that it is Compulsory for the master to enter into this contract when the slave requests to be freed for a sum that is equal to or more than his price. However, they say that the master is not obliged to enter into the contract when the slave wants freedom for a sum that is less than his or her purchase price.

However, the vast majority of jurists state that the master is not obliged to enter into the contract. It will be best if he did, but he will not be sinful if he refuses. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

Allāh adds the condition "if you know of any good in them." About the meaning of "any good" "Durrul Manthūr" has reported from Abu Dawūd and Bayhaqi that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم interpreted this phrase as "any skill." This means that if the master knows that the slave knows any skill by which he can earn, he should be permitted to do so. He should not be permitted to beg from people.

"Durrul Manthūr" also reports that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه did not make a certain slave of his a Mukātab until he was capable of earning. He used to say, "(If I were to let him earn while he was incapable of earning) I would be eating the filth of people (i.e. what the slave got by begging from people)."

The hadith has already been mentioned which states that Allāh will certainly assist the Mukātab to pay his debt. He should therefore earn only what is Permissible (Halāl).

Other commentators have interpreted "any good" as being the fact that the slave performs all his Salāh. However, this does not seem correct because it would mean that a disbeliever cannot be a Mukātab, whereas a disbeliever can be one.

Others have interpreted "any good" to mean that the master is sure that, after freedom, the slave will not be a burden and menace to society. He should only be made a Mukātab when the master is certain of this that the slave poses no threat to society. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 18 p. 155]

"Give them from Allāh's wealth, which He has given to you." "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" has reported that, according to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Uthmān رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Zubair رضي الله عنه, and Imām Shafi'i رحمه الله عليه, this verse means that the master must remit a portion of the Mukātab's debt. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه says that he must remit a quarter of it, while Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that it should be a third. Imām Shafi'i رحمه الله عليه and others say that the master has the choice to decide how much he wants to remit.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه remitted 5000 Dirhams from his Mukātab's original sum of 35 000. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه used to remit a fixed portion from the instalments of his Mukātabs and then remit an unspecified part of the final instalment.

Another interpretation of the above verse is that it is addressed to all the Muslims, not only to masters of slaves. This means that all Muslims should assist Mukātabs to pay off their debts.

According to other commentators, it means that people should give Zakāh to these Mukātabs because they have been cited as one of the recipients of Zakāh in Surah Taubah [“Ma’ālimut Tanzil” v. 3 p. 3 43]

Sayyidina Barā bin Āzib رضي الله عنه reports that a villager once requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to inform him of a deed that would admit him into Heaven (Jannah). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “Free a soul or a neck.” The person asked, “Are these two not the same?”

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “No Freeing a soul means that you free a slave from your possession, while freeing a neck means that you assist one to pay their price.” [Mishkāt p. 393]

Allāma Jassās رحمه الله عليه writes in “Ahkāmul Qur’ān” (v. 3 p. 322) that the master is not obliged to remit any part of the slave's debt. Of course, it will be considered an act of virtue if he did. He quotes this ruling from the likes of Imām Abu Hanifah, Imām Abu Yusuf, Imām Muhammad, Imām Zafar, Imām Mālik and Imām Sufyān Thowri رحمه الله عليه. He also cites their proofs, which ‘refute the stance of those who say that it is obligatory to remit a part of it.

“And- do not force your slave women into prostitution when they wish to remain chaste, merely to seek the commodities of this world.” “Ma’ālimut Tanzil” reports that people were accustomed to the vile trade of prostitution during the period of ignorance. There were numerous brothels and women used to become very wealthy plying this trade.

Many people forced their slave women to become prostitutes, thereby earning the money paid to these women. However, Islām forbade prostitution and the money received from it [Muslim]. “Durrul Manthūr” (v. 5 p. 46) reports several narrations about how the leader of the Hypocrites, Abdullāh bin Ubayy, was averse to this law because of his deep involvement in prostitution.

When the law prohibiting adultery was revealed, some of his slave women refused to continue as prostitutes for him, after which he savagely beat them up. It was then that the above verse was revealed.

Although the verse says that these women cannot be forced to be prostitutes

"when they wish to remain chaste," it does not mean that they can be forced to do this when they do not wish to be chaste. Islām forbids all types of fornication, even if both parties are willing. These words are included in this verse because it referred to the incident of Abdullāh bin Ubayy, who claimed to be a Muslim.

"Whoever forces them, then, after his duress, Allāh is certainly Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." This part of the verse means that Allāh will forgive those slave women who are still forced by their masters and cannot resist them.

"We have surely revealed clear laws to you, some narratives of those who passed before you (so that you may take a lesson from these), and advice for those who have piety (taqwa)" Although the Qur'ān has been revealed for all people, those who have piety (taqwa) will benefit the most from it.

﴿اللَّهُ نُورُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ مِثْلُ نُورِهِ كَمِشْكُوفٍ فِيهَا مِصْبَاحٌ الْمِصْبَاحُ فِي زُجَاجَةٍ
الزُّجَاجَةُ كَأَنَّهَا كَوْكَبٌ دُرِّيُّ يُوقَدُ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ مُبَارَكَةٍ زَيْتُونَةٍ لَا شَرْقِيَّةٍ وَلَا غَرْبِيَّةٍ
يَكَادُ زَيْتُهَا يُضِيءُ وَلَوْ لَمْ تَمْسَسْهُ نَارُ نُورٍ عَلَى نُورٍ يَهْدِي اللَّهُ لِنُورِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَيَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْأَمْثَلَ لِلنَّاسِ وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ﴾

(35) Allāh is the Light of the heavens and the earth. The example of His Light is like that of a niche in which there is a lamp. The lamp is within a glass, and the glass appears to be a shining star. The lamp is lit with the blessed tree of the olive, which is neither easterly nor westerly. The oil is close to burning even though a fire does not touch it. Light upon light. Allāh guides to His light whoever He desires, and Allāh coins similitude's for people. Allāh has knowledge of all things.

ALLĀH ILLUMINATES THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH

"Allāh is the Light of the heavens and the earth." Commentators interpret this verse to mean that Allāh illuminates the heavens and the earth, both externally and internally. Adding to the illumination of the heavens is the constant remembrance (Dhikr) and glorification (Tasbīh) of the angels, whereas the earth derives illumination from the efforts of the Prophets عليهم السلام in spreading the celestial light of guidance. It is the light of Belief (Imān) that ensures the survival of the heavens and the earth. Therefore, Belief (Imān) becomes the light of the heavens and the earth.

"The example of His Light is like that of a niche in which there is a lamp. The lamp is within a glass, and the glass (because of its brilliance) appears to be a shining star." The lamp is, in itself, illuminating. However, its radiance is supplemented by the clarity and amplification of the glass casing.

Added to this, the lamp is not fuelled by oil from any ordinary tree, but "The lamp is lit with the blessed tree of the olive, which is neither easterly nor westerly." This means that this tree benefits from the heat of the sun all day long because it never falls into any shadow. It grows on an open plain, receiving constant sunlight. The result of this is that olive oil burns very brightly and clearly. In fact, it is so volatile that "The oil is close to burning even though a fire does not touch it."

The conglomeration of all these contributing factors causes the scenario to be described as "Light upon light." Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Zaid bin Aslam رحمه الله عليه says that the verse refers to the Qur'an, while Sayyidina Sa'id bin Jubair رحمه الله عليه is of the opinion that it denotes the personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه say that the verse refers to the light that is instilled into the hearts of all Believers (Mu'minīn), whereby they are guided. This is referred to in Surah Zumar, where Allāh says, "Or the person whose heart Allāh has opened to Islām, because of which he is upon a light from his Lord?" [Surah 39, verse 22]

Other commentators say that the verse refers to obedience. The author of "bayānūl Qur'ān" says that Allāh illuminates the heart of a believer (Mu'min) with the light of guidance. The effect of this is that his heart becomes ever more receptive towards the injunctions of the Shari'ah. He is then ready to practise any command of Allāh, even though he may not have knowledge of them all. This is so because attaining knowledge is a gradual process and cannot be attained all at once.

Therefore, just as olive oil is ready for burning even before it is lit, the believer (Mu'min) is ready to practise even before attaining the necessary knowledge. When he does attain the knowledge, the light of practice is immediately ignited by the resolve to do so. In this manner, when knowledge is supplemented by practice, the display of "Light upon light" is achieved. After attaining knowledge of any action, the believer (Mu'min) does not delay in the least.

This very light has been described in the verse "Or the person whose heart Allāh has opened to Islām, because of which he is upon a light from his Lord?" [Surah Zumar (39), verse 22]

This is also referred to in the verse, "Whoever Allāh wishes to guide, He expands his bosom for Islām." [Surah An'am (6), verse 125]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had the following to say after reciting the verse, "Whoever Allāh wishes to guide, He expands his bosom for Islām." He said, "Verily, when the light is placed within the heart, it spreads." The Sahabah رضي الله عنهم enquired, "Is there some sign by which this can be recognised?"

"Yes," the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "that a person distances himself from the 'place of deception' (this world), that he turns his attention towards the 'place of permanence' [the Hereafter (the Ākhirah)] and that he prepares for death beforehand. This is the sign of this light." [Mishkāt p. 446]

"Allāh guides to His light whoever He desires..." Only Allāh guides a person to Belief (Imān) and to perform good deeds. The person then finds pleasure in forsaking his desires and engaging in good deeds.

"..... and Allāh coins similitude's for people." Allāh does this so that abstract subjects may be understood by examples of concrete objects. Allāh will grant people their due rewards or punishment because "Allāh has knowledge of all things."

فِي بُيُوتٍ أَذِنَ اللَّهُ أَنْ تُرْفَعَ وَيُذْكَرَ فِيهَا أَسْمُهُ يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ فِيهَا بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ
 رِجَالٌ لَا تُلْهِيهِمْ تِجَارَةٌ وَلَا بَيْعٌ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَإِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ وَإِيتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ يَخَافُونَ
 يَوْمًا تَتَقَلَّبُ فِيهِ الْقُلُوبُ وَالْأَبْصَارُ ۚ لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنَ مَا عَمِلُوا وَيَزِيدَهُمْ
 مِنْ فَضْلِهِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ يَرْزُقُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ۚ

(36) In homes concerning which Allāh has commanded that reverence be shown and His name be mentioned, there are people who glorify Him morning and evening. (37) Men whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the remembrance of Allāh, the establishment of Salāh and the paying of Zakāh. They fear a day when their hearts and eyes will be overturned. (38) So that Allāh may reward them with the best of rewards for their deeds and grant them an increase from His bounty. Allāh sustains whoever He wills without count.

THE PIOUS PEOPLE FEAR FROM THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND DO NOT ALLOW TRADE AND COMMERCE TO DISTRACT THEM FROM REMEMBRANCE (DHIKR), SALĀH AND ZAKĀH

The above verses laude the (Mosques) Masājid (plural of Masjid) and the people associated with the Masājid. The author of "Jalālain" interprets these verses to mean that the "people who glorify Him (Allāh) morning and evening" in "homes concerning which Allāh has commanded that reverence be shown and His name be mentioned" are the very same 'Men whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the remembrance of Allāh, the establishment of Salāh and the paying of Zakāh.'

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that the "homes" referred to in the verse are the Masājid. Allāma Baghawī رحمه الله عليه says in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" that the glorification of Allāh "day and night" refers to the five daily Salāh. The Fajr Salāh is performed during the morning and the other Salāh are all performed after midday. The times of all the other Salāh can fall within the purport of the Arabic word "āsāl" (translated above as "evening"). However, other commentators are of the opinion that the verse refers only to the Fajr and Asr Salāh.

Whichever Salāh may be referred to, the fact is that the verse praises those men who, in the Masājid, "glorify Him day and night." They are "Men whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the remembrance of Allāh, the establishment of Salāh and the paying of Zakāh." They carry out all these duties despite their involvement in business.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه was once in the market place when, at the time of Salāh, all the shops began to close for Salāh. Seeing this, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه said that these are surely the people regarding whom Allāh says, "Men whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the remembrance of Allāh, the establishment of Salāh and the paying of Zakāh."

There are very few businessmen who will sacrifice their love for wealth for their love for Salāh at the time of Asr, when their businesses are booming and the customers come pouring into their shops. This is a true test for them.

The verse makes mention of Zakāh after Salāh. This indicates that these people do not allow the love of their wealth to deter them from paying the full Zakāh due from them. Many people do not pay their Zakāh at all, while others pay less than the due amount.

There are people who gleefully pay Zakāh when it is a matter of a few coppers. However, when thousands or hundreds of thousands are due from them, they shrink away from the obligation, thinking that it is too much. However, they fail to realise that Allāh had given them all that they possess and asks for only 2.5% as Zakāh. If He had willed, He could have commanded them to give all their wealth away or could even destroy their wealth. The intelligent believer (Mu'min) realises that he will be rewarded by paying zakāh and that the zakāh will even ensure the protection of his wealth.

Further describing the pious people, Allāh says, "They fear a day when their hearts and eyes will be overturned." i.e. they fear that they will be summoned to reckon for all their deeds on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Allāh says in Surah Ibrāhīm, "He is only granting them respite until a day when gazes will be fixed upwards. They will running with their heads fixed upwards, their gazes never returning to them. And their hearts will be empty." [Surah 14, verses 42, 43]

Those who are apprehensive of the Day of Judgement will ensure that they carry out all the duties that are obligatory upon them and will abstain from all sins.

Allāh says in Surah Mu'minūn, "...those who spend of what they have been granted and whose hearts tremble because they have to return to their Lord." Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether this verse referred to those who drink liquor and steal. He replied by telling her that it referred to those people who performed Salāh, fasted and spent in charity. However, they always fear that Allāh will not accept their deeds. Allāh says regarding such people, "These people hasten to perform good deeds and are the forerunners in this." [Mishkāt p. 457]

Note: "In homes concerning which Allāh has commanded that reverence be shown and His name be mentioned." Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه has interpreted this verse to mean that Allāh has commanded men to build such Masājid. Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that it refers to respecting these places by not carrying out any act there that is contrary to its noble status. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

Among the etiquette of the Masājid is that they must be kept clean, no evil poetry should be recited there, no trade should take place there, no lost items should be announced there, no raw garlic or onions should be consumed before entering them, nor should worldly talks take place there, etc.

Among the activities of the Masājid are that Adhān is given there, Salāh is performed, I'tikāf (seclusion for worship) is performed, Islāmic knowledge is imparted, recitation of the Qur'ān takes place, etc. All these have been encouraged in the Ahādith.

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you see that a person is attached to the Masjid, then attest to his Belief (Imān) because Allāh says, "Only those should tend Allāh's places of worship who believe in Allāh, and the Last Day, establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and fear Allāh only." [Mishkāt p. 69]

Note: "Men whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the remembrance of Allāh, the establishment of Salāh and the paying of Zakāh." Certain Scholars (Ulama) have deduced from this verse that the various activities of the Masjid are reserved for men only. Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted women to attend the Masjid, he said, "Their homes are best for women."

Abu Dawūd (v. 1 p. 84) reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised that the most secluded part of a woman's home is best for her to perform her Salāh.

Allāh concludes by saying, "So that Allāh may reward them with the best of rewards for their deeds and grant them an increase from His bounty. Allāh sustains whoever He wills without count."

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَعْمَلُوا كَسَرَابٍ بِقِيعَةٍ يَحْسَبُهُ الظَّمْثَانُ مَاءً حَقًّا إِذَا جَاءَهُ لَمْ يَجِدْهُ
شَيْئًا وَوَجَدَ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ فُوفَهُ حِسَابًا وَاللَّهُ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٣٩﴾ أَوْ كَظُلُمَاتٍ فِي بَحْرٍ
لُجِّيٍّ يَغْشَاهُ مَوْجٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهِ مَوْجٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهِ سَحَابٌ ظُلُمَاتٌ بَعْضُهَا فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ إِذَا
أَخْرَجَ يَدَهُ لَمْ يَكِدْ يَرَهَا وَمَنْ لَمْ يُجْعَلِ اللَّهُ لَهُ نُورًا فَمَا لَهُ مِن نُّورٍ ﴿٤٠﴾

(39) The deeds of the disbelievers are like a mirage on a barren plain that a thirsty person thinks to be water. Until, when he approaches it, he finds nothing. He finds only Allāh's decision there, after which Allāh grants him his full due. Allāh is Swift in reckoning. (40) Or like the multiple darkness beneath a deep ocean. There covers him a wave, above which is another wave, above which there is a cloud. Darkness upon darkness. He is unable to see his own hand when he extends it before himself. There can be no light for the one for whom Allāh has not ordained any light.

THE DEEDS OF THE DISBELIEVERS ARE LIKE A MIRAGE

The disbelievers carry out many good deeds in this world like charity, assisting the needy and the animals, erecting hospitals and water wells, etc. They think that these deeds will benefit them in the Hereafter, but it will not be so. In the above verses Allāh describes the plight of these disbelievers by citing two similitude's.

The first is that of a person who has been lost in the wilderness. The extreme heat and depletion of water resources have made him extremely thirsty. Far off, he sees a mirage and, thinking it to be water, hastens to it. However, to his dismay, he finds nothing upon arrival. In the same way, the disbeliever thinks that he will be rewarded in the Hereafter for his good deeds. However, because he did not possess Belief (Imān), he will be dismally disappointed when he is not rewarded for these deeds in the Hereafter.

Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "We will then turn to their deeds and reduce it to scattered dust." However, they will not be completely deprived of the reward for their good deeds and will be rewarded in this world.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A deliever (Mu'min) will never be oppressed even about a single good deed. He will be rewarded in this world and in the Hereafter. However, the disbeliever will be rewarded in this world for all the deeds he does for Allāh. He will be rewarded until there is nothing left for him to receive in the Hereafter." [Muslim]

Allāh says further about the disbeliever's aspiration for reward, "Until, when he approaches it, he finds nothing. He finds only Allāh's decision there, after which Allāh grants him his full due (in this world). Allāh is Swift in reckoning."

Allāh then cites that second similitude when He says, "Or like the multiple darkness beneath a deep ocean. There covers him a wave, above which is another wave, above which there is a cloud. Darkness upon darkness. He is unable to see his own hand when he extends it before himself" In a similar way, the Disbeliever, being swamped in darkness, will never see the rewards for his deeds in the Hereafter.

Ibn Kathīr (v.3 p.296) says that the first similitude is that of those disbelievers who are fooled by the belief that they will be rewarded for their deeds. The second example is of those people who blindly follow their leaders, having no clue about the condition of these leaders and about where they are being led.

Other commentators state that the first similitude describes those disbelievers who believe in the Hereafter and hope that they will be rewarded there. The second similitude describes those disbelievers who do not believe in the Hereafter at all. They do not even have the hope of attaining rewards. Therefore, they do not carry out any good deeds and are in total darkness.

"Darkness upon darkness." Ibn Kathīr reports from Sayyidina Ubay bin Ka'b رضي الله عنه that the disbeliever is immersed in five darknesses. His word is darkness, his deed is darkness, his entry into any building is darkness, his exit is darkness, and, on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), he will be entered into the eternal darkness of Hell.

"There can be no light for the one for whom Allāh has not ordained any light." The disbeliever will dwell in darkness forever. This verse is the antithesis of the verse "Allāh guides to His light whomsoever He desires..." as well as the verse "Or the person whose heart Allāh has opened to Islām, because of which he is upon a light from his Lord?" [Surah 39, verse 22]

أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَسْجُدُ لَهُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَالطَّيْرِ صَفَّيْتُ كُلُّ قَدْ عَلِمَ صَلَاتَهُ
وَسَبِّحَهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ الْمَصِيرُ
﴿٤٢﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُزْجِي سَحَابًا ثُمَّ يُؤَلِّفُ بَيْنَهُ ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُهُ رُكَامًا فَتَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ
خِلَالِهِ وَيُنَزِّلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مِنْ جِبَالٍ فِيهَا مِنْ بَرَدٍ فَيُصِيبُ بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَصْرِفُهُ عَنِ مَنْ
يَشَاءُ يَكَادُ سَنَا بَرْقِهِ يَذْهَبُ بِالْأَبْصَرِ ﴿٤٣﴾ يَقْلِبُ اللَّهُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ
لَعِبْرَةً لَأُولِي الْأَبْصَارِ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ دَابَّةٍ مِنْ مَاءٍ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَمْشِي عَلَى بَطْنِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ
مَنْ يَمْشِي عَلَى رِجْلَيْنِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَمْشِي عَلَى أَرْبَعٍ يَخْلُقُ اللَّهُ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ
شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٤٥﴾

(41) Do you not see that everyone in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh, including the birds with their wings spread out? Each one knows its Salāh and method of glorification. And Allāh has knowledge of what you do. (42) To Allāh belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and to Him shall be the return. (43) Do you not see that Allāh wafts the clouds, then condenses them and stacks them in layers, after which you will see rain falling from between them? Then, from the mountainous clouds in the sky, Allāh showers down some ice, by which He strikes whoever He wills and averts from whoever He wills. The flash of His lightning can well nigh snatch away eyesight. (44) Allāh orchestrates the alternation of the night and the day. There is undoubtedly a sign in this for those with foresight. (45) Allāh created every creature from water. Of these, there are those who crawl on their bellies. There are those that walk on two legs and those that walk on four. Allāh creates what He wills. Allāh certainly has power over all things.

ALL THE INHABITANTS OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH ENGAGE IN GLORIFYING ALLĀH, EACH KNOWING ITS SPECIFIC METHOD

Allāh describes His creative power and His authority in these verses. However, He begins by describing the subservience of the creation to Him. Allāh says, "Do you not see that everyone in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh, including the birds with their wings spread out?" They all attest to Allāh's purity from all defects and associates. The fact that the birds are able to glide and hover in the air without falling is a testimony to Allāh's immense creative powers.

All these creatures glorify Allāh in their own peculiar ways. Some do so verbally because Allāh has granted them the capability to speak or make sounds. In fact the very existence of all these creatures indicate that Allāh is The Greatest, for He has created them all and still continues to exercise supreme authority over them.

Humans, angels and the jinn have more sense and intelligence than other creatures, while the animals have these to a higher degree than plants and inanimate objects. However, they all actively engage in Allāh's glorification and worship even though man cannot perceive this.

Speaking of the rocks, Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Then there are even those that fall because of fear for Allāh." [Surah 2, verse 74]

Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Do you not see that all within the heavens and the earth prostrate to Allāh?" One should refer to the commentary of these two verses for a deeper understanding of the subject at hand.

"Each one (of Allāh's creation) knows its Salāh and method of glorification." Some commentators have interpreted the word "Salāh" to mean "prayer (du'ā)." However, Salāh could also refer to a special form of worship that every creation engages in, just as man performs his Salāh in a particular way. Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "There is nothing that does not glorify His praises, but you do not understand their glorification." [Surah 17, verse 44]

Certain commentators have interpreted the meaning of "Salāh and method of glorification" as "obedience and submission to Allāh." This means that every creation carries out the duty it was created for just as they are commanded by Allāh.

What about those disbelievers who do not accept the divinity of Allāh? How can it be said that they also glorify Allāh? In reply to this question, it may be said that the very existence of these people is ample evidence of Allāh's divinity. Other commentators reply by saying that this verse is intended as an admonition to these people. It tells them that they are the only ingrates who are not glorifying Allāh.

Allāh then says that He "has knowledge of what you do." He knows of the detailed deeds carried out by the disbelievers and the Muslims. Accordingly, He will reward and punish them.

"To Allāh belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and to Him shall be the return." The leaders of this world merely appear to have command over their territories. However, Allāh makes the final decision in every matter, especially in the Hereafter.

Allāh then describes the authority that He yields in the skies. He says, "Do you not see that Allāh wafts the clouds, then condenses them and stacks them in layers, after which you will see rain falling from between them. Then, from the mountainous clouds in the sky, Allāh showers down some (destructive) ice, by which He strikes whoever He wills and averts from whoever He wills."

Allāh then mentions His immense power seen in one of His creation. Allāh says, "The flash of His lightning can well nigh snatch away eyesight." Lightning can also kill people and destroy property.

"Allāh orchestrates the alternation of the night and the day." Although it appears that the sun and the moon function on their own, they are in Allāh's control, causing the night and the day to follow each other.

"There is undoubtedly a sign in this for those with foresight." These people will look for Allāh's power and realise that He is the Creator of everything. However, those who choose to remain blind to all of this cannot expect to be guided.

After describing His power and control of the skies, Allāh speaks of His authority on earth. Allāh says, "Allāh created every creature from water (i.e. from a drop of semen). Of these there are those who crawl on their bellies (like snakes). There are those that walk on two legs (like men, birds, etc) and those that walk on four. Allāh creates what He wills."

Allāh creates the various creatures of the world in whatever fashion, colour, dimensions and properties He pleases. For example, He has granted the lizard the ability to walk on ceilings whereas other creatures would fall down if they tried. In a like manner, every creature has its own peculiarities. All this clearly tells us that "Allāh certainly has power over all things."

It may be said that all creatures are not created from a drop of semen, neither was Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام created in this manner. Therefore, how can it be said that "Allāh created every creature from water?" Commentators say that the verse speaks for the majority, since most creatures reproduce in this manner.

Other commentators say that Allāh initially created water. Thereafter He created fire from this water (to create the jinn), light from this water (to create the angels) and sand as well (to create human beings). ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 351 and "Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 18 p. 193]

لَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا ءَايَاتٍ مُّبَيِّنَاتٍ وَاللَّهُ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ ءَامَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَبِالرَّسُولِ وَأَطَعْنَا ثُمَّ يَتَوَلَّى فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمْ مِّنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَمَا أُولَٰئِكَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَإِذَا دُعُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ إِذَا فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمْ مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَإِنْ يَكُنْ لَهُمُ الْحَقُّ يَأْتُوا إِلَيْهِ مُذْعِنِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ أَفِي قُلُوبِهِم مَّرَضٌ أَمْ ارْتَابُوا أَمْ يَخَافُونَ أَن يَحِيفَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَرَسُولَهُ بَلْ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾

(46) We have certainly revealed clearly explicit signs. Allāh guides whoever He wills to the straight path. (47) They say, "We believe in Allāh and the messenger and we obey. Thereafter a group from them turns away. These are not believers. (48) When they are summoned to Allāh and His messenger so that he may decide between them, a party from them are suddenly averse. (49) If any of their rights are due, they would come to him willingly. (50) Is there a disease in their hearts, are they doubtful, or do they fear that Allāh and His apostle will oppress them? Nay! They are indeed the oppressors.

THE HYPOCRITES REFUSE TO SUBMIT TO THE JUDGEMENT OF ALLĀH AND THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

"We have certainly revealed clearly explicit signs." These signs are self-explanatory and need no further elucidation to reveal that they point to Allāh's divinity. However, there are still those who refuse to hearken and wander further astray because "Allāh guides whomsoever He wills to the straight path."

To fully understand the following four verses, one should be aware of a few incidents. One of these was stated in the commentary of verses 60 and 61 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), where Allāh says, "Have you seen those who claim to believe in that which was revealed to you and to those before you, yet they seek judgement from Satan (Shaytān) whereas they have been instructed to reject him? Satan (Shaytān) desires to mislead them far astray. When it is said to them, 'Come to that which Allāh has revealed and towards the messenger,' you will see the hypocrites turning from you with aversion." The incident related to this verse concerned a hypocrite by the name of Bishr.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports an incident about a hypocrite by the name of Mughiera bin Wā'il, who had a dispute with Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه concerning a piece of land. The two eventually settled the dispute and were happy to distribute the land between themselves. It later transpired that Mughiera requested Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه to sell him his portion of the land. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه sold it to him and the two concluded the deal amicably. It was only later that someone indoctrinated Mughiera into believing that the land was salty and uncultivable.

Mughiera came back to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه and asked him to revoke the deal and refund the price to him. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه told him that he was unable to do so and that Mughiera had purchased the land with knowledge of its condition. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه then offered to refer the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for judgement. Mughiera refused to go to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم hated him and would oppress him. It was then that the above verses were revealed.

Although the incident concerned one Hypocrite, Allāh speaks of them collectively because they are all the same and are allies of one another.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله that whenever the Hypocrites were summoned to appear before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they would do so only when they were convinced that he would pass judgement in their favour. If they intended to usurp the property of another, they would decline from presenting themselves and would refer the issue to another person. Allāh revealed the above verses with reference them.

Allāh says, "They (the Hypocrites) say, 'We believe in Allāh and the messenger and we obey.' Thereafter a group from them turns away. These are not believers (but hypocrites, because their deeds betray their true identity)."

"When they are summoned to Allāh and His messenger so that he may decide between them, a party from them are suddenly averse." They are averse because they know that they are at fault and that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would pass judgement against them.

However, "If any of their rights are due, they would come to him willingly." Their only objective is to attain the commodities of this world. Therefore, they will present themselves to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only when they stand to benefit in this regard.

Allāh asks further, "Is there a disease in their hearts (i.e. the disbelief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as being Allāh's messenger), are they doubtful, or do they fear that Allāh and His apostle will oppress them? Nay! They are indeed the oppressors." None of the above is true, but the Hypocrites absent themselves because only they know that they are at fault. They merely intend to usurp the wealth of others.

إِنَّمَا كَانَ قَوْلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذَا دُعُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ أَنْ يَقُولُوا سَمِعْنَا وَأَطَعْنَا وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَيَخْشَ اللَّهَ وَيَتَّقْهُ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَائِزُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾

(51) When the believers are summoned to appear before Allāh and His messenger so that he may pass judgment between them, all they say is, "We hear and we obey." These are the successful ones. (52) The successful ones are those who obey Allāh and His apostle, who fear Allāh and do not disobey Him.

THE BELIEVERS (MU'MINĪN) SHALL BE SUCCESSFUL BECAUSE THEY RESPOND TO THE CALL OF ALLĀH AND HIS MESSENGER (RASUL) صلى الله عليه وسلم BY SAYING, "WE HEAR AND WE OBEY"

After describing the negative attitude of the hypocrites, Allāh depicts the opposite in the above verses. Allāh speaks of the believers (Mu'minīn). He says, "When the believers are summoned to appear before Allāh and His messenger so that he may pass judgement between them, all they say is, 'We hear and we obey.'" Allāh declares, "These are the successful ones."

"The successful ones are those who obey Allāh and His apostle, who fear Allāh and do not disobey Him." In this verse, Allāh enumerates four qualities of the believers (Mu'minīn). Firstly, they never fail in obeying all Allāh's commandments. Secondly, they obey the instructions issued by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These two attributes include carrying out all the Farā'idh, Compulsories and even the etiquette and Mustahabbāt of religion (D'in). It also includes abstaining from all the prohibitions forbidden in the Shari'ah.

To emphasise this, Allāh also adds fearing Him and abstention from sin as additional qualities exclusive to the believers (Mu'minīn). Being successful means that they will be rescued from Hell. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Whoever is saved from the fire and entered into Heaven (Jannah) shall truly be successful." [Surah Āl Imrān (3), verse 185]

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه quotes Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه as saying that fear of Allāh means that a person should be fearful of the consequences of his previous sins, while the latter part of the verse ("disobey Him") refers to committing any future sins.

وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ أَمَرْتَهُمْ لَيَخْرُجُنَّ قُلْ لَا تُفْسِمُوا طَاعَةٌ مَعْرُوفَةٌ إِنَّ
 اللَّهَ خَيْرٌ يِمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿53﴾ قُلْ أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ فَإِن تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْهِ مَا
 حُمِّلَ وَعَلَيْكُمْ مَا حُمِّلْتُمْ وَإِن تُطِيعُوهُ تَهْتَدُوا وَمَا عَلَى الرَّسُولِ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿54﴾

(53) They swear solemn oaths in Allāh's name, saying that if you command them they will certainly leave their homes. Tell them, "Do not swear. Obedience can be recognised. Allāh is surely Informed of what you do." (54) Say, "Obey Allāh and obey the messenger." If they turn away, then the messenger is responsible only for what he has been entrusted with and you people are responsible for what you have been entrusted with. If you obey, you will be rightly guided. The messenger is responsible only for clear propagation.

THE FALSE OATHS OF THE HYPOCRITES TO BE OBEDIENT

Referring to the hypocrites, Allāh says, "They swear solemn oaths in Allāh's name, saying that if you command them they will certainly leave their homes." This is the interpretation of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. Other commentators say that the oath refers to marching in Jihād.

Allāh says, "Tell them, 'Do not swear. Obedience can be recognised.'" This means that a person does not have to take an oath when he is sincere. Oaths betray a lack of sincerity and the hypocrites were certainly false in these oaths. The Muslims knew that they merely offered lip service and would never uphold their oaths. Their true colours will be exposed on the inevitable Day of Judgement because "Allāh is surely Informed of what you do."

"Say (to the Hypocrites), 'Obey Allāh and obey the messenger. If they turn away, then the messenger (will suffer no loss because he) is responsible only for what he has been entrusted with (i.e. propagation) and you people are responsible for what you have been entrusted with (i.e. obedience and submission)."

"If you obey, you will be rightly guided (if not, you will suffer the consequences). The messenger is responsible only for clear propagation." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has fulfilled his task, leaving people to fulfil theirs. Like the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, those after him are entrusted only with the same task and are not obliged to force people to respond.

وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا
 اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِينَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضَىٰ لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُم مِّن
 بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ أَمْنًا يَعْبُدُونَنِي لَا يُشْرِكُونَ بِي شَيْئًا وَمَن كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ
 هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿55﴾ وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ

لَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِي النَّارِ وَلَيْسَ الْمَصِيرُ

56

57

(55) Allāh has promised those of you who believe and do good deeds that He will definitely make them successors on earth just as He had made those before them successors. And He will certainly grant strength to them in the religion (Dīn) that He has chosen for them and will certainly replace their fear with peace. They worship Me and do not ascribe any as partner to Myself. Those who are ungrateful thereafter are disobedient indeed. (56) Establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and obey the messenger so that mercy may be shown to you. (57) Never think that the disbelievers can escape on earth. Their abode is Hell. What an evil return it will be!

THE PROMISE OF SOVEREIGNTY FOR THE BELIEVERS ON EARTH

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 353) reports from Sayyidina Abul Āliya رحمه الله عليه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم remained steadfast with the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم from the beginning of his the Prophethood. He endured untold sufferings at the hands of the Polytheists and was forced to migrate to Madinah. Even there, the Muslims were still at risk because, added to the danger of the polytheists, the hypocrites and the Jews were also antagonistic towards them.

As a result, they were forced to remain armed at all times. This state of affairs caused someone to say, "When will the day dawn when we will be at peace and not require our weapons?" In response to this, Allāh revealed the above verse viz. "Allāh has promised those of you who believe and do good deeds that He will definitely make them successors on earth just as He had made those before them successors."

Allāh promised them that the time was near when He would grant them sovereignty on earth as He gave to Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام and the many leaders of the Bani Isrā'īl.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام once told the Bani Isrā'īl, "O my people, remember Allāh's bounty on you when He raised messengers among you and made you kings. He gave you what He never gave anyone in the entire universe." [Surah Mā'idah (5), verse 20]

The realisation of Allāh's promise is based on Belief (Imān) and righteous deeds. When the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم complied, they were afforded control of the entire Arabian Peninsula (including Iraq, Syria, etc), followed by conquests in Africa and Asia. They practised Islām and made others do the same.

Allāh promises further that He "will certainly grant strength to them in the religion (Dīn) that He has chosen for them and will certainly replace their fear with peace." The Muslims lived in perpetual fear while in Makkah, then again in Madinah. However, Allāh soon alleviated their fears, thereby fulfilling His promise to them.

Allāh then says, "They worship Me and do not ascribe any as partner to Myself"

They neither commit shirk, nor do they carry out deeds for any other besides Allāh.

WHEN THE MUSLIMS VIOLATED ALLĀH'S INJUNCTIONS, THEY LOST THEIR LEADERSHIP

After Allāh fulfilled His promise to the Muslims, they grew lax. Their Belief (Imān) decreased, their good deeds began to grind to a halt, and they became lazy in their worship. They then began to lose control of the regions that they once ruled. They were overcome with fear and awe of the enemy and began to beg from the disbelievers so that they may cling on to the last threads of their territories.

Even though Muslim countries occupy vast areas in Africa and Asia, they all lack true Muslim leaders. While some are ruled by the Shias, others have adopted democracy and capitalism, with leaders who may be recognised as Muslims only because of their names. They pander to the dictates of the disbelievers' countries and are fighting other Muslim countries.

Allāh says to the Muslims, "O you who believe, do not take as confidants those besides your own people. These people would spare no pains to ruin you. They wish for that which causes you suffering. Enmity has been manifested from their tongues, but what their hearts conceal is far worse. Indeed We have made the revelation clear to you if you will understand." As a result of disobeying Allāh and receiving commands from the disbelievers, the Muslim countries are extremely weak and terrified of the disbelievers.

After promising victory to the true Muslims, Allāh says, "Those who are ungrateful thereafter are disobedient indeed." The word "disbeliefs" may be translated as 'disbelief' and as 'ingratitude'. Both may apply in this context i.e. the verse may read "Those who are ungrateful thereafter" or "Those who disbelieve thereafter".

The Muslim who is far from the commands of the Shari'ah and neglects all its injunctions is certainly a sinner, even though he may not be called a disbeliever. Allāh will not assist a nation when such people abound, because their only concern is for wealth and position. As a result, they are plunged into perpetual fear for the disbelievers. All the Muslims need is unity in their beliefs and an Amīrul Mu'minīn who adheres to the Qur'ān and the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh will then definitely assist the Muslims if they all become practising believers (Mu'minīn) like their illustrious forefathers.

"Establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and obey the messenger so that mercy may be shown to you." This verse spells out the recipe to attract Allāh's mercy and assistance. It simply lies in following the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and practising all the physical and financial acts of worship. It is tragic that the Muslims choose rather to follow those disbelievers whom they know to be evil.

"Never think that the disbelievers can escape on earth." The disbelievers will certainly have to suffer Allāh's punishment when it strikes them. This will also come in the form of their deaths, which no person can escape. Thereafter "Their abode is Hell. What an evil return it will be!"

THE RAWĀFIDH REJECT THE QUR'ĀN BY HARBOURING ENMITY AGAINST THE SAHĀBAH رضى الله عنهم

One of the sects of the Shias, calling themselves the Rawāfidh, claim to have excessive love for the family of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, they are really not happy with Allāh, the Qur'ān, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, his family and the illustrious Sahābah رضى الله عنهم. In the above verse of Surah Nūr, Allāh clearly promises the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم that he will confer on them the favour of kingdom and authority. Every person knows that this promise was fulfilled during the reigns of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه.

When Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه rightly became the fourth righteous Caliph (Khalifa), he never refuted the rule of previous three and he never claimed that they usurped his right to the Caliphate (khilāfah). He continued in his role, closely emulating the precedent set by them.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the righteous khilāfah shall remain for thirty after him. Therefore, upon the demise of Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, his eldest son, Sayyidina Hasan رضى الله عنه continued as Caliph (Khalifa) for a few months until the expiry of the thirty years. He may also be included among the righteous Caliphs (khilāfahs), but the term "four righteous Caliphs (khilāfahs)" has been popularly used.

The Rawāfidh, on the other hand, say that the three Caliphs (khilāfahs) before Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه were not even Muslims, let alone Caliphs (khilāfahs) (Allāh Forbid!). By saying this, they are actually refuting the Qur'ān. They claim that Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه is innocent of all sins [like the Prophets عليهم السلام] and that he is their first Imām. The irony of their belief is that they say that he was afraid to proclaim his right to the Caliphate (khilāfah) after the demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. By saying so, they are actually calling him a coward (Allāh forbid!).

They also say that he concealed the truth by serving under the three Caliphs (khilāfahs). It is common knowledge that none of their Imāms ever was a Caliph (Khalifa) after Sayyidina Hasan رضى الله عنه. Therefore, if it is assumed that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه were not Muslims (as they say), then it would mean that Allāh's promise was never fulfilled (Allāh forbid!). When this is posed before these Shias, they say that it will be fulfilled when Sayyidina Mahdi appears.

This is another of their disbeliefs. The verse clearly mentions that the promise will be fulfilled to "those of you," whereas no other verse of the Qur'ān contains this phrase together with mention of Belief (Imān) and the carrying out of good deeds.

Note: "Never think that the disbelievers can escape on earth." This verse refers to all the disbelievers until eternity. They are constantly plotting against the Muslims and leave no stone unturned to destroy the Muslims. However, it is certain that they will receive their just deserts in this world and especially in the Hereafter.

يَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لِيَسْتَفْذِنَكُمْ الَّذِينَ مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَنُكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ لَمْ يَبْلُغُوا الْحُلُمَ مِنْكُمْ
ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ مِنْ قَبْلِ صَلَوةِ الْفَجْرِ وَحِينَ تَضَعُونَ ثِيَابَكُمْ مِنَ الظَّهِيرَةِ وَمِنْ بَعْدِ صَلَوةِ
الْعِشَاءِ ثَلَاثُ عَوْرَاتٍ لَكُمْ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَا عَلَيْهِمْ جُنَاحٌ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ طَوْفُونَ عَلَيْكُمْ
بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ الْآيَاتِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَإِذَا
بَلَغَ الْأَطْفَالُ مِنْكُمُ الْحُلُمَ فَلْيَسْتَفْذِنُوا كَمَا اسْتَفْذَنَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَذَلِكَ
يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ ءَايَاتِهِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٥٩﴾

(58) O you who believe, your slaves and your children who have not yet come of age must seek permission (to enter your room) on three occasions. Before the Fajr Salāh, when you remove your clothes in the afternoons and after the Isha Salāh. These are three times of seclusion for you. After these, there is no sin on yourselves, or on them. They often come and go from your presence, one from the other. Thus does Allāh elucidate injunctions to you. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise. (59) When your children come of age, they should seek permission just as those before them seek permission. In this manner Allāh expounds His verses to you. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise.

PERMISSION SHOULD BE SOUGHT BEFORE ENTERING ANY ROOM ESPECIALLY DURING THREE TIMES

Verse 27 of this Surah mentions seeking permission to enter any home. That law applies especially to people who do not live in the same home. The above two verses apply to people who live in the same home and who are constantly in and out of the house.

Allāh says, "O you who believe, your slaves and your children who have not yet come of age must seek permission (to enter your room) on three occasions (especially). (These three times are) Before the Fajr Salāh, when you remove your (excess) clothes in the afternoons and after the Isha Salāh. These are three times of seclusion for you." These are times when people usually lie down to rest and want to relax without wearing excess clothing. Couples also usually use these times to lie down together. Permission must be sought before entering the room during these times to ensure privacy.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه reports that one afternoon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent an Ansāri Sahabi رضي الله عنه to call Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. The Sahabi رضي الله عنه entered without seeking permission and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was upset because his clothes were dishevelled. The above verse was then revealed.

"After these (three times), there is no sin on yourselves, or on them (if they enter without permission). (This is permitted because) They often come and go from your presence, one from the other." If they had to constantly seek permission to enter, it would be extremely difficult for all. Therefore, they may enter the house without permission at other times. Allāh then says, "Thus does Allāh elucidate injunctions to you. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise."

"When your children come of age, they should seek permission just as those before them seek permission." After coming of age, these children should not think that they are still allowed to enter without permission. They are now adults, and should seek permission to enter like all other adults. Allāh repeats, "In this manner Allāh expounds His verses to you. Allāh is All Knowing, The Wise."

Note: Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that people have neglected three verses of the Qur'ān viz.

- (1) "O you who believe, your slaves and your children who have not yet come of age much seek permission (to enter) on three occasions..."
- (2) "When relatives, orphans and the poor present themselves at the time of distributing (inheritance), then grant them a portion..." [Surah Nisā (4), verse 8]
- (3) "Verily the most honoured among you is the one with the most piety (taqwa)." [Surah Hujurāt (49), verse 13]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that most people do not practice on these verses, as if they do not believe therein, whereas he would instruct even his slave woman to seek permission to enter during these times.

وَالْقَوَاعِدُ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ الَّتِي لَا يَرْجُونَ نِكَاحًا فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْهِنَّ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ يَضَعْنَ
ثِيَابَهُنَّ غَيْرَ مُتَبَرِّجَاتٍ بِزِينَةٍ وَأَنْ يَسْتَغْفِرْنَ خَيْرٌ لَّهُنَّ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ

(60) There is no sin on those women who are sitting and have lost all hope of marriage if they remove their (excess) clothing on condition that they do not expose their charms. It is best if they abstain from this, Allāh is All Hearing, All Knowing.

OLD WOMEN NEED NOT CONCEAL THEMSELVES STRICTLY

The Arabic word "qawā'id" (translated above as "women who are sitting") refers to those women who are old and remain indoors. Such women, when they are past the age of marriage, are permitted to expose their faces to non-mahram men. However, the condition is that they "do not expose their charms." Therefore, they may show only their faces and hands to these men - nothing more. Of course "It is best if they abstain from this."

One can understand that if these old ladies are advised to rather not show their faces to non-mahram men, how can a young woman ever be permitted to do so?

لَيْسَ عَلَى الْأَعْمَى حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْأَعْرَجِ حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرِيضِ حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى
 أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَنْ تَأْكُلُوا مِنْ بُيُوتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ آبَائِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ
 أَوْ بُيُوتِ إِخْوَانِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أَخَوَاتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أَعْمَامِكُمْ أَوْ
 بُيُوتِ عَمَّاتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أَخْوَالِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ خَالَاتِكُمْ أَوْ مَا
 مَلَكَتُمْ مَفَاتِحَهُ أَوْ صَدِيقَكُمْ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَأْكُلُوا
 جَمِيعًا أَوْ أَشْتَاتًا فَإِذَا دَخَلْتُمْ بُيُوتًا فَسَلِّمُوا عَلَى أَنْفُسِكُمْ تَحِيَّةٌ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ
 مُبَارَكَةٌ طَيِّبَةٌ كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ آيَاتِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ
 تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾

(61) There is no harm for the blind, the paralysed, the ill or for yourselves if you eat from your own homes or from the homes of your fathers, your mothers, your brothers, your sisters, your paternal uncles, your paternal aunts, your maternal uncles, your maternal aunts, the homes for which you possess the keys and the homes of your friends. There is no harm if you eat collectively or individually. So, when you enter any homes, then greet yourselves as a prayer that has been ordained by Allāh and which is blessed and pure. Thus does Allāh explain injunctions to you so that you understand?

THE PERMISSION TO EAT AT THE HOMES OF RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

“Ma’ālimut Tanzil” (v. 3 p. 358) reports from Sayyidina Sa’id bin Jubair رحمه الله عليه that the blind and paralysed people used it think that people disliked eating with them. The blind seemed to sense that people thought they ate more than others, while the paralysed people feared that others may feel that they occupy the place of two persons. The above verse was therefore revealed in this regard. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه says that the verse was revealed to permit eating at the homes of those people mentioned in the verse.

Whatever the circumstances of revelation, the verse is clear that people may eat at the homes of those mentioned because they are all related and will not be offended when the other eats with them. In fact, these relationships are so close that the opposite party will be offended if the other does not eat their food. Therefore, no permission is necessary when a person wishes to eat from the homes of these relatives when he knows that they will not be offended thereby.

The verse also informs us that handicapped people should not be excluded from social activities because of their physical impairment. Some commentators have mentioned that “your own homes” refers to the homes of one’s children. [Jalālain]

If the food is purchased by one’s aunts and sisters using their own money, one needs no permission to eat it. However, one cannot eat from it when the husbands of these relatives paid for the food and they would not be pleased to share it.

".... the homes for which you possess the keys..." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that this part of the verse refers to caretakers and guardians of property e.g. shepherds and those who tend orchards may eat or drink from the property that they oversee (milk, fruit). However, they may eat only what is necessary and may not take anything away with them.

Other commentators say that this verse refers to slaves, because the slave and whatever he/she possesses belongs to the master, who may use these as desired.

Allāh also permits that a person may eat from "the homes of your friends." This refers only to close friends who will not be offended if a person eats their food.

"There is no harm if you eat collectively or individually." "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that some of the Ansār رضي الله عنه made up their minds not to eat unless there was a guest with them. They would remain hungry if there was no guest to share their meals. Allāh therefore permitted them to eat alone if no guest was available.

"So, when you enter any homes, then greet yourselves (i.e. the people of the household) as a prayer that has been ordained by Allāh and which is blessed and pure." Instead of instructing that Salām (salutations) be made to the people of the household, Allāh commands that Salām be made to "yourselves." This denotes that all Muslims are like a single soul. Another wisdom behind this phrasing is that when a person prays for peace by greeting another (because Salām is a prayer), the second person replies to the greeting by praying for the one who greeted. Therefore, the person greeting with Salām is actually praying for himself.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you enter your homes, greet with Salām because it is a blessing for yourselves and for the members of your household." [Mishkāt p. 399]

Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Greet the members of the household when entering. Then greet them again before taking leave." [Ibid]

A detailed discussion of Salām is given in the commentary of verse 86 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4). Allāh concludes this discussion by saying, "Thus does Allāh explain injunctions to you so that you understand."

إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَإِذَا كَانُوا مَعَهُ عَلَىٰ أَمْرٍ جَامِعٍ لَّمْ يَذْهَبُوا
حَتَّىٰ يَسْتَأْذِنُوهُ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَأْذِنُونَكَ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ فَإِذَا
أَسْتَأْذَنُوكَ لِبَعْضِ شَأْنِهِمْ فَأَذَنَ لِمَن شِئْتَ مِنْهُمْ وَاسْتَغْفَرَ لَهُمُ اللَّهُ إِنَّ

اللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٦٢﴾ لَا تَجْعَلُوا دُعَاءَ الرَّسُولِ بَيْنَكُمْ كَدُعَاءِ بَعْضِكُمْ بَعْضًا قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ يَتَسَلَّلُونَ مِنْكُمْ لِوَاذًا فَلْيَحْذَرِ الَّذِينَ يُخَالِفُونَ عَنْ أَمْرِهِ أَنْ تُصِيبَهُمْ فِتْنَةٌ أَوْ يُصِيبَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٦٣﴾

(62) The believers are those who believe in Allāh and His apostle and, when they are with him in a collective matter, they do not depart until they have sought leave from him. Verily those who seek leave from you are the ones who believe in Allāh and His messenger. So when they seek leave from you to tend to some affair of theirs, then permit those of them whom you please and seek Allāh's forgiveness for them. Verily Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (63) Do not make the calling of the messenger among yourselves like your calling to each other. Allāh certainly knows those of you who stealthily slip away. Those who oppose the messenger's commands should beware that some calamity or a grievous punishment should afflict them.

THE BELIEVERS LEAVE ONLY AFTER SEEKING PERMISSION FROM THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

"Durrul Manthūr" (v. 5 p. 60) reports that during the battle of the trench, the Quraysh camped near the Rūma well, while the Bani Ghatfān tribe camped near Mount Uhud. However they were unable to approach Madinah because the Muslims had already dug the trench.

While the digging was taking place, the hypocrites very reluctantly participated and would secretly steal away after doing very little work. However, the true Muslims assisted to the best of their ability and would leave only because of some genuine reason. Then too, they would first take leave from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They would then return as soon as they had completed what they had to do.

In the above verse, Allāh describes this quality of the believers (Mu'minīn) and exposes the hypocrites for their ostentation and treachery. This is one of the many occasions where the hypocrisy of the hypocrites is exposed in the Qur'ān.

The hypocrites used to perform their Salāh with extreme reluctance, in a haphazard fashion, and found extreme difficulty in performing the Fajr and Isha Salāh. They performed their Salāh for show and would join the campaigns for Jihād merely to cause trouble for the Muslims, as mentioned in Surah Tauba [Surah 9, verse 47]. They were unable to conceal their true identities for long and the Qur'ān often exposed them for what they were.

Describing another trait of theirs, Allāh says in Surah Tauba, "Whenever a Surah is revealed they look at each other (saying), 'Can anyone see you?' Then they turn away. Allāh has turned their hearts away because they are nation who do not understand." [Surah 9, verse 127]

The "Marasil of Abu Dawūd" mentions that when any Sahābah رضي الله عنهم wished to leave the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم gathering because of some reason (like nosebleed), he would indicate to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with his index finger. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would permit him using a gesture of the hand. As the Sahabi رضي الله عنه left, the Hypocrites would use him as a screen to steal away themselves. About this Allāh revealed the verse, "Allāh certainly knows those of you who stealthily slip away..."

Allāh praises the believers (Mu'minin) in these verses. Allāh also says, "Do not make the calling of the messenger among yourselves like your calling to each other." i.e. A person should respond immediately to the call of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When others call a person, he has the choice to respond. However, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called anyone, he had to respond. This was always the practice of the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم. Even when they were called elsewhere, they would remain seated until the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted them leave. The hypocrites, however, looked for every opportunity to sneak away.

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "So when they seek leave from you to tend to some affair of theirs, then permit those of them whom you please..." Although the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم sought leave only when it was necessary, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was granted the authority to permit them if he willed. This was so because it was possible that they would come to harm if they left, or the matter did not really require immediate attention. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would, therefore, assess the situation before granting leave.

After permitting them to leave, Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "seek Allāh's forgiveness for them." Although the need may be urgent, but leaving the collective affair of the Muslims means that one is giving priority to one's personal matters over the matter of religion (D'in). Even though one may not be sinful for tending to one's needs, the possibility did exist that the matter was not as urgent as it was thought to be. Allowing for this error in judgement, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was instructed to seek forgiveness on their behalf because "Verily Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

"Do not make the calling of the messenger among yourselves like your calling to each other." Besides the interpretation mentioned above, commentators have also interpreted this verse to mean that people should not call the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as they call each other. If need be, they should be respectful and say, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or "O the Holy Prophet of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم" They should never say, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم!"

Allāh says in Surah Hujurāt, "O you who believe! Never raise your voices above the voice of the messenger and do not speak to him loudly as you speak loudly with each other; lest your deeds be laid to waste without you realising." [Surah 49, verse 2]

"Those who oppose the messenger's commands should beware that some calamity (in this world) or a grievous punishment (in the Hereafter) should afflict them." This verse specifically addresses the hypocrites who thought nothing of their actions against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

The verse may be translated to mean Allāh's commands, but even when it is translated as 'the messenger's commands' it would still denote Allāh's commands because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded only what Allāh commanded. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Whoever obeys the messenger has obeyed Allāh." [Surah 4, verse 80]

Note: Scholars (Ulama) mention that just as it was obligatory for the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم to respond to the call of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Muslims in every era must respond to the call of those people who are in authority over them in the matters of Dīn. These include the Caliph (Khalifa), the Scholars (Ulama), Imāms, principals of religious institutions, trustees of Masājid, those supervising conscription for Jihād, etc.

Note: “Those who oppose the messenger’s commands should beware that some calamity or a grievous punishment should afflict them.” The jurists have deduced from this verse that a command denotes an obligatory action because punishment can be given only for neglecting something obligatory.

However, the words of the verse are general and could pertain to all injunctions of religion (D’īn). Therefore, whenever a general command is issued in the Qur’ān and the Ahādīth, it will be treated as obligatory unless other reasons denote that it is not obligatory, but Sunnah, Mustahab, etc.

The actions of many Muslims are diametrically opposed to Allāh’s commands merely because of domestic or social pressure. When they are advised by the Scholars (Ulama), they get annoyed and want to contest the issue. The shaving of the beard is a good example of this. People who shave act in opposition to Allāh’s orders and are even prepared to dispute it. There are numerous other examples that also point to destruction, yet people are heedless about their fate in the Hereafter.

أَلَا إِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ قَدْ يَعْلَمُ مَا أَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ وَيَوْمَ يُرْجَعُونَ
إِلَيْهِ فَيُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٦٤﴾

(64) Lo! Verily to Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Allāh certainly knows your condition. On the day when they shall return to Him, He will inform them of what they did. Allāh has knowledge of all things.

EVERYTHING IN THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH BELONGS TO ALLĀH AND HE KNOWS EVERYTHING

This concluding verse of Surah Nūr clearly announces to man saying, “Lo! Verily to Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. (Whatever you do, you should remember that) Allāh certainly knows your condition. On the day [of Judgment (Qiyāmah)] when they shall return to Him, He will inform them of what they did. (He will then grant them what is because of them because) Allāh has knowledge of all things.”

سورة الفرقان

Makkan	Surah Al-Furqan	Verses 77
--------	-----------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ الْفُرْقَانَ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ لِيَكُونَ لِلْعَالَمِينَ نَذِيرًا ﴿١﴾ الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَمْ يَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ شَرِيكٌ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَخَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ فَقَدَرَهُ مَقْدِيرًا ﴿٢﴾ وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ آلِهَةً لَا يَخْلُقُونَ شَيْئًا وَهُمْ يُخْلَقُونَ وَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ لِأَنفُسِهِمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا نَفْعًا وَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ مَوْتًا وَلَا حَيَاةً وَلَا نُشُورًا ﴿٣﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا إِفْكٌ افْتَرَاهُ وَأَعَانَهُ عَلَيْهِ قَوْمٌ آخَرُونَ فَقَدْ جَاءُوا ظُلْمًا وَزُورًا ﴿٤﴾ وَقَالُوا اسْطِيزُ الْأَوَّلِينَ أَكْتَتَبَهَا فَهِيَ تُمْلَى عَلَيْهِ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا ﴿٥﴾ قُلْ أَنْزَلَهُ الَّذِي يَعْلَمُ السِّرَّ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانَ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ﴿٦﴾ وَقَالُوا مَا هَذَا الرَّسُولِ يَأْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشِي فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ لَوْلَا أَنْزَلَ إِلَهُهُ مَلَكٌ فَيَكُونُ مَعَهُ نَذِيرًا ﴿٧﴾ أَوْ يُنْفَخُ إِلَيْهِ كَافُرٌ أَوْ تَكُونُ لَهُ جَنَّةٌ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهَا وَقَالَ الظَّالِمُونَ إِنْ تَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَسْحُورًا ﴿٨﴾ أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوا لَكَ الْأَمْثَلَ فَضَلُّوا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَبِيلًا ﴿٩﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Blessed indeed is the Being Who revealed the Criterion to His bondsman so that he may be a warner to the universe. (2.) The One to Whom belongs the Kingdom of the heavens and the earth, Who has not taken any son, has no partner in the Kingdom, has created everything, and then meticulously perfected them. (3) Besides Him they adopt deities who cannot create anything, but have themselves been created. They have no power to effect any harm nor any benefit to themselves, and do not have any power over life, death or resurrection. (4) The disbelievers say, "This is merely a lie that he has contrived and with which other people have assisted him." They have indeed presented a grave injustice and lie. (5) They say, "Fables of the old men that he has had written and which are recited to him morning and evening. (6) Say, "The One Who knows the secrets of the heavens and the earth has revealed it. Certainly, He has always been the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." (7) And they say, "What is the matter with this messenger that he eats food and walks in the marketplace? Why is an angel not sent with him to be a warner alongside him?" (8) ". . . Or why is a treasure not given to him or why does he not have an orchard from which he may eat?" The oppressors say, "You are merely following a bewitched man!" (9) Look how they coin similitude's for you! So they wander astray and will not find any road.

ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD), PROPHETHOOD (RISĀLAH) AND THE FOOLISHNESS OF THE POLYTHEISTS (MUSHRIKĪN)

These opening verses of Surah Furqān describe the Qur'ān, the One Who revealed the Qur'ān, and the one to whom the Qur'ān was revealed. Allāh says, "Blessed indeed is the Being Who revealed the Criterion (Qur'ān) to His bondsman..." The Qur'ān is the criterion by which truth is discerned from falsehood and by which the paths of deviation are made distinct from those of guidance.

Allāh revealed the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم "so that he may be a warner to the universe." This outlines the task of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He is the apostle to every man and jinn to be born until Judgment day (Qiyāmah). He was to warn them of the evil consequences that they are bound to face if they fail to accept the truth.

Describing Himself further Allāh says that He is "The One to Whom belongs the Kingdom of the heavens and the earth, Who has not taken any son, has no partner in the Kingdom, has created everything, and then meticulously perfected them." Allāh created every being perfectly and imbued them with unique qualities and characteristics that are suited to the activities for which they were created.

Allāh has not made the earth so soft that people can sink in it, nor has He made it so hard that it cannot be dug. There are innumerable benefits in the fluidity of water. The air is also similar to water in its fluid movements, yet it is so vastly different, for good reasons. It can reach places where water cannot so that people will not be deprived of it in all places.

Allāh then discusses the preposterousness of the polytheists when He says, "Besides Him (Whose description has been given above), they adopt deities who cannot create anything, but have themselves been created (by Allāh). (In fact, they are so helpless that) They have no power to effect any harm nor any benefit to themselves, and do not have any power over life, death or resurrection." They cannot give life to the dead, cannot give death to the living, nor can they raise the dead on the Day of Judgement.

"The disbelievers say, 'This (Qur'ān) is merely a lie that he [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] has contrived and with which other people have assisted him.

"Refuting this blasphemy, Allāh says, "They have indeed presented a grave injustice and lie."

Some commentators have mentioned that the polytheists were referring to the Jews when they said that "other people have assisted" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They said that the people of book (Ahlul Kitāb) assisted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because these people were aware of the incidents discussed in the previous scriptures. However, their refutation has no effect on the veracity of the Qur'an.

"They say (about the Qur'an), 'Fables of the old men that he [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] has had written and which are recited to him morning and evening.'" Allāh refutes their statement by instructing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say, 'The One Who knows the secrets of the heavens and the earth has revealed it.'" Allāh is perfectly aware of whatever the polytheists and the disbelievers say and will punish them for it.

However, if these people repent for their evils and accept Islām, Allāh will certainly accept them with open arms because "Certainly, He has always been the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

"And they say, 'What is the matter with this messenger that he eats food and walks in the marketplace'" The polytheists thought that the Holy Prophet must be someone different from the rest of humans. However, Allāh has created the Prophets عليهم السلام as humans, like those to whom they have been sent. This is perfectly in order because only a human can understand other humans and practically demonstrate Allāh's injunctions to them.

They also used to say, "Why is an angel not sent with him to be a warner (against Allāh's punishment) alongside him? Or why is a treasure not given to him or why does he not have an orchard from which he may eat?" The polytheists wanted to see the above so that they could recognise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as being different from them. Without any of these, they refused to accept him as Allāh's apostle.

"The oppressors (also had the audacity to) say, 'You are merely following a bewitched man!'" They said this when they were unable to reply to the miraculous nature of the Qur'an.

Allāh then says, "Look how they coin similitude's for you! So they wander astray and will not find any road." If they had given the matter due thought, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Qur'an would have been a source of guidance for them. However, since they have chosen not to apply their common sense, they have chosen the road of deviation and will not be rightly guided.

تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي إِنْ شَاءَ جَعَلَ لَكَ خَيْرًا مِنْ ذَلِكَ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
وَيَجْعَلُ لَكَ قُصُورًا ﴿١٠﴾ بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِالسَّاعَةِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِمَنْ كَذَّبَ بِالسَّاعَةِ سَعِيرًا
إِذَا رَأَوْهُمْ مِنْ مَكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ سَمِعُوا لَهَا تَغِيْطًا وَزَفِيرًا ﴿١٢﴾ وَإِذَا أُلْقُوا مِنْهَا مَكَانًا

ضَيْقًا مُّقَرَّنِينَ دَعَوْا هُنَالِكَ ثُبُورًا ﴿١٣﴾ لَا تَدْعُوا الْيَوْمَ ثُبُورًا وَاحِدًا وَادْعُوا ثُبُورًا
كَثِيرًا ﴿١٤﴾ قُلْ أَذَلَّكَ خَيْرٌ أَمْ جَنَّةُ الْخُلْدِ الَّتِي وُعِدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ ؕ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ
جَزَاءً وَمَصِيرًا ﴿١٥﴾ لَهُمْ فِيهَا مَا يَشَاءُونَ خَالِدِينَ ؕ كَانَتْ عَلَى رَبِّكَ وَعْدًا مَسْئُورًا
﴿١٦﴾

(10) Blessed is that Being Who, if He willed, would have granted you better bounties than this, by way of gardens beneath which rivers flow and He would have made palaces for you. (11) However, they deny Judgment day (Qiyāmah) and We have prepared the Blaze for those who deny Judgment day (Qiyāmah). (12) When it will see them from a distance, they will hear the roar of its fury and its crackling. (13) When they are flung into a narrow place with their hands and feet in shackles, they will cry out for destruction. (14) Do not cry only for one destruction today, but cry for many a destruction. (15) Say, "Is this better, or the Heaven (Jannah) of eternity that the pious have been promised. It shall be a reward and an abode for them. (16) There they shall have whatever they desire and they will live there forever. This is a promise that your Lord has undertaken to fulfill and for which He should be implored.

THE FURY OF HELL (JAHANNAM) ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH), WHEN THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE CAST INTO ITS NARROW CONFINES AND THE PIOUS WILL BE ADMITTED INTO HEAVEN (JANNAH)

In the foregoing verses, Allāh tells of how the disbelievers taunted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying that he should have been given gardens and treasures. Allāh now tells them that He has power over all things and can grant him things that are much better than what the disbelievers talk about.

Allāh says, "Blessed is that Being Who, if He willed, would have granted you better bounties than this, by way of gardens beneath which rivers flow and He would have made palaces for you." However, Allāh, in His infinite wisdom, grants whatever He wills to whoever He wills. None can question Him about His intentions.

Allāh then speaks about another denial of the disbelievers. Allāh says that, together with their denial of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم apostleship, "they deny Judgment day (Qiyāmah)" as well. Because of their denial of the Hereafter, they continue to make absurd remarks about Islām and foster evil within their hearts. Allāh warns them, "We have prepared the Blaze for those who deny Judgment day (Qiyāmah)."

On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), "When it (Hell) will see them from a distance, they will hear the roar of its fury and its crackling." Hell will be furious with those people whom Allāh is angry with. Its fury will be expressed by the sounds it will emit.

"When they are flung into a narrow place with their hands and feet in shackles, they will cry out for destruction." Although Hell itself is extremely vast, the people of Hell will be cast into narrow confines. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that people will be hammered into Hell just like nails are hammered into walls. [Ibn kathir v. 3 p. 311]

Allāh says in Surah Saba, "We will place yokes upon the necks of the disbelievers. They will be punished only for what they did." When these people will be cast into Hell, they will cry out wishing for death, thinking that it will save them from the punishment. They will be told, "Do not cry for only one destruction (death) today, but cry for many a destruction (deaths)." This will make no difference because they will still suffer the same eternal punishment that is because of them.

Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "The Fire of Hell will be for those who disbelieve. There (in Hell) no decree will be passed against them by which they may die. Their punishment will also not be lightened. Thus do We punish every disbeliever." [Surah 35, verse 36]

Allāh then instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell the disbelievers, "I this better, or the Heaven (Jannah) of eternity that the pious have been promised. It [Heaven (Jannah)] shall be a reward and an abode for them. There they shall have whatever they desire and they will live there forever."

This life of the pious will be in direct contrast to the horrible life that the disbelievers will be forced to live in Hell. Allāh says in Surah Saba, "A barrier will fall between them and the desires they hoped for, just as it occurred to the groups before them. Indeed, they were ever in a confusing doubt." [Surah 34, verse 54]

About the promise of Heaven (Jannah) Allāh says, "This is a promise that your Lord has undertaken to fulfil and for which He should be implored." Allāh will grant a person this lofty stage of Heaven (Jannah) if he earnestly beseeches Allāh for it and works towards it. Quoting the supplication of the intelligent ones, Allāh says in Surah Al Imrān, "Our Lord, confer upon us what You have promised us by Your messengers and do not disgrace us on the Day of Judgement. Verily You do not break Your promise." [Surah 3, verse 194]

Praying for Heaven (Jannah) does not mean that one is doubtful about Allāh's promise, but it expresses one's needs and secures for one the rewards of making supplication (du'ā).

وَيَوْمَ يَخْشَرُهُمْ وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ فَيَقُولُ ءَأَنْتُمْ أَضَلَلْتُمْ عِبَادِي هَؤُلَاءِ أَمْ هُمْ ضَلُّوا السَّبِيلَ ﴿١٧﴾ قَالُوا سُبْحَنَكَ مَا كَانَ يَنْبَغِي لَنَا أَنْ نَتَّخِذَ مِنْ دُونِكَ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ وَلَكِنْ مَتَّعْتَهُمْ وَعَابَاءَهُمْ حَتَّى نَسُوا الذِّكْرَ وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا بُورًا ﴿١٨﴾ فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ بِمَا تَقُولُونَ فَمَا تَسْتَطِيعُونَ صَرْفًا وَلَا نَصْرًا وَمَنْ يَظْلِمِ مِنْكُمْ نَذِقْهُ عَذَابًا كَبِيرًا ﴿١٩﴾

(17) The day when they, together with those whom they worship besides Allāh, will be gathered together and Allāh will ask, "Did you lead these bondsmen of Mine astray, or did they themselves deviate from the path?" (18) They will say, "You are Pure! It did not behove us that we take any allies besides You, but what happened was that You granted enjoyment to their fathers until they forgot the remembrance and were a destroyed nation." (19) "They have falsified what you said and you will neither be able to avert the punishment, nor receive any assistance. We shall inflict a grievous punishment on those of you who are oppressive.

THE QUESTIONS TO BE POSED TO THE FALSE GODS OF THE IDOLATERS, AFTER WHICH THEY WILL BE ENTERED INTO HELL (JAHANNAM)

Allāh declares that, on the Day of Judgement, the polytheists, "together with those whom they worship besides Allāh [including the angels, idols, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام], will be gathered together and Allāh will ask (these 'gods'), 'Did you lead these bondsmen (the Polytheists) of Mine astray, or did they themselves deviate from the path?'"

In response to Allāh's question "They will say, (O Allāh) You are Pure! It did not behove us that we take any allies besides You..." By saying this they would absolve themselves of all blame and reject the worship that was offered to them.

Some commentators say that only the animate and understanding "gods" will be questioned; not the inanimate ones like the idols. However, another group of commentators maintain even the idols and other unintelligible "gods" will be questioned after being given the capacity to understand and speak.

The "gods" will add to their reply by saying, "but what happened was that You granted enjoyment to their fathers (causing them to fall deep into the abyss of carnal passions) until they forgot the remembrance (of Allāh and the divine scriptures) and were a destroyed nation."

Those who worshipped these false gods will be told, "They (your gods) have falsified what you said (that they were your gods) and you will neither be able to avert the punishment, nor receive any assistance." The hopes that the polytheists pinned in their gods will, therefore, be dashed.

"We shall inflict a grievous punishment on those of you who are oppressive." i.e. on those who perpetrate the greatest oppression of disbeliefs.

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ إِلَّا إِنَّهُمْ لَيَأْكُلُونَ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشُونَ
فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ وَجَعَلْنَا بَعْضَكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ فِتْنَةً أَتَصْبِرُونَ وَكَانَ رَبُّكَ بَصِيرًا

(20) All the messengers that We sent before you used to eat food and walk in the marketplaces. We have made some of you as trials to others. Will you persevere? Your Lord is Ever Watchful.

THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام USED TO EAT AND WALK IN THE MARKETS, AND EVERY MAN IS A TRIAL FOR THE OTHER

It was mentioned in a few verses prior to this that the polytheists questioned the human nature of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام and expressed surprise that they could eat and walk about in the markets when the need arose. Allāh replies to this by saying that the behaviour of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was nothing strange because 'All the messengers that We sent before you used to eat food and walk in the marketplaces.'

Allāh had imbued the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام with certain attributes that were befitting for their rank. None has the right to dictate to Allāh what these attributes should be. When Allāh has decreed that the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام should also behave like other humans (which they were), people will be foolish to add that they cannot be humans. It is perfectly reasonable that the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام should be humans to be able to propagate their message to humans.

"We have made some of you as trials to others." Allāh has made some people rich, while others remain poor. The rich are put to trial when they look down upon the poor and say that Allāh must be disliking the poor to make them suffer poverty, while they (the rich) are Allāh's chosen folk. The rich polytheists taunted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم poverty and asked why was he not given a treasure or an orchard.

Allāh says in Surah An'ām, "Thus We tested them with each other so that they say, 'These are those whom Allāh has blessed from amongst us.'" [Surah 6, verse 53]

The rich are also a trial for the poor because, when the poor see the wealth of the rich, they may be overcome with jealousy. Therefore, Allāh asks, "Will you persevere?" Each person has to persevere and be content with his lot. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

"Your Lord is Ever Watchful." He is Aware of those who persevere, as well as those who do not. He will grant them their due retribution.

PART NINETEEN

❖ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا لَوْلَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا الْمَلَائِكَةُ أَوْ نَرَى رَبَّنَا لَقَدِ اسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَعَتَوْا عُتُوًّا كَبِيرًا ﴿٢١﴾ يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَ الْمَلَائِكَةَ لَا بُشْرَى يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُجْرِمِينَ وَيَقُولُونَ حِجْرًا مَحْجُورًا ﴿٢٢﴾ وَقَدْ مَنَا إِلَى مَا عَمِلُوا مِنْ عَمَلٍ فَجَعَلْنَاهُ هَبَاءً مَنْثُورًا ﴿٢٣﴾ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَيْرٌ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَأَحْسَنُ مَقِيلًا ﴿٢٤﴾

(21) Those who do not aspire to meet Us say, "Why are angels not sent to us or why do we not see our Lord?" They are certainly proud of themselves and have opted to be extremely rebellious. (22) There shall be no glad tidings for the criminals on that day when they see the angels, and they will shout, "Stay far away!" (23) We will then turn to their deeds and reduce them to scattered dust. (24) The people of Heaven will be in the best of abodes and the best of resting places.

A WARNING TO THE REJECTERS AND GLAD TIDINGS FOR THE PEOPLE OF HEAVEN

Another of the absurd statements made by the disbelievers when they rejected the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, was to say, "Why are angels not sent to us or why do we not see our Lord?" They claimed that they would believe only when the angels confirmed the message or when they saw Allāh with their naked eyes.

They made such statements only because they never believed in the Hereafter and had no fear for it. Those who believe in the Hereafter will think over the matter and realise that a person who is so venerable and who has displayed so many miracles cannot be a liar. However, those who are heedless of the Hereafter will not hesitate to make foolish statements to satisfy their obstinacy. Therefore, Allāh attributes the statement to "Those who do not aspire to meet Us."

In reply to their demand Allāh says, "They are certainly proud of themselves and have opted to be extremely rebellious." They are so haughty that they actually deem themselves fit enough to see Allāh with their naked eyes and that they require witnesses to attest to the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"There shall be no glad tidings for the criminals (the rejecters) on that day when they see the angels..." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that this day refers to the day when they will die. Other commentators say that it refers to the Day of Judgement. On this day they will finally realise their desire to see the angels, but the occasion will not be very pleasant for them.

They will then be doomed to the eternal punishment of Hell. On that occasion, to be rescued from the punishment, they will shout, "Stay far away!" However, this will not help them.

All the good deeds that the disbelievers carried out in this world will not benefit them in the Hereafter because they lacked the qualification of Imān (Belief). Allāh says in Surah Ibrahim, "The example of the actions of those who disbelieve in their Lord is like that of ashes that are blown away by a wind on a stormy day. They have absolutely no control of what they earn. This is a distant deviation." [Surah 14, verse 18]

Allāh says here, "We will then turn to their deeds and reduce them to scattered dust." The dust referred to in this verse are those microscopic particles of dust that are usually seen in rays of sunlight that filters through tiny holes like air vents. Although they are many in number, but they cannot serve any purpose. Similarly, the deeds of the disbelievers will be of no avail to them in the Hereafter.

After describing the people of hell, Allāh speaks about those of Heaven. He says, "The people of Heaven will be in the best of abodes and the best of resting places."

In Surah Kahf Allāh describes heaven as "A fine reward indeed, and the best of resting-places!" [Surah 18, verse 31]

وَيَوْمَ تَشْقُقُ السَّمَاءُ بِالْغَمِّمِ وَنَزَلَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ تَنْزِيلًا ﴿٢٥﴾ الْمَلَكُ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْحَقُّ لِلرَّحْمَنِ
وَكَانَ يَوْمًا عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ عَسِيرًا ﴿٢٦﴾ وَيَوْمَ يَعَضُّ الظَّالِمُ عَلَى يَدَيْهِ يَقُولُ يَلَيْتَنِي
أَتَّخَذْتُ مَعَ الرَّسُولِ سَبِيلًا ﴿٢٧﴾ يَوَلَّتْهُ لَيْتَنِي لَمْ أَتَّخِذْ فُلَانًا خَلِيلًا ﴿٢٨﴾ لَقَدْ أَضَلَّنِي
عَنِ الذِّكْرِ بَعْدَ إِذْ جَاءَنِي وَكَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ لِلْإِنْسَانِ خَذُولًا ﴿٢٩﴾ وَقَالَ
الرَّسُولُ يَرْبِّ إِنِّي قَوْمِي اتَّخَذُوا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ مَهْجُورًا ﴿٣٠﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَا لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ
عَدُوًّا مِنَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ وَكَفَى بِرَبِّكَ هَادِيًا وَنَصِيرًا ﴿٣١﴾

(25) Call to mind the day when the sky will be rent asunder with clouds and the angels will descend in large numbers. (26) True sovereignty on that day will be exclusive for Rahmān. The day will be very difficult for the disbelievers. (27) The day when the oppressor will bite his hands saying, "If only I had chosen a path with the messenger!" (28) "... Woe to me! If only I had never taken such a person as a friend." (29) "...He has certainly deviated me from remembrance after it had come to me." Shaytān (Satan) always deserts man when he is in need. (30) The messenger will say, "O my Lord! My people have ignored this Qur'ān." (31) Thus have We appointed from the criminals an enemy for every Prophet. Your Lord suffices as a Guide and a Helper.

THE FRIGHTENING SCENE OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH), WHEN THE DISBELIEVER WILL WISH THAT HE HAD NOT BEFRIENDED THE WRONG PERSON

Allāh begins to describe the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) by saying, "Call to mind the day when the sky will be rent asunder with clouds..." Allāh also describes the splitting of the skies in the opening verses of Surah Infitār (Surah 82) and Surah Inshiqāq (Surah 84). The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets the above verse to mean that the appearance of the clouds will cause the sky to split. Allāh has the power to do this.

He has also mentioned that the verse could be interpreted to mean that when the sky splits, it will appear as if there are clouds there. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that "the sky" refers to all the seven skies, and not only the one above the earth.

".....and the angels will descend in large numbers." Man cannot understand the precise manner in which this shall take place. "Ruhul Ma'āni" has quoted a lengthy narration concerning this verse, but the narration appears to be an "Isrā'iliyāt" (sourced from the Bani Isrā'il) and cannot be verified.

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that the splitting of the skies will signal the beginning of reckoning. It does not refer to the time when the trumpet will be blown for the first time, causing the destruction of everything.

"True sovereignty on that day will be exclusive for Rahmān." None shall survive as kings and leaders on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). In Surah Mu'min Allāh says that He will announce on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), "To Whom does all Kingdom belong today? To Allāh, the One, the Omnipotent." Allāh then says that the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) "will be very difficult for the disbelievers."

"The day when the oppressor will bite his hands saying, 'If only I had chosen a path with the messenger!'" "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that whenever the polytheist, Uqba bin Abi Mu'it returned from a journey, he would invite all the people of Makkah for a feast. He enjoyed the company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and would associate with him very much.

On one occasion, he again invited the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم after returning from a journey. However, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he refused to accept his invitation until he testified to "Lā ilāha IllAllāh" and that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's messenger. When he invited the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for the second time, he received the same reply. He eventually recited the Kalimah.

When Ubayy bin Khalaf heard about this, he immediately came to Uqba asking him, "Have you become a heretic?" Uqba replied, "I have not become a heretic by heart. What happened was that a person came to my house and refused to accept my invitation to partake of meals until I said what he requested me to say. Since I do not like any person to leave my house without eating, I said what he bade me to say and he ate."

Ubayy told him, "I shall never be pleased with you until you revile this person." Consequently, he behaved extremely rudely towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he would be slain when he meets the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم outside Makkah. This came to pass when he was killed in the battle of Badr.

The "oppressor" in the above verse refers to Uqba, when, on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), he will lament severing ties with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He will say further, "Woe to me! If only I had never taken such a person (Ubayy bin Khalaf) as a friend. He has certainly deviated me from remembrance (of Allāh, the advices given by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Qur'ān) after it had come to me." The person whom he took as a friend turned out to be his worst enemy.

"Satan (Shaytān) always deserts man when he is in need." This sentence may either be a continuation of the statement made the "oppressor" mentioned above, or it may be a statement of Allāh, warning mankind of Satan's (Shaytān's) treachery. Satan (Shaytān) misleads man to commit disbelief and all types of sins. However, when man requires his assistance, Shaytān always leave him in the lurch, betraying his loyalty.

Some commentators have mentioned that the "oppressor" refers to any disbeliever, while "such a person" refers to Satan (Shaytān). They say this because the words of the verse are general and not specific.

When the disbelievers will lament their union with the other disbelievers and wish that they had rather befriended Allāh's messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, he will testify against them saying, "O my Lord! My people have ignored this Qur'ān." Therefore, the disbelievers and polytheists will be condemned to Hell by their own confession, as well as by the testimony of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The general context of the verse will also include those so-called Muslims who are in senior government positions and who not only transgress Allāh's laws in the Qur'ān, but, in their legislation, give preference to the disbelievers laws over Qur'ānic laws. Some even stoop to the extent of labelling Islāmic laws as being barbaric and cruel.

Commentators mention that the plight described in the verse will also face those Muslims who do not recite the Qur'ān at all as well as those who recite the Qur'ān but who never touch it at all and never look into it when reciting.

"Thus have We appointed from the criminals an enemy for every Prophet." Every Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had enemies. However, this fact should not cause any distress because "Your Lord suffices as a Guide and a Helper. "Allāh will always be there to assist His Prophets عليهم السلام."

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ الْقُرْآنُ جُمْلَةً وَاحِدَةً كَذَلِكَ لِنُثَبِّتَ بِهِ فُؤَادَكَ
وَرَتَّلْنَاهُ تَرْتِيلًا ﴿٣٢﴾ وَلَا يَأْتُونَكَ بِمَثَلٍ إِلَّا جِئْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَأَحْسَنَ تَفْسِيرًا ﴿٣٣﴾ الَّذِينَ
يَحْشُرُونَ عَلَىٰ وُجُوهِهِمْ إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ أُولَٰئِكَ شَرٌّ مَّكَانًا وَأَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٣٤﴾

(32) The disbelievers say, "Why is the entire Qur'ān not revealed to him at once?" We have revealed it in this manner so that your heart may be strengthened by it, and We have revealed it gradually. (33) Whenever they pose ridiculous questions to you, We reveal the precise reply to you with explicit clarity. (34) Those who shall be resurrected on their faces will certainly be in the worst of predicaments and most deviated from the path.

THE WISDOM BEHIND THE GRADUAL REVELATION OF THE QUR'ĀN

Among the numerous preposterous arguments raised by the polytheists is the one that asks, "Why is the entire Qur'ān not revealed to him at once?" They fail to understand that Allāh reserves the right to reveal His book as He pleases.

Allāh then also gives a reason for the piecemeal revelation of the Qur'ān by saying, "We have revealed it in this manner so that your heart may be strengthened by it..." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 19 p.15) writes that the gradual revelation facilitated ease in memorising and in understanding the Qur'ān.

The repetitive descent of Jibr'il عليه السلام also served to strengthen the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم resolve against the persistent onslaught of the disbelievers. The gradual revelation also facilitated the understanding of those verses that were abrogated. In addition, it allowed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to present decisive replies to the many arguments of the disbelievers. The appropriate verses were always revealed on the right occasions, thereby affording strength of resolve and consolation to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This repetitive effect would not have been achieved if the Qur'ān was revealed all at once. Besides these, there are still many more reasons for the Qur'ān's piecemeal revelation.

".....and We have revealed it gradually." 'Ruhul Ma'āni' quotes Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, who interprets this part of the verse to mean that the Qur'ān was revealed very clearly and slowly in pauses. It therefore took 23 years before being revealed fully.

Thereafter, Allāh further strengthens the resolve of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying, "Whenever they pose ridiculous questions to you, We reveal the precise reply to you with explicit clarity." These replies put an effective end to their arguments and criticisms.

Allāh then describes the plight of the disbelievers when He says, "Those who shall be resurrected on their faces will certainly be in the worst of predicaments and most deviated from the path." They never believed that they would face these circumstances when they were warned in this world. However, in the Hereafter they will experience the truth of what they were told.

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلْنَا مَعَهُ أَخَاهُ هَارُونَ وَزِيْرًا ﴿٣٥﴾ فَقُلْنَا أَذْهَبَا إِلَى الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِبَيِّنَاتِنَا فَدَمَرْنَاهُمْ تَدْمِيرًا ﴿٣٦﴾ وَقَوْمٌ نُوْجِ لَمَّا كَذَبُوا الرُّسُلَ أَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ لِلنَّاسِ آيَةً وَأَعَدْنَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿٣٧﴾

وَعَادًا وَثَمُودًا وَأَصْحَبَ الرَّسِّ وَقُرُونًا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ كَثِيرًا ﴿٣٥﴾ وَكُلًّا ضَرَبْنَاهُ الْأُمُثَلَ
 وَكُلًّا تَبَرْنَا تَبِيرًا ﴿٣٦﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَنَا عَلَى الْغَرْبَةِ أَلْتَقَىٰ أُمُطِرَتْ مَطَرُ السَّوَاءِ أَفَلَمْ
 يَكُونُوا يَرَوْنَهَا بَلْ كَانُوا لَا يَرْجُونَ نُشُورًا ﴿٣٧﴾ وَإِذَا رَأَوْكَ إِذَا يَنْخَدُونَكَ
 إِلَّا هُمْزًا أَهْدَا الَّذِي بَعَثَ اللَّهُ رَسُولًا ﴿٣٨﴾ إِنْ كَادَ لَيُضِلَّنَا عَنْ إِلَهِنَا لَوْلَا
 أَنْ صَبَرْنَا عَلَيْهَا وَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ حَيْثُ يَرُونَ الْعَذَابَ مَنْ أَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٣٩﴾
 أَرَأَيْتَ مَنْ أَخْذَ إِلَهُهُ هَوْنَهُ أَفَأَنْتَ تَكُونُ عَلَيْهِ وَكِيلًا ﴿٤٠﴾ أَمْ تَحْسَبُ أَنَّ
 أَكْثَرَهُمْ يَسْمَعُونَ أَوْ يَعْقِلُونَ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا كَالْأَنْعَامِ بَلْ هُمْ أَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٤١﴾

(35) Verily We gave the Book to Mūsa and made his brother Hārūn a minister to him. (36) We then said, "The two of you should go to the nation that denies Our signs. Thereafter We completely annihilated the nation." (37) And We drowned the people of Nūh when they denied the messengers, making them a lesson to people. We have prepared an excruciating punishment for the oppressors. (38) We also annihilated the Ād, the Thamud, the people of the well and numerous nations between them. (39) We have coined similitude's for each of them and demolished each one of them. (40) These people have certainly passed the town that was showered by a devastating rain. Have they not Seen it? Nay, but they do not aspire for resurrection. (41) When they see you they seek only to ridicule you (by saying), "Has Allāh sent him as a messenger?" (42) ".... He would have led us away from our gods if we had not persevered with them." Shortly, when they see the punishment, they will come to know who has strayed most from the path. (43) Have you seen the one who has taken his whims as a deity? Will you be a guardian over him? (44) Or do you think that most of them hear or understand? They are merely like animals, but even more astray.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE ĀD, THAMUD AND OTHER NATIONS THE EVIL PLIGHT OF THE IDOLATERS

The above verses speak of the annihilation of the previous nations after they denied the Prophets عليهم السلام and the message brought by them. All these are cited as lessons for those who recite the Qur'ān. Allāh first makes mention of how the people of Fir'aun and the nation of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام were drowned in this very world. Concerning their plight in the Hereafter, Allāh says, "We have prepared an excruciating punishment for the oppressors."

"We also annihilated the Ād, the Thamud, the people of the well and numerous nations between them. We have coined similitudes for each of them (so that they may be guided by these. However, they refused to accept the truth so We sent Our punishment to them) and demolished each one of them."

Referring to the cities of the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام, Allāh says, "These people (the Polytheists of Makkah) have certainly passed the town that was showered by a devastating rain." These cities were overturned when they engaged in the vile deed of sodomy. Thereafter, their cities suffered a shower of stones from the skies. The details of this incident have been given in Surah A'raf [Error! Bookmark not defined.] and in Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 77-83].

The polytheists of Makkah passed by the ruins of Sodom twice annually en route to Shām (Syria) for trade purposes. However, they failed to learn any lesson from what they saw. Allāh says in Surah Sāffāt. "You pass by them in the mornings and at nights. Do you not understand?" The above verse of Surah Furqān mentions the singular word "town" even though these were a few cities. A singular word has been used because it may refer to the main town from these or it could refer to all collectively (as is possible in the Arabic language).

"Have they not seen it? Nay, but they do not aspire for resurrection." The Polytheists have been forewarned and can see the consequences of disobedience before them. However, they do not believe in the Hereafter and regard the ruin of the previous nations as mere natural occurrences.

The truth about the 'people of the well' cannot be verified beyond doubt. One opinion cited in "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that they were the descendants of the Thamud and lived in Yamamah. Others say that these people lived in the vicinity of a well in Antioch.

Another opinion says that they were idol worshippers who lived in an area that had many wells and they possessed an abundance of livestock. Sayyidina Shu'ayb رضى الله عنه was sent to preach them, but they were rebellious and caused him much pain and suffering. It then transpired that they were all gathered once around a well that had recently been dug and which was not yet completed. Allāh caused the ground to collapse beneath them, causing them all to be buried alive.

Other commentators maintain that the "people of the well" were the same people described as the "people of the trench," who will be discussed in Surah Burūj (Surah 85), Insha Allāh.

Allāh then discusses the rebelliousness of the Quraysh. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that "When they see you they seek only to ridicule you (by saying), 'Has Allāh sent him as a messenger?'"

This statement resembles what the Thamud said to Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام. They said, "Has a revelation come only to him from among all of us?" Such statements are based on ignorance because none can question Allāh's choice when appointing Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh replies to them in Surah An'ām. when He says, "Allāh knows best where He wishes to place His message." (i.e. with whom He wished to entrust it).

People need to ponder about and deliberate over the message brought to them by the Prophets عليهم السلام. They need not question the messenger. The Polytheists of Makkah were foolish enough to regard their denial of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم message as an achievement. It is for this reason that they said, "He [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] would have led us away from our gods if we had not persevered with them."

Allāh replies by saying, "Shortly, when they see the punishment, they will come to know who has strayed most from the path." In this world they considered the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be astray, but the reality of the situation will be exposed to them in the Hereafter. However, it will then be too late to make amends.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh goes on to say, "Have you seen the one who has taken his whims as a deity? Will you be a guardian over him? Or do you think that most of them hear or understand? They are merely like animals, but even more astray." Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in these verses by telling him that he should not consider it his duty to convert people because he cannot force them into anything.

Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "Without doubt, We have revealed to you a Book with the truth for the people. Whoever is rightly guided, is guided for his benefit, and whoever is misguided, then it is to his own detriment. You have not been sent as a warder over them." [Surah 39, verse 41]

Allāh describes the disbelievers as people who bow to the dictates of their whims just like others bow in submission to their deities. Such people cannot be guided, so one should never hope that they will ever hearken to the truth, nor understand it. They have reached a stage where "They are merely like animals, but even more astray."

Animals are not bound to any Shari'ah, so they cannot be criticised for failing to comply with it. People are however constricted to the limitations fixed by the Shari'ah. Therefore, if they fail to comply, they will be regarded as worse than even the animals.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the animals realise that they have to be obedient to their masters and even recognise those who are good to them and those who are not. They know where to eat and sleep, know where to gain benefit and which places and occasions to shun when they anticipate harm.

However, man does not realise that he has to obey his Creator, Master and Sustainer. He does not recognise that Allāh is good to him but he rather follows the dictates of his whims. He does not hasten to do good, which is of benefit to him, but rather continues to sin without perceiving the devastating consequences. The disbeliever is therefore worse than the animals.

"Or do you think that most of them hear or understand?" the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that the word "most of them" is used in this verse because there are those Disbelievers who are destined to believe.

The foregoing verses warn man that he is headed for destruction if he follows the dictates of his carnal self because this will plunge him into the abyss of sin. Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I fear most that my Ummah will follow their whims and entertain lengthy hopes, causing them to forget the Hereafter." ["Mishkāt" p. 444]

Another hadith cites the following three factors as being most destructive. (1) Following the dictates of the carnal self, (2) miserliness and (3) pride, which is the most serious of the three. ["Mishkāt" p. 434]

Although it is the trait of the disbelievers to pander to the wishes of one's carnal self, many Muslims are also guilty of the same crime. They shun the clear teachings of the Qur'ān and Ahadith, and fabricate their own teachings, some of which lead them to disbelief. Some of these people say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had knowledge of the unseen, while others claim that he was not a human. There are also those foolish ones who claim that the Qur'ān was altered and that the vast majority of the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم were disbelievers (Allāh forbid!).

These beliefs have been formulated as a result of worshipping the carnal self (the nafs). There are also many people who carry out certain irreligious practices in the name of Islām. These are all heretic practices that are perpetrated greatly during the months of Muharram, Rabī'ul Awwal, Rajab and Sha'bān.

Hakimul Ummah Thanwi رحمه الله عليه has enumerated many of these in his book "Islāhur Rusūm". These are common in many Muslim regions because they do not require any sanction because of their fallacious and spurious nature.

I (the author of this Tafsīr) was once travelling in the southern part of India, when I happened to be sitting in a Masjid with the Imām. After the Zuhr Adhān had finished, I heard drums being beaten. When I asked the Imām about it, he replied that they beat the drums to inform the women that Adhān was over. I asked him, "Did such a practice take place during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم When he replied in the negative, I asked him why then did they innovate such a practice in the Religion.

I also discovered that the people in that region would not remove any corpse from a house until the family of the deceased distributed sweet roties among the people.

On one of my journeys to Damascus I heard the Mu'adhin (the person who calls out the Adhān) recited Durūd [salutations on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] loudly before calling out the Adhān. The people there also recited Durūd loudly when they saw the Imām mounting the pulpit on a Friday. They continue to do so until he is properly seated upon the pulpit.

There are many such heretic practices throughout the world. When people are told about these, they begin to argue and present fabricated proofs to substantiate their actions. In this way they refute the Qur'ān and Ahadith. This is clearly because of their submission to the dictates of their carnal self (nafs).

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى رَبِّكَ كَيْفَ مَدَّ الظِّلَّ وَلَوْ شَاءَ لَجَعَلَهُ سَاكِنًا ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا الشَّمْسَ عَلَيْهِ
دَلِيلًا ﴿٤٥﴾ ثُمَّ قَبَضْتَهُ إِلَيْنَا قَبْضًا يَسِيرًا ﴿٤٦﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ لِبَاسًا
وَالنَّوْمَ سُبَاتًا وَجَعَلَ النَّهَارَ تُشُورًا ﴿٤٧﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ بُشْرًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ
رَحْمَتِهِ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً طَهُورًا ﴿٤٨﴾ لِنَخْشِيَ بِهِ بَلَدَهُ مَيِّتًا وَنُسْقِيَهُمْ مِمَّا
خَلَقْنَا أَنْعَمًا وَأَنَاسَى كَثِيرًا ﴿٤٩﴾ وَلَقَدْ صَرَفْنَاهُ بَيْنَهُمْ لِيَذْكُرُوا فَآيَاتِ الْكَثْرِ النَّاسِ

إِلَّا كُفُورًا ﴿٥٠﴾ وَلَوْ شِئْنَا لَبَعَثْنَا فِي كُلِّ قَرْيَةٍ نَذِيرًا ﴿٥١﴾ فَلَا تَطِيعُ
الْكَافِرِينَ وَجَاهِدْهُمْ بِهِ جِهَادًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٥٢﴾

(45) Do you not see how your Lord spreads the shadow. If He willed, He could have made it stationary. We then appoint the sun as a sign to it. (46).... Then We gradually withdraw it towards Ourselves. (47) Allāh is the One Who has made the night as a garment, has made sleep a form of rest and has made the day a time to spread out. (48) He is the One Who sends the winds as a conveyer of glad tidings ahead of His mercy. And He sends from the skies water that purifies. (49) "... So that We revive dead land with it and so that We give drinking water to Our creation from the animals and many people. (50) We have certainly distributed it between them so that they take heed, but most people wish only to be ungrateful. (51) If We willed, We would have sent a warner to every village. (52) So do not follow the disbelievers and staunchly oppose them with it.

A MANIFESTATION OF ALLĀH'S MIGHT IN THE SHADOW, THE SUN, THE MOON, THE WINDS AND THE RAIN

Allāh begins by saying, "Do you not see how your Lord spreads the shadow. If He willed, He could have made it stationary." It is commonly observed that shadows are long when the sun rises. Allāh has the might to make the shadow remain that length even as the sun moves across the sky.

"We then appoint the sun as a sign to it. Then We gradually withdraw it towards Ourselves." Allāh has made the moving of the sun as a sign by which the lengths of shadows vary. As the sun moves across the sky, shadows diminish until midday. Thereafter, they begin to grow until sunset. Even though it appears as if the sun causes the variation in shadow lengths, it is actually Allāh Who is controlling everything.

Allāh then continues to say, "Allāh is the One Who has made the night as a garment (because it conceals everything), has made sleep a form of rest..." After a day of work, people usually sleep at night to replenish their strength. The darkness of the night is conducive to sound sleep, whereas sleeping during the day is usually possible only when darkness is created by drawing curtains, etc.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that sleep is the sister of death. It is for this reason that Allāh describes the day as a "time to spread out." The Arabic word "nushūra" (translated above as "time to spread out") is normally used for resurrection on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). During the day, people spread out on earth to perform their various tasks.

Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "Because of His mercy, He (Allāh) has created the day and the night for you so that you may find peace in them, seek from His bounty, and express your gratitude to Him." [Surah 28, verse 73]

Since sleep resembles death, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite the following prayer (du'ā) before sleeping:

[TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! With Your name do I die and rise up."]

WHEN AWAKENING, HE USED TO RECITE:

[TRANSLATION: "All praise be to Allāh, Who has granted us life after causing our deaths, and to Him shall Our return be."]

Allāh then describes the bounty of rain when He says, "He is the One Who sends the winds as a conveyer of glad tidings ahead of His mercy." When people feel the winds that precede rain, they have sufficient time to keep those things under cover that should not get wet.

Allāh then mentions three benefits of rain. The first is that rainwater is "water that purifies." People are able to cleanse themselves and other things with water. People are able to bath, make ablution (wudhu), wash clothes, etc with this water. No other liquid can replace water for this purpose.

The second benefit is that Allāh "revive dead land with it." As a result, the land flourishes with vegetation that is eaten by man and animal alike. Allāh mentions that the third benefit is that He gives "drinking water to Our creation from the animals and many people."

"We have certainly distributed it (rain) between them so that they take heed, but most people wish only to be ungrateful." Allāh sends varying amounts and degrees of rain to different parts of the world, but people are ungrateful for this.

Man's ingratitude often leads him to disbelief. He eats and drinks from what Allāh has provided, yet worships others. Sinning and disobeying Allāh also amounts to ingratitude.

"If We willed, We would have sent a warner to every village." In this way, The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم task would have been lightened. However, Allāh willed that he be blessed with the noble mantle of being the final Prophet to the entire mankind.

The disbelievers left no stone unturned to oppose the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from every front. However, Allāh advises him not to falter in the least, but tells him that he should "not follow the disbelievers and staunchly oppose them with it (i.e. with the Qur'an)."

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ هَذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزًا وَحِجْرًا تَحْجُورًا﴾ ﴿53﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ مِنَ الْمَاءِ بَشَرًا فَجَعَلَهُ نَسَبًا وَصِهْرًا وَكَانَ رَبُّكَ قَدِيرًا ﴿54﴾

(53) It is He Who has merged two seas, the one being sweet and quenching, while the other is salty and bitter. He has created between them a barrier that acts as an impregnable veil. (54) It is He Who has created man from water and has appointed for him relatives by blood and relatives by marriage. Your Lord is Ever Powerful.

ALLĀH'S POWER IS DISPLAYED BY THE MERGING OF TWO CONTRASTING WATERS THAT DO NOT MIX

The above verses describe two more manifestations of Allāh's greatness, both of which are witnessed daily. Allāh begins by saying, "It is He Who has merged two seas, the one being sweet and quenching, while the other is salty and bitter. He has created between them a (invisible) barrier that acts as an impregnable veil."

Allāh says in Surah Rahmān, "Between the two (waters) is a barrier so that the two do not transgress i.e. do not trespass their limits." Although no apparent barrier can be seen, Allāh's power causes the two water masses not to mingle. In this manner, each water body maintains its own properties and characteristics.

Allāh has created everything with their own peculiarities, and they all function accordingly. However, they may function contrary to their inherent characteristics when Allāh wills. An example of this was when the fire did not burn Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. Another example is that the waters of the various seas and rivers do not mix when Allāh does not allow them to.

In his Tafsīr, Sayyidina Maulana Shabbir Uthmāni رحمه الله عليه quotes from "Bayānul Qur'ān" that two reliable Bangali Ulema (Scholars) testified to the fact that the river running between Arkān and Chātgam has two distinctly discernable types of water. Even from a distance it can be noticed that the one type of water is white, while the other is black.

They say that the black water resembles the water of the ocean because of its turbulent nature, having waves crashing to and fro. On the other hand, the white water is completely calm and boats travel in it. Both these waters flow side by side, yet they never mix. People say that white water is sweet, while the black water is salty.

I (the author of this Tafsīr) have heard from the students of a district in India called Bārisāl that two tributaries emerging from the same river have different water types. The water of the one tributary is extremely bitter and salty, while that of the other is extremely pleasant and sweet.

Many reliable people of Dhabel (near Surat, India) have told me (the author) that, during certain seasons, when the seawater enters the rivers of the area, the two waters never mix. While the seawater flows strongly on the surface, the river water remains at the bottom. The verse of the Qur'ān is strongly substantiated by these eyewitness accounts.

Another interpretation of the verse is that Allāh has created the various water bodies on earth to flow in their respective locations. They are all separated by landmasses and are not allowed to mix with each other, thereby destroying everything in between. At the same time, they maintain their own properties. It has never occurred that sweet water turned salty, nor vice versa.

Another exposition of Allāh's power is that He "has created man from water and has appointed for him relatives by blood and relatives by marriage..." i.e. Allāh created man from a drop of semen. Allāh has created sexual passion in humans, which they satisfy by marrying and begetting children. The marriage also joins families together and every person thus has two families – his mother's and his father's.

Allāh fosters love between these families, who continue to expand and grow as they marry into other families. Allāh has mentioned just these few signs of His power and then says, "Your Lord is Ever Powerful." He has created many more things that no other can ever hope to match.

وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ وَلَا يَضُرُّهُمْ وَكَانَ الْكَافِرُ عَلَى رَبِّهِ ظَهِيرًا ﴿٥٥﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا ﴿٥٦﴾ قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ﴿٥٧﴾ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَىٰ الْحَيِّ الَّذِي لَا يَمُوتُ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِهِ وَكَفَىٰ بِهِ بُذُوبَ عِبَادِهِ خَيْرًا ﴿٥٨﴾ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ الرَّحْمَنُ فَسَلِّ بِهِ خَيْرًا ﴿٥٩﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ اسْجُدُوا لِلرَّحْمَنِ قَالُوا وَمَا الرَّحْمَنُ أَنَسْجُدُ لِمَا تَأْمُرُنَا وَزَادَهُمْ نُفُورًا ﴿٦٠﴾ نَبَارَكَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ فِي السَّمَاءِ بُرُوجًا وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا سِرَاجًا مُنِيرًا ﴿٦١﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ خِلْفَةً لِمَنْ أَرَادَ أَنْ يَذَّكَّرَ أَوْ أَرَادَ شُكُورًا ﴿٦٢﴾

(55) Besides Allāh they worship things that do not benefit them, nor harm them. The disbeliever was ever opposed to his Lord. (56) We have sent you only as a conveyer of glad tidings and a warner. (57) Say, I do not ask you for any remuneration except for the person who wishes to tread a path towards his Lord. (58) Rely only on The Living, Who cannot die and glorify His praises. Allāh suffices as the Knower of His bondsmen's sins. (59) It was He Who created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them in six days, and then rose to the Throne. He is the Most Merciful, so enquire about Him from one who is knowledgeable. (60) When they are told, "Prostrate to Rahmān," they say, "What is Rahmān? Should we prostrate to what you command us?" Their hatred then only increases. (61) Blessed is the Being Who created gigantic stars in the sky and placed the sun and the luminous moon in it. (62) It is He Who has appointed the night and the day in succession for the one who intends to take heed or who intends to be grateful

ALLĀH CREATED THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH IN SIX DAYS, AND MADE DAY AND NIGHT SUCCESSORS TO EACH OTHER

Allāh depicts the foolishness of the Polytheists when He says, "Besides Allāh they worship things that do not benefit them, nor harm them. The disbeliever was ever opposed to his Lord." i.e. he behaves as if he is opposed to Allāh because he carries out the deeds that displease Allāh the most.

The Arabic word "dhahira" (translated above as "opposed to") actually refers to an aide or ally. However, when it is used with the conjunction "alā" it would be translated as "an aide against" someone (thus giving the meaning of an opponent).

The verse applies to all the disbelievers. They are constantly plotting against Islām and are allies of Satan (Shaytān). They are also allied to each other against the Muslims, irrespective of their religious denominations.

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "We have sent you only as a conveyer of glad tidings and a warner." His duty was to propagate the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd). Allāh exhorts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to grieve if anyone rejected the message, for he could not force anyone to believe.

Allāh then instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say, I do not ask you for any remuneration except for (the fact that I want to see) the person who wishes to tread a path towards his Lord (by accepting Islām)." There were no ulterior motives behind the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم task. It was therefore necessary that people gave him a hearing and deliberated over his message.

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further by saying, "Rely only on The Living (Allāh), Who cannot die..." Only Allāh can alleviate opposition and assist against one's enemies. At the same time, he should fervently "glorify His praises." Here the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is commanded never to fail in Praises (Tasbīh) and glorification (Tahmīd) because these will draw Allāh's assistance and aid in removing difficulties.

"Allāh suffices as the Knower of His bondsmen's sins." Allāh will punish people according to their sins because He knows exactly who opposes His religion and His the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"It was He (Allāh) Who created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them in six days, and then rose to the Throne..."

The creation of the heavens and the earth in six days is also mentioned in Surah HāMim Sajdah [Surah 41, verse 12].

The pious predecessors and the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم have mentioned that the human mind is incapable of perceiving exactly what is meant by this verse and other such verses, even though the words can be understood. Therefore, we should believe in them and should not pursue their explanation. Refer to the commentary of verse 54 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) for further details.

When someone asked Imām Mālik رحمه الله the meaning of this verse, he broke out in a sweat. After a period of silence, he said, "The meaning of the word is known, the interpretation is beyond understanding, belief in it is compulsory and questioning it is an innovation." He then told the questioner, "It seems to me that you are a deviant person." Thereafter he removed him from the gathering. [Ma'ālimut Tanzīl v. 2 p. 165]

"He (Who has been described above) is the Most Merciful so enquire about Him from one who is knowledgeable." Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to learn more about His attributes from Allāh Himself, or from Jibr'il عليه السلام, or the scholars of the previous divine scriptures.

"When they are told, 'Prostrate to Rahmān;' they say (because of their obstinacy and ignorance), "What is Rahmān? Should we prostrate to what you command us?" Their arrogance and rebelliousness do not permit them to listen to any other. Therefore Allāh says, "Their hatred then only increases." Instead of drawing closer, they grow more distant.

"Blessed is the Being Who created gigantic stars in the sky and placed the sun and the luminous moon in it. It is He Who has appointed the night and the day in succession for the one who intends to take heed or intends to be grateful." Allāh draws man's attention to the fact that He created everything in the universe and that man should derive a lesson from all of this. By viewing the greatness of the creation, he should learn that Allāh is even Greater and the True Deity.

وَعِبَادُ الرَّحْمَنِ الَّذِينَ يَمْشُونَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ هَوْنًا وَإِذَا خَاطَبَهُمُ الْجَاهِلُونَ قَالُوا سَلَامًا ﴿٦٣﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَسْتَوُونَ لِرَبِّهِمْ سُجَّدًا وَقِيَامًا ﴿٦٤﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا اصْرِفْ عَنَّا عَذَابَ جَهَنَّمَ إِنَّ عَذَابَهَا كَانَ غَرَامًا ﴿٦٥﴾ إِنَّهَا سَاءَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَمُقَامًا ﴿٦٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَنْفَقُوا لَمْ يُسْرِفُوا وَلَمْ يَقْتُرُوا وَكَانَ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ قَوَامًا ﴿٦٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَدْعُونَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ وَلَا يَقْتُلُونَ النَّفْسَ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا يَزْنُونَ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَلِكَ يَلْقَ أَثَامًا ﴿٦٨﴾ يُضَاعَفْ لَهُ الْعَذَابُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَيَخْلُدْ فِيهِ مُهَانًا ﴿٦٩﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ يُبَدِّلُ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ حَسَنَاتٍ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ﴿٧٠﴾ وَمَنْ تَابَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَإِنَّهُ يَتُوبُ إِلَى اللَّهِ مَتَابًا ﴿٧١﴾ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَشْهَدُونَ الزُّورَ وَإِذَا مَرُّوا بِاللَّغْوِ مَرُّوا كِرَامًا ﴿٧٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ لَمْ يَخِرُّوا عَلَيْهَا صُمًّا وَعُمْيَانًا ﴿٧٣﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا مِنْ أَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا قُرَّةَ أَعْيُنٍ وَاجْعَلْ لَنَا لِمُنْفِقِينَ إِمَامًا ﴿٧٤﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرَّةَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا وَيُلَقَّوْنَ فِيهَا نَجْوَةً وَسَلَامًا ﴿٧٥﴾ فَمِنْهَا حَسَنٌ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَمُقَامًا ﴿٧٦﴾ قُلْ مَا يَعْبَأُكُمْ رَبِّي لَوْلَا دُعَاؤُكُمْ فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ فَسَوْفَ يَكُونُ لِزَامًا ﴿٧٧﴾

(63) Rahmān's bondsmen are those who walk on earth in humility and, when the ignorant talk to them, they (excuse themselves) saying, "Peace." (64) Those who spend the night in prostrating and standing before their Lord. (65) Those who say, "O our Lord! Avert the punishment of Hell from us. Verily its punishment is devastating indeed!" (66) "It is surely an evil residence and abode." (67) Those who, when they spend, are neither extravagant nor miserly, but are rather stationed in moderation between the two (extremes). (68) Those who do not call to another deity with Allāh, who only kill a soul forbidden by Allāh with a warrant, and who do not fornicate. Whoever perpetrates these shall meet with a grave punishment... (69) Punishment will be multiplied for him on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) and he shall remain disgraced therein forever... (70) "..... Save for those who repent, believe and perform good deeds. For such people Allāh will convert their sins into good deeds. Allāh is Ever Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (71) Whoever repents and performs good deeds has certainly turned to Allāh in earnestness. (72) And those who do not engage in acts of deceit and, when they pass by frivolous acts, they pass by gracefully. (73) Those who, when they are reminded by the verses of their Lord, do not fall down deaf and blind. (74) Those who say, "O our Lord! Accord to us the coolness of our eyes from our spouses and children, and make us leaders of the pious." (75) These people, because of their steadfastness, shall be rewarded with balconies, where they will receive prayers of eternal life and peace. (76) They will abide therein forever. It is surely a beautiful residence and abode. (77) Say, "My Lord would not concern Himself with you if it had not been for your supplication. You have surely denied and the consequences will shortly be realised."

A DESCRIPTION OF ALLĀH'S TRUE BONDSMEN

Allāh accords to the pious Believers (Mu'minīn) the venerable title of, "Rahmān's bondsmen." This is the first description of the pious men. Although all of mankind are Allāh's slaves, this title is used for those who willingly devote themselves to Allāh's worship with conviction and sincerity. The title of being Allāh's slave is the highest honour that any person can achieve. It is with this title that Allāh describes His noblest of creation, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when He says, "Pure is that Being Who transported His slave by night from Masjidul Harām to Masjidul Aqsa..." [Surah Bani Isrā'il (17), verse 1]

Allāh describes them further by saying that they are "those who walk on earth in humility. .." i.e. without pride and arrogance. Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "And do not walk haughtily on earth. You can certainly not cleave the earth, nor can you reach the mountains in height." [Surah 17, verse 37]

The third description given of them is that "when the ignorant talk to them, they (excuse themselves) saying, 'Peace." - When the ignorant want to begin an argument with them, they excuse themselves and take leave, greeting them with "Salām" ("Peace").

Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "When they hear futility, they turn away from it saying, 'Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours. We greet you with peace. We do not wish to converse with the ignorant.'" In the same strain, Allāh says in verse 72 of Surah Furqān, "when they pass by frivolous acts, they pass by gracefully."

They are people who do not waste their time arguing with the ignorant and never reply to their harsh and rude words. They keep themselves aloof from the frivolous pastimes of others. This is the typical behaviour of noble and upright people.

Allāh then describes the fourth quality when he says that they are "Those who spend the night in prostrating and standing before their Lord. Their perpetual worship does not permit them to sleep at nights."

Allāh says in Surah Dhāriyāt, "Verily the abstinent ones shall be in gardens and springs receiving what their Lord confers to them. Indeed these people used to carry out good deeds before. Little was it that they slept at night and during the closing portions of the night they would be seeking forgiveness (from Allāh)." [Surah 51, verses 15-18]

Allāh then mentions their fifth attribute when he says that they are "Those who say, 'O our Lord! Avert the punishment of Hell from us. Verily its punishment is devastating indeed! It is surely an evil residence and abode." Although the real meaning of the word "gharāma" (translated above as "devastating") is 'incumbent' and 'binding,' the above translation has been made because when punishment becomes incumbent on a person, it will surely annihilate him. Allāh's pious bondsmen carry out good deeds, refrain from sins and also seek Allāh's refuge from punishment.

Allāh says in Surah Mu'minūn, "...those who spend of what they have been granted and whose hearts tremble because they have to return to their Lord." i.e. they are worried whether their deeds will be accepted or not.

"Those who, when they spend, are neither extravagant nor miserly, but are rather stationed in moderation between the two -(extremes)." The Shari'ah encourages moderation in all matters. Just as it is not permissible to spend Lawful (Halāl) wealth in unlawful (Harām) avenues, it is equally not permissible to spend it wastefully in Lawful (Halāl) avenues.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that moderation in spending is half of a good livelihood. In other words, working to earn a Lawful (Halāl) livelihood is one half of a good livelihood, and the other half will be achieved when this earned wealth is spent with moderation on oneself, one's family, parents and the needy.

Only those people may spend all their wealth for Allāh's pleasure who have complete reliance on Allāh and who will not be affected in any way when spending in this manner. An example of such a person was Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. He spent everything he had on the military expedition to Tabūk. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him what he left for his family, he replied, "I have left Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with them (i.e. the pleasure of Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is sufficient for them)." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 556]

Allāh then mentions the sixth quality of His sincere bondsmen. He says that they are "Those who do not call to another deity with Allāh..." i.e. they are not Polytheists, and adhere fast to oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd).

Allāh continues to describe the seventh and eighth qualities when he says that they are those who "only kill a soul forbidden by Allāh with a warrant, and who do not fornicate." They will kill another person only if it is proven that he murdered another, turned apostate, or committed adultery as a married person. In each of these cases they will be acting in conformance with the Shari'ah.

"Whoever perpetrates these shall meet with a grave punishment..." Certain commentators have mentioned that the Arabic word "athāma (translated above as "a grave punishment") is another name for Hell.

"Punishment will be multiplied for him on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) and he shall remain disgraced therein forever..." This verse describes the punishment of a disbeliever because only the disbelievers will dwell forever in Hell.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that someone asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "What is the worst sin?" "That you ascribe partners to Allāh, whereas Allāh created you," was the reply. When the person asked to know which sin followed, the reply was, "That you kill your children fearing that they will share your food (for fear of poverty)."

"Which sin comes next?" he asked. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That you commit adultery with your neighbour's wife." (Although adultery is always unlawful (Harām), it will be worse when committed with a one's neighbour's wife). It was then that Allāh revealed the verse "Those who do not call to another deity with Allāh, who only kill a soul forbidden by Allāh with a warrant, and who do not fornicate." [Bukhari p. 701]

"....Save for those who repent, believe and perform good deeds. For such people Allāh will convert their sins into good deeds. Allāh is Ever Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." This verse makes it clear that the doors of repentance are forever open to the disbelievers as well.

Sayyidina Amr bin Al' Ās رضى الله عنه reports that when he accepted Islām, he told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he will pledge his allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on condition that Allāh forgives him. Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O Amr! Do you not know that Islām destroys all (sins) before it?" [Muslim v. 1 p. 76]

In the interpretation of the above verse, 'Ruhul Ma'āni' reports from Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) Allāh will instruct that the minor sins of a person be presented before him, while the major sins be kept aside. When he is asked if he committed these sins, he will admit to them all, fearing that he will not be able to reply for the major sins that are still pending. Allāh will then command that all his sins be converted to good deeds."

"The person will then say, 'But there are still many more sins that I do not see here.' (He will say this in anticipation that these will also be converted to good deeds)." Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه says that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said this part, he smiled, causing his blessed teeth to be seen. ["Mishkāt" p. 92]

This hadith tells us that sins will be forgiven and that an equivalent amount of good deeds will be recorded to the person's name. This interpretation is necessary because no sin can become a virtue. Other commentators say that sins will be forgiven after a person is inspired to repent. They will then be replaced by his future good deeds. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

"Whoever repents and performs good deeds has certainly turned to Allāh in earnestness." Such a person fears Allāh's punishment, repents sincerely and resolves never to sin again.

Allāh then describes the tenth quality of His bondsmen. Allāh says that they are "those who do not engage in acts of deceit..." Acts of deceit refer to all deeds that are contrary to the Shari'ah. Just as everyone understands that sinful deeds are forbidden, it should also be understood that it is also forbidden to be present in gatherings where sins are perpetrated. A Muslim should never go to temples and ceremonies of the polytheists and the disbelievers. They must also refrain from attending places where singing, dancing and drinking liquor takes place, even though they may not be participating.

Being present in such places increases the numbers in attendance, which is also forbidden. Secondly, attending these places causes the heart to darken, to harden, and decreases one's capacity to perform good deeds. Frequenting these places extinguishes all desire for good deeds within one's heart and makes one grow accustomed to sin.

The wedding ceremonies that take place nowadays are infested with sin. Photos, videos, dancing, singing and all other vices pollute the affair, thus making it unlawful (Harām) to attend. Muslims should stay far from these functions for the safety of their Imān.

Other commentators have interpreted the above verse to mean that the "bondsmen of Rahmān" do not give false evidence and testimony. False testimony is a major sin. In fact, certain Ahadith state that it is the worst of all sins.

Sayyidina Khuraim bin Fātik رضى الله عنه narrates that once after the Fajr Salāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم thrice announced, "Giving false testimony is tantamount to polytheism (shirk)!" Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the following verse of Surah Hajj "So abstain from the impurity of idols and abstain from false talk in a state that you are inclined only towards Allāh, not ascribing any partners to Him." { Abu Dawūd }

".... when they pass by frivolous acts, they pass by gracefully." This is the eleventh quality of the "bondsmen of Rahmān." They detest gatherings in which people indulge in frivolous and futile things. They pass by without giving it a second glance. Even if someone from the gatherings invites them to participate, they ignore the call and hasten by.

"Those who, when they are reminded by the verses of their Lord, do not fall down deaf and blind." They pay heed to the advice of the Qur'ān, exert themselves to understand these, and act accordingly. This is the distinctive quality of all believers (Mu'minīn).

Describing the thirteenth quality, Allāh says that they are "Those who say, 'O our Lord! Accord to us the coolness of our eyes from our spouses and children....'" They pray to Allāh to make their spouses and children pious, obedient and a source of comfort and solace for them.

Pious people are just as concerned about the spiritual welfare of their families as they are with their material welfare. They pay attention to the religious education and upbringing of their children. If children are physically sound and healthy, but lacking in their spiritual welfare, they will be a burden and curse to their parents instead of a blessing.

The “bondsmen of Rahmān” also pray to Allāh to make them “leaders of the pious.” It is evident that a person can be a leader of the pious only when he himself is pious. The “bondsmen of Rahmān” do not only pray for their families, but for themselves as well. They ask Allāh to make them righteous enough so that others may be inspired by their piety and follow suit. This prayer (du‘ā) teaches us that there is no harm in supplicating to Allāh for spiritual leadership.

After describing the “bondsmen of Rahmān” Allāh declares, “These people, because of their steadfastness, shall be rewarded with balconies...”

Allāh says in Surah Saba, “For these people there shall be a double reward on account of what they do, and they shall rest peacefully on balconies.” [Surah 34, verse 37]

Sayyidina Abu Sa’id Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Verily, the people of Heaven will gaze towards the higher balconies just as you look towards the stars that are far past the easterly and westerly horizons. This difference will be because of the difference in ranks.” The Sahābah رضى الله عنهم added, “These must be the ranks of the Prophets عليهم السلام. None will be able to reach their ranks.”

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “I swear by the Being in Whose control lies my life! These will be those who believe in Allāh and in the Prophets عليهم السلام.” [Bukhari p. 461]

Sayyidina Abu Mālik Ash’ari رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that there are balconies in Heaven, the inside of which can be seen from outside and vice versa. These are reserved for those people who speak softly, feed others, fast often and perform Salāh by night while others are asleep.

Allāh continues to Say that in Heaven, the “bondsmen of Rahmān” will “will receive prayers of eternal life (from the angels) and peace.” The angels will also greet them with salām, as mentioned in Surah Zumar, “Peace be on you! May you be pleased. Enter therein to abide forever.” [Surah 39, verse 73]

Allāh says in the same strain, “They will abide therein forever. It is surely a beautiful residence and abode.”

“Say, ‘My Lord would not concern Himself with you if it had not been for your supplication.’” One of the interpretations of this verse is that it is addressed to the believers (Mu’minīn). Allāh tells them that if they were not worshipping Him, they would have no value in His estimation.

Allāh then addresses the disbelievers saying, “You have surely denied, and the consequences will shortly be realised (when you will be punished).” Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه says that the “consequences” refers to the battle of Badr, where the disbelievers leaders were killed.

سورة الشعراء

Makkan

Surah Ash-Shuara

Verses 227

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

طَسَّرَ ﴿١﴾ نَالِكَ ءَايَتِ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ﴿٢﴾ لَعَلَّكَ بَلِغٌ قَلْبِكَ أَلَّا يَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٣﴾
 إِنْ شَاءَ نُنْزِلْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ ءَايَةً فَظَلَّتْ أَعْنَاقُهُمْ لَهَا خَاضِعِينَ ﴿٤﴾ وَمَا يَأْنِيهِمْ مِنْ ذِكْرِ
 مِنَ الرَّحْمَنِ مُحَدِّثٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا عَنْهُ مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٥﴾ فَقَدْ كَذَّبُوا فَسَيَأْتِيهِمْ أَنْبَاءُ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ
 يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٦﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الْأَرْضِ كَمْ أَنْبَأْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ
 لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٩﴾

In the name of Allāh, The Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

- (1) Tā Sīn Mīm. (2) These are the verses of the Clear Book. (3) It seems like you will destroy yourself because they are not believing. (4) If We willed, We would have revealed a great sign to them from the sky, causing their necks to bow before it in humility. (5) Whenever any new advice from Compassionate (Rahmān) comes to them, they are averse to it. (6) They have certainly denied, so shortly the news of what they used to mock at will come to them. (7) Have they not Seen the earth and how We cause every impeccable species to grow there? (8) There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (9) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

CONSOLATION FOR THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ AND A WARNING FOR THE DISBELIEVERS

"Ma'alimut Tanzil" (v.3 p. 381) reports that the Holy Prophet ﷺ was extremely distressed when the Polytheists refused to accept his message. To console him Allāh revealed the verse, "It seems like you will destroy yourself because they are not believing." Allāh tells the Holy Prophet ﷺ not to cause himself so much grief because his duty was merely to convey the message.

"If We willed, We would have revealed a great sign to them from the sky, causing their necks to bow before it in humility." Allāh says in this verse that He could force them all to believe. However, Allāh has granted every person the choice to do as he pleases because there is no compulsion in religion (Islām).

Describing the attitude of the disbelievers, Allāh says, "Whenever any new advice from Rahmān comes to them, they are averse to it. They have certainly denied, so shortly the news (punishment) of what they used to mock at will come to them." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that the punishment for mockery is described as "news" because the disbelievers received the news of this pending punishment in the Qur'ān.

Allāh then describes His creative power when He says, "Have they not Seen the earth and how We cause every impeccable species to grow in (from which man and animal eat)? There is certainly a great sign (denoting Allāh's greatness and oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd)) in this. However, most of them do not believe."

"Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful." The disbelievers are warned that Allāh certainly has the might to take them to task for their deeds. However, if they choose to repent and believe it is never too late because Allāh can forgive.

وَإِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبُّكَ مُوسَىٰٓ أَنِ أَنْتَ الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ ۖ أَلَا يَنْفِقُونَ ﴿١١﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ
إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَن يُكَذِّبُونِ ﴿١٢﴾ وَصِصِيقُ صَدْرِي وَلَا يَنْطَلِقُ لِسَانِي فَأَرْسِلْ إِلَىٰ هَرُونَ ﴿١٣﴾
وَلَهُمْ عَلَىٰ ذَنْبٍ فَأَخَافُ أَن يَقْتُلُونِ ﴿١٤﴾ قَالَ كَلَّا ۖ فَادْهَبَا بِإِيتَانِنَا ۖ إِنَّا مَعَكُمْ
مُسْتَمِعُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ فَاتِيَا فِرْعَوْنَ فَقُولَا إِنَّا رَسُولُ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ أَن أَرْسِلَ مَعَنَا بَنِي
إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿١٧﴾ قَالَ أَلَمْ نُرَبِّكَ فِينَا وَلِيدًا وَلَبِثْتَ فِينَا مِنْ عُمُرِكَ سِنِينَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَفَعَلْتَ
فَعَلَتَكَ ۖ إِنِّي فَعَلْتُ وَأَنْتَ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ قَالَ فَعَلْنَاهَا إِذَا وَأَنَا مِنَ الضَّالِّينَ ﴿٢٠﴾
فَقَرَرْتُ مِنْكُمْ لَمَّا خِفْتُكُمْ فَوَهَبَ لِي رَبِّي حُكْمًا وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَتِلْكَ
نِعْمَةٌ تَمُنُّهَا عَلَىٰ أَن عَبَّدَتْ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٢٢﴾ قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ وَمَا رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٢٣﴾ قَالَ
رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا ۖ إِن كُنْتُمْ مُوقِنِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ قَالَ لِمَنْ حَوْلَهُ ۖ أَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾
قَالَ رَجُلٌ مِّنْهُمْ ۖ وَرَبِّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٢٦﴾ قَالَ إِنَّ رَسُولَكُمْ الَّذِي أُرْسِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ
لَمَجْنُونٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ قَالَ رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا ۖ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ قَالَ لِّمَنِ
اتَّخَذَتِ إِلَٰهًا غَيْرِي لِجَعَلْتَنكَ مِنَ الْمَسْجُونِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ قَالَ أُولُو حِشَّتِكَ ۖ شَيْءٌ مُِّبِينٌ
﴿٣٠﴾ قَالَ فَأْتِ بِهِ ۖ إِن كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ فَأَلْقَىٰ عَصَاهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ ثُعْبَانٌ مُِّبِينٌ ﴿٣٢﴾
وَنَزَعَ يَدَهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ بِيضَاءٌ لِلنَّظِيرِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾

(11) "... The nation of Fir'aun. Do they not fear Allāh?" (12) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! I fear that they will falsify me." (13) "(And I fear that) my chest would be constricted and that my tongue will not be able to move. So send for Hārūn." (14) "They also have a charge against me and I fear that they will kill me." (15) Allāh said, "Never! The two of you should proceed with Our signs. We are definitely listening well with you two." (16) "Go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and tell him, 'We are messengers of the Lord of the universe...' (17) "... (bearing the message) that you send the Bani Isrā'īl with us." (18) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Did we not raise you among us as a newborn child? And did you not live with us for many years of your life?" (19) "You committed the deed that you did and you were ungrateful." (20) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "I did it at that time when I was from the mistaken ones." (21) "I then fled from you people when I feared you. My Lord then conferred wisdom on me and included me among the apostles." (22) "The favour that you remind me of was because you enslaved the Bani Isrā'īl" (23) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "What is the Lord of the universe?" (24) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "The Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two; if you will be convinced." (25) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said to those around him, "Do you hear?" (26) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "He is your Lord and the Lord of your forefathers." (27) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Indeed your messenger who has been sent to you is certainly insane." (28) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "He is the Lord of the East, the West and whatever is between the two; if you can understand." (29) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "If you take another as a deity besides myself, I shall definitely make you of the prisoners!" (30) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "Even if I bring you a clear proof?" (31) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said "Bring it if you are truthful." (32) So Mūsa عليه السلام cast down his staff and it suddenly became a manifest serpent. (33) And he withdrew his hand, which instantly turned white for all to see.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA AND HĀRŪN عَلَيْهِمَا السَّلَام CONVERSE WITH PHARAOH (FIR'AUN)

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was born to a woman of the Bani Isrā'īl who were then living in Egypt. Pharaoh (Fir'aun), the Pharaoh of Egypt, was an arch enemy of the Bani Isrā'īl. He used to kill the sons born to the Bani Isrā'īl and keep the girls in his service. Allāh inspired the mother of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to place him in a basket, which was then cast down a river.

Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) wife found the basket and convinced Pharaoh (Fir'aun) to adopt the child as his own. However, the child refused to suckle from anyone. Eventually Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام sister told Pharaoh (Fir'aun) to employ her mother to suckle the child. This was done, thereby allowing Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to be returned to his mother, although temporarily. He grew up in Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) palace until he became a young man.

It once occurred that when assisting a person of the Bani Isrā'īl, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام mistakenly killed a Copt. He was then advised to leave Egypt when the news spread. He then went to Madyan, where he married and lived for ten years as a shepherd.

On his return from Madyan after ten years, he was travelling in the desert, when he saw what appeared to be a fire. Bidding his wife to tarry while he collected some flames to stoke a fire of their own, or so that he could find a guide, he proceeded to the fire. However, it was really not a fire, and it was there that Allāh made him a Prophet. Allāh then commanded him to preach the message of Tauhid to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his people.

Allāh told him, "Go to the oppressive nation, the nation of Pharaoh (Fir'aun). Do they not fear Allāh?" Mūsa عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! I fear that they will falsify me. (And I fear that) my chest would be constricted and that my tongue will not be able to move. So send for Hārūn (so that he could assist me in the task).

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام continued to beseech Allāh saying, "They also have a charge against me (because I killed the Copt) and I fear that they will kill me."

Allāh accepted the request of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and made Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام a Prophet as well and said in reply to Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام apprehensions, "Never! (They will never be able to kill you) The two of you should proceed with Our signs. We are definitely listening well with you two. Go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and tell him, 'We are messengers of the Lord of the universe (bearing the message) that you send the Bani Isrā'il with us."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام then took Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام with him to pharaoh (Fir'aun). Upon reaching Egypt, they proceeded to convey the message to pharaoh (Fir'aun). Thereupon, "Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, 'Did we not raise you among us as a newborn child? And did you not live with us for many years of your life? You committed the deed that you did and (by killing the Copt. You were supposed to have been grateful to us for our favours on you. However) you were ungrateful."

Confessing to his error, 'Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'I did it at that time when I was from the mistaken ones.'" The death of the Copt was a sheer accident. However, the Copts were unforgiving and resolved to execute Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Referring to this, he told pharaoh (Fir'aun), 'I then fled from you people when I feared you. My Lord then conferred wisdom on me and included me among the apostles."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام continued to tell Pharaoh (Fir'aun), "The favour that you remind me of was because you enslaved the Bani Isrā'il." In this brief statement, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام tells pharaoh (Fir'aun) that he was forced to raise Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام as a child because of his oppressive behaviour towards the Bani Isrā'il. If he had not started killing the boys of the Bani Isrā'il and enslaving the others, Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام mother would not have cast her child into the river. Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) wife would then never have found him and convinced her husband to raise him.

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) reminded Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام of the one person whom he killed by mistake, yet he never thought to mention the thousands that he killed oppressively. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) sought to conceal his atrocities by mentioning his one favour to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) claimed to be the Lord of the universe. Therefore, when Sayyidina Mūsa and Hārūn عليه السلام told him, 'We are the messengers of the Lord of the universe," he asked them "What is the Lord of the universe?" With the question, he started to interrogate the two messengers so that his courtiers could be satisfied with him. Some questions have also been mentioned in verses 49 to 53 of Surah TāHā (Surah 20).

In response to his first question, "Mūsa عليه السلام said, '(The Lord of the universe is) The Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two; if you will be convinced.'"

Since his courtiers had never heard this before, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) laughingly said to them. "Do you hear?" Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام added by saying about Allāh that "He is your Lord and the Lord of your forefathers." Dumbstruck by this assertion, all Pharaoh (Fir'aun) could say to his courtiers was, "Indeed your messenger who has been sent to you is certainly insane." Here Pharaoh (Fir'aun) used the same line against Allāh's Holy Prophets that other nations used to say about the other Prophets عليهم السلام.

"Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'He is the Lord of the East, the West and whatever is between the two; if you can understand (then accept what we say).' Adopting the stance of tyrants who are unable to hold their own without using force, "Fir'oun said, 'If you take another as a deity besides myself I shall definitely make you of the prisoners!'"

Undeterred by Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) threats, "Mūsa عليه السلام said, '(Will you imprison me) Even if I bring you a clear proof?' Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, 'Bring it if you are truthful.'

"So Mūsa عليه السلام cast down his staff and it suddenly became a manifest serpent. And he withdrew his hand, which instantly turned (shining) white for all to see." These were two of the miracles that Allāh had given to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

Ibn Kathir (v. 3 p. 233) reports that Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام hand shone as bright as a piece of the moon. Thereafter Pharaoh (Fir'aun) called for his magicians to challenge Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, as will be presently' explained.

قَالَ لِلْمَلَإِ حَوْلَهُ إِنَّ هَذَا لَسَاحِرٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُخْرِجَكُمْ مِنْ أَرْضِكُمْ بِسِحْرِهِ
فَمَاذَا تَأْمُرُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ قَالُوا أَرْجِهْ وَأَخَاهُ وَأَتَّبِعْ فِي الدِّينِ حَشِيرِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ يَا ثَوَكُ
بِكُلِّ سَحَّارٍ عَلِيمٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ فَجُمِعَ السَّحَرَةُ لِمِيقَاتِ يَوْمٍ مَعْلُومٍ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَقِيلَ لِلنَّاسِ
هَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُجْتَمِعُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ لَعَلَّآ نَتَّبِعُ السَّحَرَةَ إِنْ كَانُوا هُمْ الْغَالِبِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ السَّحَرَةُ
قَالُوا لِفِرْعَوْنَ أَإِنَّا لَأَعِزُّونَ إِنَّ كُنَّا نَحْنُ الْغَالِبِينَ ﴿٤١﴾ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَإِنَّكُمْ إِذَا لَمِنَ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ
﴿٤٢﴾ قَالَ هُمْ مُوسَى أَقْبُوا مَا أَنْتُمْ مُنْقِفُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ فَأَقْبُوا جِبَاهَهُمْ وَعَصِيَّتَهُمْ وَقَالُوا بَعْرَةٌ
فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الْغَالِبُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَأَلْقَى مُوسَى عَصَاهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ تَلْقَفُ مَا يَأْفِكُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾
فَأَلْقَى السَّحَرَةُ سِهْنَهُمْ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ رَبِّ مُوسَى وَهَارُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ قَالَ
ءَاَمَنْتُمْ لَمْ يَبَلْ أَنْ ءَاذَنَ لَكُمْ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَايِرُكُمْ الَّذِي عَلَّمَكُمُ السِّحْرَ فَلَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ
لَأَقْطِعَنَّ أَيْدِيَكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ مِنْ خَلْفٍ وَلَأَصْلَبَنَّكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ قَالُوا لَا ضَيْرَ لَنَا إِنَّا إِلَى

رَبَّنَا مُنْقِلُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ إِنَّا نَطْمَعُ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ لَنَا رَبُّنَا خَطِيئَتَنَا أَنْ كُنَّا أَوَّلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٥١﴾

(34) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said to the ministers around him, "This is certainly a knowledgeable magician." (35) ".....He intends to expel you from your land with his magic. What do you advise?" (36) They replied, "Grant him and his brother respite while you dispatch recruiters to the towns..." (37) "...who will bring every learned magician to you." (38) So the magicians were gathered for an appointment on the specified day. (39) The people were asked, "Have you all gathered?" (40) "Perhaps we should follow the magicians if they emerge as victors." (41) When the magicians came, they asked Pharaoh (Fir'aun), "Shall we receive any prize if we are victorious?" (42) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Certainly! Then you shall be from those who are close to me." (43) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "Throw what you wish to throw." (44) So they threw their ropes and staffs saying, "By Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) honour! We shall certainly be the victors!" (45) Then Mūsa threw his staff, which instantly swallowed what they conjured. (46) The magicians were cast down in prostration. (47) They submitted, "We believe in the Lord of the universe... (48) "... in the Lord of Mūsa and Hārūn." (49) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Have you believed in him before I could permit you? He must certainly be your leader who has taught you magic! You shall shortly come to learn! I will amputate your hands and feet from opposite sides and crucify all of you!" (50) They said, "It matters not. We shall surely return to our Lord." (51) "We desire that our Lord forgive our sins because we have been the first believers."

PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) CALLS THE MAGICIANS TO CHALLENGE SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام, BUT THEY ARE DEFEATED AND BELIEVE IN ALLĀH

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) was unable to reply to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, but needed to maintain his sway over the people. Therefore, "Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said to the ministers around him, 'This is certainly a knowledgeable magician. He intends to expel you from your land with his magic. What do you advise?'"

According to Surah A'rāf, the ministers made the above statement. There is no contradiction here because people always say what their leaders say. It is therefore probable that they merely repeated what Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said.

The ministers then offered their advice by saying to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), "Grant him and his brother respite while you dispatch recruiters to the towns who will bring every learned magician to you."

Surah Tāhā mentions that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "arrange an appointment between us, that neither us nor you will violate. Fix an open plain for this." Mūsa عليه السلام said, "Your appointment shall be on the day of adornment, and the people should be gathered at midmorning." [Surah 20, verses 58, 59]

Everyone was gathered on an open plain on the day and the news of Sayyidina Mūsa and Hārūn's عليه السلام message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) had already spread. People had been talking that they would follow the way of the victor. They said that they would follow the beliefs of the magicians if they won the contest. They also had it in mind to follow Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام if he won, but they never mentioned this out of fear for Pharaoh (Fir'aun) himself. It is for this reason that they indirectly indicated to this by adding the word "Perhaps" in their statement, when they said, "Perhaps we shall follow the magicians if they emerge as victors."

Like all people whose interests are restricted to this world, the first thing that the magicians asked Pharaoh (Fir'aun) was, "Shall we receive any prize if we are victorious?" 'Certainly!' replied Fir'oun, "You will not only be handsomely rewarded, but "you shall be from those who are close to me."

When the contest began, the magicians asked "O Mūsa! Either you throw, or we be first to throw." 'Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'Throw what you wish to throw.' So they threw their ropes and staffs saying, 'By Fir'oun's honour! We shall certainly be the victors!'

"Then Mūsa threw his staff which (became a large serpent that) instantly swallowed what they conjured." When the magicians saw that Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام serpent swallowed all the snakes that they had conjured, they realised that he was not a magician because none could be better than them. They realised that he must be Allāh's Prophet because such a demonstration can be possible only with Allāh's help. This conviction caused them to be "cast down in prostration (whereupon) they submitted, 'We believe in the Lord of the universe, in the Lord of Mūsa and Hārūn.'"

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) was now belittled because the very people whom he employed to falsify Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام had now become their followers. To save face, he therefore resorted to threatening them. He told them, "Have you believed in him before I could permit you?" He was so besotted by his authority that he even wished to be master of their thoughts and heartfelt inclinations. Many leaders wish to force their subjects into conforming to their beliefs, whereas this is not in their control.

He then told them, "He [Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام] must certainly be your leader who has taught you magic (because of which you allowed him to be victorious)! You shall shortly come to learn! I will amputate your hands and feet from opposite sides and crucify all of you!"

Since they now possessed the courage of Belief (Imān), the magicians were undeterred by Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) threats. "They said, 'It matters not. We shall surely return to our Lord.'" They were convinced that Allāh would reward them for their Belief (Imān) and determination, They continued to say, "We desire that our Lord forgive our sins because we have been the first believers (among all those present at that time)."

﴿٥٢﴾ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ أَسْرِ بِعِبَادِيٰ إِنَّكَ مُتَّبَعُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنَّ هَٰؤُلَاءِ لَشِرْذِمَةٌ قَلِيلُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَنَا لَغَائِطُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ وَإِنَّا لَجَمِيعٌ حَاذِرُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾ فَأَخْرَجْنَاهُمْ مِنْ جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَكُنُوزٍ وَمَقَامٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿٥٨﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ وَأَوْرَثْنَاهَا بَنِي

إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٥٩﴾ فَاتَّبَعُوهُمْ مُشْرِقِينَ ﴿٦٠﴾ فَلَمَّا تَرَاءَ الْجَمْعَانِ قَالَ أَصْحَابُ مُوسَى إِنَّا لَمَذْرُوكُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالَ كَلَّا إِنَّ مَعِيَ رَبِّي سَيَهْدِينِ ﴿٦٢﴾ فَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَى مُوسَى أَنْ أَضْرِبْ بِعَصَاكَ الْبَحْرَ فَانْفَلَقَ فَكَانَ كُلُّ فِرْقٍ كَالطَّوْدِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٦٣﴾ وَأَزْلَفْنَا ثَمَّ الْآخَرِينَ ﴿٦٤﴾ وَأَنْجَيْنَا مُوسَى وَمَنْ مَعَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾ ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً ﴿٦٧﴾ وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٦٨﴾

(52) We sent revelation to Mūsa saying, "Lead My bondsmen away by night. You will certainly be followed." (53) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) sent recruiters to the towns. (54) "They are but a small group..." (55) "...who have certainly infuriated us..." (56) "...when we are an alert force." (57) So We removed them from gardens and springs... (58) "... And from treasures and a splendid setting. (59) This is how it was. And We made the Bani Isrā'il successors to them. (60) So at sunrise, they pursued them. (61) When the two parties set eyes on each other, Mūsa 's people said, "We will surely be apprehended." (62) "Never!" replied Mūsa, "My Lord is with me and He will certainly guide me." (63) So We sent revelation to Mūsa telling him, "Strike the sea with your staff." It then split open, each portion being like a huge mountain. (64) On that occasion We drew the others closer. (65) And We rescued Mūsa and all those who were with him. (66) Then We drowned the others. (67) There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (68) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

ALLĀH COMMANDS SAYYIDINA MŪSA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام TO LEAD HIS PEOPLE AWAY AT NIGHT THEY ARE PURSUED, BUT PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS PEOPLE ARE EVENTUALLY DROWNED

Allāh says that He "sent revelation to Mūsa saying, 'Lead My bondsmen away by night.'" However, Allāh warned him by saying, "You will certainly be followed." Allāh also reassured Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام by telling him that even if he is followed, he should never fear anything. Allāh says in verse 77 of Surah TāHā (Surah 20), "Neither should you fear anyone pursuing you, nor should you have any other fear."

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) always feared that the Bani Isrā'il would soon leave Egypt, so he hastily tried to muster a force to restrain them. Allāh says, "Pharaoh (Fir'aun) sent recruiters to the towns." To reassure his soldiers that they have nothing to fear, he told them that the Bani Isrā'il "are but a small group..."

To incite them further he told them that the Bani Isrā'il are people "who have certainly infuriated us (by many acts that they have carried out. We cannot allow them to escape, because) we are an alert force." Other commentators like Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ have interpreted this statement to mean that they are a well-equipped and well-armed force.

However, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his army were delayed and caught up with the Bani Isrā'il only when the latter were at the coast. The day was already bright when the two armies caught sight of each other.

Allāh says, "So at sunrise, they pursued them. When the two parties set eyes on each other, Mūsa's people said (when they saw the overwhelming strength of Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) army), 'We will surely be apprehended.' 'Never!' replied Mūsa, 'My Lord is with me and He will certainly guide me.'

Allāh says that He "sent revelation to Mūsa telling him, 'Strike the sea with your staff' It then split open (into many paths), each portion (path) being (being bounded by walls of water that were each) like a huge mountain."

The Bani Isrā'il crossed the sea. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his army did not stop to think what was the cause of this unusual spectacle. If they had stopped to think about it, they would also have realised that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was Allāh's true messenger. Even if they believed at that moment, they could have been saved from destruction. However, they blindly observed the spectacle and then charged behind the Bani Isrā'il.

As the Bani Isrā'il reached the other shore, the waters again converged and drowned Fir'oun and his entire army. Allāh says in verses 90 and 91 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10), "Until (the time came when) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) began to drown, he said, 'I believe that there is no deity except Him in Whom the Bani Isrā'il believe, and I am from those who surrender. - Allāh then told him, "Do you believe now? When you were disobedient before and among the corrupters?"'

Pharaoh (Fir'aun) thought that he would soon seize the Bani Isrā'il and that he would return to his pleasures. Little did he know that this would not be. He was never to enjoy the pleasures that he was accustomed to. Allāh says about him and his army, "So We removed them from gardens and springs. And from treasures and a splendid setting."

With regard to his plight in the Hereafter, Allāh says in verses 98 and 99 of Surah Hūd (Surah 11), "He will lead his people on the Day of Judgement and enter them into the Fire. It is an evil place indeed in which they shall be entered. Curse has been made to pursue them in this world and in the Hereafter as well. It will be an evil prize that they will receive."

After mentioning that Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) people were deprived of all their worldly pleasures, Allāh says, "This is how it was. And We made the Bani Isrā'il successors to them." The commentators Wāhidi رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه say that Allāh allowed the Bani Isrā'il to return to Egypt and enjoy the pleasures once possessed by the Copts. Other commentators have mentioned that the Bani Isrā'il returned to take possession of the wealth that belonged to the Copts, after which they headed for Shām (Syria) with Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

Another group of commentators are of the opinion that the Bani Isrā'il did return to rule Egypt, but only during the time of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. In my humble opinion, this is the best interpretation. The verses do not restrict the occurrence to any specific time, so the Bani Isrā'il could well have returned after many years.

"There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe.

Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful." Allāh has the power to punish and reward. The believers (Mu'minīn) fear His punishment and hope for His mercy.

وَأَنذِرْ عَلَيْهِمْ نَارَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿٦٩﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالُوا نَعْبُدُ
أَصْنَامًا فَنُظِلُّ لَهَا مِنْكَفَرِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ قَالَ هَلْ يَسْمَعُونَكُمْ إِذْ تَدْعُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ أَوْ يَنْفَعُونَكُمْ أَوْ
يَضُرُّونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ قَالُوا بَلْ وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا كَذَلِكَ يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ قَالَ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُونَ
﴿٧٥﴾ أَنْتُمْ وَأَبَاؤُكُمْ الْأَقْدَمُونَ ﴿٧٦﴾ فَإِنَّهُمْ عَدُوٌّ لِّي إِلَّا رَبَّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾ الَّذِي
خَلَقَنِي فَهُوَ يَهْدِينِ ﴿٧٨﴾ وَالَّذِي هُوَ يُطْعِمُنِي وَيَسْقِينِ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَإِذَا مَرِضْتُ فَهُوَ يَشْفِينِ
﴿٨٠﴾ وَالَّذِي يُمِيتُنِي ثُمَّ يُحْيِينِ ﴿٨١﴾ وَالَّذِي أَطْمَعُ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ لِي خِطِيئَتِي يَوْمَ
الْذِيكِ ﴿٨٢﴾ رَبِّ هَبْ لِي حُكْمًا وَالْحَقِّقْ بِالصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ وَاجْعَلْ لِي لِسَانَ
صِدْقٍ فِي الْآخِرِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَاجْعَلْنِي مِنْ وَرَثَةِ جَنَّةِ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَاعْفِرْ لِأَبِي إِنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ
الضَّالِّينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَلَا تُخْزِنِي يَوْمَ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٨٧﴾ يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ مَالٌ وَلَا بَنُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ أَتَى اللَّهَ
بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ ﴿٨٩﴾

(69) Recite to them the incident of Ibrahim. (70) When he said to his people and to his father, "What do you worship?" (71) They replied, "We worship idols and we are devoted to them." (72) He asked, "Do they hear you when you call to them?" (73) "Or can they benefit or harm you?" (74) They replied, "But we found our forefathers doing the same." (75) He said, "Do you see what you worship..." (76) "...you and your forebears..." (77) "... They are all my enemies, except the Lord of the universe." (78) "... Who has created me and Who guides me." (79) "... Who feeds me and gives me drink." (80) "... And who cures me when I am ill." (81) "... Who will grant me death and then revive me." (82) "...Whom I hope will forgive my shortcomings on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)." (83) "O my Lord! Confer on me wisdom and join me with the righteous." (84) "...And maintain a favourable word for me among those who are to come." (85) "...And make me from the inheritors of the bounteous Heaven." (86) "Forgive my father, for he is among those who have deviated." (87) "Do not humiliate me on the Day when people will be resurrected." (88) "...The day when neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail." (89) ".....Besides for him who comes to Allāh with a sincere heart."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام PREACHES ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) TO HIS PEOPLE AND SUPPLICATE S TO ALLĀH

Numerous verses of the Qur'an mention the debates that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام had with his people and with his father. A similar discussion as the one above is narrated in Surah Anbiya as well. In the foregoing verse', Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Recite to them the incident of Ibrāhīm."

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام "said to his people and to his father, 'What do you worship?'" Although he was aware of the fact that they worshipped idols, he asked them the question so that they admit it and so that he could pose further questions to them in order to convince them of their foolishness.

"They replied, 'We worship idols and we are devoted to them.' Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام then asked them, "Do they hear you when you call to them (for assistance)? Or can they benefit (when you worship them) or harm you (when you do not)?"

Unable to find an answer, they replied like all polytheists do by saying, "But we found our forefathers doing the same." They were blindly following the practices of their forefathers even though the truth was before them.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام told them, "Do you see what you (and your forebears) worship? They are all my enemies, except the Lord of the universe." They will lead one to the eternal punishment of Hell.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام then proceeded to describe Allāh to them. He mentioned that Allāh is He:

- 📖 "Who has created me and Who guides me."
- 📖 "Who feeds me and gives me drink."
- 📖 "Who cures me when I am ill."
- 📖 "Who will grant me death and then revive me."
- 📖 "Who I hope will forgive my shortcomings on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)."

By saying this, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام hoped to impress upon the minds of his people that Allāh has all these qualities and more, whereas their idols do not possess a single one of these. By making the last statement, he taught them that Allāh is Most Forgiving and will even forgive the polytheists if they sincerely repent.

The statement is also a lesson for the believers (Mu'minīn) because they should contemplate that if a Prophet of Allāh عليه السلام considered himself to have shortcomings, they are more needy of Allāh's forgiveness and should repent more.

The verses then describe certain supplications of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. He said, "O my Lord! Confer on me wisdom..." 'Wisdom' refers to perfect understanding and knowledge. It may also refer to the knowledge of Allāh's injunctions and His attributes. Other commentators have mentioned that it refers to Prophethood. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 19 p. 98]

".....and join me with the righteous." The 'Sālihīn' (Righteous people) are those who have been accepted by Allāh. Knowledge and deeds are worthless if Allāh does not accept them. It is for this reason that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام asked Allāh for this in addition to the du'ā for knowledge.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام prayed further saying, "And maintain a favourable word for me among those who are to come." He asked Allāh to make the forthcoming Prophet ﷺ and their Ummahs remember him in good faith. Allāh accepted this du'ā of his and all the nations after him revere him and hold him in high esteem. It is no secret that the Ummah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ have a especially high regard for him.

Allāh even addresses the Holy Prophet ﷺ in the Qur'ān saying, "Then We sent revelation to you that, 'Follow the creed of Ibrāhīm.'" The Ummah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ remember Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام when they say in the final sitting posture of every Salāh, "O Allāh! Convey Your special mercies on Muhammad ﷺ and on the family of Muhammad ﷺ like you have conveyed these on Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and the family of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام."

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام prayed further by saying, "And make me from the inheritors of the bounteous Heaven." This teaches us that a person should continue to ask for Heaven irrespective of hioner piety.

"Forgive my father, for he is among those who have deviated." He prayed that Allāh should guide his father to accept oneness of Allāh (Tawhīd), thereby qualifying himself for forgiveness. The details of this prayer (du'ā) have been discussed in the commentary of verse 114 of Surah Tauba (Surah 9) and verse 41 of Surah Ibrāhīm (Surah 14).

"Do not humiliate me on the Day when people will be resurrected; the day when neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail, besides for him who comes to Allāh with a whole heart." Together with supplicating for Heaven, one should also seek refuge from being disgraced on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) by suffering punishment.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet ﷺ that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام will meet his father Āzar on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). His father's face will be dark and dreary. Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام will tell his father, "Did I not tell you that you should not disobey me?" His father will reply, "If you command me to follow you now, I will do so."

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام will then supplicate to Allāh saying, "O Allāh! You promised me that you will not humiliate me on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). What humiliation can be greater than the fact that my father is destroyed?" Allāh will tell him, "I have forbidden Heaven for the disbelievers. O Ibrāhīm! Look down." When he will look down, he will see a filthy, hairy scorpion (which was once his father). The scorpion will then be flung into Hell. [Bukhari p. 473]

When Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام will see the despicable condition of his father, he will detest it greatly and forget any humiliation.

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام describes the Day of Judgement as "the day when neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail." This is a great lesson for those who are besotted with earning the things of this world without caring for Lawful (Halāl) and unlawful (Harām) means. In the process they discard the obligations (Farā'idh) and Compulsories practices of religion. They should remember that all this will destroy them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). However, if they earn their wealth lawfully and spend it in lawful and meritorious avenues, they will see the fruits of it on the Day of Judgement.

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام says that wealth and children will only assist the person "who comes to Allāh with a sincere heart."

Note: "And maintain a favourable word for me among those who are to come."

This prayer (du'ā) of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام teaches us that it is necessary for a believer (Mu'min) to desire that his name must not be smothered in this world. Although none of his deeds should be carried out with the intention of attaining fame, he also ask Allāh to preserve his name. None can be more sincere than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, yet he prayed to Allāh saying, "O Allāh! Make me small in my own eyes, but elevated in the eyes of the people."

This prayer (du'ā) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is an effective antidote to the poison of pride, because a person will then not think too highly of himself and will not look down on others.

Every person should make an attempt to always clear his name of any suspicion. This is especially important for people who are known to be pious or holding some position in society. People are incorrect when they merely brush off any suspicion on themselves by saying that the slanderers will be punished for their slander. They should make a concerted effort to clear their names so that the stigma does not taint their reputation. If they do not do this, they will be casting people into further sin by giving them a greater opportunity to backbite. In addition to this they will be unable to preach to people.

وَأُزْلِفَتِ الْجَنَّةُ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ وَبُرِزَتِ الْجَحِيمُ لِلْغَاوِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ إِنِّ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ هَلْ يَنْصُرُونَكُمْ أَوْ يَنْصُرُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ فَكَبِكُوا فِيهَا هُمْ وَالْغَاوُونَ ﴿٩٤﴾ وَجُنُودُ إِبْلِيسَ أَجْمَعُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾ قَالُوا وَهُمْ فِيهَا يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ تَاللَّهِ إِن كُنَّا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٩٧﴾ إِذْ نُسَوِّكُمْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٩٨﴾ وَمَا أَصَلْنَا إِلَّا الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾ فَمَا لَنَا مِن شَافِعِينَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ وَلَا صَدِيقٍ حَمِيمٍ ﴿١٠١﴾ فَلَوْ أَنَّ لَنَا كَرَّةً فَنَكُونُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٠٤﴾

(90) Heaven will be brought close to the pious... (91) .. while Hell will be revealed to the deviant ones. (92) They will be told, "Where are those whom you worshipped..." (93) "...besides Allāh? Can they assist you or protect you?" (94) They will all be thrown headlong therein, together with those gone astray... (95) ... and the entire army of Satan (Iblīs). (96) While disputing there, they will say... (97) "...By Allāh! We were certainly in manifest error..." (98) "...when we equated you to the Lord of the universe. (99) "Only the criminals led us astray." (100)

"Now there is no intercessor for us..." (101) "... and no bosom friend either." (102) "If only we were given the chance to return. Then we would have been from the believers." (103) "There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe." (104) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

THE REMORSE AND DISPUTES OF THE PEOPLE IN HELL, WHEN THEY WISH TO BE RETURNED TO THE WORLD

The above verses depict the scene on the Day of Judgement. Allāh begins by saying that, on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), "Heaven will be brought close to the pious, while Hell will be revealed to the deviant ones." The pious people will be exuberant, while the others will be filled with fear. The disbelievers will then be asked, "Where are those whom you worshipped besides Allāh? Can they assist you or protect you (from the pending punishment)?"

Thereafter, "They will all be thrown headlong therein, together with those gone astray and the entire army of Satan (Iblīs)."

"While disputing there (in Hell), they will say, 'By Allāh! We were certainly in manifest error when we equated you to the Lord of the universe.' Swearing by Allāh, they will admit to their folly. They will also admit to their blind following and say, "Only the criminals led us astray."

Realising that they cannot escape the imminent doom ahead, they will say, "Now there is no intercessor for us, and no bosom friend either. If only we were given the chance to return (to the world). Then we would have been from the believers (and discarded our heretic beliefs)."

Allāh then repeats His announcement when He says, "There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful."

كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمٌ نُّوحَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ نُوحٌ أَلَا نُنْفِقُونَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٠٧﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرًا ﴿١٠٨﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرًا ﴿١١٠﴾ قَالُوا أَنْتُمْ لَكُمْ وَاتَّبَعَكَ الْأَرْذَلُونَ ﴿١١١﴾ قُلْ وَمَا عَلَيَّ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١١٢﴾ إِنْ حَسَابُهُمْ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّي لَوْ تَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١١٣﴾ وَمَا أَنَا بِطَارِدِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١١٤﴾ إِنْ أَنَا إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١١٥﴾ قَالُوا لَنْ نَمُنَّ بِكَ نَحْنُ وَنُحُوتُ لَكُمْ مِنَ الْمَرْجُومِينَ ﴿١١٦﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنْ قَوْمِي كَذَّبُونِ ﴿١١٧﴾ فَأَفْنِعْ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَهُمْ فَتَحًا وَغِيظًا وَمِنْ مَعِيَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١١٨﴾ فَأَجْبِئْهُمْ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ فِي الْأُفْلَاقِ الْمَشْحُونِ ﴿١١٩﴾ ثُمَّ أَعْرَفْنَا بِعَذَابِكِ الْبَاقِينَ ﴿١٢٠﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٢١﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ

(105) The people of Nūh denied the apostles. (106) When their brother Nūh said to them, "Do you not fear?" (107) "I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you. (108) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (109) "I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe." (110) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (111) They replied, "Should we believe in you when the lowest of people follow you?" (112) He said, "Why should I be concerned about their deeds?" (113) "Their reckoning is the duty of my Lord. If only you would perceive!" (114) "I shall never discard the believers. (115) "I am merely a clear warner." (116) They said, "O Nūh! If you do not desist, you will certainly be of those who are stoned." (117) Nūh عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! My people have falsified me." (118) "So decide between me and them, and rescue myself and those believers who are with me. (119) So We rescued him and those with him in a brimming ark. (120) Thereafter We drowned the rest. (121) There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (122) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

SAYYIDINA NŪH عليه السلام PREACHES ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) TO HIS PEOPLE, BUT THEY REJECT HIM AND ARE FINALLY DROWNED IN THE FLOODS

After citing the incident of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, Allāh continues to narrate the stories of many other Prophets عليهم السلام. The first of these is Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, followed by those of Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام, Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام, Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام.

Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام advised his people to abstain from polytheism (shirk), telling them that he is "certainly a trustworthy messenger" to them because he is only conveying to them what he has been instructed by Allāh. Therefore, he told them, "So fear Allāh and obey me. I do not ask you for any remuneration for this (i.e. for my efforts in propagation). My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe. So fear Allāh and obey me." He exhorted them to reflect upon his position and consider why he is making such a great effort without any worldly motives.

Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام exerted him self in preaching to them for 950 years, but only a few accepted his message. One of the excuses that the people used for not accepting his message was that they said, "Should we believe in you when the lowest of people follow you?"

They detested associating with the lower classes, just as the polytheists of Makkah felt. They therefore indicated that they would believe in him only if he disassociated with those of the lower classes of society. The polytheists of Makkah also wanted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to disassociate himself from certain Sahābah رضى الله عنهم like Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Suhayb رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Ammār رضى الله عنه and others.

Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام replied by saying, "Why should I be concerned about their deeds?" In this statement he made it clear to them that he was not concerned about the occupations of people, even though others may consider it to be low and mean. The criteria are belief (Imān) and good deeds. Allāh takes these two things into account when judging people and not their worldly occupations.

He told them, "Their reckoning is the duty of my Lord. If only you would perceive!" Allāh will decide their status on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) in accordance to their Belief (Imān) and good deeds. By saying this, he also alluded to the fact that they must be conscious about their own fate on the day of Judgement.

He then made it clear to them that he will never pander to their wishes by telling them, "I shall never discard the believers. I am merely a clear warner." He told them that his duty was to inform them of Allāh's commands, which he had accomplished.

Some commentators have mentioned that the nation of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام meant to tell him that the lower class people were not sincere believers, but followed him for ulterior motives. It was in reply to this allegation that he told them, "Why should I be concerned about their deeds (i.e. their inner motives. I shall believe in what I can see of them)?" He told them further that only Allāh can judge the inner condition of people because "Their reckoning is the duty of my Lord. If only you would perceive (the laws of Religion, then you would have understood this)!"

Unable to argue any further, "They said, 'O Nūh! If you do not desist, you will certainly be of those who are stoned.'" Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 25-35] and Surah Nūh [Surah 71, verses 1-23] make mention of other arguments that the people had with Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام.

After an extremely trying and difficult period of 950 years, Sayyidina Nūh's عليه السلام patience could not take any more. It was only then that he finally supplicated to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! My people have falsified me. So decide between myself and them (by punishing them), and rescue myself and those believers who are with me."

Allāh then instructed him to build an ark and, when it was completed, water began to flood the earth from beneath and above it. Allāh commanded the people on the ark saying, "Embark upon it! With the name of Allāh shall it travel and anchor. Surely my Lord is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." Allāh says, "So We rescued him and those with him in a brimming ark. Thereafter We drowned the rest." The entire episode is recounted in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 59-64] and Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 25-49].

Note: Allāh mentions in the beginning, "The people of Nūh denied the apostles." Although only one Prophet was sent to them [viz. Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام], Allāh uses the plural form by saying "apostles" instead of "apostle." This is so because denying one Prophet is tantamount to denying all of them, since all of them preached the same message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid). Therefore, denying the oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) preached by one Prophet is the same as denying the message propagated by all of them.

In addition, every Prophets عليهم السلام instructed his Ummah to believe in the Prophets عليه السلام after him. Therefore, by denying the message of any Prophet, people also deny this instruction, and will deny all the other Prophets عليه السلام as well.

كَذَّبَتْ عَادَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمُ أَخُوهُمْ هُودٌ أَلَا نَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٢٤﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٢٥﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِي ﴿١٢٦﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجَرْتُ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٢٧﴾ أَتَبْنُونَ بِكُلِّ رِيعٍ ءَايَةً تَعْبَثُونَ ﴿١٢٨﴾ وَتَتَّخِذُونَ مَصَانِعَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَخْلُدُونَ ﴿١٢٩﴾ وَإِذَا بَطِشْتُمْ بَطِشْتُمْ جَبَّارِينَ ﴿١٣٠﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِي ﴿١٣١﴾ وَأَتَّقُوا الَّذِي أَمَدَّكُمْ بِمَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٣٢﴾ أَمَدَّكُمْ بِأَنْعَامٍ وَبَنِينَ ﴿١٣٣﴾ وَحَنَّتِ وَعْيُونُ ﴿١٣٤﴾ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿١٣٥﴾ قَالُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْنَا أَوَعَضْتَ أَمْ لَمْ تَكُنْ مِنَ الْوَاعِظِينَ ﴿١٣٦﴾ إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا خُلُقُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٣٧﴾ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذَّبِينَ ﴿١٣٨﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٣٩﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٤٠﴾

(123) The Ād denied the apostles. (124) When their brother Hūd عليه السلام told them, "Do you not fear?" (125) "I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you." (126) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (127) "I do not ask you any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe." (128) "Do you build a monument on every elevated place for sport?" (129) "And do you construct large palaces so that, perchance, you may live forever?" (130) "...And, when you seize control, you seize like tyrants." (131) So fear Allāh and obey me. (132) "Fear the Being Who has strengthened you with the things that you know..." (133) ".....He has strengthened you with animals, sons..." (134) "....orchards and springs." (135) "Undoubtedly I fear for you the punishment of a great day." (136) They replied, "It is immaterial to us whether you advise us or whether you are not from the advisors." (137) "This is merely the behaviour of the old men." (138) "We shall never be punished." (139) They falsified him so We destroyed them. There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (140) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

SAYYIDINA HŪD عليه السلام IS SENT TO HIS NATION, BUT THEY DENY HIM

Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام was sent as the Prophet to his nation, called the Ād. However, they behaved just like the people of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. He told them, "Do you not fear? I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you. So fear Allāh and obey me. I do not ask you any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

The Ād were an extremely powerful nation, as described in Surah A'rāf, where Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام told them that Allāh had increased them

"Considerably in stature" compared to other nations. Allāh says about them in Surah Fajr. "Any One like them was not created in the cities."

Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام asked them, "Do you build a monument on every elevated place for sport?" Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه writes that they used to sit on these huge monuments and poke fun at passing travellers. They also constructed such large and fortified palaces that a person would think that they are to live there eternally. It is in reference to this that Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام told them, "And do you construct large palaces so that, perchance, you may live forever?"

Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that they built these huge palaces with the hope that they would live eternally. Others interpret it to mean that they built these palaces so that they do not have to worry about death reaching them there.

Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام also told them, "And, when you seize control, you seize like tyrants." Because of their enormous stature and build, they grew very arrogant and used to exclaim, "Who can be more powerful than us?" Therefore, they plundered many cities and mercilessly slaughtered the people there.

"So fear Allāh and obey me. Fear the Being Who has strengthened you with the things that you know. He has strengthened you with animals, Sons, orchards and springs." It is therefore necessary that they be grateful to Allāh and worship Him.

Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام compassionately warned them saying, "Undoubtedly I fear for you the punishment of a great day." Like the day, the punishment will also be severe.

Not heeding what he said, "They replied, 'It is immaterial to us whether you advise us or whether you are not from the advisors (we will do as we please. As for the things you warn us about,) this is merely the behaviour of the old men.'" They meant to tell him that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) would never come despite the warnings of the previous generations. They also added, "We shall never be punished."

"They falsified him so We destroyed them." They were then destroyed by a severe windstorm which blew relentlessly for seven nights and eight days. The details of their punishment are mentioned in Surah HāMīm Sajdah, Surah Ahqāf, Surah Dhāriyāt, Surah Qamar and Surah Al Hāqa.

Allāh then repeats a previous statement, "There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful."

كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٤١﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ صَالِحٌ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٤٢﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٤٣﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرًا ﴿١٤٤﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٤٥﴾ أَتَذْكُرُونَ فِي مَا هَنَاهَا ءِامِنِينَ ﴿١٤٦﴾ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿١٤٧﴾ وَزُرُوعٍ وَنَخْلٍ طَلْعُهَا هَضِيمٌ ﴿١٤٨﴾ وَتَجْتَنُّونَ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا فَرِهِينَ ﴿١٤٩﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ

وَأَطِيعُونَ ﴿١٥٠﴾ وَلَا تُطِيعُوا أَمْرَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿١٥١﴾ الَّذِينَ يُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا يُصْلِحُونَ ﴿١٥٢﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مِنَ الْمُسَحَّرِينَ ﴿١٥٣﴾ مَا أَنْتَ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا فَأْتِ بِآيَةٍ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿١٥٤﴾ قَالَ هَٰذِهِ نَاقَةٌ ۖ هَٰذَا شَرِبَ وَلَكُمْ شَرِبٌ يَوْمَ مَعْلُومٍ ﴿١٥٥﴾ وَلَا تَمْسُوهَا بِسُوءٍ فَيَأْخُذَكُمْ عَذَابٌ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿١٥٦﴾ فَمَقَرُّوْهَا فَأَصْبَحُوا نَدِيمِينَ ﴿١٥٧﴾ فَأَخَذَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً ۖ وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٥٨﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٥٩﴾

(141) The Thamud denied the apostles. (142) When their brother Sālih told them, "Do you not fear?" (143) "I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you." (144) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (145) "I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe." (146) "Will you be left in peace with what is here?" (147) ".... In orchards, springs..." (148) ".....plantations and date palms which have entwined thickets?" (149) ".....And you boastfully carve homes from the mountains." (150) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (151) "Do not obey the command of the transgressors. (152) "...who are those who cause anarchy on earth and do not make amends." (153) They said, "You are but one of the bewitched ones." (154) "You are merely a human like ourselves. So produce a sign for us if you are from the truthful." (155) Sālih عليه السلام said, "This is the camel. It will have a day to drink and your animals will have an appointed day to drink." (156) "Do not touch it with evil intentions, for then the punishment of a grave day will afflict you." (157) However, they killed the camel, but then grew to regret it. (158) The punishment then seized them. There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (159) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

THE THAMUD REJECT SAYYIDINAH SĀLIH عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND ARE PUNISHED

The Thamud came after the Ād and were also a deviant nation. Allāh sent Sayyidinah Sālih عليه السلام from among them as a Prophet. He told them, "I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you. So fear Allāh and obey me. I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

He also reminded them of the favours that Allāh bestowed on them. He reminded them about their "orchards, springs, plantations and date palms which have entwined thickets?"

He also told them, "And you boastfully carve homes from the mountains." Allāh granted them the ability to carve the mountains into homes. He reminded them that these pleasures will be short-lived because everyone will meet their death.

He added, "So fear Allāh and obey me. Do not obey the command of the transgressors, who are those who cause anarchy on earth and do not make amends." He warned them against following these people, who were sure to lead them to destruction.

All they said was, "You are but one of the bewitched ones. You are merely a human like ourselves." Allāh quotes them in Surah Qamar: "If we were to follow a lonesome human from among ourselves we would surely be astray and insane. Has a revelation come only to him from among all of us? Nay, he is but an arrogant liar." [Surah 54, verses 24, 25]

Finally they told Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام, "So produce a sign for us if you are from the truthful." According to certain commentators, they asked him to produce a pregnant camel from a mountain. He warned them that they will be punished if they do not believe in a miracle that they request for.

When the miracle was displayed, "Sālih عليه السلام said, 'This is the camel. It will have a day to drink and your animals will have an appointed day to drink.'" Turns were stipulated because the miraculous camel would drink all the water of a well by herself.

However, the people disliked that the camel should receive preferential treatment. It was then that they mutually decided to kill her. When Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام learnt about their evil intentions, he told them, "Do not touch it with evil intentions, for then the punishment of a grave day will afflict you.

Not heeding his warnings, "they killed the camel, but then grew to regret it (when they were afflicted by Allāh's punishment)." Eventually, "The punishment then seized them." The details of the punishment have been given in the commentaries of Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 73-79] and Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 61-68].

Allāh says, "There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful."

كَذَبَتْ قَوْمٌ لُوطَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٦٠﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ لُوطُ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٦١﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٦٢﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرًا أَلَمِيعًا ﴿١٦٣﴾ أَتَأْتُونَ الذَّكَرَانَ أَلَمِيعًا ﴿١٦٤﴾ وَتَذَرُونَ مَا خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ عَادُونَ ﴿١٦٥﴾ قَالُوا لَئِنْ لَمْ تَنْتَهِ يَلُوطُ لَتَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمُخْرَجِينَ ﴿١٦٦﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي لِعَمَلِكُمْ مِنَ الْقَالِينَ ﴿١٦٧﴾ رَبِّ نَجِّنِي وَأَهْلِي مِمَّا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٦٨﴾ فَجَنَّبْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿١٦٩﴾ إِلَّا عَجُوزًا فِي الْغَدِيرِ ﴿١٧٠﴾ ثُمَّ دَمَرْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ﴿١٧١﴾ وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَطَرًا فَسَاءً مَطَرُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ﴿١٧٢﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٧٣﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٧٤﴾

(160) The nation of Lūt denied the messengers. (161) When their brother Lūt told them, "Do you not fear?" (162) "I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you. (163) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (164) "I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. my remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe." (165) "Do you go unto men from the universe... (166) "... leaving aside your spouses whom your Lord has created for you? You are certainly a transgressing nation." (167) They replied, "O Lūt! If you do not desist, you will surely be from the banished ones. (168) Lūt عليه السلام said, "I am certainly among those who deplore your action." (169) "O my Lord! Save myself and my family from what these people do." (170) So We saved him and all the members of his family... (171) ... except an old lady, who was among those who were left behind. (172) Then We destroyed the others. (173) We sent a torrential shower upon them. Evil indeed was the rain of those who were forewarned. (174) There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (175) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام PREACHES TO HIS PEOPLE, BUT THEY THREATEN HIM THEY ARE EVENTUALLY DESTROYED BY A SHOWER OF STONES

Allāh sent Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام to preach to certain nations who lived on the banks of the Jordan river. These people practised homosexuality, as explained in the commentaries of Surah A'rāf and Surah Hūd as well. They were the first people on earth to engage in this filthy sin.

They were also highway robbers. Allāh quotes Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام as saying in Surah Ankabūt, "Do you approach men, waylay the highways and perpetrate evil in your gatherings?" When Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام preached to them, they threatened him saying, "O Lūt! If you do not desist, you will surely be from the banished ones." They mocked him by saying that he considers himself to be too clean to live with them.

"Lūt عليه السلام said, 'I am certainly among those who deplore your action.' Despite all his efforts for many years, the people did not listen to him but continued to do as they had always done. Eventually, they even said to him, 'Bring Allāh's punishment to us if you are from amongst the truthful.'"

Surah A'rāf, Surah Shu'arā and Surah Naml state that Allāh showered them with stones. Surah Hijr and Surah Hūd state that their towns were raised to the sky and then thrown down, and Surah Hijr adds that a scream destroyed them. As has been discussed in the commentary of Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 80-84], all three punishments afflicted them.

Allāh says, "So We saved him and all the members of his family except an old lady (Sayyidina Lūt's عليه السلام wife), who was among those who were left behind. Then We destroyed the others. We sent a torrential shower upon them. Evil indeed was the rain of those who were forewarned." The details of this have been given in the commentary of Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 80-84], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 77-83], Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 58-77]. More will still be mentioned in Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verses 3 1-35].

Allāh concludes the incident by saying, "There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful."

كَذَّبَ أَصْحَابُ الْمَرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٧٦﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمُ شُعَيْبٌ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٧٧﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٧٨﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِي ﴿١٧٩﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٨٠﴾ أَتُوفُّوا الْكَيْلَ وَلَا تَكُونُوا مِنَ الْمُخْسِرِينَ ﴿١٨١﴾ وَزِنُوا بِالْقِسْطَاسِ الْمُسْتَقِيمِ ﴿١٨٢﴾ وَلَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ أَشْيَاءَهُمْ وَلَا تَعْتُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ﴿١٨٣﴾ وَاتَّقُوا الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ وَالْجِلَّةَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٨٤﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مِنَ الْمُسَحَّرِينَ ﴿١٨٥﴾ وَمَا أَنْتَ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا وَإِنْ نَظُنُّكَ لَمِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿١٨٦﴾ فَاسْقِطْ عَلَيْنَا كِسْفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿١٨٧﴾ قَالَ رَبِّيَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٨٨﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَخَذَهُمُ عَذَابٌ يَوْمِ الظُّلَّةِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿١٨٩﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٩٠﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٩١﴾

(176) The people of Aykah denied the messengers. (177) When Shu'ayb عليه السلام told them, "Do you not fear?" (178) "I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you. (179) "So fear Allāh and obey me." (180) "I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe." (181) "Measure in full and do not be of those who diminish." (182) "And weigh with a just balance. (183) "Do not deplete people's property and do not spread anarchy on earth." (184) "Fear the Being Who created you and all the previous creations." (185) They said, "You are but from the bewitched ones. (186) "You are but a human like ourselves. In fact, we consider you to be from the liars." (187) "So cause a piece of the sky to fall on us if you are from the truthful ones." (188) Shu'ayb عليه السلام said, "My Lord knows best what you do." (189) So they falsified him and the punishment of a day of the canopy seized them. It was certainly a punishment of a grave day. (190) There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. (191) Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful.

SAYYIDINA SHU'AYB عليه السلام TELLS HIS PEOPLE NOT TO CHEAT IN WEIGHT AND MEASURE HOWEVER, THEY DISOBEY HIM AND ARE MADE TO SUFFER PUNISHMENT

Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام was sent to the people of Aykah and the people of Madyan. One of the crimes that they perpetrated was that they cheated people in weighing and measuring goods. Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام told them, "Do you not fear? I am certainly a trustworthy messenger to you. So fear Allāh and obey me. I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe. Measure in full and do not be of those who diminish. And weigh with a just balance. Do not deplete people's property and do not spread anarchy on earth."

The people told him, "O Shu'ayb! Does your Allāh command you that we should forsake what our forefathers worshipped and that we should do as we please with our wealth?" In saying this, they meant to tell him that they will do as they please with their wealth and that they will weigh and measure as they desire. People tend to say such things when they forget that they are Allāh's servants and that all their wealth also belongs to Allāh.

Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام advised them saying, "Fear the Being Who created you and all the previous creations." However, they did not heed his advices and said, "You are but from the bewitched ones. You are but a human like ourselves. In fact, we consider you to be from the liars. So cause a piece of the sky to fall on us if you are from the truthful ones."

"Shu'ayb عليه السلام said, 'My Lord knows best what you do (He will therefore punish you when He deems it fit. I cannot punish you).'" Their evil deeds were sufficient to invite Allāh's punishment.

Eventually, when they became extremely rebellious, "the punishment of a day of the canopy seized them. It was certainly a punishment of a grave day." Explaining this verse, Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that Allāh made the weather extremely hot. They all left their homes and sought shelter beneath the trees. Allāh then sent a dense cloud towards them, which they took as a "canopy" to escape the heat. When they all gathered beneath the cloud, a descending fire scorched them all. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this fire from the sky was exactly what they had asked for.

Note: The word Aykah refers to a densely foliated forest. They are referred to as "people of Aykah" because they lived in an area where the forest was extremely thick.

This incident reads, "When Shu'ayb told them, 'Do you not fear?'" It does not say, "When their brother Shu'ayb told them..." as mentioned at the beginning of the incidents of the other Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that this is so because Sayyidina Shu'ayb was not one of the indigenous people of Aykah. He belonged to the people of Madyan, like Surah Hūd mentions, "To Madyan. We sent their brother Shu'ayb."

Concluding this narrative Allāh repeats, "There is certainly a great sign in this. However, most of them do not believe. Verily your Lord is Mighty, the Most Merciful."

وَأَنذَرْتُ لَنَزِيلِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٩٢﴾ نَزَلَ بِهِ الرُّوحُ الْأَمِينُ ﴿١٩٣﴾ عَلَى قَلْبِكَ لِتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُنذِرِينَ ﴿١٩٤﴾ بِلِسَانٍ عَرَبِيٍّ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٩٥﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَفِي زُبُرِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٩٦﴾ أَوْ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ آيَةٌ أَن يَعْلَمَهُ عُلَمَاؤُا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿١٩٧﴾ وَلَوْ نَزَّلْنَاهُ عَلَى بَعْضِ الْأَعْجَمِينَ ﴿١٩٨﴾ فَقَرَأَهُ

عَلَيْهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٩٩﴾ كَذَلِكَ سَلَكْنَاهُ فِي قُلُوبِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٢٠٠﴾
 لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ حَتَّى يَرَوْا الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ ﴿٢٠١﴾ فَيَأْتِيهِمْ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ
 ﴿٢٠٢﴾ فَيَقُولُوا هَلْ نَحْنُ مُنْظَرُونَ ﴿٢٠٣﴾ أَفَعِزَّائِنَا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ﴿٢٠٤﴾ أَفَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ
 مَتَّعْنَاهُمْ سِنِينَ ﴿٢٠٥﴾ ثُمَّ جَاءَهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ ﴿٢٠٦﴾ مَا أَغْنَى عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا
 يُمْتَعُونَ ﴿٢٠٧﴾ وَمَا أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا لَهَا مُنْذَرُونَ ﴿٢٠٨﴾ ذِكْرَىٰ وَمَا كُنَّا
 ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٠٩﴾ وَمَا نَزَّلْنَا بِهِ الشَّيْطَانُ ﴿٢١٠﴾ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُمْ وَمَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ﴿٢١١﴾
 إِنَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّمْعِ لَمْعَزُولُونَ ﴿٢١٢﴾

(192) Without doubt, this is a revelation from the Lord of the universe. (193) The trustworthy angel descended with it... (194) "... upon your heart so that you become of the warners. (195) In the clear Arabic language. (196) Indeed, it received mention in the scriptures of the earlier nations. (197) Is it not sufficient proof to them that the scholars of the Bani Isrā'īl have knowledge of it? (198) If We were to reveal it to any non-Arab... (199) "... who was to recite it to them, they would never have believed in it. (200) In this manner have We inscribed disbelief in the hearts of the criminals. (201) They shall never believe it until they witness a painful punishment. (202) It will then come to them unexpectedly, when they do not perceive it. (203) They will then say, "Can we be granted respite?" (204) Do they seek to hasten Our punishment? (205) Tell me. If We were to allow them enjoyment for a few years... (206) "...after which that should come to them which they were promised... (207) "...the enjoyment granted to them would be of no avail to them. (208) We have destroyed only towns that had warners... (209) "... to advise. We were never oppressors. (210) The Devils (Shayāṭin) do not reveal the Qur'ān. (211) They are not befitting for this, nor have they the capability. (212) They have definitely been forbidden from listening.

THE QUR'ĀN HAS BEEN REVEALED IN THE ARABIC LANGUAGE VIA THE TRUSTWORTHY ANGEL

Referring to the Qur'ān, Allāh declares, "Without doubt, this is a revelation from the Lord of the universe. The trustworthy angel descended with it..." Jibr'il السلام عليه brought the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from Allāh without altering anything even in the slightest degree.

Allāh says that Jibr'il السلام عليه brought the Qur'ān "upon your [Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم] heart so that you become of the warners." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to warn people and advise them by means of the Qur'ān. Allāh says in Surah An'ām, "This Qur'ān has been revealed to me so that I warn you with it, as well as those whom it reaches." [Surah 6, verse 19]

Allāh says in Surah Shura, "in this manner did We reveal the Arabic Qur'ān to you so that you may warn the Mother of all cities, and those around her; so that you may warn them about the Day of Gathering, about which there shall be no doubt. A group shall be in Heaven, while another shall be in the Blaze." [Surah 42, verse 7]

Allāh says further that the Qur'ān is revealed "In the clear Arabic language." None can refute the eloquence of the Qur'ān. Until today the challenge to produce a single Surah equivalent to those of the Qur'ān has not been met. A reliable friend of mine has informed me that two computers have been commissioned with the task of meeting the challenge of the Qur'ān. Whenever these computers are fed with any Qur'ānic verse, it concedes that it cannot match it.

"....indeed, it (the Qur'ān) received mention in the scriptures of the earlier nations." The previous scriptures made mention of the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Qur'ān. Even though people have adulterated these scriptures, such facts can still be detected.

Certain commentators have interpreted this verse to mean that the subject matter contained in the Qur'ān is also found in the previous scriptures, like Allāh says in the final verse of Surah A'la, "This is certainly in the previous scriptures; in the scriptures of Ibrāhīm and Mūsa." [Surah 87, verses 18, 19]

Sayyidina Ma'qal bin Yasār رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surah Baqarah has been given to me from the previous scriptures, while Surah TāHā, the Tawasīn (those Surahs beginning with 'Tawasīn') and the Hawāmīm (those Surahs beginning with 'HāMīm') from the tablets of Mūsa عليه السلام. Surah Fātiha and the concluding verses of Surah Baqarah (verses 285 and 286) have been given to me from beneath Allāh's throne. The Mufassalāt (from Surah Hujurāt until the end of the Qur'ān) have been given to me as extra (i.e. no other Prophets عليهم السلام has received anything like it)." [Jāmi'us Saghīr]

"Is it not sufficient proof to them that the scholars of the Bani Isrā'īl have knowledge of it?" The learned scholars of the Bani Isrā'īl who lived during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم knew very well that the Qur'ān was the truth from Allāh. Some of them became Muslims, but others did not, even though they admitted to people in private that the Qur'ān was a revelation from Allāh.

The Polytheists accepted the Jews to be learned people and even requested the Jews to teach them how to challenge the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, they refused to believe after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied to their challenges.

Allāh says, "If We were to reveal it (the Qur'ān) to any non-Arab, who was to recite it to them, they would never have believed in it (even though the miracle would have then been greater)."

"....in this manner have We inscribed disbelief in the hearts of the' criminals. They shall never believe it until they witness a painful punishment. It will then come to them unexpectedly, when they do not perceive" it. They will then say, 'Can we be granted respite?'" At this moment their belief will not be acceptable. The punishment referred to in this verse could refer to some worldly punishment for not believing or it could refer to their deaths. It will also not be incorrect to say that it refers to the punishment in the grave or in the Hereafter.

Allāh then says, "Do they seek to hasten Our punishment?" These people are foolish to think that Allāh's punishment will not afflict them merely because it has not yet afflicted them. Nothing that they possess in this world will be of any avail to them when they suffer the punishment. With reference to this Allāh says, "Tell me. If We were to allow them enjoyment for a few years, after which that should come to them which they were promised, then the enjoyment granted to them would be of no avail to them."

"We have destroyed only towns that had warners to advise." Even before the revelation of the Qur'ān, Allāh only destroyed those nations who were disobedient after a warner was sent to them. They advised people and counselled them. When the people refused to accept, they were granted further respite. Eventually they were totally annihilated.

The verse warns the people whom the Qur'ān addresses. It tells them that they should also accept the truth because they could suffer the same fate as those before them. Allāh then says, "We were never oppressors." Allāh can never oppress any person. All His actions are based on some inner wisdom, which man may sometimes not understand.

Allāh then discusses the pristine purity of the Qur'ān, when He says, "The Devils (Shayātīn) do not reveal the Qur'ān. They are not befitting for this, nor have they the capability. They have definitely been forbidden from listening." The Devils (Shayātīn) have been banned from listening to Qur'ānic revelation in the heavens.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this verse refutes a statement made by the Quraysh that a Jinn had become subservient to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and was teaching him the Qur'ān. Allāh says that the Devils (Shayātīn) cannot reveal something like the Qur'ān because the Qur'ān guides people, whereas the Devils (Shayātīn) are devoted to leading people astray.

Since Allāh has deprived them of the ability to even listen to the revelation of the Qur'ān, it is obvious that they cannot be a means to reveal it.

فَلَا تَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُعَذَّبِينَ ﴿٢١٣﴾ وَأَنْذِرْ عَشِيرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِينَ ﴿٢١٤﴾
وَاخْفِضْ جَنَاحَكَ لِمَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٢١٥﴾ فَإِنْ عَصَوْكَ فَقُلْ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِمَّا
تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢١٦﴾ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ ﴿٢١٧﴾ الَّذِي يَرِنَكَ مِنْ تَكْوَمٍ ﴿٢١٨﴾ وَتَقْبُكُ فِي
السَّجْدِ ﴿٢١٩﴾ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٢٢٠﴾

(213) Do not call to another god besides Allāh, for then you will be of the punished ones. (214) Warn your closest relatives. (215) And be humble to those believers who follow you. (216) If they disobey you, then say, "Verily I am exonerated from what you do." (217) Rely on the Mighty, the Most Merciful... (218) ... Who sees you when you rise... (219) .... and sees your movements with those who prostrate. (220) Without doubt, He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing.

THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ, I COMMANDED TO BE HUMBLE TOWARDS THE MU'MINĪN AND TO RELY SOLELY ON ALLĀH

Allāh says in the above verses, "Do not call to another god besides Allāh, for then you will be of the punished ones." Although the verse is addressed to the Holy Prophet ﷺ, it is intended for every member of his Ummah because he is innocent of polytheism (shirk) and disbelief.

Thereafter, Allāh again commands the Holy Prophet ﷺ when He says, "Warn your closest relatives." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that when this verse was revealed, the Holy Prophet ﷺ mounted the hill of Safa and called various tribes of the Quraysh. When they all gathered, he asked them, "Will you people believe me if I told you that an army of horsemen were advancing to attack you from behind this mountain?"

They replied, "We shall certainly believe you. We have never known you to be untruthful." The Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "Then I am warning you of a severe punishment (if you do not believe in what I preach to you)." Thereupon Abu Lahab said, "May you be destroyed forever. Have you gathered us for this?" It was then that Surah Lahab (Surah 111) was revealed, where Allāh says, 'May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and he be destroyed...'

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet ﷺ told them on that occasion, "O Quraysh! Save yourselves (i.e. from Hell by accepting Islām). I cannot save you from the pending punishment." He said this taking the names of his uncle Sayyidina Abbās رضى الله عنه and his aunt Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها. Then, addressing his daughter Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها, The Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "O the daughter of Muhammad, Fātima! Ask whatever you please from my wealth. I cannot rescue you from Allāh's punishment." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 460]

With these words, the Holy Prophet ﷺ wished to impress upon their minds that family ties cannot save one from Allāh's punishment in the Hereafter. The criteria for success there shall be Belief (Imān) and good deeds.

Although the Holy Prophet ﷺ was a messenger to the entire creation, he was specifically commanded to preach to his family. This teaches preachers that they should never neglect their families in their efforts. The fact that the Holy Prophet ﷺ specifically addressed Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها, who was a believer and a child then, shows that one should pay attention to the proper religious upbringing of one's children.

Allāh says in Surah Tahrim, "O you who believe, save yourselves and your families from that Fire, the fuel of which is men and stones." It is tragic to see many people nowadays who excel in preaching to others, yet neglect to bring the message home to their families.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ is further commanded, "And be humble to those believers who follow you." The Mu'minīn are more worthy of receiving a cordial reception.

The fourth directive is then issued to the Holy Prophet ﷺ when Allāh says, "If they disobey you, then say, 'Verily I am exonerated from what you do.'" A person should not associate with the sinful behaviour of others, but should rather disassociate from them.

Allāh then tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Rely on the Mighty, the Most Merciful, Who sees you when you rise and sees your movements with those who prostrate. Without doubt, He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing." Allāh reassures the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should never fear the disbelievers because Allāh is Ever present and will always be there to assist. Therefore, only He must be relied on at all times.

هَلْ أُنَبِّئُكُمْ عَلَىٰ مَن تَنَزَّلُ الشَّيَاطِينُ ﴿٢٢١﴾ تَنَزَّلُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ أَفَّاكٍ أَثِيمٍ ﴿٢٢٢﴾ يُلْقُونَ السَّمْعَ
وَأَكْثُرُهُمْ كَاذِبُونَ ﴿٢٢٣﴾ وَالشُّعْرَاءُ يَتَّبِعُهُمُ الْغَاوُونَ ﴿٢٢٤﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّهُمْ فِي كُلِّ
وَادٍ يَهِيمُونَ ﴿٢٢٥﴾ وَأَنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ مَا لَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٢٢٦﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ وَذَكَرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَانصَرُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا ظَلَمُوا وَسَيَعْلَمُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَيَّ
مَنْقَلَبٍ يَنْقَلِبُونَ ﴿٢٢٧﴾

(221) Shall I inform you of the one upon whom the Devils (Shayātīn) descend?
(222) They descend upon every lying sinner. (223) They steal a hearing and most of them are liars. (224) Only deviant people follow the poets. (225) Do you not see that they wander astray in every valley? (226) And that they say things which they never do? (227) Except those who believe, do good deeds, remember Allāh abundantly and avenge themselves after being oppressed. Shortly the oppressors will come to know to which place they will return.

THE DEVILS (SHAYĀTĪN) DESCEND UPON EVERY LIAR AND ONLY THE DEVIANT PEOPLE FOLLOW POETS

In reply to the allegation that a Jinn teaches the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Shall I inform you of the one upon whom the Devils (Shayātīn) descend? They descend upon every lying sinner. They steal a hearing and most of them are liars." Those who are informed by the Devils (Shayātīn) listen attentively to what they are being told. They then transmit the same information, adding many more lies to it.

Before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Devils (Shayātīn) used to ascend to the heavens and listen to the conversations of the angels. They would then transmit the news of forthcoming events to the fortune-tellers, but would add many lies to it. These fortune-tellers would believe them because the news rectified from the angels would always materialise.

Allāh then denounces poetry and poets when he says, "Only deviant people follow the poets." This verse also replies to the other allegation made by the polytheists, when they said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a poet. Whereas poets say things that are fictional, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke about reality to the people.

"Do you not see that they (poets) wander astray in every valley?"

They are ever searching for fiction to translate into poetry so that their followers can be happy.

"And that they say things which they never do?" Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه narrates that this verse was revealed with regard to polytheists poets who used to compose poetry to ridicule the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, trying to prove that they can also say what he said.

The lies, fantasies and exaggeration employed by poets is universally known. However, Allāh then states an exception when He says, "Except those who believe, do good deeds, remember Allāh abundantly and avenge themselves after being oppressed." These poets are not like those described above. Because of their Belief (Imān), their involvement in good deeds and their excessive remembrance of Allāh, the believers (Mu'minīn) poets do not succumb to lying and their poetry serves to invite to Allāh and good deeds. Their poetry praises Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Whenever the disbelievers behave oppressively and criticise Islām, these poets are quick to retaliate and avenge Islām by composing poetry to combat these disbelievers. They will be rewarded for this poetry because it is composed to please Allāh and to defend Islām.

Sayyidina Hassān bin Thābit رضي الله عنه was a poet during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told him, "As long as you defend Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Jibr'il the peace remains constantly in your attendance." His poetry against the disbelievers was more severe than the piercing of arrows was to the enemy. [Muslim]

Bukhari reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had a pulpit erected for Sayyidina Hassān رضي الله عنه, from where he used to recite his poetry.

All deeds are judged according to the underlying intention. It is for this reason that, when asked about poetry, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "It is a manner of speech. The good that is in it is good, while the evil that is in it is evil." When the poem contains backbiting, slander and causes people to miss Salāh when engaged in it, it will be abominable and not permissible.

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Shortly the oppressors will come to know to which place they will return." This verse warns those people who assail the character of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and who falsify the Qur'ān. They will realise the error of their ways when they are cast into the depths of Hell.

سورة النمل

Makkan	Surah Al-Naml	Verses 93
--------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

طَسَّ تِلْكَ ءَايَاتُ الْقُرْآنِ وَكِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ① هُدًى وَبُشْرَى لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ② الَّذِينَ
يَقِيمُونَ الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ يُوقِنُونَ ③ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ
بِالْآخِرَةِ زَيَّنَّا لَهُمْ أَعْمَالَهُمْ فَهُمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ④ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ لَهُمْ سُوءُ الْعَذَابِ وَهُمْ فِي
الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ الْآخَسِرُونَ ⑤ وَإِنَّكَ لَتَلْقَى الْقُرْآنَ مِنْ لَدُنْ حَكِيمٍ عَلِيمٍ ⑥

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Tā Sīn. These are the verses of the Qur'ān and a clear Book. (2) (It is) a guidance and a conveyor of glad tidings for the believers... (3).... Those who establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and are convinced with the hereafter. (4) As for those who do not believe in the Hereafter, We have beautified their deeds for them, so they wander blindly. (5) For such people there shall be a terrible punishment and they will be the worst losers in the Hereafter. (6) Undoubtedly, you are given the Qur'ān from the Wise, the All Knowing.

THE QUR'ĀN IS A CLEAR BOOK, REVEALED AS A GUIDANCE FOR THE BELIEVERS

The above verses begin Surah Naml. The word "Naml" means "an ant." The Surah has been thus named because of an incident of an ant mentioned in verse 18.

Allāh says, "These are the verses of the Qur'ān and a clear Book." This verse is similar to the opening verse of Surah Yusuf (Surah 12), where Allāh says, "These are the verses of the clear Book."

Allāh continues to say that the Qur'ān is "a guidance and a conveyor of glad tidings for the believers." Allāh then describes the believers by saying that they are "... those who establish Salāh, pay Zakāh (which are both focal pillars of Islām. Together with this they are also particular about the other aspects of Religion) and are convinced about the Hereafter."

Although the Qur'ān is a guidance for all, it is especially beneficial for the believers (Mu'minīn) because they heed its advice and counsel.

"As for those who do not believe in the Hereafter, We have beautified their deeds for them, so they wander blindly." These people have strayed far from the straight path because they do not perceive the wickedness of their sins, but laud it.

"For such people there shall be a terrible punishment and they will be the worst losers in the Hereafter." Nothing that they possessed in this world can benefit them in the Hereafter, where all will be lost.

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Undoubtedly, you are given the Qur'ān from the Wise, the All Knowing." The affinity Allāh has for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is sufficient for him to face the onslaught of the disbelievers and the polytheists.

إِذْ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِأَهْلِهِ إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا سَآتِيكُمْ مِنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ أَوْ بَاتِكُمْ بِشِهَابٍ قَبَسٍ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَصْطَلُونَ ﴿٧﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهَا نُودِيَ أَنْ بُورِكَ مَنْ فِي النَّارِ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا وَسُبْحَنَ اللَّهُ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٨﴾ يَمْوَسَّىٰ إِنَّهُ أَنَا اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٩﴾ وَأَلْقَىٰ عَصَاهُ فَلَمَّا رَآهَا تَهْتَزُّ كَأَنَّهَا جَانٌّ وَلَّى مُدْبِرًا وَلَمْ يُعَقِّبْ يَمْوَسَّىٰ لَا تَخَفْ إِنِّي لَا يَخَافُ لَدَى الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ ثُمَّ بَدَّلْ حُسْنًا بَعْدَ سُوءٍ فَإِنِّي عَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ وَأَدْخِلْ يَدَكَ فِي جَيْبِكَ تَخْرُجْ بَيْضًا مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ فِي تِسْعِ آيَاتٍ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَقَوْمِهِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ آيَاتُنَا مُبْصِرَةً قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٣﴾ وَحَدِّثُوا بِهَا وَأَسْتَيْقِنَتْهَا أَنْفُسُهُمْ ظُلُمًا وَعُلُوًّا فَانظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿١٤﴾

(7) When Mūsa said to his family, "I notice a fire. I shall shortly bring you some news or a burning stake so that you may warm yourselves." (8) When he reached the fire, it was called, "Blessed be the one in the fire and the one in the vicinity of the fire. Allāh, the Lord of the universe is Pure." (9) "O Mūsa. Verily I am Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise." (10) "Throw down your staff" When Mūsa عليه السلام saw the staff moving rapidly like a snake, he stepped back on his heels without looking back. "O Mūsa! Do not fear. Indeed, the messengers have no fear in My presence..." (11) "Except the one who had done wrong, but then changed the evil with good. Verily I am the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." (12) "Put your hand into your collar, it will emerge shining white without any ailment. These two are among the nine miracles with which you will go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his people. They are certainly a disobedient nation." (13) When Our miracles came to them clearly, they said, "This is manifest magic!" (14) They unjustly and arrogantly rejected them whereas their souls were convinced about them. So see what the outcome of the anarchists shall be.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام ARRIVES AT MOUNT TŪR, WHERE HE IS CONFERRED THE MANTLE OF PROPHETHOOD

The detailed account of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام has been discussed in the Surah TāHā [Surah 20, verses 9-99], as well as in Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 10-68]. After ten years while Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was returning from Madyan, the night was extremely cold. In the distance he noticed what appeared to be a fire, but which was actually the celestial light of Allāh.

Describing the situation Allāh says, "When Mūsa said to his family, 'I notice a fire. I shall shortly bring you some news (about our route) or a burning stake so that you may warm yourselves.'"

"When he reached the fire, it was called (i.e. Allāh called), 'Blessed be the one in the fire [Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام] and the one in the vicinity of the fire (the angels). Allāh, the Lord of the universe is Pure (from all defects and partners)." Surah Qasas mentions that even the valley where the event occurred was blessed, and that the voice came from the right hand side of the valley.

Allāh then addressed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام further and told him, "O Mūsa! Verily I am Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise." Allāh then asked him about his staff (as mentioned in Surah TāHā), after which Allāh told him, "Throw down your staff."

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام threw the staff down, it turned into a snake. Allāh says, "When Mūsa عليه السلام saw the staff moving rapidly like a snake, he (was afflicted with a natural fear and he) stepped back on his heels without looking back." Allāh told him to grab hold of the staff saying, "O Mūsa! Do not fear (the snake will return to its original form as a staff). Indeed, the messengers have no fear in My presence..."

Although Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was not told that he was to be a messenger in the above conversation, the fact is understood because Allāh spoke to him. The situation is similar to that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when Jibr'il عليه السلام revealed the first few verses of Surah Alaq (Surah 96) to him in the cave of Hira. This was a sign of apostleship.

The phrase, 'indeed, the messengers have no fear in My presence...' also serves to announce the apostleship of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. At the same time, it describes an attribute of the Prophets عليهم السلام.

Allāh then added, "Except the one (i.e. the person who is not a Prophet) who had done wrong, but then changed the evil with good (by repenting, then his repentance will be accepted because) Verily I am the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

Allāh further instructed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام by saying, "Put your hand into your collar, it will emerge shining white without any ailment. These two are among the nine miracles with which you will go to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his people. They are certainly a disobedient nation." Because of their rebelliousness, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام required the support of these miracles to convince them. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام later received the other seven miracles over a period of time.

However, "When Our miracles came to them clearly, they (refused to accept them and) said, 'This is manifest magic!' They unjustly and arrogantly rejected them whereas their souls were convinced about them." Although they knew that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was the true Prophet of Allāh, they refused to admit the fact.

Instead, they challenged Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to a contest of magic, which he won. All the magicians then accepted his religion, but the others still refused because of their obstinacy. They were all eventually drowned. Allāh concludes the incident by saying, "So see what the outcome of the anarchists shall be."

Note: "They unjustly and arrogantly rejected them whereas their souls were convinced about them." This verse proves that merely being convinced about something without admitting it does not constitute Belief (Imān). Belief (Imān) will be acceptable only when one admits to and accepts what he believes.

There are many disbelievers who believe that Islām is the true religion and that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh's messenger. In fact, they even write treatises in this regard and praise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, they will not be called Muslims until they formally accept Islām.

وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ وَسُلَيْمَانَ عِلْمًا وَقَالَ الْחَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي فَضَّلَنَا عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِّنْ عِبَادِهِ
 الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَوَرِثَ سُلَيْمَانُ دَاوُدَ وَقَالَ يَبْنَئُهَا النَّاسُ عِلْمَنَا مَنطِقَ الطَّيْرِ وَأُوتِينَا مِنْ
 كُلِّ شَيْءٍ إِنَّ هَذَا لَهُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٦﴾ وَخُشِرَ لِسُلَيْمَانَ جُنُودُهُ مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنسِ
 وَالطَّيْرِ فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَتَوْا عَلَىٰ وَادٍ النَّمْلِ قَالَتْ نَمْلَةٌ يَبْنَئُهَا النَّمْلُ
 ادْخُلُوا مَسَكِنَكُم لَّا يَحْطِمَنَّكُمْ سُلَيْمَانُ وَجُنُودُهُ وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَنَبَسَهُ
 ضَاحِكًا مِّن قَوْلِهَا وَقَالَ رَبِّ اوزِعْنِي أَن أَشْكُرَ نِعْمَتَكَ الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ وَعَلَىٰ
 وَالِدَيَّ وَأَنْ أَعْمَلَ صَالِحًا تَرْضَاهُ وَأَدْخِلْنِي بِرَحْمَتِكَ فِي عِبَادِكَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٩﴾

(15) Indeed We granted knowledge to Dawūd and Sulaymān. They both said, "All praise is because of Allāh Who has preferred us above many of His believing bondsmen." (16) Sulaymān succeeded Dawūd and he said, "O people! We have been taught the speech of the birds and have been granted everything. This is certainly a manifest bounty." (17) Sulaymān's army of Jinn, men and birds were gathered for him and they were restrained. (18) Until, when they reached a valley of ants, an ant announced, "O ants! Enter your dwellings lest Sulaymān and his army trample upon you without realising." (19) Sulaymān began to smile and then laughed at her speech saying, "O my Lord! Allow me to express gratitude for Your bounty, which You have conferred upon me and upon my parents, and that I perform good deeds that You are pleased with. And, out of Your Mercy, include me among Your righteous bondsmen."

THE KNOWLEDGE AND BOUNTIES UPON SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND THE INCIDENT OF THE ANT ADVISING THE OTHERS TO ENTER THEIR HOMES

Allāh says, "Indeed We granted knowledge to Dawūd and Sulaymān." They both had immense knowledge of Prophethood and of worldly sciences. Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام could mould iron with his bare hands and make armour from it. Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was granted kingship over the entire creation. Even the Jinn worked for him and constructed large buildings and utensils that were the size of dams. They also dived into the sea for him and extracted precious gems.

Both, father and son, said, "All praise is because of Allāh Who has preferred us above many of His believing bondsmen." They were both the Holy Prophets and kings. Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had control over every type of creation. Every creation of Allāh has a certain level of understanding and perception, even though man may not realise it. They are all equipped with senses whereby they are able to recognise friend from foe and to manage their affairs.

Allāh says further, "Sulaymān succeeded Dawūd and he said, 'O people! We have been taught the speech of the birds and have been granted everything. This is certainly a manifest bounty.'" Although Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام could understand all creatures; mention is made only of the speech of birds because the incident of the bird Hudhud is forthcoming. Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام mentioned these bounties out of gratitude to Allāh.

Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said that Allāh had preferred them above many of His believing bondsmen." He did not that they were preferred above all other "believing bondsmen." This illustrates that there were other Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام who were superior in status to Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام.

This statement also illustrates that the only criteria for status are Belief (Imān) and good deeds. No Muslim can therefore say that he is better than a certain disbeliever because a Muslim can never be compared to a disbeliever, who has no Belief (Imān) at all. Comparison can be drawn only between people of Belief (Imān) because, without Belief (Imān), there is no good whatsoever in the disbelievers.

Allāh then describes the forces of Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Allāh says, "Sulaymān's army of Jinn, men and birds were gathered for him and they were restrained." This means that the army was so large that they had to be held back so that they do not break ranks. They would therefore proceed steadily with restraint.

Allāh then describes the incident with the ants, from which the Surah derives its name. Allāh says that Sayyidina Sulaymān's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام army marched on until "they reached a valley of ants, (where) an ant announced, 'O ants! Enter your dwellings lest Sulaymān and his army trample upon you without realising.'"

Understanding the speech of the ant, "Sulaymān began to smile and then laughed at her speech saying, 'O my Lord! Allow me to express gratitude for Your bounty, which You have conferred upon me and upon my parents, and that I perform good deeds that You are pleased with. And, out of Your Mercy, include me among Your righteous bondsmen.'

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a certain Prophet of Allāh عليه السلام once took his people out of town to pray for rain. As they emerged, he noticed an ant praying to Allāh with its feet in the air. Seeing this, he told his people, "Let us return. Our prayers have been answered because of this little ant." ["Mishkāt" p. 132]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه also reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that an ant once bit a certain Prophet عليه السلام. He instructed that the entire community of ants be burnt on account of this. Allāh sent revelation to him saying, "On account of a single ant biting you, you burnt an entire nation of creatures who engage in glorifying me." [Bukhari p. 467]

While the Shari'ah permits killing harmful creatures, it is not permissible to burn them.

Abu Dawūd reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once noticed that an anthill was burnt. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked who had burnt it, the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم admitted that they had done so. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told them, "It is only befitting for the Lord of fire to punish with fire."

It is not permissible to kill ants unnecessarily. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that ants and bees are among the creatures that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prohibited from killing unnecessarily.

Note: "Sulaymān began to smile and then laughed at her speech..." This verse tells us that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام initially intended only to smile, but that he inadvertently laughed thereafter. Laughter is not encouraged in the Shari'ah and may only take place unintentionally.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never laughed in a way that his uvula became visible. He usually smiled.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه also narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always smiled rather than laughed. It was on rare occasions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم actually revealed his molars while laughing.

Of the advice that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave to Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه was that he should never laugh excessively, because excessive laughter kills the heart and extinguishes that light on one's face. ["Mishkāt" p. 415]

Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام made the prayer (du'ā), "O my Lord! Allow me to express gratitude for Your bounty, which You have conferred upon me and upon my parents..." This teaches us to be grateful for the favours upon our parents as well because they are often the means whereby we attain Allāh's bounties. One of the greatest bounties that is conferred via one's parents is that of piety and righteousness.

لَاَعَذَابَ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا أَوْ لَأَذْبَحْنَهُ أَوْ لَيَأْتِيَنِي بِسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢١﴾ فَمَكَتْ
غَيْرَ بَعِيدٍ فَقَالَ أَحَطْتُ بِمَا لَمْ تُحِطْ بِهِ وَجِئْتُكَ مِنْ سَبَإٍ بِنَاءٍ يَقِينٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ إِنِّي
وَجَدْتُ أَمْرًا تَمْلِكُهُمْ وَأُوتِيَتْ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَلَهَا عَرْشٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَجَدْتُهَا
وَقَوْمَهَا يُسْجُدُونَ لِلشَّمْسِ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَزَيْنَ لَهُمْ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ فَصَدَّهُمْ عَنِ
السَّبِيلِ فَهُمْ لَا يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ أَلَا يَسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ الَّذِي يُخْرِجُ الْخَبَاءَ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تُخْفُونَ وَمَا تُعْلِنُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ
الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٢٦﴾ قَالَ سَتُنظرُ أَصْدَقْتَ أَمْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ أَذْهَبَ
بِكِتَابِي هَذَا فَأَلْقَاهُ إِلَيْهِمْ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ فَانْظُرْ مَاذَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ قَالَتْ يَأْتِيَهَا الْمَلَأُوا
إِنِّي أَتْلُو إِلَيْكَ كِتَابٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ إِنَّهُمْ مِنْ سُلَيْمَانَ وَإِنَّهُ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ﴿٣٠﴾
أَلَا تَعْلَمُونَ عَلَىٰ وَأُتُوْا مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ قَالَتْ يَأْتِيَهَا الْمَلَأُوا أَفْتُونِي فِي أَمْرِي مَا كُنْتُ قَاطِعَةً
أَمْرًا حَتَّىٰ تَشْهَدُونِ ﴿٣٢﴾ قَالُوا نَحْنُ أَوْلُوا قُوَّةٍ وَأُولُوا بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ وَالْأَمْرُ إِلَيْكِ فَانْظُرِي مَاذَا
تَأْمُرِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ قَالَتْ إِنَّ الْمُلُوكَ إِذَا دَخَلُوا قَرْيَةً أَفْسَدُوهَا وَجَعَلُوا أَعْرَاجَ أَهْلِهَا آذِلَّةً
وَكَذَلِكَ يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَإِنِّي مُرْسِلَةٌ إِلَيْهِمْ بِهَدِيَّةٍ فَنَاظِرَةٌ بِمَ يَرْجِعُ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾
فَلَمَّا جَاءَ سُلَيْمَانُ قَالَ أَتُمِدُّونَنِ بِمَالٍ فَمَا آتَيْنِيَ اللَّهُ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا آتَاكُمْ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ
بِهَدْيِكُمْ تَفْرَحُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ ارْجِعْ إِلَيْهِمْ فَلَنَأْتِيَنَّهُمْ بِجُلُودٍ لَا قِيْلَ لَهُمْ بِهَا وَلَنُخْرِجَنَّهُمْ مِنْهَا
أَذِلَّةً وَهُمْ صَاغِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾

(20) When Sulaymān عليه السلام inspected the birds he said, "Why do I not see Hoopoe (Hudhud)? Is he among the absentees?" (21) "I shall surely punish him severely or slaughter him unless he comes to me with a good excuse." (22) It was only a short while thereafter when Hoopoe (Hudhud) said, "I have brought you news that you have no knowledge of. I have just returned from Saba with certain news." (23) "I have found a woman who rules over them and who has been given everything. She also has a magnificent throne." (24) "I found her and her people prostrating to the sun instead of Allāh. Devil (Shaytān) has beautified their deeds for them and prevented them from the right path, because of which they are not rightly guided." (25) "They do not prostrate before Allāh, Who can expose the hidden things in the heavens and the earth, and who knows what you hide and what you disclose. (26) "Allāh is the One besides Whom there is no other deity. He is the Lord of the glorious throne." (27) Sulaymān عليه السلام said, "We shall soon see whether you have spoken the truth or whether you are from the liars." (28) "Take this letter of mine and throw it to them. Then turn away from them and see what reply they give." (29) She said, "O ministers! A noble letter has been thrown to me." (30) It is from Sulaymān and it says, "I begin with the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful." (31) "Do not be arrogant against me and come to me in submission." (32) She said, "O ministers! counsel me in my matter, for I shall never decide the case until you are present with me." (33) They replied, "We are people of great might and fierce fighters, but the matter rests with you. Therefore you decide what commands you wish to issue." (34) She said, "Verily when kings enter any town, they ruin it and humiliate its noble people. This is what they will do." (35) "I shall sent a gift to them and then see with what the messengers return." (36) When the messenger came to Sulaymān, he said, "Do you wish to assist me with wealth? What my Lord has given me is better than what He has given you. It is you people who are pleased about your gift." (37) "Return to them. I shall certainly march to them with an army that they will have no defence against. We shall definitely expel them thence in shame, while they are abased."

HOPOE (HUDHUD) INFORMS SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام ABOUT THE QUEEN OF SABA AND HER PEOPLE AND THEN TAKES A LETTER TO HER

Since Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had control over all types of creation, and they all formed his army, he used to keep a check on them. On one occasion, when he checked on the birds, he found Hoopoe (Hudhud) missing. (Hoopoe (Hudhud) could have been the leader of a certain species of bird).

Describing the scene Allāh says, "When Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام inspected the birds he said, 'Why do I not see Hoopoe (Hudhud)? Is he among the absentees? I shall surely punish him severely or slaughter him unless, he comes to me with a good excuse.

"...it was only a short while thereafter when Hoopoe (Hudhud) (arrived and presented his excuse when he) said, 'I have brought you news that you have no knowledge of I have just returned from Saba with certain news. I have found a woman who rules over them and who has been given everything (that a ruler requires). She also has a magnificent throne. (However) I found her and her people prostrating to the sun instead of Allāh. Devil (Shaytān) has beautified their deeds for them and prevented them from the right path, because of which they are not rightly guided."

Continuing his speech, Hudhud describes what is the right path when he says, "They do not prostrate before Allāh, Who can expose the hidden things in the heavens and the earth, and who knows what you hide and what you disclose. Allāh is the One besides Whom there is no other deity. He is the Lord of the glorious throne."

"Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said, 'We shall soon see whether you have spoken the truth or whether you are from the liars. Take this letter of mine and throw it to them (in the royal court). Then turn away from them (but not too far away) and see what reply they give."

The queen read the letter to her ministers. It read, "From Sulaymān. "Thereafter it continued, 'I begin with the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful. Do not be arrogant against me and come to me in submission."

It is learnt from this that a letter should commence with the writer's name, followed by:

("I begin with the name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful."). This should be done even if the letter is addressed to a disbeliever.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wrote to Hercules, the emperor of Rome, he began the letter with his name and then the words:

From Muhammad, the servant of Allāh and His messenger. To Heraclius, the Emperor of Rome. Peace be on those who follow the guidance."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not write "As Salāmu Alaykum" (Peace be on you). He used the same words that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام used when he addressed Pharaoh (Fir'aun) i.e. 'May peace be on those who follow the guidance.' This is so because it is not permissible to greet the disbelievers with "As Salāmu Alaykum." However, it is not necessary to even include this greeting. Therefore, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام omitted to write the same.

Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام commenced the letter with Allāh's name to inform them of Allāh, because they worshipped the sun. By including "the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful," he alluded to the fact that Allāh will forgive them if they repent from polytheism (shirk).

When the queen read the letter, she realised that the writer must be someone more powerful than her, because of the mode of address. She also realised that any foolishness on her part would lead to the destruction of her kingdom.

"She said, 'O ministers! Counsel me in my matter; for I shall never decide the case until you are present with me. They replied, '(We have nothing to be afraid of because) We are people of great might and fierce fighters, but (in the end) the matter rests with you. Therefore you decide what commands you wish to issue.

She told them that it was not suitable to rush into any decision before determining the strength of Sayyidina Sulaymān's عليه السلام forces. They needed to be cautious in the matter. Therefore, she said, "I shall send a gift to them and then see with what the messengers return." With the excuse of delivering the gift, the messengers could assess the strength of Sayyidina Sulaymān's عليه السلام army and also ascertain what he wanted from them.

If the messengers informed them that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام was as powerful as he seemed to be they would not enter into any battle, but rather surrender themselves. In this regard she told them, "Verily when kings enter any town, they ruin it and humiliate its noble people. This is what they will do."

Eventually, "When the messenger came to Sulaymān, he said, Do you wish to assist me with wealth? What my Lord has given me is better than what He has given you." While the people of Saba had sovereignty and authority only over a piece of land and a limited amount of people, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام possessed sway over all creatures and springs of copper even gushed forth from the earth for him.

He also told them, "It is you people (not me) who are pleased about your gift." Then, addressing the leader of the envoys, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام said,

"Return to them (taking your gifts with). I shall certainly march to them with an army that they will have no defence against. We shall definitely expel them thence in shame, while they are abased."

قَالَ يَتَآيَأُهَا الْمَلَأُوْا اَيْكُمْ يَا بَنِي بَعْرِشٍهَا قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّاتُوْنِي مُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿٣٨﴾ قَالَ عِفْرِيتٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ اَنَا ؕ اِيَّاكَ بِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَقُوْمَ مِنْ مَّقَامِكَ ۖ وَلِيْٓ عَلَيَّهٖ لَقُوْىْ اَمِيْنٌ ﴿٣٩﴾ قَالَ الَّذِىْ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمٌ مِّنَ الْكِتٰبِ اَنَا ؕ اِيَّاكَ بِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّرْتَدَّ اِلَيْكَ طَرْفُكَ ۚ فَلَمَّا رَآهُ مُسْتَقِرًّا عِنْدَهُ قَالَ هٰذَا مِنْ فَضْلِ رَبِّىْ لِيَبْلُوْنِيْ ؕ اَشْكُرْ اَمْ اَكْفُرْ ۚ وَمَنْ شَكَرَ فَاِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَاِنَّ رَبِّىْ عَزِيْزٌ كَرِيْمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ قَالَ نَكِّرُوْا لَهَا عَرْشَهَا نَنْظُرْ اَتَّهِنْدِىْ اَمْ تَكُوْنُ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿٤١﴾ فَلَمَّا جَآءَتْ قِيْلَ اِهْكَدَا عَرْشَكَ ۖ قَالَتْ كَاَنَّهُ هُوَ ۚ وَاُوْثِنَا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ قَبْلِهَا وَكُنَّا مُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَصَدَّهَا مَا كَانَتْ تَعْبُدُ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ ۚ اِنَّمَا كَانَتْ مِنْ قَوْمٍ كٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٤٣﴾ قِيْلَ لَهَا ادْخُلِ الصَّرْحَ ۚ فَلَمَّا رَاَتْهُ حَسِبَتْهُ لُجَّةً ۚ وَكَشَفَتْ عَنْ سَاقِيْهَا ۚ قَالَ اِنَّهُ صَرْحٌ مُّمَرَّدٌ مِّنْ فَوَارِيْرٍ ۚ قَالَتْ رَبِّ اِنِّىْ ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِىْ وَاَسْلَمْتُ مَعَ سُلَيْمٰنَ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿٤٤﴾

(38) Sulaymān عليه السلام said, "O courtiers! Which of you can bring her throne to me before they come to us in submission?" (39) A giant of the Jinn said, "I shall bring it to you before you stand up from your place. Indeed I am strong and trustworthy for such a task." (40) The one who possessed knowledge of the Book said, "I shall bring it to you before you can blink your eye." When Sulaymān عليه السلام saw it placed firmly in his presence, he said "This is from the grace of my Lord to test whether I will be grateful or ungrateful. Whoever is grateful shows gratitude only for his own good. Whoever is ungrateful, then indeed my Lord is Independent, Bountiful." (41) He said, "Disguise her throne for her so that we may see whether she is rightly guided or from among those who are not guided aright." (42) When she arrived, she was asked, "Is your throne something like this?" She replied, "It seems like this is the very one. We were informed from before and submitted. (43) Sulaymān forbade her from what she worshipped instead of Allāh. She was certainly from a disbelieving nation. (44) She was told, "Enter the palace." When she saw it, she thought it was a pool of deep water and exposed her calf Sulaymān عليه السلام said, "It is a palace that is constructed from an array of glass." She said, "O my Lord! I have surely oppressed my soul. I submit with Sulaymān to Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عليه السلام HAS THE QUEEN'S THRONE BROUGHT TO HIM, SHE IS ASKED IF IT IS HERS, AND SHE FINALLY BECOMES A MUSLIM

After Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام sent the envoys back, Allāh inspired him with the thought that they would not want to fight him. He therefore requested that her throne be brought to him. Some commentators say that he made this request after the queen and her people were already approaching him and the dust of their convoy was visible to Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. This he did to display his strength to them.

"Sulaymān عليه السلام said, 'O courtiers! Which of you can bring her throne to me before they come to us in submission?' A giant of the Jinn said, 'I shall bring it to you before you stand up from your place.'" i.e. It will be present before you terminate this gathering. This will not be difficult for me; neither will I betray you, because 'indeed I am strong and trustworthy for such a task.'"

"The one who possessed knowledge of the Book said, 'I shall bring it to you before you can blink your eye.'" True to his word, he immediately had the throne delivered to Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. "When Sulaymān عليه السلام saw it placed firmly in his presence, he said, 'This is from the grace of my Lord to test whether I will be grateful or ungrateful. Whoever is grateful shows gratitude only for his own good.' He will receive the reward for his gratitude in both the worlds."

On the other hand, "Whoever is ungrateful, then (it will not harm Allāh in the least because) indeed my Lord is Independent, Bountiful." Neither does a person's gratitude benefit Allāh, nor does it harm Him in any way.

Many opinions have been expressed with regard to the identity of "The one who possessed knowledge of the Book." The most famous opinion is that he was a person called Āsif bin Barkhiyya, who happened to be the son of Sayyidina Sulaymān's عليه السلام maternal aunt. He performed two rakāhs Salāh and then told Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام to look in the direction of Yemen. When Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام did so, he saw the throne before him.

Some commentator's say that the "knowledge of the Book" referred to the Ismul A'zam, which is a name of Allāh that guarantees acceptance of prayer's (du'ā's) after being recited. Others say that this refers to knowledge of the Zabūr. However, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام also possessed this knowledge because the Zabūr was revealed to his father, Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام. The other members of his counsel must have also had knowledge of the Zabūr, which is renowned to have been comprised of prayers and recitations. The above has occurred to me without having read it in any book.

Another opinion is that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام himself was "The one who possessed knowledge of the Book." When the Jinn boasted that he could bring the throne before Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام could rise from his place, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام told him that he could do it before the Jinn could blink his eye. Other commentators say that "The one who possessed knowledge of the Book" was Sayyidina Khidr عليه السلام, and others maintain that he was Jibr'il عليه السلام.

The verse merely mentions the presence of the throne and does not say that any journey was undertaken for the task. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله says that Allāh commanded the winds to transport it. Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام did have control over the winds and Surah Saba mentions that he managed to travel a month's journey in a single morning or evening using the winds.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that the distance separating Sayyidina

Sulaymān عليه السلام and the queen's throne was equivalent to the distance between Kufa and Hira. Other commentators say that the feat was accomplished when Allāh diminished the distance. Others say that Allāh created a tunnel through the earth for this purpose. And Allāh knows best.

When the throne was present Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام said, "Disguise her throne for her so that we may see whether she is rightly guided (in recognising it) or from among those who are not guided aright." Certain commentators say that some Devils (Shayātin) told Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام that the queen's intelligence was defective, and that is why he tested her in this manner.

"When she arrived, she was asked, 'Is your throne something like this?' She replied, 'It seems like this is the very one. Neither did she admit that it was her throne, nor did she refute it. Although she recognised it to be hers, she hesitated to admit it because she had left her throne well secured."

"We were informed from before and submitted." Many commentators are of the opinion that this is part of the queen's speech. She mentions that even before this exposition of Sayyidina Sulaymān's عليه السلام authority, she was already informed about his sovereignty, after which they decided to surrender to him.

Other commentators say that this sentence was spoken by Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام, who told the people that he was already informed from before that the people of Saba would surrender to them.

"Sulaymān forbade her from what she worshipped instead of Allāh." Keeping to the laws of the Arabic language, this verse can also be interpreted to mean that the things that the queen worshipped instead of Allāh forbade her from worshipping Allāh.

"She was certainly from a disbelieving nation." Her association with the people of Saba (who were all disbelievers) also influenced her to worship the sun. It often occurs that social customs and traditions prevent one from exercising one's intelligence.

"She was told, 'Enter the palace.' When she saw it, she thought it was a pool of deep water and exposed her calf" Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام also wanted her to see the extent of his sovereignty so that she does not regard her kingdom to be supreme. Therefore, he had a glass palace built before she arrived. He then had clear glass placed over the pond at the entrance. The glass was so clear that it was invisible. Thinking that she had to pass over water, she raised her dress, thus exposing her calf.

Seeing this, "Sulaymān عليه السلام said, 'it is a palace that is constructed from an array of glass. 'Totally astonished by what has transpired, she exclaimed, 'O my Lord! I have surely oppressed my soul. I submit with Sulaymān to Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

Note 1: None of the above verses of the Qur'ān state the name of the queen of Saba (Sheba). It is commonly understood that her name was Bilqīs.

Note 2: The Qur'ān is also silent about what happened after Bilqīs declared her Belief (Imān) in Allāh. However, it is known that she no longer remained as a ruler to her lands because her land came under the kingdom of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام.

Note 3: Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has written that, when Bilqīs lifted her dress, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام turned his eyes away from her and said, “it is a palace that is constructed from an array of glass.” This is typical of the behaviour of any pious person. They will never look at anything that they are not permitted to see.

Sayyidina Jarir رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed them to divert an unintentional glance. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Do not sustain your gaze after the first (unintentional) gaze because you will not be accountable for the first, but for the second.” [“Mishkāt” p. ]

Note 4: Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام returned the gift saying, “What my Lord has given me is better than what He has given you.” By saying this, he cast a deeper sense of awe into their hearts so that they understand that his kingdom was much superior to theirs. In this way they surrendered to him without much hesitation.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has written that another reason for returning the gift was that it was a form of bribe. Had he accepted it, Bilqīs and her people would have been permitted to continue with their ways of polytheism (shirk) without restraint. It would have been an example of selling truth for falsehood.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to give and accept gifts, but always repaid the person who gifted him. The “Mu’atta” of Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Shake hands and malice will be expelled. Give gifts and you will grow to love each other and enmity will disappear.”

The Shari’ah encourages accepting gifts unless there exists some valid reason for refusing, like when the gift is actually a bribe or it is accrued by Harām means.

It has been reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sometimes accepted the gifts of disbelievers, and that he sometimes refused it. It is learnt from this that their gifts may be accepted when it is deemed appropriate, while it can also be refused when deemed appropriate. Of course, when the possibility exists that a disbeliever will accept Islām if his gift is accepted, it should not be refused.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَى ثَمُودَ أَخَاهُمْ صَالِحًا أَنْ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ فَإِذَا هُمْ فَرِيقَانِ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ يَتَقَوَّمُ لِمَ سَتَعْجِلُونَ بِالْسَّيِّئَةِ قَبْلَ الْحَسَنَةِ لَوْلَا تَسْتَغْفِرُونَ اللَّهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالُوا أَطِيعْنَا بَكَ وَيَمْنُ مَعَكَ قَالَ طَاعْتَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ تُفْسِنُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَكَانَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ شَجْعَةٌ رَهْطٌ يُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا يُصْلِحُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ قَالُوا تَقَاسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ لَنُبَيِّتَنَّكَ وَأَهْلَكَ

ثُمَّ لَنَقُولَنَّ لِوَلِيِّهِ مَا شَهِدْنَا مَهْلِكَ أَهْلِهِ وَإِنَّا لَصَدِيقُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَمَكْرُؤًا
 مَكْرًا وَمَكْرَنَا مَكْرًا وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ
 عِقَابُ مَكْرِهِمْ إِنَّا دَمَرْنَاهُمْ وَقَوْمَهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ فَتِلْكَ بُيُوتُهُمْ خَاوِيَةٌ بِمَا
 ظَلَمُوا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَأَنجَيْنَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا
 وَكَانُوا يَتَّقُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾

(45) We have certainly sent to the Thamūd their brother Sālih (to tell them) "Worship Allāh." However; they suddenly became two rival groups. (46) He said, "O my people.' Why do you seek to hasten evil before good? Why do you not seek forgiveness from Allāh so that mercy may be shown to you?" (47) They said, "We augur evil from you and from those with you." He said, "Your evil omen is with Allāh. You are but a nation that is being punished." (48) There were nine persons in the town who spread anarchy in the land and never repaired. (49) They said, "You should all swear an oath by Allāh that we will all stealthily murder Sālih and his family at night, after which we shall tell his successors, 'We were not present at the place where his family was killed, and we are certainly truthful.'" (50) They plotted a scheme while We plotted scheme without their knowledge. (51) So see what was the outcome of their plot. We annihilated them and their entire nation. (52) These are their homes that lie in ruins because of their oppression. There is definitely a sign in this for people with knowledge. (53) We rescued those who believed and who adopted Taqwa.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE THAMŪD AFTER THEY ILL-TREATED SAYYIDINA SĀLIH عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

When Sayyidah Sālih عليه السلام preached the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) to his nation, only a few people who were regarded as the lower class in society accepted. The affluent people refused to accept. Allāh refers to these two groups when He says, "We have certainly sent to the Thamud their brother Sālih (to tell them) 'Worship Allāh.' However, they suddenly became two rival groups."

The dispute that existed between these two groups is mentioned in verse 75 and 76 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Allāh says, "The chieftains of his nation who were haughty said to those who believed from the weak ones, 'Are you convinced that Sālih has been sent by his Lord?' They replied, 'Indeed we believe in what he has been sent with.' Those who were haughty said, 'We definitely reject that which you believe in.'"

Verse 77 of Surah A'rāf mentions that these arrogant people of the Thamūd said, "O Sālih! Bring upon us that (punishment) which you threaten us with if you are really from the messengers."

In reply to this Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام told them, "O my people! Why do you seek to hasten evil before good? Why do you not seek forgiveness from Allāh so that mercy may be shown to you?" He advised them to rather repent to Allāh and mend their ways before Allāh's punishment overtakes them.

However, his advice fell on deaf ears and “They said, ‘We augur evil from you and from those with you.’” In saying this, they meant to blame him for the rivalry that began among them. “Ruhul Ma’āni” mentions that they were then afflicted by a drought, and they now blamed him and the other believers (Mu’minin) for this.

Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام replied, “Your evil omen (i.e. the reason for your adversity) is with Allāh (i.e. known by Him). You are but a nation that are being punished (because of your disbelief and sins).”

The above verses teach us that a preacher of truth should not be hampered by the thought that he is splitting a community by preaching. There will always be opposition to the truth, which will inevitably cause division. He should continue with his task with dedication.

Allāh says further, “There were nine persons in the town who spread anarchy in the land and never repaired.” These nine persons plotted to assassinate Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام. They convened and told each other, “You should all swear on oath by Allāh that we will all stealthily murder Sālih and his family at night, after which we shall tell his successors (when they investigate), ‘We were not present at the place where his family was killed, and we are certainly truthful.’”

The people also earlier killed the camel that Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام miraculously caused to emerge from a mountain, even after he warned them, “This camel of Allāh is a sign for you, so leave it to graze in Allāh’s land and do not afflict it with evil, for then a painful punishment will seize you.” [Surah A’rāf (7), verse 73]

However, despite their plot to assassinate Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام, Allāh says, “They plotted a scheme while We plotted scheme without their knowledge.” Durrul Manthūr reports that when the nine thugs left to assassinate Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام, a boulder rolled down a mountain and crushed them all.

Eventually the entire nation was destroyed even though they lived in homes carved from mountains. They lay dead in their homes, as if they never lived there. Allāh says, “So see what was the outcome of their plot. We annihilated them and their entire nation. These are their homes that lie in ruins because of their oppression. There is definitely a sign in this for people with knowledge. We rescued those who believed and who adopted Taqwa.”

When the nine anarchists swore to tell the successors of Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام that they were not present at the scene of the murder, the question arises how could there be any successors if his family was killed? Commentators say that the nine persons actually plotted to kill all the believers, who are termed as ‘family.’ They then intended to lie to the disbelievers relatives of these people. They had the same fear as the Quraysh had when they wanted to assassinate the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Quraysh feared that the Bani Hāshim would avenge the assassination.

وَلَوْ طَا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَتَأْتُونَ الْفَلْحِشَةَ وَأَنْتُمْ تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ أَيْنَكُمْ
لَتَأْتُونَ الرِّجَالَ شَهْوَةً مِنْ دُونِ الْإِنْسَاءِ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ بِجَهْلُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ فَمَا كَانَتْ

جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَخْرِجُوا آلَ لُوطٍ مِنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ إِنَّهُمْ أَنْفُسٌ يَنْطَهَرُونَ
 ﴿٥٦﴾ فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ إِلَّا امْرَأَتَهُ قَدَرْنَاهَا مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ
 مَطَرًا فَسَاءَ مَطَرُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾

(54) We also sent Lūt (to his nation), when he told them, "Do you perpetrate indecency while you are in your senses?" (55) "Do you really satisfy your passions with men instead of women? You are but an ignorant nation." (56) The only reply that his people could give was that they said, "Expel the family of Lūt from your town. They are merely people who wish to be clean." (57) So We rescued him and his family, except his wife. We destined that she be among those left behind. (58) We rained a shower on them. Evil indeed was the shower of those who were warned.

THE NATION OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام REFUSED TO DESIST FROM THEIR LEWD ACTS AND WERE FINALLY DESTROYED

The detailed account of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and his nation has been discussed in Surah A'raf [Surah 7, verses 80-84], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 77-83], Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 58-77], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 160-175]. More shall follow in Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verses 31-35]. The nation of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام perpetrated the vile act of homosexuality. Disgusted with their behaviour, Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام told them, "Do you perpetrate indecency while you are in your senses? Do you really satisfy your passions with men instead of women? You are but an ignorant nation."

"The only reply that his people could give was that they said, 'Expel the family of Lūt from your town. They are merely people who wish to be clean.'" They said this mockingly.

Eventually, Allāh instructed Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام to leave the town at night, after which the disbelievers were all destroyed. Allāh says, "So We rescued him and his family, except his wife. We destined that she be among those left behind."

Describing the punishment, Allāh says, "We rained a shower on them." Surah Hijr mentions that the stones were hard baked clay, while Surah Dhāriyāt describes the stones as being made of mud. It may therefore be said that the stones were like hardened bricks.

Allāh concludes by saying, "Evil indeed was the shower of those who were warned." These people had been warned for a long time, but refused to heed the warning.

PART TWENTY

قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَى عِبَادِهِ الَّذِينَ اصْطَفَىٰ ۗ ءَآلَهُ خَيْرٌ أَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ أَمَّنْ
 خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَأَنْزَلَ لَكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَنْبَتْنَا بِهِ حَدَائِقَ
 ذَاتِ بَهْجَةٍ مَّا كَانَ لَكُمْ أَنْ تُنْبِتُوا شَجَرَهَا ۗ ءَآلَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ
 يَعْدِلُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾ أَمَّنْ جَعَلَ الْأَرْضَ قَرَارًا وَجَعَلَ خِلَالَهَا أَنْهَارًا وَجَعَلَ لَهَا رَوَاسِيَ
 وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ حَاجِزًا ۗ ءَآلَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ أَمَّنْ
 يُخَيِّبُ الْمُضْطَرَّ إِذَا دَعَاهُ وَيَكْشِفُ السُّوءَ وَيَجْعَلُكُمْ خُلَفَاءَ الْأَرْضِ ۗ ءَآلَهُ
 مَعَ اللَّهِ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ أَمَّنْ يَهْدِيكُمْ فِي ظُلُمَاتِ اللَّيْلِ وَالْبَحْرِ
 وَمَنْ يُرْسِلُ الرِّيَّحَ بُشْرًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ رَحْمَتِهِ ۗ ءَآلَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى اللَّهُ عَمَّا
 يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ أَمَّنْ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ وَمَنْ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ
 ۗ ءَآلَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ قُلْ هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٦٤﴾ قُلْ لَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ فِي
 السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ الْغَيْبَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ أَيَّانَ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ بَلِ أَذْرَكَ عِلْمُهُمْ فِي
 الْآخِرَةِ ۗ بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِنْهَا ۚ بَلْ هُمْ مِنْهَا عَمُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾

(59) Say, "All praise be to Allāh and peace be on those bondsmen of His whom He has chosen. Is Allāh better or those whom they ascribe as partners to Him?"

(60) Or the Being Who has created the heavens and the earth and has sent rain for you from the sky? With it We grow gardens of splendid beauty. It is not possible for you to grow its trees. Is there another deity with Allāh? They are but a people who equate others with Allāh. (61) Or He Who made the earth stable, created rivers in its midst, placed mountains on it, and has placed a barrier between the two seas? Is there another deity with Allāh? Nay, but most of them are ignorant. (62) Or He Who responds to the distressed when he calls Him, averts evil and has made you vicegerents on earth? Is there another deity with Allāh? Little do you take heed. (63) Or the Being Who guides you in the darkness of the land and sea? And Who sends the winds as a conveyer of glad tidings before His mercy? Is there another deity with Allāh? Allāh is Exalted high above what they ascribe. (64) Or He Who initiated the creation, Who will recreate it, and Who sustains you from the sky and the earth? Is there another deity with Allāh? Say, "Furnish your proof if you are truthful." (65) Say, "None in the heavens and the earth has knowledge of the unseen besides Allāh. They do not even know when they will be resurrected. (66) In fact, their knowledge is obsolete with regard to the Hereafter. Nay! They are in doubt about it. They are but blind to it.

THE GREAT ATTRIBUTES OF ALLĀH, HIS CONTROL OF THE CREATION, AND AN INVITATION TO ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD)

Allāh presents proofs of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) in these verses. Allāh begins by saying, "Say, 'All praise be to Allāh and peace be on those bondsmen of His whom He has chosen.'"

Thereafter Allāh poses a question by saying, 'Is Allāh better or those whom they ascribe as partners to Him?' Even the polytheists realise that Allāh wields supreme power, and that their idols are helpless. Allāh then proceeds to illustrate His immense powers.

Allāh asks if the other gods are better "Or the Being Who has created the heavens and the earth and has sent rain for you from the sky? With it We grow gardens of splendid beauty. It is not possible for you to grow its trees." Allāh then asks, "Is there another deity with Allāh? The answer is understood that none can coexist as deity with Allāh.

However despite these facts, the polytheists "are but a people who equate others with Allāh." Another interpretation of this part of the verse is that they are a people who still wander away from the straight path.

"Or He Who made the earth stable (so that man and animal can walk on it), created rivers in its midst, placed mountains on it, and has placed a barrier between the two seas (thus separating the salty water from the sweet water)?" Allāh asks whether He (Who possesses these qualities) is better than the false gods of the Polytheists. Allāh then says, 'is there another deity with Allāh? Nay, but most of them are ignorant.'

Allāh says that the earth is stable. This means that, under normal circumstances, the earth will not shake like other objects that are found on its surface. Of course, when Allāh wills that an earthquake should occur, even the largest mountains cannot be any obstacle.

"Or He Who responds to the distressed when he calls Him, averts evil and has made you vice gerents on earth?" People are successors of each other because each new generation assumes control from the previous generations. Allāh reiterates the question, 'Is there another deity with Allāh? Little do you take heed.'

Are the false gods better "Or He Who guides you in the multiplicity of darkness of the ocean and sends the winds as a conveyer of glad tidings before His mercy (i.e. before the rains)? Is there another deity with Allāh? Allāh is Exalted high above what they ascribe."

"Or He Who initiated the creation Who will recreate it, and Who sustains you from the sky and the earth? Is there another deity with Allāh? Say, 'Furnish your proof if you are truthful.'" Allāh challenges the polytheists to prove that any of their gods can match Allāh in any one of the above attributes. Without proof it will be foolish to adhere to their beliefs.

Allāh then declares, "Say, 'None in the heavens and the earth has knowledge of the unseen besides Allāh. They do not even know when they will be resurrected.'" This verse is a reply to those polytheists who demanded that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم inform them when Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place. This knowledge is exclusive to Allāh.

"In fact, their knowledge is obsolete with regard to the Hereafter. Nay! They are in doubt about it. They are but blind to it." Just as a blind person cannot see, these people are blind to the clear proofs furnished to them because of their obstinacy. While a person in doubt may hearken to the truth, the blind have no chance of this because the eyes of their heart are sealed against the truth.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَإِذَا كُنَّا تُرَابًا وَءَابَاؤُنَا إِنَّا لَمُخْرَجُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ لَقَدْ وَعَدْنَا هَذَا نَحْنُ وَءَابَاؤُنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا تَكُنْ فِي ضَيْقٍ مِمَّا يَمْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ قُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ رَدِفَ لَكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِي تَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَيَعْلَمُ مَا تُكِنُّ صُدُورُهُمْ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَمَا مِنْ غَائِبَةٍ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٧٥﴾

(67) The disbelievers say, "When our forefathers and we have turned into dust and bones, will we be resurrected?" (68) "Our forefathers and we have been promised the same from before. These are merely tales of the old men." (69) Say, "Travel in the lands and see what was the plight of the criminals." (70) Do not grieve about them and do not be distressed about what they plot. (71) They say, "When will this promise materialise if you are truthful?" (72) Say, "Soon a part of the punishment that you sought to hasten will have afflicted you." (73) Without doubt your Lord is Most Bountiful towards people, but most of them are ungrateful. (74) Indeed your Lord knows what their hearts conceal and what they disclose. (75) Every hidden thing in the heavens and the earth is recorded in the clear book.

THE WARNING TO THOSE WHO REJECT THE ADVENT OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH) AND THEIR MISGIVINGS

After refuting polytheism (shirk) and proving oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), Allāh replies to those who refute the Hereafter. Allāh says, "The disbelievers say, 'When our forefathers and we have turned into dust and bones, will we be resurrected? Our forefathers and we have been promised the same from before. These are merely tales of the old men.'" The disbelievers claimed that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) cannot be true because it has not yet materialized.

Allāh replies by saying, "Say, 'Travel in the lands and see what was the plight of the criminal is.'" The disbelievers should see what happened to the other nations who refused to believe in the Hereafter. They were all punished for their disbelief, and such will be the plight of all other disbelievers.

Allāh then consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying, "Do not grieve about them (and about what they say) and do not be distressed about what they plot (because Allāh will save you from them)."

After being told to travel and witness the plight of the previous nations "They (mockingly) say, 'When will this promise materialise if you are truthful?' Say, 'Soon a part of the punishment that you sought to hasten will have afflicted you.'" Commentators say that the partial punishment mentioned in this verse refers to the battle of Badr, where 70 polytheists were killed and another 70 imprisoned. Thereafter the punishment of death will follow, then the punishment of the grave and finally the worst punishment of the Hereafter.

"Without doubt your Lord is Most Bountiful towards people, but most of them are ungrateful." Allāh also bestows His favours upon the disbelievers and the polytheists. He even grants them respite to repent before afflicting them with punishment. However, man fails to appreciate these bounties, continues to sin and utilises these favours in all the wrong avenues.

"Indeed your Lord knows what your hearts conceal and what they disclose." This verse also consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the assurance that Allāh is well aware of the evil intentions that the disbelievers harbour against him and Allāh will save him from harm. This verse also warns the disbelievers that Allāh shall take them to task for all that they do.

"Every hidden thing in the heavens and the earth is recorded in the clear book (i.e. the protected tablet (Lawhul Mahfūz))." Allāh records all matters in the protected tablet (Lawhul Mahfūz) even though He has knowledge of the same. An account is even kept of peoples' deeds. Allāh will punish people for these according to His wisdom.

إِنَّ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ يَفُضُّ عَلَىٰ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ أَكْثَرَ الَّذِي هُمْ فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَإِنَّهُ
لَهْدَىٰ وَرَحْمَةً لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُم بِحُكْمِهِ ۚ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْعَلِيمُ
﴿٧٨﴾ فَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ ۚ إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ الْحَقِّ الْمُبِينِ ﴿٧٩﴾

(76) Verily this Qur'ān relates to the Bani Isrā'īl most of the matters about which they differ. (77) Indeed it is a guidance and a mercy for the believers. (78) Without doubt Allāh will decide between them according to His decree. He is the Mighty, The All Knowing. (79) So rely on Allāh. Undoubtedly you are upon the manifest truth.

THE QUR'ĀN EXPLAINS WHAT THE BANI ISRĀ'ĪL DIFFERED IN

Allāh says, "Verily this Qur'ān (clearly) relates to the Bani Isrā'īl most of the matters about which they differ." The Qur'ān explains to them the matters which they altered in their scriptures and which were hearsay.

One of these matters is that they believed that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was a Jew or a Christian. Allāh tells them "Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was neither a Jew nor a Christian, but he was one abiding to the truth and subservient, never from the idolaters." [Surah Āl Imrān (3), verse 67]

They also claimed that camel meat was unlawful (Harām) in the religion of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Allāh refutes their claim in verse 93 of Surah Āl Imrān (Surah 3), saying that all types of food were permissible for them.

Another claim that they made was that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام advised their children to be Jews. Allāh replies to them in verse 132 of Surah Baqarah, telling them that these two Prophets عليهما السلام advised their children to be Muslims.

The Qur'ān also dispels the erroneous beliefs that they held regarding Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام and Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. The Qur'ān makes it clear that she was chaste and that he was not Allāh's son.

Allāh then says about the Qur'ān that "Indeed it is a guidance and a mercy for the believers (because they believe in it and carry out its injunctions)." Although the Qur'ān is also a guidance and mercy for the disbelievers, they do not believe in it, thereby being deprived of its blessings.

"Without doubt Allāh will decide between them according to His decree (on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), thereby discerning truth from error). He is the Mighty, The All Knowing." None can lie to Him and nothing is hidden from Him.

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So rely on Allāh. Undoubtedly you are upon the manifest truth (therefore, do not grieve)."

إِنَّكَ لَا تَسْمِعُ الْمَوْتَىٰ وَلَا تَسْمِعُ الدُّعَاءَ إِذَا وَلَّوْا مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادِي
الْعُمَىٰ عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ ۖ إِنَّ تَسْمِعَ إِلَّا مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ﴿٨١﴾

(80) Verily, you cannot make the dead hear, neither can you make the deaf hear the call when they turn away in aversion. (81) You cannot guide the blind from their deviation. You can guide only those who believe in our verses and who have submitted.

YOU CANNOT MAKE THE DEAD HEAR NOR CAN YOU GUIDE THE BLIND

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exerted himself greatly in propagating the message of Islām. Although there were those who believed in him, many Polytheists adamantly adhered to their pagan beliefs. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was greatly distressed by this and wanted everyone to become Muslims. It was because of this that Allāh revealed the verse, "Do not grieve about them and do not be distressed about what they plot."

In the verses under discussion, Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in a different manner. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that there are certain people whom he will never be able to influence because they have totally sealed their hearts with their obstinacy and rebelliousness. In fact, these people are so averse, that Allāh describes them as being dead, deaf and blind. Allāh says, "Verily, you cannot make the dead hear, neither can you make the deaf hear the call (especially) when they turn away in aversion. You cannot guide the blind from their deviation."

"You can guide only those who believe in our verses and who have submitted." This part of the verse makes it clear that the hearing and guidance mentioned in the above verse refer to responding to the truth, not simply hearing. Allāh terms hearing to be hearing only when it is of benefit to people. Allāh draws a similarity between these people and the dead because the dead are also unable to hear and respond.

CAN THE DEAD HEAR?

Even the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم differed in this matter. While many Sahābah رضى الله عنهم like Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه maintained that the dead can hear, others like Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها denied it. The above verse of Surah Naml seems to deny this concept. Verse 52 of Surah Rūm (Surah 30) also denies it in almost the same words, and Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "You cannot make those in the graves hear." [Surah 35, verse 22]

It should be noted that these three verses do not state that the dead cannot hear. They merely say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cannot make the dead hear. Therefore, although the dead may have the ability to hear, none has the power to make them hear his message.

Allāh says in verses 169 and 170 of Surah Āl Imrān, "Never consider those slain in Allāh's way to be dead. Indeed they are alive, being sustained by their Lord. They are jubilant with what their Lord (Rabb) gives them from His bounty; and rejoice for the sake of those who have yet not joined them, who have been left behind, that no fear shall overcome them, nor shall they grieve."

These verses prove that the dead martyrs have some sort of sense and perception. This means that Allāh does preserve the perception of certain souls, like the martyrs, in the grave. If Allāh so wills, He can preserve this perception within any other person as well.

An authentic hadith tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whenever a Muslim passes by and greets the grave of someone whom he knew in this world, Allāh returns the soul of the deceased to his body so that he can reply to the greeting." [Ibn Kathīr]

This hadith proves that the dead are able to hear. However, it also proves that only those whom Allāh permits that they should hear will be able to hear. While the hadith tells us that Allāh returns the soul of the deceased to this world to hear and reply to the greeting, one cannot deduce from this that other speech can be heard by them. They will be able to hear other speech only by Allāh's permission.

It is for this reason that great scholars like Imām Ghazali رحمه الله and Imām Subki رحمه الله have mentioned that while it is established that the dead do have the ability to hear, it cannot be said that they can hear everything that anyone says. While they may be able to hear at times, there are times when they cannot hear as well. Therefore, all the relevant verses and Ahadith pertaining to this subject connect.

It is possible that they are able to hear only certain types of speech, or it may be that they can hear only certain people. Therefore, it will be incorrect to deny that the dead can hear, just as it would be incorrect to deny that they cannot hear.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله writes that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has taught his Ummah to greet the deceased so that they may not be regarded as mere objects.

Muslim (v. 1 p. 3 13) reports that the deceased should be greeted with the following words:

When Hakīmul Ummah Thanwi رحمه الله was asked whether the dead can hear, he wrote in response, "There is evidence and opinions of the scholars that support both views. Who is then able to make a ratified decision? It is not even necessary that any verdict be passed on this issue to support one view and deny the other. Then too, there exists differences between those who support the view that the dead are able to hear. If any specific belief in this regard is asked about, perhaps a reply would be possible." [Imdādul Fatawā v. 5 p. 379]

وَإِذَا وَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ أَخْرَجْنَا لَهُمْ دَابَّةً مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ تُكَلِّمُهُمْ أَنَّ النَّاسَ كَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا لَا يُوقِنُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾

(82) When the promise will be fulfilled upon them, We shall bring for them a creature from the earth, which will speak to them. People are not convinced about Our signs.

THE CREATURE FROM THE EARTH WILL APPEAR BEFORE THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

The Ahadith have mentioned in great detail that the "creature from the earth" will be one of the major signs of Judgment day (Qiyāmah).

Sayyidina Hudhaifa bin Usayd رضى الله عنه reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place only after the following ten signs have appeared:

(1) A smoke

- (2) Dajjāl
- (3) The creature from the earth
- (4) The rising of the sun from the west.
- (5) The descent of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام from the heavens.
- (6) The emergence of Ya'jūj (Gog) and Ma'jūj (Magog).
- (7, 8, 9) Sinking of the earth in three places ..... once in the east, another in the west, and the third in Arabia.
- (10) The last of these will be a fire from Yemen that will drive people to the plains of resurrection.

Another narration states that the tenth sign will be a wind that will throw people into the ocean. [Muslim v. 2 p. 393]

The verse denotes that the creature will be extremely unique and peculiar. It will not be born like other animals, but will suddenly appear from beneath the earth.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that one of the last signs before Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will be the rising of the sun from the west and the emergence of the "creature of the earth" before the people during midmorning. Whichever of the two will appear first, the other will follow soon afterwards. [Muslim]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When three signs appear, the Belief (Imān) of a person who has not believed before will be of no avail, neither will that Belief (Imān) be of avail that has not earned any good (i.e., the person has not repented for his sins). (1) The rising of the sun from the west, (2) the appearance of Dajjāl, (3) the emergence of the 'creature of the earth.'" [Muslim]

The "Musnad" of Abu Dawūd Tiyyālasi رحمه الله reports the above hadith of Sayyidina Hudhaifa bin Usayd رضى الله عنه in some detail. It reports that the creature will make three appearances. The first appearance will occur in the rural districts and in Makkah, but the news will not spread at all. It will then disappear for a long time. When it appears the second time, the news will spread across the rural districts and throughout Makkah. On the third occasion, it will make its appearance in the Masjidul Harām, which is extremely sacred in Allāh's sight.

From between the Black Stone and the Maqām Ibrahim, it will suddenly appear before all the people present there, screaming and dusting off its head. Many people will run far away in fear, but a group of believers (Mu'minin) will remain where they stand, knowing that they cannot escape Allāh's decree. The creature will cause the faces of the believers (Mu'minin) to shine like stars and will then turn away and travel the world with such speed that none will be able to catch it, neither will anyone be able to escape it.

To be saved from the creature a person will engage in Salāh. The creature will approach him from the back and ask him, "O person! You are performing Salāh now?" It will then leave a sign on his face. People will then engage in partnerships and live together in cities, but the believers (Mu'minīn) will be clearly distinguished from the disbelievers by the markings that the creature will leave on them. The believer (Mu'min) will tell the disbeliever, "O disbeliever! Fulfil my right," and the disbeliever will tell the believer (Mu'min), "O Believer (Mu'min)! Fulfil mine." [p. 177]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the creature will emerge with the ring of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام and the staff of Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. It will illuminate the faces of the believers (Mu'minīn) and place a seal in the noses of the disbelievers (by which they will be recognised as disbelievers). [Tirmidhi]

وَيَوْمَ نَخْشُرُ مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ فَوْجًا مِمَّنْ يُكَذِّبُ بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا
جَاءُوا قَالَ أَكَذَّبْتُمْ بِآيَاتِي وَلَمْ تُحِطُوا بِهَا عَلِمْنَا أَنَّمَا كُنْتُمْ تَصْمِلُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَوَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ
عَلَيْهِمْ بِمَا ظَلَمُوا فَهُمْ لَا يَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ أَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا جَعَلْنَا آلِيلَ لِسِ كُنُوزِهِمْ فِيهِ
وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾

(83) The day when, from every nation, We will resurrect an army from those who deny Our verses, who will then be restrained. (84) Until the time will come when they will all arrive and Allāh will ask, "Did you deny My verses without possessing complete knowledge of them? In stead, there were other actions that you carried out." (85) The promise would be fulfilled upon them because of their oppression, so they will be unable to speak. (86) Do they not see that We have made the night so that they may rest in it and the day so that may see? There are certainly signs in this for the believing folk.

RESURRECTION ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND THE PUNISHMENT OF THE REJECTERS AFTER THEY ADMIT TO THEIR CRIMES

When all of mankind and jinn will be resurrected on the Plains of Resurrection, Allāh will separate "an army from those who deny Our verses, who will then be restrained (to maintain order within their masses)."

"Until the time will come when they will all arrive and Allāh will ask, 'Did you deny My verses without possessing complete knowledge of them?'" Without attempting to understand the verses and pondering over their contents, they denied these. Allāh will ask further, "Instead, there were other actions that you carried out (like assassinating the Prophets عليهم السلام, harming them and an array of other sinful deeds)."

"The promise (of punishment) would be fulfilled upon them because of their oppression, so they will be unable to speak." At first, the disbelievers will come to Allāh (as mentioned in other verses) and will not admit their sins. Thereafter, their limbs will testify against them. After this condemnation, they will have nothing to say.

Allāh says, "Do they not see that We have made the night so that they may rest in it and the day so that they may see? There are certainly signs in this for the believing folk." They can realise from the way in which Allāh raises them every morning after sleep that He can certainly raise them after death as well.

Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "Allāh claims souls at the time of their death, as well as those that do not die during their sleep. Allāh then seizes the soul for which death has been decreed, and releases others until their appointed term. There are certainly signs in this for people who think." [Surah 39, verse 42]

وَيَوْمَ يُفْعُ فِي الصُّورِ فَفَزِعَ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ وَكُلُّ أَتَوَهُ دَخِيرِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾ وَتَرَى الْجِبَالَ تَحْسَبُهَا جَامِدَةً وَهِيَ تَمُرُّ مَرَّ السَّحَابِ صُنِعَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْفَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ إِنَّهُمْ خَيْرٌ إِمَّا تَحْكُمُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ خَيْرٌ مِنْهَا وَهُمْ مِّنْ فَزَعٍ يَوْمَئِذٍ ءَامِنُونَ ﴿٨٩﴾ وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَكُبَّتْ وَجُوهُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ هَلْ يُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٠﴾

(87) The day when the trumpet will be blown and all within the heavens and the earth will be terrified, except those whom Allāh wills. They will all come to Allāh in humility. (88) You will look at the mountains, thinking them to be solid but they will be passing by like clouds. This is the doing of Allāh Who perfects everything. Indeed He is Informed of what you do. (89) Whoever brings a good deed shall receive something better. And they will be safe from the terror of that day. (90) Whoever brings a sin will fall on their faces in the Fire. "You are recompensed only for what you have perpetrated."

THE INHABITANTS OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH WILL BE ALARMED BY THE SOUNDING OF THE TRUMPET, WHEN THE MOUNTAINS WILL FLY LIKE CLOUDS

The advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will be announced by the blowing of the trumpet by the angel Israfil عليه السلام. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the trumpet is actually a horn that will be blown. [Tirmidhi and Abu Dawūd]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "How can I live a life of pleasure when the blower of the trumpet has it in his mouth and is listening intently with his head lowered, eagerly awaiting for the command to blow." The Sahābah رضى الله عنهم asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! What do you advise us?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Allāh is sufficient for us and He is the best Protecting Friend." [Tirmidhi]

The entire system of the universe will be thrown into mayhem when the trumpet is sounded. Allāh says, "The day when the trumpet will be blown and all within the heavens and the earth will be terrified..."

Allāh says in Surah Zumar that, when "The trumpet will be blown, and everyone in the heavens and the earth will fall unconscious, save for those whom Allāh chooses." Both the above verses refer to the first blowing of the trumpet. Therefore, when the trumpet is blown for the first time, the inhabitants of the universe will be terrified and will then fall unconscious. Then, by Allāh's will, "Every soul shall taste of death."

Certain commentators have mentioned that the state of terror described in the verse of Surah Naml refers to the second blowing of the trumpet. Therefore, when the trumpet is blown the second time to resurrect the dead, creation will be terrified. This interpretation is supported by the concluding words of the same verse where Allāh says, "They will all come to Allāh in humility."

However, the above verses of Surah Naml and Surah Zumar include an exception, where Allāh adds, "except those whom Allāh wills." This means that there will be certain individuals who will not suffer the terror or the unconsciousness.

"Durrul Manthūr" reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that these individuals will be the four angels Jibr'il عليه السلام, Mika'il عليه السلام, Israfil عليه السلام and Izrā'il the angel of death عليه السلام. The angels who carry Allāh's throne will also survive with these four but will die later.

Many verses of the Qur'ān describe the chaos that will reign on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Surah Ibrahim states that on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) "the earth will be changed into another earth, and the skies (will also be changed)." Surah Takwīr (Surah 81), Surah Infītār (Surah 82) and Surah Inshiqāq (Surah 84) mention that the sun will lose its radiance, the stars will fall, and the oceans will be ignited.

Here, in Surah Naml, Allāh says, "You will look at the mountains, thinking them to be solid but they will be passing by like clouds."

Allāh says in Surah Qārī'ah, "The day when people will be like scattered moths, and the mountains will be like flakes of coloured wool." [Surah 101, verses 4, 5]

Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "When the earth shall convulse with violent earthquakes and the mountains will be shattered to pieces and become like scattered dust." [Surah 56, verses 4-6]

Allāh says in Surah Hāqqa, "When the trumpet will be blown once. The earth and the mountains will be lifted and reduced to smithereens. That day, the occurrence {Resurrection (Qiyāmah)} will take place. The sky will be rent asunder and will become weak." [Surah 69, verses 13-16]

A verse of Surah Naba reads, "The mountains will be made to fly and will be reduced to dust." [Surah 78, verse 20]

Allāh says in Surah TāHā reads: "They ask you about the mountains. Say, 'My Lord shall completely remove them, leaving the earth as a barren plain on which you will not see any protrusions, nor any depressions. On that day they will follow the caller before whom there will be no crookedness. Voices will be lowered before Rahmān and you will hear only the sound of footsteps.'" [Surah 20, verses 105-108]

Certain commentators have mentioned that the mountains will be like dense clouds which people think are solid and stationary without realising that they are actually travelling.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the mountains will first be shaken by an earthquake, causing them to become like flakes of wool. They will then be reduced to dust and fly about. They will finally turn to ashes.

"This is the doing of Allāh, Who perfects everything." Just as Allāh created the mountains to be solid and firmly entrenched where they stand, He has the ability to remove them from their locations and reduce them to dust. Every phase is by His doing. Therefore, the disruption of the universe should never be considered as a weakness.

"Whoever brings a good deed, shall receive something better." Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه say that the "good deed" mentioned in the verse refers to the Kalimah of Islām viz. "Lā Ilāha Illallāh."

With regard to receiving something better, Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that this Kalimah will bring good for the person by way of entering him into Heaven. Other commentators say that the reward will be Allāh's pleasure and seeing Him, which is much better than any deed that they could ever do.

If "good deed" refers to all good deeds, then the promise of "something better" will mean that the rewards for these deeds will be greatly multiplied. Allāh says in Surah An'ām, "Whoever does a good deed will receive tenfold the like thereof" [Surah 6, verse 160]

"And they will be safe from the terror of that day." Since the previous verse mentioned that all within the heavens and the earth will be terrified at the first blowing, this verse will refer to the second blowing. Some commentators mention that the "terror" referred to here is the terror that people will feel when they will be condemned to Hell.

Other commentators say that it refers to the terror that people will feel when death will be slaughtered in the form of a sheep, and the people of Heaven and Hell will be told that they will remain where they are until eternity.

"Whoever brings a sin will fall on their faces in the Fire." If the sin mentioned in this verse refers to all sins, then even the sinful believers (Mu'minīn) will end up in Hell for purification. However, their punishment will be much less than that of the disbelievers and finally they will be removed from Hell.

Other commentators say that the "sin" mentioned in this verse refers to disbelief and polytheism (shirk). The verse will therefore be similar to verses 94 and 95 of Surah Shu'arā (Surah 26), where Allāh says, "They will all be thrown headlong in there, together with those gone astray, and the entire army of Satan (Iblīs)."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that many times certain laws apply to a sector of a group, while others within the same group are excluded. Therefore, it is very possible that the sinful believers will not fall face-down into Hell.

The people of Hell will be told, "You are recompensed only for what you have perpetrated (in beliefs and deeds)."

إِنَّمَا أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ رَبَّ هَذِهِ الْبَلَدَةِ الَّذِي حَرَّمَهَا وَلَهُ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ
أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ وَأَنْ أَتْلُوَ الْقُرْآنَ فَمَنِ اهْتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ
ضَلَّ فَقُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُنذِرِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ وَقُلْ لِحَمْدِ اللَّهِ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّنَا فَمَنْ فَتَنَّا
رَبُّكَ يَغْضِبْ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾

(91) "I have been commanded to worship only the Lord of this city, Who has made it sacred and everything belongs to Him. And I have been commanded to be from the subservient ones." (92) "And (I have been commanded) to recite the Qur'ān." Whoever is rightly guided, is guided for his own benefit. As for those who go astray, then say, "I am only from the warners. (93) Say, "All praise is for Allāh. He will soon show you His signs, which you will recognise. Your Lord is not unaware of what you do."

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS TOLD TO ANNOUNCE THAT HE HAS BEEN COMMANDED TO WORSHIP ALLĀH AND BE SUBSERVIENT TO HIM

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to declare, "I have been commanded to worship only the Lord of this city, Who has made it sacred..." Allāh has preserved its sanctity by instructing that its animals be not hunted, that its plantation be not cut, and that no life be taken there.

From the general sense of this verse, Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله has deduced that even if someone murders another person within the boundaries of the Haram, the murderer is not to be executed within the Haram. If he hides there, he must be forced to leave the Haram in some way, after which he should be executed outside the marked boundaries of the Haram.

"....and everything belongs to Him." Therefore, only He is worthy of worship.

"And I have been commanded to be from the subservient ones." One should be subservient to Allāh in all conditions, not only in matters that pertain to devotional acts. Worship includes carrying out all deeds that secure Allāh's pleasure.

"And (I have been commanded) to recite the Qur'ān." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was entrusted with the task of reciting the Qur'ān to himself as well as to others. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān that one of the tasks of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is that he "recites to them His (Allāh's) verses."

"Whoever is rightly guided, is guided for his own benefit." He will ultimately reap the greatest rewards in both the worlds by attaining various bounties, Allāh's pleasure and safety from Hell.

"As for those who go astray, then say, 'I am only from the warners. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cannot be responsible for people who deviated from the path. He was not entrusted with the task of making people believe, because this is beyond human capability. His duty was merely to preach the message. He will therefore not be accountable for those who do not accept after receiving the message.

Allāh says in verse 108 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10), "Say, 'O people! Certainly the truth has come to you from your Lord. So whoever will be guided shall receive guidance only for himself Whoever will go astray shall only go astray to his own detriment. I have not been commissioned over you.'"

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Say, 'All praise is for Allāh. He will soon show you His signs, which you will recognise." People asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell them exactly when judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place. Here the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم tells them that they will soon see the signs of judgment day (Qiyāmah), from which they will realise that it is near. Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will occur only when Allāh decrees it.

"Your Lord is not unaware of what you do. "Allāh is well aware of every person's deeds and will grant them the due recompense.

سورة القصص

Makkan

Surah Al-Qasas

Verses 88

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

طَسَمَ ﴿١﴾ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ﴿٢﴾ نَتْلُو عَلَيْكَ مِنْ نَبَأِ مُوسَى وَفِرْعَوْنَ
بِالْحَقِّ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣﴾ إِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ عَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَجَعَلَ أَهْلَهَا شِيْعًا
يَسْتَضِعُّ طَائِفَةً مِنْهُمْ يَتَّبِعُ أَبْنَاءَ هُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيِ نِسَاءَهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا مِنَ الْمُفْسِدِينَ
﴿٤﴾ وَنُرِيدُ أَنْ نَمُنَّ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اسْتُضِعُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَنَجْعَلَهُمْ أَئِمَّةً وَنَجْعَلَهُمُ
الْوَارِثِينَ ﴿٥﴾ وَنُكَلِّمُهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَنَرَى فِرْعَوْنَ وَهُنَادِي وَجُنُودَهُمَا مِنْهُمْ مَا
كَانُوا يَحْذَرُونَ ﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Tā Sīn Mīm. (2) These are the verses of the Clear Book. (3) With the truth, We recite to you from the narrative of Mūsa and Pharaoh (Fir'aun) for those people who believe. (4) Verily Pharaoh (Fir'aun) glorified himself on earth and divided the people into many groups. He weakened a party of them and slaughtered their sons, while keeping their daughters alive. He was certainly from the transgressors. (5) We intended to favour those who were weakened on earth by making them leaders and making them successors. (6) And by granting them authority on earth and showing Pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān and their armies what they most feared from these weakened people.

THE TRANSGRESSION OF PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS OPPRESSIVE TREATMENT OF THE BANI ISRĀ'ĪL

Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "These are the verses of the Clear Book. With the truth, We recite to you from the narrative of Mūsa and Pharaoh (Fir'aun) for those people who believe." People are to learn a lesson from the narrative.

"Verily Pharaoh (Fir'aun) glorified himself on earth (in Egypt) and divided the people into many groups. He weakened a party of them (the Bani Isrā'īl) and slaughtered their sons, while keeping their daughters alive." Pharaoh (Fir'aun) had weakened the Bani Isrā'il to such an extent that they could do nothing when his troops slaughtered their children.

It has already been stated in the commentary of Surah Baqarah that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) was warned by astrologers that a child from the Bani Isrā'il will put an end to his kingdom. To evade the situation, he instructed that all infant boys of the Bani Isrā'il were to be killed. Allāh says that Pharaoh (Fir'aun) "was certainly from the transgressors."

"We intended to favour those who 'were weakened on earth by making them leaders and making them successors. And by granting them authority on earth..." Honour and sovereignty are in Allāh's control and He may accord these to whoever He pleases. Even though the Bani Isrā'il were in a downtrodden position, Allāh elevated them and made leaders and kings among their progeny.

"and showing Pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān (Pharaoh {Fir'aun's} advisor) and their armies what they most feared from these weakened people." Consequently, the day came when Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his army were destroyed in the sea and lost everything they had to the Bani Isrā'il, as was predicted.

وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمِّ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ أَرْضِعِيهِ ۖ إِذَا خِفَتْ عَلَيْهِ فَالْتَقِيهِ فِي الْيَمِّ وَلَا تَخَافِي
وَلَا تَحْزَنِي ۚ إِنَّا رَادُّوهُ إِلَيْكِ وَجَاعِلُوهُ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٧﴾ قَالَ لَقِطَهُ ۙ ءَالُ فِرْعَوْنَ
لِيَكُونَ لَهُمْ عَدُوًّا وَحَزَنًا ۖ إِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمَانَ وَجُنُودَهُمَا كَانُوا خَاطِئِينَ ﴿٨﴾
وَقَالَتِ امْرَأَتُ فِرْعَوْنَ قُرْتُ عَيْنٍ لِّي وَلَكَ ۖ لَا تَقْتُلُوهُ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَنْفَعَنَا أَوْ
نَتَّخِذُهُ وَلَدًا ۚ وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٩﴾ وَأَصْبَحَ فُؤَادُ أُمِّ مُوسَىٰ فَرِيعًا ۖ إِن كَادَتْ
لَتُبْدِي بِهِ ۖ لَوْلَا أَنْ رَبَّنَا عَلَىٰ قَلْبِهَا لِتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَقَالَتْ
لِأُخْتِهِ ۖ قُصِّيهِ ۖ فَبَصُرَتْ بِهِ ۖ عَنْ جُنُبٍ وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١١﴾ وَحَرَمْنَا عَلَيْهِ
الْمَرَاضِعَ مِنْ قَبْلُ ۚ فَقَالَتْ هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَىٰ يَتِيمٍ يَكْفُلُونَهُ لَكُمْ وَهُمْ لَهُمْ
نَصِيحُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ فَرَدَدْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ أُمِّهِ ۖ كَىٰ تَقَرَّ عَيْنُهَا وَلَا تَحْزَنَ ۚ وَلِتَعْلَمَ أَنَّ
وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٣﴾

(7) We inspired Mūsa's mother (instructing her), "Nurse him. When you fear for his life, then place him in the river and neither fear nor grieve. We shall certainly return him to you and make him from the apostles." (8) So the family of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) picked him up to be an enemy and a source of grief for them. Indeed Pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān and their armies were sinners. (9) Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) wife said, "A coolness for my eyes and yours. Do not slay him. Perchance he may benefit us or we may adopt him as a son." They had no knowledge. (10) The heart of Mūsa's mother was restless. She would have almost revealed his condition if We had not strengthened her heart to be from those with conviction. (11) She said to his sister, "Follow him." So she spied on him from afar without their knowledge. (12) We forbade all wet nurses to him from before and she [Mūsa's عليه السلام sister] told them, "Should I show you a family who will care for him on your behalf, and who will dote on him?" (13) So We returned him to his mother so that her eyes be cooled and so that she may not grieve. And so that she may know that Allāh's promise is true, but most of them do not know.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA'S عليه السلام MOTHER PLACES HIM IN A BOX ON THE RIVER, AFTER WHICH PHARAOH'S (FIR'AUN'S) FAMILY DISCOVER HIM

To safeguard his kingdom from being destroyed by one of the Bani Isrā'īl, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) commissioned spies among the Bani Isrā'īl, who would inform him of any boys being born among them. When a baby boy was born, the child was slaughtered.

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was born, his mother grew very concerned about his safety. It was then that Allāh inspired her with the command, "Nurse him. When you fear for his life, then place him in the river (within a box) and neither fear (for his safety) nor grieve (over your separation). We shall certainly return him to you and make him from the apostles."

Placing her trust in Allāh, Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام mother did as commanded. As the box floated past Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) palace, his wife spotted it and had it brought to her. When she set eyes on the child, she was overwhelmed with affection for the boy. When she took the child in her lap, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) feared that this may be the same child whom the astrologers predicted would destroy his kingdom. He therefore intended to kill the child as well.

When Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) wife sensed her husband's intention, she said to him that the child would be "A coolness for my eyes and yours. Do not slay him. Perchance he may benefit us or we may adopt him as a son." When she convinced Pharaoh (Fir'aun), they decided to look for a wet nurse to suckle the child. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) did not realise that the child was to be the source of his losing the kingdom. Allāh says, "So the family of Pharaoh (Fir'aun) picked him up to be an enemy and a source of grief for them. Indeed Pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān and their armies were sinners. "Commentators have mentioned that they were destined to be destroyed at Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام hands because of the fact that they were all "sinners."

As all this occurred, "The heart of Mūsa's mother was restless. She would have almost revealed his condition if We had not strengthened her heart to be from those with conviction." If Allāh had not granted her the necessary courage, she would have made it known that her child was in the box. However, she was convinced of the truth of Allāh's promise to return him to her.

"She said to his sister, 'Follow him.' So she spied on him from afar without their knowledge." Allāh inspired her to instruct Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام sister to follow the box downstream, which she did. Hidden from the sight of the Copts, she witnessed the entire scene.

When Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his wife tried to get the child to suckle from various wet nurses, the child refused to take to any of them. Seeing them perplexed about the situation, Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام sister told them, "Should I show you a family who will care for him on your behalf and who will dote on him?" When they agreed, she summoned Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام mother, from whom the child immediately suckled. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) agreed to let her have the child and grow him up, and even paid her a sum of one Dinār (one gold coin) daily for her services. Referring to this, Allāh says, "So We returned him to his mother so that her eyes may be cooled and so that she may not grieve.

"And so that she may know that Allāh's promise is true (i.e. so that her conviction may increase in Allāh), but most of them do not know." i.e. They do not know how Allāh showers His mercy on people and how He reverses the plots of oppressors.

Note: Some people have criticised the fact that Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام mother accepted remuneration for her suckling, which is supposed to be the duty of a mother. It should be noted that the Qur'ān does not mention this. Therefore, it cannot be verified beyond doubt. However, even if she did accept the wage, it was taken from a disbeliever without any deception. The fact that he paid the sum happily also creates permissibility for the act.

وَلَمَّا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ وَاسْتَوَىٰ ءَايَتُهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا وَكَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ وَدَخَلَ
الْمَدِينَةَ عَلَىٰ حِينٍ غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ أَهْلِهَا فَوَجَدَ فِيهَا رَجُلَيْنِ يَقْتَتِلَانِ هَٰذَا مِنْ شِيعَةِ هَٰذَا
مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ فَاسْتَغْنَتْهُ الَّتِي مِنْ شِيعَتِهِ عَلَى الَّتِي مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ فَوَكَرَهُ مُوسَىٰ فَقَضَىٰ عَلَيْهِ
قَالَ هَٰذَا مِنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ إِنَّهُ عَدُوٌّ مُّضِلٌّ مُّبِينٌ ﴿١٥﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي
فَاغْفِرْ لِي فَغَفَرَ لَهُ ۚ إِنَّكَ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٦﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ بِمَا أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ فَلَنْ
أَكُونَ ظَهِيرًا لِلْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ فَاصْبَحَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ خَائِفًا يَتَرَقَّبُ فَإِذَا الَّذِي اَسْتَصْرَمُ
يَأْتِيهِمْ يَسْتَصْرِخُهُمْ قَالَ لَمْ يَمُوتْ إِنَّكَ لَغَوِيٌّ مُّبِينٌ ﴿١٨﴾ فَلَمَّا أَنِ ارَادَ أَن يَبْطِشَ بِالَّذِي
هُوَ عَدُوٌّ لَهُمَا قَالَ يَمْوَسَّىٰ أَرِيدُ أَن نَّقْتُلَكَ كَمَا قَتَلْتَ نَفْسًا بِالْأَمْسِ إِنْ تُرِيدُ إِلَّا
أَن تَكُونَ جَبَّارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا تُرِيدُ أَن تَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُصْلِحِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ أَقْصَا
الْمَدِينَةِ يَسْعَىٰ قَالَ يَمْوَسَّىٰ ابْنَ الْمَلَأَ يَأْتَمِرُونَ بِكَ لِيَقْتُلُوكَ فَاخْرُجْ إِنِّي لَكَ مِنَ
التَّصَدِّيقِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَخَرَجَ مِنْهَا خَائِفًا يَتَرَقَّبُ قَالَ رَبِّ نَجِّنِي مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٢١﴾

(14) When Mūsa عليه السلام reached his full strength and was perfectly healthy, We granted him wisdom and knowledge. Thus do We reward those who do good. (15) He entered the town at a time when its people were oblivious and found two men fighting. The one was from his people and the other was from the enemy. The one from his own people shouted to Mūsa to help him against the other from their enemy. Mūsa punched him and concluded his affair. He said, "This is from the works of Satan (Shaytān). Indeed he is an enemy and one who openly misleads." (16) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! I have oppressed myself, so forgive me." So Allāh forgave him. Without doubt, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful. (17) He said, "O my Lord! On account of the favours you have bestowed on me, I shall never be among those who are accomplices to criminals." (18) The morning found him in the city, fearful and apprehensive, when suddenly the same person who cried for help the previous day began calling for his help. Mūsa told him, "You are clearly a misleading person. (19) When Mūsa intended to grab hold of the person who was an enemy to both of them, he (the Isrā'īli) said, "O Mūsa! Do you wish to kill me like you killed the person yesterday? You only wish to become a tyrant on earth and have no intention of becoming a reformer. (20) A man came running from the furthest end of the town saying, "O Mūsa! Verily the ministers are discussing about executing you. So leave. I am certainly a good counselor to you. (21) So Mūsa عليه السلام left the town in fear and apprehension. He said, "O my Lord! Save me from the oppressive nation."

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام MISTAKENLY KILLS A PERSON AND IS FORCED TO LEAVE EGYPT FOR MADYAN

Since Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was destined to be the Holy Prophet, Allāh imbued him with certain qualities before he left Egypt. Allāh says, "When Mūsa reached his full strength and was perfectly healthy, We granted him wisdom and knowledge (i.e. perfect intellect and understanding). Thus do We reward those who do good."

Allāh then relates the incident of how Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام unintentionally killed a Copt. Allāh says, "He entered the town (another small village outside the city) at a time when its people were oblivious (during the time of siesta) and found two men fighting. The one was from his people (from the Bani Isrā'īl) and the other was from the enemy {a Copt from Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) people}. The one from his own people shouted to Mūsa to help him against the other from their enemy. Mūsa punched him (the Copt) and concluded his affair." Because of his strength, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام unintentionally killed the person with his punch.

Extremely remorseful at his mistake, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام immediately said, "This is from the works of Satan (Shaytān). Indeed he is an enemy and one who openly misleads." He then submitted to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! I have oppressed myself so forgive me." So Allāh forgave him. Without doubt, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

It is the practice of upright people to always seek Allāh's forgiveness for any deed that they deem to be improper. There was no Shari'ah at that time and hence no question of blood money arose. It was therefore only necessary for him to seek Allāh's forgiveness for his error.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام also submitted to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! On account of the favours you have bestowed on me, I shall never be among those who are accomplices to criminals." He pledged never to assist in sins. This would also include never assisting Satan (Shaytān), whose objective is to lead people to sin. This means that he would never respond to the enticement of Satan (Shaytān) since this would be assisting him.

This verse denotes that assisting someone in sin is as bad as committing the sin. People are generally negligent of this and become agents in various sins. By working in institutions dealing in usury and bribery, they are actually acting as accomplices to these sins. Working for oppressive governments also falls into this category.

Sayyidina Ka'b bin Ujra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told them, "I wish Allāh's protection for you against the rule of fools." When the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم asked who these people were, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "They will be such rulers after me that the person who believes their lies and assists them in their tyranny is not from me and will have no relation to me. They will never reach me at the Howdh (a cistern pond)." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 322]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the person who assists a tyrant, knowing that he is a tyrant, has come out of the fold of Islām. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 436]

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who oppressively collects taxes will not enter Heaven. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 322]

Every type of employment in which one oppresses others or assist oppressors is unlawful (Harām). Muslims working in such establishments should contemplate their situation and redress the wrongs.

Even though Allāh forgave Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, he will still be apprehensive to intercede on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), saying that he killed a person whom he was not commanded to kill.

"The morning found him in the city, fearful and apprehensive (that he may be arrested and executed), when suddenly the same person who cried for help the previous day began calling for his help (against another Copt with whom he was fighting). (Seeing him in trouble a second time, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام scolded him and) Mūsa told him, 'You are clearly a misleading person.'"

"When Mūsa intended to grab hold of the person who was an enemy to both of them (the Copt), he (the Isrā'īlī, thinking that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was about to grab him for picking another fight) said, 'O Mūsa! Do you wish to kill me like you killed the person yesterday? You only wish to become a tyrant on earth and have no intention of becoming a reformer.'"

Commentators have reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام forgot to say "Insha Allāh" (If Allāh wills) when he said earlier, "I shall never be among those who are accomplices to criminals." It is for this reason that he again ended up being an accomplice to the mischievous person from the Bani Isrā'īl.

When the Copt heard what the Isrā'īli said, he informed pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his ministers about the murder, and hence they decided to execute Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

"A man [probably from among pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) courtiers, who had faith in Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام] came running from the furthest end of the town saying, 'O Mūsa! Verily the ministers are discussing about executing you. So leave. I am certainly a good counsellor to you.'"

In response to this warning, 'Mūsa عليه السلام left the town in fear and apprehension. He said, 'O my Lord! Save me from the oppressive nation.'"

وَلَمَّا تَوَجَّهَ تِلْقَاءَ مَدْيَنَ قَالَ عَسَى رَبِّي أَن يَهْدِيَنِي سَوَاءَ السَّبِيلِ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَلَمَّا وَرَدَ مَاءَ مَدْيَنَ وَجَدَ عَلَيْهِ أُمَّةٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ يَسْقُونَ وَوَجَدَ مِنْ دُونِهِمُ امْرَأَتَيْنِ تَذُودَانِ قَالَ مَا خَطْبُكُمَا قَالَتَا لَا نَسْقِي حَتَّى يُصْدِرَ الرِّعَاءُ وَأَبُونَا شَيْخٌ كَبِيرٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَسَقَى لَهُمَا ثُمَّ تَوَلَّى إِلَى الظِّلِّ فَقَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي لِمَا أَنزَلْتَ إِلَيَّ مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَقِيرٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ فَجَاءَتْهُ إِحْدَاهُمَا تَمْشِي عَلَى اسْتِحْيَاءٍ قَالَتْ إِنَّكِ آتِي يَدْعُوكَ لِتَجْزِيَنَا أَجْرَ مَا سَقَيْتَ لَنَا فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُ وَقَصَّ عَلَيْهِ الْقِصَصَ قَالَ لَا تَخَفْ نَبَوْتُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ قَالَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا يَأْتِيكِ اسْتِفْجَارٌ إِنَّكِ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ اسْتَنْجَرَتِ الْقَوِيُّ الْأَمِينُ ﴿٢٦﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي أُرِيدُ أَنْ أُنكِحَكَ إِحْدَى ابْنَتَي هَاتَيْنِ عَلَى أَنْ تَأْجُرَنِي ثَمَنِي حَجِجٌ فَإِنْ أَتَمَمْتَ عَشْرًا فَمِنْ عِنْدِكَ وَمَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ أَشُقَّ عَلَيْكَ سَتَجِدُنِي إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ قَالَ ذَلِكَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ أَيَّمَا الْأَجَلَيْنِ قَضَيْتُ فَلَا عُدْوَانَ عَلَيَّ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى مَا نَقُولُ وَكِيلٌ ﴿٢٨﴾

(22) When Mūsa turned to the direction of Madyan, he said, "I have hope that my Lord will guide me to the straight path." (23) When he reached the water of Madyan, he found a group of people watering (their flocks). He also noticed two ladies keeping their distance. He asked, "What ails you two?" They replied, "We cannot water (our flock) until the shepherds return. Our father is an extremely old man. (24) So Mūsa watered (their flock) on their behalf and then turned to some shade saying, "O my Lord! Indeed I am needy of whatever good you bestow on me." (25) One of the two ladies came to him walking bashfully. She said, "My father is calling you to reward you for watering (our flock) for us. When Mūsa came to the father and related the incidents to him, he said, "Do not fear. You are safe from the oppressive nation." (26) One of the ladies said, "O father! Employ him. Indeed the best person you can employ is one who is strong and trustworthy." (27) He (the father) said, "I wish to marry you to one these daughters of mine on condition that you work for me for eight years. If you complete ten years, it will be your choice. I do not wish to impose upon you. If Allāh wills, you will find me to be among the righteous." (28) Mūsā said, "The matter is between the two of us. There should be no force on me with regard to whichever of the two terms I complete. Allāh is a Surety over whatever we say."

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام REACHED MADYAN AND ASSISTS TWO LADIES, AFTER WHICH HE MARRIES ONE OF THEM

Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام left Egypt for a town in Shām (syria) called Madyan. Madyan was not ruled by pharaoh (Fir'aun) and no document was required to travel in those times. Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام had no guide and had never travelled that way before and did not know the direction. However, he trusted Allāh to guide him. Therefore, he said, "I have hope that my Lord will guide me to the straight path."

True to his expectations, Allāh guided him and he safely reached Madyan. "When he reached the water (well) of Madyan, he found a group of people watering (their flocks). He also noticed two ladies keeping their distance." The ladies were restraining their flock from mixing with the other flocks. They saw to it that their flock did not drink from the water of other flocks because the shepherds would then beat them away.

Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام asked the ladies, "What ails you two (Why are you standing aside)?" They replied, "We cannot water (our flock) until the shepherds return (with their flocks to their fields. Then we will water our flock)." Before Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام could even ask them why they were doing the work of men, they replied by adding, "Our father is an extremely old man." Therefore, he was unable to do the work. Their silence after this phrase denotes that they neither had any brothers nor any husbands to help them.

"So Mūsā watered (their flock) on their behalf and then turned to some shade saying, 'O my Lord! Indeed I am needy of whatever good, you bestow on me. It is the trait of every believer (Mu'min) to turn his attention to Allāh when in good and adverse situations. The word "good" is general and refers to a vast array of things like satiation of hunger giving shelter, etc. Commentators write that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام ate only the leaves of plants on his journey to Madyan and was in an emaciated state.

When the two ladies reached home earlier than usual, their father asked the reason. They explained to him that someone had fed the animals for them, and also described Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام to him. The father was appreciative and sent one of them to call Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. Allāh says, "One of the two ladies came to him walking bashfully." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that she came with a cloth covering her face. "She said, 'My father is calling you to reward you for watering (our flock) for us.'" "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام noticed her modesty and was himself modest [modesty is the natural trait of all the Prophets عليهم السلام. Therefore, he told her to follow him and inform him of the direction so that each of them could be at ease.

"When Mūsā came to the father and related the incidents to him, he said, 'Do not fear. You are safe from the oppressive nation (because they have no jurisdiction here).'"

Furthermore, "One of the ladies said, 'O father! Employ him (He can be of assistance in herding the flocks and in other tasks). Indeed the best person you can employ is one who is strong and trustworthy."

By his physical appearance and the strength he displayed when watering the flock, she realised that he was indeed very strong.

Some commentators have reported that when the ladies expressed their inability to give water to the flock until the shepherds had left, Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام asked them whether there was another well in the vicinity. They told him that there was another well, but that it was covered by a heavy rock, which a few men could not move collectively. He asked them to take him there. When they led him to the place, he moved the rock with one hand. Thereafter, he gave water to the animals and covered the well again. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 20 p. 63]

His trustworthiness was displayed by the fact that he walked ahead of the lady and was not lecherous. Accepting her suggestion, the old man said to Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام, "I wish to marry you to one these daughters of mine on condition that you work for me for eight years. (I only require you for eight years, but) If you complete ten years, it will be your choice. I do not wish to impose upon you. If Allāh wills, you will find me to be among the righteous (in my dealings with you, for I will not cause you any harm or grief)."

Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام realised that this was a result of his prayer (du'ā) because now he would receive not only shelter and a livelihood but also a wife. He therefore accepted the proposal adding, "The matter is between the two of us. There should be no force on me with regard to whichever of the two terms I complete (i.e. I should not be prejudiced if I were to complete only eight years). Allāh is a Surety (or Witness) over whatever we say."

Sayyidina Utbah bin Nuddar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once recited "Tā Sīn Mīm" (Surah Qasas) to them until he reached the incident of Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commented, "Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام hired himself for a period of eight or ten years for the protection of his chastity and to fill his stomach." [Ibn Majah p. 176]

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله has reported several narrations in which it is proven that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام spent ten years in the service of the old man and also grazed his goats. [v. 3 p. 386]

The commentary of "Mawāhib Laduniyyah" reports that Sayyidah Fātima رضي الله عنها once told her father, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that she and her husband, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, possessed only one sheepskin, which they slept on at night and on which they placed the camel's feed during the day. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her, "O my beloved daughter! Be patient. For ten years, Mūsā عليه السلام and his wife shared only one garment (which they used to clothe themselves and to sleep on)."

If this narration is authentic, it would prove that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام spent ten years in Madyan. Therefore, the doubt expressed in the narration above by Sayyidina Utba bin Nuddar رضى الله عنه is most probably a doubt on the part of one of the narrators.

Bukhari (p. 369) reports that Sayyidina Sa'id bin Jubair رحمه الله عليه once asked Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه which of the two terms did Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام complete. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه replied, "The longer and better of the two (i.e. ten years). It is customary among Allāh's Prophets to practice what they say."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that every Prophet of Allāh grazed goats. When the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم asked about himself, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that he also grazed goats for the people of Makkah in exchange for a few 'qirāt' (a type of currency equivalent to a sixth of a dirham)." [Bukhari p. 301]

Goats are weak animals and cannot be beaten when they skip about because of the danger of fracturing their bones. Therefore, the shepherd has to be extremely patient with them. Allāh made the Prophets عليهم السلام graze goats so that tolerance and patience be imbued in them. It was then possible to tolerate the harassment of the disbelievers.

LESSONS TO BE LEARNT

Note 1: The Qur'ān does not mention whether the old man fed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام or gave him any payment for the initial service of giving water to the goats. "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 20 p. 65) reports that when Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام arrived at the old man's home, he was sitting for supper. When he invited Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to join him, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said that he would not accept anything in payment of the service he rendered even if the payment filled the world. The old man told him that the food was not a payment, but it was traditional in their family to entertain guests. It was only then that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام ate the meal.

Note 2: Allāma (Scholar) Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has reported from Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه and other commentators that the old man was Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام. However, many commentators say that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was born a very long time after Sayyidina Shu'ayb's عليه السلام demise.

They have deduced this from a verse of Surah Hūd, where Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام told his people, 'And the nation of Lūt عليه السلام were not far off from you.' Since Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام lived during the time of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, it is not possible that Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام could be the father-in-law of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, who was from the latter progeny of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام grandson. Although it has been mentioned that Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام could have lived for a very long time, which could have allowed him to meet Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, this statement cannot be verified.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported from various commentators that the old man of Madyan was Sayyidina Shu'ayb's عليه السلام nephew. His name has been cited as Athrūn, Hārūn, Marwān or Āwid. Ibn Jarīr رحمه الله عليه has reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that his name was Yathrib. Besides these there are many more opinions.

Although the author of Ruhul Ma'āni and Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه are of the opinion that the old man was Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام, Allāma Ibn Kathīr and Ibn Jarīr رحمه الله عليه say that this claim can be made only when an authentic hadith corroborates it, and there is no such hadith.

Note 3: The fact that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام accepted the old man's proposal without hesitation teaches us that one should not be ashamed to accept something of necessity. Even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم grazes goats for a small sum. Many people feel it below their dignity to do tasks that seem menial, even though they have no alternative. They rather choose to suffer and accumulate debts than do such work, which could well alleviate their need. Allāh's pious servants do not behave in this manner.

Note 4: "One of the ladies said, 'O father! Employ him. Indeed the best person you can employ is one who is strong and trustworthy. ... By saying this, the lady recommended Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام as being fit and qualified for the task at hand. Every task requires a person who is capable of handling it well. The work of keeping accounts will require a person with knowledge of accounting, just as the work of construction will require skills of bricklaying, engineering, etc

Although the Arabic word "qawiy" has been translated above as "strong," it refers to strength in physical, spiritual and mental capacities. The word "amin" (translated above as "trustworthy") is also multifaceted. It refers to trustworthiness with finances as well as with time. The person who is 'amin' will ensure that he completes the required time for which he is paid. He is also a person whose wife can trust him completely because he will never even look at another woman with evil intentions, let alone cheat on his wife.

It has become a trend nowadays for people to shun trustworthiness in employment. An employee will work diligently only when he is being watched. No sooner is the employer's back turned, then the employee is busy doing something else. People accept their full salaries even though they have not completed their work for the month. Some people absent themselves without a valid excuse, while others have someone else sign the attendance register on their behalf. All these constitute betrayal and cheating.

Employers should ensure that the person they employ must be qualified for the work and should not be satisfied with only academic qualifications. People should not be employed on the grounds of family relations or after accepting a bribe.

Note 5: It is learnt from the proposal of the old man that a woman's marriage should not be delayed when an appropriate partner is found. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reports that from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the following three things must not be delayed:

1. Salāh, when the time has set in.
2. A funeral, when it is ready.
3. The marriage of a solitary woman, when her match is found. ["Mishkāt" p. 61]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person whose religiousness and character pleases you proposes, then do not delay the marriage. If you fail to do so, there shall be rampant anarchy in the world." ["Mishkāt"]

Another lesson learnt from the old man's proposal is that a proposal from the father should not be regarded as a source of embarrassment. People are wrong to think so. Some even go to the extent of refusing to be representatives of their daughters in the marriage ceremony, even though they did not make the proposal. They wrongly feel that a woman may marry only when a man proposes by himself.

When Sayyidina Umar's رضى الله عنه daughter, Sayyida Hafsa رضى الله عنه lost her husband in a battle and had already completed her Iddah (waiting period after being widowed) when her father asked Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to marry her. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه remained silent without accepting or rejecting. A while later, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه made the same proposal to Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه, who politely declined the offer. When Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه narrated the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he replied, "A person better than Uthmān will marry Hafsa and a wife better than Hafsa will marry Uthmān." Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself married Sayyida Hafsa رضى الله عنه and gave his daughter, Sayyida Kulthūm رضى الله عنه in marriage to Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه.

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه later apologised to Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه for not responding to his proposal, saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had already mentioned to him at that time that he intended to marry Sayyida Hafsa رضى الله عنه. Therefore, he did not wish to divulge something that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him in confidence. He added that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not marry her, he [Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه] would have done so.

Note 6: "I wish to marry you to one these daughters of mine on condition that you work for me for eight years." It appears from this statement that a stipulated sum of money is not necessary as a dowry (mahr), but service may be a substitute for it.

According to the Hanafi school of jurisprudence, a woman will receive the cash Mahr Mithal (A dower in the force of family) if a free man agreed to marry her in exchange of a dowry that will be paid in service instead of cash. Although the marriage will be contracted, he will not have to serve her because it will mean a reversal of rules.

However, the Shafi'i school of jurisprudence has deduced from the above verse that it will be permissible for a man to marry a woman in exchange of service instead of a cash dowry. This deduction is not valid because the verse does not make mention of service being dowry. The condition of service was another matter aside from the mahr, which we cannot even be certain existed in the time of Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. Apart from this, the service was owing to the old man, not to the lady. The old man said, "on condition that you work for me for eight years." The condition was not that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام work for the lady.

If it is accepted that the contract was in exchange of the dowry (and that dowry was incumbent in Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام Shari'ah as well), then too the marriage would be contracted because the dowry would then have to be paid by the father. He would have had to pay Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام wages to his daughter as her dowry. However, this would not have been necessary if she had waived the dowry altogether.

Note 7: The old man merely said, "I wish to marry you to one these daughters of mine..." without stipulating which daughter he was referring to. If someone objects by saying that marriage is not contracted without identification, the reply will be that the above verse merely contains the proposal. Of course, when the actual marriage took place, the woman was specified.

Note 8: The verse does not stipulate whether the old man received consent from his daughter to marry her. It would therefore be incorrect to deduce from this verse that a father may marry his mature daughter without her consent, as the Shafi'i school of jurisprudence maintains. The authenticity of the Ahadith from which they deduce this ruling has been critically questioned.

According to Imām Abu Hanifah رحمه الله عليه, the consent of a mature woman is imperative before marriage, without which the marriage will not be contracted. When consent is asked from a virgin, her silence will denote consent. However, a widow and a divorcee have to reply verbally.

The verse of the Qur'ān, "...prevent them not from marrying their husbands" denotes clearly that a mature woman may contract her own marriage. However, if her guardian is caring and responsible, she should hand over the affairs of her marriage to him.

Note 9: "I do not wish to impose upon you." This statement meant that he did not wish to add to Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام responsibilities and also that he would not force him to stay on for another two years if he wished to complete only eight years.

"If Allāh wills, you will find me to be among the righteous." It is learnt from this that the employer should be kind and understanding. Neither should he tax the employee nor should he be harsh. He should overlook any faults and errors of the employee, if he needs to reprimand the employee, it must be done with kindness. Of course, the employee should also ensure that he fulfils the task at hand with diligence.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Pay the worker before his perspiration dries." [Ibn Majah p. 176]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports the words of Allāh from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, in which Allāh says that He will personally contest the following three persons on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah):

1. The person who betrayed a pledge made in Allāh's name.
2. The person who sold a free person as a slave and then devoured the money.
3. The person who did not pay his employee after extracting work from him. [Bukhari p. 302]

Note 10: Some commentators have mentioned that the old man's elder daughter was Layya and the younger one was called Safūra. It was Safūra who was sent to call Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. While some commentators say that Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام married the younger daughter, others say that he married the elder one. Allāh knows best.

﴿ فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ مُوسَى الْأَجَلَ وَسَارَ بِأَهْلِهِ ۚ آنَسَ مِنْ جَانِبِ الطُّورِ نَارًا قَالَ لِأَهْلِهِ امْكُثُوا إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا لَّعَلِّي آتِيكُمْ مِنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ أَوْ جَذْوَةٍ مِنَ النَّارِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَصْطَلُونَ ﴾ (29) فَلَمَّا أَتَاهَا نُودِيَ مِنْ شَاطِئِ الْوَادِ الْأَيْمَنِ فِي الْبُقْعَةِ الْمُبَارَكَةِ مِنَ الشَّجَرَةِ أَنْ يَمْوِسَ ۚ إِنِّي أَنَا اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿ (30) وَأَنْ أَلْقِ عَصَاكَ فَلَمَّا رَآهَا تُهْتَزُّ كَأَنَّهَا جَانٌّ وَلَّى مُدْبِرًا وَلَمْ يُعَقِّبْ يَمْوِسُ أَقْبَلَ وَلَا تَخَفْ ۚ إِنَّكَ مِنَ الْآمِنِينَ ﴿ (31) أَسْلَكَ يَدَكَ فِي جَيْبِكَ تَخَرُّجَ بَيْضَاءَ مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ وَاضْمَمَ إِلَيْكَ جَنَاحَكَ مِنَ الرَّهْبِ ۖ فَذَانِكَ بُرْهَانَانِ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ ۚ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ﴾ (32) قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي قَتَلْتُ مِنْهُمْ نَفْسًا فَأَخَافُ أَنْ يَقْتُلُونِ ﴿ (33) وَأَخِي هَارُونُ هُوَ أَفْصَحُ مِنِّي لِسَانًا فَأَرْسَلْهُ مَعِيَ رِدْءًا يُصَدِّقُنِي ۚ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُكَذِّبُونِ ﴾ (34) قَالَ سَنَشُدُّ عَضُدَكَ بِأَخِيكَ وَجَعَلُ لَكُمَا سُلْطَانًا فَلَا يَصِلُونَ إِلَيْكُمَا ۚ بِأَيِّتِنَا أُنْزِلُوا مِنْ أَتْبَعَكُمَا الْغَالِبُونَ ﴾ (35)

(29) When Mūsā completed the term and left with his wife, he perceived a fire. He told his wife, "Wait (here), for I see a fire. Perhaps I may bring you some news from there, or a brand from the fire so that you may warm yourself." (30) When he reached the fire, a call came from a tree on the right side of the plain, in the blessed piece of ground saying, "O Mūsā! Indeed I am Allāh, the Lord of the universe. (31) "Cast down you staff" When he saw it writhing like a snake, he turned on his heels without looking back. "O Mūsā! Come forward and do not fear. You are certainly among the safe ones. (32) "Thrust your hand in your collar and it will emerge shining white without any disease. And, if you fear (that your hand will remain like this), attach your hand to your side. These are two signs from your Lord to Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his ministers. Verily they were ever a sinful folk." (33) Mūsa عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! I killed one of them and fear that they will kill me." (34) "My brother Hārūn is more eloquent in speech than me, so send him as an aide to me to commend me for I fear that they will falsify me." (35) Allāh said, "We shall shortly strengthen your arm with your brother and grant the two of you a power, in the presence of which they will never reach you. The two of you and those who follow you will be victorious with Our signs."

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام TRAVELS WITH HIS WIFE TO EGYPT AND ENROUTE IS CONFERRED WITH THE MANTLE OF THE HOLY PROPHETHOOD

After spending ten years in Madyan, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام left for Egypt with his wife, but lost his way. It was dark and cold as they approached Mount Tūr. As they drew closer, they saw what appeared to be a fire. Describing the scene, Allāh says, "When Mūsa completed the term and left with his wife, he perceived a fire. He told his wife, 'Wait (here), for I see a fire. Perhaps I may bring you some news from there, or a brand from the fire so that you may warm yourself'"

"When he reached the fire, a call came from a tree (i.e. it appeared to come from the tree) on the right side of the plain, in the blessed piece of ground saying, 'O Mūsa! Indeed I am Allāh, the Lord of the universe. Cast down your staff' When (he cast it down) he saw it writhing like a snake, he turned on his heels without looking back. (Allāh said him) 'O Mūsa! Come forward and do not fear. You are certainly among the safe ones.'"

Showing Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام another miracle, Allāh said, "Thrust your hand in your collar and it will emerge shining white without any disease. And, out of fear (of your hand remaining in this condition), attach your hand to your side (after which it will return to normal). These (the staff and the hand) are two signs from your Lord to pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his ministers. (So go and preach the truth to them) Verily they were ever a sinful folk."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام then proposed two requests to Allāh. The first was when he said, "O my Lord! I killed one of them and fear that they will kill me." The second was that he required someone to assist him in the task. Therefore, he said to Allāh, "My brother Hārūn is more eloquent in speech than me, so send him as an aide to me to commend me. I fear that they will falsify me."

Allāh accepted this supplication of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and made Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام, who was in Egypt, a Prophet before Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام could reach Egypt. Therefore, Allāh replied to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام by saying, "We shall shortly strengthen your arm with your brother and grant the two of you a power, in the presence of which they will never reach you. The two of you and those who follow you will be victorious with Our signs."

Note: The author of "Ma'āriful Qur'ān" writes that the 'fire' was a manifestation of Allāh's illumination, which appeared in the form of a fire. It appeared in this form because it is impossible for anyone to see Allāh's actual illumination in this world, as Allāh told Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "You can never see me."

فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَى بِآيَاتِنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالُوا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُفْتَرًى وَمَا سَمِعْنَا
بِهَذَا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَقَالَ مُوسَى رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ بِمَن جَاءَ بِالْهُدَىٰ مِنْ
عِنْدِهِ وَمَن تَكُون لَّهُ عَاقِبَةُ الدَّارِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ
يَتَأْتِيهَا الْمَلَأُ مَا عَلِمْتُ لَكُم مِّنْ إِلَهِ غَيْرِي فَأَوْقِدْ لِي يَتَهَمَنُ عَلَى الظَّالِمِينَ
فَأَجْعَلْ لِّي صَرْحًا لَّعَلِّي أَطَّلِعُ إِلَى إِلَهِ مُوسَى وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّهُ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾
وَأَسْتَكَبرَ هُوَ وَجُنُودُهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ يَغْيِرُ الْحَقَّ وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُم لَنَلْسَنَ لَا يُرْجَعُونَ
﴿٣٩﴾ فَأَخَذْنَاهُ وَجُنُودَهُ فَنَبَذْنَاهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ فَاَنْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَتْ عَاقِبَةُ
الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ آيَةً يَدْعُونَ إِلَى الْكُفْرِ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ لَا
يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ وَاتَّبَعْنَاهُمْ فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا لَعْنَةً وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ هُمْ مِنَ
الْمَقْبُوحِينَ ﴿٤٢﴾

(36) When Mūsa came to them with Our clear signs, they said, "This is conjured magic, and we have not heard of such a thing among our predecessors. (37) Mūsa said, "My Lord knows best who brings guidance from Him and who will meet a favourable end in the Hereafter. Verily, the oppressors will never succeed." (38) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "O ministers! Besides myself, I know of no other deity for your people. O Hāmān! Kindle for me a fire on sand, then construct a tower for me so that I may get a peek at Mūsa's Lord. I strongly feel that he is from the liars." (39) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his armies were haughty on earth without justification and thought that they will never return to us. (40) So We seized Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his armies, and cast them into the sea. See what was the plight of the oppressors. (41) We made them leaders who called towards the Fire. They will not be assisted in the Hereafter. (42) We set a curse after them in this world and on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), they shall be among the hateful.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام PREACHES TO PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS MINISTERS

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام reached Egypt, he met with his brother, Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام. The two of them then went to pharaoh (Fir'aun), who was with his ministers, and presented the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) to them. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام also displayed the two miracles to him, whereupon "they said, 'This is conjured magic, and we have not heard of such a thing (like a person being a Prophet) among our predecessors.

This was a lie because Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام lived in Egypt previously. Since they regarded Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام miracles as magic, they arranged a contest with the magicians of the time, as is mentioned in Surah A'rāf, Surah TāHā and Surah Shu'arā pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his ministers also asked Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام a series of foolish questions because they did not want to believe him. These are also mentioned in Surah TāHā and Surah Shu'arā. When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام noticed that they were implacable, he said to them, "My Lord knows best who brings guidance from Him and who will meet a favourable end in the Hereafter. Verily, the oppressors will never succeed."

Certain commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was referring to the 'favourable end' in this world. He therefore forewarned them about the fate they were to suffer when they would be eventually drowned.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام message to them was that Allāh has perfect knowledge about the people He chooses as messengers and will never send liars and magicians to preach His message of Tauhīd. He knows exactly who He is sending as a messenger and has promised his apostles a grand reward in both worlds.

When pharaoh (Fir'aun) realised that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام would not accept him as a deity, and that they could influence others as well, "pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, 'O ministers! Besides myself I know of no other deity for your people.'" Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said this despite knowing that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was truthful. A verse of Surah Bani Isrā'il quotes Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام as telling pharaoh (Fir'aun), "He replied 'You know very well that only the Lord of the heavens and the earth revealed these as eye-openers. -[Surah 17, verse 102]"

However, to divert peoples' attention, pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "O Hāmān! Kindle for me a fire on sand (i.e. bake some bricks), then construct a tower for me so that I may get a peek at Mūsa's lord. I strongly feel that he is from the liars."

A verse of Surah Mu'min states that pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "O Hāmān, build a tower for me so that I may reach the roads; the roads of the heavens so that I can have a close look at the deity of Mūsa. I strongly feel that he is a liar." Pharaoh (Fir'aun) made this statement to deceive the ignorant masses. No tower would be high enough to reach into the heavens. Little did they realise that his ambition would not reveal that Allāh does not exist, but rather revealed pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) helplessness. If he really were a deity (as he claimed), he would not have required a tower nor any stepladder or the effort to climb. He should have then merely willed his desire for it to occur. However, the people in pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) presence were too overawed by his worldly power and authority to think for themselves or to address him.

The Qur'ān does not state whether Hāmān built the tower. However, Allāma Qurtubī رحمه الله عليه has reported from Suddī رحمه الله عليه that Hāmān completed the construction, after which Fir'aun ascended and shot an arrow into the sky. The arrow returned with blood, upon which Fir'aun told the people that he had killed Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام lord.

When he said this, Jibr'il عليه السلام struck the tower with his wing, shattering it into three fragments. One fragment fell on a part of pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) army, killing thousands. The other fragment fell in the sea, while the third fell in a westerly direction. Every person who participated in the construction was also killed. Although Suddi رحمه الله عليه has reported this narration, he is also doubtful about its authenticity and writes thereafter, "Allāh is best aware of the authenticity."

Some commentators say that pharaoh (Fir'aun) was only jesting when he asked Hāman to construct the tower. They comment that he said this in response to Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام statement, when Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام said, "(Allāh is) The Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two; if you will be convinced." He also told Fir'aun, "He is your Lord and the Lord of your forefathers."

Thereafter Allāh says, "Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his armies were haughty on earth without justification and thought that they will never return to us. So We seized pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his armies, and cast them into the sea. See what was the plight of the oppressors."

"We made them leaders who called towards the Fire {by enticing others to perpetrate disbelief and polytheism (shirk)}. They will not be assisted in the Hereafter. We set a curse after them in this world (because all the believers will keep cursing them) and on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), they shall be among the hateful."

With regard to the punishment pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his people will suffer, Allāh says in Surah Mu'min, "They will be presented before the Fire morning and evening. And, on the day that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place, (they will be told) 'Enter the people of pharaoh (Fir'aun) into the worst of punishments.'" [Surah 40, verse 46]

Note: "We made them leaders who called towards the Fire." This verse denotes that the word Imām (translated above as "leaders") refers to leaders in evil, just as it refers to leaders in good. When people respond to the evil enticing of certain leaders, it may also be said that they are following their Imām. Therefore, one should not be deceived by thinking that certain sects are Muslims because their leaders are called Imāms. A person leading others to disbelief may be termed an Imām of disbelief, and a person calling others to polytheism (shirk) may be termed an Imām of polytheism (shirk).

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا أَهْلَكْنَا الْقُرُونَ الْأُولَىٰ بَصَائِرَ
لِلنَّاسِ وَهَدَىٰ وَرَحْمَةً لِّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَمَا كُنْتَ بِجَانِبِ الْغَرْبِيِّ إِذْ قَضَيْنَا
إِلَىٰ مُوسَى الْأَمْرَ وَمَا كُنْتَ مِنَ الشَّاهِدِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَلَكِنَّا أَنشَأْنَا قُرُونًا فَتَطَاوَلَ عَلَيْهِمُ
الْعُمُرُ وَمَا كُنْتَ ثَابِتًا فِي أَهْلِ مَدْيَنَ تَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِنَا وَلَكِنَّا كُنَّا
مُرْسِلِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَمَا كُنْتَ بِجَانِبِ الطُّورِ إِذْ نَادَيْنَا وَلَكِنْ رَحْمَةً مِّن رَّبِّكَ

لِنُذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أَتَتْهُمْ مِّنْ نَّذِيرٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَلَوْ لَا أَن تُصِيبَهُمْ مُصِيبَةٌ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُوا رَبَّنَا لَوْلَا أَرْسَلْتَ إِلَيْنَا رَسُولًا فَنُتَّبِعَ آيَاتِكَ وَنَكُونُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا قَالُوا لَوْلَا أُوتِيَ مِثْلَ مَا أُوتِيَ مُوسَىٰ أَوَلَمْ يَكْفُرُوا بِمَا أُوتِيَ مُوسَىٰ مِنْ قَبْلُ قَالُوا سِحْرَانِ تَظَاهَرَا وَقَالُوا إِنَّا بِكُلِّ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ فَأْتُوا بِكِتَابٍ مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ هُوَ أَهْدَىٰ مِنْهُمَا أَتَّبِعُهُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَإِنْ لَّمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَكَ فَاعْلَمْ أَنَّمَا يَتَّبِعُونَ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَمَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّنِ اتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ يَغْيِرْ هُدًى مِّنَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٥٠﴾

(43) Verily, after We had destroyed the former generations, We granted Mūsa the book as an eye-opener for people and a guidance and mercy so that they may take heed. (44) You were never by the western side when We gave Mūsa the laws, nor were you among the witnesses to this. (45) However We created many generations, after which a long period of time passed by. You were not even a resident from the people of Madyan. You recite Our verses to them, and it is only We Who send messengers. (46) You were not beside Mount Tūr when We called, but you have been blessed with a mercy from your Lord so that you may warn a nation to whom a warner has not come before, so that they may take heed. (47) We would not have sent messengers if it were not for the fact that a calamity would afflict them on account of what their hands sent ahead causing them to say, "O our Lord! Why did You not send a messenger to us so that we could follow Your verses and become of the believers?" (48) When the truth came to them from Us, they said, "Why is he not given the like of what was given to Mūsa?" Did people not reject what was previously given to Mūsa?" They said, "Two magicians assisting each other," and they said, "We do not accept any of them." (49) Say, "Produce a book from Allāh better in guidance than the two of them, which I shall follow if you are truthful." (50) If they do not respond to you, then you should know that they are following only their whims. Who can be more unjust than the one who follows his whims without any guidance from Allāh? Verily Allāh does not guide an oppressive nation.

THE TORAH IS REPLETE WITH EYE-OPENERS, GUIDANCE AND MERCY

The above verses contain the following:

Firstly: There were many Prophets عليه السلام before Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, who propagated the truth, sounded warnings and conveyed glad tidings. However, their nations falsified them, because of which Allāh destroyed them. It was only the remaining generations that grew to eventually become the Bani Isrā'il to whom Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was sent.

Allāh says, "Verily, after We had destroyed the former generations, We granted Mūsa the book as an eye-opener for people and a guidance and mercy so that they may take heed." Allāh also says, "However We created many generations, after which a long period of time passed by." Eventually they lost what the Prophets عليهم السلام had taught them and Allāh sent more the Holy Prophets to teach them, culminating with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Secondly: Despite being unlettered and deprived of the opportunity to study, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed people of the detailed accounts of the former nations. The fact that the Bani Isrā'il accepted all these incidents testifies to the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could have known about them only through divine revelation.

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "You were never by the western side when We gave Mūsa the laws, nor were you among the witnesses to this." Allāh also says, "You were not even a resident from the people of Madyan. You recite Our verses to them and it is only We Who send messengers." i.e. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed people of these narratives by reciting the verses of the Qur'ān to them.

"You were not beside Mount Tūr when We called [to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام], but you (have knowledge about it because you) have been blessed with a mercy (of apostleship) from your Lord." Thereafter, Allāh cites the object of the revelation. Allāh says that it has been sent to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that he "may warn a nation to whom a warner has not come before, so that they may take heed." The "nation" referred to in this verse is the Arabs, to whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the first the Holy Prophet to be sent to them after Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام.

Thirdly: Allāh explains the reason for sending a Holy Prophet to people. Allāh says, "We would not have sent messengers if it were not for the fact that a calamity would afflict them on account of what their hands sent ahead (i.e. on account of their sins), causing them to say, 'O our Lord! Why did You not send a messenger to us so that we could follow Your verses and become of the believers?'" Allāh sends Prophets عليهم السلام to people so that they can never offer the above excuse.

Fourthly: "When the truth came to them from Us, they said, 'Why is he not given the like of what was given to Mūsa?'" i.e. Why is the Qur'ān not a complete book like the Torah? The Polytheists of Makkah said this to the Jews.

Allāh replies by telling them, "Did people not reject what was previously given to Mūsa?" Not only did people reject the Torah, but they even went to the extent of saying that Sayyidina Mūsa and Hārūn عليه السلام are 'Two magicians assisting each other,' and they said, 'We do not accept any of them' If the revelation of a complete book was required before people believed, why was it that people rejected the Torah, which was revealed all at once? By making such statements, the polytheists never meant to believe even if their requests were fulfilled. These were mere excuses.

Fifthly: "Say, 'Produce a book from Allāh, better in guidance than the two of them (i.e. the Qur'ān and the original Torah), which I shall follow if you are truthful.'" Here a challenge is issued to those who reject the Qur'ān and the Torah. They are challenged to write a book to compete with these two. It is obvious that they will never meet the challenge and therefore they will have to accept the Qur'ān, which confirms the veracity of the Torah as well.

Thereafter, Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If they do not respond to you (and they can never do so), then you should know that they are following only their whims. Who can be more unjust than the one who follows his whims without any guidance from Allāh? Verily Allāh does not guide an oppressive nation." Only oppressors refute the truth after it has become apparent before them.

وَلَقَدْ وَصَّلْنَا لَهُمُ الْقَوْلَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ الَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ هُمْ بِهِ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَإِذَا يُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ قَالُوا ءَامَنَّا بِهِ ؕ إِنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّنَا ۚ إِنَّا كُنَّا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ يُؤْتَوْنَ أَجْرَهُمْ مَرَّتَيْنِ بِمَا صَبَرُوا وَبِالْحَسَنَةِ الَّتِي نَتَنَزَّلُ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَإِذَا سَمِعُوا اللَّغْوَ أَعْرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَقَالُوا لَنَا أَعْمَلُنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَلُكُمْ ۖ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ لَا نَبْنِي ٱلْجَاهِلِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾

(51) We sent this Word repeatedly to them so that they may take heed. (52) Those to whom We have given the Book from before believe in it. (53) When it is recited to them, they say, "We believe in it. It is definitely the truth from our Lord. Indeed, we were subservient from before." (54) These people will be granted double reward on account of their patience. They resist evil with good and spend from what We have given them. (55) When they hear futility, they turn away from it saying, "Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours. We greet you with peace. We do not wish to converse with the ignorant."

THOSE WHO BELIEVED IN THE PREVIOUS SCRIPTURES WILL RECEIVE A DOUBLE REWARD BY ACCEPTING THE QUR'ĀN

"We sent this Word (the Qur'ān) repeatedly to them so that they may take heed." This refers to the continuous succession of verses containing warnings, narratives, glad tidings, advice, etc.

Referring to the Ahlul Kitāb (People of the Book), Allāh then says, "Those to whom We have given the Book from before believe in it (i.e. in the Qur'ān). When it is recited to them, they say, 'We believe in it. It is definitely the truth from our Lord. Indeed, we were subservient from before.'" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived in Madinah, many sincere Jews, like Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رضى الله عنه, accepted Islām. There were also several Christians who accepted Islām, like Sayyidina Salmān Farsi رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Tamim Dāri رضى الله عنه.

When Sayyidina Ja'far bin Abi Talib رضى الله عنه and others migrated to Abyinnia, they managed to convert the king (Najāshi) and many other Christians. When Sayyidina Ja'far رضى الله عنه returned to join the Muslims in Madinah, thirty-two Christians accompanied him, all of whom readily accepted Islām. They said that they were aware of the fact that the final Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was soon to arrive with a divine scripture.

Allāh then speaks further about the believers (Mu'minīn) who were formerly Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) when He says, "These people will be granted double reward on account of their patience." Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the following three groups of people will receive double reward:

- (1) Those People of the Book. Who believed in their Prophet and then also believed in Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.
- (2) Those slaves who, together with fulfilling the errands of their masters, also take care to fulfil the obligations of Islām upon them.
- (3) Those people who marry their slave women after educating them thoroughly. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 20]

Allāh says that they will receive this reward "on account of their patience." This "patience" refers to a vast spectrum of things. It refers to fulfilling the religious duties of their former religion's, as well as following the rites and duties of Islām. It will also refer to the hardships and difficulties experienced after converting to Islām at the hands of other Ahlul Kitāb.

Allāh describes the believing Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) as people who "resist evil with good..." "i.e. they carry out good deeds after perpetrating sins, because of which these sins are forgiven. Allāh says in Surah Hūd, "Verily good deeds obliterate evil deeds." [Surah 11, verse 114]

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "Fear Allāh wherever you may be, and follow up a sin with a good deed, by which the sin will be effaced. Associate with people of good character." ["Mishkāt" p. 432]

Other commentators have interpreted "resist evil with good" to mean that the believers among the Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) immediately resort to repentance after committing any sin. More in relation to the other verses, certain commentators have interpreted "resist evil with good" to mean that they are not rude and uncivil to those who behave rudely with them. They do not take revenge, but rather overlook and forgive the wrong done to them. This is in keeping with a verse of Surah HāMim Sajdah, where Allāh says, "Resist with that which is best." [Surah 41, verse 34]

Thereafter, Allāh describes another of their virtues when He says that they "spend from what We have given them." This is the standard quality of all Mu'minīn, as described in numerous verses of the Qur'ān.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that when the group of Christian converts accompanying Sayyidina Ja'far رضى الله عنه saw the poor state of the Muslims in Madinah, they requested permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Allow us to return to Abysinnia and bring along our vast fortunes to assist the Muslims." When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted them, they fulfilled their pledge and were a great help to the Muslims.

Describing them further, Allāh says, "When they hear futility, they turn away from it saying, 'Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours. We greet you with peace. We do not wish to converse with the ignorant.'" The greeting of peace mentioned in this verse is not with the same tone and intent as Muslims normally greet each other. It is rather used as a method of escaping from the unwanted company of those engaged in futile talks.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله reports (p. 296) from Sayyidina Urwa bin Zubair رضي الله عنه that the Abyssinian king Najāshi sent twelve people to meet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Makkah. They all accepted Islām and, as they left the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم presence, Abu Jahl mocked them saying, "You people are real losers and are a miserable group. You have unhesitatingly accepted what Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم says and must surely be the most foolish group of riders." In reply to his babbling, they merely said, "We greet you with peace." They also added, "We accepted true guidance when it came to us and have not deprived ourselves of good. Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours." Allāh quotes their reply in the Qur'ān.

إِنَّكَ لَا تَهْدِي مَنْ أَحْبَبْتَ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾

(56) Verily you cannot guide those whom you love, but Allāh guides whoever He wills. He is best aware of those who are rightly guided.

ALLĀH WILL GUIDE WHOEVER HE WILLS

Guidance (hidāya) has two connotations. The first is called 'Irā'atut Tariq,' and refers to pointing out the route. The second called 'Īsāl Ilal Matlūb' refers to actually delivering the person to the desired destination. Both these connotations are referred to in the various verses of the Qur'ān.

It should be understood that Allāh has outlined and pointed out the way to salvation for humanity and Jinn via the agency of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Therefore, the act of 'Irā'atut Tariq' has been accomplished by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because he strove hard to convey the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) to the people. Thereafter, it was left to the people to decide whether they will follow the guidance or not. It was not possible, nor necessary for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to make people believe thereafter, i.e. he was unable to accomplish the task of 'Īsāl Ilal Matlūb.'

The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم uncle, Abu Tālib, assisted him greatly during his lifetime. He raised the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and even protected him against the polytheists of Makkah when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced his Prophethood. However, Abu Tālib never accepted Islām. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt that Abu Tālib was on his deathbed, he hastened to the house and implored his uncle to recite "Lā ilāha IllAllāh," adding that he [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] would be witness to this in the Hereafter.

The two polytheists Abu Jahl and Abdullāh bin Umayyah were also present at that time. They induced Abu Tālib to die rather as an adherent of the faith of his father, Abdul Muttalib. As the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke to Abu Tālib, he told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he would have certainly pleased him by reciting the Kalimah of Islām ("Lā ilāha IllAllāh") if he did not fear that the Quraysh would ridicule him by saying that he did so out of fear. Eventually, he died without accepting Islām.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left the house in extreme grief, whereupon Allāh revealed the verse, "Verily you cannot guide those whom you love, but Allāh guides whoever he wills. He is best aware of those who are rightly guided." [Muslim v. p. 40, Bukhari v. 2 p. 703]

This verse proves that only Allāh can actually make a person believe.

وَقَالُوا إِن نَّبِيعَ الْهُدَىٰ مَعَكَ نَخْطِفُ مِنْ أَرْضِنَا أَوْ لَمْ نُمْكِنَ لَهُمْ حَرَمًا ءَامِنًا يُجِئَ
إِلَيْهِ ثَمَرُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رِّزْقًا مِنْ لَدُنَّا وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَكَمْ
أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ بَطَرَتْ مَعِيشَتَهَا فَنِلَّكَ مَسْكَنُهُمْ لَمْ تَسْكُنْ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ
إِلَّا قَلِيلًا وَكُنَّا نَحْنُ الْوَارِثِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ مُهْلِكَ الْقُرَىٰ حَتَّىٰ يَبْعَثَ فِي
أُمِّهَا رَسُولًا يَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَاتِنَا وَمَا كُنَّا مُهْلِكِي الْقُرَىٰ إِلَّا وَأَهْلُهَا
ظَالِمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَمَا أَوْتِيسُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَّعَ الْحَيَوةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِينَتَهَا وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ
خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَىٰ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾

(57) They say, "If we follow the guidance with you, we will be removed from our land." Have We not granted them a peaceful Haram, to which the fruit of everything is attracted as a provision from Us? However, most of them have no knowledge. (58) Many were the towns that We have destroyed, who boasted about their affluence. There lie (the ruins of) their homes, which were occupied only a short while after them. We have always been the successors. (59) Your Lord would never destroy towns until He sends a messenger to their capital, reciting His verses to them. We would never destroy towns unless their inhabitants were oppressive. (60) Whatever you have been granted are the assets and adornments of this worldly life. That which is with Allāh is best and eternal. Do you not understand?

A REFUTATION OF THE CLAIM OF THE MAKKANS THAT THEY WOULD BE EXPELLED FROM THEIR LAND IF THEY ACCEPTED ISLĀM

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes (v. 7 p. 300) that Hārith bin Uthmān bin Naufal bin Abd Manāf once told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "We know that you preach the truth, but we cannot accept your preaching because we fear that the Arabs will (oppose us and eventually) remove us from Makkah." Allāh replies to this statement by saying, "Have We not granted them a peaceful Haram..." This was merely a lame excuse because, although the Arabs were warmongers they took care never to harm the people of Makkah because of the sanctity of the town.

Allāh describes Makkah further by saying that it is a place "to which the fruit of everything is attracted as a provision from Us?" Together with a peaceful existence, the people of Makkah always enjoyed abundant provisions.

Allāh addresses the Makkans in Surah Quraysh saying, "They should worship the Lord of this House (Ka'ba) Who fed them in their hunger and granted them safety from their fear." [Surah 106, verses 3,4]

"However, most of them have no knowledge." Most of the polytheists in Makkah did not realise that Allāh will still provide for them if they accepted Islām and would not allow their enemies to vanquish them.

"Many were the towns that We have destroyed, who boasted about their affluence. There lie (the ruins of) their homes, which were occupied only a short while after them." This verse tells that polytheists that their notion of being expelled after accepting Islām is fallacious. Islām does not bring destruction to people, but it is disbelief that destroys people, as occurred to the people of the past. When these people falsified the Prophets عليهم السلام, they were annihilated. It may have been only some travellers who used their structures afterwards as they passed by them. Otherwise, these structures served no purpose afterwards.

"We have always been the successors." Allāh is always the Master of everything and will still have control after the temporary owners of this world have passed away.

ALLĀH WILL NEVER DESTROY A TOWN UNTIL HE SENDS A PROPHET TO THEM

"Your Lord would never destroy towns until He sends a messenger to their capital, reciting His verses to them. We would never destroy towns unless their inhabitants were oppressive." It is only when the people of a town falsify the Prophet sent to them and when they excel in sins that Allāh punishes them.

"Whatever you have been granted are the assets and adornments of this worldly life. That which is with Allāh is best and eternal. Do you not understand?" In this verse, Allāh impresses upon peoples' minds that the splendour of this world is temporary. They should not be enamoured by it because it will lead them to reject the truth and enter them into Hell. They should rather turn their attention to the Hereafter and strive for it because it is everlasting.

"..... to which the fruit of everything is attracted as a provision from Us?" In this description of the Haram of Makkah, Ulema (scholars) mention that the produce of every tree and machine is implied by the word 'fruit'. Therefore, every manufactured article will also find its way to the shores near Makkah, as is evident today as well. Annually, millions of people arrive in Makkah for Hajj and Umrah, yet there has never been a shortage of food and manufactured articles. The same may be said for Madinah, in favour of which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allāh (as has already passed in the commentary of verse 126 of Surah Baqarah).

أَفَمَنْ وَعَدْنَاهُ وَعْدًا حَسَنًا فَهُوَ لَفيهِ كُنْ مَنَعْنَاهُ مَتَاعَ الْحَيَوةِ الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ هُوَ يَوْمَ

الْقِيَمَةِ مِنَ الْمُحْضَرِينَ ﴿٦١﴾ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ أَيْنَ شُرَكَائِيَ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تَزْعُمُونَ
 ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالَ الَّذِينَ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلُ رَبَّنَا هَؤُلَاءِ الَّذِينَ أَغْوَيْنَا أَغْوَيْنَاهُمْ كَمَا غَوَيْنَا تَبَرَّأْنَا
 إِلَيْكَ مَا كَانُوا إِلَّا فِتْنَةً لَّنَا فَتَقَبَّلْهُنَّ مِنَّا وَأَنَّا بِمَا عَمِلْنَا فَتَرَأُوهُمُ الْيَوْمَ كَالْعُصْفَىٰ
 فَمَعِمَتٍ عَلَيْهِمْ الرُّسُلُ يَوْمَئِذٍ فَتَقُولُ هَؤُلَاءِ مِثْلُ النُّجُومِ ﴿٦٣﴾ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ مَاذَا أَجَبْتُمُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ
 ﴿٦٤﴾ قَالُوا لَا نَمْلِكُ شَيْئًا وَرَبُّنَا أَخَذَ مِنَّا لَؤْلُقًا فَنسَآءُ لَهَا لَؤْلُقًا فَحَمَلْنَا حِمْلًا
 وَلَئِن كُنَّا عِندَ رَبِّنَا لَمَنُودِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ مَاذَا أَجَبْتُمُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ
 ﴿٦٦﴾ قَالُوا لَا نَمْلِكُ شَيْئًا وَرَبُّنَا أَخَذَ مِنَّا لَؤْلُقًا فَنسَآءُ لَهَا لَؤْلُقًا فَحَمَلْنَا حِمْلًا
 وَلَئِن كُنَّا عِندَ رَبِّنَا لَمَنُودِينَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ مَاذَا أَجَبْتُمُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

(61) Can the person who has realised the promise We made to him, be like the one to whom We have granted the pleasures of this worldly life, after which he will be from those to be apprehended and presented on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah)? (62) The day when Allāh shall call them saying, "Where are those partners that you ascribed to Me?" (63) Those against whom the decree shall be passed, will say, "O our Lord! These are the ones whom we have led astray. We led them astray just as we were astray. We seek exoneration from You. They never worshipped us." (64) It will be said, "Call your partners." They will then call for them, but they will not respond to them. They will also see the punishment. If only they were rightly guided. (65) The day when Allāh will call them saying, "What reply did you give to the messengers?" (66) All information will be lost to them on that day and they will not be able to ask each other. (67) As for him who repents, believes and does righteous deeds, it is expected that they will be from the successful ones.

ALLĀH WILL ASK THE IDOLATERS WHERE THEIR GODS ARE ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

Drawing a distinction between a believer (Mu'min) and a disbeliever, Allāh says, "Can the person {the believer (Mu'min)} who has realised the promise We made to him (i.e. of Heaven) be like the one (the disbeliever) whom We have granted the pleasures of this worldly life, after which he will be from those to be apprehended and presented on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) (after which he will be assigned to Hell)? This verse warns the disbelievers and also advises the believer (Mu'min) by telling them not to be enamoured with the temporary pleasures of this world which the disbelievers possess.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a believer (Mu'min) must never envy any bounty enjoyed by a sinner because he can never know what awaits the person after death. Allāh has kept a punishment in store for him which never ends i.e. Hell from which he will find no escape.

"The day when Allāh shall call them saying, 'Where are those partners that you ascribed to Me?' Those {devils (Shayātīn)} against whom the decree (to enter Hell) shall be passed, will say, 'O our Lord! These are the ones whom we have led astray. We led them astray just as we were astray (i.e. just like none forced us to do what we did, we never forced them). We seek exoneration from You. They never worshipped us (they worshipped their own whims instead)."

Allāh describes the same scene in Surah Baqarah, where He says, "When those who were followed disassociate themselves from those who followed them; and they see the punishment; and all ties between them are severed. Those who had followed will say, 'If only we could return (to the world), then we too will disassociate ourselves from them as they now do to us. In this manner Allāh will show them their actions as a cause of regret to them. They will never be able to escape from the fire.'" [Surah 2, verses 166, 167]

Allāh continues to say, "It will be said, 'Call your partners.' They will then call for them, but they will not respond to them. They (the misguided and those who misguided others) will also see the punishment. (They will then wish) If only they were rightly guided." They will wish that they could save themselves from punishment, but this will be impossible.

"The day when Allāh will call them saying, 'What reply did you give to the messengers?' All information will be lost to them on that day and they will not be able to ask each other." They will be senseless on that day and will forget whatever they told the Prophets عليهم السلام.

Allāh says in Surah Mā'idah, "The day when Allāh shall gather the messengers and ask, 'What reply did you receive?' They will submit, 'We have no knowledge. Most surely only You are the Knower of the unseen.'" Because of the awe of that day, even these Prophets عليهم السلام will be unable to give an accurate reply. Therefore, how can disbelievers and Polytheists be expected to give a reply when their situation will be much worse?

Thereafter, Allāh mentions those who accepted Islām. Allāh says, "As for him who repents, believes and does righteous deeds, it is expected that they will be from the successful ones."

وَرَبُّكَ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَيَخْتَارُ مَا كَانَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَتَعَالَى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَرَبُّكَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُكِنُّ صُدُورُهُمْ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَهُوَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي الْأُولَى وَالْآخِرَةِ وَلَهُ الْحُكْمُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمُ الَّتِيلَ سَرْمَدًا إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ مَنْ إِلَهٌ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ يَأْتِيكُم بِضِيَاءٍ أَوْ لَاسَمْعُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمُ النَّهَارَ سَرْمَدًا إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ مَنْ إِلَهٌ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ يَأْتِيكُم بِلَيْلٍ تَسْكُنُونَ فِيهِ أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَمِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ لِتَسْكُنُوا فِيهِ وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ is Pure and Exalted above all they ascribe as partner to Him. (69) And your Lord knows what their hearts conceal and what they reveal. (70) He is Allāh, besides Whom there is no deity. All praise belongs to Him in this world and in the Hereafter. All command is His, and to Him shall you all be returned. (71) Say, "Tell me. If Allāh makes the night perpetual for you until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), which deity besides Him can bring light to you? Can you not hear?" (72) Say, "Tell me. If Allāh makes the day perpetual for you until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), which deity besides Him can bring night to you, in which you may find peace? Can you not see?" (73) Out of His mercy, He has created the day and the night for you so that you may find peace in them, seek from His bounty, and express your gratitude to Him.

IF ALLĀH PERPETUATES THE DAY OR THE NIGHT, WHO CAN PREVENT HIM?

"Your Lord creates whatever He wills and selects. They have no choice. Allāh is Pure and Exalted above all they ascribe as partner to Him." Certain commentators have mentioned that this verse was revealed in response to the comment made by Walid bin Mughiera, when he said that Allāh should have made an affluent person from Makkah or Tā'if a Prophet instead of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Referring to this statement, Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "They say, 'Why is this Qur'ān not revealed to a prominent man from one of the two cities?'" [Surah 43, verse 31]

Other commentators have mentioned that the verse replies to a statement of the Jews who told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they would believe in him only if an angel besides Jibr'il عليه السلام brought the revelation. Allāh emphatically states, "Your Lord creates whatever He wills and selects." i.e. Allāh will select whom He wills to be a Prophet and to bring His revelation. People have no choice in the matter.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه interprets the verse to mean that Allāh selects whoever He wills to be obedient to Him [Qurtubi]. Other commentators mention that Allāh selects which laws to pass with regard to religion (D'in) and natural occurrences. None is partner to Him in any of these regards.

Even in Allāh's selection of Prophets عليهم السلام, He reserves the right to honour certain Prophets عليهم السلام above the rest, and to assign a larger number of followers to some instead of others. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام is regarded as Allāh's friend, while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is termed as "Allāh's beloved" and was also conferred the honour of meeting Allāh in Mi'raj (ascension). Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was honoured enough to converse directly with Allāh, whilst Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is regarded as Allāh's 'spirit' and 'word.'

Similarly, Allāh chooses whichever angels He wills for whatever task He chooses. Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Allāh selects messengers from the angels and from mankind." Allāh has also made certain gardens of Heaven better than others, Jannatul Firdous (Garden of paradise) being the best of these. Likewise, Allāh has given superiority to the Masjidul Harām above all other Masājid and declared a portion of the Masjidun Nabawi (Mosque of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to be a part of the gardens of Heaven.

From the religious scholars, Allāh has accepted some for greater tasks of religion. While some were Muhaddithīn (narrators), others were Mufasssīrīn (commentators). While some had thousands of students, others founded educational institutions. There have been many whose books have been well received, while others did not write any books at all. In this manner, hundreds of examples can be quoted. The fact is that Allāh selects as He pleases. "Allāh is Pure and Exalted above all they ascribe as partner to Him."

Allāh continues to say, "And your Lord knows what their hearts conceal and what they reveal." Therefore, no person should think that none is aware of the evil he harbours in his heart.

"He is Allāh, besides Whom there is no deity. All praise belongs to Him in this world and in the Hereafter. All command (decisions) is His, and to Him shall you all be returned." Allāh will then reward or punish people accordingly.

Allāh then reminds people of His great bounty upon them. He says, "Say (to the disbelievers), 'Tell me. If Allāh makes the night perpetual for you until the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), which deity (of yours) besides Him can bring light to you? Can you not hear?' Say, 'Tell me. If Allāh makes the day perpetual for you until the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), which deity besides Him can bring night to you, in which you may find peace (and rest)? Can you not see?'"

The benefits of having the day and night alternate as they do are too numerous to mention. Allāh states two of them when he says, "Out of His mercy, He has created the day and the night for you so that you may find peace (and sleep) therein (at night), seek from His bounty (i.e. earn a living by day), and express your gratitude to Him."

وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ أَيْنَ شُرَكَاءِيَ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تَزْعُمُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَتَرَعْنَا مِنْ
كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ شَهِيدًا فَقُلْنَا هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ فَعَلِمُوا أَنَّ الْحَقَّ لِلَّهِ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا
كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾

(74) The day when Allāh will call them saying, "Where are the partners that you ascribed to Me?" (75) We will extract a witness from every nation and say, "Produce your proof." They will then come to know that the truth belongs to Allāh and whatever they ascribed to Allāh will be lost to them.

A WITNESS AND PROOF WILL BE REQUIRED FROM EVERY NATION ON THE DAY OF QIYĀMAH

Allāh reiterates a previous verse when he says, "The day when Allāh will call them saying, 'Where are the partners that you ascribed to Me?'" However, the occasion is different. When this question was posed previously, Allāh said, "Those against whom the decree shall be passed, will say, 'O our Lord! These are the ones whom we have led astray.. We led them astray just as we were astray. We seek exoneration from You. They never worshipped us.'"

However, in the verse under discussion, the people will not be able to respond to the question. For this reason, Allāh "will extract a witness from every nation and say, 'Produce your proof'" Allāh will present the Prophets عليهم السلام as witnesses to attest to the disobedience of these nations.

It will only be then that they will "come to know that the truth belongs to Allāh..." Whereas they contested everything the Prophets عليهم السلام told them in this world, they will realise the error of their ways on the Day of judgment (Qiyamah). Then also, "whatever they ascribed to Allāh will be lost to them." They will not receive the anticipated assistance from their gods.

﴿۷۶﴾ إِنَّ قُرُونًا كَانَتْ مِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَىٰ فَبَغَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ وَأَيْتَنَاهُمْ مِنَ الْكُتُوبِ مَا إِنَّ مَفَاحِمَهُ
لَسَوَاءٌ بِالْعَصْبَةِ أُولَىٰ الْقُوَّةِ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُ قَوْمُهُ لَا تَفْرَحْ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَرِحِينَ ﴿۷۷﴾
وَابْتَغِ فِيمَا آتَاكَ اللَّهُ الدَّارَ الْآخِرَةَ ۖ وَلَا تَنْسَ نَصِيبَكَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا ۚ وَأَحْسِن
كَمَا أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكَ ۖ وَلَا تَبْغِ الْفُسَادَ فِي الْأَرْضِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿۷۸﴾
قَالَ إِنَّمَا أُوتِيتُهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ عِنْدِي ۚ أَوَلَمْ يَعْلَم أَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَهْلَكَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنَ
الْقُرُونِ مَنْ هُوَ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُ قُوَّةً وَأَكْثَرُ جَمْعًا وَلَا يُسْئَلُ عَنْ ذُنُوبِهِمُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿۷۹﴾
فَخَرَجَ عَلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فِي زِينَتِهِ ۖ قَالَ الَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا يَلِيتَ لَنَا مِثْلَ
مَا أُوتِيَ قُرُونُ إِنَّهُمْ لَذُو حَظٍّ عَظِيمٍ ﴿۸۰﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَيَلَكُمْ
ثَوَابُ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ لِمَنْ ءَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَلَا يُلْقَاهَا إِلَّا الْاصْطِرَافُونَ ﴿۸۱﴾ فَحَسَفْنَا
بِهِمْ وَبِءَادِرِهِ الْأَرْضَ فَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِنْ فِئَةٍ يَنْصُرُونَهُ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَمَا كَانَ مِنْ
الْمُنْتَصِرِينَ ﴿۸۲﴾ وَأَصْبَحَ الَّذِينَ تَمَنَّوْا مَكَانَهُ بِالْأَمْسِ يَقُولُونَ وَيَكَابُ اللَّهُ يَبْسُطُ
الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ ۖ وَيَقْدِرُ لَوْلَا أَنْ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا لَخَسَفَ بِنَا وَيَكَانُوا لَا
يُقْلِحُ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿۸۳﴾

(76) Indeed Qārūn was from Mūsā's people, but rebelled against them. We granted him treasures, the keys of which were too heavy for a mighty troop of men. When his people told him, "Do not be boastful, for verily Allāh does not like the boastful." (77) "Seek the Home of the Hereafter using the means that Allāh has granted you and do not forget your portion from this world. Be benevolent just as Allāh has been benevolent unto you. And do not seek corruption on earth, for Allāh does not like those who create corruption." (78) He replied, "I have been granted all of this because of the knowledge I possess." Did he not know that Allāh has already destroyed many generations before him who were more powerful than him and larger in number? The criminals will not be questioned about their sins. (79) So he emerged among his people in pomp and splendour. Those who desired the world gaped, "If only we also possessed what Qārūn has! Undoubtedly, he is extremely fortunate." (80) Those who were granted knowledge said, "Woe to you! Allāh's rewards are better for the one who believes and does good deeds. Only the patient ones shall receive this." (81) So We plunged Qārūn and his home within the ground. There were no troops to assist him against Allāh, nor could he assist himself. (82) Those who aspired to be like him the previous day, said the next morning, "O dear! Indeed Allāh enlarges sustenance for those bondsmen He wills and straitens. If it were not for Allāh's favour on us, we would also have been plunged (in the earth). Alas! The disbelievers will certainly not succeed."

QĀRŪN BOASTS ABOUT HIS WEALTH, PEOPLE ENVY HIM, BUT THE GROUND EVENTUALLY SWALLOWS HIM

The above verses cite the incident of Qārūn. Allāh says, "Indeed Qārūn was from Mūsā's people, but rebelled against them." Commentators have mentioned various opinions about Qārūn. Some say that he was the son of Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام paternal uncle, while others say that he was the uncle himself. Others are of the opinion that he was the son of Sayyidina Mūsā's عليه السلام maternal aunt. However, all these opinions are based on Isrā'ili narrations and cannot be authenticated.

Allāh "granted him treasures, the keys of which were too heavy for a mighty troop of men." Excessive wealth usually breeds arrogance in a person. Qārūn was no exception. Therefore, his people advised him saying, "Do not be boastful, for verily Allāh does not like the boastful. Seek the Home of the Hereafter using the means that Allāh has granted you..." They advised him to spend in Allāh's path so that the rewards may accrue to him in the Hereafter. It should not be that a person leaves all his wealth behind for his heirs without benefiting from it. In saying this, they cautioned him against squandering his wealth, thereby destroying his life in the Hereafter.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Man says, 'My wealth! My wealth!' whereas only three things are actually his. (1) The food that he ate and digested, (2) the clothing that he wore out, and (3) the wealth that he spent for Allāh's pleasure, thereby accumulating a treasure. All else he will leave for his heirs." [Muslim v. 2 p. 407]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم, "Which of you likes the wealth of his heirs more than his own wealth?" They replied, "None of us can possibly like his heir's wealth more than his own." Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Understand that your wealth is only what you have sent ahead (i.e. spent for Allāh's pleasure to be rewarded in the Hereafter). The wealth left behind belongs to the heirs."

It is strange that people tend to become more miserly as they accrue more wealth. They will spend millions to purchase another factory in addition to their existing factory, but would not contribute even a few hundred for building a Masjid. Such people think only about the world, to the extent that they even take stock of their businesses while performing Salāh.

Qārūn's people also advised him thus: "...and do not forget your portion from this world" i.e. do not fail to use that portion of your worldly wealth that would be of assistance to you in the Hereafter. Allāh says in Surah Muzzammil, "Whatever good you sent ahead for yourselves, you will find it with Allāh." [Surah 73, verse 20]

Certain commentators have interpreted the above advice to mean that he should also utilise the wealth for his personal needs. However, the first interpretation is best because a person boasting about his wealth does not need to be advised to spend on himself.

They also told him, "Be benevolent just as Allāh has been benevolent unto you. And do not seek corruption on earth, for Allāh does not like those who create corruption." In this they advised him not to squander his wealth in sinful and wasteful ways.

In response to the good counsel, Qārūn replied by saying, "I have been granted all of this (wealth) because of the knowledge I possess." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that Qārūn had mastered the art of alchemy, by which he could turn things into gold. Other commentators say that he was a good businessman. Therefore, he meant to tell the people that he deserves to earn the fruit of his labours. He believed that he could now use the wealth as he pleased.

Allāh replied to this statement by saying, "Did he not know that Allāh has already destroyed many generations before him who were more powerful than him and larger in number?" He therefore had nothing to boast about because Allāh had given more to others, whom he easily destroyed when He willed. None of these assets could save them from Allāh's punishment.

"The criminals will not be questioned about their sins." Since Allāh has knowledge of everything and the recording angels write every deed down, Allāh does not have to ask people whether they perpetrated certain sins or not. The evidence speaks for itself. Those verses that make mention of questioning refer to rhetorical questions, which need not be answered. They will be asked about their sins as a manner of reproach.

"So he emerged among his people in pomp and splendour." Even in present times, people tour the town in great splendour to display their wealth and invite people to meals merely to show off their possessions. People even show off the wedding gifts they give their daughters by transporting them individually to the groom's house. They are then displayed for all present to see, as a mark of their affluence.

Impressed by Qārūn's wealth, "Those who desired the world gaped, 'If only we also possessed what Qārūn has! Undoubtedly, he is extremely fortunate.'"

Hearing this response, "Those who were granted knowledge (of the transitory nature of worldly commodities) said, 'Woe to you! Allāh's rewards are better for the one who believes and does good deeds. Only the patient ones shall receive this.'" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the smallest Heaven will be ten times larger than this entire world.

It was then that Allāh's punishment overtook Qārūn. Allāh says, "So We plunged Qārūn and his home within the ground. There were no troops to assist him against Allāh, nor could he assist himself"

"Those who aspired to be like him the previous day, said the next morning, 'O dear! (We were extremely foolish) Indeed Allāh enlarges sustenance for those bondsmen He wills and straitens.'" Wealth does not signify that Allāh loves a person, and neither should such persons be envied.

They also said, "If it were not for Allāh's favour on us (by not fulfilling our aspiration to be like him), we would also have been plunged (in the earth with him). Alas! The disbelievers will surely not succeed."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a believer (Mu'min) must never envy any bounty enjoyed by a sinner because he can never know what awaits the person after death. Allāh has kept a punishment in store for him, which never ends i.e. Hell from which there is no escape. ["Mishkāt" p. 447]

The wealth of the disbelievers cannot be compared to the bounties that the believers (Mu'minīn) will receive in Heaven.

Note: How is the story of Qārūn linked to the preceding subject matter? Commentators have cited the following two reasons for this:

1. The story of Qārūn is linked to the story of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, with which the Surah began when Allāh says, "With the truth, We recite to you from the narrative of Mūsa and Fir'aun for those people who believe." [verse 3]

2. The story is linked to verse 60, where Allāh says, "Whatever you have been granted are the assets and adornments of this worldly life. That which is with Allāh is best and eternal. Do you not understand?" The story of Qārūn depicts the same lesson. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

تِلْكَ الدَّارُ الْآخِرَةُ نَجْعَلُهَا لِلَّذِينَ لَا يُرِيدُونَ عُلُوًّا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فَسَادًا وَالْعَاقِبَةُ
لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا مَتَّهَا وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَلَا يُجْزَى الَّذِينَ
عَمِلُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ إِلَّا مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾

(83) This is the Home of the Hereafter, which We shall appoint for those who do not desire pageantry on earth nor corruption. The best outcome shall be for the pious. (84) Whoever brings a good deed will receive better than that. Whoever brings a sin, the sinners will be punished only for what they did.

THE HEREAFTER IS FOR THOSE WHO DO NOT DESIRE PAGEANTRY AND CORRUPTION ON EARTH

Allāh declares, "This is the Home of the Hereafter, which We shall appoint for those (righteous people) who do not desire pageantry on earth nor corruption. The best outcome shall be for the pious." It is incumbent on every person to submit before Allāh's grandeur and to perpetually adopt humility. The more a person recognises Allāh, the more humble should he be.

People who aspire to attain nobility in this world commit a great number of sins in realising their aim. They also tend to perpetrate a great deal of injustice against others. Some even resort to violence and murder if they feel the need to. Despite their misguided efforts, they are depriving themselves of Heaven and also fail to achieve the success and honour which is attained by those who obey Allāh's commands. They merely thrive on the little power they possess, because of which people are terrified to speak against them.

THE VIRTUE OF HUMILITY AND THE ABOMINATION OF PRIDE

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who humbles himself for Allāh, Allāh will elevate him. He will consider himself small in his own estimation, but will be high in people's esteem. Allāh will humiliate whoever is proud. He will consider himself great in his own estimation, but will be more degraded than a dog and a pig in the eyes of people." ["Mishkāt" p. 434]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the person who has pride equal to even a mustard seed shall never enter Heaven. ["Mishkāt" p. 433]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that proud people will appear as small as ants on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). They will then be cast into a pit of Hell called 'Bawlis,' where they will be engulfed in flames and 'Tinatul Khabāl' (the discharge emanating from the bodies of the people of Hell) will be given to them to drink. [Tirmidhi]

"Whoever brings a good deed {on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)} will receive better than that." The greatest deed is belief (Imān), for which a person will attain the everlasting bliss of Heaven. Every deed will receive a minimum of tenfold reward. On the other hand, "Whoever brings a sin; the sinners will be punished only for what they did." The worst of sins is disbelief and polytheism (shirk), which will condemn people to an eternity in Hell. Whether rich or poor, noble or debased, every disbeliever and polytheist will be doomed to Hell.

إِنَّ الَّذِي فَرَضَ عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ لَرَادُّكَ إِلَىٰ مَعَادٍ قُلْ رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْهُدَىٰ
وَمَنْ هُوَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَمَا كُنتَ تَرْجُو أَن يُلْقَىٰ إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابُ إِلَّا
رَحْمَةً مِّن رَّبِّكَ فَلَا تَكُونْ ظَهِيرًا لِلْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَلَا يَصُدَّنَّكَ عَنْ ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ
بَعْدَ إِذْ أُنزِلَتْ إِلَيْكَ وَادْعُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ وَلَا تَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾ وَلَا تَدْعُ
مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ هَالِكٌ إِلَّا وَجْهَهُ لَهُ الْحُكْمُ وَإِلَيْهِ
تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾

(85) Verily, the One Who decreed the Qur'ān for you shall return you to your place of return. Say, "My Lord knows best who brings guidance and who is in manifest error." (86) You never anticipated that a scripture would be given to you, but it is only by the mercy of your Lord. So never be an accomplice to the disbelievers. (87) They should never prevent you from Allāh's verses after they have been revealed to you. Keep calling towards your Lord and never be from the idolaters. (88) Do not call to another deity with Allāh. There is none worthy of worship besides Him. Everything shall perish besides His Countenance. All decisions rest with Him and to Him shall you all be returned.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS GIVEN THE QUR'ĀN BECAUSE OF ALLĀH'S MERCY

Commentators mention that the first of the above verses promises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he will be allowed to return to his native city of Makkah after migrating to Madinah. Consequently, in the 8th year after Hijrah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entered Makkah as a victor.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reached a place called Juhfa en route to Madinah, he longed to return to his hometown of Makkah. On that occasion, Jibr'il عليه السلام arrived with the revelation of the above verse. Based on this narration, certain commentators have interpreted the word 'farada' (translated above as "decreed") to mean revealed' i.e. "Verily, the One Who revealed the Qur'ān to you shall return you to your place of return (i.e. to Makkah)."

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that Allāh will return the Holy prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to Heaven.

"Say, 'My Lord knows best who brings guidance and who is in manifest error.'" The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" that this verse is a reply to the Polytheists who said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in error.

"You never anticipated that a scripture would be given to you, but it is only by the mercy of your Lord (that you were conferred the mantle of Prophethood)." Therefore, just as Allāh bestowed his special mercy and grace upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by granting him the Qur'ān, Allāh's mercy will also return him to Makkah.

"So never be an accomplice to the disbelievers." The verse addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, telling him not to succumb to the bidding of the polytheists to follow the religion of their forefathers.

"They (the disbelievers) should never prevent you from Allāh's verses after they have been revealed to you." This verse also addresses the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It warns that they should never allow the disbelievers to prevent them from learning, teaching and practising the Qur'ān.

"Keep calling towards your Lord [i.e. to oneness of Allāh (Tauhid)] and never be from the idolaters." Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله reports that this verse was revealed when the polytheists of the Quraysh requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to honour their idols. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" writes that although the verse addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it indirectly addresses the disbelievers, telling them that they must never entertain hopes that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will ever join their ranks. It is impossible.

"Do not call to another deity with Allāh. There is none worthy of worship besides Him." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that this verse prohibits the Muslims from returning to polytheism (shirk), although the address is to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. [v. 20 p. 130]

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Everything shall perish besides His Countenance. All decisions rest with Him and to Him shall you all be returned."

سورة العنكبوت

Makkan

Surah Al-Ankabut

Verses 69

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الَّذِينَ أَحْسَبَ النَّاسُ أَنْ يُتْرَكُوا أَنْ يَقُولُوا ءَامَنَّا وَهُمْ لَا يُفْتَنُونَ ﴿٢﴾ وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا
الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَلْيَعْلَمَنَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ صَدَقُوا وَلْيَعْلَمَنَّ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٣﴾ أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ
يَعْمَلُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ أَنْ يَسْفُتُونَا سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Mīm. (2) Do people think that they will be left to say, "We believe!" without being tested? (3) We certainly tested those before them, and Allāh will definitely know of those who are true and He will definitely know the liars. (4) Do those who perpetrate sins think that they can escape Us? Evil indeed is the decision they take.

MAN WILL BE TESTED AFTER PROCLAIMING IMĀN (FAITH)

The Surah is called Ankabūt (spider) because the spider is mentioned in verse 41. Allāh says, "Do people think that they will be left to say, 'We believe!' without being tested?" The question does not require a reply. Imān (faith) is never restricted to the tongue, but must be embedded within the heart. When a person is a sincere believer (Mu'min), he will be tested in various ways. He may be tested by means of demanding acts of worship, by requiring to fight his whims and passions, or by enduring hardships and adversities. These tests prove whether the person is a sincere believer (Mu'min), or whether he is a hypocrite.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 20 p. 134) reports from Ibn Jarīr رحمه الله عليه and from Ibn Abi Hātim رحمه الله عليه that the above verse was revealed with regard to those people who accepted Islām in Makkah after the Hijrah (migration).

The other Sahābah رضى الله عنهم wrote to them from Madinah, telling them that their Islām will not be confirmed until they migrate as well. These Muslims then decided to migrate, but were apprehended en route by the polytheists, who brought them back to Makkah.

When this verse was revealed, the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم in Madinah wrote to them a second time, informing them about this verse. They again made an attempt to migrate. This time they resolved to fight the polytheists if they were accosted. Consequently, they left for Madinah. The polytheists again tried to apprehend them, but they fought them off. Some of these Muslims were martyred, while the others managed to reach Madinah. It was with regard to this that Allāh revealed the following verse of Surah Nahl: "Then your Lord shall be Most Forgiving and Most Merciful after all unto those who migrate after being tried and then strive in His way and exercise patience." [Surah 16, verse 110]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه that "people" in the verse "Do people think..." refer to the hypocrites.

"We certainly tested those before them, and Allāh will definitely know of those who are true (in their faith) and He will definitely know the liars (i.e. those whose faith is merely verbal)." The Mu'minīn of the previous Ummah's were also tested. The Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم can also expect the same.

Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Too numerous were the Holy Prophets with whom many devoted men fought. They never lost courage with all the hardships that afflicted them in the path of Allāh, nether did they weaken, nor become helpless. Allāh loves the patient ones." [Surah 3, verse 146]

A believer (Mu'min) should always pray for safety and peace, but must be steadfast in the face of hardships, directing his attention to Allāh. He must keep in mind the rewards for patience, which will allow him to build courage.

True Muslims will bear adversities, while those who merely accepted Islām for convenience or for some worldly motive, will revert to their former religions (D'in's) when hardships strike.

Allāh then speaks about those who present the hardships to the Muslims, when He says, "Do those who perpetrate sins think that they can escape Us? Evil indeed is the decision they take." They cannot escape Allāh's punishment because of the sins and injustices that they perpetrate.

مَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوا لِقَاءَ اللَّهِ فَإِنْ أَجَلَ اللَّهُ لَكَ لَأْتِيَهُ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٥﴾ وَمَنْ جَاهَدَ فَإِنَّمَا يُجَاهِدُ لِنَفْسِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَغَنِيٌّ عَنِ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَنُكَفِّرَنَّ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَحْسَنَ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٧﴾

(5) Whoever aspires to meet Allāh (should know) that the term stipulated by Allāh will certainly arrive. And He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing. (6) Whoever strives only strives for himself. Allāh is Independent of the entire universe. (7) Those who believe and do good deeds, We shall definitely remit their sins from them and reward them better than what they did.

EACH PERSON STRIVES FOR HIMSELF AND ALLĀH IS INDEPENDENT OF THE UNIVERSE

Allāh says, "Whoever aspires to meet Allāh (should know) that the term stipulated by Allāh (for rewarding) will certainly arrive. And He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing." Allāh is Aware of every person's supplications, aspirations and deeds. However, at times sincere believers (Mu'minīn) also suffer some adversity, which may be termed as 'mujāhadah.'

The Arabic word 'mujāhadah' literally refers to a struggle between two. When a person carries out any act for the betterment of his Hereafter, the deed opposes his base instinct. Therefore, he is in a constant struggle against his carnal self. However this struggle and striving will be well rewarded by Allāh. Allāh says, "Whoever strives only strives for himself Allāh is Independent of the entire universe." Although Allāh does not require man's efforts, He is munificent enough to reward man for it.

"Those who believe and do good deeds, We shall definitely remit their sins from them (on account of repentance, good deeds, or purely by Allāh's grace) and reward them better than what they did." The sins of disbelief and polytheism (shirk) can be remitted only by accepting Islām. The reward for any good deed will be far more than the deed itself.

وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَالِدَيْهِ حُسْنًا وَإِنْ جَاهَدَاكَ لِتُشْرِكَ بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا إِلَىٰ مَرْجِعِكُمْ فَأُنِيبُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٨﴾ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَنُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ فِي الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٩﴾

(8) We emphatically commanded man to treat his parents kindly. If they force you to ascribe partners to Me about which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them. Your return shall be to Me, when I shall inform you of what you used to do. (9) We shall definitely include those who believe and do good deeds among the righteous.

KIND TREATMENT OF PARENTS

Allāh says, "We emphatically commanded man to treat his parents kindly." Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'īl, "Your Lord has commanded that you worship only Him and that you treat your parents kindly. If any one of the two, or both of them reaches old age by you, then do not even tell them 'Ūf' and do not rebuke them. Speak to them gently. Lower for them the wings of humility out of compassion and say, 'O my Lord! Show mercy to them as they have raised me (mercifully) when I was young.'" [Surah 17, verses 23, 24]

Kindness to parents also includes spending on them and being kind and cordial towards them. Allāh also makes special reference to aged parents, to whom one cannot even say, "Ūf!" The verse of Surah Bani Isrā'īl also cites a prayer (du'ā) to be made for one's parents. Just as they cared for one as a frail and weak child, one should also care for them when they have grown frail and weak. Refer to the commentary of the above verses of Surah Bani Isrā'īl for more details on the subject.

Allāh continues to say, "If they force you to ascribe partners to Me about which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them." Mentioning the same situation, a verse of Surah Luqmān adds that in spite of not obeying them, one should nevertheless continue to associate harmoniously with them. One cannot contravene Allāh's orders on the request of anyone.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The creation cannot be obeyed if it means that the Creator be disobeyed." ["Mishkāt"]

Sayyidah Asmā رضي الله عنها, who was one of Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضي الله عنه daughters migrated to Madinah without her mother, who was then still a non-believer. In the 6th year after Hijrah (migration), the Muslims entered into a pact with the polytheists, by which each party could freely associate with the other. During this period, her mother came to Madinah. Sayyidah Asmā رضي الله عنها asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether she was permitted to financially assist her mother, who was desperately in need of aid. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم urged her to treat her mother well. [Bukhari]

Parents today encourage their children to indulge in various sins like shaving the beard, accepting bribes, working for banks, taking interest, dressing immodestly, etc. It is Harām (Unlawful) for the parents to behave in this manner, and it is Harām (Unlawful) for the children to conform because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The creation cannot be obeyed if it means that the Creator is to be disobeyed."

Allāh is man's Creator and Master. Therefore, obedience to Him is of paramount importance and cannot be forfeited in order to obey His creation.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 20 p. 139) reports that when Sayyidina Sa'd bin Abi Waqās رضي الله عنه accepted Islām, his mother said to him, "O Sa'd! I hear that you have forsaken your religion (D'īn) for another. I swear by Allāh that I shall never enter any house (i.e. I will remain standing in the heat) and all food is Harām (unlawful) for me until you stop following Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم."

Although Sayyidina Sa'd رضي الله عنه was the favourite of his mother, he refused to forsake Islām. His mother kept her oath and neither ate, nor took shelter for three days. When Sayyidina Sa'd رضي الله عنه related the incident to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the above verse was revealed.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (p. 461) reports that after his mother spent two days and two nights in this condition, he told her that he would not forsake Islām even if she had a hundred lives to sacrifice for her oath. She now had the option to either break her oath or die. She lost hope in changing his mind and broke her oath.

Allāh says further, "Your return shall be to Me, when I shall inform you of what you used to do." Whatever a person does in this world will present itself in the Hereafter, where the person will either be rewarded or punished.

"We shall definitely include those who believe and do good deeds among the righteous." They will enter the ranks of these fortunate people in Heaven.

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَقُولُ ءَامَنَّا بِاللَّهِ فَإِذَا أُوذِيَ فِي اللَّهِ جَعَلَ فِتْنَةَ النَّاسِ كَعَذَابِ اللَّهِ

وَلَيْنَ جَاءَ نَصْرٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ يَقُولُْنَ إِنَّا كُنَّا مَعَكُمْ أَوْ لَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِأَعْلَمَ بِمَا فِي
 صُدُورِ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ ﴿١١﴾

(10) Among people are those who say, "We believe in Allāh!" Then, when they suffer any adversity in Allāh's cause, they treat the difficulty people give like Allāh's punishment. If help comes from your Lord, they will certainly say, "We were always with you." Does Allāh not know best what is in the hearts of all in the universe? (11) Allāh will certainly know those who believe and will definitely know the hypocrites.

THOSE WHO CLAIM TO BELIEVE ARE PUT TO THE TEST

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that the verse refers to certain weak Muslims who claimed to accept Islām, but would sway to the tune of the polytheists when put under pressure. They hid this behaviour from the Muslims. Sayyidina Qatādah رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ says that it refers to those Muslims whom the polytheists took back to Makkah after migrating to Madinah.

Love for this world prompts people to waver in their faith. The sincere Muslim endures all hardships without faltering in his Imān, like Sayyidina Khabbāb رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ, Sayyidina Bilāl رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ, Sayyidina Ammār رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ and other Sahābah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ. They understood that Allāh's punishment is worse than the difficulties of this world.

Allāh says that these weak Muslims seem to regard the injustice of the disbelievers as Allāh's punishment and revert to disbelief. Describing their double standards, Allāh says, "If help comes from your Lord (warranting booty, they also want a share and), they will certainly say, 'We were always with you.' Does Allāh not know best what is in the hearts of all in the universe?" Allāh is well aware of those who conceal hypocrisy in their hearts.

"Allāh will certainly know those who believe and will definitely know the hypocrites." Allāh is Aware of their condition at present and what it will be in the future.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّبِعُوا سَبِيلَنَا وَلْنَحْمِلْ خَطِيئَتَكُمْ وَمَا هُمْ
 بِحَامِلِينَ مِنْ خَطِيئَتِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلَيَحْمِلُنَّ أَثْقَالَهُمْ
 وَأَنْفَالًا مَّعَ أَثْقَالِهِمْ وَلَيَسْئَلُنَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَفْعَرُونَ ﴿١٣﴾

(12) The disbelievers say to the believers, "Follow our way and we will bear the burden of your sins. They will not carry any part of their sins. They are certain liars. (13) They will certainly carry their own burdens in addition to those of others. And they will definitely be questioned about what they fabricated.

NONE SHALL BEAR THE BURDEN OF ANOTHER'S SINS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

In an attempt to mislead the Muslims, "The disbelievers say to the believers, 'Follow our way and we will bear the burden of your sins. The disbelievers realised that the Muslims feared retribution on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), because of which they would not forsake their religion (D'in). It was for this reason that they even offered to bear the burden of this sin in the Hereafter. They made this offer only because they did not believe in the punishment of the Hereafter. Otherwise, a person cannot even bear the fire of this world for a few seconds, let alone burning until eternity in Hell, which is 69 times hotter.

Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "No soul shall bear the burden of another." Likewise, the above verse of Surah Ankabūt says, "They will not carry any part of their sins. They are certain liars." It is irrational that anyone should be made to suffer for the crimes of another. Even if another person willingly accepts to suffer for someone, it will still not absolve the sinner from his sins. Therefore, one will still have to be punished.

The statement made by the polytheists contains two lies. The first is that they will never be prepared to suffer for another on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), when even brothers and family members will flee from each other, unable to assist them. The second lie is the claim that the accused will be excused from the sin.

"They will certainly carry their own burdens in addition to those of others. And they will definitely be questioned about what they fabricated." Although the verse emphasises that no person can suffer the punishment because of another, it does not exonerate those who mislead others. They will have to suffer for the sin of misleading others. It is in reference to this that Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "So that they may carry their entire burdens on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) together with the burdens of those whom they mislead without knowledge. Evil indeed is the burden that they bear." [Surah 16, verse 25]

This explanation clarifies the essence of a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who calls to guidance will receive the reward of all those people who follow him without their rewards being decreased at all. The person who calls to deviation will receive the sin of all those people who follow him without their sins being decreased in the least." [Muslim]

Many people also adopt the practice of coercing others to perpetrate certain sins. When they refuse for fear of punishment, these ignorant people claim that they will bear the punishment on their behalf. This statement leads one to disbelief because it indicates that they refute punishment in the Hereafter and are prepared to accept the consequences. While the instigator will not suffer for the act of the sinner, one will suffer for the sin of misleading.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَلَبِثَ فِيهِمْ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ إِلَّا خَمْسِينَ عَامًا فَأَخَذَهُمُ
الطُّوفَانُ وَهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَأَنجَيْنَاهُ وَأَصْحَبَ السَّفِينَةَ وَجَعَلْنَاهَا آيَةً

(14) Without doubt, we sent Nūh to his nation, where he remained for a thousand years less fifty years. Then a storm struck them as they were oppressors. (15) We rescued Nūh and the people on the ark, making the incident a lesson for the universe.

SAYYIDINA NŪH'S عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام PREACHING IS REJECTED AND HIS PEOPLE ARE DESTROYED

Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام preached to his nation for 950 years, advising them to believe in Tauhid and to forsake idolatry. However, they made various excuses and argued with him extensively. They even went to the extent of asking for the punishment he warned them about.

Eventually, Allāh commanded Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to build an ark to accommodate the believers when the floods came. Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "They denied him, and We rescue him and those with him in the ark, while We drowned those who denied Our verses. Without doubt they were a blind nation." [Surah 7, verse 64]

The incident of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام is mentioned in detail in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 59-64], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 24-48], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 105-122] and Surah Nūh [Surah 71, verses 1-28].

وَأَنذَرْتَهُمْ إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَأَتَّقُوهُ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ إِنَّمَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْثَانًا وَتَخْلُقُونَ إِفْكًا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ لَكُمْ رِزْقًا فَابْتَغُوا عِندَ اللَّهِ الرِّزْقَ وَاعْبُدُوهُ وَاشْكُرُوا لِلَّهِ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَإِن تَكْذِبُوا فَقَدْ كَذَّبَ أُمَمٌ مِّن قَبْلِكُمْ وَمَا عَلَى الرَّسُولِ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٨﴾

(16) And We sent Ibrahīm, when he said to his people, "Worship Allāh and fear him. That is best for you if only you knew." (17) "Instead of Allāh, you merely worship idols and fabricate lies. Those that you worship instead of Allāh do not have control of your sustenance, so seek your sustenance from Allāh, worship Him and show gratitude to Him. To Him shall you be returned." (18) "If you deny, then certainly many nations have denied before you. The responsibility of the messenger is merely clear propagation."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM PREACHES ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) TO HIS PEOPLE AND EXHORTS THEM TO WORSHIP ALLĀH AND TO EXPRESS THEIR GRATITUDE TO ALLĀH

The story of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام is recounted in many verses of the Qur'an. Surah Āl Imrān mentions his debate with the tyrant, Nimrud. Surah An'ām, Surah Anbiya and Surah Shu'arā also make mention of his preaching to his nation. He told them, "Worship Allāh and fear him. That is best for you if only you knew. Instead of Allāh, you merely worship idols and fabricate lies. Those that you worship instead of Allāh do not have control of your sustenance, so seek your sustenance from Allāh, worship Him and show gratitude to Him. To Him shall you be returned." Accepting the concept of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) will guarantee salvation in the Hereafter.

He also warned them saying, "If you deny, then certainly many nations have denied before you (because of which they were destroyed). The responsibility of the messenger is merely clear propagation." He fulfilled his task by preaching to them. They were now at liberty to either destroy themselves by remaining as disbelievers, or to salvage their souls by believing in the message.

أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَيْفَ يُبْدِئُ اللَّهُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿١٩﴾ قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ بَدَأَ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ اللَّهُ يُنشِئُ النَّشْأَةَ الْآخِرَةَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ يُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَرْحَمُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُقْلَبُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَلِقَائِهِ أُولَٰئِكَ يَكُونُ مِنْ رَحْمَتِي وَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٣﴾

(19) Do they not see how Allāh initiates creation and then recreates? This is certainly easy for Allāh. (20) Say, "Travel in the lands and see how Allāh creates the first time and then recreates the second time. Indeed Allāh has power over all things." (21) Allāh punishes whoever He wills and has mercy on whoever He wills. To Him shall you be returned. (22) You can never escape on earth, nor in the sky. You have no protecting friend, nor any helper besides Allāh. (23) Those who deny Allāh's verses and meeting with Him are indeed those who have lost hope in My mercy and a torturous punishment shall be theirs.

SUBSTANTIATION OF JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH) AND A REPROACH FOR THE DISBELIEVERS

Allāh addresses the Quraysh of Makkah in these verses because they refuted the reality of resurrection on the day of judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh asks whether these people have seen that He continuously creates people, animals and other creation. Each day new beings are born, while others are dying. Even when trees and plants wilt and die, Allāh brings them back to life with the rains. Despite these phenomena being witnessed daily, people still fail to accept that Allāh can certainly recreate man on the day of judgment (Qiyāmah).

"Say, 'Travel in the lands and see how Allāh creates the first time and then recreates the second time. Indeed Allāh has power over all things."

Thereafter, Allāh says that He "punishes whoever he wills and has mercy on whoever He wills. To Him shall you be returned." Only He orchestrates matters in both the worlds. Therefore, He says, "You can never escape on earth, nor in the sky. You have no protecting friend, nor any helper besides Allāh." None can hide, nor seek refuge from Allāh irrespective of how hard he tries.

"Those who deny Allāh's verses and meeting with Him are indeed those who have lost hope in My mercy and a torturous punishment shall be theirs. "Then it will be too late for regrets."

فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا اقْتُلُوهُ أَوْ حَرِّقُوهُ فَأَنْجَاهُ اللَّهُ مِنَ النَّارِ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَقَالَ إِنَّمَا اتَّخَذْتُمْ مِّنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
بَيْنَكُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ثَمَرًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ يَكْفُرُ بَعْضُكُم بِبَعْضٍ
وَيَلْعَنُ بَعْضُكُم بَعْضًا وَمَأْوَاكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُم مِّنْ نَّاصِرِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ فَامَنَّ
لَهُمُ لُوطٌ وَقَالَ إِنِّي مُهَاجِرٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ
إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِي ذُرِّيَّتِهِ النُّبُوَّةَ وَالْكِتَابَ وَءَاتَيْنَاهُ أَجْرَهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا
وَلَنَاهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ لِمَنِ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾

(24) The only reply that his people could give was to say, "Kill him or burn him!" Then Allāh saved him from the fire. Undoubtedly, there are certainly signs in this for the believing people. (25) Ibrahīm عليه السلام said, "You have merely taken to worship idols because of your mutual love in this worldly life. Soon, on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), you will oppose each other and curse each other. Your abode shall be the Fire and you will have no helpers." (26) So Lūt believed him. Ibrahīm said, "I shall migrate to my Lord, He is certainly the Mighty, the Wise." (27) We gifted him with Is'hāq and Ya'qūb, kept Prophethood and scriptures in his progeny and granted him his reward in this world. He shall certainly be from the righteous ones in the Hereafter.

THE PEOPLE OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام DECIDE TO BURN HIM ALIVE

Allāh resumes the story of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام once again. After he preached to his people to forsake idol-worship, they said, "Kill him or burn him!" However, when they cast him into a large fire, Allāh commanded the fire to be cool and peaceful for him. In this way, "Allāh saved him from the fire. Undoubtedly, there are certainly signs (of Allāh's tremendous power) in this for the believing people."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام TELLS THE PEOPLE THAT THEY WORSHIP IDOLS ONLY OUT OF MUTUAL LOVE, WHICH WILL BE LOST ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

"Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said, 'You have merely taken to worship idols because of your mutual love in this worldly life.' i.e. They did it only to emulate their forefathers. They felt that they would be ostracised if they failed to conform to the paganistic ways of their fellow men.

He cautioned them that this mutual love will also disappear on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). He said, "Soon, on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), you will oppose each other and curse each other. Your abode shall be the Fire and you will have no helpers." On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), all of them will be blaming one another for their predicament.

Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "Each time a nation will enter, they will curse their sister nation. Until, when they are all gathered in Hell, the latter will say regarding the former, 'Our Lord, these are the people who led us astray, so give them a greatly intensified punishment of the Fire.' (Allāh) shall reply, 'For each there shall be double punishment, but you know it not.'" [Surah 7, verse 38]

A verse of Surah Sād quotes the followers as saying to their leaders: "No! You are the ones for whom there is no welcome! You people have brought this on us. What a horrible station it is!" In addition to this, "They will cry out, 'Oh our Lord! Double the,' punishment in the Fire for those who have brought this on us. The sinners, of this world will suffer the same plight on the Day of Judgement, when they will blame each other.

SAYYIDINA LŪT ACCEPTS THE MESSAGE OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام, AFTER WHICH THEY BOTH MIGRATE

"So Lūt believed him." Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام was the son of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm's عليه السلام brother Harān. After making every attempt to reform his nation, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام eventually declared, "I shall migrate to my Lord, He is certainly the Mighty, the Wise."

Although some commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام made the statement that he wishes to migrate, it was most probably Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام who said it. A verse in Surah Sāffāt confirms that it was mentioned by Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, because it quotes him as saying, "I am going to my Lord, Who shall soon guide me." [Surah 37, verse 99]

Taking his wife, Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام and Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام along with him, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام migrated from his homeland (between Iraq and Persia) to Palestine.

THE TIDINGS OF A SON AND A GRANDSON

When he migrated, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was 75 years of age and his wife was also extremely old. He then prayed to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Grant me a son from among the pious." Allāh accepted his prayer (du'ā) and sent some angels to convey the news of a son to him. The incident has been discussed in Surah Hūd The glad tidings concerned the birth of his own son Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام and a grandson, Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام. Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام was born from his other wife, Sayyidah Hājirah عليها السلام.

THE SUCCESSION OF THE PROPHETHOOD IN THE PROGENY OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام

Allāh says, "We gifted him with Is'hāq and Ya'qūb, kept Prophethood and scriptures in his progeny..." Every Prophet after Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام was from his progeny, including Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh granted Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام acceptance among all the religion. Even though many nations may reject the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they still speak highly of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام. This was a result of the du'ā that he made for Allāh to make people after him speak well of him.

"..... and granted him his reward in this world. He shall certainly be from the righteous ones in the Hereafter. "His reward in this world was that his progeny was blessed with multitudes of Prophets عليهم السلام. He was also allowed to leave the land of oppressors and had the honour of building Allāh's house (the Ka'ba). His stages in the Hereafter will also be extremely elevated.

وَلَوْطًا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ إِنَّكُمْ لَأَتُونَ الْفَحِشَةَ مَا سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ أَيْنَكُمْ لَأَتُونَ الرِّجَالَ وَتَقْطَعُونَ السَّبِيلَ وَتَأْتُونَ فِي نَادِيَكُمُ الْمُنْكَرَ فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا اأْتِنَا بِعَذَابِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ بِالْبُشْرَى قَالُوا إِنَّا مُهْلِكُوا أَهْلَ هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ إِنْ أَهْلَهَا كَانُوا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي فِيهَا لَوْطًا قَالُوا نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ فِيهَا لَنُنَجِّيَنَّهُ وَأَهْلَهُ إِلَّا أَمْرَاتَهُ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَلَمَّا أَنْ جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا لُوطًا سِئَاءَ بِهِمْ وَضَاقَ بِهِمْ ذَرْعًا وَقَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّا مُنْجِيُكَ وَأَهْلَكَ إِلَّا أَمْرَاتَكَ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ إِنَّا مُنْزِلُونَ عَلَى أَهْلِ هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ رِجْزًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْسُقُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْنَا مِنْهَا آيَةً بَيِّنَةً لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾

(28) And we sent Lūt, when he said to his people, "Indeed you people engage in an obscenity, which none in the universe has indulged in before you." (29) "Do you approach men, waylay the highways and perpetrate evil in your gatherings?" The only reply that his people could give was to say, "Bring Allāh's punishment to us if you are from among the truthful." (30) Lūt عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! Assist me against the anarchists." (31) When Our messenger angels came to Ibrāhīm with the glad tidings, they said, "We are to destroy the inhabitants of this town. Its inhabitants are certainly oppressors." (32) Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said, "Lūt is among them." They replied, "We know best who is present in the town. We shall definitely rescue him and his family, except his wife. She will be among those left behind." (33) When Our messenger angels came to Lūt, he was grieved by their presence and his heart constricted. They said, "Do not fear, nor grieve. We will surely rescue you and your family, except your wife. She will be of those left behind." (34) "We will send down on the people of this town a punishment from the sky on account of their disobedience." (35) Indeed We left behind in those towns a sign which is clear to those who have understanding.

SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام PREACHES TO HIS PEOPLE, BUT THEY ARE FINALLY PUNISHED BECAUSE OF THEIR DISOBEDIENCE

After migrating with Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, Allāh made Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام a Prophet and sent him to preach to the people of a town called Sadūm (Sodom), which was the largest of several towns on the bank of the Jordan River. Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام preached to the inhabitants of these towns saying, "Indeed you people engage in an obscenity (homosexuality) which none in the universe has indulged in before you. Do you approach men, waylay the highways and perpetrate evil in your gatherings?" Thus saying, he bade them to forsake these evils. However, "The only reply that his people could give was to say, 'Bring Allāh's punishment to us if you are from among the truthful.'"

".....waylay the highways..." One of the interpretations of this phrase is understood by the translation i.e. they were highway robbers. However, the phrase may also be translated as: "You sever the way (to human reproduction by perpetrating homosexuality)." A third interpretation of the phrase is that they prevented people from passing by their towns by continually harassing them.

"...perpetrate evil in your gatherings." Sayyidah Umm Hāni رضي الله عنها, the daughter of Abu Tālib, once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the evil referred to in this verse. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that they used to throw stones at passers-by and laugh at them. According to another narration, the person whose stone struck the traveller would then "own" him and would proceed to satisfy his passions with the unfortunate fellow. Thereafter, he would pay him a few Dirhams. They even appointed judges to decide who would "own" the person.

Sayyidina Muhammad bin Qāsim رحمه الله says that the "evil" referred to the competitions that they held in passing wind from the anus. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله mentions that they used to indulge in homosexual orgies. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 2 p. 466]

Eventually Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام supplicated to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Assist me against the anarchists." In response to his supplication, Allāh sent some angels to punish the people. The angels first approached Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. Allāh says, "When Our messenger angels came to Ibrahim with the glad tidings..." The tidings were that he will soon father a son, by the name of Is'hāq, who will then father a son called Ya'qūb. In addition to this, they also told him, "We are to destroy the inhabitants of this town. Its inhabitants are certainly oppressors." Ibrahim عليه السلام said, 'Lūt is among them.' They replied, 'We know best who is present in the town. We shall definitely rescue him and his family, except his wife. She will be among those left behind (she will also be punished with them).'"

Thereafter, they proceeded to meet Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. Allāh says, "When Our messenger angels came to Lūt, he was grieved by their presence and his heart constricted." Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام was overcome with grief because he feared that his people will want to satisfy themselves with these angels, who came in the form of handsome youth.

Sensing his apprehension, the angels comforted him saying, "Do not fear, nor grieve. (We have come to destroy these people. Of course,) We will surely rescue you and your family, except your wife. She will be of those left behind. We will send down on the people of this town a punishment from the sky on account of their disobedience."

According to their instructions, Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام led the believers (Mu'minin) out of the town one night. The next morning, Jibr'il عليه السلام lifted all the towns in to the air, overturned them and threw them back down. Thereafter, stones were rained upon them. The incident has been discussed in Surah A'rāf [Surah verses 80-84] Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 77-83], Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 58-77], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 160-175] and Surah Naml [Surah 27, verses 54-58].

Allāh concludes the epic by saying, "Indeed We left behind in those towns a sign which is clear to those who have understanding." The ruins of these towns are present to this day. Allāh says in Surah Saffāt, "You pass by them in the mornings and at nights. Do you not understand?" The Quraysh passed by these ruins often on their trade journeys to Shām (Syria).

The Dead Sea now covers the ruins of these towns. It is unfortunate that people regard their visit to this place as a leisure, instead of an eye-opener.

